CREDENTIALS

Seating for working media at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium/Rex Dockery Field is limited. Credentials are issued to working press only, and are at the discretion of the athletics communications director. Members of the media are asked to request credentials at least two weeks in advance. All requests are handled through sportssystem.com/memphis.

All credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis and can be revoked at any time at the discretion of the athletics communications director. Freelance writers/photographers will only be credentialed for an accredited Agency whose credential request is approved. Credentials for working media are issued according to the following criteria:

1. Local newspapers, wire services, national publications and newspapers from the opponent's area, along with student newspapers representing the University of Memphis and its opponent.
2. Other daily newspapers with preference to those which regularly cover the Memphis Tigers.
3. Radio and television sports department personnel not broadcasting, but considered reporting.
4. Non-daily newspapers, with preference to those which regularly cover Memphis football.
5. Other weekly and monthly publications that regularly cover the Memphis Tigers.
6. Websites (* see restrictions)
7. Professional Scouts

Credentials authorize the use by the Agency, solely for news and editorial coverage of an event including descriptions, accounts, photographs, films, audio or video recordings

MEDIA INFORMATION

Websites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat rooms where people are allowed to post information anonymously will not be issued credentials. If a medium has an online site and it sponsors anonymous forums, it may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, radio, television), but will not be granted additional passes for online staff. Websites must meet NCAA standards for post-season accreditation.

Requests from individuals not employed by an accredited Agency will not be considered. Websites, blogs, message boards and sites in which the primary focus is recruiting will not be credentialed. Online entities will not receive photography credentials.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media/photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at Media Will Call, located at the base of the press box elevator on the west side of the stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes at the end of the first quarter.

PARKING

The press parking lot is located on the southwest side (press box side) of Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium/Rex Dockery Field. The press lot is located just south of the elevator entrance. Admittance to this lot is through the main entrance of the Mid-South Coliseum off Southern Avenue. Passes are issued by the Athletics Communications Office and are limited.

TELEPHONES/INTERNET

Phone lines (hard lines) are limited in the press box at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium/Rex Dockery Field. It is suggested that media members that want to order their own telephone lines should first contact Ron Mears at (901) 678-2397 to inquire as to their seat locations for the game. Once seat assignments are established, media representatives can call AT&T offices at (800) 766-9115 to order their telephone service. The address of Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium is 335 South Hollywood Street, Memphis, TN 38104.

MISSION STATEMENT

The primary mission of the Department of Athletics is to provide a successful athletic program at the highest level of competition. Characterized by academic, athletic and moral excellence in a diverse collegiate environment, the program will abide by the spirit of the rules governing students and intercollegiate athletics and will be known for its good sportsmanship and integrity.

The U of M is an equal opportunity/affirmative action university.

Ethernet connections and wireless Internet are available on the second and fourth floors of the press box. High speed wireless Internet is also available in the photographer's workroom located on the concourse level of the Liberty Bowl. (Outside Section 132).

VISITING RADIO

The University and its flagship station, NewsRadio 600 WREC, provide courtesy telephone lines for the visiting radio broadcast. There are two standard lines and one ISDN line installed in the visiting radio booth on the fourth floor of the press box. Visiting radio can contact Ron Mears for the telephone numbers. Visiting radio wanting to set up in its stadium booth the day before the game must contact Ron Mears in advance so that the request can be coordinated through the stadium manager.

STATS/SERVICE

The athletics communications staff will provide complete game statistics, including play-by-play, post-game notes and coaches' quotes in the press box. Statistics are also delivered to the radio booths throughout the game. Light food and beverages will be available in the press box throughout the game. Please contact a member of the athletics communications staff in advance if you will need statistics e-mailed to your organization. The entire statistical package will be posted at both GoTigersGo.com and collegepressbox.com immediately following the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The University of Memphis locker room is closed to members of the media following all games. At home games, head coach Justin Fuente will be available in the Tigers' interview room after the cooling-off period. Requested players will also be available in the interview room. No media are permitted to interview coaches or players on the field prior to the 10-minute cooling-off period.

SPOTTERS

With at least a week's notice, Memphis will work to retain the services of a spotter for radio and television announcers. Please call our office at (901) 678-2337 in advance, and we will assist you in any way possible.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The sidelines at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium/Rex Dockery Field are very restricted and space is limited. Passes will be issued only for approved photographers representing daily newspapers, wire services, student newspapers, television stations and the athletics communications office. Photographers will be restricted to the areas outside the 25-yard lines. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers or for online sites that are not considered national or the official sites of the schools competing.

No photographers will be allowed inside the team bench areas in accordance with NCAA regulations. In accordance with American Athletic Conference policy, photographers and videographers must shoot outside the three-foot network television area.

Photographers are not permitted to sell photos taken at U of M football games without the written consent of the athletics communications office. All photographers must present their credentials to an athletics communications representative at the base of the press box elevator to receive a photo armband which allows access to the field during the game. All camera personnel must wear the armband in addition to the photo credential to remain on the field.

PRACTICE ATTENDANCE/INTERVIEWS

The first five practices of camp will be open to the media. As is the case with the first five practices, during the remainder of preseason camp, the first four periods of practice (approximately 20 minutes) will be open for photos/B-roll footage. Scrimmages during camp will be closed to the media.

Live practice reports of any kind are not permitted from the practice site (radio, blogs, social media, etc.). Reporting of injuries, personnel usage and schemes is prohibited prior to discussing them with head coach Justin Fuente. All interviews will be coordinated through Ron Mears or Tammy DeGroff of the Athletics Communications staff.

With the first game week and running through the season, Tuesday and Wednesday practices will be open for media attendance.

During the season, interviews with players will be limited to Monday and Tuesday as well as following games on Saturday. Players will be available for interviews prior to team responsibilities (approximately 12:30 to 1:15 p.m.) on Tuesdays. Fuente is available after practice Tuesdays and Wednesdays during game weeks. Away from practice dates and times, interviews requests for Fuente must be placed through Mears by calling (901) 678-2397.

On weeks that games are played on days other than Saturday, please contact Mears or DeGroff for the cut-off days for interviews.

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCES

Head coach Justin Fuente holds his weekly press luncheon on Mondays. The luncheon is held in the assembly room of the Hardaway Hall of Fame. Members of the media are invited to attend the luncheon which begins at 11:30 a.m. Justin Fuente addresses the media at noon. Selected players without conflicting class schedules will also attend the weekly press conference.

collegepressbox.com

STADIUM LOCATION

Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, owned by the City of Memphis and operated by the Memphis Park Commission, is located at 335 South Hollywood Street in Memphis.

STADIUM FACTS

The stadium was constructed in 1965 and serves as the home for the University of Memphis Tigers, the Southern Heritage Classic and the annual AutoZone Liberty Bowl. This year's Liberty Bowl will pit teams from the Big 12 and the Southeastern Conference. Capacity of the Liberty Bowl is 59,308.

LOCKER ROOMS

The Tigers locker room is located in the south tunnel which is directly under the stadium's state-of-the-art HD video board. The visitor locker room is located in the north tunnel.

PLAYING SURFACE

The 2015 season marks the fourth season the Tigers will play on AstroTurf®, a surface that is also used by many college programs and NFL teams. The past seven seasons (2005-11), Memphis played on FieldTurf at the Liberty Bowl.

STADIUM MANAGEMENT

Global Spectrum manages the Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and Fairgrounds as well as more than 120 other public assembly facilities around the world.

Art Davis is the stadium's general manager.

DIRECTIONS TO LIBERTY BOWL STADIUM

FROM THE AIRPORT

From Memphis International Airport, travelers will take the main street from the front of the terminal and when the street splits, will take the left fork towards I-240. This will place you on Airways Blvd. north. Stay on Airways Blvd. north, over I-240 and continue north for approximately three miles. The Memphis Fairgrounds will appear on your right. Proceed to the corner of Airways Blvd. and Central Avenue. Turn right on Central and travel two stoplights to Hollywood Street. Turn right on Hollywood, and Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium will be on your right.

FROM DOWNTOWN

If you are staying downtown in Memphis, take Union Avenue East for approximately four miles. You will cross several major streets such as I-240, Cleveland, and East Parkway before coming to the corner of Hollywood Street and Union Avenue. Turn right at the stoplight on to Hollywood Street and travel approximately one mile to Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, which will be located on your right.

FROM EAST MEMPHIS

If you are staying in a hotel in East Memphis, you will need to take Poplar Avenue West as if you are going to downtown Memphis. Follow Poplar Avenue for approximately six miles to the corner of Central and Hollywood Street. Turn left on Hollywood and travel approximately one-and-a-half miles to Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, which will be on your left. If traffic is heavy on Poplar, you might take Central Avenue to the stadium. As you are traveling East on Poplar, you can turn left at the corner of Poplar and Goodlet. This is in the area of the University of Memphis and approximately two miles East of the stadium. Immediately after turning left on Goodlet, turn right on Central Avenue and travel two miles to the corner of Hollywood and Central. Turn left on Hollywood and the stadium will be on your right.

FROM WEST OF MEMPHIS

If you are coming into Memphis from Arkansas and points west of Memphis, you can take either bridge over the Mississippi River. The DeSoto Bridge (I-40 Bridge) will take you to I-240 South. Take I-240 South until you reach the exit for Poplar Avenue East. Take the Poplar East exit and travel approximately three miles to the corner of Poplar and Hollywood Street. Turn right and the stadium will be approximately one and a half miles on your right.

FROM EAST OF MEMPHIS

If you are arriving in Memphis from the East and you are on I-40 west, continue to head East as I-40 will turn into Sam Cooper Blvd. Stay on Sam Cooper Blvd. to Hollywood Street and turn left and travel two and a half miles to the stadium.

The University of Memphis football program is fortunate to have one of the finest facilities in the nation in which to play its home games. Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, "built by the citizens of Memphis," is a memorial to the veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean War. The renovated 59,306-seat facility, built in 1965 at a cost of $3.7 million by the city of Memphis, is operated by the Memphis Park Services Department.

The Tigers inaugurated the stadium in the fall of 1965 and in 50 years have compiled a 153-141-7 record in the Liberty Bowl. The stadium features an AstroTurf® playing surface, spacious locker rooms and a four-level press box, which features a VIP stadium club. The playing surface, which had been natural grass through the 2004 season, was replaced with a FieldTurf surface prior to the 2005 campaign. For the 2012 season, the surface changed to AstroTurf®, a surface used in several FBS collegiate and NFL stadiums. The field surface upgrade was part of major renovations to the stadium for 2012.

The centerpiece of the 2012 renovations at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium was a $2.5 million video scoreboard and sound system. A generous donation provided by FedEx to the UofM paved the way for the video board/sound system upgrades.

The south end zone features a 98x48-foot, state-of-the-art video board with a sound system located on the sides of the structure. The speakers and cap/or crown of the scoreboard makes the structure's actual size grow to 106 feet by 58 feet.

In 2012, the north end zone was updated with an LED board that is 38x10 feet in size.

In addition to the $850,000 FieldTurf playing surface for the 2005 season, the Liberty Bowl underwent several aesthetic changes the last six years (2005-11) that made the stadium look more like the "Home of the Tigers."

Prior to the start of the 2006 season, Jim McDonald of McDonald Outdoor provided several large photo wraps on the walls of the stadium's entrances to welcome Tigers fans. Graphics wraps were unveiled around the stadium's interior in 2008, and a face-lift project for the stadium's restrooms on the lower concourse was completed prior to the start of the season.

A major renovation project took place at the Liberty Bowl prior to the start of the 2009 season when the Tigers and visitors' locker rooms both underwent makeovers. The most notable change was the separation of the two locker rooms in the north tunnel. The Tigers' locker room remained in the north tunnel, while the visitors' locker room moved to the stadium's south tunnel.

Renovations in both 2009 and 2013 have brought the stadium into compliance with ADA specifications. The two separate renovations lowered the stadium's capacity from 62,380 to 59,308.

In the spring of 2010, the Memphis City Council approved a $15.7 million capital improvements budget to upgrade the grounds surrounding the Liberty Bowl. Included in the renovations was the construction of a grand entrance off East Parkway which City Council approved naming "Tiger Lane" in honor of the facility's longest tenant — the University of Memphis. "Tiger Lane" officially opened Sept. 18, 2010, when Memphis hosted Middle Tennessee.

Prior to the recent upgrades in the 2000s, the previous major renovation came in 1987 to a tune of $19.5 million. Included in the 1987 facelift was the addition of the sky-suites located on the east side of the stadium, approximately 12,000 seats in the stands and a stadium club to accommodate donors. Other areas of the stadium also were vastly improved, (including: lighting system, playing surface, handicap seating area, concession stands and restroom facilities).

In December of 1983, city of Memphis officials named the playing surface Rex Dockery Field in honor of the late Tigers coach who was killed in a plane crash.

During the 2013 season, the University honored Dockery with a field redication ceremony. In attendance were the families of the four individuals who lost their lives as a commemorative plaque was unveiled honoring those individuals at the Tiger Lane entrance to the stadium.

The stadium also hosts the annual AutoZone Liberty Bowl Game, as well as the Southern Heritage Classic.

Throughout the 50-year history, several professional teams have called the Liberty Bowl home. In 1974, the Grizzlies of the World Football League played their only season in Memphis. From 1978-80, the stadium hosted the Memphis Rogues of the North American Soccer League, and later in 1984-85, the Showboats of the U.S. Football League (USFL). Three other professional football organizations spent one season in the Liberty Bowl, including the NFL's Memphis Maniax (2001), the NFL's Tennessee Oilers (1997) and the CFL's Memphis Mad Dogs (1995).

The largest crowd to witness a Tigers game at the Liberty Bowl was the record-setting 65,885 that attended Memphis' 1996 stunning upset of No. 6 Tennessee. The Tigers defeated the Vols 21-17 before a CBS Sports regionally-televised audience. The entire nation, however, saw Memphis' game-winning drive when CBS carried the final five minutes nationally.

In 2004, Memphis hosted Louisville for a Thursday night ESPN broadcast. A crowd of 52,384 came out for the game, marking the largest Tigers crowd for a non-SEC opponent. That same season, Memphis set a home attendance record with an average of 41,175 fans per game (five games). The previous record was 40,622 in 2003 (seven games).

In 2006, the University of Memphis began a new broadcasting agreement with Clear Channel Radio, making NewsRadio 600 WREC the flagship station for all Tigers football and men's basketball games through the 2010-11 season. The contract was renewed in the summer of 2011 and runs through the 2015-16 season.

NewsRadio 6000 WREC is in its 91st year covering the Mid-South region as the station Memphis turns to for news. The flagship allows Tiger games to be broadcast in HD Digital. The 600 WREC signal allows broadcast to be heard as far as Jonesboro to the north, Little Rock to the west, and Oxford to the south.

Dave Woloshin returns as play-by-play commentator for his 19th season. Woloshin, a well-known sports figure in Memphis, is in his 30th year of being associated with the Tigers broadcast team. He began with Tigers television broadcasts in 1986, and for the last 18 years, has handled the radio broadcast for Memphis football and basketball. Woloshin came to Memphis as the sports anchor for WHBQ-TV 13 in 1981. He handled play-by-play duties for the Memphis RiverKings and the Memphis Americans, Storm and Rogues soccer teams. Woloshin also worked with broadcast teams for ESPN and SportsChannel America and numerous high school football games of the week.

Woloshin is married to the former Gayle Stein of Memphis. The couple has four children: Nathan, Jacob, Brett and Brendan.

Jarvis Greer, a well-known local television personality and former Tiger football letterman, begins his third season as analyst for Memphis football broadcasts.

A native Memphian, Greer played for the Tigers during the tenure of head coach Richard Williamson playing defensive back as well as seeing action on special teams in 1977 and 1978. The Christian Brothers High School graduate came to the Tigers in the spring of 1977 and by the start of the fall season had earned a scholarship and a spot at safety in the defensive secondary.

The two-year letterwinner received his degree from then Memphis State University in Communications/Fine Arts and immediately began his 30-plus year career with WMC-TV. Greer has served the local NBC affiliate as a reporter, photographer, editor, assignment editor and anchor. During his television career, he has received a Regional Emmy and is a three-time Best of Memphis Award winner for his "Friday Football Fever Show" covering prep football in the Mid-South.

Greer was the 2012 recipient of the Billy J. Murphy Award. The honor is presented each year to a former University of Memphis student-athlete who has excelled in his chosen profession after graduation.

Greer and his wife Emily, have two children who are graduates of the University of Memphis, daughter McKenzie and a son J.J., who lettered four years on the Memphis Tiger soccer team (2009-13).

Native Memphian Forrest Goodman is entering his 17th season as the pregame/postgame host for the Memphis football and basketball broadcasts. Goodman also serves as the host of the Justin Fuente and Josh Pastner radio call-in shows.

Prior to joining the Tigers broadcast team in 1999, Goodman was the play-by-play voice of all sports for Delta State University and also spent 10 years handling high school football play-by-play.

Goodman and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Abigail, and reside in Bartlett.

Matt Dillon will serve as the football sideline reporter for a 12th-straight season. Dillon, who is in his 42nd year working in the sports industry, also serves as the co-host of the Memphis pregame and postgame shows for football and basketball games on 600 WREC. He has hosted the shows for the last 13 years.

In addition to his football duties, Dillon has handled the color analyst spot for Memphis basketball radio broadcasts since 2002-03. The 1973 Memphis graduate began his long broadcast association with Tigers sports when he did play-by-play for WKNO-TV from 1973-2001. In the 1980s, Dillon also served as an analyst on WMC and handled play-by-play duties on WPTY-TV for road contests. From 1995-2000, Dillon served in several capacities in broadcasting Tigers football and basketball, including hosting coaches shows in the late 1990s.

Dillon and his wife, Marni, reside in Germantown.

Jeff Brightwell, the "Voice of Tigers Baseball and Women's Basketball," serves as the broadcast team captain, handling the majority of the production and engineering duties.

A 1996 Memphis graduate, Brightwell came to Memphis in 2003 after spending six years in Missouri. He has done play-by-play for Southeast Missouri State, Central Methodist College, Truman State, Moberly Community College and the Memphis RiverKings.

The last 12 years, the native Memphian has broadcast both home and away contests for Memphis baseball and women's basketball on WUMR 91.7 FM. He also hosts a weekly Tigers update web show that is streamed through the Memphis Tiger Network on the athletics department website.

Brightwell also calls play-by-play for American Athletic Conference championship events on its network.

Brightwell was named the College Baseball Foundation's National Broadcaster of the Month in April 2005 and was honored as the Sportscaster of the Year in 2002 by the Missouri Broadcasters Association. He also serves as the public address announcer for the Triple-A Memphis Redbirds.

CONTRACT WITH ESPN HELPING DRIVE MEMPHIS' NATIONAL EXPOSURE

The American Athletic Conference's contract with ESPN provides unprecedented exposure for its member institutions.

The multiyear, wide-ranging television contract with ESPN to telecast its football, basketball and Olympic sports runs through the 2019-20 academic year.

The contract includes comprehensive national exposure via the acknowledged leader in college sports television, the ESPN networks.

"The extraordinary exposure provided by the ESPN networks will give viewers the opportunity to see the exciting competition and intense rivalries that will characterize our conference," Commissioner Mike Aresco said when the contract was originally announced.

With the 2014-15 academic year, football, basketball and Olympic sports were all under one agreement. The conference has retained marketing rights, providing lucrative sponsorship opportunities.

In football, the new contract provides unprecedented national coverage for the league. In essence, the extensive national television coverage replaces previous syndication and local telecasts. All conference controlled games, which are conference games and non-conference home games, will be televised.

Nearly 90 percent of the games are carried on national broadcast or national cable.

The conference championship game, which will be played for the first time in 2015, will be carried by ABC or ESPN on Championship Saturday.

In men's basketball, all conference controlled games are televised.

More than 63 percent of the games are carried on national broadcast or national cable, which will be a minimum of 107 games.

The entire conference postseason basketball tournament is televised nationally. The championship game is televised on either ABC or ESPN.

In women's basketball, there is tremendous national and regional coverage.

Nearly 60 games are slated to be televised on national cable, regional sports networks and ESPN3, including the entire women's basketball postseason tournament. Eighteen regular-season games will be televised nationally.

The women's basketball tournament championship game will be on ESPN or ESPN2. The semifinals also will be on national cable.

In Olympic sports, numerous championship contests are slated to be televised nationally.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT - DR. M. DAVID RUDD

M. David Rudd was named the 12th president of the University of Memphis (U of M) on May 1, 2014. He previously served as the University's provost and brings a distinguished 30 year academic and research record to the position.

Throughout his career, he has been responsible, in part, for more than $18 million in research grant funding, including more than $3 million for research to help military populations through the U.S. Army/Department of Defense Military Operational Medicine Research Program. He continues his affiliation with the National Center for Veterans Studies at the University of Utah and the University of Memphis as co-founder and scientific director, a role that has garnered much national attention. His recent clinical trial targeting suicide attempters in the military demonstrated historic success, reducing post-treatment risk for attempts by more than sixty percent. He has testified seven times before the U.S. Congress on issues related to veterans and suicide and is a sought after expert by the national media.

As the chief executive officer and leader of the University of Memphis executive team, Dr. Rudd is involved in all aspects of university life, cutting across academic, financial, development, community relations, research, and athletics. The University of Memphis is a comprehensive doctoral-extensive institution with approximately 22,000 students who have opportunities for study in 250 different areas within our eleven colleges and schools. The economic impact of the University of Memphis to the local economy approximates $1.43 billion.

From our opening in 1912, it was reasoned that "every great city deserves a great university," establishing the foundation for a relationship that has endured for more than 100 years. The University of Memphis engages in a broad range of important and impactful efforts with the Memphis community. Under Dr. Rudd's leadership, the U of M has implemented strategies that will expand these efforts, improve overall efficiency, celebrate their enduring success, and enable us to work with the community in a thoughtful manner - as we plan our future together. We continue to engage community leaders in the design of academic programs that meet specific employer and employee requirements. Additionally, we work with government, business, philanthropic and community organizations in cutting-edge research, and are committed to service that meets the unique needs in the mid-south and our nation.

During his tenure at the U of M, President Rudd has emphasized the need to improve access, accountability, flexibility, and innovation at all levels. Initiatives for students focus on admissions and enrollment, streamlined advising processes, academic coaching and mentorship, targeted financial support for students withdrawing prior to completion, academic and administrative efficiency, and a commitment to holding the line on tuition increases. Student success is a priority at the University of Memphis. Under his leadership, our freshman applications have increased by 186%, our donor commitments are at their highest level in five years, and, after no tuition increase during the 2014-15 academic year, the tuition increase for undergraduates during the current academic year has been held to 3.7%, the lowest increase since 1997. Fundraising reached a record level during his first year, exceeding $37 million, and the University is poised to open a new living-learning facility, the Community Health Building that will house the Lowenberg School of Nursing and the School of Communication and Sciences and Disorders. The U of M will break ground on a new recreation facility this coming year, one that promises to be among the best in the nation, along with new athletics facilities. Fundraising continues for both a music performance facility and a new research building.

Dr. Rudd earned the Ph.D. from the University of Texas at Austin in psychology and holds a master's degree in psychology from there as well. He holds a bachelor's degree from Princeton University.

He and his wife, Dr. Loretta Rudd, an associate professor, clinical, at the University of Memphis, have two children, Nicholas and Emma.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR - TOM BOWEN

Just two and half years after assuming the position of Director of Athletics at the University of Memphis, Tom Bowen stood on a riser at midfield of Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and hoisted a conference championship trophy.

Celebrating the Tigers' first American Athletic Conference title on a late November evening in 2014 was another benchmark for Bowen who began leading the University of Memphis athletic department in June of 2012. In his short time leading the department, he has the Tigers roaring in a new and exciting direction.

Bowen began his tenure with an athletics program poised to make a league move from Conference USA to the Big East. Despite the conference realignment carousel continuing to rotate nearly halfway into his first year, Bowen's steady leadership helped Memphis become a charter member of The American Athletic Conference, which began its inaugural year July 1, 2013.

The Memphis athletics leader played an integral role in the formation of The American Athletic Conference and was instrumental in bringing the league's first men's basketball tournament to the Bluff City in March of 2014.

In addition to guiding Memphis through the conference move, Bowen has placed his stamp on Tigers athletics. One of his first missions was to evaluate and restructure the athletics department.

Bowen developed a strategic plan to increase the athletic department's fundraising efforts. Under his direction, the Elma Roane Fieldhouse -- home to Memphis women's basketball and volleyball -- improvements were completed with a state-of-the-art weight room, a four-lane training track, an elevated cardio platform, players' lounge and an enlarged training room with Grimm Tubs-hydroponic pools for injury rehabilitation.

In November of 2012, Bowen secured a multi-million dollar gift from the Helen and Jabie Hardin Charitable Trust to support women's athletics. The first phase of the generous gift was the design and construction of a new track and field complex on the University's Park Avenue campus. As part of the Hardin Charitable Trust gift, the second phase includes a clubhouse for the Tigers' softball program. The new softball clubhouse plans include coaches' offices, meeting and recruiting rooms, indoor pitching and batting areas, an athletic training room, equipment room and laundry room.

In December of 2013, Interim President Brad Martin and Tom Bowen announced that alumni Bill and Nancy Laurie had made a gift of $10 million to the capital campaign for athletic facilities. This is the single largest philanthropic gift in the history of the athletic department, and the second-largest gift in the history of the University of Memphis.

By securing the $10 million lead gift, the athletic department leadership reached a significant benchmark in a capital campaign goal of $40 million, less than 120 days after the plan was unveiled by President Martin. The capital campaign calls for a new men's basketball practice and training facility and an indoor football practice complex. It will additionally fund comprehensive upgrades and renovations to existing facilities including FedExPark and the Hardin Family Sports Complex.

Bowen's respect from his colleagues along with his experience and knowledge of football were pivotal in landing him a position on the College Football Playoff organization's Athletic Directors Advisory Council in early 2014. Previously, he served on the Athletic Directors Advisory Board of the BCS in 2013.

Bowen was voted to represent the American Athletic Conference on the NCAA Division I Leadership Council by his fellow athletic directors from the conference in July, 2014. The NCAA Leadership Council is comprised of athletics directors, faculty representatives and conference commissioners from every Division I conference, and serves as an advisory body to the NCAA Division I Board of Directors.

Headlined by the Tiger football team's American Athletic Conference championship in 2014, Bowen's first three years have been successful.

In addition to capturing an American title, football went on to win the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

The Memphis men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament third round in each of Bowen's first two years. The 2012-13 season saw the Tigers post the sixth, 30-win season in school history as well as sweep the Conference USA regular season and tournament titles. The 2013-14 squad finished in a three-way tie for third place in the ultra-competitive new American Athletic Conference, including two wins over defending national champion Louisville. The 2013-14 season also saw the basketball program rank in the top-10 in home attendance in NCAA Division I basketball for the fifth time in the last eight years. Memphis posted a road win over a defending national champion for a second straight year in 2015, winning at UConn on Senior Day.

Other athletic programs have enjoyed unprecedented success during Bowen's tenure heading the department.

The rifle team posted a third-place finish in small bore at the NCAA National Championship in 2014, the best finish in program history.

The men's tennis squad won the Conference USA championship in 2013. In 2014, men's tennis advanced to the NCAA Championships for a third-consecutive year. In 2013, the Tigers won their first NCAA Regional with an upset over Ole Miss and advanced to the program's first NCAA Championships Round of 16. In 2015, Memphis' women's tennis team sent a doubles entry to the NCAA Championships in Hayden Perez's first season as head coach. On the men's side, Memphis had both a doubles team and a singles player entry in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association

(ITA) rankings after freshman Andrew Watson captured an ITA Regional Singles Championship.

Women's golf had freshman Michaela Fletcher win her way from the NCAA South Bend Regional to the 2015 NCAA Finals, a first in school history. The men's golf squad earned an NCAA Regional berth for a fourth-straight year in 2014. During Bowen's three-year tenure, the Memphis track and field squads have sent 21 student-athletes to the NCAA Outdoor Championships, with 15 earning All-America honors.

In the classroom, Memphis had had strong performances in Bowen's three years.

In 2015, the NCAA announced its latest NCAA Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR) data and the numbers continued to reflect the success University of Memphis student-athletes are accomplishing.

All of Memphis' teams earned scores of 950 or better for the last four-year data, which encompasses through the 2013-14 academic year. Memphis' institutional average of scores for sports from the 2013-14 academic year was 984.

Memphis had four of its athletic programs receive NCAA Public Recognition Awards. Men's Cross Country, Mixed Rifle, Women's Golf and Women's Volleyball all earned perfect scores of 1,000 for their multiyear APRs in the latest public report.

In May 2015, Memphis had 54 student-athletes graduate from the university and since August 2013, Memphis has now graduated 171 student-athletes with their bachelor's degree.

Of the school's 375 student-athletes, 57 percent earned a grade point average of 3.0 or higher for the 2015 Spring semester.

Prior to taking his current post, Bowen served as the athletics director at San Jose State University from 2004-12. Bowen previously worked with the San Francisco 49ers Foundation and in intercollegiate athletics at the University of California and Saint Mary's College.

The 1983 graduate of the University of Notre Dame majored in theology/sociology and spent time studying for the priesthood with the Holy Cross Fathers. Bowen went on to earn a master's degree in administration/education from the University of San Francisco in 1990.

He and his wife, Mia, are the parents of three children: sons Andrew and Peter, and daughter, McKenna.

In a city known for doing things our way, there's a university that's driven to do the same. At the UofM, we are all about blurring the outdated lines of academic pursuits and active ones. Students come here not just to learn, but to experience. To explore. Create. Solve. Lead. Because an education isn't something you get. It's something you do. For over 100 years, our University has been a great gift to our community, a great opportunity to our students, and a source of knowledge, discovery, creativity and artistic expression for our nation. Founded in 1912, we have been known as both the West Tennessee Normal School and Memphis State University. Today, we are the University of Memphis — home to approximately 22,000 students from 50 states and 87 countries. Even with so many people in Tiger Nation, our students never feel like a number, but like the amazing, clever individuals they are.

Our nationally ranked programs consistently make the U.S. News & World Report lists, including a spot among America's Top 10 universities for offering the finest internship programs to students. Other top UofM rankings* include our online MBA program (#23); audiology (#12) and speech-language programs (#15); rehabilitation counseling program (#17); and the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law facility (#1 by preLaw magazine). We are a major research university with six Centers of Excellence and home to the FedEx Institute of Technology.

As a doctoral-granting, research-intensive university, the UofM is an engine of innovation and creativity. Our alumni are employed virtually everywhere across the globe.

Driven by doing isn't just a slogan. It's what you see happening in every corner on campus. Every. Single. Day. We've had a lot of firsts, but our most memorable years are yet to come. Having celebrated our centennial anniversary in 2012, our faculty, staff, alumni and benefactors have never been more willing, able and generous in their efforts to build an academic environment that makes a lifelong impact.

Foremost among the University's goals is to recruit outstanding faculty, enroll motivated students and provide distinctive learning experiences so our students will one day contribute in immeasurable ways to Memphis and the world. Currently, the UofM offers 17 bachelor's degrees in more than 250 areas of study, master's degrees in 54 subjects and doctoral degrees in 25 disciplines. We also offer a specialist's degree in education. Aspiring lawyers come from all over to earn their juris doctorate from our awe-inspiring Memphis Law program located in historic downtown Memphis. Degree programs at the University of Memphis are divided into 11 colleges and schools — College of Arts & Sciences, Fogelman College of Business & Economics,

College of Communication and Fine Arts, College of Education, Herff College of Engineering, the School of Public Health, University College, Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, Loewenberg School of Nursing, Kemmons Wilson School of Hospitality and Resort Management and the School of Communication Sciences and Disorders.

Our Helen Hardin Honors Program attracts the most high-achieving students than any other honors program in the state of Tennessee. The brightest minds land at the UofM because we offer the best of a small liberal arts school with the wide-ranging opportunities of a large, nationally recognized research university.

In addition to the main campus in the heart of East Memphis, we established UofM Lambuth in Jackson, Tenn., in fall 2011. We also have off-site campuses in Bartlett, Collierville, Covington, Dyersburg, Jackson, Millington and Humboldt.

One of the University's strongest contributions to the community is its alumni. Many have become nationally and internationally renowned in their fields as corporate executives, elected officials, award-winning actors and best-selling authors. More than 70,000 UofM alumni live within a 40-mile radius of Memphis.

As a member of the American Athletic Conference, the Tigers compete at the highest level of NCAA collegiate athletics, and have garnered national attention for their work in the community, in the classroom and on the playing field. For two straight years, Tiger Athletics was recognized by the NCAA as having an Academic Progress Rate (APR) among the top 10 percent nationally for baseball, men's basketball, women's golf and women's tennis.

There is no place like the UofM to nurture a unique style of learning that is about doing. College life in the 901 has never been more extraordinary. Unlimited opportunities await those with the drive, imagination and integrity to seize them. We are an anchor in the Memphis area and a magnet for gifted students and faculty who want to do more. Be more. Experience more.

CITY OF MEMPHIS

Considered the “Home of the Blues” and the “Birthplace of Rock ‘n Roll,” the city of Memphis’ musical roots run deep. However, music is just a chapter in the history as well as the future of the city located in the heart of Mid-America.

Memphis, named after the capital of ancient Egypt, has big city amenities with a small-town feel. Whether you are a hardcore sports enthusiast, a history buff, a music aficionado, or you just like to relax and watch as boats travel the Mississippi River, Memphis has something for everyone.

Downtown Memphis has continued to grow and thrive, and two of the most visible projects have been the construction of AutoZone Park and FedExForum.

AutoZone Park is the home of the Memphis Redbirds, the St. Louis Cardinals’ Triple-A club. The 14,320-seat stadium includes 1,500 club seats, 48 luxury suites and is located at the corner of Third Street and Union Avenue across from the world-famous Peabody Hotel. The Memphis Tigers baseball team also plays some of its more high-profile opponents in the top-notch facility.

The city’s newest downtown project is FedExForum, an entertainment arena that houses both the Memphis Grizzlies of the National Basketball Association and the University of Memphis men’s basketball team. The $250 million state-of-the-art arena features a 35,000-square-foot outdoor plaza where fans of all ages can gather before an event. The arena has over 100 points of sale for concession stands and four full-service restaurants. FedExForum is located one block south of Beale Street.

Memphis’ musical roots can be traced to band leader W.C. Handy, who wrote the first blues song here in 1909, a campaign theme for Memphis mayor “Boss” Crump called “Boss Crump Blues” and later published as the “The Memphis Blues.” The sound soon caught on and blues bands filled the clubs along Beale. Young musicians who have performed along Beale include Muddy Waters, Furry Lewis, Albert King, Bobby “Blue” Bland and B.B. King.

Beale Street has rapidly become the entertainment center of Memphis, and visitors and locals alike enjoy the food and music offered in the various nightclubs.

Where Beale Street meets the Mississippi River is Tom Lee Park, site of the annual Beale Street Music Festival. The weekend-long event is just a part of the month-long Memphis in May International Festival, which also includes the World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest and the Sunset Symphony.

Located within a block of Beale is Gibson Guitar Memphis, which includes factory tours and cultural exhibits. Across the street is the Smithsonian’s Rock ‘n’ Soul Museum located at the FedExForum, which includes artifacts documenting music’s past.

Memphis’ musical roots also include Stax and Hi-Records as well as Sun Records recording studio. Stax became known for “sweet soul music” through such artists as the MarKeys, Booker T.

and the MGs, Otis Redding, Wilson Pickett, Sam and Dave and Isaac Hayes. The Stax Museum reopened on its original location at McLemore and Crump in the summer of 2003 and offers visitors a complete history of “Soulsville USA.”

One of Hi-Records’ premier artists was Al Green. Sun Records’ most famous recording artist was Elvis Presley and also boasted Jerry Lee Lewis, Carl Perkins and Johnny Cash among its recording artists.

Elvis Presley’s Graceland is one of the five most-visited home tours in America and is the most famous home in the United States after the White House. In 1991, Graceland was placed on the National Register of Historical Places. Over 600,000 visitors tour Graceland each year. Also located downtown is the beautiful Orpheum Theater, which serves as a venue for performances by Ballet Memphis, the Memphis Symphony Orchestra and traveling Broadway shows, as well as the Orpheum Classic Movies series and other concerts.

The city’s location makes Memphis a major distribution hub with two interstate highways intersecting the city. Memphis is also home of FedEx, the nation’s largest package carrier which makes Memphis International Airport the world’s busiest cargo airport. Over 500 commercial passenger flights originate from Memphis International each day.

Ranked by The Sporting News as one of the “Top 50 Sports Cities In the Country,” the city of Memphis is a large metropolitan city with a hometown feel. From its big-city industry such as FedEx and the Memphis International Airport to its family recreation areas such as Shelby Farms and the Memphis Zoo, the city boasts all the amenities one would expect in a city with over 1 million residents, while retaining the charm and down-to-earth feel of a small town.

HISTORY

When the University of Memphis first fielded a football team in the fall of 1912, no one had selected a nickname for the squad.

Early references to the football team tabbed them only as the Blue and Gray Warriors of West Tennessee Normal School.

After the final game of the 1914 season, there was a student parade. During this event, several Normal students shouted, "We fight like Tigers." The nickname was born.

More and more the nickname "Tigers" was used, particularly in campus publications. But, it did not catch on with the newspapers downtown. They continued to use "Normals" or the "Blue and Gray" when referring to the University.

In the late 1920s, student publications and downtown newspapers began referring to the football team as the "Teachers" or "Tutors." The Tigers nickname would return, but not until 1939 was it finally adopted as the official nickname for the University of Memphis.

For over 40 years, the sideline mascot for the University of Memphis has been a Bengal Tiger named TOM. TOM attends all Tigers football home games, and he can also be found at many other University events throughout the year.

TOM travels in style in a custom-designed, climate-controlled trailer and always with a sheriff patrol escort.

As one of only two universities in America with a live tiger mascot, The University of Memphis is unique in its tiger tradition. As a project of the Highland Hundred, no public or University funds are used to provide for TOM's needs, and no University resources are required in his care.

TOM is a powerful and majestic symbol of the University of Memphis, and his presence presents constant opportunities to educate Tigers fans young and old through the preservation of one of the world's most recognizable endangered species.

The first Tiger, TOM, was procured by the Highland Hundred football boosters in 1972 and served the U of M faithfully for nearly 20 years until passing away in February of 1992. The Highland Hundred officially presented TOM to the University in a ceremony at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium on Nov. 11, 1972, during a football game against the University of Cincinnati.

TOM had initially been named 'Shane' at the suggestion of the breeder's daughter. Once in Memphis, though, a contest was held to name the mascot. More than 2,500 entries were submitted. The list was ultimately reduced to two choices, Shane and TOM, which stands for Tigers Of Memphis. TOM won.

In the fall of 1991, the Highland Hundred Tiger Guard received TOM II as a gift from Tom and Carolyn Atchison of Florence, Ala. TOM II served his university with pride for 17 years through 2008, passing away on Oct. 15 of that year.

Shortly after TOM II's death, the Tiger Guard began the search for a new tiger to serve as TOM III, and a stroke of good luck was realized in a discussion with the Wisconsin Big Cat Rescue & Educational Center in Rock Springs, Wis. Faced with three new cubs born Aug. 31, 2008, after an unexpected pregnancy at their facility, founders Jeff Kozlowski and Jenny Meyer offered to donate one of their young tigers to serve as TOM III.

TOM III was introduced at a press conference on Nov. 17, 2008, and the Tiger Guard officially presented him to the University on Nov. 22 during a football game against the UCF.

U OF M ALMA MATER

Stand Firm, O Alma Mater
Through All The Years To Come;
In Days Of Youth And Beauty
Thy Halls Have Been Our Home.
In Time Of Preparation Great Lessons Didst Thou Teach
Till Now O Alma Mater,
The Stars We'll Strive To Reach.

Lead On, O Alma Mater
They Sons To Highways,
Give Light And Truth Unto Them
For All Their Coming Days.
To Thee We'll Give All Honor,
Our Hopes Abide In Thee,
For Thou, O Alma Mater,
Hast Made Us Ever Free.

U OF M FIGHT SONG

Go Tigers Go, Go On To Victory,
Be A Winner Thru And Thru;
Fight Tigers, Fight Cause We're Going All The Way --
Fight, Fight
For The Blue And Gray And Say --

Let's Go Tigers Go,
Go On To Victory.
See Our Colors Bright And True;
It's Fight Now Without A Fear,
Fight Now Let's Shout A Cheer,
Shout For Dear Memphis U.
(Yell)
Go Tigers Go
Yea -- Tiger Go!

THE LOGO

The University of Memphis' official logo was redesigned by Craig Thompson, from Disciple Design in Memphis, Tenn.

The original logo was an MSU with a leaping Tiger coming out from behind the letter. The new logo is an "M" with a leaping Tiger coming up over the center of the "M."

SCHOOL COLORS

The University of Memphis' official school colors of Blue and Gray were selected in the early 1900s.

The colors were chosen in an effort to show unity in a nation that was still recovering from the effects of the Civil War. The student body thought that by picking the colors of the North and the South, the school would show a togetherness among all students.

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE - #AMERICANRISING

In the course of its first two seasons, the American Athletic Conference has taken a place at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics, earning a collection of national team and individual championships and football postseason wins that place The American among the elite Division I conferences.

The American consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Connecticut, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University and the University of Tulsa.

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has written an impressive list of accomplishments, both in and out of the competitive arena.

The league has produced three NCAA championship teams – UConn men's basketball in 2014 and UConn women's basketball in 2014 and 2015 – and two individuals who have won NCAA titles, most recently SMU's Bryson Dechambeau, who was the 2015 national champion in men's golf. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, the semifinal and final rounds of the NIT and the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship. Half of the conference's baseball-playing members reached the NCAA Championship in 2015, while The American had the best men's basketball postseason record of any conference in 2014, when conference teams were a combined 13-4. Teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer and men's golf.

The American is quickly making its mark in professional sports as well, beginning with the selection of UCF quarterback Blake Bortles by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft.

More recently, a number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer. UConn's Cyle Larin was the No. 1 overall pick in the 2015 Major League Soccer SuperDraft as he was chosen by Orlando City SC. UCF's Romario Williams was taken by the Montreal Impact at No. 3, giving The American two of the top three picks in the draft. UConn's Sergio Campbell went at No. 19 to the Columbus Crew as the third pick from the conference in the first round.

In the 2015 NFL Draft, UCF's Breshad Perriman and UConn's Byron Jones were selected consecutively in the first round – Perriman to the Baltimore Ravens at No. 26 overall and Jones to the Dallas Cowboys at No. 27. It was the second straight year in which The American had at least two first-round selections.

UConn's Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis was selected by the Seattle Storm with the No. 3 pick in the 2015 WNBA Draft, while UConn's Kiah Stokes went 11th overall to the New York Liberty.

Cincinnati outfielder Ian Happ, the 2015 American Athletic Conference Player of the Year, was chosen by the Chicago Cubs with the No. 9 overall pick in the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft.

In football, two American Athletic Conference football teams were ranked in the top 15 of the final 2013 Associated Press poll, while Memphis finished the season in the top 25 of the 2014 polls as Tigers tied UCF and Cincinnati for the conference title. Six of the 12 teams that compete in The American in 2015 played in bowl games to cap the 2014 season as Memphis, Houston and Navy earned postseason victories.

Teams in The American have enjoyed almost unprecedented success since the conference's formation. Memphis finished with 10 wins in football for the first time since 1938. SMU advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship for the first time since 1993. UCF and Houston have both achieved top-10 rankings in baseball in the past two years. USF finished the 2014-15 season at No. 8 in the final men's golf national ranking. The UConn women's basketball team won its NCAA-record ninth and 10th national championships as a member of The American.

The American Athletic Conference holds media rights partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports which give the conference outstanding national exposure on the two industry leaders in sports television. The football portion of the contract calls for nearly 90 percent of conference-controlled games on national broadcast or national cable platforms. The first American Athletic Conference Football Championship, which will be played Dec. 5, 2015, will be carried on either ABC or ESPN on Championship Saturday.

In men's basketball, the television deal calls for all conference-controlled games to be televised, with more than 63 percent slotted for national broadcast or national cable – a minimum of 107 games. The entire postseason tournament will be televised, including the championship game, which will be on ABC or ESPN. Sixty percent of the American's women's basketball games will be carried on national cable, regional sports networks or ESPN3, while the conference has a multi-year agreement with CBS Sports Network for coverage of select baseball games.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in either the Vizio Fiesta Bowl or the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with 12 bowls for the current six-year cycle, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations to member institutions and their fans.

The American Athletic Conference administers to its membership from a state-of-the-art office located in Providence, R.I. The location of the conference headquarters – just steps from the city's Amtrak station and 10 minutes from T.F. Green International Airport – gives the conference easy access to its member schools.

The conference headquarters is equipped with a complete video production studio, serving as the home of the American Digital Network, and small- and large-scale meeting rooms to accommodate the many coaches' and administrators' meetings held on-site each year.

DIVISION ALIGNMENT FOR 2015

American Athletic Conference Commissioner Mike Aresco announced in May, 2014 that two divisions of six teams each will begin play in the 2015 football season, culminating in the first American Athletic Conference Championship Game.

The East-West format was approved unanimously by the conference's chief executive officers at the league's annual meetings in 2014.

"This is an exciting step in the continued development of our conference," said Aresco. "With our performance on the field and the exposure we received from our media partners, I couldn't be more satisfied with our first year of American Athletic Conference football. Creating this divisional format will allow us to build upon that success. Our fans will enjoy our divisional play and the championship game that will be established in 2015.

"The East-West format we have adopted gives each division a distinct identity, provides long-term competitive balance and protects traditional rivalries while allowing each school to travel across the conference's geographical footprint on a regular basis.

Beginning this fall, the East Division will include UCF, Cincinnati, UConn, East Carolina, USF and Temple. The West Division will consist of Houston, Memphis, Navy, SMU, Tulane and Tulsa.

Each team will play a total of eight conference games, facing the other five teams in its own division as well as three from the other division, ensuring that each school will play every conference opponent at home and on the road at least once in a four-year cycle. The division winners will play for the conference title at the home site of the highest ranked divisional champion.

HEAD COACH

JUSTIN FUENTE

MURRAY STATE, 1999
FOURTH SEASON

With confetti swirling, the University of Memphis football program savored an American Athletic Conference championship to close out the 2014 regular season. Weeks later, the Tigers were back on a podium and celebrating another championship as Memphis defeated BYU 55-48 in double overtime to win the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Memphis' first conference title in more than 40 years, along with the come-from-behind bowl victory, are certainly mile markers on the road the Tigers are traveling under Justin Fuente who begins his fourth season as head coach in 2015.

Unquestionably, the Tigers have made momentous strides in Fuente's first three seasons. He inherited a program which had won just five combined games (2009-11) in the three years prior to his arrival.

When he was named the University's 23rd head football coach on Dec. 8, 2011, Fuente was not only charged with rebuilding Memphis' football program, but simultaneously having oversight in the program's step up in competition. In his second year, the Tigers began play in the American Athletic Conference.

The year following the transition to The American, Memphis celebrated a conference title inside Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium. And the Tigers celebrated again in Miami as the team won for the 10th time during the season, equaling a school record for victories that was established in 1938.

Fuente's efforts in building the Memphis program did not go unnoticed. The Football Writers Association of America, in conjunction with the All-state Sugar Bowl, named him one of eight finalists for the 2014 Eddie Robinson Award. He was also named the American Athletic Conference's 2014 Coach of the Year, a unanimous choice by his peers. The Tennessee Sports Writers Association recognized Fuente as its College Football Coach of the Year.

Fuente's team also received a number of honors from the conference as Tank Jakes shared the league's Co-Defensive Player of the Year and Jake Elliott was named the Special Teams Player of the Year. The Tigers had six players named to the league's first team – offensive lineman Al Bond, tight end Alan Cross, defensive lineman Martin Ifedi and cornerback Bobby McCain along with Elliott and Jakes. An additional four players received second team honors.

In two years as the Tigers' starting quarterback Paxton Lynch, a member of Fuente's original signing class, has become only the third Memphis player to pass for over 5,000 yards in a career. The 35 touchdowns he was responsible for in 2014 shattered the previous school season record of 26.

Offensively, Memphis scored 471 points in 2014, shattering the old school record of 430 points set in 2004. Defensively, Memphis allowed just 19.5 points per game, which ranked 11th in FBS Football.

With a seven-game winning streak to conclude the 2014 season, Memphis ended the year with the fourth-longest win streak in FBS Football. Only national champion Ohio State, as well as New Year's Six Bowl winners Boise State and TCU, ended the year with longer win streaks.

Memphis closed out the 2014 season ranked in the top-25 of both the AP and USA Today/Amway Coaches Polls, a first for the program.

The University of Memphis' seven-win gain from 2013 to 2014 was the third-best improvement for FBS Football programs in 2014. The improvement also represented the ninth-best improvement ever by an FBS team. Going from one league win to seven, the Tigers had a six-win improvement in league play alone.

Fuente's team continues to be built on four pillars – 1) Academic Integrity, 2) Social Responsibility, 3) Individual Accountability and 4) Competitive Excellence.

Going into the 2014 season, Memphis Football had recorded the highest grade point average in program history. The Tigers' 2014 roster included four college graduates and that total jumped to 12 degree-holding players who played in the 2014 Miami Beach Bowl. Another eight student-athletes earned their diplomas from the University of Memphis following the 2014 fall semester.

Senior linebacker Charles Harris was named to the Capital One Academic All-District 3 NCAA Division I Football Team to highlight the program's academic accomplishments.

Much of the groundwork for the University of Memphis program's current success was attained during Fuente's first two seasons as the Tigers' head coach.

Fuente knew the challenges the program would face when the team began play in The American. In his second season as head coach, the Tigers finished in the bottom half of the league standings in the new conference. It was well apparent the program was headed in the right direction.

In 2013, Memphis faced the third-toughest schedule among American Athletic Conference programs while playing seven opponents who advanced

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2001-06: Assistant coach (quarterbacks) at Illinois State from 2001-03; Elevated to offensive coordinator in 2004 and continued to coach quarterbacks.

2007-11: Assistant coach (running backs) at TCU from 2007-08; TCU played in the Poinsettia Bowl and the Texas Bowl during Fuente's two seasons guiding the Horned Frog running backs; Elevated to co-Offensive Coordinator in 2009 and transitioned to coaching quarterbacks; During his three-year stint as the Horned Frogs' gameday playcaller, Fuente helped lead TCU to three-consecutive Mountain West championships, a 2010 Fiesta Bowl appearance and a 2011 Rose Bowl championship.

2012- : Head coach at Memphis since 2012; In the three years prior to taking over the program, Memphis was a combined 5-31; In three years, Fuente has overseen the transformation of the Memphis program in a bowl-winning, top-25 program.

to bowl games. Games lost to bowl-bound opponents were decided by just eight points per game.

Memphis Football continued to make major strides in Year Two under Fuente.

Defensively, the Tigers were ranked No. 39 in total defense (370.7 ypg allowed) and No. 12 against the run (116.3 ypg allowed). Offensively, Paxton Lynch passed for over 2,000 yards, becoming just the second rookie in program history to do so. It was just the 10th time overall a quarterback has passed for over 2,000 yards in a season.

Memphis' special teams featured Ray Guy Award winner Tom Hornsey, who won the award annually presented to collegiate football's top punter, and Elliott, who was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, which is presented to the nation's top place kicker.

Memphis had three players named to the All-American Athletic Conference Team – Elliott, Hornsey and Ifedi.

In Fuente's first season in 2012, the Tigers posted their best finish since 2008 and won more conference games than the previous three seasons combined. But Memphis' then new head coach began building the foundation months prior to his rookie season.

One of the first items Fuente put in place upon being named the head football coach at the University of Memphis was "The Tiger Code." The code consists of three elements – 1) Fundamentally Sound, 2) Physically Fit and 3) Mentally Tough.

In addition to instilling the Tiger Code and installing a new off-season conditioning program, Fuente selected 10 student-athletes to form his first leadership council. The group best exemplified being student-athletes and living by the Tiger Code. During Fuente's first season, the group of leaders served as a conduit between the coaching staff and the team.

While breeding a new culture within the program, Fuente shared his vision for Memphis Football as a speaker for a variety of civic groups while also making the rounds on television morning shows and the area's talk radio circuit. He and his staff conducted the school's first Women's Clinic in an effort to educate female fans as well as building the program's fan base.

Memphis posted a 4-8 overall record and was 4-4 in league play in its final season as a member of Conference USA in 2012. The Tigers' efforts did not go unrecognized. Athlon Sports' College Football Preview Magazine had Fuente No. 5 in the publication's ranking of new coaches from 2012, and in 2013 Athlon ranked him No. 6 among coaches under 40.

In June of 2015, Athlon ranked Fuente No. 1 of 20 coaches under 40 ahead of the release of its pre-season publication.

The Tigers averaged 318.33 yards of total offense during the 2012 season. The season total represented a 44-yard improvement from the 2011 season. Memphis came close to doubling its rushing average, improving its rushing total to 151.75 yards per game in 2012. Memphis' fourth-down efficiency percentage ranked among the Top 10 in FBS Football.

Defensively, Memphis led Conference USA in total defense in league games played in 2012, giving up just 331.6 yards per game. The UofM lowered its total yardage allowed in conference games from the previous season by 30 percent.

For the year, Memphis ranked 48th nationally in defense (383.58 yards per game). The Tigers made a 69-position improvement from the 2011 season. The UM defense ranked 36th nationally in quarterback sacks, more than doubling the number of sacks it had in 2012 (29) from the 2011 season (14).

The Tigers' special teams also made striking improvements during Fuente's first season.

Memphis ranked among the nation's Top 20 in kickoff return yardage defense and punt return average. UM punter Tom Hornsey ranked 19th nationally in punting.

Six UM student-athletes were recognized as first or second-team All-Conference USA selections or named to the C-USA All-Freshman team. It was the most all-conference selections for the program since 2005 (eight).

Fuente previously served five seasons on Gary Patterson's staff at TCU from 2007-11. Fuente joined the TCU football coaching staff in February of 2007 as running backs coach and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in February of 2009. As part of his promotion, he moved to coaching the Horned Frogs quarterbacks.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., the dynamic play-caller helped guide TCU's program to consecutive BCS bowl game appearances with a 2011 Rose Bowl victory over No. 5-ranked Wisconsin that followed an appearance in the 2010 Fiesta Bowl. From 2008-10, TCU was the only program in the country that finished in the top-10 in both the Associated Press and USA Today polls all three campaigns.

In Fuente's three seasons as offensive coordinator, TCU set single-season school records for touchdowns, points scored and first downs, while also ranking among the nation's most productive offensive units. From 2009-11, the Horned Frogs won 36 of 39 contests, including a 24-game win streak in the Mountain West Conference (MWC).

Credited with developing some of the top quarterbacks in TCU history, Fuente coached 2012 NFL Pro Bowl selection Andy Dalton and 2011 TCU starter Casey Pachall. TCU was the only school in the nation to have two different quarterbacks rank in the top-10 in the country in passing efficiency from 2009-11.

Under Fuente's tutelage, Dalton became TCU's career leader in every major passing category. The 2011 NFL Draft second-round pick of the Cincinnati Bengals also set Mountain West Conference all-time marks for total offense (11,925 yards) and plays from scrimmage (1,730). The two-time MWC Offensive Player of the Year and three-time bowl game MVP, Dalton finished ninth in 2010 Heisman Trophy voting. He was a finalist for the Manning, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm and Bobby Bowden awards, while also being a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien and Maxwell honors.

As a sophomore in 2011, Pachall broke Andy Dalton's single-season TCU records for completions (228), completion percentage (66.5) and yards (2,921). Pachall threw for 473 yards against Boise State, the second-highest, single-game total in school history. He threw only seven interceptions in 2011 and helped rally TCU from fourth-quarter deficits three times, including the 31-24 win over Louisiana Tech in the Poinsettia Bowl, a bowl in which Fuente did not coach.

The 2011 Horned Frogs became the first team to win the Mountain West championship three-consecutive seasons. TCU finished the year at 11-2 and ranked No. 13/14 in the final polls. The Horned Frogs ranked among the national leaders in total offense with their average of 440.2 yards per game.

In 2010, Fuente helped direct TCU to single-season school marks in touchdowns (73), points scored (541), total offense (6,199 yards) and first downs (327). The Horned Frogs ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points per game), sixth in passing efficiency (166.9), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards per game) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards per game).

In his first season as co-offensive coordinator, Fuente helped direct a record-setting 2009 TCU attack. The Horned Frogs established then single-season school marks for points scored (498), total offense (5,937 yards), touchdowns (65) and first downs (311).

TCU ranked fifth nationally in rushing offense (239.5 yards per game) and scoring (38.3 points per game), while placing seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

With Fuente as running backs coach in 2008, the Horned Frogs had a "running back-by-committee" attack. TCU ranked 12th nationally in rushing, despite not having a player ranked among the top-96 rushers in the country. TCU's 220.2 yards per game rushing was its highest mark since 2000 when LaDainian Tomlinson keyed a Frogs ground game that averaged 275.6 yards per game. During that 2008 campaign, Fuente helped develop tailback Aaron Brown into being a 2009 NFL Draft sixth-round selection of the Detroit Lions.

Fuente made the move to TCU after spending six seasons as quarterbacks coach at Illinois State. His final three years saw him double as the Redbirds' offensive coordinator. Under Fuente's direction, Illinois State ranked in the top-10 nationally in total offense in 2005 and 2006. The Redbirds ranked eighth in 2006 with an average of 397.5 yards per game, after ranking fifth in both total offense (477.6 yards) and scoring (39.2 points) in 2005.

Fuente coached Redbirds quarterback Luke Drone to All-Gateway Conference first team honors, as he led the league in passing (227.8 yards per game) and total offense (231.6 yards per game). Running back Pierre Rembert set an Illinois State single-season record with 1,743 yards, while also ranking sixth nationally in rushing with 134.1 yards per contest.

As a college quarterback, Fuente played two seasons (1996-97) at Oklahoma under then-Sooners offensive coordinator Dick Winder. Fuente set an Oklahoma freshman record with 11 touchdown passes. He transferred to Murray State for his final two years of eligibility.

Fuente set 11 school records at Murray State, including total offense and passing yards in a game and season. In 1999, he was the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Offensive Player of the Year and a Walter Payton Award finalist, given annually to the nation's top player in Division I-AA. Fuente is a 1999 graduate of Murray State.

Following his collegiate career, Fuente played professionally with the Oklahoma Wranglers in the Arena League.

Fuente and his wife, Jenny, have three daughters, Cecilia, Caroline and Charlotte.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
CO-OFFENSIVE COORD./RBs

DARRELL DICKEY

KANSAS STATE, 1983
FOURTH SEASON

Darrell Dickey is in his eighth season overall and fourth in his current stint with the University of Memphis. During the offseason, the Tigers' offensive coordinator and running backs coach was elevated to assistant head coach. He will continue in his coordinator's role in 2015, serving as co-offensive coordinator along with coaching the team's running backs.

Last year, Memphis set a season scoring record with 471 points and led the American Athletic Conference with a 36.2 points per game average. The Tigers led the league in rushing offense in 2014, averaging 190.5 yards per game and also ranked third in total offense (427.1 ypg).

Dickey mentored three-year running back Brandon Hayes, who walked on to the Memphis program in 2012 and went on to rush for 2,385 career yards, fourth-most in Memphis school history. Hayes' 949 rushing yards as a senior in 2014 was the most by a Memphis player since 2009. He was named the Isaac Bruce Offensive Player of the Year for the third straight year.

Also in 2014, Dickey coached Doroland Dorceus, who averaged a team-leading 5.2 yards per carry before being sidelined the fourth game of his sophomore season. He also oversaw Sam Craft's transition from receiver to running back in his second year in the program. Craft started two games at running back for the Tigers in 2014, carrying the ball 38 times for 170 yards and a touchdown in a 41-14 win over Cincinnati in the conference opener.

Dickey was part of a coaching staff that led the Tigers to an American Athletic Conference title, the school's first conference championship since 1971. With a 10-3 record, the Tigers equaled a school record for victories established in 1938. Memphis capped the season with a double-overtime win over BYU in the Miami Beach Bowl.

Dickey, who served as the Tigers' offensive coordinator from 1986-89, returned to the Memphis program in the same capacity in 2012.

During the 2012 season, Memphis raised its offensive total in conference games from 243 yards per game to 327.1 yards an outing (26 percent increase in yardage from 2011 to 2012). In C-USA games, Memphis raised its rushing offense total by 63 percent.

Overall, the Tigers averaged 318 yards of total offense during Dickey's first season back as offensive coordinator in 2012. The season total represented a 44-yard improvement from the 2011 season.

Memphis ranked next to last nationally in rushing offense in 2011 but almost doubled its rushing average, improving its rushing total to 151.75 yards per game in 2012.

In Dickey's first season at the University of Memphis, the Tigers posted a 4-4 mark in Conference USA play, winning more league games in 2012 than the previous three seasons combined. Memphis' 4-8 overall record marked the team's best finish since 2008.

In his second year, the Tigers averaged 313 yards of total offense as the Tigers made the transition to the American Athletic Conference in 2013. Hayes finished the 2013 season with 860 yards and became the first multi-year recipient of the Offensive Player of the Year Award since DeAngelo Williams.

Dickey, who has over 25 years of collegiate coaching experience, was the co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Texas State in 2011. Texas State's rushing attack averaged 195 yards a game and scored 20 of the team's 35 offensive touchdowns. The Bobcats finished the season with a 6-6 record and averaged 345 yards of total offense. Against Southeastern Louisiana, Texas State logged 336 yards on 45 carries and three touchdowns. In seven of the 12 games in 2011, the Bobcats tallied at least 200 yards rushing, and the squad registered at least 40 carries in nine games.

Dickey made his move to Texas State after spending two seasons as offensive coordinator and running backs coach at New Mexico. He also served as offensive coordinator at Utah State in 2007-08.

During his tenure at New Mexico, Dickey helped install a new offense that featured Freshman All-America tight end Lucas Reed and some of the most talented newcomers in the Mountain West Conference. The newcomers included wide receiver Ty Kirk and running backs Demond Dennis and Kasey Carrier.

While at Utah State, Dickey's offense produced 1,653 rushing yards in 2008, the school's highest total in nine seasons. In addition, Aggies signal-caller Diondre Borel was one of seven quarterbacks nationally to lead their respective teams in rushing and passing.

Dickey went to Utah State after serving nine years as the North Texas head coach from 1998-2006. He guided the Mean Green to four-consecutive Sun Belt Conference (SBC) championships from 2001-04 with a combined league record of 25-1. Dickey's overall record in SBC play was 29-11, including a 26-game conference win streak that stretched from 2001-05. North Texas participated in four-consecutive New Orleans Bowls from 2001-04.

He guided the Mean Green to nine wins for the first time in 23 years in the 2003 season, after winning eight contests a year earlier. In the 2003 New Orleans Bowl, Dickey's squad suffered a 27-17 loss to Memphis at the Louisiana Superdome. The Mean Green also had a 7-5 mark in 2004.

Under his direction, North Texas landed 70 players on All-Sun Belt Conference teams, including 39 first team selections. Dickey was named the head coach of the Sun Belt Conference's 30th Anniversary Team in 2004. Dickey also guided the Mean Green to its first bowl win in 57 years when North Texas defeated Cincinnati in the 2002 New Orleans Bowl. Running back Kevin Galbreath was named the New Orleans Bowl MVP.

North Texas produced back-to-back NCAA rushing leaders in Patrick Cobbs (2003) and Jamario Thomas (2004). Cobbs led the nation with 152.7 yards per game in 2003, and Thomas repeated the feat with 180.1 yards per contest in 2004. In his final season at North Texas, Dickey suffered a heart attack on Oct. 13, 2006, but missed just one game. In a nine-month span, Dickey had his gall bladder removed, was diagnosed with diabetes and suffered a heart attack.

The offensive-minded Dickey went to North Texas after serving as offensive coordinator at SMU in 1997. That season, the Mustangs posted their first winning record since the program returned to the playing field in 1989 following the NCAA "Death Penalty." He went to SMU after serving as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at UTEP from 1994-96.

GALEN SCOTT

ILLINOIS STATE, 2001
SIXTH SEASON

Galen Scott, who is in his sixth season at the University of Memphis, was named the Tigers' defensive coordinator following the 2014 season. In addition to serving as linebackers coach, a role he will continue to have in 2015, last year Scott had the additional responsibilities of being the team's associate head coach.

Scott previously worked with Memphis head coach Justin Fuente from 2001-06. He remained with the Tigers staff when Fuente was given the reins of the Memphis program following the 2011 season.

As a member of Memphis' defensive coaching staff, Scott mentored a unit which ranked 11th in FBS Football in scoring defense, allowing just 195 points per game. The Tigers ranked 27th nationally in total defense, giving up 349.5 yards an outing. Memphis' 106.31 defensive pass efficiency rating led the American Athletic Conference and ranked eighth nationally while the Tigers' 121.5 rushing defense average was 19th nationally.

The defensive performance played a leading role in the Tigers winning the American Athletic Conference championship, the team's first league title since 1971. At 10-3, Memphis equaled a school record for victories which has solely stood since 1938.

Memphis capped the season with a double-overtime win over BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Individually, Scott coached Tank Jakes, the American Athletic Conference's Co-Defensive Player of the Year in 2014. Jakes, who led Memphis with 92 total tackles in 2014 and had a program top-10 performance with 15.5 tackles for lost yardage, was also named the John Bramlett Defensive Player of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

Scott also coached Charles Harris, who concluded his career as a three-year starter with 211 total tackles.

In 2013, Memphis ranked No. 39 in total defense (370.7 ppg allowed) and No. 12 against the run (116.3 ypg allowed).

Three of Scott's linebackers ranked among the top four tacklers on the team. Harris led the team with 74 tackles while Jakes registered 71 stops including 8.5 tackles for loss which ranked third on the team. Second-year starting linebacker Anthony Brown finished with 52 tackles and was named the team's John Bramlett Defensive Player of the Year at the conclusion of the 2013 season.

During the 2013 season Memphis held four opponents under 100 yards rushing and only one player rushed for more than 100 yards in a game.

The Tigers' defense also ranked 39th in both quarterback sacks (2.33 per game) and first downs allowed (250). Memphis defenders registered 28 quarterback sacks and 78 tackles for loss during the year.

Linebackers accounted for 20.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 quarterback sacks.

In 2012, Scott's first season with Fuente at Memphis, the Tigers posted a 4-8 overall record, the team's best finish since 2008. The Tigers were 4-4 in Conference.

Memphis led the league in total defense in conference games played in 2012, giving up just 331.6 yards per game. The Tigers lowered their total yardage allowed in conference games from the previous season by 30 percent.

For the year, Memphis ranked 50th nationally in defense (383.58 yards per game). Memphis' 138-yard rushing defense total for the year ranked 32nd nationally.

Scott's linebacker corps accounted for 6.5 of the team's 29 quarterback sacks. The Tigers more than doubled their quarterback sack numbers from the previous season. Linebackers also accounted for 19.5 tackles for lost yardage and intercepted a pair of passes.

In 2012, Harris and Brown ranked first and second on the squad in total tackles (79 and 71 stops respectively). Jakes, then a first-year player, was named the John Bramlett Defensive Player of the Year.

Scott joined the Memphis staff ahead of the 2010 season and was elevated to co-defensive coordinator in September of 2011 while continuing to guide the linebackers. Under his tutelage, linebacker Terrence Thomas flourished in his senior season and led the 2011 Tigers defense with 106 tackles, including 72 solo stops. In addition, Akeem Davis, who worked at linebacker in nickel, was the squad's second-leading tackler with 78 hits. Davis also led the squad in interceptions (3) and tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries (4) and forced fumbles (3).

Scott guided one of the most-successful linebackers in school history in 2010 when Jamon Hughes ranked third nationally with 147 tackles. Hughes was an All-Conference USA first team pick and was named the team's MVP and Defensive Player of the Year. His 147 tackles were the fourth-most for a season, and his 21 stops against Southern Miss were the second-most for a game in school history.

Scott joined the Tigers after two seasons at Tulsa (2008-09), where he worked with the cornerbacks in 2009. Under Scott's guidance, James Lockett was a two-time All-C-USA honoree.

In the 2008 season, Scott worked with outside linebackers and safeties. The 2008 Golden Hurricane squad finished the season with an 11-3 record and a 45-13 win over Ball State in the GMAC Bowl. Under Scott's direction, Lockett was named to the 2008 All-C-USA second team, and Kenny Sims was an All-C-USA honorable mention pick.

Prior to joining the Golden Hurricane staff, Scott served seven years at his alma mater, Illinois State (2001-07) and took on the role of defensive coordinator his last two seasons. In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2006, Scott directed a Redbirds defense that was the Gateway Conference's No. 3 total defense and No. 2 scoring defense, allowing 19.7 points per game. In 2005, Scott was named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division I-AA Assistant Coach of the Year.

A native of Orlando, Fla., Scott is one of the most-decorated players to ever wear an Illinois State uniform. Until 2004, Scott owned the career tackles record, but his protégé, Boomer Grigsby, claimed the mark under his guidance. Scott helped mold Grigsby into an unprecedented three-time Gateway Football Conference Defensive Player of the Year performer and a consensus All-American.

With the graduation of Grigsby after the 2004 campaign, Scott continued his trend of producing great players with Cameron Siskowic, who won the 2006 Gateway Defensive Player of the Year Award. A two-time Buck Buchanan Award finalist, Siskowic led the league in tackles in 2005 and 2006, giving the Redbirds and Scott the Gateway Conference leader in stops for five-straight seasons (2002-06).

During Scott's four-year playing career (1997-2000), he set Redbirds records for tackles in a game, season and career. He also helped Illinois State to its first Gateway Conference title (1999) and a pair of NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances (1998, 1999).

Scott was named to four All-America teams and was only the fifth player in school history to earn All-America status in three different seasons. He also snagged All-Gateway Conference honors each of his four seasons and was a member of the 1997 All-Gateway Newcomer Team.

An honor roll student at Illinois State, he set Redbirds tackles records for a game (27) and season (186). He was the first Illinois State player to exceed 500 career tackles, and his final figure was 109 more hits than the previous record holder, Wilbert Brown.

Scott's single-game mark (27 tackles) ranks No. 5 in Gateway Conference history and his season total (186) is No. 7 in the league's annals. His career number ranks No. 3 in conference history.

Scott received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Illinois State. He and his wife, Tashauna, are parents of a daughter, Ryan, born in May of 2010, and a son, Reid, born in November of 2013.

rank 21st nationally in scoring (36.2 points pg). The Tigers 471 points scored in 2014 was a school record.

In Cornelsen's third year, Memphis equaled a school record for victories, posting a 10-3 record. Memphis won the American Athletic Conference championship, the program's first league title since 1971. Memphis capped the season with a double-overtime win over BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Heading into 2015 and his fourth year as a member of the Memphis coaching staff, Cornelsen's responsibilities increase with him being named the team's co-offensive coordinator back in January.

Lynch returns for his junior season having completed 462-of-762 career passes for 5,087 yards and 31 touchdowns. He has also ran for 448 yards and 15 scores during his career.

As a sophomore in 2014, Lynch completed 259-of-413 passes for 3031 yards and 22 touchdowns. He also ran for 13 touchdowns, which ties for fifth-most in a season by a Memphis player.

Under Cornelsen's tutelage, Lynch was named the DeAngelo Williams Most Valuable Player. Lynch was also named the MVP of the Miami Beach Bowl after completing 24-of-46 passes for 306 yards. He equaled an FBS bowl record with seven touchdowns responsible for in the win over BYU – four touchdown passes and three scoring runs.

During the 2013 season, Cornelsen mentored Lynch to a 2,000-yard passing season, just the second time a freshman quarterback had accomplished the feat.

Lynch completed 203-of-349 passes for 2,056 yards and nine touchdowns. In addition to Lynch posting only the school's 10th, 2000-yard passing season, he also ranked in the Top 10 in season totals for pass attempts (7th), pass completions (6th) and highest completion percentage (58.2 percent / 8th).

In 2012 Cornelsen mentored Jacob Karam who set a Memphis season record with a 64.2 pass completion percentage. The Tigers' three pass interceptions thrown in 2012 were the fewest in recorded history, breaking the old mark of six set in 2001.

In Conference USA games, Memphis raised its total offense from 243 yards per game the previous season to 327 yards an outing (a 26 percent increase). Overall, the Tigers' 318 total offensive yard average represented a 44-yard improvement from 2011.

Memphis' 71.43 fourth-down percentage ranked tied for seventh nationally. Only five teams converted on fourth down more times than the Tigers.

In Cornelsen's first season on the Memphis staff, the Tigers posted a 4-4 mark in Conference USA play, winning more league games in 2012 than the previous combined three seasons. Memphis' 4-8 overall record marked the team's best finish since 2008.

Cornelsen joined the Tigers from Northeastern State (NSU), a Division II program located in Tahlequah, Okla., where he served as the Riverhawks' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In 2011, NSU ranked among the nation's leaders in passing offense (13th; 291 ypg) and total offense (22nd; 440 ypg). NSU finished 2011 with a 7-5 record and a Mineral Water Bowl appearance. The seven wins were the program's most since 2000, and the bowl appearance was the Riverhawks' first since 2000.

With Cornelsen's guidance, quarterback Johnny Deaton passed for 2,520 yards and 26 touchdowns in 2011. In addition, receiver Trey McVay was an All-America first team pick after logging 82 receptions for 1,533 yards. McVay ranked second in NCAA Division II in receiving yards per game. He also set the all-time single season receiving yards total at NSU.

A native of Texhoma, Okla., Cornelsen spent the 2008 season at Oklahoma State, where he worked with quarterbacks and special teams. The Cowboys finished the regular season with a 9-3 record and earned a berth in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Cornelsen also spent the 2001-02 seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Oklahoma State, where he worked with quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Cornelsen coached five seasons at Illinois State (2003-07), where Justin Fuente also served as an assistant from 2001-06. The Tigers offensive staff should be familiar with each other as Fuente, Cornelsen and Holmon Wiggins (2006-10 at ISU) all coached together in 2006 at Illinois State. Offensive line coach Vance Vice also was on the Redbirds staff from 2000-04.

In his first four seasons at Illinois State, Cornelsen guided the receiving corps. He mentored Laurent Robinson, who was selected in the 2007 NFL Draft third round by the Atlanta Falcons. In 2005, the All-American rewrote the school and conference record books with 86 receptions for 1,465 yards. In the final game of the 2005 season, Robinson totaled 292 yards on 14 catches against Indiana State. The single-game yardage total set both league and school marks. Robinson went on to claim the conference's Offensive Player of the Year Award and was a consensus All-America selection.

In 2004, Cornelsen had three receivers post 30 or more catches each, the most by a Redbirds trio since 1996. The previous season (2003), Cornelsen was instrumental in the success of All-Gateway Conference first team receiver Dwayne Smith, who led the league in receptions and receiving yards per game. That 2003 campaign also saw the Redbirds offense rank first in the conference in total offense with 420 yards per outing.

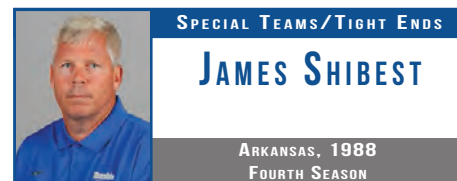

In 2007, Cornelsen moved to coaching quarterbacks and helped senior Luke Drone to an All-Gateway Conference season with 2,222 yards and 18 touchdowns.

Cornelsen graduated from Missouri Southern State with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 2000. With the Lions, Cornelsen became the first quarterback in the history of NCAA Division II football to pass for 4,000 yards and rush for 2,000 yards in a career.

Cornelsen was enshrined in his alma mater's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014.

After graduation, Cornelsen served one-year student assistant stints with his alma mater and Northeastern Oklahoma A&M. He worked as a graduate assistant at Northwest Missouri State (2001) and Oklahoma State prior to landing an assistant coaching position at Illinois State in 2003.

He and wife, Jaimi, were married in the summer of 2011.

Recognized as one of college football's premier special teams coaches, James Shibest is in his fourth season coordinating the Tigers' special teams as well as coaching the squad's tight ends.

Last year, Shibest was a part of a Memphis coaching staff which mentored the Tigers to the school's first 10-win season since 1938. The 2014 Tigers posted a 10-3 record and closed out the season with seven straight wins including six in conference play as Memphis won the American Athletic Conference, the school's first league title since 1971.

After winning a share of the American Athletic Conference championship, the Tigers went on to beat BYU 55-48 in double-overtime to claim the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl title.

For a second straight season, Shibest mentored the American Athletic Conference's Special Teams Player of the Year. Place-kicker Jake Elliott won the award and was named to the American's All-Conference First Team for a second straight year to highlight his sophomore season.

Elliott made 21 field goals in 2014, third-most in school history and scored 120 points, second-most in program history and the most by a kicker. Of his 87 kickoffs, 51 were touchbacks.

Shibest also coached a pair of freshmen punters in 2014. Spencer Smith averaged 40.3 yards per punt while Nick Jacobs placed all 16 of his punts during the season inside opponents' 20-yard line.

As a team, Memphis ranked fourth national in FBS Football in punt return defense, allowing opponents only a 2.77 yards per return average while the team's 18.12 kickoff return defense ranked 17th nationally.

Punt returner Keiwone Malone averaged 7.7 yards per return to rank second in the American and closed out his career with a school-record 83 punt returns for 716 yards, fourth-most in school history. Joe Craig's 22.4 yards per kickoff return ranked third in the conference.

Memphis tight ends caught a combined 37 passes for 526 yards and six touchdowns.

In 2013, Shibest coached the nation's best punter, Tom Hornsey, who was named the Ray Guy Award and honored by the American Athletic Conference as the league's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year. Shibest coached two players named to the American's All-Conference team.

Hornsey ranked seventh nationally in punting in 2013, averaging 45.2 yards per punt. His "Inside the 20" percentage ranked fifth nationally (29 of 62 punts downed inside the 20 for a .468 percentage). Memphis' 41.02 net punting averaged ranked fourth nationally.

Elliott was one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza College Place-Kicker Award presented by the Orange Bowl Committee in 2013.

Elliott converted on 16-of-18 field goals attempts during the 2013 season (.889). He ranked 16th among FBS place kickers in field goal percentage. He established a rookie kicker record, scoring a team-high 72 points for the Tigers. His 16 field goals tied a freshman record and also tied for the fifth-most in a season at Memphis.

Memphis was the only collegiate program to have a semifinalist for both marquee special teams awards.

In addition to his work coordinating special teams, Shibest's tight ends combined to catch 23 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns.

The Tigers' special teams led Conference USA and ranked nationally in several team statistical categories in the program's final year in the league in 2012. Additionally, the Tigers had several standout individual performances on special teams.

For the season, Memphis led Conference USA in kickoff coverage with a net average of 42.6 yards. Memphis ranked 18th nationally in kickoff return yardage defense (18.80 yards per return). The squad also led C-USA and ranked 20th nationally with a 12.0 punt return average. The Tigers' punting unit ranked 25th nationally with a 38.93 net punting average.

Individually, punter Tom Hornsey ranked 19th nationally in punting with a 43.43 average. Punt returner Keiwone Malone averaged 11.86 yards per punt return to rank 19th nationally. Handling kickoff return responsibilities, Bobby McCain set a single-game record with the highest kickoff return average in a game and averaged 25.8 yards per return to rank 24th nationally.

Shibest's first-year tight ends also made an impact.

Freshman Alan Cross was the team's leader in scoring receptions and finished the season with 23 catches for 301 yards and five scores. He was named to the All-Conference USA Freshman Team.

Junior college transfer Jesse Milleson caught 10 passes for 98 yards and three touchdowns.

In Shibest's first season at the University of Memphis, the Tigers posted a 4-4 mark in Conference USA play, winning more league games in 2012 than the previous three seasons combined. Memphis' 4-8 overall record marked the team's best finish since 2008.

Prior to joining the Memphis staff, Shibest spent the previous four seasons at Ole Miss (2008-11).

During his time at Ole Miss, Shibest's special teams were highlighted by an NCAA statistical champion, four All-SEC honorees and two freshman award winners. He also tutored the top two kick returners in Ole Miss history in Mike Wallace and Jesse Grandy.

In 2011, the Rebels ranked second nationally and led the SEC in punt returns, averaging 15.64 yards per return. Ole Miss also logged two touchdowns on punt returns in 2011. In addition, Tyler Campbell ranked 21st nationally in punting with an average of 43.57 yards per punt.

The previous year, Shibest helped Campbell become the 2010 national punting champion with a 46.37-yard average. Campbell also was an All-SEC second team pick that season. In addition, Grandy ranked 10th in the NCAA in punt return average en route to All-SEC third team honors, and freshman Jeff Scott finished 20th in the nation in kick returns. Kickoff specialist Andrew Ritter's 13 touchbacks were fourth-most in the SEC.

Despite coaching a freshman-heavy group, Shibest's unit ranked among the SEC's best in 2009. Grandy finished second on the Ole Miss single-season chart with 746 kick-return yards and earned Freshman All-America second team accolades. Campbell, an SEC All-Freshman Team selection, ranked second in the conference and 14th in the nation in punting with a 44.0-yard average, while Ritter finished third in the league with 12 touchbacks, helping the Rebels rank fifth in the SEC in kickoff coverage.

Place-kicker Joshua Shene, the special teams' lone senior in 2009, wrapped up his career at Ole Miss second in career scoring (310), field goals (57), field goal attempts (75), PAT made (139) and PAT attempted (142). Shene also became only the second Rebel in the program's history to lead the team in scoring all four years.

In his first season with the Rebels in 2008, Shibest was honored as the Special Teams Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop.com. With many of the same specialists returning from the previous year, Ole Miss significantly improved in every special teams category in the first year under Shibest. The Rebels jumped from 12th to third in kickoff coverage and from 11th to second in field goals in the SEC statistical rankings.

Wallace, a All-SEC second team returner, shattered the school record for kick return yards in a game, season and career. He also ranked third in the SEC in kick return average (24.6). In addition, Marshay Green ranked sixth in punt return average in the SEC.

Shene also garnered All-SEC kicker accolades, as he was a first team selection by the Associated Press and a second team pick by the league's coaches. A Lou Groza Award semifinalist, Shene led the conference in field goal accuracy (81.0 pct.) and converted all 52 PAT.

In one season under Shibest, the Rebels improved from 93rd nationally to 32nd in net punting and from 107th to 24th in punt coverage. Kickoff coverage improved 12 yards from the previous season and resulted in 10 touchbacks after recording none in 2007.

Shibest was a member of Nutt's Arkansas staff for eight seasons, where he coached special teams and had stints tutoring tight ends (2000-01, 2006-07) and receivers (2002-05). Before his time at Arkansas, Shibest spent eight seasons in the junior college ranks.

With the Razorbacks in 2007, Shibest coached return specialist Felix Jones, who was third nationally in kick returns with a 31.33-yard average. Jones returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2007 and returned at least one kickoff for a touchdown in each of his three seasons under Shibest.

In 2007, Jones was selected to the Walter Camp and Rivals.com All-American first team as a return specialist. He was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year and placed on the Coaches All-SEC first team.

Also, under Shibest's watch in 2007 was All-SEC second team place-kicker Alex Tejada, who set the school's season kick-scoring record with 108 points. The freshman finished the regular season connecting on 17-of-21 field goals, including a perfect 12-of-12 from 40 yards-and-in.

Tejada's 17 field goals in 2007 were the most by an Arkansas kicker since Todd Latourette in 1998.

Tejada was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team and earned a spot on the Rivals.com All-SEC second team. In addition, Shibest's tight end Andrew Davie caught three touchdown passes, and D.J. Williams was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Under Shibest's direction, wide receiver Marcus Monk earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors in 2004, after hauling in a team-high tying 37 receptions for 569 yards and a team-best six touchdowns. Shibest also worked with punter Jeremy Davis, who was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after averaging 39.2 yards on 25 punts. Despite the loss of two senior starters from 2003, Shibest helped Arkansas rank fifth in the SEC in passing offense in 2004 (210.5 ypg). Wideouts Monk, Steve Harris and Cedric Washington combined for 91 receptions, 1,470 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Shibest's Arkansas receiving corps had one of its most-productive seasons in recent history in 2003. Seniors George Wilson and Richard Smith combined for 80 receptions, 1,473 yards and 13 touchdowns. The duo ended their careers second (144) and fourth (135), respectively, on Arkansas' all-time receptions list.

Shibest helped Wilson finish the 2003 regular season ranked fifth in the SEC in receptions (3.85) and fourth in receiving yards (69.2) per game. With Shibest's instruction, kicker Chris Balseiro made 11-of-15 field goals, including a school bowl-record four in the Hogs' 27-14 win over Missouri in the 2003 Independence Bowl. In 2002, Shibest worked with place-kicker David Carlton, as he connected on 12-of-16 field goals to finish tied for third in the SEC in percentage (75.0).

Shibest also instructed punter Richie Butler, who finished his career ranked in the top-10 of every punting category in the Razorbacks record book.

A 23-year coaching veteran, Shibest joined the Razorbacks staff in 2000 after a highly successful four-year stint as head coach at Butler County (Kan.) Community College. Shibest led the Grizzlies to a four-year record of 34-10 and back-to-back National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) championships in 1998 and 1999. He was named the NJCAA Coach of the Year both seasons, and he also earned Jayhawk Conference Coach of the Year honors in 1996 and 1998.

During his tenure at Butler County, Shibest coached 19 NJCAA All-Americans and 34 NCAA Division I signees, including Jermaine Petty who earned All-America first team honors from the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA). Shibest led the Grizzlies to records of 7-4 in 1996, 4-5 in 1997, 12-0 in 1998 and 11-1 in 1999.

Shibest began his career as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State, coaching receivers in 1990 and running backs in 1991. In 1992, Shibest began his ascent through the junior college coaching ranks as offensive coordinator at Independence (Kan.) Community College.

After coaching the Independence defensive secondary in 1993, Shibest embarked on a two-year tenure as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/receivers coach at Garden City (Kan.) Community College. There, he helped the Bronco Busters to a 10-1 record in 1994 and a 9-2 mark in 1995 with an offense that ranked sixth in the NJCAA.

A native of Houston, Texas, Shibest was a prep All-America receiver at MacArthur High School, where he caught 79 passes for 1,337 yards and 17 touchdowns in his final two seasons.

Shibest had a standout collegiate career as a receiver at Arkansas, earning All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 and 1986. He amassed a then school-record 1,920 receiving yards on 97 receptions, including 10 touchdowns. His career receiving yardage total still ranks fifth in the Arkansas record book.

Shibest and his wife, Dianna, are the parents of James John III and Jordyn Grace.

Veteran coach Brent Guy is in his first season as the safeties coach at the University of Memphis.

Guy has coached in the collegiate ranks for 30 seasons including the previous four at the University of Tulsa where he was the defensive coordinator and coached the Golden Hurricane's linebackers. His experience includes four seasons as the head coach at Utah State University along with additional stints as the defensive coordinator at Boise State, Arizona State and Louisville.

During Guy's tenure at Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane captured the 2012 Conference USA championship and went on to beat Iowa State 31-17 in the Liberty Bowl.

Tulsa led Conference USA in total defense (347.8 ypg) and was second in rushing defense (119.5), pass efficiency defense (119.8) and scoring defense (23.6 ppg) during the 2012 season. TU ranked third in FBS Football in quarterback sacks, fifth in tackles for lost yardage, 16th in rushing defense and 25th in total defense. During the championship season, Tulsa's defense had 53 quarterback sacks (-356 yards) and 110 tackles for lost yardage (-504 yards).

Following the 2012 season, Guy was charged with rebuilding a defense that lost all but one starter off the Conference USA championship team and tasked in 2014 of transitioning Tulsa's defense for its first year as a member of the American Athletic Conference.

Guy coached the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 2013, Shawn Jackson, who ended his career at Tulsa as the school's all-time quarterback sack and tackles for loss leader. Jackson also finished his career ranked second in tackles.

Guy joined the University of Tulsa coaching staff from UNLV where he was the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for the 2010 season. He was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Louisville in 2009.

As head coach at Utah State (2005-08), the Aggies produced 14 players that earned first or second-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors.

Guy was named Utah State's head coach after serving as Arizona State's defensive coordinator for four years (2001-04). In his final season in Tempe, the Sun Devils posted a 9-3 record and defeated Purdue in the Sun Bowl. It was the Sun Devils' second bowl appearance in three years.

Arizona State's defense finished the 2004 season ranked 28th nationally in rushing defense, 32nd in pass efficiency defense and 48th in both total and scoring defense.

In 2002, Guy's Arizona State defense forced 40 turnovers, including 22 interceptions which ranked third and fourth in the country, respectively. ASU had 123 tackles for lost yardage and 52 quarterback sacks during the 2002 season.

As the defensive coordinator at Boise State (1998-2000), he helped the Broncos in their run toward national prominence. Boise State won the 1999 and 2000 Big West Conference championships, posting a 10-1 combined conference record during the two seasons. BSU went on to win consecutive Humanitarian Bowls to cap the two seasons.

Under Guy's guidance, Boise State led the Big West in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense in both 1999 and 2000. In 1999, the Broncos ranked 28th nationally in scoring defense, allowing 20.5 points per game.

Guy, who has been a part of 12 bowl teams as both a player and coach, had two stints coaching at his alma mater, Oklahoma State. After serving as a graduate assistant (1986-87) and recruiting coordinator (1988), Guy coached the Cowboy linebackers for a total of six seasons, from 1989-91, and again from 1995-97.

In addition to his four seasons as head coach at Utah State, Guy had a prior coaching stop in Logan. He was the linebackers coach for the Aggies from 1992-94. Utah State won the Big West Conference Championship and recorded the school's first bowl title, winning the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl. The Aggies defeated Ball State, 42-33.

Guy began his playing career at Oklahoma State as a walk-on linebacker in 1979. He started four games as a junior when OSU played in the Independence Bowl. He was a starting linebacker his senior year in 1982 when he totaled 106 tackles. Guy graduated from OSU in 1983.

He and his wife, Shawn, have two children, Madison and Riley.

DEFENSIVE LINE

RICKY HUNLEY

ARIZONA, 1987
SECOND SEASON

Ricky Hunley, a College Football Hall of Fame inductee who has close to 20 years of collegiate and professional coaching experience, is in his second year as the University of Memphis' defensive line coach.

In his first season Memphis equaled a school record for victories, posting a 10-3 record and capturing the program's first conference title since 1971. Memphis capped the season with a 55-48, double-overtime victory over BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

In 2014, Memphis ranked 11th in FBS Football in scoring defense, allowing just 195 points per game. The Tigers ranked 27th nationally in total defense, giving up 349.5 yards an outing. Memphis' 106.31 defensive pass efficiency rating led the American Athletic Conference and ranked eighth nationally while the Tigers' 121.5 rushing defense average was 19th nationally.

Hunley coached senior Martin Ifedi who set the Memphis career record with 22.5 quarterback sacks. His 36 career tackles for lost yardage ranks fourth all-time at Memphis. Despite an injury which sidelined him for four games, Ifedi was named to the 2014

American Athletic Conference First Team, as chosen by the league's coaches.

Ifedi was one of three Memphis players invited to the NFL Scouting Combine in 2015.

Hunley, who played seven seasons in the NFL, joined the Tiger coaching staff after spending the previous two years working as a lead coach and instructor for Football University, the creators of the U.S. Army All-American Bowl. Prior to his tenure with Football University, he was the assistant linebackers coach for the Oakland Raiders in 2011.

Before joining the Oakland coaching staff, Hunley was a defensive coordinator in the United Football League with the California Redwoods (2009) and the Sacramento Mountain Lions (2010).

His NFL experience also includes a five-year stint as the linebackers coach of the Cincinnati Bengals (2003-07) and one season as the defensive line coach for the Washington Redskins (2002).

The 2005 Cincinnati Bengals were AFC North Champions, advanced to the NFL Playoffs and ranked No. 1 in the NFL in interceptions (31), No. 1 in takeaways (44) and No. 6 in fumbles recovered (13).

The 2004 Bengals ranked No. 3 in the NFL in takeaways (36) and No. 13 in passing defense (206.4). During Hunley's first season with Cincinnati, the Bengals accomplished one of the best one-year turnarounds in NFL history, going from 2-14 in 2002 to 8-8 (+6).

The 2002 Washington Redskins ranked No. 5 in the NFL in total defense (299.2 ypg) and No. 5 in passing defense (189.6 ypg).

His collegiate coaching experience includes stops at Florida (2001) and Missouri (1994-2000). Hunley coached defensive linemen at Florida after previously coaching the D-Line and linebackers at Missouri. He was also the associate head coach at Mizzou his final three years (1998-00).

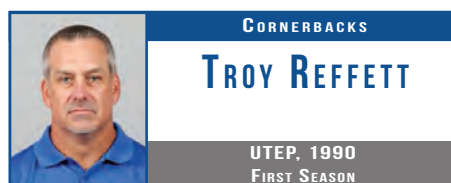

During Hunley's season with Florida, the Gators won the FedEx Orange Bowl.

Hunley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at USC (1992-93) and gained experience through the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship program working with the Buffalo Bills, Philadelphia Eagles, San Diego Chargers and Pittsburgh Steelers during his career.

Hunley was a first-round draft pick (seventh overall) by the Cincinnati Bengals and had a seven-year playing career in the NFL playing for the Denver Broncos (1984-87), Phoenix Cardinals (1988) and the Oakland Raiders (1989-90). He played in 91 career games with 30 starts and played in two Super Bowls. He was elected executive vice president of the NFL Players Association, serving a term from 1990-92.

A two-time NCAA Consensus All-American linebacker and Pac-10 Co-Player of the Year at Arizona, Hunley was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1997. In the summer of 2015 Hunley was named to the inaugural Class of the Petersburg High School Hall of Fame in his hometown of Petersburg, Va.

Hunley and wife Camille have two daughters, Alexis and Kenady.

Troy Reffett is in his first season coaching Memphis' cornerbacks, joining the Tigers coaching staff after six seasons as the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Monroe.

In his final season at ULM, Reffett's defense ranked among the top-20 nationally in passing yards allowed (189.9 ypg/14th), third-down conversion defense (0.326/11th) quarterback sacks (3.00 pg/13th) and tackles for lost yardage (7.5 pg/10th).

All told, Louisiana-Monroe ranked in the top four in the Sun Belt Conference in 10 defensive team statistical categories. The Warhawks led the Sun Belt in total defense, allowing 373.3 yards per game. ULM also led the SBC in third down percentage defense, quarterback sacks and tackles for loss. The team's 26.3 points allowed per game ranked second in the SBC.

ULM had two players named to the All-Sun Belt Conference First Team Defense at the conclusion of the 2014 season.

In addition to serving as ULM's defensive coordinator, Reffett coached the Warhawks' corners since the team's appearance in the 2012 AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl.

In 73 games in charge of the defense, Reffett's defense forced 123 turnovers and had at least one in 67 of 73 games. The Warhawks' attacking defense also recorded 135 quarterback sacks and 364 tackles for loss during Reffett's tenure. The 2014 squad had 36 quarterback sacks and 90 tackles for lost yardage.

Louisiana-Monroe's defense led the Sun Belt and ranked 25th nationally in red zone defense (.767) in 2013. The unit also ranked second in the Sun Belt and 10th in NCAA in fourth down conversion percentage defense (.333). Against Texas State, senior safety Isaiah Newson became just the fourth player in FBS history to return two interceptions for touchdowns of 70 yards or more during the 2013 season.

ULM had a player at each level of the defense earn All-Sun Belt Conference honors.

Under Reffett's direction, the 2012 Warhawk defense led the Sun Belt in interceptions (16) and ranked 20th in the NCAA. Meanwhile, ULM finished third in the conference and 39th nationally in rushing defense (142.2 ypg). The squad also finished third in the Sun Belt and 33rd nationally in turnover margin (.540). The Warhawk defense held four opponents, including No. 8 Arkansas, below 100 rushing yards during the season. Three Warhawks earned All-Sun Belt honors after the team's record setting season in 2012.

In 2011, the Warhawk defense finished ranked number one in the Sun Belt in both rushing defense (100.0 ypg) and total defense (326.2 ypg). The 100.0 rushing yards per game was a new Sun Belt record and it marked the third season in a row that ULM led the conference in rush defense. The club finished tied for third in the conference in sacks with 28. In the final NCAA rankings, the Warhawk defense finished eighth in rushing defense and 21st in total defense (326.2 ypg). The squad also finished 47th in total sacks (2.08 per game). A total of four defensive players earned All-Sun Belt honors.

In Reffett's first season in charge of the Warhawk defense, the unit was the best in the Sun Belt Conference against the run (110.1 ypg) and the second best in total defense (347.0). The Warhawks were the third-best scoring defense in the league allowing 27.3 points per game—an improvement of nearly four points per game from 2008. The Warhawks finished 20th in the NCAA against the run just one season after ranking 112th—the Reffett-led defense allowed 102.6 fewer yards per game on the ground in 2009 compared to 2008. The Warhawks also ranked 41st in sacks (a 67-spot improvement from 2008), 44th in total defense (a 65 spot improvement from 2008) and 45th in pass efficiency defense (a 43 spot improvement from 2008).

ULM posted the NCAA's second best defensive turnaround from 2008 to 2009 as it improved by 97.7 yards of total defense between the two seasons – only Kansas State (139.2 yards) had a better turnaround. Reffett was one of just 34 coaches in the country to be on the final nomination list for the Frank Broyles Award which is presented to the top assistant coach in the NCAA as five of his defensive players earned All-Sun Belt honors. Linebacker Cardia Jackson was named Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year after breaking the league's career tackles record. He went on to sign a free agent contact with the NFL's St. Louis Rams.

Reffett's second season saw a trio of all-conference selections and another solid defensive campaign. The Warhawks led the Sun Belt for the second straight year against the run (159.1) and ranked second overall (378.3), taking out a pair of games against BCS Bowl participants (Auburn & Arkansas) the Warhawks allowed just 353.6 yards per game.

Prior to joining the ULM staff, Reffett spent five seasons at New Mexico. Beginning in 2004 he coached the Lobos' cornerbacks. He was promoted to defensive coordinator prior to the 2008 season. He mentored DeAndre Wright and Glover Quin and the pair earned first team All-MWC honors in the final two seasons under Reffett's guidance. Quin was a fourth round selection by the Houston Texans in the 2009 NFL Draft and Wright was a sixth round selection by the New York Giants in the same draft. In addition to Jackson and Morgan, Reffett has worked with David Terrell, who was taken in the seventh round of the 1998 NFL Draft by Washington, as well as Michael Hicks and Crance Clemons, free agent signees by Dallas and Detroit, respectively.

In his first season as the Lobos' defensive coordinator, New Mexico ranked 26th nationally in rush defense and in the top 50 in both total defense and scoring defense. His 2004 cornerback tandem was possibly one the best in school history. Brandon Payne was a second team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after leading the nation in passes defended (23) and tying for the league lead with six interceptions. Payne also set a school record with 17 pass deflections.

Reffett joined the staff at New Mexico after spending 14 seasons at UTEP, including 2002 and 2003 as the Miners' defensive coordinator under head coach Gary Nord. After graduating from UTEP with a bachelor's degree in education in 1990, Reffett immediately joined the UTEP coaching staff as a graduate assistant.

In Reffett's first year as defensive coordinator (2002), D.J. Walker led the Western Athletic Conference in stops and ranked sixth in the country in solo tackles. UTEP ranked first in the WAC and 21st in the nation in pass defense in 2001 as opponents completed a league-low 49.6 percent of their passes.

Reffett came to UTEP in 1985 as a walk-on and two years later, as a junior he helped the Miners to a 10-2 record, including an Independence Bowl berth. His playing career at UTEP was highlighted by academic and athletic superlatives. As a junior and senior he was named a WAC Scholar Athlete, to the WAC All-Academic team, and was recognized as the team's Defensive Back of the Year.

He and his wife, Molly, have a son, Ty Christopher, and a daughter, Camille Kay.

In his fourth season coaching the Tigers' offensive linemen is Vance Vice.

Last year Vice coached a line which blocked for an offensive unit which led the American Athletic Conference in rushing as the Tigers averaged 190.5 yards. Memphis 427.1 yards per game of offense ranked third in the league.

Memphis scored a school-record 471 points in 2014 and led the American Athletic Conference with a 36.2 scoring average.

In 2014, Memphis enjoyed the third-biggest turnaround in FBS Football and tied for the ninth-best turnaround all-time. Vice was a member of a coaching staff which mentored the Tigers to the school's first 10-win season since 1938. The 10-3 Tigers won their final six league games to win the American Athletic Conference championship.

Memphis followed up the league title with a 55-48, double-overtime win over BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Individually, Vice mentored offensive lineman Al Bond, who was named to the American Athletic Conference First Team and was one of three Memphis players invited to the NFL Scouting Combine in 2015.

In 2013, the Tigers averaged 313 yards of offense as the Tigers made the move to the American Athletic Conference. Vice's linemen blocked for a running back which rushed for more yardage than any other back since the 2009 season and a quarterback who became just the second rookie to throw for more than 2,000 yards.

Brandon Hayes, who received a sixth year of eligibility and returns for the 2014 season, rushed for 860 yards to lead the Tigers in 2013. Redshirt freshman quarterback Paxton Lynch passed for 2,056 yards. The passing total marked just the 10th time in school history a Memphis quarterback had passed for better than 2,000 yards.

Ahead of the 2014 season, Memphis returns eight offensive linemen with experience including three starters off the 2013 squad.

In Vice's initial season coaching the offensive line in 2012, Memphis raised its offensive yardage total in conference games 26 percent over the previous season. The Tigers averaged 327.1 yards per league game. Memphis raised its rushing offense total by 63 percent in C-USA games.

Overall, the Tigers averaged 318.33 yards of total offense during Vice's first year. The season total represented a 44-yard improvement from the 2011 season.

Memphis ranked next to last nationally in rushing offense in 2011 before almost doubling its rushing average, improving its ground-game total to 151.75 yards per game in 2012.

Memphis' 71.43 fourth-down efficiency percentage ranked tied for seventh nationally. Only five teams converted on fourth down more times than the Tigers.

Vice mentored offensive tackle Jordan Devey who received the DeAngelo Williams Most Valuable Player Award at season's end. Devey, who played every snap of his two-year career, went on to play in the East-West Shrine Game. Devey was an All-Conference USA Second Team selection while Taylor Fallin was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team in 2012.

Memphis' 4-8 overall record marked the program's best finish since 2008. The Tigers won more league games in 2012 than the previous three seasons combined, posting a 4-4 record in the program's final season in Conference USA.

Vice and head coach Justin Fuente have had a long history together. Vice coached the offensive line at Murray State in 1999 when Fuente was a senior quarterback for the Racers. The two also worked together on the offensive staff at Illinois State from 2001-04.

Prior to joining the Memphis coaching staff, Vice spent the previous three seasons as the offensive line coach at Louisiana-Monroe (2009-11). Under Vice's guidance, the Warhawks offensive line experienced unprecedented success since moving to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 1994.

In two of the three seasons at Louisiana-Monroe, Vice's offensive lines paved the way for over 20 rushing touchdowns and nearly 4,700 yards of total offense. The 392.3 total yards per game recorded in 2009 was the program's highest offensive output since joining the FBS.

Behind the Vice-led offensive line, the 2009 Warhawks rushed for a school Sun Belt (SBC)-era record 21 touchdowns. Louisiana-Monroe also set the school's single-game, SBC-era record with five rushing touchdowns against Texas Southern. The Warhawks tallied the fifth-highest yards-per-game average (392.3) in school history and the program's highest since moving to FBS.

In 2009, Louisiana-Monroe finished the season ranked 28th in the NCAA in sacks allowed, yielding just 16. The Warhawks rushing attack averaged 183.9

yards per game in 2009, ranking third in the SBC and 31st nationally. Running back Frank Goodin finished the season with 1,126 yards and 13 touchdowns, the fourth and second-best marks, respectively, in Louisiana-Monroe history.

Two of Vice's linemen were named All-Louisiana for the first time in their careers. One of those linemen, Mitch Doyle, was named to the All-Louisiana Team as an offensive lineman after switching from tight end the previous spring.

In the 2009 season opener versus Texas, the Warhawks offensive line did something that only two other teams had done in the previous 40 games, limiting the Longhorns defense to no sacks. The unit also paved the way for the Louisiana-Monroe ground game to run for 101 yards against Texas, which allowed only 83.5 yards per game rushing the previous season (nation's No. 3 rushing defense).

Vice's 2010 offensive line led the way for quarterback Kolton Browning to total 2,937 yards (2,552 passing/385 rushing), the third-highest yardage total by a freshman in the NCAA that season. The 2,937 total yards also were the second-most for a season in Louisiana-Monroe history.

Vice, a 20-plus year coaching veteran, joined the Louisiana-Monroe staff after four seasons at Utah State (2005-08) in a similar role. He guided a pair of Utah State players that moved on to NFL careers. Guard Shawn Murphy was a 2008 NFL Draft fourth-round pick by the Miami Dolphins. Donald Penn was a 2005 free agent signee by the Minnesota Vikings and currently plays for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

During Vice's four seasons with the Aggies, four offensive linemen earned All-Western Athletic Conference (WAC) honors, and Ryan Tonnemacher was a two-time Rimington Trophy Watch List nominee, awarded annually to the nation's top center.

Under Vice's guidance, Murphy was invited to play in the East-West Shrine Game. He was the first Utah State player selected to the Shrine Game since 2002 and the first Aggies offensive lineman chosen to the all-star game since center Tim Ruiz in 1986.

Prior to Utah State, Vice spent five seasons coaching the offensive line at Illinois State (2000-04). He was promoted to assistant head coach his final two seasons with the Redbirds. At Illinois State, three linemen earned All-America honors and eight garnered All-Gateway Conference accolades. In 2003, the Redbirds established a school record with 248.1 yards per game rushing and allowed just five sacks on 367 pass attempts.

Vice started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Georgia from 1990-91, before working at Hart County (Ga.) High School from 1992-95. He returned to the collegiate level from 1996-98, coaching tight ends at Clemson. Vice then spent one year (1999) at Murray State as the offensive line coach, where his line protected Racers quarterback Justin Fuente.

Vice was a defensive lineman and tight end at Oklahoma State, where he participated on Cowboys teams that featured future NFL stars Thurman Thomas and Barry Sanders. He played in three bowl games with the Cowboys.

The three-time All-Big Eight academic selection graduated from Oklahoma State in 1990 with a degree in secondary education. He earned a master's degree in education administration from Georgia in 1993 and an education specialist degree from Clemson in 1999.

He and his wife, Kerry, have two daughters, Savannah and Sydney, and a son, Brock.

WIDE RECEIVERS

HOLMON WIGGINS

NEW MEXICO, 2003
FOURTH SEASON

In his fourth season coaching the Tigers' wide receivers is Holmon.

Memphis' drive to a school-record 10 wins and first conference title since 1971 may not have included a receiver who ranked among the American Athletic Conference's top-10 receivers in terms of receptions or receiving yards per game, but Wiggins coached a group which combined for 205 catches for 2,422 yards and 14 touchdowns.

In 2014, Memphis' 236.6 passing yards per game ranked fourth in the American. The Tigers set a season scoring record with 471 points and led the American Athletic Conference with a 36.2 points per game average.

Individually in 2014, Wiggins coached a group of receivers which included senior Keiwone Malone who was named to the American Athletic Conference's Postseason Second Team as a return specialist.

In addition to finishing his career as the all-time leader in punt returns with 83 and ranked fourth all-time at Memphis with 716 yards, Malone caught 126 career passes for 1497 yards and nine touchdowns. He finished his career ranked in the top-five in receptions and 11th in receiving yards.

Malone caught 45 passes for 555 yards in 2014, while underclassman Mose Frazier had 47 catches for 506 yards. The tandem finished the year ranked in the top-20 at Memphis in season receptions.

Wiggins was part of a coaching staff which mentored the Tigers to a 10-3 record and seven straight wins to close out the season. The Tigers won their last six league games to capture a share of the American Athletic Conference title. The seventh straight win came in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl, a 55-48 double-overtime victory against BYU.

Freshman receiver Roderick Proctor scored the game-winning touchdown in the second overtime of the Miami Beach Bowl, his first career touchdown.

In 2013, Memphis receivers caught 148 passes for 1687 yards. The group played a role in then, freshman quarterback Paxton Lynch becoming just the second rookie signal caller to pass for over 2,000 yards.

In Wiggins' first season as the Tigers' wide receivers coach in 2012, the University of Memphis raised total offense production in conference games by 26 percent over the previous season.

Memphis averaged 327.1 yards per game from 243 yards an outing the previous year. For the year, the Tigers averaged 313.33 yards of total offense during the 2012 season. The season total represented a 44-yard improvement from the 2011 season.

Memphis' 71.43 fourth-down efficiency percentage ranked tied for seventh nationally. Only five teams converted on fourth down more times than the Tigers.

Memphis' 4-8 record in 2012, at the time marked the program's best finish since 2008. The Tigers won more conference games in 2012 than the previous three seasons combined, posting a 4-4 record in the program's final season in Conference USA.

Wiggins joined the Memphis coaching staff from the University of Tulsa where he spent the 2011 season coach the team's running backs. He helped the Golden Hurricane to an 8-4 overall record and a 7-1 Conference USA mark.

Wiggins guided a trio of Tulsa running backs - Ja'Terian Douglas, Trey Watts and Alex Singleton - that combined for 2,006 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns. Douglas was an All-C-USA second team selection, while Watts earned league honorable mention merits. In addition, H-back Willie Carter, who led Tulsa with 868 receiving yards and seven touchdowns, was an All-C-USA second team honoree.

Fuente and Wiggins worked together during part of Wiggins' five-year stint (2006-10) at Illinois State. Wiggins, who coached running backs, helped guide the Redbirds to a 9-4 record in his first year at the school, including a Football Championship Series (FCS) quarterfinal appearance and a No. 8 national ranking. Illinois State averaged 169 yards per game rushing in 2006, and Pierre Rembert rushed for a school-record 1,743 yards, receiving Associated Press (AP) All-America accolades.

In his next season, Wiggins coached the Redbirds ground attack to average 199 yards per game, and had two running backs that combined for 1,742 of the team's 2,194 rushing yards. For the first time in school history, three running backs rushed for more than 100 yards each in the same game (vs. Indiana State; Oct. 13, 2007). The 2008 season saw Illinois State total 197 yards per game rushing, with three running backs totaling 1,911 of the squad's 2,169 yards. After averaging just 98 rushing yards in 2009, Illinois State jumped to over 130 yards per game in 2010.

Before joining the staff at Illinois State, Wiggins was a student assistant for two seasons and a graduate assistant for one year at his alma mater, New Mexico. He worked primarily with the running backs in his student assistant role, before focusing on quarterbacks and wide receivers during his one year as a graduate assistant.

Wiggins was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at running back for the Lobos (1998-2001). He finished his collegiate career with 1,833 rushing yards, the 14th-most in school history. He remains the Lobos' single-season leader in punt returns (46) and punt return yardage (392) -- both set in 2000 -- and ranks 12th all-time in all-purpose yards

Jeff Kupper is in his sixth season as the director of football operations. He joined the Tigers after spending five seasons in a similar capacity at Columbia University.

In his role with the Tigers, Kupper is the "go-to" guy for many administrative duties, including team travel, camps and community service events. He is also instrumental in daily communications with student-athletes regarding practice schedules and team meetings.

In 2014, he was a member of a Memphis program which went 10-3, equaling a school record for victories set in 1938. Memphis captured the American Athletic Conference title, the team's first league championship since 1971 and won the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl with a 55-48 double-overtime victory.

As the director of football operations and special projects at Columbia, Kupper was involved closely with football marketing, development, compliance, equipment and facility operations. He oversaw quality control for game day events and arranged all staff and team travel, both in and out of season.

Kupper joined Columbia in August 2005 after two seasons at Ohio University, where he served as a facilities and equipment graduate assistant from 2003-05 and a football operations graduate assistant in 2005.

As an undergraduate at the University of Texas, Kupper earned three letters as a student football equipment manager. The Odessa, Texas, native oversaw the packing, handling and transportation of equipment and team bags for road games; organized team activities for the travel squad; acted as liaison between the travel team and hotel staffs; maintained and organized football equipment; and worked on reconciliation of equipment orders for six men's sports.

He was involved in logistical support for five bowl games in which Texas participated, including three Cotton Bowls and two Holiday Bowls.

Kupper was a three-time recipient of the Darrel K. Royal Scholarship Award and the Glen Swenson Award, both presented to an outstanding equipment manager. He spent four-consecutive semesters on the Athletics Director's Honor Roll.

Kupper graduated from Texas in 2002 with a B.A. in religious studies. He earned two master's degrees from Ohio: a master's of business administration and a master's of sports administration and facility management.

Kupper and his wife Lindsay have a daughter, Ruby-Wayne, born May 4, 2015.

DIRECTOR OF

ADAM LECHTENBERG

NEBRASKA, 2002
FOURTH SEASON

Adam Lechtenberg joined the Tigers football support staff in March of 2012, accepting a position as the team's director of player personnel.

In his position, Lechtenberg has played a key role in evaluating future talent for the Tigers.

In 2014, Lechtenberg was part of a program which went 10-3, equaling a school record for victories set in 1938. Memphis captured the American Athletic Conference title, the team's first league championship since 1971 and won the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl with a 55-48 double-overtime victory.

Lechtenberg came to Memphis from Central Connecticut State University (CCSU), where he served as co-offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. Lechtenberg coached two seasons at CCSU, guiding the Blue Devils to a 2010 Northeast Conference co-championship. CCSU led the league in nine offensive categories, including total offense, rushing offense, scoring offense and passing efficiency. He also served as the program's admissions liaison and academic coordinator.

Prior to his time at Central Connecticut State, Lechtenberg worked as an offensive graduate assistant under Justin Fuente at TCU. In his three seasons with the Horned Frogs, Lechtenberg helped TCU to three bowl appearances (2007 Houston Bowl, 2008 Poinsettia Bowl and 2010 Fiesta Bowl) and final national final rankings of No. 7 in 2008 and No. 6 in 2009.

Lechtenberg previously coached at Truman State University (running backs), Wayne State College (GA/wide receivers) and Fowler High School (defensive coordinator). The Butte, Neb., native was an all-state first team quarterback, all-state honorable mention basketball player and state track and field medalist at Butte High School. Lechtenberg played defensive back at the University of Nebraska.

Lechtenberg graduated from Nebraska in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Agribusiness and earned a Master's degree in Liberal Arts from TCU in 2009.

Lechtenberg and his wife Kristy have a daughter, Madison, born Sept. 10, 2014.

DIRECTOR OF HS RELATIONS

MARCUS BELL

MEMPHIS, 2010
SEVENTH SEASON

Marcus Bell, who is in his seventh year working with the University of Memphis football program, is in his second season as Tiger Football's Director of High School Relations.

Bell was part of the Memphis program's 2014 run which included the first conference title since 1971 and a victory in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl. The Tigers equaled a season record for victories set in 1938 as the team went 10-3, winning their last seven games of the season.

A former Tiger, Bell played in 42 career games and made 20 starts on defense. Bell lettered from 1997-2000 and was the Tigers' fifth-leading tackler as a senior, logging 60 stops and four sacks. For his efforts in 2000, he was named to the All-Conference USA first team.

In his career, Bell totaled 209 tackles, including 135 solo stops and 10 sacks. He was named C-USA Defensive Player of the Week twice during his career.

Bell was one of three Tigers defenders selected in the 2001 NFL Draft. He was a fourth-round pick of the Arizona Cardinals. Bell played seven seasons in the league — three years each with Arizona and Detroit before playing his final season with the New York Giants — and logged 165 tackles, three forced fumbles and six pass breakups in 86 games played.

Bell returned to Memphis following his NFL career and earned his bachelor's degree in 2010.

A native of Memphis, Bell played both offensive and defensive tackle at Kingsbury High. In the summer, Bell teams with former Tigers Reggie Howard, Mike McKenzie and DeAngelo Williams for the Phenomenal 4 Super Sports Charity weekend that includes a football camp for over 350 kids from the Memphis community free of charge.

DIRECTOR OF

ROHRK CUTCHLOW

MEMPHIS
FOURTH SEASON

Rohrk Cutchlow returned to his alma mater as the director of football strength and conditioning in May of 2012. A three-year letterwinner and two-year starter at catcher for the Tigers baseball program from 1996-98, Cutchlow graduated from Memphis with a Bachelor of Education degree with an emphasis on Exercise and Sports Science.

Prior to the 2013 season, he was promoted to the new role of Director of Athletic Performance.

In addition to having direct oversight of football, he supervises a full compliment of performance professionals as well as manages certification/safety, training, policies, procedures and scheduling facilities.

In his third season overseeing the Memphis football strength and conditioning program, the Tigers captured the American Athletic Conference title, the university's first conference championship since 1971. Memphis posted a 10-3 record, equaling a school record for victories and winning its final seven games of the season. The 2014 season culminated with a 55-48, double-overtime victory against BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

During the 2011 season, Cutchlow served as the director of strength and conditioning at Tulsa, where he oversaw the athletics department entire strength and conditioning program, while also working with the football team.

Before working at Tulsa, Cutchlow directed the strength and conditioning program at Illinois State for eight years. He served as the Redbirds strength and conditioning coordinator his first four seasons, before being promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Performance in 2007. While Cutchlow was at Illinois State, he worked with 12 players that signed NFL contracts.

A native of Littleport, Iowa, Cutchlow was one of five finalists for the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) College Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year award in 2006.

From 2001-03, Cutchlow was the head strength and conditioning coach for Olympic sports at Iowa State, where he directed programs for 16 sports that included men's basketball and wrestling. While at Iowa State, he earned his master's degree in educational leadership and policy education. He then spent two seasons working with the Chicago Cubs AAA affiliate.

A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the NSCA, Cutchlow holds additional certifications from USA Weightlifting and Functional Movement Systems (FMS). He is also a member of the Black Coaches Association.

Mike Bangtson is in his first year as an intern on the University of Memphis coaching staff working with the offensive unit.

Bangtson joined the Memphis staff in January, 2014, as a graduate assistant coach after previously serving as an assistant coach at Upper Iowa University. At Upper Iowa, Bangtson worked with an offensive line which helped the team break a school record in points scored (379 for a 34.5 scoring average). Upper Iowa also finished second in the Northern Sun Conference in sacks allowed at just 12 for the year (1.1 per game).

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Bangtson served as the co-video coordinator during the year.

Prior to joining the Upper Iowa staff, Bangtson was a graduate assistant coach working with the offensive line at Northwest Missouri State during the 2013 pre-season and season. He was also part of a coaching staff at Northwest Missouri which guided the Bearcats to a 15-0 record and a Division II National Championship in 2013.

Bangtson is continuing studies toward a master's degree in Applied Health Sciences (Athletic Administration) from Northwest Missouri State.

Bangtson began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at Iowa State University. As an undergraduate, Bangtson assisted Iowa State's offensive staff for three seasons including two bowl-eligible seasons. Iowa State advanced to the 2011 Pinstripe Bowl and played in the 2012 Liberty Bowl.

Bangtson earned his bachelor's degree in communications studies from Iowa State in 2012.

Cason Bicknell is in his first season as a member of the University of Memphis football coaching staff, serving in the role of an intern staff member for the defensive side of the football.

Bicknell joins the Memphis staff from Southwest Mississippi Community College where he worked with the Bears' defensive linemen and special teams as an assistant during the 2014 season.

Prior to working at Southwest Mississippi Community College, Bicknell was a student assistant coach as an undergraduate at Southern Miss.

At USM, Bicknell assisted with the Golden Eagles running backs in 2011 when the team won a Conference USA championship and accepted an invitation to play in the Hawaii Bowl. He worked with USM's tight ends and special teams in 2012. Additionally, he worked with quarterbacks during spring drills at Southern Miss in 2013.

Bicknell graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2013 with a degree in Human Performance and Recreation with an influence in coaching.

Jack Nuismer is in his second year as a member of the University of Memphis staff, serving as an graduate assistant for the Tigers' offense and special teams.

In his first season in 2014, Memphis captured the American Athletic Conference title and went on to win the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl. Memphis equaled a school record for victories, finishing with a 10-3 record.

Memphis tight ends caught a combined 37 passes for 526 yards and six touchdowns.

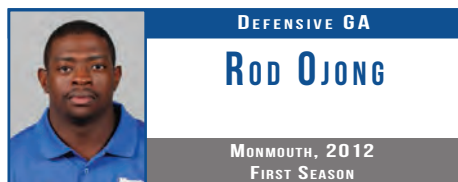

The special teams efforts in 2014 included place-kicker Jake Elliott being named the American's Special Teams Player of the Year. As a team, Memphis ranked fourth national in FBS Football in punt return defense, allowing opponents only a 2.77 yards per return average while the team's 18.12 kickoff return defense ranked 17th nationally.

Nuismer joined the Memphis staff following a collegiate playing career at Ole Miss where he graduated in December of 2012 with a bachelor's degree in Economics.

As a player at Ole Miss, Nuismer was a two-time letterman, playing both tight end as well as on special teams.

In 2013, Nuismer played in 12 games during a season capped by a 25-17 win over Georgia Tech at the Music City Bowl. He was also a member of the Rebels' team which won beat Pittsburgh 38-17 to win the BBVA Compass Bowl to cap the 2012 season.

Nuismer was a four-time SEC Fall Honor Roll member and was named to the U.M.A.A. Honor Roll four times. He made the University of Mississippi's Dean's Honor Roll for the Fall 2012 semester before receiving his degree that December.

Rod Ojong is in his first season as a member of the University of Memphis football coaching staff, serving as a graduate assistant coach on the defensive side of the football.

Ojong joins the Memphis coaching staff from the University of West Georgia where he was a graduate assistant and later restricted earnings coach, working with the Wolves' strong safeties during the 2014 season and the team's spring practice drills.

Prior to being a part of the coaching staff at West Georgia, Ojong was a graduate assistant coach at Lindsey Wilson College during the 2013 season.

Ojong coached Lindsey Wilson College's outside linebackers and was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Blue Raiders.

Lindsey Wilson College, which began fielding a football team in 2010 after a 75-year absence, finished 18th in the final 2013 NAIA poll. Ojong also worked spring drills in both 2013 and 2014 at the school and also had off-campus recruiting responsibilities.

Ojong began his coaching career at his alma mater, Monmouth College, where he worked the 2012 season as a student assistant linebacker coach.

Ojong was a two-year letter winner and team captain at Monmouth College. He was an all-conference linebacker in 2011 and a member of two Midwest Conference championship teams.

He graduated from Monmouth College with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 2012.

Kye Stewart is in his third season as a member of the University of Memphis football coaching staff, serving in the role as a graduate assistant coach on the defensive side of the football.

In 2014, Memphis ranked 11th in FBS Football in scoring defense, allowing just 195 points per game. The Tigers ranked 27th nationally in total defense, giving up 349.5 yards an outing. Memphis' 106.31 defensive pass efficiency rating led the American Athletic Conference and ranked eighth nationally while the Tigers' 121.5 rushing defense average was 19th nationally.

Memphis won the American Athletic Conference championship, the team's first league title since 1971, and posted a 10-3 record en route to a Miami Beach Bowl title.

In Stewart's first season as a member of the staff in 2013, Memphis' defense ranked 39th nationally in total defense (370.7 ypg allowed) and 12th against the run (116.3 ypg allowed).

Stewart joined the Memphis staff after playing four seasons in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Rough Riders (2009-11) and the Edmonton Eskimos (2012). Stewart, who played linebacker, was a member a Saskatchewan team which advanced to the Grey Cup Finals both in 2009 and 2010.

Stewart played in the CFL after a four-year playing career at Illinois State.

At Illinois State, Stewart was a two-time, all-Gateway Conference player who concluded his playing career finishing fourth in the voting for the Buck Buchanan Award which is annually given to the Defensive Player of the Year in NCAA FCS football. ISU advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs during junior season in 2006.

He graduated from ISU in 2008 with a degree in communications and a minor in business administration. Kye is a native of Nashville.

Tony Tokarz is in his second season as a member of the University of Memphis coaching staff. For 2015, Tokarz will move from defense to the offensive side of the football where he will work as a graduate assistant coach.

In his first year on staff, Memphis won the American Athletic Conference championship, the team's first league title since 1971, and posted a 10-3 record en route to a Miami Beach Bowl title in 2014.

Memphis' defense ranked 11th in FBS Football in scoring defense in 2014, allowing just 195 points per game. The Tigers ranked 27th nationally in total defense, giving up 349.5 yards an outing. Memphis' 106.31 defensive pass efficiency rating led the American Athletic Conference and ranked eighth nationally, while the Tigers' 121.5 rushing defense average was 19th nationally.

Tokarz joined the Memphis staff after coaching the previous two seasons at colleges in Massachusetts.

Tokarz coached wide receivers and quarterbacks in 2013 at NCAA Division II Stonehill College. The Skyhawks posted an 8-3 record, advancing to the Northeast-10 Conference championship game. Tokarz coached All-NE-10 first-team wide receiver Nate Robitaille in 2013. During the year, Stonehill receivers caught 191 passes for 2,571 yards and 28 touchdowns.

Tokarz also served as the strength and conditioning coach for the football program at Stonehill.

In 2012, Tokarz coached wide receivers at Anna Maria College. He also assisted the team with its strength and conditioning program and was also the program's film coordinator. His coaching responsibilities included aiding the team's offensive coordinator with the weekly passing game plan as well as calling defensive fronts, blitzes and coverage packages from the press box during games.

At Anna Maria College, Tokarz coached a first-team All-Eastern College Football Conference receiver and tight end.

Tokarz was named a fulltime assistant at Anna Maria College after volunteering as the team's quarterbacks coach during 2012 spring drills.

The 2012 graduate of Worcester State University (Bachelor's of Arts degree in history) was a three-year starting quarterback for the Lancers football team.

He was named a Stephen "Merc" Morris first-team All-Worcester selection and a first-team All-New England Football Conference pick as a senior.

Darrell Turner was hired in spring 2012 to serve as the Head Athletic Trainer at the University of Memphis. He is responsible for the athletic training needs of all 19 sports on campus. He works directly with the Tiger football program.

In 2014, Turner worked with a football team which won an American Athletic Conference title and culminated its season with a double-overtime victory against BYU at the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Turner joined the Tigers after serving as the Head Athletic Trainer in the United Football League (UFL) for three seasons. He worked with the Virginia Destroyers from 2011-12 under head coach and general manager Marty Schottenheimer. His previous appointment in the UFL was with the California Redwoods, which became the Sacramento Mountain Lions, for the 2009-10 seasons under head coach and general manager Dennis Green.

A native of Clermont, Fla., Turner worked as the Director of Sports Medicine for Winston-Salem State for four years, before taking his first position with the UFL.

Turner is a 2002 graduate of the University of Florida where he received a B.S. in Exercise and Sport Science, specializing in athletic training as well as serving as a student athletic trainer for the Gators nationally-ranked football program.

Following his graduation from UF in 2002, he completed a summer internship with the Atlanta Falcons. He later accepted a position as the Head Athletic Trainer at South Sumter High School in Bushnell, Fla., upon completion of his internship.

Turner left South Sumter to work on his master's degree in recreation with a concentration in sports management, which he earned from the University of Arkansas in 2005. While at Arkansas, Turner served as an athletic trainer with the Razorback football and tennis teams.

Following his post-graduate work, Turner worked as the seasonal intern for the Carolina Panthers. He then moved on as the Interim Athletic Trainer for Winthrop University before assuming the Head Athletic Trainer/Director of Sports Medicine position for the Rams at Winston-Salem State University.

Turner and his wife, Megan, have one child, Joley.

Marc Hohorst joined the athletic department in the summer of 2001 and 2015 marks his 15th season as the Tigers' equipment manager.

Hohorst is responsible for purchasing, issuing, and maintaining all athletic equipment, as well as supervising several student managers and interns. He also oversees the day-to-day operations of the equipment room at the Murphy Athletic Complex, which services football, baseball, soccer, track, softball and golf.

Working with football, Hohorst has been a part of six of the school's eight bowl games and the unique responsibility of coordinating the equipment needs in each of those games. Last year, Hohorst coordinated the Tigers' equipment move to south Florida for the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Hohorst is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and received national certification in 1997.

He was honored by his peers in the profession in 2010 when he was named the Jeff Boss District 4 Equipment Manager of the Year. He also served a term as the District 4 Treasurer from 2007-2012.

In November 2008, the University of Memphis entered into a lucrative five-year contract with Nike. Hohorst has taken on additional responsibilities of handling the increased inventory.

During the fall of 2002, the Athletic Department suffered a major loss when a fire on Halloween morning destroyed the turf room and most of the Tigers' football equipment. Hohorst received high marks and praise for gathering game day equipment from other universities in the area and preparing the football team for its next contest.

A native of Lafayette, La., Hohorst joined the U of M staff from Arkansas State, where he was the supervisor of equipment for three years.

Prior to his duties at ASU, Hohorst worked for one year at his collegiate alma mater, the University of Louisiana-Lafayette, in a game management capacity. He worked various ULL events, serving as the visiting team host and organizing ticket sales and records.

Hohorst graduated from the University of Southwestern Louisiana (now the University of Louisiana at Lafayette) in 1997 with a degree in physical education. He received his Louisiana teaching certification that same year and served as a substitute teacher in 1997 and 1998 at Youngsville Middle School.

While at Louisiana, Hohorst also assisted in the equipment room as a student and worked both the NCAA softball regional tournament and Sun Belt Conference baseball tournament as a tournament official. He spent one year with the Lafayette Swamp Cats as the head equipment manager.

Hohorst and his wife Brenda, who were married in June 2010, reside in Bartlett.

Josh Bost was thrown into the fire as the Tiger Football program's video coordinator when he was hired days prior to start of preseason camp in 2013.

Now in his third year, Bost is responsible for all facets of video production for the Tigers.

In 2014, Bost coordinated the video needs for the American Athletic Conference champions and a team which won the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Bost is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Tigers' video operations specific to football. He coordinates opponent video exchange as well as the daily shooting and editing of practice video along with game video. He is also responsible for video exchange for the Tigers' men's and women's soccer teams.

Bost joined the Memphis staff following a 10-year stint as the video coordinator at the University of North Texas. At UNT, Bost worked for four different head coaches including current Memphis offensive coordinator Darrell Dickey.

Bost originally worked in football video production as a student and later as a graduate assistant at Middle Tennessee State. He graduated from Middle Tennessee with a degree in television production in 2003.

Bost and his wife Holly have a son, Micah, and a daughter, Lizzie.

Sherri Schwartz, who is the Tiger football office coordinator, is in her 15th season working in the Tiger front office.

In her current role, she serves as the Assistant to the Head Coach.

Her responsibilities include coordinating head coach Justin Fuente's schedule as well as managing the administrative priorities of the coaching staff and the program. Prior to her current position, Schwartz had extensive duties with recruiting as a member of the Memphis Tiger staff.

A native Memphian, Schwartz and her husband, Steve, have two sons: Steven and Michael.

Akoya Nelson is in her fourth year as the Program Services Specialist for Football. In her role, Nelson works with Director of Player Personnel Adam Lechtenberg and coordinating the Tigers' recruiting efforts.

She also provides administrative support to the Memphis coaching staff.

As an undergraduate student at the University of Memphis, Nelson worked two years as a student assistant in the football office prior to being hired full time. She also volunteered with the marketing department during her time as a student.

Nelson received her bachelor's degree in Sports Management from Memphis in 2011.

Earned Dean's List recognition first semester at Memphis (Fall 2014) and was named to the Tiger 3.0 list for both the Fall 2014 and Spring 2015 semesters.

2014 (FRESHMAN)

Part of the Tigers' punting tandem in 2014, seeing action in short-field situations ... Placed all 16 punts during the season inside opponents' 20-yard line ... Opponents attempted three returns after punts but managed just three total return yards ... While punting average was 33.2 yards, opponents' starting field position following punts was just outside the 10-yard line ... Had four punts downed inside opponents 10-yard line including three inside the five ... Memphis ranked fourth in NCAA FBS Football in punt return defense, allowing opponents to average 2.77 yards per return ... All three punts against USF were downed inside the 20 in a key American victory in late November ... Second punt, which was downed at the one, was followed by a three-and-out USF series and Memphis regained possession at the USF 27, with 8:05 to play in the third quarter ... Memphis need just two plays to score to take a 28-13, third-quarter lead after the exchange ... At Temple, kicked a 34-yard punt which was returned from the 10 but fumbled and recovered by Memphis teammate Reggis Ball ... Memphis would kick a field goal to end the ensuing series to take a 13-10 lead with 1:39 to play in the fourth quarter ... Lone punt against BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl was a big one, pinning the Cougars at the six-yard line with 4:06 to play in the game and the Tigers trailing 45-38 ... Memphis' defense forced a three-and-out and the Tigers would score on their next offensive series to tie the game with 45 seconds to play in regulation.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Began the season by starting the first five games of the season at one of the linebacker positions ... Played in the first eight games before being sidelined the final three regular-season contests with an injury ... Final regular season game played in 2014 was at Temple as the Tigers posted their sixth victory of the season to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2008 ... Returned to play in the Tigers' bowl victory over BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl ... For the year was a member of defensive unit which ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 19.5 points per game ... Memphis was eighth in pass efficiency defense (106.31) and ranked 19th nationally against the run (121.5 ypg) ... Memphis' Red Zone Defense was third-best in FCS Football (.688) ... One of two tackles in the season-opening 63-0 win over Austin Peay was an assisted stop for a two-yard loss in the second quarter ... Had two tackles in the Tigers' game at UCLA ... Career-high, eight-tackle effort came in Memphis' 36-17 win over Middle Tennessee ... Helped set the tone on MTSU's first-offensive series with a pair of tackles following short pass completions as the Raiders went three-and-out ... Had four tackles at Ole Miss including solo stop on the first play from scrimmage as the Rebels went three-and-out ... Had a tackle for a four-yard loss during Ole Miss' first offensive series of the second half ... In Memphis' American Athletic Conference opener at Cincinnati, forced a first-quarter fumble that the Bearcats would recover, but on the same series broke up a pass on a fourth-and-two play to stop a UC series ... Memphis would add a field goal on its next offensive series to take a 17-7 lead and on the ensuing kickoff stopped the returner with a tackle at the 20.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Played in all 12 games of his sophomore season ... Lone tackle of the season came on special teams in the season opener against Duke ... Helped pin the Blue Devils inside their five yard-line with a solo tackle on Tom Hornsey's career-long, 79-yard punt early in the game ... Stopped the returner after a three-yard gain to the Duke 6 and an illegal block flag moved the ball back to the three.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Played in all 12 games, finishing freshman season with 27 total tackles (11 solo hits and 16 assists) ... Had 2.5 tackles for loss, intercepted a pass, forced a fumble and recovered another ... Just four games into his first season on the University of Memphis team, made his debut as a starter for the Tigers ... Went on to start eight games as a true freshman ... In playing debut against UT Martin, first career tackle was for lost yardage ... Posted a career-high seven tackles and recovered a fumble in Week Two at Arkansas State ... In first career start, intercepted a pass returning the ball four yards for a touchdown to give the Tigers an early 7-0 lead at Duke ... Also had two tackles against the Blue Devils ... In addition to four tackles including one for lost yardage in the Tigers' Conference USA win over Rice, had a quarterback hurry to force an incomplete pass on the Owls' final play from scrimmage ... The incompleteness forced Rice to punt with under three minutes to play and the Tigers would run out the clock ... Had four tackles and forced a fumble at SMU.

AT MEMPHIS

If there was a spot for an all-league long snapper in the American Athletic Conference, would have certainly been in contention for the honor the past two years ... During each of the last two seasons has handled long snapping responsibilities, working with punters as well as a place-kicker who have all earned post-season recognition each year ... Has teamed with the American Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year each of the past two seasons ... Worked with specialists who have earned one national award, Tom Hornsey's 2013 Ray Guy Award, as well as three first-team all-conference selections and a second-team selection.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Was the long snapper on point-after tries and field goal attempts as well as punts during the Tigers' American Athletic Conference championship season ... Worked with place-kicker Jake Elliott, who was named the American Athletic Conference's Special Teams Player of the Year ... Snapped on a Memphis season record 57 PATs as well as 21 field goals, just two shy of another school record ... Memphis scored a record 121 points by kicking during the season ... Part of the snap, place kick for a game-winning, 31-yard field goal as time expired against Temple as the Tigers became bowl eligible for the first time since 2008 ... Biggest long snap of the season certainly came at the end of the first overtime period of the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl as a 54-yard field goal extended the game Memphis won 55-48 in double overtime ... Working with Memphis' punt unit was part of a group which gave up just 2.77 yards per return which ranked fourth nationally ... Memphis' punters combined to average 38.7 yards per punt and dropped 34 of 74 kicks inside opponents' 20-yard line ... Had two tackles during the year on punt cover, the first stop coming in the opener with an assisted stop coming in road win at Cincinnati.

2013 (FRESHMAN)

Snapped for The American's coach-selected, all-conference punter and place-kicker ... Worked with special team standouts who won the 2013 Ray Guy Award (Tom Hornsey) as well as a semifinalist for the 2013 Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award ... Hornsey was a consensus NCAA All-America selection who averaged 45.2 yards per punt which ranked seventh nationally ... Part of a punting unit which posted a 41.02 net punting average which ranked fourth nationally ... Recorded three total tackles including two solo stops during the year ... Also snapped for a place-kicker who converted on all 24 point-after tries and made 16-of-18 field goal attempts (.889) including a school-record 56-yarder during the year.

WHITWATER HIGH SCHOOL

Long snapper helped lead Whitewater to its first 5A semifinal appearance with not only his special teams play but also as a receiver for the Wildcats ... Selected by the region's coaches for All-Region 4B AAAAA First Team honors at wide receiver ... Named All-County by Fayette Newspapers ... Caught 20 passes for 498 yards and five touchdowns ... After losing its season opener, Whitewater won 13 straight games, winning AAAAA Region 4B with a 4-0 regional record ... Was able to elevate for a catch and race 42 yards for a touchdown in a Region 4B win over Starr's Mill ... Caught six passes for 113 yards, including a 40-yard diving catch down the middle of the field in the semifinal game against Gainesville ... Also had a 46-yard catch on fourth-and-11 to setup a touchdown which kept the Wildcats in the game late into the fourth quarter ... Head Coach who was also responsible for special teams was Amos McCreary.

| LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUMAUGUST 30, 2014 |    |

The Memphis Tigers won a home opener for the first time since 2004 in explosive fashion, defeating Austin Peay 63-0 at the Liberty Bowl Stadium Saturday.

More than 27,000 fans were on hand as the Tigers set the fireworks off early and often. The Tigers' 63 points is the fifth most points a Memphis team has put up and the most since a 1969 beating of Louisville.

This was also the first shutout of an opponent since 2000, when Memphis blanked the University of Louisiana at Monroe.

It was an ominous start for Austin Peay as the Governors' opening kickoff sailed out of bounds. An offside penalty was added to the initial penalty, and the Tigers started their first possession at the 40-yard line.

The Tigers marched down the field in nine plays, taking up less than three minutes, capping off the drive with a two-yard rushing touchdown from Sam Craft.

The first defensive play from the Tigers resulted in Martin Ifedi tackling the running back for a loss of two. Two plays later, Bobby McCain intercepted quarterback Trey Taylor and took it 29-yards back to the Austin Peay 15.

An illegal block penalty looked as if it might stall Memphis' drive, but a 19-yard rush from Brandon Hayes on third and 17 kept it alive. Hayes punched it in from the 3-yard line one play later for his 12th career rushing touchdown to make it 14-0.

A quick three-and-out gave the Tigers the ball back, and they wasted no time. Paxton Lynch found Daniel Hurd on the first play for 28-yards. The Tigers finished the 3:21 drive with Doroland Dorceus taking it in from three-yards out for his first career rushing touchdown and Memphis' third of the quarter.

The Governors made a quarterback change, bringing in Darrien Boone, but it made no difference, as they failed to make a first down. However, on the subsequent drive, Lynch threw an interception at the Austin Peay's two-yard line, ensuring the Tigers would not add another seven points by the end of the quarter.

The 21 point first quarter was the most for the Tigers since UAB in 2012.

If the Governors were hoping the second quarter would bring a fresh start, they were quickly disappointed as Boone fumbled on the opening drive. Lynch took it in himself from the five-yard line four plays later to make it 28-0.

Austin Peay's offense came out for three plays and then gave it back to Memphis at the Tiger 34 via punt. The U of M engineered a 66-yard drive highlighted by a 39-yard pass from Lynch to Keiwone Malone, and finished it with Lynch's second rushing touchdown of the afternoon, this one from nine-yards out.

It wasn't until Austin Peay's sixth drive that Memphis recorded its first sack. Leonard Pegues recorded his first career sack when he got to Trey Taylor, who had re-entered the game, for a loss of 10-yards on second and 10.

After an Austin Peay punt, Lynch got his first passing touchdown of the season when he found Alan Cross for nine yards to make it 42-0. This snapped a streak of five-straight rushing touchdowns to start the game.

Austin Peay looked as if they may get something started on their next drive as they got into Memphis territory, but a 14-yard sack on third down, one that sent Boone's helmet bouncing off of the turf, ended the threat.

At the half, the Tigers held a 42-0 lead and had scored on six of their eight possessions. Memphis amassed 329 yards, while the defense allowed only 47, which was the exact distance of Spencer Smith's lone punt in the first half.

In the second half, the Tigers picked up where they had left off. After giving up a couple of first downs, Memphis forced another punt and took over at its own 19. Nine plays and 81-yards later, Lynch connected with Mose Frazier to cap off the Tigers longest scoring drive and give Memphis a 49-0 lead. It was also the last drive in which Lynch would play.

The Tiger defense forced another three and out, and Joe Craig took the ensuing punt from his 39 all the way down to the APSU 8. One play later, Dorceus took it in, and Memphis had a 56-point lead.

GAME NO. 2 - AT UCLA

| SEPTEMBER 6, 2014 |           |

UCLA quarterback Brett Hundley's response to his first interception thrown this season and the resulting scoring drive he engineered helped the 11th-ranked Bruins escape Rose Bowl Stadium with a 42-35 win over the Memphis Tigers.

Memphis scored twice early in the fourth quarter, including a 17-yard interception return by Fritz Etienne to tie the game at 35. Two plays prior to Etienne taking the ball to the house for a pick-six, Memphis running back Doroland Dorceus had scored on a 40-yard run.

Dorceus' third scoring run of the season was part of a 13-carry, 86-yard career rushing night for the sophomore.

After the Tigers had scratched back into the game, Hundley and the Bruins' response to Memphis' back-to-back scores including Etienne's interception return would result in the final points of the game.

During a nine-play drive that covered 75 yards and consumed less than three minutes of playing time, Hundley ran for 14 yards, starting with an 11-yard scamper on the series' first play and he completed all five of his passing attempts culminating with a 33-yard touchdown strike to Thomas Duarte.

Hundley would erase a holding penalty as well as a three-yard loss on a quarterback sack by Tank Jakes with a 17-yard pass to Jordan Payton and a four-yard run before Myles Jack converted a fourth-and-one from the Memphis 42. After a seven-yard completion to Devin Fuller, Hundley found Duarte open over the middle for the touchdown.

"They were playing man on the pick six and Brett didn't see the guy. He jumped it and took it in for six," said UCLA coach Jim Mora. "But what you see of good performers is when they need to come up with a drive and need to come up with a play, they do."

Saturday's game certainly turned into a track meet at times. Only two of 11 combined scoring drives consumed more than four minutes of clock - one by Memphis and one by UCLA.

Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch had a career night for the Tigers. He completed 27-of-42 passes for 305 yards and Memphis amassed 469 yards of total offense (164 rushing). Lynch's previous career best passing was 279 yards in last year's seven-point loss to UCF.

Lynch gave the Tigers a 7-6 lead with an eight-yard touchdown run in the first quarter and would cut a two-touchdown UCLA lead in half with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Hayes prior to intermission.

"At times he played well, at times he didn't," Justin Fuente said of Lynch's performance. "I am proud of him. That defense will make you make mistakes. I think operating in a great environment and playing a great defense will be beneficial to him."

With UCLA leading 42-35 in the fourth quarter, Memphis next two offensive series would stall at the UM 49 and 44. Memphis punter Spencer Smith would pin the Bruins inside the 10 after both offensive series.

UCLA's last possession began with 2:25 to play.

Paul Perkins ran for 10 yards on first down before Jakes had back-to-back tackles on rushing plays which combined for five yards. Memphis took its final two timeouts after those plays and on third down, Bakari Hollier and Kendrick Golden dropped Perkins for a two-yard loss.

Memphis would take possession at their own 42-yard line with 45 seconds to play, but the clock would expire.

In addition to Dorceus' career rushing yards, Brandon Hayes had 34 yards on nine carries and five receptions for 48 yards.

Memphis' three rushing touchdowns give the Tigers 12 for the season. The team had just 14 rushing touchdowns in all of 2013.

Defensively, Jakes led the Tigers with 12 total tackles including four tackles for loss. Jakes had two of the Tigers' four quarterback sacks in the game. Also with sacks were Jackson Dillon and Cortez Crosby, who now has a sack in each of his first two games.

"If you judge this team with what they showed today, it would be pretty easy to say that they are a tough group," Fuente said of his team. "They kept playing hard. We didn't always play well, but we played hard."

GAME NO. 3 - VS MIDDLE TENNESSEE

| LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUMSEPTEMBER 20, 2014 |    |

It's been 10 seasons, but the University of Memphis was 2-1 after three games to start a football campaign.

The Brandon Hayes-Doroland Dorceus tandem combined for 190 rushing yards and one score, and senior linebacker Tank Jakes created havoc for the Middle Tennessee offense the entire game to lift the Tigers to a convincing 36-17 non-conference victory over the Blue Raiders before a crowd of 46,378 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium. With the loss, Middle Tennessee is now 2-2.

The last time Memphis started a season 2-1 was in 2004 when that Tigers squad began 3-0. The 2004 Memphis team finished with an 8-4 record and earned a GMAC Bowl berth.

The crowd of 46,378 was Memphis' largest for a home game since 2006. It was also the eight-largest for a Tigers home contest against a non-Southeastern Conference foe.

Jakes had seven total stops (six solo), two QB sacks, three TFL, one forced fumble and one interception to pace a Memphis defense that entered Saturday's game ranked No. 1 for tackles for loss and No. 4 for solo stops in the nation. The Tigers, as a team, finished Saturday's game with 43 solo tackles and nine TFL.

A Paxton Lynch-to-Alan Cross TD connection gave Memphis a 7-0 lead three minutes into the contest, but it was Jakes' play on Middle Tennessee's second series that set the tone for the game.

Nick Jacobs' 42-yard punt pinned the Blue Raiders inside their own 5-yard line. After two minimal gains, Middle Tennessee faced a 3rd-and-7 at its own 5. Blue Raiders QB Austin Grammer went back to pass out of his own end zone, but Jakes sacked him for a safety and a 9-0 Tigers lead. It was Memphis' first safety since the 2003 Louisville game (37-7 Memphis win).

Despite a Middle Tennessee score late in the first quarter, the Tigers defense put together a dominating first-half performance. The Memphis defense limited the Blue Raiders to only 108 yards of total offense and five first downs. Other than its scoring drive following a Lynch interception, Middle Tennessee only crossed midfield one other time, and on that drive, the Blue Raiders only reached the Memphis 42 yard line.

With the Tigers defense holding Middle Tennessee in check, the Memphis offense put together two, second-quarter scoring drives to take a 19-7 advantage into halftime. The Tigers' first second-quarter points came on a Jake Elliott 27-yard FG to cap a 10-play, 37-yard drive with 9:43 on the clock. Two minutes later, Dorceus ran for a 32-yard TD to give Memphis a 19-7 lead.

The second half was much of the same, with the Memphis defense in charge. Through three quarters, Middle Tennessee only had 158 yards of total offense and eight first downs. In the third period, the Blue Raiders managed only one drive inside Tigers territory and that ended in a Cody Clark 36-yard FG with 3:33 left in the period.

In the final period, Jakes put an exclamation point on the Tigers' win with two huge defensive plays. Jakes' first play came three minutes into the fourth quarter when he stripped the ball from Grammer, and Bobby McCain picked up the fumble and raced 59 yards for the score. The Tigers led 36-10 at that point.

On the Blue Raiders' next possession, the visitors drove to the Memphis 29 yard line and were looking to cut into the Tigers' lead. Jakes, though, stepped up again - this time with his second career interception - to halt the Middle Tennessee drive.

Despite Jakes' big plays, Middle Tennessee gained more total yardage in the fourth quarter (167) than the previous three quarters combined (158). The Blue Raiders' final score was a Shane Tucker 3-yard TD run for the 36-17 final.

Hayes led the Tigers ground game with 99 yards on 21 carries, and Dorceus rushed for 91 yards on 15 carries and a TD. Lynch was 21-of-35 passing for 219 yards and two TD. Keiwone Malone led the Memphis receiving corps with six catches and 76 yards, while Alan Cross had 57 yards receiving and two TD.

Reggie Whatley paced the Middle Tennessee rushing attack with 41 yards on eight carries. Grammer was 24-of-35 passing for 237 yards.

| VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUMSEPTEMBER 27, 2014 |           |

The University of Memphis football team saw its upset bid of 10th-ranked Ole Miss come up just short, falling 24-3, in Oxford at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in front of 61,291 fans. The crowd was the ninth-largest in Vaught-Hemingway history.

Quarterback Paxton Lynch finished 13-of-31 for 81 yards and an interception while Jarvis Cooper led the Tigers with 29 rushing yards. Keiwone Malone picked up his 100th-career catch and finished with four receptions for 59 yards, including a 42 yarder in the opening quarter.

Defensively, Tank Jakes led the Blue and Gray with eight tackles, including six solo stops in the effort. Bobby McCain took away two passes on interceptions, his second multiple-sack game, and true freshman Genard Avery, a Mississippi native, recorded a sack for the second straight week.

After averaging 242.7 yards rushing and 498 yards of total offense through the first three games, the Ole Miss defense limited the Memphis offense to 104 yards of total offense and 23 yards rushing. At the same time, the Memphis defense held the Rebels' offense to 20 points below their season-average of 44 points per game.

The Memphis defense forced a three-and-out to open the game giving the Tigers four-straight games without allowing a touchdown on the opponents' first-possession.

The Rebels struck first with just over 12 minutes remaining in the opening quarter on a 63-yard pass from Bo Wallace to Laquon Treadwell to go ahead 7-0. Ole Miss looked to build on the early advantage, but senior cornerback McCain pulled in his ninth-career interception on a Wallace pass over the middle of the field. The 17-yard return by McCain moved him into second on the all-time return yardage list in Memphis history, passing Glenn Rogers, Jr.

Memphis was able to put points on the board off the turnover with 2:51 remaining in the opening period. Sophomore quarterback Lynch found Malone down the sideline on a 44-yard strike before the offense stalled and settled for a 40-yard Jake Elliott field goal.

The Memphis defense stifled the Rebels' offense when it mattered most on a 15-play, six-plus minute drive in the second quarter as Ole Miss' Andrew Fletcher missed a 40-yard field goal to give the Tigers the ball, down 7-3.

After receiving a second-opportunity when Memphis' Reggie Ball recovered a muffed punt at the Ole Miss 46, the Tigers were unable to capitalize on a third and two. But a Spencer Smith punt pinned the Rebels inside the five with six minutes remaining in the half.

McCain picked off his second pass of the night with just over two minutes remaining in the half, giving the senior seven interceptions in his last nine games after leading the country a year ago in the category.

Lynch's Hail Mary attempt at the end of the first half fell harmlessly to the turf as Ole Miss took a 7-3 lead into the intermission.

The Tigers opened the second-half with a drive that crossed into Rebels' territory, but a third-down run by Lynch came up two yards short of the first-down marker, resulting in the punt team taking the field. Ole Miss' Wallace was then pressured up the middle two-plays later where he coughed up the ball, giving the Blue and Gray the ball in plus-territory for the second possession of the half.

But three plays later, the Rebels' Trae Elston took a Lynch interception 47-yards to the Memphis 33. The Tigers defense would hold again near the red-zone, forcing a field goal attempt from 43 yards out that missed wide left.

The Tigers' defense would hold Ole Miss in the red zone, but the Rebels would eventually cap off the 16 play, 75-yard drive with a 19-yard field goal by Elston to give Mississippi a 10-3 lead with 13:04 remaining in the contest.

Ole Miss would push the lead to two-possession after a Jaylen Walton 23-yard rush up the middle following a strip-sack by Lynch with 9:34 remaining in the game, 17-3. The Rebels would add a late touchdown on a 17 yard pass from Wallace to Treadwell with just over a minute remaining to push the lead to 24-3.

Wallace finished with 248 yards and a pair of touchdowns to Treadwell. Walton led all rushers with 78 yards on 10 attempts and a touchdown. Treadwell reeled in five catches for 123 yards including a long of 63.

| PAUL BROWN STADIUMOCTOBER 4, 2014 |           |

Paxton Lynch passed for a career-high 311 yards and two touchdowns and ran for two more scores as Memphis opened American Athletic Conference play with a 41-14 win over Cincinnati at Paul Brown Stadium.

Lynch directed an offense that amassed 610 yards of total offense, third most in a single game in school history. It was the most yards of offense since the 1984 Memphis team had 630 yards against Cincinnati.

Lynch threw touchdown passes of nine and 29 yards in the first quarter and his 10-yard touchdown run later in the period put the Tigers ahead, 24-7. He added a 10-yard scoring run late in the third quarter for the final points of the game.

In addition to Lynch's passing numbers, the Tigers ran racked up 299 rushing yards.

Sam Craft made his first career start at running back and carried the ball 38 times for 170 yards and a touchdown. Craft's 38 carries was a top-five performance by a Tiger.

Defensively, Tank Jakes had 10 tackles including three for loss and a pair of quarterback sacks.

Looking at the final outcome, it is hard to believe how it started.

On the first play from scrimmage, Cincinnati quarterback Gunner Kiel hooked up with Mekale McCay for an 80-yard touchdown pass, putting the Bearcats out in front 7-0 just 17 seconds into the game.

The Tigers, however, would quickly respond.

Bobby McCain's 59-yard return of the ensuing kickoff gave Memphis the ball on the shortside of the field. Lynch's 9-yard touchdown pass to Tevin Jones capped a seven-play, 41-yard drive.

Cincinnati's next drive ended with a Kiel pass being intercepted by Bakari Hollier at the UC 48 and a face mask penalty on the play set up the Tigers at the 33.

Three plays into the Tigers' next series, Lynch hooked up with Adrian Henderson for a 29-yard touchdown pass and a 14-7 UM lead.

Jake Elliott would later add the first of his two, 20-yard field goals. A Cincinnati turnover would lead to Lynch's 10-yard touchdown run with 1:06 to play in the opening quarter.

Jakes sacked Kiel on back-to-back plays. On the second, he stripped Kiel of the ball. Cortez Crosby recovered at the Cincinnati 11 and help set up Lynch's eventual scoring run.

In the final minutes of the first half, Kiel had a six-yard touchdown pass to Shaq Washington get called back by an offensive pass interference call. Cincinnati would later miss a 38-yard field goal.

Kiel would suffer a chest injury on the final play of the first half and would not return to play after intermission. He finished the game by completing 11-of-27 passes for 216 yards.

Munchie Legaux took over for Kiel in the second half and directed the Bearcats on a scoring drive UC's first series of the second half. Rod Moore had 24 rushing yards on four carries on the drive, including a five-yard touchdown run.

Memphis would respond with a 75-yard drive to extend its lead to 34-14.

Sam Craft converted a third-and-six play early with a nine-yard run while an 11-yard Lynch to Keiwone Malone pass got the ball to midfield. Lynch would also complete a 23-yard pass to Tevin Jones and a 16-yard pass to Roderick Proctor moved the ball into the red zone. Craft culminated the drive with a six-yard touchdown run.

Lynch would add a 10-yard scoring run with three minutes to play in the third quarter.

Memphis would close the game with a 20-play drive that consumed the final 12:55 of the game.

The loss was Cincinnati's worse since a 38-0 loss to West Virginia on Nov. 9, 2005.

"We built this game up all week," Memphis coach Justin Fuente said. "It was important to us. I'm awfully proud of this team."

Memphis ran 94 offensive plays and had the ball for 40:55. The Tigers held possession in the fourth quarter for all but 40 seconds.

| LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUMOCTOBER 11, 2014 |           |

Memphis was hindered by five turnovers, including two that halted the Tigers' final two offensive series as the UM dropped a 28-24 decision to Houston.

UM quarterback Paxton Lynch finished 26-of-37 with 243 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions, while adding 35 yards rushing and a rushing touchdown. Sam Craft led the Tigers in rushing with 49 yards on 17 touches. Tevin Jones caught six passes for 72 yards and a score.

Defensively Terry Redden and Martin Ifedi led the Blue and Gray with seven tackles. Redden logged six solo stops along with half a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss. Ifedi, Jackson Dillon and Leonard Pegues each recorded two tackles for loss.

The Tigers forced a turnover on Houston's opening possession when Fritz Etienne picked off Greg Ward, Jr.'s pass to give Memphis the ball at the Houston 27. A three-and-out by the Blue and Gray saw Jake Elliott's 44-yard field goal attempt go wide left.

After forcing a three-and-out on the Cougar's next possession, the Tigers marched 72 yards in seven plays. The drive was capped off when Lynch found Jones with blockers set up on the screen for 18 yards and a touchdown at the 8:35 mark in the first quarter. Lynch orchestrated the offense on the series, going 4-for-4 with 54 passing yards and a TD.

Houston would drive the length of the field after a miscue on the kickoff, starting at its own 14 yard line. The Cougars would push the ball inside the red zone, but back-to-back TFL's by Leonard Pegues, Jackson Dillon and Noah Robinson and an incomplete pass brought out the field goal unit. Steven Aikens' field-goal attempt of 31 yards missed wide left.

The Tigers would go three-and-out on the next possession, but a muffed punt rekindled the drive for the Blue and Gray. Lynch scampered around the left side for six yards to find pay dirt and put the Tigers up 14-0 with 14:29 remaining in the second.

Making his first start, Ward answered with a scoring strike of his own as he eluded the pass rush and escaped down the field for the 64-yard touchdown to cut the lead in half, 14-7, at the 12:47 mark in the second quarter.

The Cougars would tie the game at 14 after Kenneth Farrow punched the ball in from two yards out. The Houston drive was set up by a Lynch pass that was intercepted by Lee Hightower, which was returned to the end zone, but a block in the back call during the return negated the touchdown and started the drive at the Memphis 21.

After exchanging punts over the next several possessions, Memphis took over with 2:06 remaining in the half set up in Houston territory by a 23 yard punt return by Keiwone Malone to the 39. Lynch would find Daniel Montief on a play action to give the Tigers the 21-14 lead with a minute left in the half.

Following the intermission, Houston mounted a drive to tie the game at 21 with 4:36 remaining in the third quarter. The Cougars went 85 yards in eight plays before Jackson Ryan found the end zone to tie the game.

Houston would take its first lead of the game with 13:34 remaining in the final quarter when Ward found Markieth Ambles from 25 yards out for a score, 28-21.

The Tigers answered with a scoring drive of their own, putting up a field goal behind the leg of Elliott from 31 yards out to cut Houston's lead to 28-24.

Needing a three-and-out to give the offense a chance to score the go-ahead touchdown, the Memphis defense held Houston to three-straight negative plays and forcing a punt. The Tigers special teams came up big as well, downing the following punt at the three yard line. The defense of the Blue and Gray came up with a second-straight three-and-out, giving the offense the ball at the Houston 42. But a Tevin Jones fumble gave the Cougars back the ball on the preceding play.

The Tigers took over with 1:52 on the clock at the Memphis 26 and picked up a first down, but a Lynch interception over the middle of the field by Efram Oliphant sealed the game, 28-24.

Ward led all rushers with 95 yards and a score, adding another 168 yards through the air.

| GERALD J. FORD STADIUM |           |
| OCTOBER 25, 2014       |           |

Paxton Lynch passed for 307 yards and Brandon Hayes ran for 101 yards, while Memphis' defense held SMU to 251 yards as the Tigers won their second straight league game on the road, 48-10.

Memphis' offense took a couple series to get rolling before scoring on eight straight possessions in the game.

The Tigers moved the ball to near midfield before a fourth-down run came up short of the down marker. SMU would be forced to punt on its first offensive series.

Lynch moved the Tigers' offense into SMU territory on its second offensive series but would have the ball stripped on a pass play and Memphis would turn the ball over for the only time on the day.

Memphis' offense would then find its groove.

Lynch and Phil Mayhue hooked up for the team's longest play from scrimmage this season, a 54-yard touchdown pass that put the Tigers on the board.

Jarvis Cooper, who ran for 93 yards, scored the first of two touchdowns on the day with a one-yard plunge. The score capped a 14-play, 80-yard drive that was highlighted by a 31-yard Cooper run to SMU 25.

A 42-yard Lynch pass to Mayhue would help set up Alan Cross' one-yard touchdown dive with 9:08 to play in the first half as the Tigers built a 21-0 lead.

After SMU moved the ball 75 yards on 12 plays, scoring its first touchdown at home on a one-yard Prescott Line run, Memphis capped the half with 10 more points.

Hayes scored on a 36-yard touchdown run with 1:23 to play to give the Tigers a 28-7 lead.

SMU quarterback Garrett Krstich was intercepted by Reggie Ball on the Mustangs' next offensive play. The Tigers would add a 37-yard field goal by Jake Elliott to lead 31-7 at the break.

Elliott would add a 22-yard field goal on the Tigers' first offensive series of the second half.

Successful passes of 18 and 29 yards from Lynch to tight end Daniel Montiel would highlight a 71-yard scoring drive capped by a seven-yard Cooper touchdown run.

SMU would boot a third-quarter field goal.

Memphis' final points came on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Jason Stewart to tight end Robby Young. The play marked the first pass and catch for the Tiger tandem.

Memphis' 582 yards of total offense at SMU was the sixth-highest total offense total at Memphis. The Tigers finished with a season-high 352 passing yards, the 13th-highest, single game total.

Memphis' 367 yards in the first half was a season high for a half. It was the fourth time Memphis has had 300+ yards of offense in a half this season, with all four coming in the first half.

Lynch's 307 passing yards on the day was four shy of a career high.

Mayhue, who entered the game with five catches for 63 yards, had two receptions for 96 yards against the Mustangs. Tevin Jones caught five passes for 70 yards, marking the third straight game the receiver has caught five balls in a game.

Defensively, Memphis held the Mustangs to just 137 yards rushing and 114 passing. The defense forced three-and-out series five times during the game.

Senior defensive end Martin Ifedi had five tackles including one for a loss which moved head onto the top-10 list for TFLs at Memphis.

Senior linebacker Charles Harris had four tackles and broke up a pass. Defensive backs Andrew Gaines and Reggie Ball each had interceptions in the game which led to scores. It was the second career interception for both.

Editor's Note: Brandon Hayes was originally credited with 101 rushing yards, but a change in the official stats made on Nov. 7 dropped his total for the game to 99 yards.

Memphis senior running back Brandon Hayes nearly outscored the Golden Hurricane himself, finding the end zone for three touchdowns during a career-high, 199-yard rushing night as the Tigers beat Tulsa 40-20.

Hayes' effort marked the 16th-best rushing performance and the most yards by a Tiger since 2009.

Along with Hayes' performance, sophomore place-kicker Jake Elliott scored a career-high 16 points for Memphis. He booted four field goals including two from more than 50 yards. Elliott also tacked on four extra points.

It was actually Tulsa who got on the board first. Memphis received the opening kickoff, and after a lengthy 12-play, 55 yard-drive, Elliott missed a 39-yard field goal into the wind. After the two teams traded punts, Memphis had the ball at its own six with 11 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

Jarvis Cooper fumbled the ensuing play and DeMarco Nelson took it in to give the Golden Hurricane a 7-0 lead.

The Tigers would respond quickly, as they went 29 yards on five plays in 29 seconds to give Elliott another attempt. He was on target this time, and his 53-yard field goal, which tied for the second longest in school history, sailed through the uprights to make it 7-3.

TU got the ball back less than a minute after it scored its first touchdown, and the Golden Hurricane marched down the field. A nine-play, 75-yard drive was capped by Dane Evans finding Derek Patterson for 28 yards and a touchdown.

After falling behind 14-3, Memphis scored 30 unanswered points.

After TU's second score, Bakari Hollier's 26-yard return of a short kickoff set the Tigers up at the Memphis 46.

Paxton Lynch hooked up with Adrian Henderson for 24 yards to the Tulsa 30. From there, Lynch and Hayes would take turns running the ball down the field, before Lynch took it in himself from three yards out to cut the lead to four.

Tulsa took the ball and marched back down the field, getting down to the Memphis 20-yard line before the Tigers stopped them on three-straight plays. TU kicker Carl Salazar came out to attempt a 37-yard field goal, but the U of M had other plans. Because of the wind, Salazar had to keep the ball lower, which allowed Jackson Dillon to break through and block the attempt, keeping the score at 14-10 and swinging momentum the Tigers' way.

On the first play of the next possession, Hayes gained 21 yards. Then, a targeting penalty on the next play added 15 yards to the end of a six-yard pass. The penalty also meant that Tulsa lost linebacker Craig Suits for the remainder of the evening.

Memphis would have to settle for a 37-yard field goal after a couple of holding penalties stalled the drive. Elliott's kick was true, and it was 14-13 Tulsa with just under two minutes to play in the half.

It looked as if that might be the score at the break, but the Tiger defense caused a quick three-and-out. After a 20-yard punt, Memphis took over at its own 48 with 1:20 remaining in the half and a chance to take the lead.

After two quick plays for a net gain of one yard, the Tigers were facing a third and nine. Instead of forcing a throw, Lynch handed off to Hayes and he did the rest, taking it 51 yards to paydirt. The score completely flipped the game around and gave Memphis its first lead at 20-14. It was a lead the Tigers wouldn't relinquish.

Tulsa received the ball to open the second half, but they quickly went three and out. The Tiger defense would force the Golden Hurricane to do that on five-straight possessions into the third quarter.

Memphis was unable to get anything going on its own first two possessions, but finally broke through on the third. After the Tiger defense forced Tulsa to punt from its own eight, Lynch and the offense took over at their opponent's 49 and 9:10 remaining in the third quarter. Lynch found Mose Frazier for 16 yards to the Tulsa 33. Memphis would pick up three more yards before making way for Elliott, who booted it through from 47 yards to make it a two score ball-game 23-14.

Elliott would add a 51-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Hayes would score from 30 and 14 yards out in the fourth quarter.

GAME NO. 9 - AT TEMPLE

| LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELDNOVEMBER 7, 2014 |           |

Memphis place-kicker Jake Elliott booted a 31-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Tigers to a 16-13 win over Temple. With the program's third straight victory, Memphis became bowl eligible for the first time since 2008.

Elliott's field goal culminated a 12-play, 66-yard drive which consumed the game's final 2:40.

Temple's Austin Jones kicked a 46-yard field goal with 2:46 to play, tying the game at 13-13.

Memphis had managed just 201 yards of total offense through three quarters. But the Tigers perfectly executed the two-minute offense to get in to position for the game-winning field goal.

Right out of the gate, Paxton Lynch hooked up with Mose Frazier for a 12-yard completion to spark the series. Frazier, who had a career-high eight catches for 110 yards on the night, also caught a first-down pass for four yards to midfield.

Brandon Hayes would catch a seven-yard pass, and Tevin Jones' 12-yard reception to the Temple 31 moved the Tigers into field goal range with 51 seconds to play.

Keiwoe Malone would add an 11-yard reception to the 20 before Hayes ran for nine more to the 11. A couple runs by Lynch moved the ball to the center of the field for Elliott.

Memphis had come back from a 10-0, first-quarter deficit.

Jones capped Temple's first offensive series with a 43-yard field goal and Kenneth Harper would later have a 75-yard scoring run in the quarter. Harper's run was the longest against the Tigers this season.

Temple's opening-drive field goal marked just the second time this season an opponent had scored on its opening series (Cincinnati score a touchdown on its first drive).

The Tigers got on the board in the second quarter after Tevin Jones blocked a punt which was recovered by Frazier at the Temple 31. Elliott would boot a 42-yard field goal.

Temple's next punt by Alex Starzyk went just 16 yards to the Memphis 41 and on first down, Frazier snarled a catch for a 42-yard pickup to the Temple 17. Hayes would later cover that distance with a touchdown catch and Elliott's PAT tied the game at 10-10.

A fumbled punt return by the Owls set the Tigers up for a 27-yard, go-ahead field goal by Elliott with 1:39 to play in the third quarter.

With the three field goals during the game, Elliott moved to seventh in career field goals made. He now has 31 for his career. And with his 10 points scored, Elliott posted his third-straight game with 10-plus points and fifth of the career.

In addition to kicking three field goals against Temple, Elliott had two touchbacks among his four kick-offs. A third Elliott kick was returned out of the end zone for just a 17-yard gain.

Memphis finished the night with 312 yards of total offense, while Temple had 298 yards.

Lynch completed 21-of-28 passes for 230 yards and a touchdown. During the game, the sophomore signal caller surpassed the 2,000-yard season passing mark for a second straight year. Lynch became just the third Memphis quarterback to pass for multiple,

2,000-yard seasons.

Hayes went over the 2,000-yard rushing mark for his career during the game.

Memphis was 3-for-3 on red zone opportunities, while the Tigers' defense held the Owls scoreless on two red zone opportunities.

GAME NO. 10 - AT TULANE

Memphis cornerbacks Bobby McCain and Dontrell Nelson each had pick-six interceptions as the Tigers defeated Tulane 38-7, spoiling the Green Wave's first on-campus homecoming game in more than 40 years.

The 2014 season marked Tulane's first playing back on campus in Yulman Stadium.

With the win, Memphis notched its fourth American Athletic Conference road win. Memphis won four conference road games for the first time in program history. At 4-2, the Tigers equaled their best road mark since 2004.

"I think that we have a group that, I kind of like when we get them out of town," explained Memphis head coach Justin Fuente. "Quite honestly, we have an ability to focus and to dial in to the task at hand. We're here for only one reason, and we don't stay very long. We come in here to play a game and then get the heck out."

Memphis' defense set the tone during its first series on the field.

On Tulane's second play from scrimmage, McCain stepped in front of a receiver, picking off a pass and returning it 15 yards for the Tigers' first points. Memphis led 7-0 less than two minutes into the game.

Tulane quarterback Tanner Lee was also intercepted on the Green Wave's second series by Andrew Gaines.

With an offense that struggled early, accounting for just 93 total yards in the first half, Memphis would need a solid defensive performance along with solid special teams.

Memphis place-kicker Jake Elliott gave the Tigers a 10-0 lead in the second quarter with a 22-yard field goal.

Freshman punter Spencer Smith would average 46.9 yards on eight punts, including four of 50+ yards and three inside Tulane's 20.

A Tulane fumble recovered by Ryan Coleman would set up the Tigers' first offensive touchdown.

Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch was able to find receiver Mose Frazier deep for a 38-yard touchdown pass.

"I saw him rolling and I just got in his vision," Frazier said. "I was hoping he would look up field. He did, he let it go, and I went and got it."

Frazier led Memphis with five receptions for 59 yards. Lynch completed 14-of-25 passes for 178 yards.

The Tigers would stretch their lead to 24-0 on Nelson's 58-yard interception return for a touchdown with 2:56 to play in the third quarter.

"The defense played a great game today," Frazier said. "They constantly bailed us out even though the offense started very slow. Bobby came out with a pick-6 and then Dontrell came out with a pick-6. Throughout the game they made stops every time we couldn't get anything going. Every time we got stopped, they went out and made a stop too."

Lynch would cap Memphis' next offensive series with a four-yard touchdown run, extending the Tigers' lead to 31-0 with four seconds left in the third quarter.

The Tiger defense pitched a shutout for three quarters. Tulane would finally get on the board by going 91 yards on 11 plays with Dontrell Hilliard scoring from 19 yards out with 1:55 to play.

Memphis would answer the late, Green Wave score.

After a failed on-side kick by Tulane, Memphis running back Robert Davis had three straight runs, scoring from two yards out. Davis began the drive with a 39-yard run and also carried for a six-yard gain.

Davis was the Tigers' co-leader in rushing yards with 47, matching Brandon Hayes' game total.

Tulane outgained Memphis 351 yards to 334. The Tigers, however, forced a season-high five takeaways - three picks and two fumble recoveries. Memphis scored a season-high 21 points off turnovers in the win.

McCain's first-quarter interception marked the senior's fourth career pick-six. He also had an interception return for a touchdown at Tulane his freshman season.

In addition to his interception returned four a touchdown, Nelson had a quarterback sack for a five-yard loss and two tackles for lost yardage.

GAME NO. 11 - VS USF

Paxton Lynch scored using his feet and his arm as he led the Tigers to a 31-20 victory against USF.

Lynch scored a pair of rushing touchdowns and two more through the air, making him responsible for all four touchdowns the Tigers scored on the afternoon. With the performance, Lynch moved past Steve Matthews (1992-93), Billy Fletcher (1963-65), and Dave Casinelli (1960-63) for sixth all-time in TDs responsible for.

Senior defensive end Martin Ifedi's sack in the fourth quarter gave him 22.5 for his career, breaking the program record Tramont Lawless (1996-99) had held.

Memphis started the game from its own 25 after receiving the opening kick. A 47-yard run from Brandon Hayes brought the ball down to the South Florida 30, but a penalty stalled the drive and forced a field goal attempt. Jake Elliott's kick from 45 yards missed wide right.

USF took over at its own 27 and drove down the field using a couple of big, third-down completions. The Bulls had first down and goal from the five, but the Tigers defense stiffened and forced South Florida to settle for a 21-yard field goal.

Memphis responded on its next drive, taking the ball nine plays and 75 yards in just over three minutes. The drive was helped along after a roughing the passer penalty call against the Bulls on a play where Lynch hit Keiwone Malone for 15 yards. The penalty put the ball on the 25 yard line in USF territory. After a two-yard loss, Lynch broke off a 24-yard rush that, after review, was placed at the one. Lynch would take it in himself on the next play for six. After Elliott added the PAT, it was Memphis 7, USF 3.

The U of M took over at its own 44 with 2:41 remaining in the first quarter and would methodically drive down the field, before scoring on the final play of the quarter. Hayes took it to midfield on the first play, and then Lynch found Alan Cross for 18 yards. Hayes took it seven yards on the next two plays, and then 12 more a couple of plays later. Lynch finished the drive by rushing it in from the five. Elliott's extra point made it 14-3, Memphis.

It didn't take USF long to respond, as the first play of the second quarter, following a touchback, was a 75-yard touchdown run from Marlon Mack, making it 14-10.

The lead would only stay within four for a minute and a half, as Memphis took it right down the field. Lynch found Adrian Henderson for 24 yards on the second play of the drive. After a six-yard rush from Hayes, Lynch hit Mose Frazier for 42 yards and the touchdown, bringing the score to 21-10.

USF's next possession was a long one. It spanned 16 plays and 8:03 of game clock, but only resulted in another field goal. Memphis had an opportunity to cut the drive short early on, but a personal foul for a horse collar tackle negated what was a drive-ending sack on third down. After Marvin Kloss knocked his second field goal through, it was 21-13. That was the last points USF would muster until just a few minutes remained.

At the break, Memphis had outgained USF 288-213, and had earned four more first downs than its opponent. Hayes rushed for 102 yards in the first half, his second time to break the century mark this season. Lynch had 38 yards rushing himself, including two touchdowns. He also had 149 yards and a TD through the air.

The Memphis defense forced three fumbles in the half, but was unable to turn any of them into turnovers.

The second half began with USF taking over at its own 19. After a few first downs, the drive stalled and the Bulls punted from midfield. The two teams would then have back-to-back three and outs. USF's came inside its own five, after a Nick Jacobs' punt was downed inside the one.

The resulting USF punt gave Memphis ideal position at the Bulls' 27, and the Tigers would take advantage in two plays. Lynch hit Mayhue for 16 yards to the 11, and then he found Hayes for the touchdown to make it 28-13.

| LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUMNOVEMBER 29, 2014 |    |

The University of Memphis football team claimed at least a share of the fifth conference championship in school history, with a 41-10 rout of UConn on Saturday afternoon at the Liberty Bowl. The Tigers (9-3) pick up their ninth win of the season and most in a single regular season since 1963. UConn falls to 2-9 and 1-6 in American Athletic Conference play as the Blue and Gray even the all-time series 1-1.

The Blue and Gray capped off the balanced offensive approach with 178 rushing yards and 194 passing yards while the defense stymied the Huskies for the majority of the evening, allowing 107 rushing yards and 162 yards through the air.

Sophomore quarterback Paxton Lynch found the end zone often in the contest, throwing for 194 yards and four scoring tosses while adding 40 yards rushing on nine carries. The four touchdown passes were a career-high for the sophomore from Deltona, Fla. Lynch finished the night 22-of-41 and his four TD passes were the second most in a single game in school history.

Senior Brandon Hayes rushed for 60 yards to lead the Tigers' running game.

Senior Keiwone Malone pulled in seven catches, including a pair of touchdowns from seven and nine yards out. On his senior day, the wide receiver had a game-high 70 yards in the winning effort.

The Memphis defense baffled the Huskies for much of the game with six three-and-outs on 14 possessions along with a fumble recovery and an interception in the third quarter.

The Tigers were forced to punt on the opening possession before back-to-back series of 13 and eight plays resulted in Jake Elliott field goals from 21 and 22 yards out. The Blue and Gray eventually broke the seal of the end zone just before halftime, when Malone hauled in a Lynch pass with 1:55 to play before the intermission to give the Tigers a 13-0 lead. But UConn got on the board before the end of the half, as Bobby Puyol connected on a field goal from 45 yards out with three seconds to put the Huskies on the board.

After a first half riddled with mistakes for both teams, Memphis poured it on in the second half, finding the end zone on four separate occasions despite running eight plays for 16 yards on its first two possessions after the break.

The Tigers capitalized on the first of the Huskies turnovers, a fumble recovered by Martin Ifedi and forced by Derek Howard, on another nine-yard scoring toss from Lynch to Malone, pushing the score to 20-3 and sparking a run of three straight series with touchdown passes.

A three-and-out forced by the Memphis defense gave the offense the ball back with decent field position, looking to further expand on the lead. The Tigers marched methodically down the field, going 65 yards on nine plays, capping the drive with a beautiful one-handed catch in the endzone by Tevin Jones.

On the following play from scrimmage, Memphis' Fritz Etienne picked off a Tim Boyle pass at the 40 yard line for his third interception of the season. The Tigers' offense found the Promised Land six plays later on a 21-yard strike from Lynch to Phil Mayhue for Lynch's third-straight drive with a scoring toss. During those three drives, Lynch went 8-of-10 for 79 yards.

The Huskies wouldn't be denied a trip to the endzone, however. Trailing 34-3, UConn's Boyle connected with Arkeel Newsome from 39 yards out to cut into the deficit with just over 12 minutes remaining in the game.

Memphis' Jarvis Cooper would round out the cavalcade of scoring, punching it in from a yard out with just five minutes remaining for a 41-10 Tigers lead.

In their final home game, seniors Tank Jakes and Bobby McCain recorded nine and seven tackles, respectively, to lead a defense that yielded 17 points or fewer in seven games this season.

GAME NO. 13 - VS BYU

Dramatic. It's certainly one word which epitomized Memphis' 55-48, double-overtime win over BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Memphis had to overcome five turnovers including a 19-yard, BYU interception return for a touchdown with 7:48 to play in regulation which gave the Cougars a 45-38 lead.

In the final minutes of the fourth quarter, the Tigers had to convert two, fourth-down plays. The second conversion resulted in a five-yard touchdown pass from Paxton Lynch to Keiwone Malone with 45 seconds to play, tying the game at 45-45.

In the first overtime period, Jake Elliott needed to kick the longest field goal ever in an overtime period – a 54-yarder – just to send the game on to a second overtime series.

After Memphis had scored in the second overtime period, DaShaughn Terry intercepted a pass on BYU's second play from scrimmage to end the game.

route Miami Beach Bowl's Most Valuable Player honors.

Lynch completed 24-of-46 passes for 306 yards and four touchdowns including the game-winning, 11-yard strike to Roderick Proctor in the end zone to cap Memphis' second overtime series on offense. Lynch also ran for 38 yards and three scores.

In his final game as a Tiger, Malone caught six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns. He also had a career-long, 41-yard run in the game.

The two teams combined to run an NCAA bowl record-tying 188 offensive plays including 97 by the Tigers (tied for seventh-most in a bowl game) and account for a combined for 905 yards of offense.

Memphis twice led by 10 points in the game, the last coming with 3:45 to play in the third quarter, when Alan Cross hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Lynch.

The Cougars would take advantage of three, fourth-quarter Memphis turnovers to go from 10 points down to leading 45-38 when Zac Stout returned his interception for a score with 7:48 to play.

Late in the game and the Tigers trailing by seven, punter Nick Jacobs pinned BYU at its own four-yard line. A three-and-out series by the Cougars followed by a short punt and a nine-yard return by Joe Craig gave the Tigers the ball at the BYU 33 with 2:34 left in the fourth quarter.

Lynch and Malone would first hook up on a fourth-and-seven pass play for a 15-yard pickup to the Cougar 11. Four plays later and facing another fourth down, Lynch would scramble and Malone would make a diving catch in the end zone to help tie the game in the final minute.

Trevor Samson kicked a 45-yard field goal to give BYU a 48-45 lead in the first overtime period. After Memphis' first offensive series in overtime lost 12 yards on three plays, Elliott was called on to boot the 54-yard field goal to extend the game. In addition to being the longest in an overtime period, the field goal tied for the fourth-longest in a bowl game.

In the second overtime period, Malone caught a 15-yard pass on second down and following a Brandon Hayes' four-yard run, Lynch found Proctor open in the end zone for the rookie's first career touchdown reception.

Team's 349.5 yards allowed during the 2014 season ranked 27th nationally ... Key member of a Memphis defense which allowed opponents to score on just 68.8 percent of their red zone opportunities which ranked third nationally ... Capstone to career was an American Athletic Conference championship, the school's first league title since 1971, and a victory in the Miami Beach Bowl ... Recorded 38 tackles, including 29 solo hits, from nose tackle position ... Credited with 5.5 tackles for lost yardage (-16 yards) and had 1.5 quarterback sacks (-7 yards) ... Three games into senior season, established a career high for tackles with seven in the Tigers' win over Middle Tennessee ... With Memphis leading 12-7 in the second quarter, followed up an assisted tackle with a quarterback sack on third down to force a punt ... Memphis would start its next series at the MTSU 40 and needed just three plays to score and extend its lead to 19-7 ... Had tackles for lost yardage on consecutive, third quarter series by MTSU ... Had six tackles the following week at Ole Miss ... Registered seven tackles including 1.5 for lost yardage against Houston ... Recorded six tackles in homecoming victory against Tulsa, including a solo hit on TU's first offensive play from scrimmage ... With Memphis trailing 14-13 late in the first half, and the Tigers defending on a third-and-one play from the TU 34, had a tackle for a two-yard loss to force a punt with 1:28 to play ... Memphis would need just three offensive plays after the stop to go 52 yards for the go-ahead score and the Tigers would not relinquish the lead ... Closed out the year with a three-tackle effort in Memphis' double-overtime victory against BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

RAY GUY AWARD

Former University of Memphis punter Tom Hornsey was named the 2013 Ray Guy Award winner. The award is annually presented to the nation's best punter.

Hornsey received the award on December 12, 2013, at The Home Depot College Football Awards broadcasted by ESPN. Ray Guy, the College Hall of Fame punter who played at Southern Miss and went on to have a 14-year career in the NFL with the Oakland and Los Angeles Raiders, presented the award.

Hornsey received one of nine National College Football Awards Association (NCFAA) awards during the evening. During the evening he was also named a member of the Walter Camp All-America Second Team. He is only the second player from the U of M to be named a Walter Camp All-American, with the other being DeAngelo Williams in 2005.

Hornsey was included on the 2013 NCAA FBS Consensus College Football Team. The recognition is determined by a point system computed from All-America teams named by the American Football Coaches Association and select media sources.

Hornsey was named to the American Football Coaches Association's All-America Team. He was a First-Team All-America selection by the Associated Press, the Football Writers Association of America, Athlon Sports and USA Today.

During his senior season, Hornsey ranked eighth nationally with a 45.2 punting average, helping the Tigers post a 41.02 net punting average that ranked fourth in the country. During the year he had three of the 15 highest game punting averages in Memphis history.

Hornsey placed 29 of 62 punts inside opponents' 20-yard line (.468). The .468 percentage ranked fifth nationally while the 29 punts downed inside the 20 tied for third among FBS punters through the regular season. He only had four of his punts go into the end zone for touchbacks while opponents managed just 19 returns for 136 yards.

A two-time Ray Guy Award Player of the Week, Hornsey averaged 40+ yards 10 times during the season. In the two games in which he averaged just under 40 yards, he placed a total of eight of 13 punts inside opponents' 20-yard line.

During his career, Hornsey had 34 games in which he averaged 40+ yards, three shy of an NCAA record.

Hornsey was the inaugural winner of the Ray Guy Award Player of the Week award when he averaged 49.6 yards per punt against Middle Tennessee. He placed two of his five punts inside the Blue Raiders' 20 and had a 68-yarder in the game. Coupled with a career-long, 79-yard punt the previous week against Duke, he had two of the 10 longest punts in FBS football through the first three weeks of the college season.

Hornsey would also have a 70-yard punt against UT Martin en route to a 46.8 yard average in the Tigers' win against UT Martin. He was recognized for his efforts against UTM with a second Ray Guy Award

Player of the Week honor, becoming just the second punter to receive the honor twice during the year.

Hornsey averaged a season-best 51.7 yards against Houston, which ranked seventh in school history, and also averaged 50.5 yards against Temple on Senior Day.

In addition to his statistical numbers, Hornsey was a member of Justin Fuente's second Leadership Council at the University of Memphis. He was a game captained all 12 contests during the year.

LOU GROZA AWARD

Former University of Memphis place-kicker Joe Allison enjoyed a record-setting career and a brilliant season in 1992, but he never dreamed that, in doing so, he would receive the Lou Groza Award, which is presented to the nation's top college kicker.

Allison, a native of Atlanta, Ga., led the nation in field goals per game, average field goals made per game, and kick-scoring for the final nine weeks of the 1992 season. His 23-of-25 field goals made were the most in the nation, according to the NCAA, and his 92.0 percent made rated best among all kickers for the year.

"I did not know about the Lou Groza Award until we played Tulsa in late October," said Allison. "After the game, Bob Winn (Assistant Athletic Director/Communications) came up to me in the locker room and said that I was a candidate for the award. I didn't even know who Lou Groza was at the time.

"As soon as we returned to campus, I looked up Mr. Groza's statistics in the NFL record book, and I talked to Coach Armstrong (UM kicking coach) about his career with the Cleveland Browns."

Allison continued on his torrid streak of field goals made throughout the remainder of the '92 season. Week after week, his name appeared at the top of the NCAA statistics for kickers, and a campaign was started to let sports writers and voters throughout the country know about Allison's feats.

For his accomplishments, Allison was named first team All-America by The Football News, The Football Writers Association, the Associated Press, United Press International, College and Pro Football Weekly and The Sporting News. He is Memphis' first-ever first team All-American on the Associated Press squad and was named to more first team All-America squads in one year than any other Memphis football Tiger in the school's history.

Following the Thanksgiving holiday, Allison suffered an attack of appendicitis and had an emergency appendectomy. The surgery kept Allison from traveling to Hollywood, Calif., to appear on the Bob Hope Christmas Special, and it was while he was in the hospital recovering from his surgery that Allison learned that he had won the Lou Groza Award.

"Mr. Winn called and told me that I had won the award and it made me feel a whole lot better," Allison stated. "I was determined that I was going to get well and travel to Florida for the awards ceremony."

Allison did indeed recover from his surgery and, with the assistance of former head coach Chuck Stobart and kicking coach Murray Armstrong, traveled to West Palm Beach, Fla., to receive the first national award ever won by a Memphis player.

The December 10th program was emceed by ABC sportscaster Curt Gowdy, and Baylor University head coach Grant Teaff was the guest speaker.

In accepting the Lou Groza Award from "The Toe" himself, Allison credited his snapper and holder and the entire Tiger special teams unit.

"Out of the 57 snaps during the season," Allison said, "I was the only one who made a mistake. Chad (Williams) did not have a bad snap, Andy (McWilliams) did not have a bad hold, but I missed two field goals. I couldn't have done it without their help."

The cousin of the late NASCAR driver Davey Allison, Joe booted 32-of-32 PATs in 1992 and finished with a then-school-record 90 consecutive PATs made for his career.

He set the Memphis record for field goals made in a single season when he kicked his 17th of the year in the Tigers' win over Tulsa in 1992, and ended the year with 23.

For 30 years, the school scoring record for a single season had been 84 points by Dave Casinelli (1963). In 1992, Allison broke Casinelli's record during the Ole Miss game and finished the season with 101 points. He accounted for 35.2 percent of all of the Tigers' points in 1992.

Allison held the Memphis record for 50-yard field goals in a season with three in 1990 before Stephen Gostkowski booted three in 2005. He has, however, hit more 50-plus yard field goals than any other player in Tiger history with five. Allison ranks third all-time in scoring with 262 points and in PATs made with 109, and ranks second in field goals made with 51. He held the No. 1 spots until Gostkowski completed his four-year career in 2005, claiming the top spot in those categories.

JOHN
BRAMLETT

One of the greatest defensive players in Tiger football history, John Bramlett was a two-sport athlete at Memphis State University. A linebacker out of Humes High School in Memphis, Bramlett played for head coach Billy J. Murphy for four seasons. He also had a stellar career at catcher for the Tigers' baseball team.

A speedy and intense player, Bramlett made the Memphis Football varsity squad immediately as a freshman in 1959 and became a starter midway through the year. The Tigers finished the 1959 season with a 6-4 record and posted wins against Florida State and Southern Mississippi.

During the 1960 campaign, Bramlett helped the Tigers improve to an 8-2 record, and the 1961 team also posted an 8-2 record. As a senior, Bramlett registered two pass interceptions which were returned for a total of 55 yards. The Tigers improved to 8-1 and in an important program milestone, Bramlett led the defense in allowing Mississippi State to score just seven points, as Memphis State won its first game against an SEC opponent, 28-7 against the Bulldogs in Starkville, Miss. Memphis would finish the 1962 season ranked 17th in the nation by United Press International.

On the baseball diamond, Bramlett batted .323 as a freshman and .357 during his sophomore season. The Tigers were 5-15 in 1959 but improved to 12-12 in 1960. As a junior, Bramlett led the squad with a .403 batting average and the team posted a 13-6 record. As a senior, he hit .358, hit four home runs and stole 18 bases.

Bramlett was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals and stayed in professional baseball for three years before signing a contract with the Denver Broncos in 1965. Bramlett was the runner-up for Rookie of the Year honors in the NFL behind quarterback Joe Namath. He went on to play seven seasons for four teams in the NFL.

Bramlett had his jersey retired on Sept. 7, 2013 when the Tigers opened the season against Duke.

ISAAC
BRUCE

Isaac Bruce came to the Memphis football team as a wide receiver in 1992. The junior college transfer made an immediate impact with the Tigers. Coupled with junior college quarterback Steve Matthews, Bruce helped give the U of M one of the nation's top passing attacks. He started all 11 games as a junior and was the team's second-leading receiver with 39 catches for 532 yards and five touchdowns. However, it was the 1993 campaign that caught the attention of pro scouts.

The Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., native opened the 1993 season with seven catches for 112 yards and two touchdowns in the Tigers' win over Mississippi State. He added 147 yards against East Carolina, 109 in a contest against Arkansas State, 108 in the Tulsa game and had over 90 yards receiving in five additional contests. Bruce finished the 1993 season with a school-record 74 catches for 1,054 yards and 10 touchdowns. His 74 catches and 1,054 yards remain Memphis football records and his 10 touchdown receptions is fourth.

Bruce was drafted in the second round by the St. Louis Rams in 1994. He played 14 seasons for the Rams and was signed by the San Francisco 49ers in 2008. He retired following the 2009 season. In 16 years in the NFL, Bruce amassed 15,208 receiving yards and 91 touchdowns on 1,024 receptions.

Bruce's Memphis jersey was retired in a ceremony at Liberty Bowl Memorial Field on October 4, 2003.

DAVE
CASINELLI

Dave Casinelli, who was Memphis' all-time leading rusher until DeAngelo Williams took the record book by storm, was recruited to Memphis in 1960 from Follansbee, W.Va., where he received all-America honors as a senior in high school. Casinelli played at Memphis from 1960-63 and ended his career by leading the nation in rushing and scoring, while guiding the Tigers to an undefeated season in 1963. During his first year as a starter, Casinelli led Memphis in rushing with 646 yards on 117 carries. His nine touchdowns in 1961 also led the Tigers. As a junior, "The Bull" gained 826 yards on 173 attempts while scoring 11 touchdowns. In his record-breaking senior year, Casinelli became the first Tiger to rush for 1,000 yards in a single-season when he tallied 1,016 on 219 attempts in 1963. His 1,016 yards ranked him first among all NCAA rushers and his 14 touchdowns helped him capture the national scoring title.

Following graduation, Casinelli became a successful businessman in Memphis and Tallahassee, Fla. Casinelli later lost his life in a car accident in 1987.

GREENHILL

Charles Greenhill was called the "most talented football player ever to come out of Memphis, Tennessee." The multi-talented Greenhill prepped at Frayser High School, where he lettered for three years in football, basketball and track. He played for the Tigers just one year (1983) before being killed in a plane crash with former head coach Rex Dockery and offensive coordinator Chris Faros.

A defensive back, Greenhill had 20 tackles that season, including 13 solo stops. Greenhill was also a dandy return man for the Tigers. The 6-2 speedster returned a kickoff 69 yards for a touchdown against Cincinnati and went on to average 29.8 yards per return.

Following his death, Firestone Stadium, which was the home field for Frayser High, was renamed Charles Greenhill Stadium.

HARRY
SCHUH

Harry Schuh became the fifth football player in Tiger history to have his jersey retired at the U of M.

From 1962-64, Schuh was one of the most dominant offensive linemen in all of college football. The Pennsylvania native started for Coach Billy J. Murphy's Tigers and helped his team to a three-year record of 22-5-1. By the conclusion of his senior season, Schuh had become the most decorated football player in school history. He was named to 11 All-America teams, including The Sporting News, Associated Press, United Press and the Football Coaches Association teams.

Following his collegiate career, Schuh was taken by the Oakland Raiders as the second player selected in the 1965 Draft, behind Alabama quarterback Joe Namath. He played six seasons for the Raiders, three years for the Los Angeles Rams and one season for the Green Bay Packers. Schuh was an All-Star selection in 1968 and 1969 and was selected to play in the NFC-AFL Pro Bowl Game in 1970.

Schuh had his jersey retired when Memphis hosted East Carolina on October 15, 2011. Schuh passed away May 20, 2013.

WILLIAMS

DeAngelo Williams came to the University of Memphis from nearby Wynne, Arkansas, and became one of the most decorated players in Tiger history.

Named to several All-America teams during his career, Williams was a key factor in the Tigers going to three straight bowl games for the first time in school history. He rewrote the rushing section of the Tiger record book, finishing his career with 6,026 yards and 55 rushing touchdowns on 969 carries. In addition, he caught five touchdowns and registered 723 receiving yards on 70 receptions.

Williams played as a true freshman in 2002 and later was named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team. He went on to claim C-USA Offensive Player of the Year honors the other three seasons of his career. He was also touted for Heisman honors entering his senior season, and held true to the publicity ending his senior campaign ranked No. 1 nationally in rushing, with an average of 178.55 yards per game.

During his storied career, Williams set an NCAA record with 34 games of 100-plus yards rushing, and ranks fourth all-time in NCAA history in career rushing yards with 6,026. He also holds the NCAA record for career all-purpose yards with 7,573.

In addition to multiple league honors, Williams also received various national awards and recognition. He was named to the prestigious Walter Camp All-America Team; was a finalist for the 2005 Doak Walker Award; and was the MVP of both the 2005 Motor City Bowl and the 2006 Senior Bowl to name a few.

The speedy back was selected by the Carolina Panthers as the 27th pick of the first round of the 2006 NFL Draft.

Williams had his jersey retired on Nov. 5, 2006 when the Tigers hosted Southern Miss.

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. — In November of 1956, Memphis State College received its second bowl bid in school history, but this time University officials accepted the invitation and the team traveled to East Tennessee to participate in its first post-season event.

In 1938, the Tigers received an invitation to play in the Prune Bowl in California and asked bowl officials for a financial guarantee to help cover the cost of transporting the squad across country. When the guarantee did not come through, Memphis opted to stay home.

In November of 1956, the Memphis squad finished the season with a record of 4-4-1 under head coach Ralph Hatley. Andy Nelson and Cotton Clifford served as team captains that year and helped Memphis to victories in two of the final three games of the season.

During that three-week span, the Tigers had back-to-back shutouts, defeating Western Kentucky 42-0 and Arkansas State 34-0.

November 22 was a cold and blustery day in Johnson City, Tenn. Not suited for football or any other outdoor event, the day was highlighted by a light snow fall and spitting rain and sleet.

East Tennessee State College tallied the game's first points, on a 14-yard pass from quarterback Howard Tippet to halfback Bob Lindsey, during the first period. The point after failed, as did most that day, and the Buccaneers led 6-0.

The Tigers answered the ETSC score before the first quarter ended. Bob Schmidt blasted into the end zone from two yards out and following the missed PAT by Memphis, the score was tied 6-6.

Neither team could do much to defeat the weather the remainder of the first half, although the Tigers penetrated several times into Buccaneer territory in the second quarter. Memphis even moved down to the East Tennessee State 1-yard line, before a fumble halted the drive. The first half ended with the score knotted at 6-all.

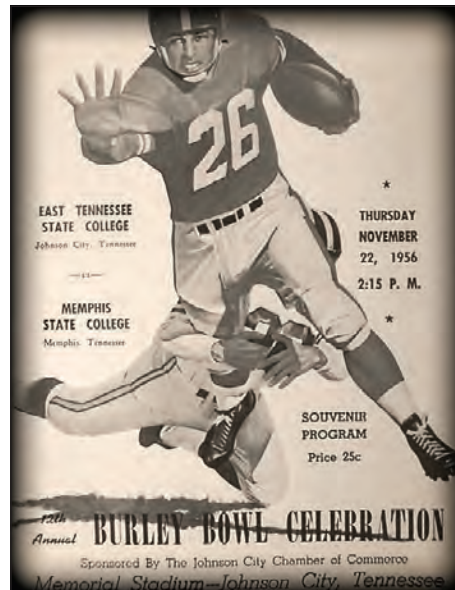

It was not until the second half that the Tigers got their offense going. After being held to 6-all in the first half by a battling bunch of Buccaneers, Memphis shook off the effects of the biting cold weather conditions and took charge of the Burley Bowl — which was witnessed by 700 fans on a frigid Thanksgiving afternoon — in the third quarter. The Tigers punched across three touchdowns in that third period to take control of the contest en route to the program's first ever postseason bowl victory.

The first time Memphis received the ball in the third quarter, fullback Bobby Brooks sprinted right up the middle, veered to the left and went 45 yards for a touchdown. And before that decisive period ended, the Tigers also scored on a one-yard plunge by Eddie Gebara and a 64-yard screen pass from Bubba Leonard to Gebara.

Andy Nelson took a pitchout four yards for the final Memphis touchdown in the opening minutes of the fourth period. Leonard converted the PATs after the third and fourth touchdowns.

East Tennessee's last touchdown came midway in the fourth period when quarterback Joe Dixon ran in from one yard out.

The Tigers ended the season with a 5-4-1 record, while East Tennessee State College dropped to 4-5 on the season.

| ROSE BOWL (104,091) |    |
| DECEMBER 18, 1971   |    |

PASADENA, Calif. — A hard-nosed defense that caused numerous San Jose State mistakes and an explosive offense that capitalized on those miscues led the Tigers to a 28-9 Pasadena Bowl rout over San Jose State before a sparse crowd of 15,244 in the Rose Bowl.

Memphis State, making its first major bowl appearance, trailed 3-0 early in the opening period until a blocked punt by Tom Carlsen, who was named the defensive player of the game, gave the Tigers a lead they would never relinquish.

The Tigers received the opening kickoff and, failing to move the ball, were forced to punt from their own 26-yard line. The Spartans drove the ball 19 yards and attempted a 42-yard field goal that fell short and was returned by the Tigers.

Following another failed drive, San Jose moved the ball to the Memphis 16-yard line, before kicker Larry Barnes connected on a 33-yard field goal. It would be the only time that San Jose State would hold a lead in the game.

With 50 seconds remaining in the first quarter, Trojan punter John McMillan stood at his 15-yard line. Tiger defensive back Tom Carlsen blocked McMillan's punt and fell on the loose ball in the end zone for the score. Hal McGeorge added the point after, and Memphis had the lead 7-3.

The Tiger defense gained an air of confidence and stopped San Jose State on the ensuing series. Following a short Trojan punt, the Tigers took over at midfield.

With quarterback Al Harvey leading the offensive attack, the Tigers moved into scoring position. A 13-yard pass from Harvey to Dornell Harris, who was named the offensive player of the game, and runs by Harvey, Skeeter Gowen and Paul Wilson set up the Tigers at the 9-yard line. Harvey went the final nine yards on a run around right end. The 65-yard drive early in the second period gave Memphis a 14-3 lead at intermission.

The Tigers kicked off to begin the second half. San Jose State couldn't move but got a second chance when Gowen fumbled on Memphis' first offensive play. Bill Brown recovered on the Tiger 24 and a 14-3 Memphis lead looked very precarious. The Spartans moved all the way to the Tiger 2-yard line. But on fourth down, the Tiger defense buckled down by meeting running back Joe Hicks at the line of scrimmage and slamming him to the Rose Bowl turf to end San Jose's only real threat.

The third period featured strong defensive play by both teams and when the quarter came to an end, the score remained 14-3 in favor of the Tigers.

The final stanza opened with San Jose in control of the ball, but an interception and 27-yard return by the Tigers' David Johnson, his second of the game, put the ball at the Spartans' 18-yard line. Memphis tailback Gowen wasted no time in increasing the Memphis lead as he raced 18 yards to the end zone on the first play from scrimmage. The scoreboard read 21-3 in favor of the Tigers.

Lightning struck immediately for Memphis. On the Spartans' first play following the Tiger score, back Larry Lloyd fumbled and Memphis' Carl Taylor recovered.

Five plays later, Tiger fullback Clifton Taylor punched the ball in from the 1-yard line and Tiger fans rejoiced with a 28-3 lead and just 10 minutes remaining to play.

Frustration mounted for San Jose State as the Memphis defense continued its strong play. Forced to pass the ball with time running out, Tiger cornerback Walter Daggett picked off the Tigers' fourth interception of the afternoon to halt yet another Trojan drive.

San Jose's only touchdown was set up when a pass from center sailed over punter John Kidwell's head and was recovered at the Memphis 20-yard line. A quarterback keeper by Brad Metheany, with 36 seconds left in the contest, got the Spartans their only touchdown. The extra point attempt was wide left.

The victory over San Jose State marked the second bowl win for the Tigers in school history. The game also marked the end of an era in Tiger football history. Head coach Billy J. Murphy stepped down from his coaching position following the bowl win and dedicated his time to being the University's athletic director.

The former Marine compiled a record of 91-44-1 over his 14 seasons as head coach at Memphis.

| DECEMBER 16, 2003            |           |

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The nation's longest bowl drought of 32 years ended in a big way for the University of Memphis. The Tigers, which had not participated in a bowl game since 1971, received a bid to the 2003 New Orleans Bowl to face Sun Belt Conference champion North Texas after a stellar 8-4 season.

The city of Memphis was electrified. Excitement abounded and Tiger faithful began buying tickets and preparing for the trip to the "Big Easy."

Playing in the first bowl game of the 2003 post-season and before a national television audience on ESPN, the Tigers were challenged to stop the nation's top running back in Patrick Cobbs of UNT. And Memphis would have to succeed without the services of its top tailback, DeAngelo Williams.

Following three days of fun and practice, game day finally arrived on December 16.

Memphis won the coin toss and deferred until the second half, giving the Mean Green the ball.

UNT gave the ball to Cobbs six times on the opening drive, but were forced to call on kicker Nick Bazaldua when the drive stalled at the Tiger 30-yard line. Bazaldua booted a 47-yard field goal for the UNT 3-0 lead.

But this night belonged to the bowl-hungry Tigers and the North Texas lead was short-lived.

After U of M receiver Chris Kelley returned the kick-off to the Memphis 34-yard line, junior quarterback and New Orleans native Danny Wimprine took over.

When rushes by Darron White and Derron Parquet failed to gain yardage, Wimprine went up top and connected with wideout Darren Garcia for 63 yards to the UNT 6-yard line. Three plays later, Wimprine kept the ball and raced seven yards into the end zone for the go-ahead score.

The Tiger defense, having had a taste of the North Texas offense, returned to the field determined to shut down the Mean Green. Three plays later, punter Brad Kadlubar kicked the ball back to the Tigers.

But possible disaster struck on the Tigers' next possession as tailback Parquet was knocked out of the game with a shoulder injury. Memphis was forced to put the ball in the hands of walk-on back LaKendus Cole to win the game.

Midway through the second quarter, North Texas was forced to punt and the Memphis offense got the ball at the Memphis 24. Powered by the running of Cole and the passing of Wimprine, the Tigers drove the ball to the UNT 10-yard line before Wimprine found Kelley in the end zone for the team's second score of the game. Stephen Gostkowski added the extra point, and the Tiger lead was 14-3.

Lightning soon struck again. On the ensuing kick-off, Memphis' Shaka Hill stripped the ball from returner Kevin Moore and Cato Mott recovered at the UNT 8-yard line. After three plays, Gostkowski was called on and connected on a 21-yard field goal.

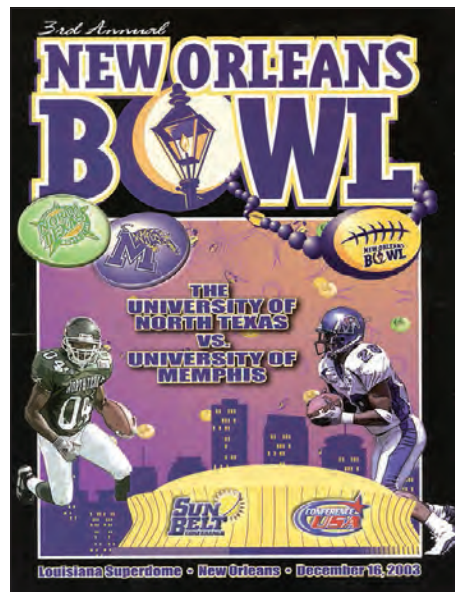

The Tigers went to the locker room with a 17-3 halftime lead.

The third stanza of the game became a defensive battle, as both teams were unable to move the ball until the two-minute mark.

The Mean Green, starting near midfield, marched 58 yards in six plays with Cobbs going the final 35 yards for their first touchdown of the night. Suddenly, the score read Memphis 17, North Texas 10, as the third quarter ended.

With 12:28 left in the contest, Memphis regained the ball at its own 38-yard line.

Wimprine hit receiver Darron White for 20 yards, and fullback Robert Douglas gained three on his first carry of the game. After a facemask penalty against UNT, Cole had gains of two yards and 14 yards to the Mean Green 5-yard line. On second-and-goal, the sophomore from Houston High in Memphis burst up the middle for the touchdown and a 24-10 lead. It was Cole's first collegiate touchdown and gave Memphis an insurmountable lead.

North Texas fought hard, and with 2:26 left in the game, scored again on Cobb's run of two yards.

But the Tigers immediately pushed the Mean Green down field for another score. This one iced the victory that had been so long awaited.

With Cole gaining yards on the ground and Wimprine connecting with receivers Mario Pratcher and John Doucette, Memphis moved within field goal range, and Gostkowski brought on the celebration with a 42-yard kick.

As the final seconds ticked off the clock, the players gave head coach Tommy West the traditional cooler bath and then carried their coach onto the field on their shoulders.

New Orleans Bowl director Ron Maestri presented the Tigers the championship trophy at midfield, and Wimprine was named the game's MVP.

LaKendus Cole was presented the game ball by Coach West after rushing for 62 yards and one score in a reserve role.

Memphis completed the 2003 season with a record of 9-4, marking the best finish by a Tiger team since the 1963 season.

| DECEMBER 22, 2004             |           |

MOBILE, Ala. — In an aerial battle before a rain-drenched 29,500 at Ladd-Peebles Stadium, Memphis' Danny Wimprine and Bowling Green's Omar Jacobs put on a show for the ESPN national television audience. In the end, Jacobs won the shootout in leading the Falcons to a high-scoring 52-35 GMAC Bowl victory over the Tigers.

Jacobs, the GMAC Bowl MVP, connected on 26-of-44 passes for 365 yards and five touchdowns. Not to be outdone, Wimprine was just as impressive. The Tigers' senior quarterback was 26-of-39 passing for 324 yards and four touchdowns. Each signal-caller had one interception.

Wimprine and Jacobs received help from each team's running game. For the Tigers, DeAngelo Williams, the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year, carried the ball 18 times for 120 yards, including an impressive 31-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Williams missed the final quarter after breaking his right fibula in the third period. P.J. Pope aided the Falcons' cause with 151 rushing yards on 28 carries and two scores.

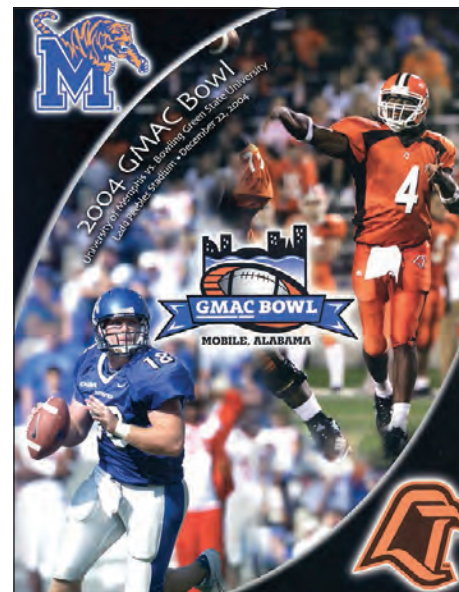

The offensive fireworks started almost from the opening kickoff. After Bowling Green held the Tigers on their first possession, the Falcons took over on their own 41. Nine plays later, Pope found the end zone from a yard out for a 7-0 Bowling Green lead.

However, the Falcons were not done. On the ensuing kickoff, Bowling Green pulled some trickery out of the playbook early with an onside kick. The Falcons recovered the kick, and the Bowling Green offense was back in business. Jacobs directed a four-play, 52-yard drive in only 45 seconds to give the Falcons a 14-0 lead just over five minutes into the contest. The score came when Jacobs connected with Charles Sharon from 18 yards out.

Memphis got its second possession of the game and took little time cutting the Bowling Green lead in half. The Tigers went 80 yards in seven plays, and the drive culminated in a Wimprine-to-John Doucette 42-yard touchdown toss with 6:51 left in the first quarter.

With the game taking on a back-and-forth nature, the Falcons answered immediately. Jacobs led Bowling Green on a six-play, 68-yard drive over the next 2:05 to put the Falcons ahead 21-7. Jacobs hooked up with Sharon for a 36-yard scoring toss.

In the second quarter, the Tigers scored 17 seconds into the period on a Wimprine 60-yard pass to Chris Kelley. The score began a five-touchdown quarter that ended with the Falcons holding a 35-28 halftime lead. Memphis was able to pull even at 28-all on a Williams' 31-yard touchdown scamper with 3:37 left. Bowling Green, though, had one final answer before halftime. Jacobs threw his fourth touchdown pass of the first half when he found Steve Sanders in the end zone with only :37 on the clock. The score gave the Falcons a 35-28 lead and the momentum heading into the second half.

After the break, Bowling Green took control of the game. The Falcons scored the lone touchdown in the third quarter -- Jacob's fifth touchdown pass -- and added 10 points in the final quarter before Memphis' last score with under five minutes to play for the 52-35 final.

Tim Goodwell finished the game with 10 total tackles (five solo), two TFL and a quarterback sack to lead the Tiger defense. Jovon Burkes led the Bowling Green defense with 11 hits (six solo) and two TFL.

Wimprine went over 10,000 yards passing and finished his career with nearly every Tiger passing record. The Tiger quarterback tops the Memphis record book for career passing yards (10,215), completions (808), attempts (1,469) and touchdowns (81).

Before his third quarter injury, Williams went over 4,000 career rushing yards. The 100-yard GMAC Bowl performance was the 24th 100-yard rushing game of his career.

| FORD FIELD (50,616) |           |
| DECEMBER 26, 2005   |           |

DETROIT, Mich. — It was the holiday season, and the Memphis Tiger football team gave its fans a Merry Christmas – even though it came a day later. Behind a DeAngelo Williams 238-yard rushing performance and three Stephen Gostkowski field goals, the Tigers posted their second postseason victory in three seasons with a 38-31 win over Akron in the 2005 Motor City Bowl. The game was played at Ford Field, the site of the NFL's 2006 Super Bowl in early February.

Williams, who was named the Motor City Bowl MVP, compiled his bowl record-setting 238 yards on 31 carries and scored three touchdowns. Gostkowski hit field goals of 32, 25 and 50 yards, and the 50-yard effort set a Motor City Bowl mark.

The way the game started gave no indication it would end up being a 38-31 shootout. The Memphis offense sputtered at the start, and the Tigers relied on their defense and punter Michael Gibson's foot. The Tiger defense allowed the Zips only three points, despite having two first-quarter drives deep in Memphis territory. Akron got the field goal on its second drive, but on the first trip across the 50 yard line, the Zips' series was halted at the Memphis 25 when Tim Goodwell and Rod Smith stopped Brett Biggs on 4th-and-1. Gibson played just as important a role in the first quarter with two long punts – 51 and 49 yards – that pinned Akron inside its own 10 yard line both times.

After watching the defense keep the Tigers in the game in the first quarter, the Memphis offense got on track in the second frame. Williams, who gained only 19 yards in the first quarter, picked it up on the Tigers' first scoring drive with 34 yards on the ground. Tiger quarterback Maurice Avery also found his groove in the second quarter, hitting Ernest Williams on a 42-yard strike to the Akron 23. Four plays later, Gostkowski connected on a 32-yard field goal to tie the contest at 3-all.

The Tigers kept it going. The defense held the Zips to three-and-out on their next series, and the Memphis offense continued to roll. On the first play of the ensuing drive, Avery found his target in Ryan Scott for a 50-yard gain to the Akron 2 yard line. Williams then pushed the ball across the goal line for the first Memphis lead of the game. After Gostkowski's PAT, the Tigers led 10-3.

With just over four minutes left before halftime, Akron got the ball with an opportunity to cut into the Tiger lead, but it didn't happen. The Tiger offense took over with 2:30 on the clock and took advantage of another scoring chance. After two rushes netted a minus-3 yards, Avery took back to the air and again hit Scott for a long gain – this time, 48 yards – to the Akron 27. From there, the Tigers moved the ball to the Zips 7, where Gostkowski hit his second field goal for a 13-3 Tiger halftime lead.

The early portion of the second half looked no different for the Akron offense. Stymied by the Tigers in the first half, the Zips were unable to get past their own 40 yard line on the first two possessions. Aided by two Akron defensive pass interference calls, the Tigers moved down to the Akron 2, where Williams scored his second touchdown for a 20-3 Memphis lead.

With only three minutes left in the third quarter and down 20-3, the Zips scored via the air on the ensuing drive. Zips quarterback Luke Getsy was 6-of-7 passing for 80 yards on the series that resulted in a 46-yard scoring strike to Jabari Arthur to cut the Tiger lead to 20-10.

The game moved into the fourth quarter, and the shootout began. Gostkowski got it started with a 50-yard field goal for a 23-10 Tiger lead. Akron responded with a quick three-play, 80-yard drive to cut the Memphis lead to 23-17. The big play was a Getsy-to-Biggs 72-yard scoring strike.

The Tigers then answered with their own big play in the form of Williams. With the Zips closing in and also gaining momentum, Memphis' All-America running back took a handoff and raced 67 yards to the Akron 2. On the next play, Williams scored his third touchdown. Avery added the two-point conversion for a 31-17 Memphis advantage. The Tigers added another score on an Ernest Williams 5-yard run to increase the lead to 38-17 with only 6:38 left.

However, the Zips did not quit. Akron scored two touchdowns in under six minutes to pull to within seven at 38-31 with only 50 seconds left. The Zips' first drive took nearly five minutes, and ended when Getsy hit Domenik Hixon from 14 yards out. The Akron special teams then executed a perfect on-side kick, and recovered the ball at midfield with 1:45 left. One minute later, Getsy connected with Arthur for a 19-yard touchdown pass to cut the Tiger lead to 38-31.

The Zips tried their magic one more time, but this time, the Tiger special teams recovered the on-side kick, and ran out the clock for the win.

Goodwell, who received the UAW Lineman Award, led the Tiger defense with 12 tackles, five TFLs and two sacks.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Four out of five. Let's say it again! For the fourth time in the last five seasons, the Memphis Tiger football team earned a post-season bowl berth.

Despite their 44-27 setback to Florida Atlantic in the 2007 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, the Tigers and their fans had a lot to be proud of when looking at the entire 2007 campaign. The season began with a tough start, but Memphis caught its stride in late October and rode that wave to a fourth bowl game under head coach Tommy West.

Let's take a quick review:

- A bowl looked like a distant dream after a 2-4 start to the season.
- The schedule took on a major shift when the Sept. 8 game at Arkansas State was postponed due to inclement weather. The contest was moved to Sept. 27, making the Tigers play three games in 11 days.
- After losing the first two games in the rugged three-games-in-11-days stretch, the Tigers suffered an even greater loss on the night of Sept. 30 when defensive lineman Taylor Bradford was shot and later died. After two days of emotional outpouring, the Memphis players took the field arm-in-arm for its Conference USA home opener versus Marshall. The Tigers won the game 24-21.
- With a home loss to Middle Tennessee in mid-October, bowl hopes were all but lost with three of the next four C-USA games on the road.
- As was the trend in the Coach West era, the Tigers did not fold. Memphis won all three league road games (at Rice, Tulane and Southern Miss) in that stretch and repositioned itself in the bowl picture.
- The Tigers sealed the bowl invitation with back-to-back home wins over UAB and SMU to close the regular season.

So, you ask, what did the Tigers accomplish?

- A winning record for the fourth time in the last five years (2003-07). The last time Memphis did that was from 1973-77 when the Tigers had five-straight winning seasons.
- Six conference wins, the most league victories in school history.
- A second-place C-USA East Division finish, the second in three years.
- A fourth bowl in the last five years, the first time for a stretch like that in school history.

Granted, the bowl setback to Florida Atlantic put a small bitter taste in the mouths of the Tigers, but Memphis' "never-give-up" attitude kept them in the game until the end, despite several injuries that sidelined key Tigers. Kicker Matt Reagan left the game with a concussion and receiver Maurice Jones was sidelined with a dislocated hip. In addition, T.J. Pitts broke his ankle and quarterback Martin Hankins was knocked out of the game with a knee injury in the third quarter.

Before a crowd of 25,146 at the Louisiana Superdome, seniors Martin Hankins and Joseph Doss went out in style with solid performances. Hankins was 25-of-39 passing for 281 yards and three scores, while Doss rushed for 91 yards on 20 carries and caught a team-high five passes for 42 yards.

With his 281 yards passing, Hankins set the Memphis single-season mark with 3,220 yards. He also set season records for completions (261) and touchdowns (25). For his career, Hankins totaled 5,770 yards, 43 touchdowns and 487 completions — all second to Danny Wimprine.

In the game, Hankins' favorite targets were Carlos Singleton (4 receptions/63 yards/1 TD) and Duke Calhoun (4 catches/40 yards). With their receptions, both Singleton and Calhoun extended streaks. Singleton extended his streak to 21 games with a reception, while Calhoun caught a pass in all 24 of his collegiate games.

After a first quarter warm-up with Florida Atlantic leading 17-7, the teams combined for 26 points in the second period. Two Joey Mack field goals kept the Tigers close, but the Owls answered with touchdowns for a 30-13 lead. However, Memphis closed the gap to 30-20 just before the half, when Hankins hit Earnest Williams from 19 yards out.

Following halftime, Memphis cut further into the Florida Atlantic lead. A Hankins-to-Singleton six-yard scoring connection sliced the Owl lead to 30-27 with 9:30 left in the third quarter. However, Florida Atlantic scored the final two touchdowns for the 44-27 final.

Punter Brent Sutherland set a New Orleans Bowl record with a 70-yard punt in the fourth quarter. He finished the game with six punts for a 45.2 average.

Clinton McDonald led the Memphis defense with eight total tackles, while Jeremy Rockette and LaKeitharun Ford each had seven hits. McDonald also had one quarterback sack and two TFLs. LeRico Mathis recorded his third interception of the season, tying him for team-high honors with Brandon Patterson.

Quarterback Martin Hankins threw for 281 yards and three touchdowns before leaving the game with an injury.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — This was the bowl game head coach Tommy West wanted for his program. Sure, he and his Tigers enjoyed their bowl trips four of the previous five years. But, this invitation to the inaugural magicJack St. Petersburg Bowl was — in Coach West's eyes — an opportunity to see where Memphis stood on the national scene, no matter the game's outcome.

The bowl game had Memphis playing its first BCS league foe in school postseason history, as the Tigers faced the USF Bulls. While the previous bowl trips were important in their own right, Coach West believed this bowl would set the course for the direction of the program's future.

The Bulls won the game 41-14 before a predominantly pro-USF crowd of 25,205 at Tropicana Field, home of the MLB American League champion Tampa Bay Rays. The appearance at Tropicana Field made history for the Tigers, as it was the first time Memphis played in a Major League Baseball stadium.

As for the game, it pitted one of the nation's best rushing offenses (Memphis) against one of the country's top rushing defenses (USF), and on this day, the defense won the battle. The Tigers entered the contest averaging over 200 yards via their ground game, but the Bulls had the nation's ninth-best rushing defense and it showed. USF held Memphis to only 66 yards on 30 carries, and Tiger running back Curtis Steele, a 1,000-yard rusher, gained most of those with 48 yards on 12 rushes.

While the Bulls' defense shut down the Memphis offense, the Tiger defense had no answer for USF quarterback Matt Grothe, who was named the bowl game's MVP. Grothe was 17-of-24 passing for 236 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 83 yards on 15 carries. He also had one reception for 14 yards. Grothe did all of his damage in the first three quarters, as he sat out the final period.

The Bulls got started early and never looked back. On the game's opening kickoff, USF's Dontavia Bogan took Matt Reagan's kickoff at the 1 yard line and returned it 56 yards to the Memphis 43. Three plays later, the Bulls were on the board when Grothe hit Taurus Johnson with a 28-yard scoring strike for a 7-0 lead. The USF scoring drive only took 1:02 off the clock.

Later on in the first period, USF struck again on a short six-play drive. Grothe was 3-of-3 passing for 57 yards in putting the Bulls at the Memphis 4 yard line. From there, Ben Williams gained the final four yards and increased the USF lead to 14-0.

However, West's Tigers did not go away. On the ensuing drive, Memphis marched 73 yards on six plays and cut the USF advantage in half at 14-7. The drive only took 2:19, and it ended when Tiger quarterback Arkelon Hall hit paydirt from three yards out.

The Bulls, though, took the momentum back on their next possession. After striking quickly on its first two scoring drives, USF put together a lengthy 14-play, 63-yard possession that ended in a Maikon Bonani 23-yard field goal for a 17-7 advantage. The drive took 5:51 off the clock.

After holding the Tigers on their next possession, USF had another five-minute scoring drive — this time, 5:24 — that culminated in a Grothe-to-Ben Busbee 13-yard touchdown connection to give the Bulls a 24-7 lead with only 4:15 left before halftime.

Again, the Tigers mounted a response. With a little over four minutes before intermission, Memphis started on its own 20, and Hall led the way. The Tiger quarterback was 7-of-10 passing for 60 yards, including a two-yard touchdown pass to Duke Calhoun with 0:08 left in the second quarter. The score cut the USF lead to 24-14 at the break and pulled momentum back to the Tigers' side.

That momentum, however, swung back to the Bulls in the third quarter. The USF defense held Memphis to only 60 yards on its first two second-half drives, while the Bulls' offense capitalized with 10 points to increase their lead to 34-14 by the end of the third quarter. Bonani added a 37-yard field goal midway through the third quarter, and Grothe threw his third touchdown pass near the end of the period to put the contest out of reach.

The Bulls added a final touchdown early in the fourth quarter for the 41-14 final.

Hall was 15-of-31 passing for 154 yards and one score. Calhoun was the Tigers' leading receiver with a game-high six catches for 39 yards and one touchdown. Brandon Patterson led the Tiger defense with nine tackles.

Grothe's primary targets were Carlton Mitchell (60 yards) and Johnson (40 yards, 1 TD), who each had four receptions. Tyron McKenzie led the USF defense with a game-best 11 tackles.

Memphis had to overcome five turnovers including a 19-yard, BYU interception return for a touchdown with 7:48 to play in regulation which gave the Cougars a 45-38 lead.

In the final minutes of the fourth quarter the Tigers had to convert two, fourth-down plays. The second conversion resulted in a five-yard touchdown pass from Paxton Lynch to Keiwone Malone with 45 seconds to play to help tie the game at 45-45.

In the first overtime period, Jake Elliott needed to kick the longest field goal ever in an overtime period – a 54-yarder – just to send the game on to a second overtime series.

And after Memphis had scored in the second overtime period, DaShaughn Terry intercepted a pass on BYU's second play from scrimmage to end the game.

Quarterback Paxton Lynch equaled an NCAA bowl record for touchdowns responsible for with seven en route to being named the Miami Beach Bowl's Most Valuable Player.

Lynch completed 24-of-46 passes for 306 yards and four touchdowns including the game-winning, 11-yard strike to Roderick Proctor in the end zone to cap Memphis' second overtime series on offense. Lynch also ran for 38 yards and three scores.

In his final game as a Tiger, Malone caught six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns. He also had a career-long, 41-yard run in the game.

The two teams combined to run an NCAA bowl record-tying 188 offensive plays, including 97 by the Tigers (tied for seventh-most in a bowl game), and accounted for a combined 905 yards of offense.

Memphis twice led by 10 points in the game, the last coming with 3:45 to play in the third quarter, when Alan Cross hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Lynch.

The Cougars would take advantage of three, fourth-quarter Memphis turnovers to go from 10 points down to leading 45-38 when Zac Stout returned his interception for a score with 7:48 to play.

Late in the game and the Tigers trailing by seven, punter Nick Jacobs pinned BYU at its own four-yard line. A three-and-out series by the Cougars followed by a short punt and a nine-yard return by Joe Craig gave the Tigers the ball at the BYU 33 with 2:34 left in the fourth quarter.

Lynch and Malone would first hook up on a fourth-and-seven pass play for a 15-yard pickup to the Cougar 11. Four plays later and facing another fourth down, Lynch would scramble and Malone would make a diving catch in the end zone to help tie the game in the final minute.

Trevor Samson kicked a 45-yard field goal to give BYU a 48-45 lead in the first overtime period. After Memphis' first offensive series in overtime lost 12 yards on three plays, Elliott was called on to boot the 54-yard field goal to extend the game. In addition to being the longest in an overtime period, the field goal tied for the fourth-longest in a bowl game.

In the second overtime period, Malone caught a 15-yard pass on second down and following a Brandon Hayes' four-yard run, Lynch found Proctor open in the end zone for the rookie's first career touchdown reception.

Senior receiver Keiwone Malone caught six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns including a five-yard TD grab on a fourth-down play late in the fourth quarter to tie the game and send it to overtime.

UNDEFEATED TEAMS

Three University of Memphis football teams have gone undefeated since the Tigers first took up the sport in 1912. The most recent Memphis team to go through a season without a defeat was the 1963 squad which ended the year 9-0-1.

Memphis began its football program in 1912 and compiled a 1-2-1 record under head coach Clyde Wilson. The Tigers, then known as West Tennessee State Normal School, played Memphis University School to a scoreless tie in the first football game played at Memphis on October 5. The Tiger football squad notched its first victory three weeks later on October 26 against Bolton Agricultural 13-0. They eventually lost the final two games of the season to Christian Brothers College and MUS.

The first undefeated team was coach Zach Curlin's 1929 squad which posted an 8-0-2 record, scoring 146 points and limiting the Tigers' 10 opponents to a mere 27 points. Memphis, which was captained by Slick Headden and Joe Koch, captured the Mississippi Valley Conference Championship with that undefeated season.

Coach Allyn McKeen fielded one of the nation's highest scoring teams in 1938, a season which saw the Tigers finish with a 10-0-0 record. Memphis scored 281 points during the year, while only yielding 41 points. The biggest margin of victory was a 68-0 thrashing of Cumberland College. The Tigers also defeated Arkansas A&M 50-0 later in the season. Roland McMackin captained the 1938 Tigers.

The 1963 Memphis football team had only a scoreless tie with Ole Miss between them and a perfect season. The Tigers finished with a 9-0-1 record under head coach Billy J. Murphy. Unlike the 1938 team, which was noted for its offense, this team made its mark as a defensive club. There were five shutouts, and the five remaining teams scored only 52 points. The Tigers, captained by Richard Saccoccia, rolled up 199 points.

The 1963 squad had wins over Southern Miss (28-7), Tulsa (28-15), North Texas State (21-0), West Texas State (29-14), Mississippi State (17-10), Louisville (25-0), South Carolina (9-0), Chattanooga (13-0) and Houston (29-6).

Senior fullback Dave Casinelli led the NCAA in rushing and scoring during the 1963 season. Casinelli rushed for 1,016 yards and scored 84 points. He is the only Tiger back to win the national rushing and scoring titles.

TIGERS FOOTBALL THROUGH THE YEARS

Following are chronological notes and interesting facts about the rich tradition of Tigers football. Parts of this section were taken from Memphis State Football: The Fighting Tigers, written by Charles Holmes and William Sorrels. If you have any questions or can add facts to this section, please contact the Athletics Communications Office at 901-678-2337.

- The doors of West Tennessee State Normal School opened at 10 a.m., on the morning of September 10, 1912. Less than 300 students were enrolled in the two-year teachers school located in rural Shelby County. The campus consisted of three buildings that were erected at a cost of $450,000. President Seymour Mynders presided over a faculty that consisted of 25 teachers, including a young manual education instructor named Clyde Wilson.
- On October 5, 1912, West Tennessee State Normal School played its first football game at Red Elm Park, home of the Memphis Turtles baseball team. The game pitted the Normals of WTSNS against MUS. Game time was slated for 2 p.m., and trolleys from downtown Memphis were decorated with blue and gray ribbons, the official colors of the new school located in Shelby County. The Normals had put together a team that consisted of numerous Messick High School stars, including Brian and Don Hanley, and the Howerton brothers. Clyde Wilson, who had volunteered to coach the football boys, led his charges to a 0-0 draw with the powerful MUS squad. The game featured a 16-minute first half and a 12-minute second stanza. Thus started Tiger football.

West Tennessee State Normal School's first football victory came in the 1912 season, when the Tudors defeated Bolton Agricultural College 13-0.

- West Tennessee State Normal School opened practice for the 1913 season on Sept. 17, 1913, and later that same day, President Seymour Mynders died and a grieving campus thought little of the football season at hand. In the first game of the year, the Blue and Gray lost 67-0 to Memphis High School, and the team never really recovered. Had it not been for a 13-0 win over Somerville High, WTSNS would have gone through the 1913 season winless.

- Two assistant coaches were added in 1914 when the Normals faced the school's first eight-game schedule. Hubert Dennison and Hugh Chandler were named to assist Clyde Wilson. On Sept. 14, 1914, The Commercial Appeal ran a photograph of Coach Wilson, marking the first time a photo involving Normal football appeared in local print.

- In 1915, Cull Cullpepper joined the faculty at WTSNS after a brilliant football career at Auburn. With Cullpepper assisting Wilson, expectations were high for the coming football season. Normal opened the season with two disappointing losses to the Arkansas Aggies and Memphis HS, but then swamped Somerville HS 75-0. A close loss to MUS was followed by three victories to close out the campaign. After the final game, there was a spontaneous student parade, "with banners flying and with Normal yells and songs rending the atmosphere." Several students, in their exuberance, shouted, "We fight like Tigers!" A new nickname was born.

- Tom Shea, a renowned football player from the powerful Vanderbilt team, took over as head coach in 1916 and immediately led his team to the greatest barn burner in the school's history. On October 14, 1916, West Tennessee State Normal School defeated Somerville HS 115-0 in the highest scoring game in Memphis history. In that contest, Elton McClure, a halfback, scored six touchdowns. Hugh Washburn, Rollin Wilson and Charlie DeSaussure tallied three scores each, while Lacy Branson, Bob Berry and John McDougle each crossed the goal line once. Washburn kicked seven PATs.

- The 1919 season found Bic Campbell become head football coach but early season injuries took Hugh Washburn, H.K. Grantham, Bob Berry, Rollin Wilson and Pete McIntosh. None were able to return for the 1919 campaign and the final team record was 3-4-0.

See State Normal football falling to its lowest ebb. The 1920 squad posted a record of 0-5-0 and, in fact, scored only one touchdown on the season, that coming in the final contest of the year. So dismal was the football atmosphere that it appeared Normal would abandon the game in 1921.

- The 1921 season opened with no coach and the realization that five starters had transferred to Union University. Rollin Wilson, a stunt pilot who was twice an All-Memphis selection at quarterback during his playing days for Normal, volunteered to coach the team. Wilson trained the young players and put together an amazing 4-5-1 record. Following the season, President A.A. Kincannon decided to employ a full-time athletic director and coach. The job was given to Lester Barnard.

- With John Barnhill playing center, the 1922 team won five games, the most victories in a single season since the school's inception. Barnhill would go on to become a renowned head coach at Arkansas and Tennessee. Barnhill Arena in Fayetteville was named in his honor.

- The "high school era" ended in 1923 for West Tennessee State Normal School. From 1923 on, WTSNS would play only college teams and no longer would high school teams be accepted as opponents. Coach Barnard instilled the Tiger spirit in every man and each pregame prayer concluded with the whispered statement "Every Man A Tiger." Barnard left Memphis in 1923 to become the head coach at Central Michigan Normal College. Thus began the Zach Curlin era.

- Zachery Henry Curlin became the athletic director, and head coach, in the fall of 1924. He remained with the Tigers as football coach and athletic director for 14 years, continuing to serve the institution until his retirement in 1960. Curlin had been a standout football player at Vanderbilt and came to the Normals with high recommendations.

- The downtown newspapers began to use the nickname "The Tigers" more and more prior to the 1925 season. However, in 1925 the name of the school was changed to West Tennessee State Teachers College and publications began referring to the football team as the "Teachers or Tudors." The Tiger nickname would not return for 15 years.

- Under the direction of captain Graham Crawford, the 1927 Normals lost just two games, while capturing wins over Arkansas State College, Will Mayfield, Delta State College, Bethel, Lambuth and Arkansas A&M.

- West Tennessee State Teachers College joined its first conference, the Mississippi Valley Conference, which included UT-Martin Junior College, Sunflower Junior College, Bethel, Delta State, Murray Normal, Lambuth and Little Rock College.

- Allyn McKeen, who was practicing law in Memphis, volunteered to assist Curlin with the team in 1929. McKeen brought a more modern version of football to WTSTC, having just recently graduated from the University of Tennessee. That version was the single-wing. With players like Frank McGoffin, Gene Fulghum, captain Jimmy Graham and Rabbit Evans, the Teachers went undefeated, posting an 8-0-2 record and winning the school's first conference championship. Graham, who had become accustomed to playing without his helmet, learned the hard way that what the coaches said was law. When McKeen caught Graham entering a game without his helmet, he took a roll of adhesive tape and attached the helmet to Graham's head.

- On September 28, 1929, WTSTC played its first night football game. The contest, which pitted the Teachers against Sunflower Junior College, was played at Hodges Field "beneath the rays of 20 powerful projectors." The Commercial Appeal wrote that the Teachers had no trouble seeing the ball at night as the locals won the game, 20-0, before 1,500 fans.

1930s

- The 1930s opened with the Teachers again winning the Mississippi Valley Conference championship with a 6-3-1 record. In a runaway game against Arkansas State College, Sam Johnson scored five touchdowns and kicked seven PATs to lead the Teachers to a 73-0 victory.

- In 1935, WTSTC left the Mississippi Valley Conference and joined the SIAA (Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association) along with Middle Tennessee State College, Louisiana College, Delta State College, Troy State Teachers College, TPI (Tennessee Tech), Union University and Murray State Normal.

- After an 0-9-0 record in 1936, Curlin stepped down as head football coach to devote his attention to his job as intramural director. Allyn McKeen was brought back to become head coach, and he immediately hired a friend from Tennessee as his assistant line coach. That assistant was Cecil C. "Sonny" Humphreys. In an effort to increase a very small athletic budget, each faculty member pledged a week's salary to support the athletic program.

- In 1937, West Tennessee State Teachers College had five buildings, 698 students and an annual budget of $56,000.

- The 1938 season became WTSTC's only undefeated and untied campaign in the school's history. After posting a perfect 10-0-0 record, the Associated Press in New York (November 21, 1938) declared WTSTC as the nation's scoring champions with San Jose State second. McKeen's Teachers were invited to play San Jose State in the Prune Bowl in California, but due to a limited budget, school officials asked for a financial guarantee before taking the team to California. The guarantee never came and the boys from Memphis stayed home in 1938.

- Allyn McKeen did not return as coach in 1939. He was hired by Mississippi State College as head football coach and has since been enshrined in the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame for his accomplishments at the two schools. Cecil Humphreys was named head coach at a salary of $200 per month.

1940s

- West Tennessee State Teachers College became Memphis State College in 1941.

- Ed Molinski, a three-time all-American at the University of Tennessee, became an assistant for Humphreys in 1941 and helped guide the team to seven wins. However, the winds of war loomed in the not too distant future.

- On December 7, 1941, the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor and on the morning of December 8, 1941, C.C. Humphreys joined the FBI, accepting a position in counterintelligence. Most of the players enlisted in the armed forces after the 1942 season and football was disbanded until the 1947 season.

- When football returned to Memphis State's campus in 1947, Cecil C. Humphreys was hired as athletic director and he in turn hired an old friend from the University of Tennessee to coach the football team. That friend was Ralph Hatley. Upon Hatley's hiring, the coaching staff searched for ideas to improve Tiger football after the four-year delay caused by World War II. To put players in game situations, Hatley and his staff created the first Blue-Gray Spring Game. It was played in April of 1947.

- The 1947 roster featured all new players. No football lettermen from prior to World War II returned and, for only the second time in the school's history, a coach was forced to start from scratch. The first and only other time was Clyde Wilson's first team in 1912. With the help of a young assistant coach who had returned from the War as a decorated Marine, Hatley set out to sign new players. He and assistant Billy J. Murphy inked 37 players from Memphis, the most ever signed in one year from Memphis.
- By 1949, the Tigers were rolling, scoring 385 points and allowing just 87 by opponents. Memphis State was ranked second in the nation in scoring offense in 1949 and again in 1950. The 21-14 victory over Kansas State University in 1949 was considered the first major victory for Memphis State College.

1950s

- The 1950s found Memphis State College opening the season with the Ole Miss Rebels before 21,000 fans in Crump Stadium. It was the largest crowd to date to witness a Memphis State game. As had been done eight times in the past, Ole Miss won the game.
- In 1951, Lou McLelland, a standout end for the Tigers, was named to Williamson's first team all-American squad. In 1952, the Tigers defeated Louisville 29-25 in Memphis. The Cardinals quarterback that afternoon was Johnny Unitas.
- The highlight of the 1954 season came in Sugar Bowl Stadium in New Orleans, La., where the Tigers battled Tulane to a 13-13 tie. Andy Nelson scored both Tiger touchdowns.
- Modern day offense came to Memphis State in 1955, when the Tigers switched from the old single-wing to the brand new split-T. In 1956, the Memphis State administration, along with the administration of Arkansas State, agreed to create "The Ole Paint Bucket," a trophy that would be presented to the winning school in each year's Tiger-Indian tilt. The trophy was designed to keep students from the two schools from painting each other's buildings the week prior to the game. Memphis State captured the first two "Ole Paint Bucket" before the series was disbanded. The Tigers concluded the 1956 season playing in the Burley Bowl in Johnson City, Tenn. The boys from Memphis defeated East Tennessee State College 32-12 on November 22, 1956.
- In 1957, Memphis State College became Memphis State University, and Ralph Hatley stepped down after the season to concentrate on his duties as a teacher. A former assistant coach under Hatley, Billy J. Murphy, took over as head coach and the greatest era in Tiger football got underway.

- Billy J. Murphy accepted the position of head football coach on January 13, 1958, his 37th birthday. For the next 14 years Murphy would build the football team into one of the most powerful squads in the country. His 91-44-1 record stands as the winningest in Tiger football history. "No one else would have been tough enough to build a program there," said former Ole Miss Rebel head coach John Vaught. "He built Memphis State football into what it is today. If he had been on my staff, we would have won the world."
- The Tigers, who had never been able to sign local high school football stars, began to land such players as John Fred Ribilio, John Bramlett and Russ Vollmer. Murphy sent coaches into West Virginia and New Jersey to ink players like Dave Casinelli, Dennis Biodrowski, Richard Adragna, John Cronin and Bob Finamore.
- In 1959, the Tigers reached the national spotlight when they battled Alabama and its new head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. The Tigers, who had changed their offense prior to the game, opened the scoring and led 7-0 early in the game. Alabama regained the lead 14-7 and set up a frenzied fourth quarter conclusion. In the fourth stanza, the Tigers moved inside the Alabama 5-yard line. So confident was Tiger quarterback James Earl Wright in his ability to score that he called a two-point conversion play to try and gain the touchdown. Wright put the burden of scoring on his own shoulders. He took the snap and sprinted to his right. When he spotted an opening in the Alabama defense, Wright dove for the end zone. "I landed three feet deep into the end zone, but the closest official had turned to get out of my way," said Wright. "Finally, the official who was furthestmost from the play, came in and spotted the ball at the one inch line and gave it to Alabama." The game prompted Coach Bryant to say..."Wright is too good to play for anybody but the University of Alabama."

- The decade of the 1960s opened with the boys from Memphis State winning two games, before taking on the Rebels of Ole Miss at Crump Stadium. The Rebels, led by All-American quarterback Jake Gibbs, were the No. 1 ranked team in the nation, and the Tigers, led by James Earl Wright, were a 32-point underdog. Even in their enthusiasm, Tiger fans had no idea that Wright would be honored as the Associated Press National Back of the Week for his play, beating out Gibbs. The 24,711 fans that packed Crump Stadium witnessed the Rebels score two late fourth quarter touchdowns to pull out a 31-20 victory over the Tigers. An area newspaper reported..."This was the largest crowd to ever see Memphis State play at home and perhaps the largest to ever see the Tigers. Under Billy J. Murphy, they've become a major power...on this night they really came of age against a magnificent foe."

- James Earl Wright became known as the Golden Boy of Tiger football. Although he played only one full, injury-free season, Wright won all-America honors, led the nation in passing and set school records in 10 categories. Before a career-ending knee operation on October 31, 1961, Wright had scored three touchdowns against The Citadel, two touchdowns and two TD passes against Hardin-Simmons, and three touchdown passes against Louisville. Shortly before surgery, Time magazine featured Wright as the nation's touchdown leader and called the Tiger quarterback the "most dangerous back in the South." When he left the Tigers in 1961, he held the record for the most total offense, most yards passing in a game, most touchdown passes in a game, most points scored in a game, most touchdowns in a season, most yards passing in a career, most touchdown passes in a career, most total offense in a career and longest touchdown pass from scrimmage.
- In 1962, Memphis State reached a major milestone when the team claimed its first win ever over an SEC opponent and on the road to boot. On October 27, 1962, Memphis State defeated Mississippi State University 28-7. It was a watershed event that was followed with an epic 0-0 tie with No. 3 ranked Ole Miss in 1963. These two events indicated that Memphis State had finally reached the mainstream of college football. With a record of 4-1 to start the 1962 season, the Tigers and their fans traveled to Scott Field in Starkville, Miss., anticipating that first win against an SEC opponent. According to the Columns..."The Maroons scored on a pass play but this proved to be the only flaw in the Memphis State defense. Charles Killett tied the score from the two yard line and Russ Vollmer added the conversion. Vollmer broke the game open with a 73-yard kickoff return to set up his own touchdown. A key interception by John Bramlett set up Dave Casinelli's slashing touchdown. Vollmer ended the scoring with a quarterback sneak for another score". Thousands of fans and students from Memphis, sensing the victory, rushed the field at the end of the game to tear down the goal posts. A great melee developed between fans of the two schools and fists and cowbells flew intermittently on the field for an hour before police could restore order. The win was touted as the greatest in Memphis State football history and helped set the stage for the 1963 season. The Tigers finished the 1962 season ranked 17th in the final poll.

- It had been 24 years since a Tiger football team experienced an undefeated season. But 1963 turned out to be one of those seasons that dreams are made of. With opponents like Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Southern Miss, Tulsa, Louisville and Houston, no one expected the Tigers to go through the campaign without a loss. After opening the season with a win over Southern Miss, the stage was set for the Memphis State-Ole Miss match up at Crump Stadium in Memphis. The Rebels were ranked No. 3 in the nation, and 31,650 fans packed the stadium for the contest. The game was described by Charles Gillespie of The Commercial Appeal as..."the first great shock of the 1963 intercollegiate football season. The two teams offered no quarter and none was given." The Rebel team had not been shut out in 48 consecutive games, the Tigers in 23 games. However, the two teams battled to a 0-0 deadlock, marking the first time that Memphis State had not been beaten by the Rebels. Memphis State's John Fred Ribilio was named the Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week for his play.
- The second great game of the 1963 season came against another SEC opponent, the Bulldogs of Mississippi State University. Murphy remembered the game as the "toughest game ever played," between the two teams. Russ Vollmer, the Tigers' quarterback, remembered the game because of his acceptance by the Memphis State fans. It was the kind of game that gave birth to legends. Vollmer broke the opening kickoff 79 yards to set up Memphis State's first score. In the second quarter, he returned a Mississippi State punt up the middle and cut toward the sideline, running out of bounds in the Mississippi State bench area. As he was attempting to return to the playing field, an over zealous Mississippi State player hit Vollmer with a "flying tackle." It knocked him over the bench and down a concrete stairwell that led to the dressing rooms under the Crump Stadium stands. The fall injured Vollmer's back and he was rushed to Methodist Hospital's Emergency Room, which was located next to Crump Stadium. Mississippi State moved to a 10-9 lead at halftime. Vollmer was found to have no serious injuries and returned to the Tiger locker room with a few minutes remaining at halftime. Eugene "Doc" Smith, the athletic trainer, taped the Tiger quarterback while the team returned to the field and started the second half. Vollmer, alone, came up the steps from the dressing room and began trotting around the field to the Memphis State sideline. The crowd began to murmur and then roar. Vollmer re-entered the game and engineered a 70-yard drive for the winning touchdown. He was named the Associated Press National Back of the Week for his heroic play. The Tigers went on to an undefeated season, and Billy J. Murphy was named The Football News National Coach of the Year.

- The first major bowl bid (excluding the Prune Bowl offer in 1938) came as a result of the undefeated season. The Sun Bowl invited the Tigers to play in Texas. However, contact had also been made by the wealthier Gator Bowl in Florida, and the team and coaches voted to take the Gator Bowl bid when it came. The bid never came and one of the best major college teams in the country sat at home in 1963.
- One of the most unusual events in college football occurred in 1964. Memphis State always held dates as late as possible in order to schedule SEC opponents. As the 1964 season drew nearer, the Tigers found themselves with just nine games. Athletic Director Eugene Lambert discovered that Southern Miss, already on the Tigers' schedule for one game, also had just nine games. Thus came one of the most unusual arrangements in modern collegiate football. Contracts were signed to play a second game during the same season between the two teams. The first was to be played in Memphis and the second in Jackson, Miss. Unfortunately, Southern Miss won both games 20-14 and 20-18. Harry Schuh, an offensive tackle for the Tigers, won first team

- Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium opened on September 16, 1965, and served as the new home for the Tiger football team. The stadium was built at a cost of $3.7 million dollars and was operated by the Memphis Park Commission.
- In 1965, Memphis State took a 5-4 record to Quantico, Va., with the greatest confidence of icing a respectable 6-4 season against the Marines of Quantico. Lore has it that Memphis sportscaster and Voice of the Tigers Jack Eaton made a comment about "those clowns from Quantico" over the air, and local marines and vets flashed the word to Virginia - perhaps to the Pentagon - and the best football players serving in the Marine Corps at the time were transferred to Quantico, some arriving the night before the game, to face the Tigers. A festive group of Memphis State alumni from the Washington area drove down to see the game, but the grizzled marine sergeants on the other side of the field, some dressed in clown suits, made the most noise as they alternately beat a huge drum, cheered and consumed kegs of beer. The pride of the corps persevered 20-14.
- Billy Fletcher was named the Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week, the Associated Press Back of the Week and United Press National Player of the Week for his play against 9th-ranked Mississippi State. Fletcher set the Memphis State passing record against the Bulldogs that night, completing 18-of-30 pass attempts for 257 yards. The Tigers were ranked 15th by Associated Press on October 19, 1965. After the season, Dr. Lambert resigned as athletic director, and Murphy assumed that role as well as head football coach.
- The 1966 season concluded with the Tigers playing the 11th-ranked University of Houston Cougars in the Astrodome. The game marked the first ever indoor contest for the Tigers. Memphis State won the game 14-13.
- The shot-heard-around-Memphis came in 1967 when the Tigers opened the campaign with the Rebels of Ole Miss. The Liberty Bowl was packed with 50,414 fans on Sept. 23 as the two teams met for the 21st time in the series. But, this time the outcome was different. Led by Nick Pappas, Bob Baxter, Ricky Thurow and Herb Covington, the Tigers answered every Rebel score with one of their own and won the contest 27-17. The 1967 season also marked the first time that Memphis State appeared on regional television. On November 4, 1967, the Tigers took on Florida State University on ABC-TV. As a first-year member of the Missouri Valley Conference, the Tigers were now aligned with Drake, Louisville, Wichita State, Bradley, Cincinnati, Tulsa, North Texas State and Saint Louis, but were not eligible for the conference title in that first year of competition.

- The highlight of the 1968 schedule was the meeting of Memphis State and the University of Tennessee for the first time in school history. The Highland Hundred booster club had printed thousands of bumper stickers saying..."Draft the Volunteers, get the MSU-UT football series." A number of MSU students took the stickers and traveled across the state plastering cars. One group of students even went to Knoxville and stuck cars on the Tennessee campus. A bill was drafted to force the two teams to play, but the schools' presidents met with Governor Buford Ellington and set up the home-and-home contests. The Tigers lost to Tennessee 24-17, but claimed the Missouri Valley Championship, and Murphy was named the Conference Coach of the Year.
- Louis Fernandez was selected to play in the Shrine North-South All-Star Game after the 1969 season, and Danny Pierce was picked to play in the East-West Shrine Game in San Francisco. The Tigers were ranked 20th in the nation in the final United Press poll, and David Berrong and Steve Jaggard were tied for third in the nation in interceptions with eight each. Offensive tackle Bob Parker was selected to UPI's and The Football News All-America teams. Berrong was tabbed by the Associated Press and the Central Press Association on their All-America squads.

- The Tigers opened the decade of the 1970s with Paul "Skeeter" Gowen finishing 11th in the nation in rushing. The team compiled a 6-4 record and brought the five-year won-loss record to 33-15.
- In 1971, Memphis State claimed the Missouri Valley Conference championship, and for the first time since the 1954 Burley Bowl, earned that elusive bowl invitation. As conference champion, the Tigers were invited to the Pasadena Bowl to take on San Jose State. MSU won the game 28-9, but one note not covered in the game stories was a run by tailback Skeeter Gowen in the fourth period. After breaking free around the end, he scooted over the goal line, hotly pursued by a gigantic Spartan lineman. In the end zone, Gowen slowed to stop. But the lineman kept coming. Gowen trotted out of the end zone. So did the lineman. At that point the little Memphis back raced up the stadium steps into the seating area. When the big lineman finally gave up, Gowen sat down in the spectator seats, placed the ball in his lap and caught his breath.
- On February 5, 1972, Billy J. Murphy, the winningest coach in Tiger football history, announced that he was giving up coaching to devote himself full-time to his job as athletic director. In his war to bring Memphis State into national prominence, Murphy amassed a 91-44-1 record. At the beginning of his final season, the Tiger coach was rated the nation's 15th winningest football mentor. As he had promised, Murphy built a winner in five years. Enter Fred Pancoast.

- The 11th head football coach at Memphis State was Fred Pancoast. A native of Florida and a former University of Georgia and Florida assistant coach, Pancoast found a wealth of talent among the players he inherited. He quickly changed the team's look by adopting Dallas Cowboys-style uniforms.
- The Tigers were 5-5-1 under Pancoast in 1972, but the 1973 season contained numerous highlights, including MSU's first win in history over Ole Miss in the state of Mississippi. Playing the Rebels in the third game of the season was not normal but in 1973, MSU had Louisville and North Texas State scheduled ahead of its nemesis from Oxford. Powered by the arm of David Fowler and the legs of Cliff Taylor and Dornell Harris, the Tigers prevailed 17-13.
- Pancoast left Memphis State after the 1974 season to accept the head coaching position at Vanderbilt. He had posted a record of 20-12-1 in three short seasons and had gained wins over Ole Miss and Florida State among others.
- Richard Williamson, an assistant coach at Arkansas and Alabama, was hired on January 20, 1975, to replace Pancoast. Williamson, a former wide receiver for the University of Alabama and who caught Joe Namath's first career touchdown pass, was hired to direct the Tiger football fortunes. At 33-years-old, Williamson was one of the youngest head coaches in the nation. A hard-nosed disciplinarian, Williamson would weather several storms during his tenure at MSU.
- The Tigers traveled to Auburn, Ala., to play the second game of Williamson's career. Shug Jordan was entering his final season at Auburn, and the legendary coach and his team were set to meet the Tigers. Sixth-ranked Auburn was stunned by the Tigers and trailed 24-0 at halftime. The home team roared back in the second half, but led by quarterback Kippy Brown, tailback Terrell Middleton and receivers Earnest Gray and Keith Wright, Memphis State prevailed and won the contest 31-20. Other victories in 1975 included Florida State, Houston and Louisville, and the Tigers' final ledger read, 7-4-0.
- Many think the 1976 schedule was the most difficult ever played by the Tigers. The team opened the season like gangbusters, beating Ole Miss and Florida State before dropping a game to Tulsa. Then came wins against SMU and Auburn. With a 4-1 record, the Tigers were ready to take on Mississippi State in the Liberty Bowl. It seemed like the Tigers were set to win the rest of their games. But, on Monday prior to the game, two linebackers quit the team and in a solidarity move, many African-American players boycotted practice. The mood of the team was disrupted and the Tigers lost the game 42-33. MSU added two more victories before losing 21-14 to Tennessee in Memphis. Memphis State split its final two games of the year to post its second consecutive 7-4-0 season. What might have been, never was.

- The highlight of the 1977 season was a 21-13 win over Mississippi State and its head coach Bob Tyler. It marked the first non-conference loss for Tyler in his tenure at Mississippi State. Tiger tailback Eddie Hill was named the Associated Press National Back of the Week for his play. Later in the season, Tiger quarterback Lloyd Patterson was named the Associated Press Back of the Week for his play against Southern Miss, although it was Bob Orian's 91-yard return of a Golden Eagle pass that set up the win.
- The latter stages of the 1970s found the Tigers having up-and-down seasons, and after a disastrous 1980 campaign, Richard Williamson was notified that he would not be retained for the 1981 season. Thus ended the Williamson era at Memphis State University.

- After opening the decade of the 1980s with the dismissal of Williamson, Rex Dockery, a former University of Tennessee player and the head coach at Texas Tech, was hired to direct the Tiger football fortunes.
- In 1981, Bob Patterson was hired to replace Billy J. Murphy as athletic director. Patterson, a former Tiger offensive lineman, had come to MSU with Rex Dockery from Texas Tech. In November 1982, Charles Cavagnaro was hired to replace Bob Patterson as athletic director at Memphis State University. Cavagnaro, a graduate of MSU, had worked as a sports writer and editor of The Commercial Appeal. He had also spent time as the general manager of the Memphis Pros of the American Basketball Association.
- The 1981 and 1982 seasons were a struggle for Dockery and his staff. The Tigers battled to escape the noose of the nation's longest losing streak. After gaining his first coaching victory at MSU against Georgia Tech on September 26, 1981, the Tigers dropped the next 17 consecutive games. On November 27, 1982, the Liberty Bowl erupted when the Tigers defeated Arkansas State 12-0 to break the streak.
- The frustrations of the past two seasons exploded in the opening contest of the 1983 season. The Tigers opened against Ole Miss in the Liberty Bowl and handed the Rebels their worst defeat in a game against the Tigers in the history of the series. Powered by the running of Jeff Womack and Punkin Williams, MSU knocked off Ole Miss 37-17. After losses to North Carolina, Virginia Tech and Alabama, the Tigers rebounded to win against Tulane, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State, Cincinnati and Louisville to finish the season as the NCAA's second-most improved team. From 1-10-0 in 1982, the boys from Memphis State had improved their record to 6-4-1 and the future looked very bright. Tragedy struck in one brief instance and what had been the best of times became the worst of times.

- Rex Dockery, offensive coordinator Chris Faros, defensive back Charles Greenhill and pilot Glenn Jones were all killed in a plane crash in Lawrenceburg, Tenn., en route an all-star banquet. It was the darkest moment in Tiger football annals.
- Rey Dempsey, a Division 1-AA National Championship coach from Southern Illinois, was hired to direct the football program at MSU. His 1984 team had a .500 record at 5-5. There were wins over Mississippi State, Cincinnati, Southwestern Louisiana and a tie with nationally-ranked Florida State, but losses began to mount at the end of the season, and when the Tigers managed just a 2-7-2 ledger in 1985, Dempsey was fired and Charlie Bailey was hired as the head coach.
- A veteran of the coaching ranks at the University of Florida, Bailey's Tigers struggled to a 1-10-0 record in 1986 with the lone victory coming at the hands of Vanderbilt University in Nashville.
- The Tigers opened the 1987 campaign with a 16-10 win over Ole Miss and then stunned the college football world by upsetting 15th-ranked Alabama 13-10 in the Liberty Bowl. The season came to an end with MSU gaining victories over Louisville and Tulsa to post a 5-5-1 record.
- Bailey's Tigers gained national headlines again in 1988 by stopping 20th-ranked Florida 17-11 in Gainesville. For Bailey, it was a crowning moment in his football coaching career to return to Florida as an underdog and gain such a victory. Tailback Xavier Crawford and defensive backs Eddie Moore and Glenn Rogers Jr., led the team to the win. However, the 1988 season's 6-5-0 record soon paled in the light of an NCAA investigation of the Tiger football program.
- When it was determined by the NCAA that one player, James Maclin, had received approximately $300 in over payment for a summer job, Bailey was forced to resign, and the team received two years probation. Chuck Stobart was hired to rebuild the football program. He became the fifth coach in a 10-year span to lead the team.
- Arriving just three weeks before the team reported for fall camp, Stobart was forced to keep most of the staff of his predecessor. The Tigers defeated Vanderbilt and Cincinnati, but they

- In 1991, Stobart's Tigers again put the school's name in headlines across the nation by beating the 14th-ranked Trojans of Southern Cal 24-10 in the Los Angeles Coliseum. The passing of Keith Benton and the rushing of Larry Porter aided in the monumental victory. The Tigers scored the first points of the game on a 45-yard field goal by Joe Allison. During the next three minutes, the Trojans marched 81 yards in 10 plays. Junior tailback Mazio Royster, USC's Heisman Trophy candidate, did most of the damage in the drive, but it was quarterback Reggie Perry who went the final 20 yards for the touchdown. After a Cole Ford field goal, Memphis trailed 10-3 at halftime. But the second half belonged to the boys from Memphis. On the opening drive, Benton hit wide receiver Russell Jones with a 40-yard touchdown strike and suddenly the score was tied at 10-10. Xavier Crawford and Porter began banging away on the ground in the third and fourth quarters and set up a four-yard touchdown pass from Benton to fullback Jeff Bynum to give the Tigers a 17-10 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, the Trojans bobbled the ball and it was recovered by the Tigers' Rod Brown. Three consecutive rushes by Crawford gained the Tigers their final score of the day and provided the 24-10 margin of victory. Actress Cybill Shepherd was presented the game ball since she gave the team an inspiring pregame speech in the locker room. Memphis gained wins over Mississippi State, Southern Miss and Louisville on its way to a 5-6-0 record.
- During the 1992 and 1993 seasons, the team's record improved to 6-5-0 and included impressive wins over Arkansas, Tulane, Ole Miss and Mississippi State. In 1992, Tiger cornerback Ken Irvin placed his name in the NCAA and Memphis record book by blocking four punts in a single game. The Tigers were hosting Arkansas in Memphis for the first time in the two schools' histories, and Irvin used the opportunity to not only log a couple of records but help Memphis to a 22-6 win over the Razorbacks. In a span of 60 minutes, Irvin broke the oldest record in the NCAA record book. The 1992 Memphis-Tulane game in the New Orleans Superdome saw the greatest first-half offensive explosion in modern Tiger history and produced the most points scored by a Tiger team in 23 years. Memphis tallied 35 points in the first quarter on touchdowns by tailback John Martin (2), wide receiver Isaac Bruce, flanker Mac Cody and strong safety Sam Edwards. Martin and Bruce added second quarter scores to up Memphis' halftime lead to 49-13. Cody caught his second touchdown pass of the game in the third stanza, and kicker Joe Allison added a 31-yard field goal to push the Tiger lead to 59-20. Allison booted his second field goal of the game in the fourth quarter

HOME OF THE TIGERS

• 1912-1921 •

Games were played on the campus of the University of Memphis, then known as West Tennessee State Normal School and at Red Elm Park.

• 1922-1928 •

Games were still played on campus and at Russwood Park. During the 1926 season, one game was played at Crump Stadium, which had one set of wooden bleachers on the north side.

• 1929-1931 •

Games were played on campus and at Hodges Field in Memphis.

• 1932-1935 •

Games were still played at Hodges Field and on campus.

• 1936 •

The Tigers moved some of their home games to the Fairgrounds Stadium while also playing on campus.

• 1937 •

Half of the 1937 home season was played at the Fairgrounds and the final half of the year was spent at Crump Stadium in Midtown.

• 1937-1964 •

The Tigers continued to play all of their home games at Crump Stadium. In 1939, the WPA built concrete stands on the north side of the field, and in 1947, the WPA added the home side stands, completing the concrete facility.

• 1965-PRESENT •

In 1965, the City of Memphis constructed Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium (then called Memphis Memorial Stadium) as a home field for the University of Memphis. The Tigers opened the stadium versus Ole Miss on September 18, 1965.

to make the final margin of victory a whopping 62-20. With his three field goals against Tulane boosting his season total to 19, Joe Allison laid claim to the 1992 Lou Groza Award. The Groza Award, presented each year to the nation's top kicker, was the first national award ever won by a Memphis football player. The cousin of the late NASCAR driver Davey Allison, Joe finished the season with 23 made field goals. He was named to six All-America teams, in addition to being named the recipient of the Groza Award.

- In 1993, Memphis State shocked the nation by opening the season with a 45-35 victory over the nationally-ranked Bulldogs of Mississippi State. Senior quarterback Steve Matthews completed a school record 29-of-45 pass attempts for 340 yards and two touchdowns. The lefthander set Tiger records for most pass completions in a game (29) and for most attempts in a game (45). In addition, he ran for a 41-yard touchdown and finished the game with 362 yards of total offense. Matthews was named the Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week for his part in the Tiger win. The Tigers reached another milestone when they appeared on their first nationally televised broadcast against the Miami Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl. The game was carried by ESPN. Memphis had played in several regional broadcasts on ESPN and ABC, but they had never played in a national broadcast.

- The 1994 season marked the end of an era for head coach Chuck Stobart, but still found Tiger football battling for that elusive bowl bid. As a member of the Liberty Bowl Alliance (East Carolina, Cincinnati, Tulane, Southern Miss and Memphis), the Tigers had an opportunity to play their way into the first bowl game since the 1971 Pasadena Bowl. Early in the season, junior flanker Ryan Roskelly had a record-setting night against Tulsa. The Placentia, Calif., native returned 10 punts for 194 yards and one touchdown and caught six passes for 174 yards and a second score. Roskelly's 368 all-purpose yards set a Memphis record as did his punt return yardage and his number of returns. In fact, Roskelly's 194 yards in punt returns were the most by any player in NCAA Division I football in 1994. After claiming a third straight win over the Razorbacks, the Tigers ran off victories against Tulane, Arkansas State and Cincinnati. Racing with East Carolina for a bid to the St. Jude-Liberty Bowl, the Tigers found themselves in Oxford, Miss., facing backyard rival Ole Miss. Over the 73 years that the contest had been waged, the Tigers had never defeated Ole Miss in Oxford. Trailing the Rebels 16-5 with just 8:26 remaining in the game, the Tigers mounted the greatest comeback in the school's history. After a 43-yard punt return by Ryan Roskelly, Memphis drove the ball 31 yards with tailback Frank Fletcher going the final five yards for the score. The lead had been cut to 16-11. After holding Ole Miss and forcing a punt, the Tigers mounted their final drive of the game. Quarterback Joe Borich keyed the drive, which took 4:02, with three clutch plays. On 4th-and-15 from the 31-yard line, Borich (from a shotgun set) rolled left out of the pocket, then came back right toward the sidelines where he spotted tailback Frank Fletcher slanting downfield for an 18-yard gain. On 3rd-and-8 from the 11-yard line, Borich was flushed from the pocket, couldn't find anyone open and decided to run the ball. He gained nine yards and a first down at the Ole Miss two-yard line. With 11 seconds left, Borich called a sprint pass and found

Ryan Roskelly in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. "I never saw the completion," Borich said after the game. After dropping the final game of the season and losing the Liberty Bowl bid to East Carolina, Chuck Stobart was relieved of his duties and a search began for a new head football coach.

- In 1994, the institution became the University of Memphis, marking the fourth name change since 1912.
- In January of 1995, Rip Scherer, the head football coach at James Madison University, was hired as the Tigers' 20th head football coach. Scherer, who had also served as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Arizona, took over at Memphis on January 13 and immediately began putting together his staff and trying to salvage recruiting. Scherer brought in Jim Pletcher (DC), Ted Million (OL) and David Lockwood (WR) from his staff at James Madison. He hired Keith Butler (DE), Wayne Weedon (DL), Vic Koenning (DB) and Maurice Knight (RB) from the previous Memphis staff. Scherer then selected experienced coaches Sparky Woods (New York Jets and South Carolina) and Jim Marshall (Richmond) to come in and work with the offense.
- On April 24, 1995, the football program received a major boost when it was announced that Conference USA had been officially formed. The new, all-sports conference featured Memphis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Southern Miss, Tulane and Houston as football playing members with UAB and USF as possible members in the near future. C-USA was further enhanced by gaining a five-year, $20 million television package with Liberty Sports Network which featured conference football over most of the nation. In addition, the Tigers also announced a deal that would televise all Tiger football games on SportSouth and on WLMT-TV in Memphis.
- The 1996 football season will long be remembered not so much for what occurred on the field but for what was accomplished in the recruiting period. The coaching staff set out on the recruiting trail and targeted most of the top players in the Memphis area as priority recruits. In the past, many of the star players from Memphis had chosen to leave the city to play their college football for other schools. This was not the case in 1996. Several weeks before the national signing date, Westwood High School All-Americans Kenton Evans and Damien Dodson announced their intentions to stay in Memphis and help build a nationally-recognized football program at Memphis. With such a star quarterback and receiver announcing their commitments with the Tigers, others followed. All-State tailback Teofil Riley of Memphis Central and Reid Hedgepeth, a stellar tight end from Christian Brothers, joined the growing list of high school players to commit to Scherer. From outside the Memphis area, the U of M gained commitments from Kevin Luttrell, a defensive end from Brentwood Academy in Nashville, and from Marcus Jack, a top running back from Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Players from Georgia, Alabama, Florida, California and Texas joined the national recruiting effort, and when the ink had dried on the scholarships, Scherer and his staff had landed what most called the greatest recruiting class in school history.

- The highlight of the 1996 season came on a sunny afternoon at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium before a record-setting crowd of 65,885. The Tigers were pitted against the No. 6 ranked Tennessee Volunteers, who held a decided 15-0 series lead. The game, which was carried by CBS TV, matched Heisman Trophy candidate Peyton Manning against the Tigers' outstanding defense led by senior Tony Williams and Richard Hogans. Tennessee scored the afternoon's first points on a two-yard run at the 3:06 mark of the first quarter. Tennessee held their 7-0 lead until the final seconds of the first half when Keith Spann intercepted a Manning pass and returned it 76 yards to the Vols' 1-yard line. Memphis quarterback Qadry Anderson then sneaked in from one-yard out to knot the score at the half. UT opened the third quarter by driving 72 yards in 13 plays for the go-ahead score. But Memphis kick returner Kevin Cobb answered UT's score with a 95-yard acrobatic return, which again tied the score at 14-14. Both teams battled around midfield until the six minute mark of the fourth quarter when Jeff Hall connected on a 28-yard field goal. With 6:01 left in the contest, Memphis took the kickoff and mounted a 70-yard, 12-play drive which culminated in an Anderson to Chris Powers touchdown pass to seal the Memphis victory 21-17. The Tiger defense held the final 34 seconds as Tiger fans poured over the walls and tore down the goalposts.
- The 1998 football campaign produced a record of 2-9, but there were several bright spots encapsulated within the season. Junior tailback Gerard Arnold broke the University of Memphis single-season rushing record by gaining 1,059 yards. The 36-year-old record of 1,016 yards had been set by the late Dave Casinelli in 1962. Arnold had six 100-yard rushing games en route to breaking the record. The Lexington, Tenn., native completed the 1998 season as the nation's 33rd-ranked running back. Arnold was named to the All-C-USA second team. Freshman kicker Ryan White, a semi-finalist for the Lou Groza Award, became the only kicker in the nation to have a perfect year. The soccer-style kicker booted 16-of-16 field goals and 22-of-22 PATs on the season. He finished the season ranked 18th in the nation in kicking. White was named the All-C-USA kicker and also was selected to the C-USA All-Freshman Team.
- The 1999 season saw the fortunes of Tiger football start to climb. With new defensive coordinator John Thompson added to the staff, the defense took a new and aggressive approach to the game. After two three-point losses to Ole Miss and Mississippi State, the Tigers gained their first win of the season over Arkansas State. With renewed enthusiasm the team left for Knoxville to take on the seventh-ranked Volunteers, a 25-point favorite. But it was Memphis that took the fight to the Vols. After three Ryan White field goals and an 82-yard touchdown pass from Neil Suber to Ken Coutain, the U of M found itself leading Tennessee 16-10 with less than two minutes remaining in the contest. Tennessee mounted one final drive. On what appeared to be a fourth down quarterback sack by the Tiger defense, UT quarterback Tee Martin launched a "Hail-Mary" pass that was caught deep in Memphis territory. Two plays later Tennessee scored and captured a hard-fought 17-16 win. Memphis would go on to post a 4-2 Conference USA record and finished the season tied for second in the league. Led by freshman quarterback Travis Anglin, the Tigers won three of the final four games of the season, including league wins over Army, Tulane and Cincinnati. The 5-6 mark was the best record under head coach Rip Scherer since his arrival and caused the Memphis administration to extend his contract through the 2004 season. Six new assistant coaches were added to the staff in the spring of 2000, including Tommy West, Tim Walton, Jimmy Kiser, Clay Helton, Rick Mallory and Rick Whitt.

- It started with so much promise but due to a number of key injuries, the 2000 season collapsed in the later stages and forced the U of M to take drastic measures. Posting a record of 4-7, Rip Scherer was relieved of duties after six seasons as the head coach. The Tigers opened the season winning three of the first four games and four of the first six contests. Led by three quarterbacks, Memphis claimed wins over Louisiana-Monroe, Arkansas State, Army and East Carolina before the late season swoon. With injuries knocking out Anglin and Neil Suber, the Tigers were forced to turn to inexperienced backups. The team lost its final five games of the season, and on November 20, Scherer was dismissed. A search began immediately for his replacement, and it took just 10 days for the university to hire Tommy West, the Tigers' defensive coordinator, as its 21st head coach. West coordinated the Memphis defense in 2000 and led his unit to a national ranking of fifth in total defense and first in rushing defense.
- The 2001 football season was one of promise and improvement as the Tigers turned their "spread" offense into an exciting brand of football that found the youthful squad battling for a bowl bid until the final four seconds of the last game of the season. Under Tommy West's direction, the Tigers defeated such schools as Houston, Army, USF and C-USA power Southern Miss en route to a 5-6 finish. Freshman quarterback

TIGERS FOOTBALL THROUGH THE YEARS

Danny Wimprine threw for a freshman record 1,329 yards and 14 TDs and junior tailback Dante Brown rushed for 902 yards and 11 TDs. Brown set a Memphis record by scoring four rushing touchdowns in the win over Houston, and his 902 yards ranked as the sixth-highest total in Memphis history.

- The Tiger football team fell short of their intended goals in 2002 and finished the season with a record of 3-9. However, numerous individual records fell as Wimprine rewrote the passing record book, and freshman tailback DeAngelo Williams let everyone know that he was the Tigers' back of the future. Wimprine broke the Memphis record for touchdown passes in a single game in the season opener against Murray State, when he tossed five scoring strikes. When the season ended, the New Orleans native had set records for most pass attempts in a game, most pass completions in a game, most touchdown passes in a game, pass attempts in a season, most pass completions in a season, most yards passing in a season and most touchdown passes in a season. He moved into third place on the Memphis all-time career passing list with 4,149 yards. Williams, who came to the U of M with incredible prep credentials, led the nation in average yards per carry for four weeks and was second in the nation after 11 games. He completed the season tied for fifth in the country in yards per carry averaging an amazing 6.6 yards per attempt. Memphis placed four players on both the All-C-USA team and C-USA All-Freshman team. Center Jimond Pugh was named first team at center, while teammates Derrick Ballard, Tony Brown and Travis Anglin were selected to the second team. Williams was voted to the All-Freshman squad as was Stephen Gostkowski, John Doucette and O.C. Collins. Collins was also named to two Freshman All-America teams for 2002. Two members of the 2002 Tiger squad were drafted by NFL teams as tackle Wade Smith was taken in the third round by the Miami Dolphins, and wide receiver Travis Anglin was picked in the seventh round by the Detroit Lions.
- Tommy West started the 2003 season off by signing what he termed the "the most noted and highly renowned recruit" in Tiger history. He was referring to the landing of defensive coordinator Joe Lee Dunn. Dunn served as the defensive coordinator for Memphis from 1989 through 1991 and left to take over similar spots at Ole Miss, Arkansas and Mississippi State, where he worked for seven seasons under Jackie Sherrill.
- For years and years, Tiger fans became accustomed to always saying... "wait until next year" as the college football season wound down to a close. But the 2003 season became that "next year," as Memphis closed with a bowl victory in New Orleans. After a season-opening win over Tennessee Tech, the Tigers surprised everyone by knocking off Heisman Trophy candidate Eli Manning and his Ole Miss Rebel team 44-34 before a national television audience. As the season progressed, victories came against C-USA foes Tulane, Houston, East Carolina, Louisville and Cincinnati and when the regular season finale was played in November, the Tigers had compiled a record of 8-4 and were receiving attention from several bowl representatives. On the night of Nov. 30, Memphis received the call from the New Orleans Bowl extending an invitation to play North Texas in the fourth annual event. The game was Dec. 16 and was played in the Superdome. Without the services of tailback DeAngelo Williams and with wide receiver Maurice Avery still limping on a bad knee, the Tigers rolled into New Orleans with thousands of fans and a host of media for the school's first bowl appearance in 32 years. Riding the arm of Wimprine, the Tigers dominated the Mean Green and came away with a 27-17 victory. It would be C-USA's only bowl win of the 2003 season and pushed the Tigers' all-time bowl record to 3-0. Wimprine was named the MVP of the New Orleans Bowl and weeks later, head coach Tommy West was voted the Tennessee Sports Writers Coach of the Year. Memphis' 9-4 record marked the best finish by a Tiger team since the 1963 season.

- West's Tigers continued to make history in 2004. The squad opened the season with a 5-1 record for the first time since 1967. Included in that span were wins over Ole Miss, Chattanooga, Arkansas State, Houston and Tulane. Memphis also enjoyed its first-ever national ranking by the Associated Press when the Tigers were listed at No. 25 on Sept. 12. Memphis also played four of its last five games of the season on national television. One of the most memorable games was oddly enough a loss to then C-USA foe Louisville. The game was played on Thursday night with the ESPN crew of Kirk Herbstreit, Lee Corso, Chris Fowler and Jill Arrington. A crowd of 52,384 fans watched the offensive explosion as Memphis and Louisville put up 105 points on the scoreboard. Louisville, ranked 14th nationally at the time, rolled off to the 56-49 victory. The crowd that supported the Tigers was the 11th-largest crowd in school history, but it was also the largest crowd ever to watch Memphis face a non-SEC foe. The following week on ESPN2, the Tigers became bowl eligible for the second straight season with a win over Southern Miss at home. It was the first time ever that Memphis had achieved back-to-back bowl appearances in school history. The Tigers finished out the regular season with wins over East Carolina and USF on the road and headed to the GMAC Bowl in Mobile, Ala., with an 8-3 record. Memphis faced Bowling Green State in the bowl meeting and dropped to 8-4 on the year with a 52-35 loss to the Falcons. The Falcons were powered by one of the nation's leading quarterbacks, Omar Jacobs, but the game took a bad turn when All-American tailback DeAngelo

- The Tigers placed Williams, Gene Frederic, Wesley Smith and Stephen Gostkowski on the All-C-USA first team, and Danny Wimprine, Jeremy Rone, Tavares Gideon, Marcus West and Albert Means on the second team. Greg Hinds was named to the All-Freshman team, and Williams was named the Offensive Player of the Year for the second straight season. He shared the honor with Louisville quarterback Stefan LeFors. Wimprine finished out his four-year career with almost every passing record, throwing for 10,215 yards and 81 touchdowns. Williams continued to rack up honors by the end of the season and was named an All-American by the Associated Press, SI.com and Pro Football Weekly. He also was Tennessee's Player of the Year by the TSWA and was the Male Amateur Athlete of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame. In January, he settled a lot of nerves when he announced that he would "forgo his NFL career" to come back to Memphis for his senior season. Months later, Williams was named to the 2005 Playboy All-America team and the University began its Heisman campaign for the record-setting back.
- The 2005 season went down in history as the year the Tigers had a legitimate Heisman candidate. The Athletic Media Relations office launched a highly-publicized campaign that matched college football with another deep South favorite – NASCAR. By the end of summer, DeAngelo Williams had his own "Race for the Heisman" promotion that included 1:24 scale die-cast cars with a special paint scheme. Nearly 1,000 cars were mailed to local, regional and national media, but most notable was the fact that approximately 2,500 cars were bought by fans in just three days. A website was built, noting Williams' accomplishments, and eventually a full-size race car was donated and appeared at all Tiger home games. The promotion served its purpose, as Williams and the Memphis Tigers gained the national spotlight.
- But, the 2005 season was not marked by the accomplishments of just one player, but by a total team effort, as the Tigers overcame their share of adversity en route to a winning campaign. Prior to the start of the season, Memphis lost veteran receiver Mario Pratcher and defensive lineman Van Houston to knee injuries. In the first game of the season, starting quarterback Patrick Byrne suffered a broken leg on Memphis' first offensive series against Ole Miss. Byrne was lost for the season, and redshirt freshman Will Hudgens had to take over under center. Hudgens started against Chattanooga and led the Tigers to victory, but late in the third game of the season against Tulsa, Hudgens suffered a broken leg that ended his season. And, not only was Byrne sidelined in game one, but so was senior defensive end Rubio Phillips, who suffered a knee injury. The Tigers then turned to true freshman Billy Barefield at quarterback. Barefield led Memphis to an upset victory over then-undefeated UTEP, but struggled to generate much-needed offense in a loss to UCF on the road. At that point head coach Tommy West made two key moves – DeAngelo Williams took the team on his shoulders and leading senior receiver Maurice Avery moved to quarterback.

- The personnel changes proved to be successful as Avery led the Tigers to wins in five of the last seven games of the season, and Williams finished the season as the NCAA's leader in rushing yards per game. Williams also became the NCAA's all-time leader in all-purpose yards and finished his career ranked fourth all-time in NCAA history in rushing yards. While Williams scored 114 points, which was just over 30 percent of the team's scoring in 2005, the Tigers could not have been successful without senior kicker Stephen Gostkowski, who also scored 30 percent of the points with 101. Williams was named C-USA Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, and ultimately, was drafted in the first round by the Carolina Panthers, while Gostkowski was selected the league's Special Teams Player of the Year and was drafted in the fourth round by the New England Patriots. In addition to Williams and Gostkowski, five other Tigers were selected to the All-C-USA Team. Defensive end Marcus West, offensive guard Andrew Handy and safety Wesley Smith were picked to the first team, and punter Michael Gibson was named to the second team. Offensive lineman Brandon Pearce and receiver Maurice Jones landed on the C-USA All-Freshman Team.
- By the end of the season, eight starters were lost for the season, but Memphis turned the negatives into positives. Because of the dedication and determination of the coaching staff and players, the Tigers received an invitation to their third-straight bowl game. The Tigers traveled to Detroit for the Motor City Bowl and defeated Akron, 38-31, on Dec. 26 in front of over 50,000 fans at Ford Field. Williams rushed for 238 yards in the game and was named the MVP, while linebacker Tim Goodwell received the UAW Lineman Award. In addition, Williams and Gostkowski were invited to the Senior Bowl; Avery played in the Hula Bowl; and Goodwell appeared in the All-American Bowl.
- In 2006, the Tigers struggled as the injury bug struck again and wreaked havoc on the depth chart. In fact, during the season, 25 Tigers were sidelined for at least one game and 11 of those were season-ending injuries. Of the 25 injuries, 15 were to starters or potential starters and the injuries were just about split down the middle with 11 on offense and 14 on defense. With the constant changing lineup and a defense that struggled after defensive coordinator Joe Lee Dunn was released prior to the Tennessee game, the Tigers

CONFERENCE AFFILIATIONS

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY • 1928-1934 •

Memphis, then West Tennessee State Teachers College, had its first conference affiliation during the 1928 season when the fledgling institution was a member of the Mississippi Valley Conference. Memphis joined with Tennessee Martin JC, Sunflower JC, Bethel College, Delta State College, Murray Normal, Lambuth College and Little Rock College to form the league. Memphis competed in the Mississippi Valley Conference for seven seasons and compiled an overall record of 19-6-3.

SOUTHERN INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION • 1935-1942 •

The Tigers left the Mississippi Valley Conference in 1934 and promptly joined the membership of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The new affiliation united Memphis with Middle Tennessee State, Louisiana College, Delta State, Troy State, Tennessee Tech, Union University and Murray State. The Tigers competed for eight seasons prior to World War II and had a conference mark of 18-24-1.

MISSOURI VALLEY • 1968-1972 •

As Memphis State grew in national stature, the institution sought to align itself with similar schools. In 1968, the Tigers joined the Missouri Valley Conference. and for a five-year period, dominated the football membership. MSU competed against such schools as Louisville, Tulsa, Wichita State, North Texas State, Cincinnati, Drake and West Texas State. Memphis State won three conference championship (1968, 1969, 1971), and head coach Billy J. Murphy was named the Coach of the Year three times. The Tigers compiled a 19-5-0 record and represented the league with a win in the 1971 Pasadena Bowl.

- The 2006 season wasn't without its highlights, though, as true freshman receiver Duke Calhoun showed his potential as a go-to guy, leading the Tigers in receiving yards with 681 and in receiving TDs with six. He, along with kicker Matt Reagan and defensive lineman Greg Terrell, was named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team. Rusty Clayton, Brandon McDonald, Michael Gibson, Ryan Scott, Brandon Pearce and Blake Butler were also named to the All-C-USA Team as for the first time in league history, coaches and media picked separate teams. Brandon McDonald became the third Tiger in two years to be drafted. He was selected in the fifth round by the Cleveland Browns.
- For the third straight season, the Tigers won their season finale as the U of M traveled to El Paso, Texas for a stunning 38-19 victory over UTEP. Memphis' defense, which showed marked improvement late in the season, held UTEP to just five yards rushing. Michael Grandberry was named the Tigers' only C-USA Player of the Week after that game, after he logged 118 yards on two kick returns.
- Perhaps the most memorable play of the 2006 season was against eventual C-USA champion Houston. With just over two minutes remaining on the clock, Brandon McDonald blocked UH's 24-yard field goal attempt and linebacker Greg Jackson picked up the ball and ran it 80 yards for a TD that tied the game at 20 and forced overtime. Memphis fell short of the victory, as UH booted a field goal to win the game, 23-20.
- The 2007 season started off slow as the Tigers opened with a 1-3 record. And, just as the team was feeling about as down and out as possible, an unexpected tragedy brought the group together. On Sunday, Sept. 30, defensive lineman Taylor Bradford was killed in an act of violence, and the Tigers were facing a game two days later. Following a powerful campus vigil on Monday, Oct. 1, the Tiger football team set out on the emotional task of playing a game on ESPN on Tuesday against C-USA foe Marshall. Coach Tommy West and his squad entered the field arm-in-arm in a chilling showing of togetherness. The team snapped a two-game losing streak with a win over Marshall and that game is sure to be remembered for years to come.
- After a disappointing mid-season loss to Middle Tennessee, the Tigers regrouped and welcomed Martin Hankins back under center. Hankins missed the Marshall and MTSU games with a hip injury. Hankins ultimately led the Tigers to wins in five of the final six games of the season. Memphis was back in a bowl game for the fourth time in five seasons.
- With its loss to Florida Atlantic in the New Orleans Bowl, the Tigers finished the season with a 7-6 record, which was good for the fourth-best turnaround nationally. In addition, the Tigers finished C-USA action with a 6-2 record which placed the U of M tied for second in the East Division with East Carolina. The six wins were the most victories for the Tigers since beginning C-USA play in 1996.

- Memphis closed out the 2007 season ranked in the top 25 in several national categories, including total offense (23rd), sack denial (10th), passing offense (13th), turnover margin (15th), fumbles lost (tied 3rd), turnovers lost (tied 10th) and fourth down conversions (11th).
- Several Tigers received C-USA honors, including offensive lineman Andy Smith, wide receiver Duke Calhoun and linebacker Jake Kasser. Offensive lineman Dominik Riley and deep snapper Keenan Bratcher were selected to the All-C-USA Freshman Team.
- In 2007, Memphis was the only non-BCS team to participate in a bowl game, the NCAA men's basketball tournament and the NCAA baseball tournament all in the same calendar year.
- The Tigers found themselves in uncharted territory early in the 2008 season, when they opened with three straight losses for the first time ever under head coach Tommy West. And while most counted the Tigers down and out, this squad refused to sit back and accept a losing season. Memphis rolled off consecutive wins over Nicholls State, Arkansas State and UAB to even the record at 3-3 at the halfway point.
- Just as things started to pick up, the East Carolina game forced the Tiger coaching staff to become creative offensively. Memphis lost the services of quarterbacks Arkelon Hall (thumb) and Will Hudgens (knee) in the first quarter on the road at ECU. Walk-on junior Brett Toney was pressed into service and the U of M fell to 3-5 with the loss to the Pirates. Toney started the Southern Miss and SMU games, which the Tigers won, again evening their record at 5-5.
- Two open dates in a four-week period allowed for Hall to return to the lineup for the final two games of the season at home versus UCF and Tulane. With bowl hopes and a potential share in the C-USA East Division title on the line, costly mistakes against UCF left the Tigers with one more chance for post-season hopes on Senior Day versus Tulane. The squad came out with something to prove and earned the sixth win for bowl eligibility with a commanding 45-6 win over the Green Wave.
- While the win over Tulane gave the Tigers something to celebrate, it was also a sad day for the Tiger family. Later that evening, the team learned that Murray Armstrong, who had served in many capacities with Tiger Athletics for 46 years, had lost his four-year battle with cancer.
- Memphis was among 12 NCAA FBS teams that started the season with a 0-3 record in 2008. Of those 12 teams, only the Tigers and Rutgers played in bowl games. Rutgers entered the PapaJohns.com Bowl with a 7-5 record, and Memphis went into the magicJack St. Petersburg Bowl with a 6-6 record.

- In 2008, the Tigers were competing in the postseason for the fifth time in six years, and could count themselves among only 36 teams nationally who could make that claim of success.
- Several Tigers received C-USA honors, including Brandon Pearce and Clinton McDonald who were named to the first team. Curtis Steele was selected to the second team and was also named the league's Newcomer of the Year. Ronald Leary was selected to the All-C-USA Freshman Team.
- Senior Brandon Patterson, who earned his master's degree in Dec. '08, became the only Tiger football player to be named an Academic All-American two times in his career (2007-08).
- While many Tiger fans may not recall the 2-10 record many years from now, they are sure to remember the 2009 season for Coach Tommy West being dismissed with three games remaining on the schedule and the impassioned speech he gave in his press conference announcing the firing. West was let go following the 56-28 loss at his alma mater, Tennessee, with the Tigers sitting at 2-7 and no chance of a return to the postseason. West finished his 10-year career with the Tigers (nine as head coach) with a 49-61 mark, and ranks third all-time in wins at the U of M.
- Duke Calhoun and Carlos Singleton finished their Memphis careers as the No. 1 and No. 2 receivers in school history, while Curtis Steele closed out his two-year career as the No. 3 running back all-time. Calhoun also ended his career with the nation's third-longest active receiving streak through the 2009 season with 49 consecutive career games with a reception.
- Several Tigers were honored in 2009, including Steele, who was named to the All-C-USA first team, and punter/kicker Matt Reagan who was a third-team all-American as a punter by the Associated Press. Reagan is Memphis' first AP all-American since DeAngelo Williams (2005, second-team), and was punting for the first time in his collegiate career in '09. Also named to the All-C-USA team were Calhoun (2nd) and Reagan (2nd), as well as Dontari Poe and Jamie McCoy, who were placed on the All-Freshman team.
- On November 29, 2009, former Tiger running back (1990-93) Larry Porter was named as the 22nd head football coach at Memphis.

2010s

- The 2010 season was not without its highlights as five Tigers were named to the All-C-USA team, including linebacker Jamon Hughes, who was named to the first team. Hughes finished the season ranked third nationally in tackles. In addition, OL Dominik Riley was named to the second team, while P Tom Hornsey, CB Mohammed Seisay and OL Ricky Hart received All-Freshman honors.

- Australian punter Tom Hornsey became Memphis' first FWAA Freshman All-American as he ranked third nationally in yards punted (3,416) and fourth nationally in total punts (80). He was one of two true freshmen on the 2010 Ray Guy Watch List.
- In Feb. 2011, the Tigers had their very first workout in their new 13,000-square foot strength den dedicated solely to football. That wouldn't be the end of the commitment to Tiger football, as a $10 million capital campaign was announced in June 2011, with plans to add an indoor practice facility, renovate the locker room, level the grass fields and brand the Murphy Complex.
- The Tigers won just two games in 2011 with victories over Austin Peay State and C-USA foe Tulane, and Coach Larry Porter was relieved of his duties as the head coach on Nov. 27, 2011. Porter was 3-21 in two seasons with the Tigers.
- Memphis placed two players on the All-C-USA Team, as junior Dontari Poe and senior Ron Leary were both named to the second team. Poe announced at the end of the season that he would make himself available for the NFL Draft, and he was selected in the first round as the No. 11 pick by the Kansas City Chiefs.
- On December 8, 2011, former TCU co-offensive coordinator Justin Fuente was named to 23rd head football coach at the U of M.
- Then, University of Memphis President Dr. Shirley C. Raines and BIG EAST Commissioner John M. Marinatto announced on Feb. 8, 2012, that Memphis had accepted a formal invitation to join the BIG EAST Conference as an all-sports member beginning July 1, 2012. The BIG EAST would later announce on April 3, 2013 that the league was being renamed the American Athletic Conference, and would rebrand as such across all platforms, associations and media at the conclusion of the 2012-13 sports seasons.
- Justin Fuente's debut as the Tigers' head football coach on Sept. 1, 2012 would include a 2:40 delay for heavy rains and storms which passed over the stadium shortly after halftime. The game would resume at 10:38 p.m. and conclude shortly before midnight. UT Martin kicked a last-minute field goal to beat the Tigers 20-17.
- Memphis' first victory in the Justin Fuente era would come in the Tigers' 2012 Conference USA debut as the Blue and Gray rallied from a 10-0 halftime deficit to beat Rice 14-10. Memphis held the Owls to have of their previous total offense average.

- The Tigers would conclude the 2012 season by winning their last three games, capped by a 42-24 win over Southern Miss. Memphis won three straight games for the first time since 2008 and the team's four conference wins equaled the total for the previous three seasons combined.
- Senior offensive lineman Jordan Devey, junior defensive lineman Johnnie Farms and sophomore defensive end Martin Ifedi were all named All-Conference USA Second Team following the 2012 season. Additionally, senior linebacker Akeem Davis received the inaugural Lee Roy Selmon Community Spirit Award.
- Senior punter Tom Hornsey won the 2013 Ray Guy Award, presented annually to college football's best punter. Additionally, Hornsey was a Consensus NCAA All-American. He averaged 45.2 yards per punt which ranked seventh nationally. He helped the Tigers post a 41.02 net punting average which ranked fourth nationally.
- In its inaugural season in the American Athletic Conference, the Tigers had three players selected to the first all-conference team selected by the league's coaches. In addition to punter Tom Hornsey, place-kicker Jake Elliott and defensive end Martin Ifedi.
- In its second year as members of the league, Memphis captured an American Athletic Conference title in 2014. The Tigers posted a 10-3 overall record, recording a school-record number of wins, tying a mark set in 1938 when the Tigers went 10-0. Memphis was 7-1 in league play and shared the conference title with Cincinnati (which it beat 41-14 during the year) and UCF.
- Memphis won the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl with a dramatic, 55-48 double-overtime win over BYU. Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch, named the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-46 passes for 306 yards and four touchdowns including the game-winning, 11-yard strike to Roderick Proctor in the end zone to cap Memphis' second overtime series on offense. After Memphis had scored, Dashaughn Terry intercepted a pass on BYU's second play from scrimmage on its second overtime possession to end the game.
- Lynch's recognition as the Miami Beach Bowl MVP was earned with a performance in which he equaled an NCAA bowl record for touchdowns responsible for with seven. In addition to passing for four touchdowns, he ran for three. He twice completed passes to Keiwone Malone on fourth down plays in the final two minutes of regulation, including a diving, five-yard snag for a touchdown with 45 seconds to play as the Tigers came from behind to send the game to overtime.
- In the first overtime period of the Miami Beach Bowl, Jake Elliott needed to kick the longest field goal ever in an overtime period - officially a 54-yarder - just the second the game to a second overtime period. Elliott's kick tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NCAA bowl history and was the longest since 2004. It was the second-longest field goal in Memphis history and tied for the fifth-longest field goal of the 2014 NCAA FBS season.

- Elliott was named the American Athletic Conference's 2014 Special Teams Player of the Year. His was one of three major individual awards presented to the Tigers following the season. Justin Fuente was named the American's Coach of the Year while senior linebacker Tank Jakes was named the American's Co-Defensive Player of the Year.
- Along with Elliott and Jakes, offensive tackle Al Bond, tight end Alan Cross, defensive end Martin Ifedi, and cornerback Bobby McCain were all named 2014 All-Conference First Team. Memphis' all-conference, second-team picks were made up of quarterback Paxton Lynch, running back Brandon Hayes, return specialist Keiwone Malone and punter Spencer Smith.
- Senior defensive end Martin Ifedi became Memphis' all-time leader in quarterback sacks with 22.5 (-125 yards) and finished his career ranked tied for fourth in tackles for lost yardage with 36 (-159 yards).
- Both Bobby McCain (5th Round) and Ifedi (7th Round) were selected in the 2015 NFL Draft. It was the first time multiple Memphis players were selected in the same NFL Draft since DeAngelo Williams (1st) and Stephen Gostkowski (4th) were selected in the 2006 draft.

METRO • 1980-1992 •

Despite competing as an independent in football, Memphis joined the Metro Conference in 1980 and began playing with such noted teams as Florida State, Georgia Tech, Virginia Tech, Louisville, Cincinnati, Tulane and Southern Miss. The teams did not play for a conference championship, but they did select an All-Metro Conference Team at the end of each season. The Tigers placed 60 football players on the various All-Metro teams, and linebacker Danton Barto was named the Defensive Player of the Year in 1990.

CONFERENCE USA • 1996-2012 •

The Tigers joined their first football-playing league since the 1972 season when Memphis aligned with Louisville, Cincinnati, Tulane Southern Miss and Houston in 1996 to play for a conference title. During its years as a charter member, the Memphis program was witness to several changes in membership. DeAngelo Williams was a three-time C-USA Offensive Player of the Year as well as named the league's Athlete of the Year for the 2005-06 season while Stephen Gostkowski was named the C-USA Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005. Memphis had student-athletes honored 118 times as first or second-team all-conference selections or named to the conference's all-freshman team.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE • 2013-PRESENT •

The University of Memphis began its first season in a rebranded BIG EAST Conference now called the American Athletic Conference in 2013. In its first season, Memphis was aligned with Cincinnati, UConn, Houston, Louisville, Rutgers, SMU, Temple, UCF and USF. East Carolina, Tulane and Tulsa joined the new conference ahead of the 2014 season. The Naval Academy joins the American for football in 2015. In two years, Memphis players have received three player of the year awards and nine, all-conference first-team selections.

WALK

Initially not offered scholarships, students have enrolled at the University of Memphis not only seeking opportunities to succeed in the classroom but also pursuing the chance to make a difference on the field as walk-on members of the Tigers Football program.

In recent years, players like Stephen Gostkowski and Dontari Poe have walked-on to the Memphis Football program, earned scholarships and are now enjoying NFL careers including Pro Bowl appearances. Gostkowski was a member of the New England Patriots' Super Bowl XLIX championship team earlier this year.

Since Justin Fuente's arrival as the Tigers' head coach, 30 student-athletes who originally walked-on to the Memphis program have either earned scholarships or played.
