TODD GRAHAM, ARIZONA STATE HEAD COACH

"Mike is the best assistant football coach I've ever had. He's the total pakage when it comes to understanding offense, defense and then recruiting. He's just off the charts."

ADAM RITTENBURG, ESPN.COM

"Mike Norvell makes a lot of sense for Memphis. Has roots in the region. ... Norvell was in demand as a play-caller after the 2014 season. He should continue what Justin Fuente started, and his background would be perfect if Memphis eventually moves into a Power 5 like the Big 12. Really like the move by AD Tom Bowen."

ADAM SILVERSTEIN, CBSSPORTS.COM

"Turning down multiple opportunities to advance his career as an offensive coordinator away from Arizona State and Todd Graham, with whom he spent the past eight seasons, Norvell's patience obviously paid off as he will now lead a Memphis program that has steadily risen to prominence in the American Athletic Conference."

CREDENTIALS

Seating for working media at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium/Rex Dockery Field is limited. Credentials are issued to working press only, and are at the discretion of the athletics communications director. Members of the media are asked to request credentials at least two weeks in advance. All requests are handled through sportssystems.com/memphis.

All credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis and can be revoked at any time at the discretion of the athletics communications director. Freelance writers/photographers will only be credentialed for an accredited Agency whose credential request is approved. Credentials for working media are issued according to the following criteria:

1. Local newspapers, wire services, national publications and newspapers from the opponent's area, along with student newspapers representing the University of Memphis and its opponent.
2. Other daily newspapers with preference to those which regularly cover the Memphis Tigers.
3. Radio and television sports department personnel not broadcasting, but considered reporting.
4. Non-daily newspapers, with preference to those which regularly cover Memphis football.
5. Other weekly and monthly publications that regularly cover the Memphis Tigers.
6. Websites (* see restrictions)
7. Professional Scouts

Credentials authorize the use by the Agency, solely for news and editorial coverage of an event including descriptions, accounts, photographs, films, audio or video recordings or drawings. Any other use or attempted use by the Representative or the Agency is expressly prohibited, unless the Agency has obtained advance written permission of the American Athletic Conference for such other use. The Representative should not use more than two (2) minutes of video highlights from the Event, and such usage shall be limited to regularly scheduled television newscasts aired by the Agency within a 48-hour period following the Event.

* Websites - The official website of the Memphis Tigers and the official website of the visiting school will be credentialed. Other websites will not be credentialed unless they meet the following specifications:

1. Must be a legal corporate entity that has been in business at least three full calendar years and has provided coverage of Memphis Athletics or the visiting team for at least three years.
2. Must provide original coverage of ALL athletic teams from the U of M or the university's opponent with its own staff of reporters and photographers.

3. Must travel to and cover all football away games and all major post-season events.
4. Must provide coverage of all press conferences of ALL athletic teams at the University of Memphis.

Websites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat rooms where people are allowed to post information anonymously will not be issued credentials. If a medium has an online site and it sponsors anonymous forums, it may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, radio, television), but will not be granted additional passes for online staff. Websites must meet NCAA standards for post-season accreditation.

Requests from individuals not employed by an accredited Agency will not be considered. Websites, blogs, message boards and sites in which the primary focus is recruiting will not be credentialed. Online entities will not receive photography credentials.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media/photo credentials which have not been mailed can be obtained at Media Will Call, located at the base of the press box elevator on the west side of the stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and closes at the end of the first quarter.

PARKING

The press parking lot is located on the southwest side (press box side) of Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium/Rex Dockery Field. The press lot is located just south of the elevator entrance. Admittance to this lot is through the main entrance of the Mid-South Coliseum off Southern Avenue. Passes are issued by the Athletics Communications Office and are limited.

TELEPHONES/INTERNET

Phone lines (hard lines) are limited in the press box at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium/Rex Dockery Field. It is suggested that media members that want to order their own telephone lines should first contact Tammy DeGroff (901) 678-5787 to inquire as to their seat locations for the game. Once seat assignments are established, media representatives can call AT&T offices at (800) 766-9115 to order their telephone service. The address of Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium is 335 South Hollywood Street, Memphis, TN 38104.

Ethernet connections and wireless Internet are available on the second and fourth floors of the press box. High speed wireless Internet is also available in the photographer's workroom located on the concourse level of the Liberty Bowl. (Outside Section 132).

MISSION STATEMENT

The primary mission of the Department of Athletics is to provide a successful athletic program at the highest level of competition. Characterized by academic, athletic and moral excellence in a diverse collegiate environment, the program will abide by the spirit of the rules governing students and intercollegiate athletics and will be known for its good sportsmanship and integrity.

The U of M is an equal opportunity/affirmative action university.

VISITING RADIO

The University and its flagship station, NewsRadio 600 WREC and 103.1 FM, provide courtesy telephone lines for the visiting radio broadcast. There are two standard lines and one ISDN line installed in the visiting radio booth on the fourth floor of the press box. Visiting radio can contact Tammy DeGroff for the telephone numbers. Visiting radio wanting to set up in its stadium booth the day before the game must contact Tammy DeGroff in advance so that the request can be coordinated through the stadium manager.

STATS/SERVICE

The athletics communications staff will provide complete game statistics, including play-by-play, post-game notes and coaches' quotes in the press box. Statistics are also delivered to the radio booths throughout the game. Light food and beverages will be available in the press box throughout the game. Please contact a member of the athletics communications staff in advance if you will need statistics e-mailed to your organization. The entire statistical package will be posted at both GoTigersGo.com and collegepressbox.com immediately following the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The University of Memphis locker room is closed to members of the media following all games. At home games, head coach Mike Norvell will be available in the Tigers' interview room after the cooling-off period. Requested players will also be available in the interview room. No media are permitted to interview coaches or players on the field prior to the 10-minute cooling-off period.

SPOTTERS

With at least a week's notice, Memphis will work to retain the services of a spotter for radio and television announcers. Please call our office at (901) 678-2337 in advance, and we will assist you in any way possible.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The sidelines at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium/Rex Dockery Field are very restricted and space is limited. Passes will be issued only for approved photographers representing daily newspapers, wire services, student newspapers, television stations and the athletics communications office. Photographers will be restricted to the areas outside the 25-yard lines and behind the white line. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers or for online sites that are not considered national or the official sites of the schools competing.

No photographers will be allowed inside the team bench areas in accordance with NCAA regulations. In accordance with American Athletic Conference policy, photographers and videographers must shoot outside the three-foot network television area.

Photographers are not permitted to sell photos taken at U of M football games without the written consent of the athletics communications office. All photographers must present their credentials to an athletics communications representative at the base of the press box elevator to receive a photo armband which allows access to the field during the game. All camera personnel MUST wear the armband in addition to the photo credential to remain on the field.

PRACTICE ATTENDANCE/ INTERVIEWS

Warmups and the first three periods of practice (approximately 20 minutes) will be open for photos/B-roll footage. Scrimmages during camp will be closed to the media.

Live practice reports of any kind are not permitted from the practice site (radio, blogs, social media, etc.). Reporting of injuries, personnel usage and schemes is prohibited prior to discussing them with head coach Mike Norvell. Coach Norvell is the only person who can or will comment on injuries. All interviews will be coordinated through Tammy DeGroff, Kevin Rodriguez or Lamar Chance of the Athletics Communications staff.

With the first game week and running through the season, Tuesday and Wednesday practices will be open for media attendance.

During the season, interviews with players will be limited to Monday and Tuesday as well as following games on Saturday. Players will be available for interviews after morning practice (which usually starts at 8 a.m.) on Tuesdays. Norvell is available after practice Tuesdays and Wednesdays during game weeks. Away from practice dates and times, interviews requests for Norvell must be placed through DeGroff by calling (901) 678-5787 or in writing to tdegroff@memphis.edu.

On weeks that games are played on days other than Saturday, please contact the athletic communications staff for the cut-off days for interviews.

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCES

Head coach Mike Norvell holds his weekly press luncheon on Mondays. The luncheon is held in the assembly room of the Hardaway Hall of Fame. Members of the media are invited to attend the luncheon which begins at 11:30 a.m. Coach Norvell addresses the media at noon. Selected players without conflicting class schedules will also attend the weekly press conference.

LIBERTY BOWL STADIUM INFORMATION

STADIUM LOCATION

Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, owned by the City of Memphis and operated by the Memphis Park Commission, is located at 335 South Hollywood Street in Memphis.

STADIUM FACTS

The stadium was constructed in 1965 and serves as the home for the University of Memphis Tigers, the Southern Heritage Classic and the annual AutoZone Liberty Bowl. This year's Liberty Bowl will pit teams from the Big 12 and the Southeastern Conference. Capacity of the Liberty Bowl is 59,308.

LOCKER ROOMS

The Tigers locker room is located in the south tunnel which is directly under the stadium's state-of-the-art HD video board. The visitor locker room is located in the north tunnel.

PLAYING SURFACE

The 2016 season marks the fifth season the Tigers will play on AstroTurf®, a surface that is also used by many college programs and NFL teams. The previous seven seasons (2005-11), Memphis played on FieldTurf at the Liberty Bowl.

STADIUM MANAGEMENT

Global Spectrum manages the Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and Fairgrounds as well as more than 120 other public assembly facilities around the world.

Thomas Carrier is the stadium's general manager.

The phone number to contact the stadium's administrative staff is (901) 729-4344.

DIRECTIONS TO LIBERTY BOWL STADIUM

FROM THE AIRPORT

From Memphis International Airport, travelers will take the main street from the front of the terminal and when the street splits, will take the left fork towards I-240. This will place you on Airways Blvd. north. Stay on Airways Blvd. north, over I-240 and continue north for approximately three miles. The Memphis Fairgrounds will appear on your right. Proceed to the corner of Airways Blvd. and Central Avenue. Turn right on Central and travel two stoplights to Hollywood Street. Turn right on Hollywood, and Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium will be on your right.

FROM DOWNTOWN

If you are staying downtown in Memphis, take Union Avenue East for approximately four miles. You will cross several major streets such as I-240, Cleveland, and East Parkway before coming to the corner of Hollywood Street and Union Avenue. Turn right at the stoplight on to Hollywood Street and travel approximately one mile to Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, which will be located on your right.

FROM EAST MEMPHIS

If you are staying in a hotel in East Memphis, you will need to take Poplar Avenue West as if you are going to downtown Memphis. Follow Poplar Avenue for approximately six miles to the corner of Central and Hollywood Street. Turn left on Hollywood and travel approximately one-and-a-half miles to Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, which will be on your left. If traffic is heavy on Poplar, you might take Central Avenue to the stadium. As you are traveling East on Poplar, you can turn left at the corner of Poplar and Goodlett. This is in the area of the University of Memphis and approximately two miles East of the stadium. Immediately after turning left on Goodlett, turn right on Central Avenue and travel two miles to the corner of Hollywood and Central. Turn left on Hollywood and the stadium will be on your right.

FROM WEST OF MEMPHIS

If you are coming into Memphis from Arkansas and points west of Memphis, you can take either bridge over the Mississippi River. The DeSoto Bridge (I-40 Bridge) will take you to I-240 South. Take I-240 South until you reach the exit for Poplar Avenue East. Take the Poplar East exit and travel approximately three miles to the corner of Poplar and Hollywood Street. Turn right and the stadium will be approximately one and a half miles on your right.

FROM EAST OF MEMPHIS

If you are arriving in Memphis from the East and you are on I-40 west, continue to head East as I-40 will turn into Sam Cooper Blvd. Stay on Sam Cooper Blvd. to Hollywood Street and turn left and travel two and a half miles to the stadium.

LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM

The University of Memphis football program is fortunate to have one of the finest facilities in the nation in which to play its home games. Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, "built by the citizens of Memphis," is a memorial to the veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean War. The renovated 59,306-seat facility, built in 1965 at a cost of $3.7 million by the city of Memphis, is operated by the Memphis Park Services Department.

The Tigers inaugurated the stadium in the fall of 1965 and in 50 years have compiled a 158-142-7 record in the Liberty Bowl. The stadium features an AstroTurf® playing surface, spacious locker rooms and a four-level press box, which features a VIP stadium club. The playing surface, which had been natural grass through the 2004 season, was replaced with a FieldTurf surface prior to the 2005 campaign. For the 2012 season, the surface changed to AstroTurf®, a surface used in several FBS collegiate and NFL stadiums. The field surface upgrade was part of major renovations to the stadium for 2012.

The centerpiece of the 2012 renovations at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium was a $2.5 million video scoreboard and sound system. A generous donation provided by FedEx to the UofM paved the way for the video board/sound system upgrades.

The south end zone features a 98x48-foot, state-of-the-art video board with a sound system located on the sides of the structure. The speakers and cap/or crown of the scoreboard makes the structure's actual size grow to 106 feet by 58 feet.

In 2012, the north end zone was updated with an LED board that is 38x10 feet in size.

In addition to the $850,000 FieldTurf playing surface for the 2005 season, the Liberty Bowl underwent several aesthetic changes the last six years (2005-11) that made the stadium look more like the "Home of the Tigers."

Prior to the start of the 2006 season, Jim McDonald of McDonald Outdoor provided several large photo wraps on the walls of the stadium's entrances to welcome Tigers fans. Graphics wraps were unveiled around the stadium's interior in 2008, and a face-lift project for the stadium's restrooms on the lower concourse was completed prior to the start of the season.

A major renovation project took place at the Liberty Bowl prior to the start of the 2009 season when the Tigers and visitors' locker rooms both underwent makeovers. The most notable change was the separation of the two locker rooms in the north tunnel. The Tigers' locker room remained in the north tunnel, while the visitors' locker room moved to the stadium's south tunnel.

Renovations in both 2009 and 2013 have brought the stadium into compliance with ADA specifications. The two separate renovations lowered the stadium's capacity from 62,380 to 59,308.

In the spring of 2010, the Memphis City Council approved a $15.7 million capital improvements budget to upgrade the grounds surrounding the Liberty Bowl. Included in the renovations was the construction of a grand entrance off East Parkway which City Council approved naming "Tiger Lane" in honor of the facility's longest tenant — the University of Memphis. "Tiger Lane" officially opened Sept. 18, 2010, when Memphis hosted Middle Tennessee.

Prior to the recent upgrades in the 2000s, the previous major renovation came in 1987 to a tune of $19.5 million. Included in the 1987 face lift was the addition of the sky-suites located on the east side of the stadium, approximately 12,000 seats in the stands and a stadium club to accommodate donors. Other areas of the stadium also were vastly improved, (including: lighting system, playing surface, handicap seating area, concession stands and restroom facilities).

In December of 1983, city of Memphis officials named the playing surface Rex Dockery Field in honor of the late Tigers coach who was killed in a plane crash.

During the 2013 season, the University honored Dockery with a field re-dedication ceremony. In attendance were the families of the four individuals who lost their lives as a commemorative plaque was unveiled honoring those individuals at the Tiger Lane entrance to the stadium.

This season, 2016, marks the debut of chair-back seating along both sidelines at the Liberty Bowl, along with upgrades in lighting, the scoreboard and the adjacent Pipkin Building, helping to improve the game day experience for Tiger fans.

Throughout the 50-year history, several professional teams have called the Liberty Bowl home. In 1974, the Grizzlies of the World Football League played their only season in Memphis. From 1978-80, the stadium hosted the Memphis Rogues of the North American Soccer League, and later in 1984-85, the Showboats of the U.S. Football League (USFL). Three other professional football organizations spent one season in the Liberty Bowl, including the XFL's Memphis Maniax (2001), the NFL's Tennessee Oilers (1997) and the CFL's Memphis Mad Dogs (1995).

The largest crowd to witness a Tigers game at the Liberty Bowl was the record-setting 65,885 that attended Memphis' 1996 stunning upset of No. 6 Tennessee. The Tigers defeated the Vols 21-17 before a CBS Sports regionally-televised audience. The entire nation, however, saw Memphis' game-winning drive when CBS carried the final five minutes nationally.

In 2004, Memphis hosted Louisville for a Thursday night ESPN broadcast. A crowd of 52,384 came out for the game, marking the largest Tigers crowd for a non-SEC opponent. That same season, Memphis set a home attendance record with an average of 41,175 fans per game (five games). The previous record was 40,622 in 2003 (seven games).

LISTEN TO ALL TIGERS FOOTBALL ACTION ON NEWSRADIO 600 WREC

In 2006, the University of Memphis began a new broadcasting agreement with iHeartRadio, making NewsRadio 600 WREC and Rock 103 (102.9FM) the flagship stations for all Tigers football and men's basketball games beginning with the 2016-17 season.

NewsRadio 6000 WREC is in its 92nd year covering the Mid-South region as the station Memphis turns to for news. The flagship allows Tiger games to be broadcast in HD Digital. The 600 WREC signal allows broadcast to be heard as far as Jonesboro to the north, Little Rock to the west, and Oxford to the south.

Dave Woloshin returns as play-by-play commentator for his 20th season. Woloshin, a well-known sports figure in Memphis, is in his 30th year of being associated with the Tigers' broadcast team. He began with Tigers' television broadcasts in 1986, and for the last 19 years, has handled the radio broadcast for Memphis football and basketball. Woloshin came to Memphis as the sports anchor for WHBQ-TV 13 in 1981. He handled play-by-play duties for the Memphis RiverKings and the Memphis Americans, Storm and Rogues soccer teams. Woloshin also worked with broadcast teams for ESPN and SportsChannel America and numerous high school football games of the week.

Woloshin is married to the former Gayle Stein of Memphis. The couple has four children: Nathan, Jacob, Brett and Brendan.

Jarvis Greer, a well-known local television personality and former Tiger football letterman, begins his fourth season as analyst for Memphis football broadcasts.

A native Memphian, Greer played for the Tigers during the tenure of head coach Richard Williamson playing defensive back as well as seeing action on special teams in 1977 and 1978. The Christian Brothers High School graduate came to the Tigers in the spring of 1977 and by the start of the fall season had earned a scholarship and a spot at safety in the defensive secondary.

The two-year letterwinner received his degree from then Memphis State University in Communications/Fine Arts and immediately began his 30-plus year career with WMC-TV. Greer has served the local NBC affiliate as a reporter, photographer, editor, assignment editor and anchor. During his television career, he has received a Regional Emmy and is a three-time Best of Memphis Award winner for his "Friday Football Fever Show" covering prep football in the Mid-South.

Greer was the 2012 recipient of the Billy J. Murphy Award. The honor is presented each year to a former University of Memphis student-athlete who has excelled in his chosen profession after graduation.

Greer and his wife Emily, have two children who are graduates of the University of Memphis, daughter McKenzie and a son J.J., who lettered four years on the Memphis Tiger soccer team (2009-13).

Native Memphian Forrest Goodman is entering his 18th season as the pregame/post-game host for the Memphis football and basketball broadcasts. Goodman also serves as the host of the Mike Norvell and Tubby Smith radio call-in shows.

Prior to joining the Tigers' broadcast team in 1999, Goodman was the play-by-play voice of all sports for Delta State University and also spent 10 years handling high school football play-by-play.

Goodman and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Abigail, and reside in Bartlett.

Matt Dillon will serve as the football sideline reporter for a 13th-straight season. Dillon, who is in his 43rd year working in the sports industry, also serves as the co-host of the Memphis pregame and post-game shows for football and basketball games on 600 WREC and 102.9 FM. He has hosted the shows for the last 14 years.

In addition to his football duties, Dillon has handled the color analyst spot for Memphis basketball radio broadcasts since 2002-03. The 1973 Memphis graduate began his long broadcast association with Tigers sports when he did play-by-play for WKNO-TV from 1973-2001. In the 1980s, Dillon also served as an analyst on WMC and handled play-by-play duties on WPTY-TV for road contests. From 1995-2000, Dillon served in several capacities in broadcasting Tigers football and basketball, including hosting coaches shows in the late 1990s.

Dillon and his wife, Marni, reside in Germantown.

Jeff Brightwell, the "Voice of Tigers Baseball and Women's Basketball," serves as the broadcast team captain, handling the majority of the production and engineering duties.

A 1996 Memphis graduate, Brightwell came to Memphis in 2003 after spending six years in Missouri. He has done play-by-play for Southeast Missouri State, Central Methodist College, Truman State, Moberly Community College and the Memphis RiverKings.

The last 13 years, the native Memphian has broadcast both home and away contests for Memphis baseball and women's basketball on WUMR 91.7 FM.

Brightwell also calls play-by-play for American Athletic Conference championship events on its network.

Brightwell was named the College Baseball Foundation's National Broadcaster of the Month in April 2005 and was honored as the Sportscaster of the Year in 2002 by the Missouri Broadcasters Association. He has also served as the public address announcer for the Triple-A Memphis Redbirds.

CONTRACT WITH ESPN HELPING DRIVE MEMPHIS' NATIONAL EXPOSURE

The American Athletic Conference's contract with ESPN provides unprecedented exposure for its member institutions.

The multi-year, wide-ranging television contract with ESPN to telecast its football, basketball and Olympic sports runs through the 2019-20 academic year.

The contract includes comprehensive national exposure via the acknowledged leader in college sports television, the ESPN networks.

"The extraordinary exposure provided by the ESPN networks will give viewers the opportunity to see the exciting competition and intense rivalries that will characterize our conference," Commissioner Mike Aresco said when the contract was originally announced.

With the 2014-15 academic year, football, basketball and Olympic sports were all under one agreement. The conference has retained marketing rights, providing lucrative sponsorship opportunities.

In football, the new contract provides unprecedented national coverage for the league. In essence, the extensive national television coverage replaces previous syndication and local telecasts. All conference controlled games, which are conference games and non-conference home games, will be televised.

Nearly 90 percent of the games are carried on national broadcast or national cable.

The conference championship game, which was played for the first time in 2015, will be again be carried by ABC or ESPN on Championship Saturday.

In men's basketball, all conference controlled games are televised.

More than 63 percent of the games are carried on national broadcast or national cable, which will be a minimum of 107 games.

The entire conference postseason basketball tournament is televised nationally. The championship game is televised on either ABC or ESPN.

In women's basketball, there is tremendous national and regional coverage.

Nearly 60 games are slated to be televised on national cable, regional sports networks and ESPN3, including the entire women's basketball postseason tournament. Eighteen regular-season games will be televised nationally.

The women's basketball tournament championship game will be on ESPN or ESPN2. The semifinals also will be on national cable.

In Olympic sports, numerous championship contests are slated be televised nationally.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT - DR. M. DAVID RUDD

M. David Rudd is President of the University of Memphis, a position he has held since May of 2014. As a Distinguished University Professor of Psychology, he also continues funded research, along with his affiliation with the National Center for Veterans Studies at the University of Utah, as co-founder and scientific director. Before transitioning to his current position, he served as Provost for over a year in Memphis. Prior to moving to Memphis, he was dean of the College of Social & Behavioral Science at the University of Utah.

Student success has been an early focus of his tenure in Memphis, with significant improvements in retention and graduation numbers. He spearheaded an effort to create a student success center, developed the university's first integrated enrollment, retention, and graduation plan, created a one-stop admissions center, developed targeted degree pathways for all majors, implemented an Academic Coaching for Excellence initiative, along with efforts to improve the effectiveness of student academic advising.

He has made a strong commitment to containing higher education costs and lowering student debt, holding tuition flat during his first year, the first such move in over three decades at the University of Memphis, followed by two years of increases below three percent and well below historic university averages. Given dramatic changes in higher education funding, President Rudd also initiated efforts to improve efficiency across all university divisions, including the development and implementation of a new budget model that allows for greater local control, direction and reinforces entrepreneurial creativity. Institutional effectiveness, across all divisions of the university have been a central focus as well, with creation of the university's first institutional effectiveness council.

Efforts to grow community partnerships and engagement have been very successful during his first two years, with creative partnerships with the Memphis Symphony, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Shelby County Schools and Methodist Healthcare. His first year saw a record $37M raised, with second year numbers surpassing that total and exceeding $38M raised. Including the current year, a total of over $500M is being invested on campus and in the university neighborhood district, with over $140M of private funds. President Rudd launched a national visibility campaign in his first year in partnership with FedEx Corporation, an effort that is already garnering attention. More UofM academic programs are currently ranked (across multiple ranking systems) than at any time during the university's 104-year history.

President Rudd has been a strong advocate for growing the university's research mission. During his first year, the UofM was successful in landing a National Institute of Health Center of Excellence in mobile health technology, with ten nationally ranked university partners. The Center's first year has been a great success, with a subsequent $60M grant submission and an impressive array of scientific publications.

His undergraduate degree is from Princeton University. He completed his doctoral training at the University of Texas-Austin and completed a post-doctoral fellowship in cognitive therapy at the Beck Institute in Philadelphia under the direction of Aaron T. Beck. He is a Diplomate of the American Board of Professional Psychology and a Fellow of three professional societies, including the American Psychological Association (Division 12 and Division 29), the International Association of Suicide Research and the Academy of Cognitive Therapy (a founding fellow). He was recently elected a Distinguished Practitioner and Scholar of the National Academies of Practice in Psychology. In addition to his clinical work, President Rudd is an active researcher with over 200 publications and more than 6500 citations. His scientific work was recently featured in Science News Magazine (2016).

President Rudd recently completed a $1.97 million clinical trial for suicidal soldiers at Fort Carson, Colorado. He has garnered over $18 million in grant funding as a principal or co-principal investigator and currently serves on the Institute of Medicine/National Academies of Science Committee on Assessment of Resiliency and Prevention Programs for Mental and Behavioral Health in Service Members and their Families. He has authored several books, and his research has been recognized with awards both national and international. He has served as a consultant to many organizations nationally and internationally, including the United States Air Force, the U.S. Army, the Department of Defense and the Beijing Suicide Prevention and Research Center.

He serves on a number of editorial boards, is past Chair of the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists, past President of the Texas Psychological Association, past President of Division 12 Section VII of the American Psychological Association, past Past-President of the American Association of Suicidology, a previous members of the APA Council of Representatives, and currently serves on the board of the PDV Foundation. President Rudd has testified seven times before the U.S. Congress, both House and Senate, on issues related to veterans and suicide.

President Rudd has been married to Dr. Loretta Rudd for 33 years. Dr. Loretta Rudd is a clinical associate professor in child development at the University of Memphis. Dr. Rudd earned her PhD in educational psychology from Baylor University. She holds bachelor's and master's degrees in communication disorders/deaf education from The University of Texas at Austin. She also received a master's of education in educational administration from Tarleton State University.

Previously, Dr. Rudd was an assistant professor at the University of Utah. While she was an assistant professor at Texas Tech University, she served as the Campus Champion for the Jumpstart for Young Children-Lubbock, an early literacy program that partners college students with children from low income homes. For 12 years, she taught in public education in Texas and California.

Currently, Dr. Rudd teaches several classes here at the UofM. She also currently serves on many boards such as the Libertas School of Memphis (a public charter Montessori school), Chair of the UofM Women in Leadership and Philanthropy and is a member of the Shelby County Early Childhood Education Consortium Committee (birth-third grade).

They have two children - Nicholas, who attends Vanderbilt, and Emma, who attends NYU.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR - TOM BOWEN

Just two and half years after assuming the position of Director of Athletics at the University of Memphis, Tom Bowen stood on a riser at midfield of Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and hoisted a conference championship trophy.

Celebrating the Tigers' first American Athletic Conference title on a late November evening in 2014 was another benchmark for Bowen who began leading the University of Memphis athletic department in June of 2012. In his short time leading the department, he has the Tigers roaring in a new and exciting direction.

Bowen began his tenure with an athletics program poised to make a league move from Conference USA to the Big East. Despite the conference realignment carousel continuing to rotate nearly halfway into his first year, Bowen's steady leadership helped Memphis become a charter member of The American Athletic Conference, which began its inaugural year July 1, 2013.

The Memphis athletics leader played an integral role in the formation of The American Athletic Conference and was instrumental in bringing the league's first men's basketball tournament to the Bluff City in March of 2014.

In addition to guiding Memphis through the conference move, Bowen has placed his stamp on Tigers athletics. One of his first missions was to evaluate and restructure the athletics department.

Bowen developed a strategic plan to increase the athletic department's fundraising efforts. Under his direction, the Elma Roane Fieldhouse -- home to Memphis women's basketball and volleyball -- improvements were completed with a state-of-the-art weight room, a four-lane training track, an elevated cardio platform, players' lounge and an enlarged training room with Grimm Tubs-hydroponic pools for injury rehabilitation.

In November of 2012, Bowen secured a multi-million dollar gift from the Helen and Jabie Hardin Charitable Trust to support women's athletics. The first phase of the generous gift was the design and construction of a new track and field complex on the University's Park Avenue campus. As part of the Hardin Charitable Trust gift, the second phase includes a clubhouse for the Tigers' softball program, which opened in the spring of 2016.

In December of 2013, Interim President Brad Martin and Tom Bowen announced that alumni Bill and Nancy Laurie had made a gift of $10 million to the capital campaign for athletic facilities. This is the single largest philanthropic gift in the history of the athletic department, and the second-largest gift in the history of the University of Memphis.

By securing the $10 million lead gift, the athletic department leadership reached a significant benchmark in a capital campaign goal of $40 million, less than 120 days after the plan was unveiled by President Martin. The capital campaign calls for a new men's basketball practice and training facility and an indoor football practice complex. It will additionally fund comprehensive upgrades and renovations to existing facilities including FedExPark and the Hardin Family Sports Complex.

Bowen's respect from his colleagues along with his experience and knowledge of football were pivotal in landing him a position on the College Football Playoff organization's Athletic Directors Advisory Council in early 2014. Previously, he served on the Athletic Directors Advisory Board of the BCS in 2013.

Bowen was voted to represent the American Athletic Conference on the NCAA Division I Leadership Council by his fellow athletic directors from the conference in July, 2014. The NCAA Leadership Council is comprised of athletics directors, faculty representatives and conference commissioners from every Division I conference, and serves as an advisory body to the NCAA Division I Board of Directors.

Headlined by the Tiger football team's American Athletic Conference championship in 2014, Bowen's first three years have been successful.

In addition to capturing an American title, football went on to win the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

The Memphis men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament third round in each of Bowen's first two years. The 2012-13 season saw the Tigers post the sixth, 30-win season in school history as well as sweep the Conference USA regular season and tournament titles. The 2013-14 squad finished in a three-way tie for third place in the ultra-competitive new American Athletic Conference, including two wins over defending national champion Louisville. The 2013-14 season also saw the basketball program rank in the top-10 in home attendance in NCAA Division I basketball for the fifth time in the last eight years. Memphis posted a road win over a defending national champion for a second straight year in 2015, winning at UConn on Senior Day.

Other athletic programs have enjoyed unprecedented success during Bowen's tenure heading the department.

The rifle team posted a third-place finish in small bore at the NCAA National Championship in 2014, the best finish in program history.

The men's tennis squad won the Conference USA championship in 2013. In 2014, men's tennis advanced to the NCAA Championships for a third-consecutive year. In 2013, the Tigers won their first NCAA Regional with an upset over Ole Miss and advanced to the program's first NCAA Championships Round of 16. In 2015, Memphis' women's tennis team sent a doubles entry to the NCAA Championships in Hayden Perez's first season as head coach. On the men's side, Memphis had both a doubles team and a singles player entry in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) rankings after freshman Andrew Watson captured an ITA Regional Singles Championship.

Women's golf had freshman Michaela Fletcher win her way from the NCAA South Bend Regional to the 2015 NCAA Finals, a first in school history. The men's golf squad earned an NCAA Regional berth for a fourth time in six years in 2016. During Bowen's three-year tenure, the Memphis track and field squads have sent 21 student-athletes to the NCAA Outdoor Championships, with 15 earning All-America honors.

In the classroom, Memphis had strong performances under Bowen's guidance.

Memphis had four of its athletic programs receive NCAA Public Recognition Awards. Men's Cross Country, Mixed Rifle, and Women's Golf also earned public recognition in 2016 for their APR multi-year number.

In May 2016, 53 student-athletes graduated from the University of Memphis and six former student-athletes graduated. Presently, based on teh most recent six-year cohort, Memphis' Graduation Success Rate (GSR) as defined by the NCAA = 85 percent. The internal graduation rate for student-athletes who exhaust their athletic eligibility at Memphis is 91 percent from the 2002-03 year through the 2014-15 cohorts.

In the spring 2016 term, Memphis student-athletes achieved a departmental GPA of 3.11, which was an all-time high semester/departmental GPA for University of Memphis Athletics. This was also the 11th consecutive semester with departmental GPA above a 3.0 GPA. Additionally, 58 percent or 203 student-athletes earned a semester GPA of 3.0 or above in the spring 2016 term.

Prior to taking his current post, Bowen served as the athletics director at San Jose State University from 2004-12. Bowen previously worked with the San Francisco 49ers Foundation and in intercollegiate athletics at the University of California and Saint Mary's College.

The 1983 graduate of the University of Notre Dame majored in theology/sociology and spent time studying for the priesthood with the Holy Cross Fathers. Bowen went on to earn a master's degree in administration/education from the University of San Francisco in 1990.

He and his wife, Mia, are the parents of three children: sons Andrew and Peter, and daughter, McKenna.

UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS

In a city known for doing things our way, there's a university that's driven to do the same. For over 100 years, our University has been a great gift to our community, a great opportunity to our students, and a source of knowledge, discovery, creativity and artistic expression for our nation. Founded in 1912, we have been known as both the West Tennessee Normal School and Memphis State University. Today, we are the University of Memphis — home to students from 50 states and 79 countries. Even with so many people in Tiger Nation, our students never feel like a number, but like the amazing, clever individuals they are.

Our nationally ranked programs consistently make the U.S. News & World Report lists, including a spot among America's Top 10 universities for offering the finest internship programs to students. Other top UofM rankings* include our online MBA program (#23); audiology (#12) and speech-language programs (#15); rehabilitation counseling program (#17); and the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law facility (#1 by preLaw magazine). We are a major research university with six Centers of Excellence and home to the FedEx Institute of Technology.

As a doctoral-granting, research-intensive university, the UofM is an engine of innovation and creativity. Our alumni are employed virtually everywhere across the globe.

Driven by doing isn't just a slogan. It's what you see happening in every corner on campus. Every. Single. Day. We've had a lot of firsts, but our most memorable years are yet to come. Having celebrated our centennial anniversary in 2012, our faculty, staff, alumni and benefactors have never been more willing, able and generous in their efforts to build an academic environment that makes a lifelong impact.

Foremost among the University's goals is to recruit outstanding faculty, enroll motivated students and provide distinctive learning experiences so our students will one day contribute in immeasurable ways to Memphis and the world. Currently, the UofM offers 17 bachelor's degrees in more than 250 areas of study, master's degrees in 54 subjects and doctoral degrees in 25 disciplines. We also offer a specialist's degree in education. Aspiring lawyers come from all over to earn their juris doctorate from our awe-inspiring Memphis Law program located in historic downtown Memphis. Degree programs at the University of Memphis are divided into 12 colleges and schools – Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, College of Arts & Sciences, College of Communication and Fine Arts, College of Education, Fogelman College of Business & Economics, Herff College of Engineering, Kemmons Wilson School of Hospitality and Resort Management, Loewenberg College of Nursing, School of Communication Sciences and Disorders, School of Health Studies, School of Public Health, and University College..

| NAME CHANGES | |
| 1994 | University of Memphis |
| 1957 | Memphis State University |
| 1941 | Memphis State College |
| 1925 | West Tennessee State Teachers College |
| 1912 | West Tennessee State Normal School |

Our Helen Hardin Honors Program attracts the most high-achieving students than any other honors program in the state of Tennessee. The brightest minds land at the UofM because we offer the best of a small liberal arts school with the wide-ranging opportunities of a large, nationally recognized research university.

In addition to the main campus in the heart of East Memphis, we established UofM Lambuth in Jackson, Tenn., in fall 2011.

One of the University's strongest contributions to the community is its alumni. Many have become nationally and internationally renowned in their fields as corporate executives, elected officials, award-winning actors and best-selling authors. Of the well over 125,000 alumni, more than 70,000 live in the Memphis-area.

As a member of the American Athletic Conference, the Tigers compete at the highest level of NCAA collegiate athletics, and have garnered national attention for their work in the community, in the classroom and on the playing field. For two straight years, Tiger Athletics was recognized by the NCAA as having an Academic Progress Rate (APR) among the top 10 percent nationally for baseball, men's basketball, women's golf and women's tennis.

There is no place like the UofM to nurture a unique style of learning that is about doing. College life in the 901 has never been more extraordinary. Unlimited opportunities await those with the drive, imagination and integrity to seize them. We are an anchor in the Memphis area and a magnet for gifted students and faculty who want to do more. Be more. Experience more.

CITY OF MEMPHIS

Considered the "Home of the Blues" and the "Birthplace of Rock 'n Roll," the city of Memphis' musical roots run deep. However, music is just a chapter in the history as well as the future of the city located in the heart of Mid-America.

Memphis, named after the capital of ancient Egypt, has big city amenities with a small-town feel. Whether you are a hardcore sports enthusiast, a history buff, a music aficionado, or you just like to relax and watch as boats travel the Mississippi River, Memphis has something for everyone.

Downtown Memphis has continued to grow and thrive, and two of the most visible projects have been the construction of AutoZone Park and FedExForum.

AutoZone Park is the home of the Memphis Redbirds, the St. Louis Cardinals' Triple-A club. The 14,320-seat stadium includes 1,500 club seats, 48 luxury suites and is located at the corner of Third Street and Union Avenue across from the world-famous Peabody Hotel. The Memphis Tigers baseball team also plays some of its more high-profile opponents in the top-notch facility.

The city's newest downtown project is FedExForum, an entertainment arena that houses both the Memphis Grizzlies of the National Basketball Association and the University of Memphis men's basketball team. The $250 million state-of-the-art arena features a 35,000-square-foot outdoor plaza where fans of all ages can gather before an event. The arena has over 100 points of sale for concession stands and four full-service restaurants. FedExForum is located one block south of Beale Street.

Memphis' musical roots can be traced to band leader W.C. Handy, who wrote the first blues song here in 1909, a campaign theme for Memphis mayor "Boss" Crump called "Boss Crump Blues" and later published as the "The Memphis Blues." The sound soon caught on and blues bands filled the clubs along Beale. Young musicians who have performed along Beale include Muddy Waters, Furry Lewis, Albert King, Bobby "Blue" Bland and B.B. King.

Beale Street has rapidly become the entertainment center of Memphis, and visitors and locals alike enjoy the food and music offered in the various nightclubs.

Where Beale Street meets the Mississippi River is Tom Lee Park, site of the annual Beale Street Music Festival. The weekend-long event is just a part of the month-long Memphis in May International Festival, which also includes the World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest and the Sunset Symphony.

Located within a block of Beale is Gibson Guitar Memphis, which includes factory tours and cultural exhibits. Across the street is the Smithsonian's Rock 'n' Soul Museum located at the FedExForum, which includes artifacts documenting music's past.

Memphis' musical roots also include Stax and Hi-Records as well as Sun Records recording studio. Stax became known for "sweet soul music" through such artists as the MarKeys, Booker T. and the MGs, Otis Redding, Wilson Pickett, Sam and Dave and Isaac Hayes. The Stax Museum reopened on its original location at McLemore and Crump in the summer of 2003 and offers visitors a complete history of "Soulsville USA."

One of Hi-Records' premier artists was Al Green. Sun Records' most famous recording artist was Elvis Presley and also boasted Jerry Lee Lewis, Carl Perkins and Johnny Cash among its recording artists.

Elvis Presley's Graceland is one of the five most-visited home tours in America and is the most famous home in the United States after the White House. In 1991, Graceland was placed on the National Register of Historical Places. Over 600,000 visitors tour Graceland each year. Also located downtown is the beautiful Orpheum Theater, which serves as a venue for performances by Ballet Memphis, the Memphis Symphony Orchestra and traveling Broadway shows, as well as the Orpheum Classic Movies series and other concerts.

The city's location makes Memphis a major distribution hub with two interstate highways intersecting the city. Memphis is also home of FedEx, the nation's largest package carrier which makes Memphis International Airport the world's busiest cargo airport. Over 500 commercial passenger flights originate from Memphis International each day.

Ranked by The Sporting News as one of the "Top 50 Sports Cities In the Country," the city of Memphis is a large metropolitan city with a hometown feel. From its big-city industry such as FedEx and the Memphis International Airport to its family recreation areas such as Shelby Farms and the Memphis Zoo, the city boasts all the amenities one would expect in a city with over 1 million residents, while retaining the charm and down-to-earth feel of a small town.

TIGERS TRADITIONS

When the University of Memphis first fielded a football team in the fall of 1912, no one had selected a nickname for the squad.

Early references to the football team tabbed them only as the Blue and Gray Warriors of West Tennessee Normal School.

After the final game of the 1914 season, there was a student parade. During this event, several Normal students shouted, "We fight like Tigers." The nickname was born.

More and more the nickname "Tigers" was used, particularly in campus publications. But, it did not catch on with the newspapers downtown. They continued to use "Normals" or the "Blue and Gray" when referring to the University.

In the late 1920s, student publications and downtown newspapers began referring to the football team as the "Teachers" or "Tutors." The Tigers nickname would return, but not until 1939 was it finally adopted as the official nickname for the University of Memphis.

For over 40 years, the sideline mascot for the University of Memphis has been a Bengal Tiger named TOM. TOM attends all Tigers football home games, and he can also be found at many other University events throughout the year.

TOM travels in style in a custom-designed, climate-controlled trailer and always with a sheriff patrol escort.

As one of only two universities in America with a live tiger mascot, The University of Memphis is unique in its tiger tradition. As a project of the Highland Hundred, no public or University funds are used to provide for TOM's needs, and no University resources are required in his care.

TOM is a powerful and majestic symbol of the University of Memphis, and his presence presents constant opportunities to educate Tigers fans young and old through the preservation of one of the world's most recognizable endangered species.

The first Tiger, TOM, was procured by the Highland Hundred football boosters in 1972 and served the U of M faithfully for nearly 20 years until passing away in February of 1992. The Highland Hundred officially presented TOM to the University in a ceremony at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium on Nov. 11, 1972, during a football game against the University of Cincinnati.

TOM had initially been named 'Shane' at the suggestion of the breeder's daughter. Once in Memphis, though, a contest was held to name the mascot. More than 2,500 entries were submitted. The list was ultimately reduced to two choices, Shane and TOM, which stands for Tigers Of Memphis. TOM won.

In the fall of 1991, the Highland Hundred Tiger Guard received TOM II as a gift from Tom and Carolyn Atchison of Florence, Ala. TOM II served his university with pride for 17 years through 2008, passing away on Oct. 15 of that year.

Shortly after TOM II's death, the Tiger Guard began the search for a new tiger to serve as TOM III, and a stroke of good luck was realized in a discussion with the Wisconsin Big Cat Rescue & Educational Center in Rock Springs, Wis. Faced with three new cubs born Aug. 31, 2008, after an unexpected pregnancy at their facility, founders Jeff Kozlowski and Jenny Meyer offered to donate one of their young tigers to serve as TOM III.

TOM III was introduced at a press conference on Nov. 17, 2008, and the Tiger Guard officially presented him to the University on Nov. 22 during a football game against the UCF.

U OF M ALMA MATER

Stand Firm, O Alma Mater
Through All The Years To Come;
In Days Of Youth And Beauty
Thy Halls Have Been Our Home.
In Time Of Preparation
Great Lessons Didst Thou Teach
Till Now O Alma Mater,
The Stars We'll Strive To Reach.

Lead On, O Alma Mater
They Sons To Highways,
Give Light And Truth Unto Them
For All Their Coming Days.
To Thee We'll Give All Honor,
Our Hopes Abide In Thee,
For Thou, O Alma Mater,
Hast Made Us Ever Free.

U OF M FIGHT SONG

Go Tigers Go, Go On To Victory,
Be A Winner Thru And Thru;
Fight Tigers, Fight Cause We're Going All The Way --
Fight, Fight
For The Blue And Gray And Say --

Let's Go Tigers Go,
Go On To Victory.
See Our Colors Bright And True;
It's Fight Now Without A Fear,
Fight Now Let's Shout A Cheer,
Shout For Dear Memphis U.
(Yell)
Go Tigers Go
Go Tigers Go
Yea -- Tiger Go!

THE LOGO

The University of Memphis' official logo was redesigned by Craig Thompson, from Disciple Design in Memphis, Tenn.

The original logo was an MSU with a leaping Tiger coming out from behind the letter. The new logo is an "M" with a leaping Tiger coming up over the center of the "M."

SCHOOL COLORS

The University of Memphis' official school colors of Blue and Gray were selected in the early 1900s.

The colors were chosen in an effort to show unity in a nation that was still recovering from the effects of the Civil War. The student body thought that by picking the colors of the North and the South, the school would show a togetherness among all students.

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE - #AMERICANRISING

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Connecticut, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University and the University of Tulsa.

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has written an impressive list of accomplishments, both in the competitive arena and the classroom.

In the course of its first three seasons, the American Athletic Conference has taken its place at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics, with a collection of national team and individual championships and football and men's and women's basketball postseason victories that place The American among the elite Division I FBS conferences.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams – UConn men's basketball in 2014 and UConn women's basketball in 2014, 2015 and 2016 – two New Year's Six bowl champions, and two individuals who have won NCAA titles, most recently SMU's Bryson Dechambeau, who was the 2015 national champion in men's golf. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, reached the semifinal and final rounds of the NIT, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered a top-10 finish at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship.

In football, three American Athletic Conference teams were in the final College Football Playoff rankings of 2015, while two teams from The American were ranked in the top 20 of the final national polls in both 2013 and 2015. Eight of The American's 12 football teams played in bowl games to cap the 2015 season as Houston defeated Florida State in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl and Navy beat Pittsburgh in the Military Bowl. Houston's finish at No. 8 nationally gave The American a top-10 team in the final national polls for the second time in the league's three seasons. UCF finished No. 10 in the 2013 rankings after the Knights' Fiesta Bowl win against Baylor.

In 2014, The American had the best men's basketball postseason record of any league, when conference teams were a combined 13-4, and sent four teams to the 2016 NCAA Championship. Teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, men's golf, and men's track and field.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed unprecedented success since the conference's formation. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in its first season in the conference. The 2014 season saw Memphis finish with 10 wins in football for the first time since 1938, while Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in 2015. That kind of success has led to an across-the-board increase in football attendance. The American Athletic Conference had four of the top six teams in average attendance gain from 2015 to 2016, while the conference as a whole realized a 9.1-percent increase at the turnstiles. Cincinnati, Houston and Temple all set single-game attendance records at their respective facilities

Under The American's banner, SMU advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship for the first time since 1993. UCF and Houston have both achieved top-10 rankings in baseball in the past two years. USF finished the 2014-15 season at No. 8 in the final men's golf national ranking. The UConn women's basketball team won its NCAA-record ninth, 10th and 11th national championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting. UConn basketball standout Breanna Stewart finished her career as the most decorated player in college basketball history as she was chosen as the consensus national player of the year for the third time and became the first player be named four times as the Most Outstanding Player at the Final Four.

Reynolds and Stewart were selected as the winners of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athletes, marking only the second time in the 86-year history of the award that multiple winners were chosen.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Acker was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, while Navy offensive guard E.K. Binns was one of 12 finalists nationally for the Campbell Trophy, which is presented by the National Football Foundation to the top scholar-athlete in college football. Tulsa soccer standout Katy Riojas was the winner of the 2016 NCAA Walter Byers Postgraduate Scholarship, while Golden Hurricane rower Emalia Seto won the 2016 NCAA Jim McKay Scholarship. Two student-athletes from The American have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in the conference's first three years.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional sports as well. UCF quarterback Blake Bortles was selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. More recently, a number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer. The American has had two first-round picks in football in each of the last three seasons, while the conference produced four first-round picks, including the top three selections, in the 2016 WNBA Draft.

The American Athletic Conference holds media rights partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports which provide the conference with outstanding national exposure on the two industry leaders in sports television. The football portion of the contract calls for nearly 90 percent of conference-controlled games on national broadcast or national cable platforms. The first American Athletic Conference Football Championship, which was played in 2015, was carried ABC as part of Championship Saturday.

In men's basketball, the television deal calls for all conference-controlled games to be televised, with more than 63 percent slotted for national broadcast or national cable – a minimum of 107 games. The entire postseason tournament is televised, including the championship game, which is on ABC or ESPN. Sixty percent of the American's women's basketball games are carried on national cable, regional sports networks or ESPN3, while the conference has a multi-year agreement with CBS Sports Network for coverage of select baseball games.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with 12 bowls for the current six-year cycle, ensuring multiple annual match-ups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations to member institutions and their fans.

The American Athletic Conference serves its membership from a state-of-the-art office located in Providence, R.I. The location of the conference headquarters – just steps from the city's Amtrak station and 10 minutes from T.F. Green International Airport – gives the conference easy access to its member schools.

The conference headquarters is equipped with a complete video production studio, which serves as the home of The American Digital Network, and small- and large-scale meeting rooms to accommodate the many coaches' and administrators' meetings held on-site each year.

HEAD COACH

MIKE NORVELL

CENTRAL ARKANSAS, 2005
FIRST SEASON

Mike Norvell, who has been instrumental in developing dynamic, high-scoring offenses throughout his career, begins his first year as the head coach at the University of Memphis. Norvell was named the Tigers' 24th head coach during a press conference held December 4th, on the university campus.

Norvell joins the UofM family and Tiger Nation after coaching the previous four years at Arizona State University where he was the program's deputy head coach and offensive coordinator.

After breaking into coaching at his alma mater, the University of Central Arkansas, as a graduate assistant in 2006, Norvell joined Todd Graham's coaching staff at Tulsa as wide receivers coach in 2007. He was a member of Graham's staff at Tulsa four years (2007-2010), before coaching one season at Pittsburgh (2011). Norvell was hired as Arizona State's offensive coordinator after Graham was named the head coach ahead of the 2012 season.

In 2014, the Sun Devils' offense ranked 16th in the nation in scoring (37 points per game) and 13th in touchdown passes (34). The offense finished with 5,750 total yards, including 2,194 on the ground and 3,556 through the air. Quarterback Taylor Kelly, who was named the Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year and ASU's recipient of the Pac-12 Tom Hansen Medal of Honor (awarded annually to each member institution's outstanding senior male and female student-athlete based on the exhibition of the greatest combination of performance and achievement in scholarship, athletics and leadership), concluded his time in the Maroon and Gold third in both career passing yards and touchdowns.

In 2015, Arizona State ranked 23rd nationally in total offense, averaging 473.8 yards per game. The Sun Devils averaged 289 passing yards per game, ranking 20th in FBS Football. In addition to his administrative and offensive coordinating responsibilities, Norvell was also responsible for coaching ASU's quarterbacks. He mentored ASU senior quarterback Mike Bercovici, who completed 290-of-480 passes for 3,442 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Norvell helped develop Bercovici, who was thrust into the starter's role when Kelly was injured in the third game of the 2014 season. In three starts, Bercovici led ASU to a 2-1 record while throwing for 1,243 yards and nine touchdowns (only two interceptions) and completing 63 percent of his passes.

The 2013 Sun Devil offense was ranked 10th nationally in scoring, averaging 39.7 points per game. With Norvell mentoring, Kelly threw for 28 touchdowns. Combined with his 29 touchdown tosses in 2012, Kelly's 57 scoring strikes in 2012-13 were the most for any Sun Devil quarterback in a two-season span. In addition, Kelly's 3,635 passing yards in 2013 were the third-most in a single season.

Norvell was promoted to deputy head coach at Arizona State in December 2013.

Norvell led a balanced and explosive offense in his first year with ASU, helping the Sun Devils set school marks at the quarterback, running back and tight end positions.

Nowhere was Norvell's influence felt more than at the quarterback position where Kelly, in his first season as ASU's starting signal-caller, set the school record for completion percentage (67.1) and threw for the second-most touchdown passes (29) in school history. Combined with the talents of running back Marion Grice – scored the third-most touchdowns (19) in school history – and tight end Chris Coyle – 57 receptions were the most ever by an ASU tight end –

The 2012 Sun Devils became the 14th team in NCAA FBS bowl history to score 60+ points in a bowl game (62 against Navy in Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl).

Of the 464.5 total yards per game ASU averaged in 2012, 205.5 came on the ground, representing the second-best mark in the previous 25 seasons (since 1988).

Norvell's quick-strike offense also produced 58 scoring drives of three minutes or less in 2012.

In his first full-time coaching opportunity at the University of Tulsa where he originally started as an offensive graduate assistant, Norvell soon transitioned to passing game coordinator and receivers coach before adding director of recruiting to his title in 2010. At Pitt in 2011, Norvell was the co-offensive coordinator, wide receivers coach and director of recruiting.

While with Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane had five 1,000-yard receivers emerge under Norvell's tutelage. His most accomplished pupil was All-America receiver Damaris Johnson, who led the country in all-purpose yards for two consecutive years and set the all-time NCAA FBS record for that category with 7,796 career yards. Johnson averaged 202.2 all-purpose yards per game in 2010. In Tulsa's 62-35 win over Hawai'i in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, he averaged an incredible 21.73 yards per touch en route 326 all-purpose yards.

In 2008, Norvell's receivers were a vital part of college football's most prolific offense. Tulsa averaged an astounding 569.9 yards per game that season to lead the country. The Golden Hurricane ranked second nationally in scoring (47.1points/game) and ninth in passing yards (301.8 yards/game). Tulsa also topped the country in total offense in 2007 (543.9 yards/game) and set 29 school records, 15 Conference USA marks and four NCAA records. The '07 Golden Hurricane became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers in a single season.

Prior to Tulsa, Norvell was an offensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Central Arkansas. In addition to coaching receivers and H-Backs, he was a significant contributor to UCA's special teams.

Norvell was accomplished on the field and in the classroom at Central Arkansas. A four-year starter at receiver, he finished his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions (213) and ranked third in receiving yards (2,611). Norvell earned All-Gulf South honors and was the conference's 2001 Freshman of the Year. He also was a two-time first-team Gulf South All-Academic honoree. Norvell earned his bachelor's degree of education in social studies in 2005 and a master's degree in training systems in 2007, both from UCA.

Norvell is married to the former Maria Chiolino of Fort Smith, Arkansas. They have a daughter, Mila, who was born in 2014. At the age of 34 (born Oct. 11, 1981), Norvell is one the youngest head coaches in FBS Football.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

CHRIS BALL

MISSOURI WESTERN STATE, 1986
FIRST SEASON

Chris Ball comes to Memphis as the program's defensive coordinator in 2016 after spending the previous four seasons at Arizona State, including the last three as the Sun Devils' co-defensive coordinator.

Ball joined the staff at Arizona State in 2012, serving as the defensive passing game coordinator and safeties coach. The following year (2013), Ball was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and helped guide seven Sun Devils defensive backs to All-Pac-12 honors, including first-team honoree Damarious Randall, who was a 2015 NFL Draft first-round pick by the Green Bay Packers.

In the 2013 campaign, Ball mentored three players in the Sun Devils secondary that earned All-Pac-12 honors. Robert Nelson, an All-Pac-12 first team honoree, led the conference with six interceptions and was fourth in the league with 13 passes defended. Nelson was one of two Sun Devils to sign NFL free agent deals in 2014.

Before joining Arizona State, Ball worked his third stint at Washington State, serving as the defensive coordinator from 2008-11. In his four seasons at Washington State, Ball served as assistant head coach, co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach. In 2009, The Sporting News named him the Pac-10's best position coach.

In each of his collegiate coaching stops, Ball has developed players that have gone on to the NFL. In addition to his time at Washington State, Ball also served on the staffs at Pittsburgh (2007) and Alabama (2003-06).

In his one season at Pittsburgh, Ball's defense ranked fourth nationally in pass defense (167.3 ypg) and seventh in total defense (297.7 ypg). At Alabama, he coached the secondary. In 2004, Ball's secondary led the nation in passing yards allowed (113.1 ypg) and also ranked second nationally in pass efficiency defense (97.8 rating). The next season (2005) was more of the same with Ball on the Crimson Tide defensive staff. The 2005 Alabama defense ranked second nationally in total defense and fifth in both passing yards allowed (160.8 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (97.8 rating). In his final year at Alabama in 2006, free safety Roman Harper earned All-SEC honors and was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to the country's top defensive back.

From 2000-02, Ball made his second stop in Pullman, Wash., on the Washington State staff. While there, he coached the defensive backs, including Marcus Trufant, who spent 10 seasons in the NFL. The Cougars defense piled up 56 interceptions – including 26 during 2001 – over Ball's three-season stint. The 26 interceptions for the Cougars in 2001 ranked second in the nation.

Before joining the Cougars staff, Ball spent one season as Idaho State's defensive coordinator in 1999.

Ball began his coaching career at Northeast Missouri State (1986-87) and Akron (1987-88), before joining Mike Price's staff – his first at Washington State – in 1989. He also coached at Coffeyville Community College (1990-94), Western Oregon State College (1995-96) and Missouri Western State (1997-98).

A St. Louis, Mo., native, Ball played his prep ball at Webster Grove High School and went on to have a standout collegiate career at Missouri Western State College in Saint Joseph, Mo. Ball starred in the Griffons secondary from 1982-85. His 12 career interceptions are the sixth-most in Griffons history, and his five picks in 1984 led the team that season. In 1985, Ball earned All-America honors.

The 1986 Missouri Western State College graduate and his wife, Tandi, have three children: a son, Brennan, and daughters, Abby and Ella Grace. Brennan is a graduate assistant coach for the defense on the Tigers' 2016 staff.

CHIP LONG

NORTH ALABAMA, 2005
FIRST SEASON

Chip Long is in his first season on the Memphis coaching staff in 2016 and serves as the program's offensive coordinator and tight ends coach.

Long, widely considered one of the nation's top recruiters, worked closely with Mike Norvell at Arizona State from 2012-15. During that time, the Sun Devils averaged 37 points a game, finished with consecutive 10-win seasons (2013, 2014) and won the 2013 Pac-12 South crown.

During his career, Long has coached at Arizona State, Illinois, Arkansas and Louisville. Three times in his career, Long played an integral role in developing an offense that finished among the nation's top-10 in scoring offense. Furthermore, a Long-associated offense was ranked among the nation's top-20 in scoring offense in six of his 10 seasons as a collegiate coach. In four seasons at Arizona State, the Sun Devils scored 50 or more points in 14 games.

Long was recognized as one of the country's top-25 recruiters by Rivals and 247Sports in 2015. From 2012-14, Rivals listed Long as one of the top recruiters in the Pac-12. He served as the lead recruiter for wide receiver Jaelen Strong, who earned 2014 ESPN All-America first team accolades and was a 2015 NFL Draft third-round selection by the Houston Texans.

Long also mentored All-SEC first team tight end D.J. Williams (Arkansas), All-Pac 12 first team tight end Chris Coyle (Arizona State) and All-America first team fullback Jay Prosch (Illinois).

At Arizona State, Long served as the tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator from 2012-15. He also coached the Sun Devils running backs in 2015. In his four seasons in Tempe, Ariz., the Sun Devils tallied a 34-19 record and earned two top-25 finishes in the national polls (2013: No. 21 AP/No. 20 coaches; 2014: No. 12 AP/No. 14 coaches). Long also was a part of major victories over Southern Cal (twice), UCLA (twice), Stanford, Notre Dame, Wisconsin, Duke, Utah (three times) and Arizona (three times).

Prior to Arizona State, Long served as tight ends/fullbacks coach at Illinois under Ron Zook for two seasons (2010-11).

From 2008-09, Long coached the tight ends as an offensive graduate assistant under Arkansas head coach Bobby Petrino. Long coached tight end D.J. Williams, who became the first Razorback to win the John Mackey Award. Williams was honored with the 2010 Mackey Award as the nation's most outstanding tight end.

Before Arkansas, Long was a member of Petrino's Louisville staff as an offensive graduate assistant from 2006-07. The 2006 Cardinals squad posted a 12-1 overall record and a 6-1 BIG EAST mark. Louisville won the BIG EAST title and earned a spot in the 2007 Orange Bowl, where it posted a 24-13 victory over No. 15 Wake Forest. The Cardinals were ranked No. 5 (AP)/No. 6 (coaches) in the final national polls.

Long earned his bachelor's degree in history with minors in psychology and business administration from the University of North Alabama. Long, a wide receiver/tight end for the Lions from 2002-05, earned 2005 All-America first team and All-Gulf South Conference (GSC) first team honors. In 2010, Long was named to the GSC All-Decade Team at tight end.

Long and his wife, Kari, welcomed daughter Lyla in June of 2016.

DARRELL DICKEY

KANSAS STATE, 1983
FIFTH SEASON

Darrell Dickey is in his ninth season overall and fifth in his current stint with Memphis in 2016. He served as the program's offensive coordinator from 1986-89 and returned to the Bluff City in the same capacity in 2012.

In the winter of 2014, Dickey was elevated to assistant head coach. Under coach Norvell, he will continue as the program's assistant head coach and will also oversee the Tiger running backs.

Since his return to Memphis in 2012, Dickey has played an instrumental role in the program's turnaround and rise on college football's national landscape. In the two seasons prior to his arrival, the Tigers won only three games, but Dickey helped changed the program's image quickly.

In his third season on staff, Dickey helped guide the Tigers to a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference crown, the program's first league championship since 1971. Memphis posted a 10-3 record, tying the school record for most wins in a season (1938). The Tigers capped the 2014 campaign with a thrilling 55-48 double-overtime victory over BYU in the Miami Beach Bowl.

Memphis followed that season with a 9-4 record in 2015. The Tigers began the season 8-0 and climbed as high as No. 13 in the national polls. Memphis also debuted at No. 13 in 2015's first College Football Playoff (CFP) poll in early November. Memphis ended 2015 with its second-straight postseason appearance, this time accepting an invitation to play in the Birmingham Bowl. Dickey served as the program's interim head coach for the bowl game against Auburn.

Over the last two seasons, Dickey was a member of the Tigers coaching staff that led the program to a 19-7 record, two-straight bowl appearances and a conference championship. The 19 wins are the most over a two-season period in Tigers history and also placed Memphis among the nation's top-20 college football programs for wins and winning percentage. The Tigers' 19 wins are tied for the 16th-most and the .731 winning percentage is tied for the 17th-best in the nation over the last two seasons.

A major reason for Memphis' recent success has been Dickey's prolific offense. The 2015 Tigers offense rewrote the program's record book, setting season marks for scoring (522; 40.2 ppg), total touchdowns (59), passing yards (3,997), plays (1,028) and total yards (6,330). Memphis' offense also ranked among the national and American Athletic Conference leaders in 2015. The Tigers ranked in the top-20 nationally in scoring offense (11th), passing offense (18th), total offense (19th) and red zone offense (18th), and also was among the league's top-four squads in scoring offense (2nd), rushing offense (4th), passing offense (3rd), total offense (3rd) and red zone offense (3rd).

As it did the season before, Dickey's running backs played an integral role in the team's high offensive numbers in 2015. For a second-straight season, the Tigers running backs rushed for over 2,000 yards (2,333; 179.5 ypg). Memphis rushed for 2,476 yards (190.5 ypg) in 2014. It was the first time the Tigers ran for 2,000 or more yards in consecutive seasons since 2004 and 2005. The Memphis rushing attack scored 29 touchdowns, which are tied for the third-most in a season in program history. Dickey's 2014 rushing corps accounted for 31 touchdowns, the second-highest total for a season in school history.

Last season, Dickey's tutelage helped develop Doroland Dorceus' overall game. Dorceus had his best campaign to date with 661 yards and eight touchdowns. His 661 yards gave him 1,071 for his career, making him the 31st 1,000-yard rusher in program history and placing him in the No. 29 spot on the school's all-time rushing list. Dorceus also became a receiving threat with 217 yards and three scores.

Another Dickey student, Sam Craft, continued to flourish heading in 2015. The running back/receiver dual threat rushed for 333 yards and five scores and caught eight passes for 114 yards and two touchdowns. Craft enters 2016 with 766 rushing yards with sights on becoming the program's 32nd 1,000-yard rusher.

The 2014 campaign ended with a share of the American Athletic Conference championship and a Miami Beach Bowl title, and Dickey's running backs had a hand in one of the most-successful seasons in program history. His rushing attack led the league with 2,476 yards (190.5 ypg) and 31 touchdowns. The 2,476 yards were the seventh-most for a season in school history and the most for a campaign since 2008 (2,533). The 31 rushing scores were the second-most for a season in school history.

In 2014, Dickey mentored Brandon Hayes, a 2012 walk-on that finished his career as Memphis' fourth-leading all-time rusher (2,385 yards). Hayes' 949 rushing yards in 2014 were the eighth-most for a season in school history and the most by a Tiger since 2009. Hayes completed his career with six 100-yard rushing performances – all under Dickey – and his 199 yards in a 2014 win over Tulsa were a career high. Three weeks later, Hayes rushed for 189 yards in a win over USF. Hayes' six 100-yard rushing games are tied for the fifth-most in school history.

Dickey also coached Dorceus, who averaged a team-leading 5.2 yards per carry before suffering an injury in the season's fourth game, and oversaw Craft's transition from receiver to running back. Craft started two games at running back, including a career performance in a victory at Cincinnati. Craft had 170 yards on 38 carries and one touchdown against the Bearcats. The 38 carries were the fourth-most for a game in program history.

Dickey's second season (2013) was the program's transition year to the American Athletic Conference from Conference USA. In 2013, the Tigers averaged 313 yards of total offense and 138 rushing yards. Hayes finished 2013 with 860 yards and five touchdowns and became the first multi-year recipient of the team's Issac Bruce Offensive Player of the Year Award since DeAngelo Williams.

In just his first season in the Bluff City in 2012, Dickey helped turn around a Memphis offense that set the stage for the high-powered attack in 2014 and 2015. The 2012 Memphis improved its total offensive output by nearly 100 yards – 243 in 2011 to 327.1 in 2012 – in Conference USA games only for a 26 percent increase. In league play, Dickey's running backs improved the team's rushing offense by 63 percent.

Overall, the Tigers averaged 318 yards of total offense in Dickey's first season for a 44-yard improvement from 2011. Memphis ranked next-to-last nationally in rushing offense in 2011, but nearly doubled its rushing average to 151.75 yards per game in 2012.

Hayes was one of the running backs Dickey mentored in 2012. Despite missing four games, Hayes ran for a team-high 576 yards and six touchdowns.

In Dickey's first season, the Tigers posted a 4-4 mark in Conference USA, winning more league games than the previous three seasons combined. Memphis' 4-8 overall record was the team's best mark since 2008.

Dickey, who has over 25 years of collegiate coaching experience, joined the Memphis program after serving as co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Texas State in 2011. Texas State's rushing attack averaged 195 yards per game and scored 20 of the team's 35 offensive touchdowns. In seven of 12 games, the Bobcats tallied at least 200 yards rushing, and the squad registered at least 40 carries in nine games. The Bobcats finished the season with a 6-6 record and averaged 345 yards of total offense.

Dickey made his move to Texas State after spending two seasons as offensive coordinator and running backs coach at New Mexico. He also served as offensive coordinator at Utah State in 2007-08.

During his tenure at New Mexico, Dickey helped install an offense that featured Freshman All-America tight end Lucas Reed and some of the most talented newcomers in the Mountain West Conference. The newcomers included receiver Ty Kirk and running backs Demond Dennis and Kasey Carrier.

At Utah State, Dickey's 2008 offense produced 1,653 rushing yards, the school's highest total in nine seasons. In addition, Aggies signal-caller Diondre Borel was one of seven quarterbacks nationally to lead their respective teams in rushing and passing.

Dickey went to Utah State after serving nine years as the North Texas head coach from 1998-2006. He guided the Mean Green to four-consecutive Sun Belt Conference (SBC) championships from 2001-04 with a combined league record of 25-1. Dickey's overall record in SBC play was 29-11, including a 26-game conference win streak that stretched from 2001-05. North Texas participated in four-consecutive New Orleans Bowls from 2001-04.

He coached North Texas to nine wins for the first time in 23 years in 2003, after winning eight contests a year earlier. In the 2003 New Orleans Bowl, Dickey's squad suffered a 27-17 loss to Memphis. The Mean Green also had a 7-5 mark in 2004.

Under his direction, North Texas landed 70 players on All-SBC teams, including 39 first team selections. Dickey was named the head coach of the Sun Belt Conference's 30th Anniversary Team in 2004. Dickey also guided the Mean Green to its first bowl win in 57 years when North Texas defeated Cincinnati in the 2002 New Orleans Bowl.

North Texas produced back-to-back NCAA rushing leaders in Patrick Cobbs (2003) and Jamario Thomas (2004). Cobbs led the nation with 152.7 yards per game in 2003, and Thomas repeated the feat with 180.1 yards per contest in 2004. In his final season at North Texas, Dickey suffered a heart attack on Oct. 13, 2006, but missed just one game. In a nine-month span, Dickey had his gall bladder removed, was diagnosed with diabetes and suffered a heart attack.

The offensive-minded Dickey went to North Texas after serving as offensive coordinator at SMU in 1997. That season, the Mustangs posted their first winning record since the program returned to the playing field in 1989 following the NCAA "Death Penalty."

He went to SMU after serving as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at UTEP from 1994-96.

Dickey also was a tight ends coach at LSU from 1991-93, during which time the Tigers upset No. 1-ranked Alabama in Tuscaloosa in 1993. He went to LSU after serving as quarterbacks and running backs coach at Mississippi State in 1990. That season, the Bulldogs beat LSU for the first time in six seasons when running back Tay Galloway ran for 111 yards and two touchdowns.

Dickey was the offensive coordinator at Memphis from 1987-89, after serving one season as Tigers running backs coach in 1986. In his first coaching stint in the Bluff City, the Tigers upset SEC powers Alabama (1987) and Florida (1988). He also served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M in 1985 when the Aggies won the Southwest Conference title and played in the 1986 Cotton Bowl.

Dickey is the son of Jim Dickey, who was head football coach at Kansas State from 1978-85. He played quarterback for his father and led the Wildcats to the 1982 Independence Bowl, the program's first bowl game. He also played in the 1982 Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Dickey graduated from Kansas State in 1983 with a degree in business administration.

He and his wife, Tory, have a daughter, Meredith.

Wide Receivers

David Johnson

Nicholls State, 1995
First Season

David Johnson is his first season at Memphis in 2016 and is working with the Tigers' wide receivers.

Johnson comes to the Bluff City already familiar with the Tigers program, as he spent the previous four seasons (2012-15) at American Athletic Conference rival Tulane in New Orleans, La. While with the Green Wave, Johnson coached the running backs and tight ends.

Under Johnson's tutelage at Tulane, Sherman Badie (running back) and Charles Jones (tight end) earned 2014 Freshman All-America honors. Badie led the Green Wave in rushing yards (688) and rushing attempts (121) and had three of the longest rushing plays from scrimmage in Tulane history. Jones led the Green Wave tight ends with 21 catches for 192 yards and tied for the team lead with three touchdown receptions.

The previous season (2013), Johnson coached Orleans Darkwa to an 863-yard, 12-touchdown campaign. Darkwa's 12 touchdowns are the third-most for a season in Tulane history. The Green Wave posted a 7-5 record and earned a R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl berth. Despite a setback in the postseason appearance, Darkwa was named the bowl's MVP with 83 yards rushing and three scores.

In between his collegiate coaching stints, Johnson served as head coach/offensive coordinator and receivers coach at St. Augustine High School in New Orleans, La., for three seasons. In his tenure from 2009-11, he directed the Purple Knights to a co-district title in 2010 and a district championship in 2011. He was named the 2011 District 10-4A Coach of the Year.

Among the players Johnson coached at St. Augustine was Tyrann Mathieu, who starred at LSU from 2010-11 and was a 2011 Heisman Trophy finalist. In 2011, Mathieu also was named the Chuck Bednarik Award winner (nation's best defensive player), Southeastern Conference (SEC) Defensive Player of the Year, consensus All-American and All-SEC first team. In the 2013 NFL Draft, Mathieu was selected by the Arizona Cardinals, and he earned NFL All-Pro honors in 2015.

Johnson's first college coaching post was from 2005-08 at Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., where he served as the wide receivers/tight ends/special teams (returns) coach and recruiting coordinator. Johnson helped the Majors win the 2006 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) title and tie for the 2008 SCAC crown. In his three seasons, Millsaps compiled a 26-7 overall record and a 19-1 SCAC mark, including two undefeated conference campaigns in 2006 (6-0) and 2008 (7-0). The 2008 Majors team was ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation.

At Millsaps, Johnson coached 15 receivers that earned All-SCAC honors over a four-year period, including Eric McCarty, who finished his career as the program's all-time leader in receptions and touchdowns scored. Another Johnson pupil at Millsaps was Chris Jackson, who won the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Grey Cup as a member of the Calgary Stampede. Johnson also coached Milton Collins, who played for CFL's Calgary Stampede.

Prior to making his first jump to the collegiate ranks, Johnson coached at the high school level in Louisiana. His third stop was a short stint at St. Augustine High School in 2005, but it was one that laid the groundwork for a future position with the school. Before coaching his first game at St. Augustine High School that season, Johnson jumped to Millsaps.

Johnson began his coaching career at his alma mater, John F. Kennedy High School, in 1997. He also coached at O. Perry Walker from 2000-05, serving as offensive coordinator and wide receivers/tight ends coach.

Johnson helped the Charging Bucs to the 2002 Louisiana state title game and three-consecutive district championships from 2002-04. Johnson also coached seven receivers to 1,000-yard seasons, and under his guidance, 18 players went on to play NCAA Division I football, including 11 from the class of 2002. One of his pupils at O. Perry Walker was receiver Craig Davis, who played for the LSU Tigers and the NFL's San Diego Chargers.

Johnson played his collegiate football at Nicholls State from 1991-93. A two-time All-Southland Conference (SLC) honorable mention selection in 1992 (receiver) and 1993 (receiver/punt returner), Johnson led the Colonels in receiving both seasons. In his final two campaigns, Johnson's receiving numbers totaled 50 catches for 990 yards (19.8 ypg) and eight touchdowns.

The New Orleans, La., native graduated from Nicholls State in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in general education. He spent the 1999 season playing receiver for the New Orleans Thunder in the Regional Football League.

He and his wife, Akeia, have three children: Jermaine, De'Von and Karaaz.

Inside Linebackers/Recruiting Coordinator

Dan Lanning

William Jewell College, 2008
First Season

Dan Lanning is in his first season at Memphis in 2016 and works with the squad's inside linebackers and serves as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Lanning spent the 2015 season at Alabama as a graduate assistant coach with the outside linebackers. Prior to Alabama, Lanning held positions at Pittsburgh (2011), Arizona State (2012-13) and Sam Houston State (2014). It is the third time Lanning has worked with Tigers head coach Mike Norvell, as both were on staffs at Pittsburgh and Arizona State.

At Alabama, Lanning was a member of the coaching staff that guided the Crimson Tide to the 2015 College Football Playoff (CFP) national title. Alabama defeated Clemson 45-40 in the CFP championship game in Glendale, Ariz. The Crimson Tide posted a 14-1 record and won the Southeastern Conference crown with a 29-15 victory over Florida in the league championship game.

Lanning worked with a Crimson Tide defense that ranked top-10 nationally in five statistical categories: total defense (3rd), rushing defense (1st), passing efficiency defense (8th), scoring defense (3rd) and third down conversion defense (7th).

Prior to his one season in Tuscaloosa, Lanning spent the 2014 campaign at Sam Houston State, where he helped guide the Bearkats to an 11-5 record, the Southland Conference crown (7-1 SLC record) and a Football Championship Series (FCS) playoffs appearance. Sam Houston State, playing in its fourth-straight FCS playoffs, advanced to the semifinal round before falling to eventual national champion North Dakota State.

At Sam Houston State, Lanning coached the defensive backs and served as the program's co-recruiting coordinator, with a special recruiting emphasis on Houston, south Texas and the Lone Star State's Golden Triangle area. In 2014, Lanning coached a secondary that returned only one starter from the Bearkats 2013 FCS playoffs squad, but quickly molded the inexperienced group into a cohesive unit that played a key role in the team's SLC championship run. Lanning mentored three Bearkats defensive backs that earned All-Southland Conference honors, including Trenier Orr who also was named an All-American.

Lanning spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons on head coach Todd Graham's staff at Arizona State – the second time Lanning and Norvell were together in their careers. Lanning started his Sun Devils career as a graduate assistant in 2012, before moving to the on-campus recruiting coordinator/defensive assistant in 2013.

In 2012, Lanning's graduate assistant post had him working with the Sun Devils' outside linebackers and nickelbacks. He helped develop an Arizona State defense that ranked top-five nationally in four statistical categories: TFL (1st), sacks (2nd), pass defense (3rd) and passes intercepted (4th). The Sun Devils posted an 8-5 record and defeated Navy 62-38 in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl at AT&T Park in San Francisco, Calif.

The following season (2013), Lanning moved to his on-campus recruiting coordinator/defensive assistant position and helped lead Arizona State to a 10-4 record, the Pac-12 South crown and a National University Holiday Bowl appearance. The Sun Devils were ranked in the national polls nine weeks in 2013, including the final seven weeks. Arizona State climbed as high as No. 11 in the Associated Press (AP) poll, the program's highest ranking since the 1996 campaign.

Lanning, who served as the lead recruiter in Kansas and the Mississippi junior colleges, helped Arizona State land a top-20 recruiting class. On the field, he helped develop a defense that ranked top-10 nationally in turnovers gained (5th), passes intercepted (3rd) and penalties against (6th) in 2013.

Before his time with Graham and Norvell in Tempe, Ariz., Lanning spent one season with both at Pittsburgh in 2011. Lanning began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate defensive assistant on the Panthers staff. In his role, Lanning served as the assistant defensive backs coach and as a lead recruiter for several states in the Northeast.

In 2011, the Pittsburgh defense ranked nationally in sacks (3rd), TFL (12th) and rushing defense (21st). The Panthers went 6-6 overall and 4-3 in the BIG EAST Conference and earned a BBVA Compass Bowl berth. Following the 2011 regular season, Lanning moved into the role as defensive backs coach prior to and during the team's bowl appearance in Birmingham, Ala. Lanning's promotion came as a result of Graham leaving to take over the Arizona State program prior to the Panthers' bowl game. In the spring of 2012, Lanning moved again to defensive quality control, assisting with the linebackers and working with the defensive coordinator in all aspects of the defense's preparation.

Lanning began molding his defensive philosophy with his coaching start at Park Hill South High School in Riverside, Mo., from 2008-10. In his three seasons there, he served as an assistant football coach with a special emphasis on special teams, defensive backs and wide receivers.

A Richmond, Mo., native, Lanning played linebacker at William Jewell College, located in Liberty, Mo. He earned two Bachelor of Science degrees in physical education and secondary education in 2008. Two years later, Lanning completed coursework for his master's degree in secondary administration from William Woods University in Fulton, Mo.

Lanning and his wife, Sauphia, have three sons: Caden, Kniles and Titan.

Special Teams Coordinator/ Outside Linebackers

Joe Lorig

Western Oregon, 1995
First Season

Joe Lorig's first season at Memphis in 2016 is the veteran coach's 20th year at the collegiate level. Lorig, whose career includes eight seasons as a defensive coordinator and two years as a special teams coordinator, joins the Tigers as the program's special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

Lorig comes to the Bluff City from Logan, Utah, where he served on the Aggies' staff for two seasons. In 2015, Lorig coached the safeties after directing the team's linebackers the previous campaign (2014). Lorig worked with the Aggies' 2015 senior class that won 36 games during its playing career, the second-most wins by a four-year class in the program's history.

In his first season at Utah State (2014), Lorig helped the Aggies to the second-most wins in school history with a 10-4 overall record, including a 21-6 victory over UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. The postseason win was the program's third straight. The following campaign in 2015, Utah State tied for second place in the Mountain West Conference (MW) Mountain Division with a 5-3 league record and earned a postseason bid to play in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

The 2015 season saw Utah State rank 19th nationally in total defense (332.5 ypg) and 13th nationally in passing yards allowed (180.5 ypg). The Aggies' 12 fumbles recoveries ranked 11th nationally, and, all told, Utah State forced 22 turnovers.

Academically, Utah State earned recognition from the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) as one of 65 institutions to receive the Academic Achievement Award for graduating 75 percent or more of its student-athletes. Lorig was a part of the Utah State program that saw its Graduation Success Rate (GSR) rank second (86 percent) in the Mountain West Conference, only behind Air Force.

During the 2014 season, Lorig coached a pair of Aggies linebackers – Zach and Nick Vigil – to All-Mountain West first team honors. Zach was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and a USA Today Sports All-America second-team pick, as well as earning All-America honors from three other organizations. Zach wrapped up his senior season with 156 tackles, including 9.0 sacks and 20.5 TFL. He ranked seventh nationally in tackles per game (11.1) and 13th in TFL per game (1.46).

Utah State's defense finished 2014 among the nation's top-30 in 10 statistical categories, including 12th in scoring defense (19.7 ppg; also first in MW). The Aggies also ranked nationally in sacks per game (4th; 3.57), TFL per game (4th; 8.1), interceptions (8th; 19), defensive touchdowns (9th; 5), turnovers forced (11th; 30), passing efficiency defense (17th; 111.42), rushing defense (24th; 130.7 ypg), opponents' third-down conversion percentage (25th; .358) and total defense (30th; 356.1 ypg). Among the Mountain West Conference leaders, the Utah State defense was first or second in all the previously-listed statistical categories.

Lorig moved to Utah State after two seasons at Arizona State (2012-13), where he served as the special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach.

In 2013, Lorig coached two cornerbacks who earned multiple Pac-12 accolades. Robert Nelson, an All-Pac-12 first team performer, ranked 19th nationally in interceptions per game (0.4), and Osahon Irabor was an All-Pac-12 second team selection. The Sun Devils defense ranked third nationally with 21 interceptions.

Lorig also coached place-kicker Zane Gonzalez to 2013 Freshman All-America Team honors. Gonzalez ranked first in the Pac-12 and fifth nationally in field goals per game (1.8) and 29th nationally in field goal percentage (.833). Gonzalez's 25 made field goals tied an NCAA freshman record.

In 2012, Lorig coached a pair of Pac-12 honorable mention cornerbacks in Irabor and Deveron Carr. The duo combined for 21 passes defended and helped Arizona State rank third nationally in passing yards allowed (167.9 ypg).

Under Lorig, punter Josh Hubner averaged a school-record 47.1 yards per punt in the 2012 campaign. Hubner's punting average led the Pac-12 and was second nationally. Hubner earned numerous All-America team honors, including Lindy's (third team) and Sports Illustrated (honorable mention).

Prior to joining the Sun Devils staff, Lorig was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Central Washington for four seasons (2008-11).

During his time at Central Washington, the Wildcats posted a 34-12 overall record, won three Great Northwest Athletic Conference championships and earned two NCAA Division II Playoffs appearances. Lorig, whose defense routinely was among the top-10 nationally in total defense, was named the 2010 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II Assistant Coach of the Year.

In 2009, Lorig's defense was first in NCAA Division II in scoring defense (11.9 ppg), third in rushing defense (58.6 ypg) and fourth in total defense (249.3 ypg). His efforts helped the Wildcats compile a 12-1 record, earn a No. 1 national ranking and advance to the NCAA Division II Playoffs quarterfinal round. Lorig was a finalist for FootballScoop.com's 2009 Division II Coordinator of the Year.

Lorig served as the linebackers coach at UTEP in 2007. Prior to UTEP, Lorig spent eight seasons as an assistant at Idaho State, serving as defensive coordinator from 2003-06.

Lorig's coaching career began as an assistant at Western Oregon, where he helped guide his alma mater to the 1997 Columbia Football Association crown and an NAIA postseason berth.

During his coaching career, Lorig has mentored several professional players, including Jared Allen, an NFL All-Pro defensive end; Pago Togafau, who has been a member of four NFL teams; Jeff Charleston, who has been a member of three NFL teams; Adam Bighill, a Division II All-American who was a rookie for 2011 Grey Cup champion British Columbia; Deveron Carr, who played for Tampa Bay in 2013; and Robert Nelson, who plays for Cleveland.

A two-time All-Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges honoree, Lorig began his collegiate playing career at cornerback for Walla Walla Community College. Following those two seasons, Lorig moved on to Western Oregon, where he played two years and was a team captain.

Lorig earned both his bachelor's degree in law enforcement (1995) and his master's degree in correctional administration (1997) from Western Oregon. A native of Edmonds, Wash., his family includes his wife, Becky, and children: son, Tyler, and daughters, Jordan and Emma.

Defensive Line

Paul Randolph

UT Martin, 1990
First Season

Paul Randolph is in his first season on Mike Norvell's Memphis staff as the defensive line coach. The two coaches are familiar with each other, having served together on staffs at Arizona State, Pittsburgh and Tulsa.

Randolph spent his first three seasons (2012-14) at Arizona State as the program's associate head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. In those three campaigns, the Sun Devils posted a 28-12 overall record and a 19-8 Pac-12 Conference mark. The 2013 and 2014 teams had 10-win seasons, and the 2013 squad won the Pac-12 South crown. The Sun Devils earned bowl trips all three seasons and recorded victories in two of their postseason appearances.

In the three seasons, Randolph saw five of his defensive linemen earn All-Pac-12 honors a total of six times. Among those five honorees was defensive tackle Will Sutton, who was a 2012 consensus All-America selection and the 2012 and 2013 Pac-12 Conference Morris Trophy recipient as the league's Defensive Player of the Year. Sutton was the Sun Devils' first consensus All-America since 2007 and became only the third defensive lineman in Pac-12 Conference history to win consecutive Morris Trophies since league began awarding the honor in 1980. Four of his five All-Pac-12 performers were either drafted or signed free agent contracts with NFL squads.

Each of Randolph's three seasons coaching the Arizona State defensive line saw one of his pupils lead the squad in sacks and TFL. Sutton led the Sun Devils in both sacks and TFL in 2012, and Marcus Hardison topped the defense in both statistical categories in 2014. Carl Bradford was the team leader in TFL in 2013 and shared the most-sacks honor that season with fellow lineman Davon Coleman.

In 2013, the Randolph-led Sun Devils defense was among the nation's best and helped lead Arizona State to a 10-4 record, the Pac-12 South crown and a National University Holiday Bowl appearance. The Sun Devils were ranked in the national polls nine weeks in 2013, including the final seven weeks. Arizona State climbed as high as No. 11 in the Associated Press (AP) poll, the program's highest ranking since the 1996 campaign.

The 2013 defense continued the program's streak of forcing at least one turnover per game to 29-straight contests, in addition to scoring 37 points off the opponents' miscues that season. The Arizona State defense ranked top-10 nationally in three-and-outs (5th; 5.71/game), turnovers gained (5th), passes intercepted (3rd) and penalties against (6th).

In Randolph's first season in Tempe, Ariz., he had the 2012 Sun Devils defense not only stopping foes but scoring points itself. The Arizona State defense scored 33.1 percent of the team's points (165-of-499), and also ranked top-10 nationally in TFL (1st; 9.0 avg.), sacks (2nd; 4.0 avg.), pass defense (3rd) and passes intercepted (4th). The Sun Devils posted an 8-5 record and defeated Navy 62-38 in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl at AT&T Park in San Francisco, Calif.

Randolph spent the 2015 campaign in an off-field role as Arizona State's associate athletic director for championship life.

Prior to Arizona State, Randolph spent the 2011 campaign at Pittsburgh, where he helped mold the Panthers defense into one of the country's best. The 2011 Pittsburgh defense ranked nationally in sacks (3rd; 3.31 avg.), TFL (12th) and rushing defense (21st). The Panthers went 6-6 overall and 4-3 in the BIG EAST Conference and earned a BBVA Compass Bowl berth.

Randolph's coaching path first crossed with Memphis when he worked with then-Conference USA foes Rice (2006) and Tulsa (2007-10). In his lone season at Rice, Randolph served as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. After a slow start to the 2006 season, the Owls turned it on with a six-game win streak to close the regular season and finished with a 7-5 overall record and a 6-2 C-USA mark. The six-game win streak was the program's longest since 1949. With their 7-5 record, the Owls earned the school's first bowl berth since 1961, accepting an invitation to play in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

The following season (2007), Randolph moved with head coach Todd Graham to Tulsa, and success quickly followed there as well. During his four seasons at Tulsa from 2007-10, Randolph was a member of the coaching staff – which also included Norvell – that directed the Golden Hurricane program to unprecedented heights.

In the four-year run, Tulsa compiled a 36-17 record and a 22-10 C-USA mark, three double-digit win campaigns, three C-USA West Division titles, two C-USA championship game appearances and three postseason bowl wins. Tulsa won its three bowl games by an average margin of 38.3 points per game, as Randolph's defense held the Golden Hurricane's three bowl opponents to 18.3 points. Under Randolph's guidance, the 2010 Tulsa defense finished the campaign among the nation's statistical leaders in interceptions (1st; 24) and turnovers forced (3rd; 36).

Before his time in Conference USA, Randolph was the defensive ends coach at Alabama from 2003-05. In 2005, the Crimson Tide defense ranked top-10 nationally in scoring defense (1st; 10.7 ppg), total defense (2nd; 255.1 ypg), pass defense (5th; 160.8 ypg) and rushing defense (9th; 94.3 ypg). On the recruiting trail for Alabama, Randolph was named as one of college football's top-25 recruiters by Rivals.

Randolph began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, UT Martin, in 1998, serving as the Skyhawks' linebackers coach. He also held coaching posts at Valdosta State (1999/defensive line), Illinois State (2000/defensive line), Toledo (2001/defensive line-special teams) and West Virginia (2002/ defensive line-special teams).

Randolph played his collegiate career at UT Martin, located just over two hours northeast of Memphis. A four-year letterwinner for the Skyhawks, Randolph served as team captain in 1986 and 1987 and also earned All-Gulf South Conference (GSC) both seasons (1986, 2nd team; 1987, 1st team).

Following his time at UT Martin, Randolph embarked on a 10-year professional playing career in the Canadian Football League (CFL). He spent eight seasons with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1988-95), before wrapping up his CFL career with two seasons as team captain and player-coach with the Montreal Alouettes (1996-97). Randolph, a member of the 1988 and 1990 Winnipeg teams that won CFL's Grey Cup crowns, was a 2002 inductee into the organization's Hall of Fame.

A 1990 UT Martin graduate with a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering technology, the Gainesville, Ga., native was inducted into his alma mater's Athletics Hall of Fame in 1999. Randolph and his wife, Mia, have two children: Patrick and Mya.

OFFENSIVE LINE

RYAN SILVERFIELD

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY COLLEGE, 1998
FIRST SEASON

Ryan Silverfield, a longtime coaching veteran at the high school, college and NFL levels, is in his first season at Memphis in 2016 and serves as the Tigers offensive line coach.

Silverfield has over 18 years of experience of coaching, and he is the only coach to have worked with an NCAA single-season rushing leader and an NFL single-season rushing leader in a career. At the NCAA level, Silverfield helped tutor Kevin Smith at UCF, and the junior running back led college football with 2,567 yards in 2007. Five seasons later in 2012, Silverfield was a member of the Minnesota Vikings coaching staff, and his offensive line helped pave the way for Adrian Peterson's 2,097 yards, the second-best, single-season rushing performance in NFL history.

Silverfield joins the Memphis program after spending the last half of the 2015 football campaign with the NFL's Detroit Lions. In a mid-season staff shake-up, the Lions brought in Silverfield as an assistant offensive line coach, and the hire paid immediate dividends. His tenure with the Lions was Silverfield's second stint in the NFL.

Prior to Silverfield's arrival, the Lions had a 2-7 record, and, in the three games just before he came on board, Detroit's offensive line allowed 15 sacks for 105 yards. In the season's final stretch, Silverfield helped mold an offensive line that propelled the Lions to a 5-2 record. The Lions' offensive line allowed just over three sacks per game in the last seven contests, and quarterback Matthew Stafford thrived behind Silverfield's new-look offensive line. In the seven games with Silverfield on staff, Stafford threw 17 touchdowns and only one interception. Prior to that, Stafford had 15 touchdowns and 12 interceptions.

Before making the mid-season jump to the NFL, Silverfield was a senior offensive analyst on head coach Todd Graham's Arizona State staff. In his short time in Tempe, Ariz., the Sun Devils posted a 5-5 record on their way to a final 6-6 regular-season mark and a Motel 6 Cactus Bowl berth.

Silverfield served as the offensive line coach and offensive consultant at Toledo in 2014 and helped the Rockets to a 9-4 overall record and a 7-1 Mid-American Conference (MAC) mark. Toledo tied for the MAC West crown and earned a GoDaddy.com Bowl berth. The Rockets' nine wins were the most since 2001, and Toledo's 63-44 bowl victory over Arkansas State was its first postseason win since 2011.

Silverfield's offensive line helped put one of the most prolific offensive seasons in Toledo football record book. The 2014 Rockets offense set school records for total offense, total rushing yardage and first downs per game and also ranked among the program's top-five in points per game (2nd), touchdowns scored (3rd) and rushing touchdowns (3rd).

Leading the charge on Silverfield's offensive line was Greg Mancz, the 2014 Vern Smith Award/MAC Player of the Year award recipient. Mancz, also an All-America second team selection, became the first offensive lineman in MAC history to be honored as the league's Player of the Year. Fellow linemen Josh Hendershot and Jeff Myers joined Mancz earning All-MAC recognition.

Silverfield's offensive line proved fruitful for the 2014 Rockets' attack. Toledo led the MAC in scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense and first downs. Rockets running back Kareem Hunt led the MAC in rushing (1,631 yards) and was tops in the nation in yards per carry (8.0). Hunt was an All-MAC first team pick and also earned GoDaddy.com Bowl MVP honors (271 yards/5 touchdowns).

Before jumping back to the collegiate ranks, Silverfield spent six seasons on the Minnesota Vikings staff. In his time in Minnesota, Silverfield helped the Vikings to two NFC North Division crowns and three NFL playoffs appearances, including a trip to the 2009 NFC championship game. Silverfield began his Vikings' stint as an offensive quality control staffer, before moving to a defensive line staff assistant in 2009 and 2010. He moved to the offensive side from 2011-13, assisting Jeff Davidson with the offensive line.

It was in the midst of his three years working with the Minnesota offensive line that Peterson had one of the most-prolific, single-season rushing performances in NFL history. In 2012, Peterson ran for a league-best 2,097 yards, falling just eight yards shy of Eric Dickerson's NFL record of 2,105. Peterson was named the 2012 NFL MVP.

Prior to his time in the NFL, Silverfield spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons at UCF. In his two campaigns in Orlando, Fla., he served as an offensive graduate assistant his first season and moved to a defensive graduate assistant spot in 2007. Silverfield was a member of the 2007 Knights staff that led the squad to a 10-4 record, a 7-1 Conference USA mark and the C-USA East Division crown. UCF defeated Tulsa – with Norvell on staff – in the C-USA championship game and earned the league's AutoZone Liberty Bowl berth.

As an offensive graduate assistant, Silverfield worked with Smith in 2006. That season – Smith's sophomore campaign – he rushed for 934 yards in only nine games, setting up his explosive junior – and NCAA rushing champion – season in 2007. In his season working with the Knights defense, UCF ranked among the top-four in C-USA in scoring defense, rushing defense, passing defense and turnovers forced. The Knights held half of their opponents to 20 or fewer points in the 2007 campaign.

The season prior to his time at UCF (2005), Silverfield served as the quarterbacks coach at Jacksonville University. The Dolphins finished the 2005 campaign with a 4-4 overall record and a 2-1 Pioneer Football League (PFL) mark.

Silverfield's last stint at the high school level came after his graduation from Hampden-Sydney College. He was the head coach at Memorial Day High School in Savannah, Ga. At 23-years-old, Silverfield was the youngest head coach in the state of Georgia and one of the youngest in the nation.

A 2003 Hampden-Sydney College (Va.) graduate, Silverfield coached four seasons at his alma mater, starting as an offensive assistant in 2000. Then, at age 20, he was tapped as the Tigers defensive line coach and spent two seasons at that post (2001-02). In 2003, Silverfield moved back to offense and coached the tight ends and H-backs. That season, the Tigers went 9-1 and had the nation's No. 1 scoring offense in the country (47.0 ppg). Hampden-Sydney scored 45 or more points in seven of its 10 games in 2003.

Silverfield's first season as a prep coach came in 1999 at his alma mater, The Bolles School in Jacksonville, Fla. He played for the Bulldogs and was a member of two Florida state championship teams (1995, 1998). During his playing career, Silverfield helped Bolles to a No. 1 ranking in the USA Today Super 25 national high school football poll. Immediately after his playing career, Silverfield jumped to the coaching ranks as a Bolles School assistant in 1999.

Defensive Backs

Marcus Woodson

Ole Miss, 2003
First Season

Marcus Woodson is in his first season at Memphis in 2016, bringing more than a decade of coaching experience to his position as the Tigers defensive backs coach. In his previous collegiate coaching stints at Fresno State, Charleston Southern and Millsaps College, Woodson developed 10 all-conference players.

Prior to joining the Memphis staff, Woodson spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Fresno State. In 2014, he mentored All-Mountain West Conference first-team defensive back Derron Smith, who was an NFL Draft sixth-round pick by the Cincinnati Bengals. Woodson also instrumental in helping lead Fresno State to a 2014 Hawaii Bowl appearance.

From 2009-13, Woodson served as the defensive backs coach at Charleston Southern University. He added the defensive passing game coordinator title before the 2012 season. In 2013, Charleston Southern finished the campaign with a 10-3 record and a No. 22 national ranking under first-year head coach Jamey Chadwell. The Buccaneers finished the season with the nation's No. 3 pass defense. In his five seasons at Charleston Southern, Woodson developed five All-Big South Conference players.

Defensive Backs

Before his time in Charleston, S.C., Woodson served an integral role in leading Millsaps College to three-consecutive Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) championships from 2006-08. In 2008, Millsaps finished with an 11-1 record and a No. 12 national ranking. In his three seasons at the Jackson, Miss., school, Woodson coached four All-SCAC performers.

Before jumping to the coaching ranks, Woodson was a two-year starter at defensive back during the David Cutcliffe era at Ole Miss. He was a member of Rebels teams that earned four postseason trips to the Independence Bowl (1999), Music City Bowl (2000), Independence Bowl (2002) and Cotton Bowl (2003).

A 2003 University of Mississippi graduate, Woodson earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in political science. He also was selected for the Senior Leadership Unity Council.

Prior to his collegiate career, Woodson starred at Moss Point High School, where he earned Mississippi Class 5A All-State honors in 1996 and 1997. Woodson helped lead Moss Point to the Mississippi Class 5A state titles both seasons.

He and his wife, Chastity, have a son, Carter.

Strength & Conditioning Coach

Josh Storms

South Dakota, 2001
First Season

Josh Storms was named the strength coach for Memphis Football in January of 2016, after spending eleven years as a member of the Sports Performance staff at Arizona State University.

At Arizona State, Storms' focus was on football in his position of Sports Performance Assistant Head Coach. He developed and enhanced the performance of student-athletes who advanced to a school-record five straight bowl games in his final five seasons in Tempe.

Over his last four years at ASU, Storms worked with Mike Norvell in advancing student-athletes' performance for the Sun Devils' high-octane offense.

Ahead of Arizona State's game against West Virginia in the 2015 Motel 6 Cactus Bowl, the Sun Devils ranked second in the Pac-12 and 11th in the nation in scoring at 37.37 points per game over the past four years. ASU ranked second in the Pac-12 and 12th in the nation with 1,943 total points during that stretch of time.

Defensively, Arizona State finished with 27 takeaways in 2014 (2.1 per game) after having a streak of 29 consecutive games forcing a turnover come to an end in the season opener. ASU led the Pac-12 with 33 takeaways in 2013, finishing fifth nationally.

The Sun Devils forced 109 turnovers in the past fourth season. ASU had 13 interception returns for touchdowns over the last four years, leading the nation in most interception returns for touchdowns during that span. ASU also leads NCAA FBS football with 16 defensive touchdowns over the last four years.

Storms joined the Arizona State staff in January 2005 after working two-plus years as an assistant strength coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. In addition to assisting with the football team, he worked with UNLV's track and field, men's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams.

Prior to his tenure at UNLV, Storms was a seasonal assistant strength coach with the Minnesota Vikings in 2001.

Storms graduated from the University of South Dakota (2001) where he played tight end, and completed his Master's degree at ASU in 2006. Storms is certified through both the CSCCa and the NSCA.

Storms and his wife Darcie joined the Tiger family in January of 2016.

Director of Football Operations

Jeff Kupper

Texas, 2002
Seventh Season

Jeff Kupper is in his seventh season as the director of football operations. He joined the Tigers after spending five seasons in a similar capacity at Columbia University.

In his role with the Tigers, Kupper is the "go-to" guy for many administrative duties, including team travel, camps and community service events. He is also instrumental in daily communications with student-athletes regarding practice schedules and team meetings.

In 2014, he was a member of a Memphis program which went 10-3, equaling a school record for victories set in 1938. Memphis captured the American Athletic Conference title, the team's first league championship since 1971 and won the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl with a 55-48 double-overtime victory.

As the director of football operations and special projects at Columbia, Kupper was involved closely with football marketing, development, compliance, equipment and facility operations. He oversaw quality control for game day events and arranged all staff and team travel, both in and out of season.

Kupper joined Columbia in August 2005 after two seasons at Ohio University, where he served as a facilities and equipment graduate assistant from 2003-05 and a football operations graduate assistant in 2005.

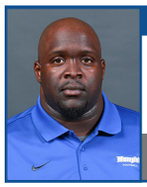

As an undergraduate at the University of Texas, Kupper earned three letters as a student football equipment manager. The Odessa, Texas, native oversaw the packing, handling and transportation of equipment and team bags for road games; organized team activities for the travel squad; acted as liaison between the travel team and hotel staffs; maintained and organized football equipment; and worked on reconciliation of equipment orders for six men's sports.

He was involved in logistical support for five bowl games in which Texas participated, including three Cotton Bowls and two Holiday Bowls.

Kupper was a three-time recipient of the Darrel K. Royal Scholarship Award and the Glen Swenson Award, both presented to an outstanding equipment manager. He spent four-consecutive semesters on the Athletics Director's Honor Roll.

Kupper graduated from Texas in 2002 with a B.A. in religious studies. He earned two master's degrees from Ohio: a master's of business administration and a master's of sports administration and facility management.

Kupper and his wife Lindsay have a daughter, Ruby-Wayne.

DIRECTOR OF HS RELATIONS

MARCUS BELL

MEMPHIS, 2010
EIGHTH SEASON

Marcus Bell, who is in his eighth year working with the University of Memphis football program, is in his second season as Tiger Football's Director of High School Relations.

Bell was part of the Memphis program's 2014 run which included the first conference title since 1971 and a victory in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl. The Tigers equaled a season record for victories set in 1938 as the team went 10-3, winning their last seven games of the season.

A former Tiger, Bell played in 42 career games and made 20 starts on defense. Bell lettered from 1997-2000 and was the Tigers' fifth-leading tackler as a senior, logging 60 stops and four sacks. For his efforts in 2000, he was named to the All-Conference USA first team.

In his career, Bell totaled 209 tackles, including 135 solo stops and 10 sacks. He was named C-USA Defensive Player of the Week twice during his career.

Bell was one of three Tigers defenders selected in the 2001 NFL Draft. He was a fourth-round pick of the Arizona Cardinals. Bell played seven seasons in the league — three years each with Arizona and Detroit before playing his final season with the New York Giants — and logged 165 tackles, three forced fumbles and six pass breakups in 86 games played.

Bell returned to Memphis following his NFL career and earned his bachelor's degree in 2010.

A native of Memphis, Bell played both offensive and defensive tackle at Kingsbury High. In the summer, Bell teams with former Tigers Reggie Howard, Mike McKenzie and DeAngelo Williams for the Phenomenal 4 Super Sports Charity weekend that includes a football camp for over 350 kids from the Memphis community free of charge.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER RELATIONS

BRAXTON BRADY

UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS

Braxton Brady begins his fifth season with the Tigers football program. As the Tigers' Director of Player Relations, Braxton is in charge of coordinating the championship life skills program and student-athlete relationship development within the University of Memphis Football Program.

A native Memphian, Brady graduated from the University of Memphis and received his Masters of Arts in Theology from Covenant Theological Seminary. Brady has also served for 13 years as Chaplain and Director of the Building Boys, Making Men Program at Presbyterian Day School (PDS), an independent school serving over 630 boys in grades PK-6.

He and his wife Carrie have been married for 19 years and have three children: Preston, Bennett and Emma Sanders.

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL VIDEO

MATT HARON

NEBRASKA, 2012
FIRST SEASON

Matt Haron enters his first year as the director of football video at the University of Memphis after spending one season in the same position at South Alabama.

At South Alabama, Haron was responsible for coordinating the filming and breakdown of practices and games for coaches' analysis, directing the production of motivational, promotional, and recruiting highlights, and overseeing the exchange of video with opponents.

He joined South Alabama after serving as assistant video coordinator for football at Florida. With the Gators, Haron was in charge of editing coaches video for practices and games, importing National Football League and opponent film and transferring video onto laptops and mobile devices for the UF coaching staff. He was also responsible for uploading video through the Southeastern Conference, assisted with video at team meetings, created motivational and highlight videos, and managed video needs for UF Coaches and Women's Clinics.

Haron also assisted in scheduling student assignments and assisted the Gator recruiting staff with both prospect evaluation film and highlight videos for on-campus visits.

As an intern with the National Football League's Minnesota Vikings during the 2013 campaign, Haron shot video of both games and practice, imported video of opponents and free-agent tryouts, made cut ups of draft prospects and assisted in setting up team meeting rooms at hotels for both home and road contests. He also assisted in setting up the team's video network at their training camp site in Mankato, Minn., and after the season gained experience assisting with offseason workout videos with the Jacksonville Jaguar staff.

Haron earned his bachelor's degree in broadcasting and advertising/public relations from Nebraska in 2012 after serving as a student video assistant for three years with the Cornhusker football program. In that role, he not only shot game and practice video but assisted with the team's Pro Day and helped train younger student assistants. During his time with the program, the Cornhuskers posted a 29-12 (70.7%) mark and won the 2009 Holiday Bowl while playing in a postseason bowl each season.

Haron is a member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association. He is married to the former Katherine Wiatr.

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

MARC HOHORST

LOUISIANA AT LAFAYETTE, 1997
16TH SEASON

Marc Hohorst joined the athletic department in the summer of 2001 as the Tigers' equipment manager.

Hohorst is responsible for purchasing, issuing, and maintaining all athletic equipment, as well as supervising several student managers and interns. He also oversees the day-to-day operations of the equipment room at the Murphy Athletic Complex, which services football, baseball, soccer, track, softball and golf.

Working with football, Hohorst has been a part of six of the school's eight bowl games and the unique responsibility of coordinating the equipment needs in each of those games. Last year, Hohorst coordinated the Tigers' equipment move to south Florida for the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Hohorst is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and received national certification in 1997.

He was honored by his peers in the profession in 2010 when he was named the Jeff Boss District 4 Equipment Manager of the Year. He also served a term as the District 4 Treasurer from 2007-2012.

In November 2008, the University of Memphis entered into a lucrative five-year contract with Nike. Hohorst has taken on additional responsibilities of handling the increased inventory.

During the fall of 2002, the Athletic Department suffered a major loss when a fire on Halloween morning destroyed the turf room and most of the Tigers' football equipment. Hohorst received high marks and praise for gathering game day equipment from other universities in the area and preparing the football team for its next contest.

A native of Lafayette, La., Hohorst joined the U of M staff from Arkansas State, where he was the supervisor of equipment for three years.

Prior to his duties at ASU, Hohorst worked for one year at his collegiate alma mater, the University of Louisiana-Lafayette, in a game management capacity. He worked various ULL events, serving as the visiting team host and organizing ticket sales and records.

Hohorst graduated from the University of Southwestern Louisiana (now the University of Louisiana at Lafayette) in 1997 with a degree in physical education. He received his Louisiana teaching certification that same year and served as a substitute teacher in 1997 and 1998 at Youngsville Middle School.

While at Louisiana, Hohorst also assisted in the equipment room as a student and worked both the NCAA softball regional tournament and Sun Belt Conference baseball tournament as a tournament official. He spent one year with the Lafayette Swamp Cats as the head equipment manager.

Hohorst and his wife Brenda reside in Bartlett.

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING OPERATIONS

SHERMAN MORRIS

BARRY UNIVERSITY, 2003
FIRST SEASON

Sherman Morris joined the Tiger staff in 2016 as the Director of Recruiting Operations. He and Coach Norvell both served on the staff at Arizona State in 2013, where Morris was the Assistant Athletic Director for Recruiting, Scouting and Player Personnel.

Morris began his coaching career in 2000 as the offensive line coach at Deerfield Beach High School after a college athletic career as a track and field athlete at LSU. At LSU, he won the 1991 SEC Championship in the 55-meter hurdles. He was then a two-time All-American at Long Beach City College.

Morris moved to Glades Central High School, where he served as an offensive line coach, running game coordinator, assistant athletic director and assistant head coach.

He shifted to college coaching in 2007, joining the staff at LSU as the Director of Player Personnel. He stayed there until joining the staff at Arizona State in 2013.

He most recently served as an offensive line coach, running game coordinator and assistant head coach at Saint Paul II Academy.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

GEORGE PUGH

ALABAMA, 1976
FIRST SEASON

George Pugh is in his first season with Memphis and serves as the Director of Player Personnel.

Pugh was a four-year starter and letterwinner at tight end for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama, helping the Tide to a 44-1 record over four years, including a national championship in 1973.

He began his college coaching career at UT Chattanooga from 1979-80, then went to Pitt in 1981, where he helped the team to a Big East title and an appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

From Pitt, he joined Jackie Sherrill's staff at Texas A&M University from 1982-88, helping the Aggies to three Southwest Conference titles and three Cotton Bowl appearances.

In 1989, Pugh was named the head coach at Alabama A&M, where he guided the Bulldogs to a 19-10 overall record and three Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships. In 1991, his final year at Alabama A&M, the team appeared in the Division II playoffs.

Pugh left college football in 1992, serving as the head football coach and athletic director at Selma (Ala.) High School, before moving to Luverne (Ala.) High School in 1994, serving as the offensive coordinator.

He moved back to college football in 1995, joining the staff at UAB, serving in a variety of roles, including coaching running backs, tight ends, defensive ends and wide receivers and also serving as assistant head coach for player development. He was at UAB until 2000, then joined the staff at Arkansas from 2001-02 under coach Houston Nutt, then spent 2002-03 as the head coach at Meadowcreek High School in Atlanta.

He returned to UAB for a second stint under coach Watson Brown in 2005-06. In 2007, he moved to the University of Houston, before Bill Curry hired him to his staff as the associate head coach for recruiting and special projects and the wide receivers coach at Georgia State in 2008, where he coached until 2013.

In 2013, he returned to Meadowcreek High School, initially in an advisory role, then as the program's head coach and assistant athletic director.

He joined Norvell's staff in the spring of 2016.

ASST. AD - SPORTS MEDICINE

DARRELL TURNER

FLORIDA, 2002
FOURTH SEASON

Darrell Turner was hired in spring 2012 to serve as the Head Athletic Trainer at the University of Memphis. He is responsible for the athletic training needs of all 19 sports on campus. He works directly with the Tiger football program.

In 2014, Turner worked with a football team which won an American Athletic Conference title and culminated its season with a double-overtime victory against BYU at the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Turner joined the Tigers after serving as the Head Athletic Trainer in the United Football League (UFL) for three seasons. He worked with the Virginia Destroyers from 20011-12 under head coach and general manager Marty Schottenheimer. His previous appointment in the UFL was with the California Redwoods, which became the Sacramento Mountain Lions, for the 2009-10 seasons under head coach and general manager Dennis Green.

A native of Clermont, Fla., Turner worked as the Director of Sports Medicine for Winston-Salem State for four years, before taking his first position with the UFL.

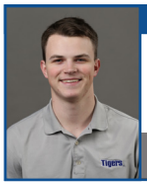

Turner is a 2002 graduate of the University of Florida where he received a B.S. in Exercise and Sport Science, specializing in athletic training as well as serving as a student athletic trainer for the Gators nationally-ranked football program.

Following his graduation from UF in 2002, he completed a summer internship with the Atlanta Falcons. He later accepted a position as the Head Athletic Trainer at South Sumter High School in Bushnell, Fla., upon completion of his internship.

Turner left South Sumter to work on his master's degree in recreation with a concentration is sports management, which he earned from the University of Arkansas in 2005. While at Arkansas, Turner served as an athletic trainer with the Razorback football and tennis teams.

Following his post-graduate work, Turner worked as the seasonal intern for the Carolina Panthers. He then moved on as the Interim Athletic Trainer for Winthrop University before assuming the Head Athletic Trainer/Director of Sports Medicine position for the Rams at Winston-Salem State University.

Turner and his wife, Megan, have one child, Joley.

BRIAN MICHALOWSKI

ARIZONA STATE, 2011
FIRST SEASON

Brian Michalowski joined the University of Memphis football staff as a Defensive Graduate Assistant in 2016, assisting defensive line coach, Paul Randolph, by coaching the "Kat" position. Michalowski recruits the Kansas Junior Colleges, Maryland and the Chicago area for the Tigers.

Prior to taking the position at the University of Memphis, Michalowski spent the 2015 season as Defensive Coordinator for Garden City Community College in the Kansas Jayhawk Conference. At Garden City CC, Michalowski coached current Tiger safety Jonathan Cook. Garden City CC had a monumental win in 2015 versus #1 NJCAA ranked Butler County Community College, collecting 11 sacks on defense and holding Butler County to 20 points (25 points under their average points-per-game). Michalowski also coached the 2015 NJCAA Defensive Player of the Year. Garden City CC led the Kansas Jayhawk Conference in passing defense, holding opponents to 169 yards-per-game, forcing 14 interceptions, and amassing 31 sacks in 11 games.

Michalowski spent the 2014 season overseas coaching in the German Football League (GFL) as the Defensive Coordinator for the Cologne Falcons. Michalowski assisted in the club's dramatic transition from a 2-12 record the to an 8-6 record in 2014, as well as the team's first-ever playoff victory, eventually falling in the semifinals to the league champion. The Falcons improved in every defensive statistical category from the year prior, ranking third (of 16) in pass defense, third in turnover margin, fourth in interceptions, sixth in total defense, and sixth in scoring defense.

In 2013, Michalowski served as a Defensive Graduate Assistant at University of Wyoming under Head Coach Dave Christensen. There, Michalowski coached the "Buck" position, a stand up linebacker in a 3-4 defense, and had coaching responsibilities on all phases of special teams.

Between 2007 to 2012, Michalowski climbed up the coaching ladder at his alma mater, Arizona State University. In 2012, Michalowski was a Defensive Graduate Assistant for current Head Coach Todd Graham, along with Coach Norvell and many other current Tiger coaches. The 2012 Sun Devils had a successful year with an 8-4 record, finishing the season with a victory in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl over Navy. Michalowski worked with the defensive line and held responsibilities coaching on special teams. The 2012 Sun Devil defense was second in the Pac-12 in total defense, second in the nation in sacks, second in the nation in tackles for loss, and first in the Pac-12 in pass defense.

Michalowski spent the 2011 season as a Defensive Quality Control assistant with Arizona State under Head Coach Dennis Erickson. In that role, Michalowski assisted with defensive backs and special teams, including a kickoff return unit that finished tenth in the nation and had six returns for touchdowns in two seasons.

Michalowski was a student assistant for Arizona State for four seasons, initially working with recruiting and special teams. Michalowski began working on the defensive side of the football in 2009, where he assisted with the defensive backs until 2011.

Additionally, Michalowski completed a training camp internship with the Buffalo Bills during the 2010 preseason, where he had responsibilities with pro personnel and camp operations.

Michalowski briefly coached at his alma mater, Notre Dame Prep, in Scottsdale, Ariz., in 2007.

Michalowski earned a bachelor's degree in marketing with a minor in psychology from Arizona State University in 2011.

LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM
SEPTEMBER 5, 2015

Eight starters lost from last season's Tigers defense. Well, no problem early on in 2015.

The University of Memphis used a suffocating defensive performance to hold Missouri State to 125 yards of total offense in an impressive 63-7 victory in the 2015 season opener for both programs. Before a crowd of 41,730 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, the Tigers defense also held the visiting Bears to 18 yards rushing on 30 carries and only 10 first downs.

In the 2014 season opener, the Memphis defense held Austin Peay to 146 yards of total offense and 10 first downs, the last time the Tigers held an opponent to both fewer than 150 yards of total offense and 10 or fewer first downs. The last time Memphis held an opponent to under 50 yards rushing was at Houston in 2013. The Cougars managed only 38 yards on the ground in that contest.

The defense also helped in two first-quarter scoring drives for Memphis, recovering two fumbles deep in Bears territory.

The first short-field drive was set up when Jackson Dillon recovered a Breck Ruddick fumble at the Missouri State 25-yard line. Five plays later, Paxton Lynch hooked up with Mose Frazier for a five-yard scoring strike to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead.

Then, on Missouri State's third possession, Ryan Heaston fumbled, and Wynton McManis scooped up the loose ball at the Bears 36 yard line, setting up another short field for the Memphis offense. Five plays later, Doroland Dorceus went over from two yards out for a 21-0 Tigers first-quarter lead.

Taking a cue from the defense, the special teams got into the scoring act late in the first quarter when Roderick Proctor returned a punt 63 yards for a score. It was the Tigers' first punt return for a touchdown by a returner in 129 games. The last time a Memphis return man scored was against Tulane in the 2004 campaign.

Frazier and Dorceus each scored another first-half touchdown, and Jarvis Cooper added a four-yard touchdown run to give Memphis a 42-0 halftime lead.

Cooper scored on another four-yard scamper just after halftime before Missouri State got on the board. The Bears' lone touchdown came with five minutes left in the third quarter when Ruddick hit Malik Earl from two yards out.

The Tigers added two more late touchdowns for the 63-7 final.

Cooper led the Tigers rushing attack with 102 yards on 18 carries and two scores. Jamarious Henderson and Sam Craft added 73 and 72 yards rushing, respectively.

Lynch, who only played in the first half, was 8-of-12 passing for 78 yards and one touchdown. Clay Holgorsen, who came on in relief of Lynch, went 7-of-8 passing for 80 yards and his first collegiate touchdown toss. Frazier led the Tigers receiving corps with six receptions for 89 yards and two scores.

GAME NO. 2 - AT KANSAS

MEMORIAL STADIUM
SEPTEMBER 12, 2015

University of Memphis junior quarterback Paxton Lynch threw for a career-high 354 yards and senior wide receiver Mose Frazier had a career-high 141 all-purpose yards to lift the Tigers to an impressive 55-23 road victory over the Kansas Jayhawks at Memorial Stadium.

Lynch was 22-of-25 passing and tossed two touchdowns. The 354-yard performance bettered his previous career high of 311 yards in last season's 41-14 win at Cincinnati. It also was his fifth career 300-yard passing game.

Frazier had three rushes for 64 yards and a score and added four receptions for 77 yards to account for his 141 yards. He scored one touchdown on a career-long 60-yard scamper.

Memphis piled up 651 yards of total offense, the second-most for a single game in school history. The school record is 659 yards set in a 69-19 rout of rival Louisville in 1969.

The Tigers carried momentum and a 24-13 lead into the second half and pulled away from the Jayhawks. Frazier's 60-yard touchdown run put Memphis up 31-13.

After a Kansas touchdown, Memphis scored the game's next 24 points to grab an insurmountable 55-20 advantage. Lynch hit Daniel Monteil for a three-yard scoring strike, and Jarvis Cooper and Jamarius Henderson each hit pay dirt from a yard out for the Tigers' three touchdowns in the 24-0 spurt. Jake Elliott added a 32-yard field goal in the run.

The game, though, got off to a shaky start for the Tigers, as on their opening possession, they fumbled on their first play from scrimmage. The fumble set up Kansas at the Memphis 10 yard line, but after netting a minus-two yards on three plays, the Jayhawks settled for a Nick Bartolotta 30-yard field goal to take an early 3-0 advantage.

The shaky start continued for Memphis on its second drive. The Tigers went backwards for seven yards on three plays and had to punt. The Jayhawks took over on their own 27 and marched 73 yards on five plays to take a 10-0 lead. Ke'aun Kinner scored on a five-yard scamper around the right end.

That's when the Tigers offense woke up.

Memphis scored on its next three possessions (two TD, one FG) to take a 17-10 advantage. The Tigers combined to rack up 183 of its 267 first-half yardage on the three drives. The touchdown drives ended in scoring runs from Sam Craft and Doroland Dorceus, and Elliott connected on a 27-yard field goal.

Another Bartolotta field goal cut the Tigers' lead to 17-13 midway through the second quarter. Memphis, though, responded just before the halftime horn with a Lynch-to-Tevin Jones touchdown strike for a 24-13 lead. The score helped the Tigers carry momentum into the second half.

Henderson led the Tigers rushing attack with 77 yards on 11 carries. Jackson Dillon led the Memphis defense with eight total hits. Shareef White added seven total tackles.

GAME NO. 3 - AT BOWLING GREEN

|---|---|
| MEMPHIS | 44 |
| BOWLING GREEN | 41 |

DOYT PERRY STADIUM
SEPTEMBER 19, 2015

In a battle of two high-powered offenses, Memphis edged Bowling Green for a 44-41 win at Doyt Perry Stadium. In the end, it was the Tigers defense and special teams that separated the two foes.

Junior place-kicker Jake Elliott scored the winning points on a 29-yard field goal with 7:35 left in the game. Elliott also had field goals of 52 yards and 38 yards in the contest. Bowling Green's kicker Tyler Tate missed his only field goal attempt and was unable to convert one of the team's extra-point attempts.

After the teams went back and forth and scored at will for much of the game, the Memphis defense made stops on the Falcons' final four drives of the game.

Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch had another banner game, completing 29-of-40 passes for a career-high 386 yards and three touchdowns. On the receiving end of his touchdown passes were wide receiver Tevin Jones, running back Sam Craft and tight end Daniel Montiel. Lynch's career-high 386 yards passing bested his previous high of 354 yards which he threw for in last Saturday's 55-23 win at Kansas.

Bowling Green exploited the Memphis defense through the air for a majority of the game. Falcons quarterback Matt Johnson was 28-of-44 for 443 yards and four touchdowns. Three of his touchdown passes were long-range strikes to Roger Lewis, who finished with seven catches for 261 yards.

Doroland Dorceus led the Tigers rushing attack with 75 yards on 16 carries. He and Craft, who finished with 11 carries for 50 yards, scored rushing touchdowns.

Elliott kicked his 52-yard field goal to start the second half, cutting into the Bowling Green lead. That Tigers' drive was extended on a Nick Jacobs' 11-yard run off a fake punt. For his career, Elliott moved to 8-of-14 on kicks of longer than 50 yards.

Memphis linebacker Genard Avery came up with a huge sack on third down of Bowling Green's first second-half possession. The sack forced the Falcons to attempt a 48-yard field goal, which was missed.

Following the missed field goal, Memphis methodically went down the field 70 yards on a game-tying touchdown drive. During the drive, the Tigers converted a 4th-and-1 with a 32-yard pass from Lynch to Jones. Craft capped the drive with a three-yard scoring rush.

The Falcons had an immediate answer, as Johnson tossed the second-longest touchdown pass in school history, a 94-yard strike to Lewis.

Memphis responded again, as Craft took a screen pass 60 yards for a touchdown that knotted the score at 34-all just before the end of the third quarter.

The back-and-forth between the two teams continued as Bowling Green scored on another quick strike. Lewis was on the receiving end of his third long touchdown reception of the game, this one from 62 yards out.

The Tigers weren't done either, as Memphis tied it back up with a 42-yard touchdown pass on a double reverse pass. Lynch handed the ball to Craft who pitched it to Roderick Procter who tossed it back to Lynch. The Tigers quarterback launched it to a wide-open Jones for the score.

The Memphis defense got its first stop since early in the third quarter and forced a Bowling Green punt. The Tigers drove down the field, and Elliott kicked what proved to be the game-winning score, a 29-yard field goal with 7:35 left in the game.

GAME NO. 4 - VS CINCINNATI

LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM
SEPTEMBER 24, 2015

For the first time since 1961, the University of Memphis football program got off to a 4-0 start after a heart-palpitating 53-46 American Athletic Conference victory over longtime rival Cincinnati. The Tigers posted the win before a crowd of 45,172 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and an ESPN national audience.

The victory, however, wasn't easy to come by for the Tigers. In a game in which the two teams combined for 99 points and over 1,300 yards of total offense, it was a defensive play that sealed the win for Memphis.

After taking a 53-46 lead on a Sam Craft 3-yard score with 53 seconds left, Memphis saw Cincinnati march down inside the Tigers 20 yard line. On a 1st-and-10 for the Bearcats, back-up quarterback Hayden Moore was pressured into throwing an errant pass that Tigers middle linebacker Leonard Pegues picked off at the 21 yard line with only :10 on the clock. The interception was Pegues' first of his career.

Memphis snapped the ball once on the ensuing possession, and the celebration in the Bluff City began.

Prior to the game-saving Pegues interception, it was all offense for both teams. Memphis racked up 570 yards of total offense, which was the 10th-most for a single game in school history. Cincinnati, though, outgained the Tigers with 752 yards of total offense, including 620 yards through the air. Both the total offense and passing yards were single-game records for a Memphis opponent. The previous total offense (689) and passing (578) single-game marks were by Houston in the 2009 season.

The two teams also combined for 99 points, the fourth-most in a game in Tigers history. For Memphis, its 53 points tonight versus Cincinnati gave them 215 points in the first four games of 2015. The 215 points are the most by a Tigers squad in the first four games in the program's history.

For the third-straight week, Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch set a career-high passing mark with 412 yards. He was 24-of-36 passing and tossed two touchdowns.

Lynch's 412 yards were just four shy of tying Martin Hankins' school record of 416 yards versus East Carolina in the 2007 campaign. Lynch's previous two career highs this season were 354 yards against Kansas Sept. 12 and then 386 yards versus Bowling Green Sept. 19.

The game did not start well for Memphis. The Tigers fumbled on their first play from scrimmage, and Cincinnati recovered at the Memphis 36 yard line. Four plays later, Cincinnati starting quarterback Gunner Kiel hit pay dirt from four yards out for a 7-0 Bearcats lead.

The Tigers' next possession did not fare any better. Before the drive started, the Memphis special teams put the offense in a hole, catching the Cincinnati kickoff out-of-bounds at the 2 yard line. From there, the Bearcats defense held the home team to a three-and-out and forced a punt.

Cincinnati started its next drive in good field position at its own 35. Lightning, though, struck for the Tigers defense on the fourth play of the Bearcats drive. On a 3rd-and-3 from the Memphis 44, Arthur Maulet intercepted a Kiel pass and returned it 59 yards for a score. The touchdown tied the contest at 7-all and set the stage for a game full of offensive fireworks.

In the back-and-forth affair, Memphis led 14-10 after the first quarter, thanks to an 82-yard Lynch-to-Anthony Miller scoring strike. But, Cincinnati outscored Memphis in the second quarter 20-14 to take a 30-28 lead into halftime.

The third quarter saw the scoring subside, with each team managing only a field goal. Cincinnati carried a 33-31 advantage into the final quarter of play.

The final period saw Memphis grab a lead only to see it short-lived after a Bearcats answer each time – except the last.

An Alan Cross touchdown reception gave Memphis a 38-33 advantage, but Cincinnati came back with a score to re-take the lead 39-38. Then, a Craft touchdown run followed by a Lynch two-point conversion rush put the Tigers ahead 46-39. The Bearcats, however, responded again with a Max Morrison 30-yard touchdown catch to knot the contest at 46-all and set up the game's final 2:30.

GAME NO. 5 - AT USF

|---|---|
| USF | 17 |

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM
OCTOBER 2, 2015

It wasn't the offensive fireworks Tiger Nation had enjoyed the first four weeks of the 2015 season, but the University of Memphis used timely offense and a stingy second-half defense to post a 24-17 American Athletic Conference victory over USF.

The contest was the league road opener for the Tigers. The Memphis-USF was played before a crowd of 22,564 at Raymond James Stadium and an ESPN2 national television audience.

With the victory, Memphis extended its current win streak to 12 straight. The Tigers' 12-game win streak is tied for the second-longest in FBS with TCU, with both trailing Ohio State's 16-game streak. The 12-game win streak also is the longest in Memphis football history.

Junior quarterback Paxton Lynch led the Tigers with 305 yards on 20-of-33 passing and two scores. He also ran for another touchdown.

The Memphis defense stepped it up in the second half. After giving up 204 yards in the first half, the Tigers tightened up a little as USF gained 173 second –half yardage. However, 88 of those 173 yards came on the Bulls' next-to-last possession. Moreover, 183 of USF's 377 total yards came on its two touchdown drives (95 and 88 yards).

As the storyline for much of the season, Memphis fell behind early once again. After stopping Memphis on its opening possession, USF started its first drive of the contest from its own 5 yard line. The Bulls, though, put together an impressive 12-play, 95-yard drive that culminated in a Darius Tice one-yard TD run for a 7-0 lead.

The Tigers' next possession ended with a Jake Elliott missed field goal attempt, and the Bulls took over on their own 20 yard line. Eleven plays later, an Emili Nadelman field goal extended the USF lead to 10-0 just four seconds into the second quarter.

From that point, the Tigers offense picked up the pace and the Memphis defense stiffened. Memphis answered the USF field goal quickly, moving the ball 50 yards in under two minutes to cut the Bulls lead to 10-7. Memphis got on the board when Lynch found Sam Craft in the end zone from 20 yards out.

While that touchdown was the lone first-half score for Memphis, the Tigers defense began to take control. The USF offense had the ball four times in the second quarter, but managed only 42 total yards and one first down.

After half, Memphis scored the next 17 points to take a 24-10 advantage. An Elliott field goal five minutes into the third period tied the contest at 10-all. The Tigers then drove the ball 92 yards on 13 plays to take their first lead of the contest at 17-10 with 2:11 in the third quarter. Lynch capped the drive with a three-yard touchdown run.

The Tigers defense also played major role in the squad's comeback. Memphis held USF to 64 yards on the Bulls' three third-quarter possessions and forced three punts.

Memphis then put the game out of reach early in the fourth quarter when Lynch hit Doroland Dorceus for a 55-yard scoring strike to extend the lead to 24-10 with 10:39 left on the clock.

USF managed a final 88-yard drive that resulted in a late touchdown to cut the Memphis advantage to 24-17 with just over a minute to play. The Bulls got the ball back with under a minute to go, but for a second-straight week, the Memphis defense sealed the win with an interception, this time by Reggis Ball.

Wynton McManis posted a career-high nine tackles (all solo stops).

GAME NO. 6 - VS OLE MISS

|---|---|
| OLE MISS | 24 |
| MEMPHIS | 37 |

LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM
OCTOBER 17, 2015

Believe. Memphis. Believe.

Behind a masterful performance from quarterback Paxton Lynch, the No. 22 nationally-ranked Tigers came back from an early 14-point deficit to post a 37-24 non-conference victory over No. 12 Ole Miss, before a crowd of 60,241 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and an ABC network audience.

Lynch was 39-of-53 passing for 386 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Tigers to a 6-0 start for the first time since 1961. Memphis also extended its win streak to 13, which is currently tied for the second-longest in the nation.

Anthony Miller and Mose Frazier were Lynch's two favorite targets versus the Rebels. Miller had a career-high 10 receptions for 132 yards and a score, and Frazier added eight catches for 83 yards and a touchdown. But, more than their numbers, the tandem came up with key receptions to keep drives alive for Memphis, which was 12-of-20 on third-down conversions in the contest.

Saturday's game did not start as well as it ended for the Tigers. Ole Miss scored touchdowns on its first two possessions of the game, with both coming through the air.

The Rebels wasted little time on their first drive, going 75 yards on two plays that took 20 seconds off the clock. After forcing another Tigers punt, the visitors from Oxford took over on their own 10. Again, the Rebels did not take long to score, putting together a 90-yard, eight-play drive that took only 2:33.

However, that's when the Tigers awoke. And Tiger Nation began to believe.

Memphis scored the next 31 points and held the Rebels scoreless the next 32:45 of the game. Ole Miss did not score again until the 6:59 mark of the third period.

The Tigers got their first score late in the first quarter when Lynch hit Alan Cross from a yard out to cut the Rebels' lead to 14-7. The touchdown drive was 10 plays and 70 yards and gave Memphis momentum heading into the second quarter.

After an exchange of possessions early in the second quarter, the Memphis offense revved up and the Tigers defense clamped down, setting up three short-field scoring drives. In that second quarter, the Memphis defense held Ole Miss to only 63 yards of total offense, while the Tigers offense put up 146 yards in the period.

Memphis' first score in the second quarter began at the Ole Miss 40 yard line after a short punt was returned 15 yards by Roderick Proctor. Seven plays later, Jake Elliott kicked a 23-yard field goal to slice the Rebels' lead to 14-10.

On the first play of Ole Miss' next possession, Tigers free safety Dion Witty intercepted Kelly's pass attempt, and he returned it to the Rebels 30 yard line. Three plays later, Sam Craft hit pay dirt from four yards out to give Memphis its first lead of the game at 17-14. It was a lead the Tigers did not lose. In fact, they added to it.

Ole Miss' next drive ended after four plays when the Rebels decided to go for it on fourth down from their own 34. The Tigers defense stopped Kelly on a 4th-and-1 rush, and the Memphis offense was set up on a short field for a third-straight possession.

And, for the third-consecutive possession, Memphis scored. This time, the Tigers took six plays, and the drive culminated in a Lynch-to-Miller six-yard scoring strike. The touchdown gave Memphis a 24-14 lead at the break.

The Tigers quickly added another touchdown after the break. After receiving the second-half opening kickoff, Memphis marched 82 yards on 10 plays, and when Lynch hit Frazier on a 31-yard touchdown connection, the Tigers led 31-14 with 11:31 left in the third quarter.

Ole Miss broke its 32:45 scoring drought at the 6:59 mark of the third period. The touchdown cut the Tigers' lead to 31-21. A Gary Wunderlich 24-yard field goal followed to slice the Memphis advantage to 31-24 with :16 left in the third quarter.

However, the fourth quarter – and ultimately the game – belonged to the hometown Tigers. Elliott added two more field goals for a 37-24 lead.

Then, as they did in the previous two wins over Cincinnati and USF, the Memphis defense wrapped up the game with an interception. Arthur Maulet intercepted Kelly at the Memphis 28 yard line and returned it 12 yards to the 40, dropping to the ground to seal the win and sending the celebration fireworks high in the air over the Liberty Bowl.

GAME NO. 7 - AT TULSA

|---|---|
| TULSA | 42 |

H.A. CHAPMAN STADIUM
OCTOBER 23, 2015

Move over 1961 Tigers. Up next is 1938.

On the strength of quarterback Paxton Lynch's record-setting night, the No. 18/17 nationally-ranked University of Memphis football team posted a 66-42 American Athletic Conference victory over Tulsa, before a crowd of 20,216 at H.A. Chapman Stadium.

The win improved the Tigers' record to 7-0 (3-0 in The American), giving the program its best start to a season since 1938. This year's squad entered Friday's game tied with the 1961 team for the second-best start in school history at 6-0. The 1938 Memphis team posted a perfect 10-0 record.

The win also was Memphis' 14th-straight win, dating back to mid-October of 2014. The 14-game win streak is the longest in school history and is the third-longest currently at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level.

But, win No. 7 and the 14-game win streak weren't the only records set Friday night.

On their way to the win, the Tigers piled up a school record 704 yards of total offense. Memphis had a balanced attack with 257 yards rushing and 447 yards through the air. The Tulsa offense also racked up 534 yards of total offense.

After flirting with the school's single-game passing record earlier this season, Lynch put his name at the top of that list with his career-best 447 passing yards against the Golden Hurricane (3-4, 0-3 The American). The junior was 32-of-44 passing and tossed four touchdowns. Lynch also ran for another score. Martin Hankins held the previous school single-game passing yardage record with 416 yards versus East Carolina.

For the second-straight week, Lynch continued to look for his favorite receiving tandem in Mose Frazier (10 receptions-128 yards) and Anthony Miller (5 receptions-106 yards). The duo combined for 15 catches and 234 yards. It was the first time that Memphis had two receivers with 100 yards in the same game since the 2012 Middle Tennessee contest.

Not to be overshadowed by the passing game, the Tigers rushing attack proved to be just as valuable in the win. Doroland Dorceus (32 carries-138 yards) and Jamarius Henderson (14 carries-112 yards) each rushed for over 100 yards and scored two touchdowns. It was the first time the Tigers had two running backs with 100 yards in the same game since the 2013 Arkansas State contest.

While it was a special homecoming win for Tulsa native Justin Fuente, Memphis was unable to secure the victory until late in the third quarter.

The Tigers held what seemed a solid lead at 35-14 just before the halftime break. But, a Golden Hurricane "Hail Mary" play at the first half horn was answered when Keyarris Garrett hauled in Dane Evans' 46-yard pass to cut the Memphis lead to 35-21.

Memphis answered back after halftime with a Dorceus one-yard touchdown run to push the lead back to three touchdowns at 42-21. Tulsa, though, had not one but two quick answers. The Golden Hurricane scored two touchdowns – a Garrett 32-yard reception and a Joshua Atkinson 80-yard reception – in a 1:45 span to slice the Tigers' lead to 42-35 with 9:30 left in the third quarter.

The Tigers had their own responses. Memphis scored the next 17 points over the next 11:51 to stretch its lead to 59-35 early in the fourth quarter and put the game out of reach. Lynch passed and ran for a touchdown in the late offensive explosion. Jake Elliott also connected on 30-yard field goal.

The game started as if the last team with the ball would win. Memphis and Tulsa traded touchdowns early into the second quarter for a 14-all tie. From there, the Tigers grabbed a lead they did not lose the remainder of the game. Memphis scored the next three touchdowns to take a 35-14 lead.

GAME NO. 8 - VS TULANE

|---|---|
| TULANE | 13 |
| MEMPHIS | 41 |

LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM
OCTOBER 31, 2015

It's not the way Tiger Nation likes its team to start games. But, University of Memphis football fans have to love how strong their team finishes.

For the sixth time this season, the No. 16 nationally-ranked Tigers fell behind early. And, for the sixth time this season, Memphis came back and answered the call with a victory.

On this Saturday before a crowd of 30,381 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, Memphis spotted the visiting Tulane Green Wave a 13-0 first-quarter lead and responded with 41-straight points for the 41-13 American Athletic Conference win. The victory improved the Tigers to a perfect 8-0 overall and 4-0 in league action. Memphis' 8-0 record is the program's best start since 1938 when that Tigers squad finished a perfect season at 10-0. Tulane fell to 2-6 overall and 1-4 in The American.

While quarterback Paxton Lynch passed for over 300 yards for the seventh-straight game, it was the Tigers ground attack the provided the offense a solid 1-2 punch to secure the victory. Memphis rushed for over 200 yards for the third time this season and the second game in a row.

The Tigers rushing game saw 10 players run the ball, gaining 223 yards and scoring three touchdowns. Doroland Dorceus led all Memphis backs with 10 carries for 45 yards, and Lynch was the team's second-leading rusher with seven carries for 43 yards. Sam Craft (31 yards) and Anthony Miller (28) also had over 25 yards on the ground. Dorceus, Miller and Jarvis Cooper each hit pay dirt via the run.

Lynch recorded his 11th career 300-yard passing game with 343 yards on 26-of-42 passing. He tossed one touchdown, and for the seventh game this season, had no interceptions. Lynch's favorite target was Phil Mayhue, who had a career-best 107 receiving yards.

The visitors from New Orleans jumped out to an early – but not quick – 13-0 lead. The Green Wave scored their first touchdown on a methodical and time-consuming 17-play, 75-yard drive that took 11:13 off of the first-quarter clock. Tulane missed the PAT for a 6-0 lead.

After Memphis' first drive ended with missed field goal, Tulane drove 80 yards in three plays to increase its advantage to 13-0 just 45 seconds into the second quarter. Both Green Wave scores were Dontrell Hilliard touchdown runs of three and 43 yards.

From that point on, the game was all Memphis.

The Tigers responded on their next two possessions with a Dorceus two-yard touchdown run and a Jake Elliott 24-yard field goal to slice the Tulane lead to 13-10 midway through the second period. Memphis earned the first of its two safeties in the contest in the second quarter when the Green Wave special teams snapped the ball over the punter's head, and he fell on it in the end zone.

On the ensuing possession, Memphis drove 22 yards, and an Elliott 40-yard field goal gave the Tigers a 15-13 lead at halftime. It also was a lead that Memphis did not lose the remainder of the contest.

After half, the Memphis defense posted a shutout while the offense tacked on 26 points for the 41-13 final.

The Tigers defense, though, turned it up earlier than the second half. On their first two scoring possessions, the Green Wave piled up 146 yards of total offense. From the 14:15 mark of the second quarter until the end of the contest (44:15), Memphis held the Tulane offense to only 124 yards, eight first downs and no points.

Leading the Tigers defense were Chris Morley (five total tackles), Chauncey Lanier (five total tackles; one sack) and Shareef White (five total tackles; one TFL).

GAME NO. 9 - VS NAVY

LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM
NOVEMBER 7, 2015

Sometimes it's just not your day, and that was the case for the No. 15/16 University of Memphis football team against Navy Saturday.

In a game that was very un-Memphis-like, the Tigers were unable to find a rhythm on either side of the ball and dropped a 45-20 American Athletic Conference decision to the Midshipmen, before a crowd of 55,212 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium. The 55,212 crowd was the largest for a conference home contest in the program's history.

Despite the loss, Memphis remains in the hunt for the The American West Division title. Houston and Navy lead the West Division with 5-0 league records, with Memphis one game behind at 4-1. The Tigers play at Houston next Saturday (Nov. 14). Kickoff for the game is set for 6 p.m. Central and will be broadcast on ESPN2. Navy plays at Houston Nov. 27.

Tigers quarterback Paxton Lynch notched his eighth 300-yard passing game of the season (12th career) with 305 yards through the air, but wasn't able to put together the Lynch-like drives that Tiger Nation had become accustomed to this season. He went 26-of-42 passing with one touchdown. He threw his second interception of the season in the contest.

The Memphis rushing attack managed 133 yards but fumbled the ball four times, two of which were recovered by the Midshipmen. Navy turned two of the three Tigers turnovers (two fumbles, one interception) into 10 points. The Midshipmen played error-free football with no miscues.

Leading the Tigers ground game was Doroland Dorceus with 69 yards on 12 carries. Mose Frazier led the Memphis receiving corps with six catches, while Phil Mayhue had a team-high 68 receiving yards.

Memphis struck on its first possession of the game. The Tigers took only 1:21 to score and hit pay dirt when Lynch found Anthony Miller from 11 yards out for a 7-0 lead.

Navy answered the Memphis score on the ensuing possession. The Midshipmen, however, took their time scoring. Navy put together a methodical 16-play, 75-yard drive that took 9:02 off of the clock and tied the contest at 7-all with a Chris Swain three-yard touchdown run.

The Tigers reclaimed the lead on their next drive, capped by a Jake Elliott 40-yard field goal. Elliott's field goal ended the first-quarter scoring.

Navy took its first lead of the contest late in the second quarter. Starting on their own 29 yard line, the Midshipmen ran seven plays and 3:36 to cover the 71 yards, and Swain rushed for the final two yards to give Navy a 14-10 advantage.

The Midshipmen added to their lead just before halftime. Daniel Gonzalez intercepted a Lynch pass at the Tigers 37 yard line and returned it 10 yards to the 27 with under :30 on the clock. Three plays later, Austin Grebe kicked a 44-yard field goal to give Navy a 17-10 advantage at the break.

After halftime, a role reversal was seen on each team's first score of the third period. The Tigers tied the contest at 17-all on a Miller one-yard touchdown sweep. In Navy-like fashion, Memphis methodically drove 84 yards on 15 plays and took 5:48 off of the clock.

Following the Tigers' score, Navy started its drive on its own 25, but regained the lead in a quick-strike, Memphis-like way. On the Midshipmen's first play from scrimmage, quarterback Keenan Reynolds connected with DeBrandon Sanders for a 75-yard touchdown. The drive was one play and took only 10 seconds, giving Navy a lead it did not lose.

An Elliott second field goal cut the Navy lead to 24-20 with just over five minutes left in the third quarter. But, from that point forward, it was all Midshipmen.

Navy added three more touchdowns – all on runs – and won the game 45-20.

The Midshipmen rushed for 374 yards, the most against a Memphis defense since East Carolina ran for 491 yards in 2007. Swain led the Navy ground attacked with 108 yards on 18 carries and three scores. In addition to his 75-yard touchdown reception, Sanders rushed for 82 yards on eight carries.

Tigers linebacker Wynton McManis led the defense with a career-high 10 tackles. Leonard Pegues and Genard Avery each added eight tackles.

GAME NO. 10 - AT HOUSTON

TDECU STADIUM
NOVEMBER 14, 2015

Sometimes the close calls go the other way. After pulling out close wins over Bowling Green, Cincinnati and USF earlier this season, the No. 25 University of Memphis football squad dropped a narrow decision, falling to No. 16 Houston 35-34.

The Tigers took a 34-14 lead nine seconds into the fourth quarter, but the Cougars put together a furious rally with 21 unanswered points to post the come-from-behind win before a crowd of 42,159 at TDECU Stadium.

Tigers running back Doroland Dorceus ran for 116 yards on 26 carries and a score, and quarterback Paxton Lynch threw for 278 yards and two touchdowns, but it wasn't enough in the end.

Memphis outgained Houston in total yards 490-392 and dominated the Cougars on the ground by a 212-96 clip. Houston held a narrow 296-278 advantage in yards through the air. The Tigers ran 11 more plays (86-75), had six more first downs (26-20) and converted more third downs (12-19, UM; 6-15, UH).

Despite all the statistics going Memphis' way, the Cougars made their plays in the final period. Houston scored three touchdowns in the final 12:56 and forced two Tigers turnovers, capitalizing on one of them.

After a Tevin Jones rushing score put Memphis up 34-14 with 14:51 in the fourth period, Houston began its comeback. A little under two minutes later, the Cougars scored the first of their three fourth-quarter touchdowns when Kenneth Farrow hit pay dirt from 10 yards out to cut the Tigers' lead to 34-21 at the 12:56 mark.

On their next possession, the Tigers fumbled and Houston recovered at the Memphis 20 yard line. However, the Memphis defense held the Cougars at its 5 yard line and took over from there with 8:08 on the clock.

The Tigers, though, were not out of trouble yet. Three plays later, Lynch threw his third interception of the season. Elandon Roberts, who finished with 18 total tackles, picked off Lynch's pass at the Memphis 39 yard line, and the Cougars offense was back on the field.

This time, Houston cashed in on the Tigers' miscue. Cougars quarterback Kyle Postma directed a seven-play, 39-yard drive that ended when Javin Webb scored from a yard out.

Memphis was unable to mount a drive on its next possession, going 3-and-out and punted to Houston. The Cougars took over on their own 23 with 4:00 remaining. Houston drove 77 yards on nine plays and scored on a Postma seven-yard touchdown scamper with 1:27 left.

The Tigers, however, had one final opportunity. Starting on its own 23, Memphis drove the ball to the Houston 31 yard line in 1:08. The Tigers attempted a 48-yard field goal, but Jake Elliott's try drifted wide right and Houston secured the win.

Memphis dominated the first half, building a 20-7 lead at the break. The Tigers' lead was 20-0 until 37 seconds remained before the break. Memphis built its lead on two Elliott field goals (41 and 29 yards) and two Lynch scoring strikes of 38 yards to Alan Cross and 61 yards to Dorceus.

Not only did the scoreboard tell of the Tigers' first-half domination, the statistics did as well. Memphis outgained Houston 273-99 in total yards and ran 47 plays to Houston's 27. The Tigers rushed for only 77 first-half yards, but the Memphis defense held the Cougars to minus-13 yards on the ground in the first two quarters.

Houston answered immediately after half, scoring three minutes in on a Farrow touchdown run. The touchdown cut the Tigers lead to 20-14. Memphis added a Dorceus touchdown run midway through the third period to put the Tigers up 27-14 and set up the fourth-quarter drama.

Leonard Pegues led the Memphis defensive effort with 12 total tackles. Christian Johnson and Wynton McManis each had two TFL.

GAME NO. 11 - AT TEMPLE

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD
NOVEMBER 21, 2015

All streaks come to an end. That's what the University of Memphis football team ran into Saturday when it dropped a 31-12 American Athletic Conference decision to Temple at Lincoln Financial Field.

The Owls defense held Memphis without a touchdown Saturday, ending a string of 19-straight games in which the Tigers hit pay dirt. The last time Memphis failed to score a touchdown was in its 24-3 loss at Ole Miss last season (Sept. 27, 2014).

Temple's defense limited the Tigers to only four Jake Elliott field goals and also held the Memphis offense to 232 yards of total offense. The 232 yards of total offense was Memphis' lowest of the season. The Tigers offense managed only 13 first downs and was 7-of-19 on third-down conversions.

Tigers quarterback Paxton Lynch was 25-of-34 passing for 156 yards and no touchdowns, ending a streak of 15-straight games with a scoring strike. Sam Craft led the Memphis ground attack with 40 yards on four carries. Phil Mayhue was Lynch's favorite target, hauling in five passes for 51 yards.

It was the Memphis defense that took charge in the early going. The Tigers stopped Temple on its first three possessions, once on a fumble recovery, once on an interception and once on downs. Memphis did capitalize on two of those stops, but the Tigers managed only Elliott 31-yard and 46-yard field goals for a 6-0 lead.

From that point forward, Temple found its rhythm offensively. The Owls scored touchdowns on their next two possessions to a take a 14-6 advantage. Memphis put another Elliott field on the board just before halftime. The Tigers kicker connected on a 44-yard field goal with 1:28 in the second quarter to cut the Owls lead to 14-9 at the break.

Temple held that 14-9 lead until midway in the third quarter when the Tigers defense produced again. Memphis stopped the Owls on downs for the third time in the game at the Temple 44 yard line. Memphis, once again, did score, but it was only another Elliott field goal from 39 yards out to pull the Tigers to within two at 14-12 with 3:41 left in the period.

The Owls, though, had the final answer. Temple scored the game's last 17 points in the fourth quarter for the 31-12 final.

Leonard Pegues led the Memphis defense with 11 total tackles, the second-straight game in which he posted double-digit stops (had 12 versus Houston last week). Chauncey Lanier added seven tackles.

LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM
NOVEMBER 28, 2015

It's a Senior Day many student-athletes dream of – an emotional pregame ceremony with family and fans followed by a resounding regular-season home finale victory.

That's what 14 seniors and Tiger Nation got Saturday in the University of Memphis' 63-0 American Athletic Conference win over SMU. The contest was played before a crowd of 30,075 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium on a rainy afternoon.

The Tigers defense pitched a shutout and held SMU to only 97 yards of total offense (33 rushing, 64 passing). The shutout was the program's first against a conference opponent since Memphis blanked West Texas State 30-0 in a Missouri Valley Conference match-up Sept. 11, 1971. The last time Memphis held an opponent to fewer than 100 yards of total offense was back in the 1962 campaign. That season, the Tigers held Texas-Arlington to 87 yards of total offense in a 50-0 win Nov. 11, 1962.

The Memphis defense, though, wasn't content with just stopping the Mustangs. It also scored. The Tigers tied an NCAA record for fumbles returns for touchdowns with two. After Memphis scored to make the score 21-0, SMU started its drive on its own 25 yard line. On the second play of that drive, the Mustangs fumbled, and Leonard Pegues picked up the loose ball and rumbled 26 yards for the score and a 28-0 Memphis advantage.

The Tigers' second fumble return for a touchdown came at the end of the third quarter. Jackson Dillon scooped up the ball at the SMU 1 yard line and ran it in for a 63-0 lead.

While the Tigers defense stopped SMU, the Memphis offense was not contained. The Tigers showcased a balanced attack that piled up 483 yards of total offense (195 rushing, 288 passing).

Tigers quarterback Paxton Lynch, who only played in the first half, was 9-of-14 passing for 222 yards and a school-record seven touchdowns. The seven scoring strikes were to seven different receivers. Lynch's seven touchdown passes in a half tied an NCAA FBS record.

Anthony Miller (60 yards) and Mose Frazier (56 yards) led the Memphis receiving corps. Robert Davis led all rushers with 42 yards on the ground.

The Tigers were relentless, scoring early and often. Memphis reached the end zone in seven of nine first half offensive drives. The only time the team didn't score was after a punt on the second drive of the game and when the Tigers took a knee to end the first half.

Lynch started the game with a bang, hitting Phil Mayhue for a 43-yard touchdown strike on the first drive of the game.

The junior quarterback went on to throw touchdown passes to Doroland Dorceus (16 yards), Frank Wims (21 yards), Daniel Montiel (15 yards), Miller (44 yards), Daniel Hurd (six yards) and Frazier (22 yards).

SMU quarterback Matt Davis accounted for 51 of the team's 97 yards of total offense. Davis rushed for 23 yards and passed for 28.

Curtis Akins led the Tigers defense with six stops. Pegues and Shareef White each added five tackles.

GAME NO. 13 - VS AUBURN

LEGION FIELD
DECEMBER 30, 2015

In front of a Birmingham Bowl-record crowd of 59,430, the Memphis Tigers overcame a 10-point first half deficit, however, Auburn scored all of the game's 21 second-half points en route to a 31-10 win at Legion Field.

The historic record-breaking season for Memphis ended with a 9-4 overall record, and the program's second straight bowl game appearance. During the season the team set single-season records with 522 points, 64 touchdowns, 6,331 offensive yards, and 322 first downs.

The record-breaking season added two more notches to its belt when Memphis recorded its 95th third-down conversion of the season, breaking the record previously set in 2007, and ending with 101 for the season. The second record came in the middle of the third quarter when the Tigers eclipsed the team single-season passing yard mark, previously set in 2007, and now stands at 3,995.

Paxton Lynch, who has single-season school records for touchdown passes, passing yards, and 300-yard passing games was 17-of-38 behind center for 104 yards. The rushing attack was paced by Doroland Dorceus who ran 10 times for 39 yards, and Jarvis Cooper had five rushes for 35 yards. Mose Frazier and Phil Mayhue each hauled in four receptions, with Frazier going for 46 yards.

Memphis forced three turnovers, two on Reggis Ball interceptions, and the third on an interception from Dontrell Nelson.

Auburn used trickery on its first drive of the game, converting a fake punt for a 37-yard pass to the Memphis 3-yard line; however, the defense tightened and did not allow another positive yard, forcing the Tigers to a 20-yard field goal, staking the visitors on the scoreboard to a 3-0 lead.

On its second drive of the game, Auburn got a 9-yard rush from Kerryon Johnson to push Auburn's advantage to 10-0 with just under two minutes remaining in the first quarter.

With 10:03 to play in the second quarter, Memphis kicker and Lou Groza Award finalist Jake Elliott booted a 53-yard field goal, tied for the third-longest in program history, and cutting the Memphis deficit to seven at 10-3, while breaking the Birmingham Bowl record for the longest field goal in the process.

It was Elliott's sixth career field goal of 52 yards or more, as he owns four of the five longest field goals in program history (the other is held by current New England Patriots kicker Stephen Gostkowski). Elliott's kick also tied a school record for most field goals in a season, as he moved even with Joe Allison's total from the 1992 season.

On Memphis' next possession, Elliott was set to take sole possession of the field goal record, but his 34-yard attempt was blocked, keeping the Auburn advantage at 10-3 with 5:55 to play in the opening half.

After stopping Auburn near midfield, the visitors on the scoreboard attempted a fourth-down pass that was picked off by Ball for his second interception in the game by the senior, this one returned 56 yards for his first collegiate touchdown, knotting the score at 10 points apiece and sending the teams into the locker room deadlocked through the first 30 minutes of play.

Memphis came out of the halftime break and drove 56 yards on 13 plays, taking the ball down to the Auburn 9-yard line before his pass attempt was tipped and intercepted in the end zone.

Two possessions later, Auburn used eight plays to drive 44 yards, scoring when quarterback Jeremy Johnson found Jason Smith out of the backfield, and Smith evaded to Memphis tacklers on his way to the end zone, giving Auburn a 17-10 lead halfway through the second quarter.

Auburn went ahead 24-10 on the first play of the fourth quarter when Johnson rushed in from five yards out with 14:57 remaining in the contest. Following a 56-yard punt return after Memphis' next possession, Auburn's Javon Robinson scored his first touchdown of the game from 4 yards out, pushing Auburn's lead to 21 at 31-10 with 12:57 to play.

Completed 758-of-1205 career passes for 8,863 career yards and 59 touchdowns ... His 8,865 career yards and 59 touchdown passes ranks second in Memphis history ... Career passing percentage of 62.9 percent is also second in school history and most for a Tiger quarterback with more than one season's worth of starts ... Also rushed 288 times for 687 career yards and 17 touchdowns ... Helped Memphis to a 19-7 record over his sophomore and junior seasons and back-to-back bowl appearances for the first time since the 2007-2008 seasons ... Two-time all-conference honoree, including first-team honors in 2015 ... Named the team's DeAngelo Williams Most Valuable Player during the team's year-end banquet in both 2014 and 2015 ... One of 12 finalists for the Manning Award and one of five finalists for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award in 2015 ... Was also a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award and the 79th Maxwell Award (2015) ... Tied an NCAA record in his final home game, completing seven touchdown passes in the first half against SMU ... That SMU game also saw him find seven different receivers for his seven touchdown passes.

HONORS

Selected to the 2015 all-conference first team and 2014 all-conference second team by the American Athletic Conference coaches ... Voted the Most Valuable Player of the Miami Beach Bowl after completing 24-of-46 passes for 306 yards and four touchdowns while rushing for another 38 yards and three scores ... Performance on the field five times earned American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Week honors over his career as well as five Tennessee Sports Writers Association Offensive Player of the Week recognitions ... Named a Manning Award "All-Star" multiple times over his final two seasons and named the team's MVP for two straight seasons (2014 and 2015) ... Named to the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll freshman season ... Earned Tiger 3.0 list recognition for the Fall 2012, Spring 2013 and Spring 2014 semesters.

Helped Memphis to back-to-back bowl appearances for the first time since 2007-08 with a bid to the Birmingham Bowl ... First team all-conference honoree ... Named the team's DeAngelo Williams Most Valuable Player for a second straight season during the team's year-end banquet ... One of 12 finalists for the Manning Award ... Was one of five finalists for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award and the 79th Maxwell Award ... Tied an NCAA record in his final home game, completing seven touchdown passes in the first half against SMU ... That SMU game also saw him find seven different receivers for his seven touchdown passes ... He did not play in the second half of the SMU victory, but finished 9-for-14 for 222 yards in the opening half and earned his third American Athletic Conference player of the week honor in the win ... For the year, set individual passing records for passing yards (3,670) and touchdown passes (28), while completing 69 percent of his passes with just four interceptions ... Finished the year ranked 11th in the NCAA in passing efficiency (157.5), 12th in completion percentage (66.8), 19th in passing TDs (28) and 16th in passing yards (3,776) and 18th in completions per game (22.77) ... Helped a Memphis offense that ranked 19th in the country in total offense (486.9 yards) and 18th in passing offense (307.5 yards) ... Tiger offense also ranked 11th in the country in scoring (40.2 ppg) and eighth in third down conversion percentage (48.8 percent) ... The Tigers' red zone offense ranked T-18th with an 88.9 percent success rate ... Passed for over 300 yards in eight of Memphis' first nine games in 2015, including a 447-yard performance in a road win at Tulsa and 384 yards in a win over Ole Miss ... Played sparingly in the team's season-opening win over Missouri State, going 8-for-12 in limited time ... At Kansas, completed 88 percent of his passes, going 22-for-25 for 354 yards and two touchdowns ... In a comeback win at Bowling Green, was 29-for-40 for 386 yards and three touchdowns ... In a win over Cincinnati in the Tigers' conference opener, was 24-for-36 for 412 yards and two TDs and added 11 rushes for 52 yards, including a long of 17 yards ... At USF, was 20-for-33 for two TDs and one rushing TD in a conference road win ... In a near sell-out game against No. 12 Ole Miss, sparked a Memphis comeback and was 39-for-53 for 384 yards and three touchdowns ... Had gone five games before throwing an interception against Ole Miss in the Tigers' win ... Helped Memphis to another conference road win at Tulsa with a 32-for-44 performance for a season-high 447 yards and four touchdowns ... Also added a rushing touchdown at Tulsa, his second of the season ... Against Tulane, was 26-for-42 for 343 yards and one touchdown ... Matched those passing completions and attempts one week later against Navy, going for 305 yards and one touchdown in Memphis' first conference loss in their eighth game of the season ... At Houston, was playing without leading receiver Anthony Miller ... Went 20-for-31 for 278 yards and two touchdowns, rushing a season-high 13 times for 43 yards, which ranked second on the year ... Guided Memphis on a drive at the end of the game to get within field goal range for the win, but the field goal was no good in the road loss to the eventual conference champs ... At Temple, was held without a touchdown pass for the first time on the season, completing 25-of-34 passes for 156 yards ... Bounced back in a big way against SMU on the Tigers' regular-season finale ... Completed seven touchdown passes in the first half to seven different receivers ... The seven touchdown passes tied an NCAA record ... Played just the first half of the SMU game, a 63-0 Tiger win in the rain ... Finished 9-for-14 with seven touchdowns and 222 yards ... The seven touchdown passes broke Danny Wimprine's school record of five (2002) against Murray State ... In the Birmingham Bowl, did not have head coach Justin Fuente or offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Brad Cornelson on the sidelines, but completed 16-of-37 passes for 106 yards.

RAY GUY AWARD

Former University of Memphis punter Tom Hornsey was named the 2013 Ray Guy Award winner. The award is annually presented to the nation's best punter.

Hornsey received the award on December 12, 2013, at The Home Depot College Football Awards broadcasted by ESPN. Ray Guy, the College Hall of Fame punter who played at Southern Miss and went on to have a 14-year career in the NFL with the Oakland and Los Angeles Raiders, presented the award.

Hornsey received one of nine National College Football Awards Association (NCFAA) awards during the evening. During the evening he was also named a member of the Walter Camp All-America Second Team. He is only the second player from the U of M to be named a Walter Camp All-American, with the other being DeAngelo Williams in 2005.

Hornsey was included on the 2013 NCAA FBS Consensus College Football Team. The recognition is determined by a point system computed from All-America teams named by the American Football Coaches Association and select media sources.

Hornsey was named to the American Football Coaches Association's All-America Team. He was a First-Team All-America selection by the Associated Press, the Football Writers Association of America, Athlon Sports and USA Today.

During his senior season, Hornsey ranked eighth nationally with a 45.2 punting average, helping the Tigers post a 41.02 net punting average that ranked fourth in the country. During the year he had three of the 15 highest game punting averages in Memphis history.

Hornsey placed 29 of 62 punts inside opponents' 20-yard line (.468). The .468 percentage ranked fifth nationally while the 29 punts downed inside the 20 tied for third among FBS punters through the regular season. He only had four of his punts go into the end zone for touchbacks while opponents managed just 19 returns for 136 yards.

A two-time Ray Guy Award Player of the Week, Hornsey averaged 40+ yards 10 times during the season. In the two games in which he averaged just under 40 yards, he placed a total of eight of 13 punts inside opponents' 20-yard line.

Tom Hornsey is congratulated by Ray Guy after being named the Ray Guy Award winner as the nation's best punter in 2013.

During his career, Hornsey had 34 games in which he averaged 40+ yards, three shy of an NCAA record.

Hornsey was the inaugural winner of the Ray Guy Award Player of the Week award when he averaged 49.6 yards per punt against Middle Tennessee. He placed two of his five punts inside the Blue Raiders' 20 and had a 68-yarder in the game. Coupled with a career-long, 79-yard punt the previous week against Duke, he had two of the 10 longest punts in FBS football through the first three weeks of the college season.

Hornsey would also have a 70-yard punt against UT Martin en route to a 46.8 yard average in the Tigers' win against UT Martin. He was recognized for his efforts against UTM with a second Ray Guy Award Player of the Week honor, becoming just the second punter to receive the honor twice during the year.

Hornsey averaged a season-best 51.7 yards against Houston, which ranked seventh in school history, and also averaged 50.5 yards against Temple on Senior Day.

In addition to his statistical numbers, Hornsey was a member of Justin Fuente's second Leadership Council at the University of Memphis. He was a game captained all 12 contests during the year.

LOU GROZA AWARD

Former University of Memphis place-kicker Joe Allison enjoyed a record-setting career and a brilliant season in 1992, but he never dreamed that, in doing so, he would receive the Lou Groza Award, which is presented to the nation's top college kicker.

Allison, a native of Atlanta, Ga., led the nation in field goals per game, average field goals made per game, and kick-scoring for the final nine weeks of the 1992 season. His 23-of-25 field goals made were the most in the nation, according to the NCAA, and his 92.0 percent made rated best among all kickers for the year.

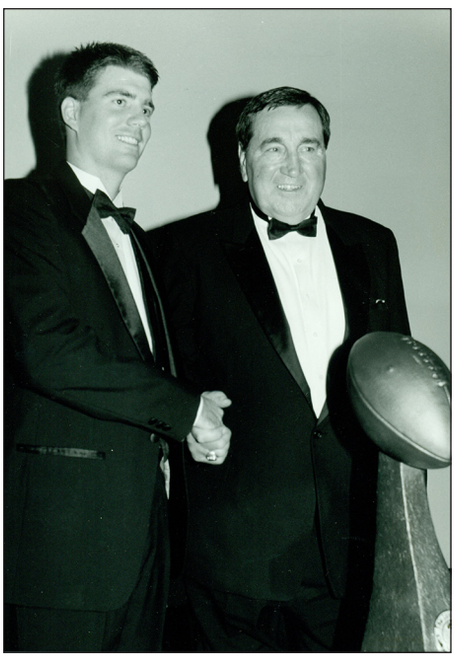

"I did not know about the Lou Groza Award until we played Tulsa in late October," said Allison. "After the game, Bob Winn (Assistant Athletic Director/ Communications) came up to me in the locker room and said that I was a candidate for the award. I didn't even know who Lou Groza was at the time.

"As soon as we returned to campus, I looked up Mr. Groza's statistics in the NFL record book, and I talked to Coach Armstrong (UM kicking coach) about his career with the Cleveland Browns."

Allison continued on his torrid streak of field goals made throughout the remainder of the '92 season. Week after week, his name appeared at the top of the NCAA statistics for kickers, and a campaign was started to let sports writers and voters throughout the country know about Allison's feats.

For his accomplishments, Allison was named first team All-America by The Football News, The Football Writers Association, the Associated Press, United Press International, College and Pro Football Weekly and The Sporting News. He is Memphis' first-ever first team All-American on the Associated Press squad and was named to more first team All-America squads in one year than any other Memphis football Tiger in the school's history.

Following the Thanksgiving holiday, Allison suffered an attack of appendicitis and had an emergency appendectomy. The surgery kept Allison from traveling to Hollywood, Calif., to appear on the Bob Hope Christmas Special, and it was while he was in the hospital recovering from his surgery that Allison learned that he had won the Lou Groza Award.

Joe Allison is the third-leading scorer in school history with 263 points. He holds the school record for field goals in a season with 23 in 1992.

"Mr. Winn called and told me that I had won the award and it made me feel a whole lot better," Allison stated. "I was determined that I was going to get well and travel to Florida for the awards ceremony."

Allison did indeed recover from his surgery and, with the assistance of former head coach Chuck Stobart and kicking coach Murray Armstrong, traveled to West Palm Beach, Fla., to receive the first national award ever won by a Memphis player.

The December 10th program was emceed by ABC sportscaster Curt Gowdy, and Baylor University head coach Grant Teaff was the guest speaker.

In accepting the Lou Groza Award from "The Toe" himself, Allison credited his snapper and holder and the entire Tiger special teams unit.

"Out of the 57 snaps during the season," Allison said, "I was the only one who made a mistake. Chad (Williams) did not have a bad snap, Andy (McWilliams) did not have a bad hold, but I missed two field goals. I couldn't have done it without their help."

The cousin of the late NASCAR driver Davey Allison, Joe booted 32-of-32 PATs in 1992 and finished with a then-school-record 90 consecutive PATs made for his career.

He set the Memphis record for field goals made in a single season when he kicked his 17th of the year in the Tigers' win over Tulsa in 1992, and ended the year with 23.

For 30 years, the school scoring record for a single season had been 84 points by Dave Casinelli (1963). In 1992, Allison broke Casinelli's record during the Ole Miss game and finished the season with 101 points. He accounted for 35.2 percent of all of the Tigers' points in 1992.

Allison held the Memphis record for 50-yard field goals in a season with three in 1990 before Stephen Gostkowski booted three in 2005. He has, however, hit more 50-plus yard field goals than any other player in Tiger history with five. Allison ranks third all-time in scoring with 262 points and in PATs made with 109, and ranks second in field goals made with 51. He held the No. 1 spots until Gostkowski completed his four-year career in 2005, claiming the top spot in those categories.

RETIRED JERSEYS

#64 JOHN BRAMLETT

One of the greatest defensive players in Tiger football history, John Bramlett was a two-sport athlete at Memphis State University. A linebacker out of Humes High School in Memphis, Bramlett played for head coach Billy J. Murphy for four seasons. He also had a stellar career at catcher for the Tigers' baseball team.

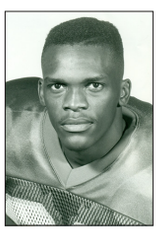

A speedy and intense player, Bramlett made the Memphis Football varsity squad immediately as a freshman in 1959 and became a starter midway through the year. The Tigers finished the 1959 season with a 6-4 record and posted wins against Florida State and Southern Mississippi.

During the 1960 campaign, Bramlett helped the Tigers improve to an 8-2 record, and the 1961 team also posted an 8-2 record. As a senior, Bramlett registered two pass interceptions which were returned for a total of 55 yards. The Tigers improved to 8-1 and in an important program milestone, Bramlett led the defense in allowing Mississippi State to score just seven points, as Memphis State won its first game against an SEC opponent, 28-7 against the Bulldogs in Starkville, Miss. Memphis would finish the 1962 season ranked 17th in the nation by United Press International.

On the baseball diamond, Bramlett batted .323 as a freshman and .357 during his sophomore season. The Tigers were 5-15 in 1959 but improved to 12-12 in 1960. As a junior, Bramlett led the squad with a .403 batting average and the team posted a 13-6 record. As a senior, he hit .358, hit four home runs and stole 18 bases.

Bramlett was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals and stayed in professional baseball for three years before signing a contract with the Denver Broncos in 1965. Bramlett was the runner-up for Rookie of the Year honors in the NFL behind quarterback Joe Namath. He went on to play seven seasons for four teams in the NFL.

Bramlett had his jersey retired on Sept. 7, 2013 when the Tigers opened the season against Duke.

#83 ISAAC BRUCE

Isaac Bruce came to the Memphis football team as a wide receiver in 1992. The junior college transfer made an immediate impact with the Tigers. Coupled with junior college quarterback Steve Matthews, Bruce helped give the U of M one of the nation's top passing attacks. He started all 11 games as a junior and was the team's second-leading receiver with 39 catches for 532 yards and five touchdowns. However, it was the 1993 campaign that caught the attention of pro scouts.

The Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., native opened the 1993 season with seven catches for 112 yards and two touchdowns in the Tigers' win over Mississippi State. He added 147 yards against East Carolina, 109 in a contest against Arkansas State, 108 in the Tulsa game and had over 90 yards receiving in five additional contests. Bruce finished the 1993 season with a school-record 74 catches for 1,054 yards and 10 touchdowns. His 74 catches and 1,054 yards remain Memphis football records and his 10 touchdown receptions is fourth.

Bruce was drafted in the second round by the St. Louis Rams in 1994. He played 14 seasons for the Rams and was signed by the San Francisco 49ers in 2008. He retired following the 2009 season. In 16 years in the NFL, Bruce amassed 15,208 receiving yards and 91 touchdowns on 1,024 receptions.

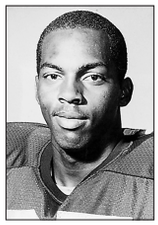

Bruce's Memphis jersey was retired in a ceremony at Liberty Bowl Memorial Field on October 4, 2003.

#30 DAVE CASINELLI

Dave Casinelli, who was Memphis' all-time leading rusher until DeAngelo Williams took the record book by storm, was recruited to Memphis in 1960 from Follansbee, W.Va., where he received all-America honors as a senior in high school. Casinelli played at Memphis from 1960-63 and ended his career by leading the nation in rushing and scoring, while guiding the Tigers to an undefeated season in 1963. During his first year as a starter, Casinelli led Memphis in rushing with 646 yards on 117 carries. His nine touchdowns in 1961 also led the Tigers. As a junior, "The Bull" gained 826 yards on 173 attempts while scoring 11 touchdowns. In his record-breaking senior year, Casinelli became the first Tiger to rush for 1,000 yards in a single-season when he tallied 1,016 on 219 attempts in 1963. His 1,016 yards ranked him first among all NCAA rushers and his 14 touchdowns helped him capture the national scoring title.

Following graduation, Casinelli became a successful businessman in Memphis and Tallahassee, Fla. Casinelli later lost his life in a car accident in 1987.

#8 CHARLES GREENHILL

Charles Greenhill was called the "most talented football player ever to come out of Memphis, Tennessee." The multi-talented Greenhill prepped at Frayser High School, where he lettered for three years in football, basketball and track. He played for the Tigers just one year (1983) before being killed in a plane crash with former head coach Rex Dockery and offensive coordinator Chris Faros.

A defensive back, Greenhill had 20 tackles that season, including 13 solo stops. Greenhill was also a dandy return man for the Tigers. The 6-2 speedster returned a kickoff 69 yards for a touchdown against Cincinnati and went on to average 29.8 yards per return.

Following his death, Firestone Stadium, which was the home field for Frayser High, was renamed Charles Greenhill Stadium.

#79 HARRY SCHUH

Harry Schuh became the fifth football player in Tiger history to have his jersey retired at the U of M.

From 1962-64, Schuh was one of the most dominant offensive linemen in all of college football. The Pennsylvania native started for Coach Billy J. Murphy's Tigers and helped his team to a three-year record of 22-5-1. By the conclusion of his senior season, Schuh had become the most decorated football player in school history. He was named to 11 All-America teams, including The Sporting News, Associated Press, United Press and the Football Coaches Association teams.

Following his collegiate career, Schuh was taken by the Oakland Raiders as the second player selected in the 1965 Draft, behind Alabama quarterback Joe Namath. He played six seasons for the Raiders, three years for the Los Angeles Rams and one season for the Green Bay Packers. Schuh was an All-Star selection in 1968 and 1969 and was selected to play in the NFC-AFL Pro Bowl Game in 1970.

Schuh's grandson Stephen Schuh lettered as an offensive lineman for the Tigers from 2003-06.

Schuh had his jersey retired when Memphis hosted East Carolina on October 15, 2011. Schuh passed away May 20, 2013.

#20 DEANGELO WILLIAMS

DeAngelo Williams came to the University of Memphis from nearby Wynne, Arkansas, and became one of the most decorated players in Tiger history.

Named to several All-America teams during his career, Williams was a key factor in the Tigers going to three straight bowl games for the first time in school history. He rewrote the rushing section of the Tiger record book, finishing his career with 6,026 yards and 55 rushing touchdowns on 969 carries. In addition, he caught five touchdowns and registered 723 receiving yards on 70 receptions.

Williams played as a true freshman in 2002 and later was named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team. He went on to claim C-USA Offensive Player of the Year honors the other three seasons of his career. He was also touted for Heisman honors entering his senior season, and held true to the publicity ending his senior campaign ranked No. 1 nationally in rushing, with an average of 178.55 yards per game.

During his storied career, Williams set an NCAA record with 34 games of 100-plus yards rushing, and ranks fourth all-time in NCAA history in career rushing yards with 6,026. He also holds the NCAA record for career all-purpose yards with 7,573.

In addition to multiple league honors, Williams also received various national awards and recognition. He was named to the prestigious Walter Camp All-America Team; was a finalist for the 2005 Doak Walker Award; and was the MVP of both the 2005 Motor City Bowl and the 2006 Senior Bowl to name a few.

The speedy back was selected by the Carolina Panthers as the 27th pick of the first round of the 2006 NFL Draft.

Williams had his jersey retired on Nov. 5, 2006 when the Tigers hosted Southern Miss.

MEMORIAL STADIUM (8,000)
NOVEMBER 22, 1956

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. — In November of 1956, Memphis State College received its second bowl bid in school history, but this time University officials accepted the invitation and the team traveled to East Tennessee to participate in its first post-season event.

In 1938, the Tigers received an invitation to play in the Prune Bowl in California and asked bowl officials for a financial guarantee to help cover the cost of transporting the squad across country. When the guarantee did not come through, Memphis opted to stay home.

In November of 1956, the Memphis squad finished the season with a record of 4-4-1 under head coach Ralph Hatley. Andy Nelson and Cotton Clifford served as team captains that year and helped Memphis to victories in two of the final three games of the season.

During that three-week span, the Tigers had back-to-back shutouts, defeating Western Kentucky 42-0 and Arkansas State 34-0.

November 22 was a cold and blustery day in Johnson City, Tenn. Not suited for football or any other outdoor event, the day was highlighted by a light snow fall and spitting rain and sleet.

East Tennessee State College tallied the game's first points, on a 14-yard pass from quarterback Howard Tippett to halfback Bob Lindsey, during the first period. The point after failed, as did most that day, and the Buccaneers led 6-0.

The Tigers answered the ETSC score before the first quarter ended. Bob Schmidt blasted into the end zone from two yards out and following the missed PAT by Memphis, the score was tied 6-6.

Neither team could do much to defeat the weather the remainder of the first half, although the Tigers penetrated several times into Buccaneer territory in the second quarter. Memphis even moved down to the East Tennessee State 1-yard line, before a fumble halted the drive. The first half ended with the score knotted at 6-all.

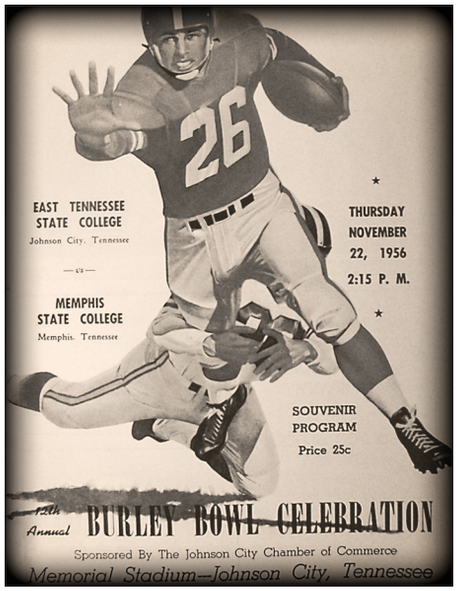

It was not until the second half that the Tigers got their offense going. After being held to 6-all in the first half by a battling bunch of Buccaneers, Memphis shook off the effects of the biting cold weather conditions and took charge of the Burley Bowl – which was witnessed by 700 fans on a frigid Thanksgiving afternoon – in the third quarter. The Tigers punched across three touchdowns in that third period to take control of the contest en route to the program's first ever postseason bowl victory.

The first time Memphis received the ball in the third quarter, fullback Bobby Brooks sprinted right up the middle, veered to the left and went 45 yards for a touchdown. And before that decisive period ended, the Tigers also scored on a one-yard plunge by Eddie Gebara and a 64-yard screen pass from Bubba Leonard to Gebara.

Andy Nelson took a pitchout four yards for the final Memphis touchdown in the opening minutes of the fourth period. Leonard converted the PATs after the third and fourth touchdowns.

East Tennessee's last touchdown came midway in the fourth period when quarterback Joe Dixon ran in from one yard out.

The Tigers ended the season with a 5-4-1 record, while East Tennessee State College dropped to 4-5 on the season.

PASADENA BOWL • 1971

|---|---|
| SAN JOSE STATE | 9 |

ROSE BOWL (104,091)
DECEMBER 18, 1971

PASADENA, Calif. — A hard-nosed defense that caused numerous San Jose State mistakes and an explosive offense that capitalized on those miscues led the Tigers to a 28-9 Pasadena Bowl rout over San Jose State before a sparse crowd of 15,244 in the Rose Bowl.

Memphis State, making its first major bowl appearance, trailed 3-0 early in the opening period until a blocked punt by Tom Carlsen, who was named the defensive player of the game, gave the Tigers a lead they would never relinquish.

The Tigers received the opening kickoff and, failing to move the ball, were forced to punt from their own 26-yard line. The Spartans drove the ball 19 yards and attempted a 42-yard field goal that fell short and was returned by the Tigers.

Following another failed drive, San Jose moved the ball to the Memphis 16-yard line, before kicker Larry Barnes connected on a 33-yard field goal. It would be the only time that San Jose State would hold a lead in the game.

With 50 seconds remaining in the first quarter, Trojan punter John McMillan stood at his 15-yard line. Tiger defensive back Tom Carlsen blocked McMillen's punt and fell on the loose ball in the end zone for the score. Hal McGeorge added the point after, and Memphis had the lead 7-3.

The Tiger defense gained an air of confidence and stopped San Jose State on the ensuing series. Following a short Trojan punt, the Tigers took over at midfield.

With quarterback Al Harvey leading the offensive attack, the Tigers moved into scoring position. A 13-yard pass from Harvey to Dornell Harris, who was named the offensive player of the game, and runs by Harvey, Skeeter Gowen and Paul Wilson set up the Tigers at the 9-yard line. Harvey went the final nine yards on a run around right end. The 65-yard drive early in the second period gave Memphis a 14-3 lead at intermission.

The Tigers kicked off to begin the second half. San Jose State couldn't move but got a second chance when Gowen fumbled on Memphis' first offensive play. Bill Brown recovered on the Tiger 24 and a 14-3 Memphis lead looked very precarious. The Spartans moved all the way to the Tiger 2-yard line. But on fourth down, the Tiger defense buckled down by meeting running back Joe Hicks at the line of scrimmage and slamming him to the Rose Bowl turf to end San Jose's only real threat.

The third period featured strong defensive play by both teams and when the quarter came to an end, the score remained 14-3 in favor of the Tigers.

The final stanza opened with San Jose in control of the ball, but an interception and 27-yard return by the Tigers' David Johnson, his second of the game, put the ball at the Spartans' 18-yard line. Memphis tailback Gowen wasted no time in increasing the Memphis lead as he raced 18 yards to the end zone on the first play from scrimmage. The scoreboard read 21-3 in favor of the Tigers.

Lightning struck immediately for Memphis. On the Spartans' first play following the Tiger score, back Larry Lloyd fumbled and Memphis' Carl Taylor recovered.

Five plays later, Tiger fullback Clifton Taylor punched the ball in from the 1-yard line and Tiger fans rejoiced with a 28-3 lead and just 10 minutes remaining to play.

Frustration mounted for San Jose State as the Memphis defense continued its strong play. Forced to pass the ball with time running out, Tiger cornerback Walter Daggett picked off the Tigers' fourth interception of the afternoon to halt yet another Trojan drive.

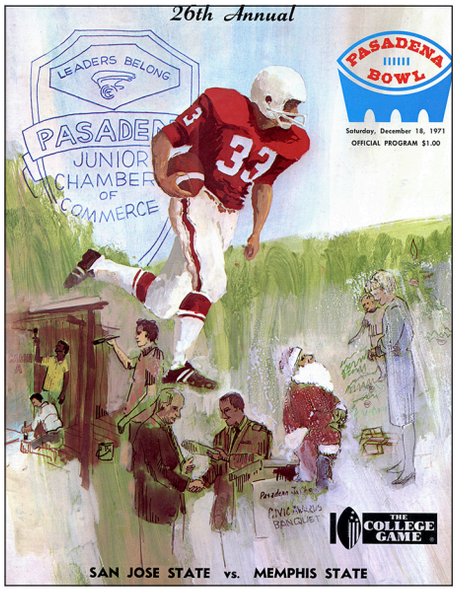

San Jose's only touchdown was set up when a pass from center sailed over punter John Kidwell's head and was recovered at the Memphis 20-yard line. A quarterback keeper by Brad Metheany, with 36 seconds left in the contest, got the Spartans their only touchdown. The extra point attempt was wide left.

The victory over San Jose State marked the second bowl win for the Tigers in school history. The game also marked the end of an era in Tiger football history. Head coach Billy J. Murphy stepped down from his coaching position following the bowl win and dedicated his time to being the University's athletic director.

The former Marine compiled a record of 91-44-1 over his 14 seasons as head coach at Memphis.

NEW ORLEANS BOWL • 2003

|---|---|
| NORTH TEXAS | 17 |

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME (69,767)
DECEMBER 16, 2003

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The nation's longest bowl drought of 32 years ended in a big way for the University of Memphis. The Tigers, which had not participated in a bowl game since 1971, received a bid to the 2003 New Orleans Bowl to face Sun Belt Conference champion North Texas after a stellar 8-4 season.

The city of Memphis was electrified. Excitement abounded and Tiger faithful began buying tickets and preparing for the trip to the "Big Easy."

Playing in the first bowl game of the 2003 postseason and before a national television audience on ESPN, the Tigers were challenged to stop the nation's top running back in Patrick Cobbs of UNT. And Memphis would have to succeed without the services of its top tailback, DeAngelo Williams.

Memphis won the coin toss and deferred until the second half, giving the Mean Green the ball.

UNT gave the ball to Cobbs six times on the opening drive, but were forced to call on kicker Nick Bazaldua when the drive stalled at the Tiger 30-yard line. Bazaldua booted a 47-yard field goal for the UNT 3-0 lead.

But this night belonged to the bowl-hungry Tigers and the North Texas lead was short-lived.

After U of M receiver Chris Kelley returned the kickoff to the Memphis 34-yard line, junior quarterback and New Orleans native Danny Wimprine took over.

When rushes by Darron White and Derron Parquet failed to gain yardage, Wimprine went up top and connected with wideout Darren Garcia for 63 yards to the UNT 6-yard line. Three plays later, Wimprine kept the ball and raced seven yards into the end zone for the go-ahead score.

The Tiger defense, having had a taste of the North Texas offense, returned to the field determined to shut down the Mean Green. Three plays later, punter Brad Kadlubar kicked the ball back to the Tigers.

But possible disaster struck on the Tigers' next possession as tailback Parquet was knocked out of the game with a shoulder injury. Memphis was forced to put the ball in the hands of walk-on back LaKendus Cole to win the game.

Midway through the second quarter, North Texas was forced to punt and the Memphis offense got the ball at the Memphis 24. Powered by the running of Cole and the passing of Wimprine, the Tigers drove the ball to the UNT 10-yard line before Wimprine found Kelley in the end zone for the team's second score of the game. Stephen Gostkowski added the extra point, and the Tiger lead was 14-3.

Lightning soon struck again. On the ensuing kickoff, Memphis' Shaka Hill stripped the ball from returner Kevin Moore and Cato Mott recovered at the UNT 8-yard line. After three plays, Gostkowski was called on and connected on a 21-yard field goal.

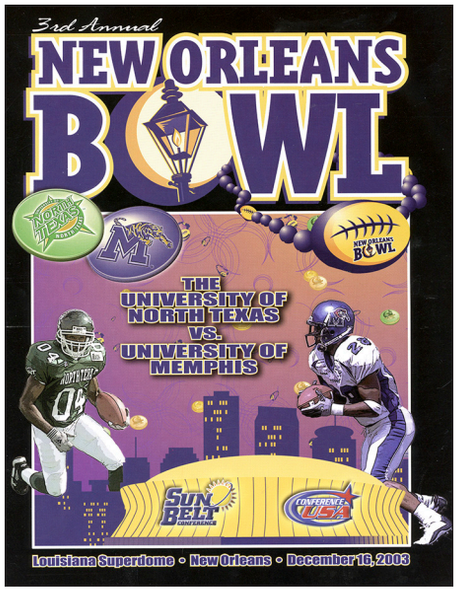

The Tigers went to the locker room with a 17-3 halftime lead.

The third stanza of the game became a defensive battle, as both teams were unable to move the ball until the two-minute mark.

The Mean Green, starting near midfield, marched 58 yards in six plays with Cobbs going the final 35 yards for their first touchdown of the night. Suddenly, the score read Memphis 17, North Texas 10, as the third quarter ended.

With 12:28 left in the contest, Memphis regained the ball at its own 38-yard line.

Wimprine hit receiver Darron White for 20 yards, and fullback Robert Douglas gained three on his first carry of the game. After a facemask penalty against UNT, Cole had gains of two yards and 14 yards to the Mean Green 5-yard line. On second-and-goal, the sophomore from Houston High in Memphis burst up the middle for the touchdown and a 24-10 lead. It was Cole's first collegiate touchdown and gave Memphis an insurmountable lead.

North Texas fought hard, and with 2:26 left in the game, scored again on Cobb's run of two yards.

But the Tigers immediately pushed the Mean Green down field for another score. This one iced the victory that had been so long awaited.

With Cole gaining yards on the ground and Wimprine connecting with receivers Mario Pratcher and John Doucette, Memphis moved within field goal range, and Gostkowski brought on the celebration with a 42-yard kick.

As the final seconds ticked off the clock, the players gave head coach Tommy West the traditional cooler bath and then carried their coach onto the field on their shoulders.

New Orleans Bowl director Ron Maestri presented the Tigers the championship trophy at midfield, and Wimprine was named the game's MVP.

LaKendus Cole was presented the game ball by Coach West after rushing for 62 yards and one score in a reserve role.

Memphis completed the 2003 season with a record of 9-4, marking the best finish by a Tiger team since the 1963 season.

GMAC BOWL • 2004

LADD PEEBLES STADIUM (40,646)
DECEMBER 22, 2004

MOBILE, Ala. — In an aerial battle before a rain-drenched 29,500 at Ladd-Peebles Stadium, Memphis' Danny Wimprine and Bowling Green's Omar Jacobs put on a show for the ESPN national television audience. In the end, Jacobs won the shootout in leading the Falcons to a high-scoring 52-35 GMAC Bowl victory over the Tigers.

Jacobs, the GMAC Bowl MVP, connected on 26-of-44 passes for 365 yards and five touchdowns. Not to be outdone, Wimprine was just as impressive. The Tigers' senior quarterback was 26-of-39 passing for 324 yards and four touchdowns. Each signal-caller had one interception.

Wimprine and Jacobs received help from each team's running game. For the Tigers, DeAngelo Williams, the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year, carried the ball 18 times for 120 yards, including an impressive 31-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Williams missed the final quarter after breaking his right fibula in the third period. P.J. Pope aided the Falcons' cause with 151 rushing yards on 28 carries and two scores.

The offensive fireworks started almost from the opening kickoff. After Bowling Green held the Tigers on their first possession, the Falcons took over on their own 41. Nine plays later, Pope found the end zone from a yard out for a 7-0 Bowling Green lead.

However, the Falcons were not done. On the ensuing kickoff, Bowling Green pulled some trickery out of the playbook early with an onsides kick. The Falcons recovered the kick, and the Bowling Green offense was back in business. Jacobs directed a four-play, 52-yard drive in only 45 seconds to give the Falcons a 14-0 lead just over five minutes into the contest. The score came when Jacobs connected with Charles Sharon from 18 yards out.

Memphis got its second possession of the game and took little time cutting the Bowling Green lead in half. The Tigers went 80 yards in seven plays, and the drive culminated in a Wimprine-to-John Doucette 42-yard touchdown toss with 6:51 left in the first quarter.

With the game taking on a back-and-forth nature, the Falcons answered immediately. Jacobs led Bowling Green on a six-play, 68-yard drive over the next 2:05 to put the Falcons ahead 21-7. Jacobs hooked up with Sharon for a 36-yard scoring toss.

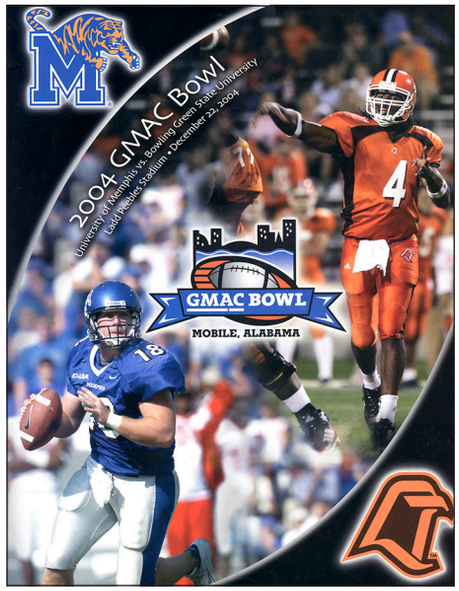

In the second quarter, the Tigers scored 17 seconds into the period on a Wimprine 60-yard pass to Chris Kelley. The score began a five-touchdown quarter that ended with the Falcons holding a 35-28 halftime lead. Memphis was able to pull even at 28-all on a Williams' 31-yard touchdown scamper with 3:37 left. Bowling Green, though, had one final answer before halftime. Jacobs threw his fourth touchdown pass of the first half when he found Steve Sanders in the end zone with only :37 on the clock. The score gave the Falcons a 35-28 lead and the momentum heading into the second half.

After the break, Bowling Green took control of the game. The Falcons scored the lone touchdown in the third quarter -- Jacob's fifth touchdown pass -- and added 10 points in the final quarter before Memphis' last score with under five minutes to play for the 52-35 final.

Tim Goodwell finished the game with 10 total tackles (five solo), two TFL and a quarterback sack to lead the Tiger defense. Jovon Burkes led the Bowling Green defense with 11 hits (six solo) and two TFL.

Wimprine went over 10,000 yards passing and finished his career with nearly every Tiger passing record. The Tiger quarterback tops the Memphis record book for career passing yards (10,215), completions (808), attempts (1,469) and touchdowns (81).

Before his third quarter injury, Williams went over 4,000 career rushing yards. The 100-yard GMAC Bowl performance was the 24th 100-yard rushing game of his career.

FORD FIELD (50,616)

DETROIT, Mich. — It was the holiday season, and the Memphis Tiger football team gave its fans a Merry Christmas – even though it came a day later. Behind a DeAngelo Williams 238-yard rushing performance and three Stephen Gostkowski field goals, the Tigers posted their second postseason victory in three seasons with a 38-31 win over Akron in the 2005 Motor City Bowl. The game was played at Ford Field, the site of the NFL's 2006 Super Bowl in early February.

Williams, who was named the Motor City Bowl MVP, compiled his bowl record-setting 238 yards on 31 carries and scored three touchdowns. Gostkowski hit field goals of 32, 25 and 50 yards, and the 50-yard effort set a Motor City Bowl mark.

The way the game started gave no indication it would end up being a 38-31 shootout. The Memphis offense sputtered at the start, and the Tigers relied on their defense and punter Michael Gibson's foot. The Tiger defense allowed the Zips only three points, despite having two first-quarter drives deep in Memphis territory. Akron got the field goal on its second drive, but on the first trip across the 50 yard line, the Zips' series was halted at the Memphis 25 when Tim Goodwell and Rod Smith stopped Brett Biggs on 4th-and-1. Gibson played just as important a role in the first quarter with two long punts – 51 and 49 yards – that pinned Akron inside its own 10 yard line both times.

After watching the defense keep the Tigers in the game in the first quarter, the Memphis offense got on track in the second frame. Williams, who gained only 19 yards in the first quarter, picked it up on the Tigers' first scoring drive with 34 yards on the ground. Tiger quarterback Maurice Avery also found his groove in the second quarter, hitting Ernest Williams on a 42-yard strike to the Akron 23. Four plays later, Gostkowski connected on a 32-yard field goal to tie the contest at 3-all.

The Tigers kept it going. The defense held the Zips to three-and-out on their next series, and the Memphis offense continued to roll. On the first play of the ensuing drive, Avery found his target in Ryan Scott for a 50-yard gain to the Akron 2 yard line. Williams then pushed the ball across the goal line for the first Memphis lead of the game. After Gostkowski's PAT, the Tigers led 10-3.

With just over four minutes left before halftime, Akron got the ball with an opportunity to cut into the Tiger lead, but it didn't happen. The Tiger offense took over with 2:30 on the clock and took advantage of another scoring chance. After two rushes netted a minus-3 yards, Avery took back to the air and again hit Scott for a long gain – this time, 48 yards – to the Akron 27. From there, the Tigers moved the ball to the Zips 7, where Gostkowski hit his second field goal for a 13-3 Tiger halftime lead.

The early portion of the second half looked no different for the Akron offense. Stymied by the Tigers in the first half, the Zips were unable to get past their own 40 yard line on the first two possessions. Aided by two Akron defensive pass interference calls, the Tigers moved down to the Akron 2, where Williams scored his second touchdown for a 20-3 Memphis lead.

With only three minutes left in the third quarter and down 20-3, the Zips scored via the air on the ensuing drive. Zips quarterback Luke Getsy was 6-of-7 passing for 80 yards on the series that resulted in a 46-yard scoring strike to Jabari Arthur to cut the Tiger lead to 20-10.

The game moved into the fourth quarter, and the shootout began. Gostkowski got it started with a 50-yard field goal for a 23-10 Tiger lead. Akron responded with a quick three-play, 80-yard drive to cut the Memphis lead to 23-17. The big play was a Getsy-to-Biggs 72-yard scoring strike.

The Tigers then answered with their own big play in the form of Williams. With the Zips closing in and also gaining momentum, Memphis' All-America running back took a handoff and raced 67 yards to the Akron 2. On the next play, Williams scored his third touchdown. Avery added the two-point conversion for a 31-17 Memphis advantage. The Tigers added another score on an Ernest Williams 5-yard run to increase the lead to 38-17 with only 6:38 left.

However, the Zips did not quit. Akron scored two touchdowns in under six minutes to pull to within seven at 38-31 with only 50 seconds left. The Zips' first drive took nearly five minutes, and ended when Getsy hit Domenik Hixon from 14 yards out. The Akron special teams then executed a perfect on-side kick, and recovered the ball at midfield with 1:45 left. One minute later, Getsy connected with Arthur for a 19-yard touchdown pass to cut the Tiger lead to 38-31.

The Zips tried their magic one more time, but this time, the Tiger special teams recovered the on-side kick, and ran out the clock for the win.

Goodwell, who received the UAW Lineman Award, led the Tiger defense with 12 tackles, five TFLs and two sacks.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Four out of five. Let's say it again! For the fourth time in the last five seasons, the Memphis Tiger football team earned a postseason bowl berth.

Despite their 44-27 setback to Florida Atlantic in the 2007 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, the Tigers and their fans had a lot to be proud of when looking at the entire 2007 campaign. The season began with a tough start, but Memphis caught its stride in late October and rode that wave to a fourth bowl game under head coach Tommy West.

Let's take a quick review:

- A bowl looked like a distant dream after a 2-4 start to the season.
- The schedule took on a major shift when the Sept. 8 game at Arkansas State was postponed due to inclement weather. The contest was moved to Sept. 27, making the Tigers play three games in 11 days.
- After losing the first two games in the rugged three-games-in-11-days stretch, the Tigers suffered an even greater loss on the night of Sept. 30 when defensive lineman Taylor Bradford was shot and later died. After two days of emotional outpouring, the Memphis players took the field arm-in-arm for its Conference USA home opener versus Marshall. The Tigers won the game 24-21.
- With a home loss to Middle Tennessee in mid-October, bowl hopes were all but lost with three of the next four C-USA games on the road.
- As was the trend in the Coach West era, the Tigers did not fold. Memphis won all three league road games (at Rice, Tulane and Southern Miss) in that stretch and repositioned itself in the bowl picture.
- The Tigers sealed the bowl invitation with back-to-back home wins over UAB and SMU to close the regular season.

So, you ask, what did the Tigers accomplish?

- A winning record for the fourth time in the last five years (2003-07). The last time Memphis did that was from 1973-77 when the Tigers had five-straight winning seasons.
- Six conference wins, the most league victories in school history.
- A second-place C-USA East Division finish, the second in three years.
- A fourth bowl in the last five years, the first time for a stretch like that in school history.

Granted, the bowl setback to Florida Atlantic put a small bitter taste in the mouths of the Tigers, but Memphis' "never-give-up" attitude kept them in the game until the end, despite several injuries that sidelined key Tigers. Kicker Matt Reagan left the game with a concussion and receiver Maurice Jones was sidelined with a dislocated hip. In addition, T.J. Pitts broke his ankle and quarterback Martin Hankins was knocked out of the game with a knee injury in the third quarter.

Before a crowd of 25,146 at the Louisiana Superdome, seniors Martin Hankins and Joseph Doss went out in style with solid performances. Hankins was 25-of-39 passing for 281 yards and three scores, while Doss rushed for 91 yards on 20 carries and caught a team-high five passes for 42 yards.

With his 281 yards passing, Hankins set the Memphis single-season mark with 3,220 yards. He also set season records for completions (261) and touchdowns (25). For his career, Hankins totaled 5,770 yards, 43 touchdowns and 487 completions — all second to Danny Wimprine.

In the game, Hankins' favorite targets were Carlos Singleton (4 receptions/63 yards/1 TD) and Duke Calhoun (4 catches/40 yards). With their receptions, both Singleton and Calhoun extended streaks. Singleton extended his streak to 21 games with a reception, while Calhoun caught a pass in all 24 of his collegiate games.

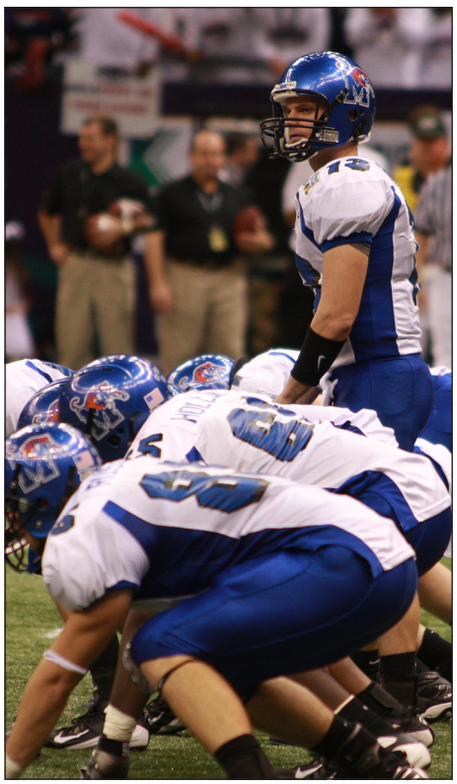

After a first quarter warm-up with Florida Atlantic leading 17-7, the teams combined for 26 points in the second period. Two Joey Mack field goals kept the Tigers close, but the Owls answered with touchdowns for a 30-13 lead. However, Memphis closed the gap to 30-20 just before the half, when Hankins hit Earnest Williams from 19 yards out.

Following halftime, Memphis cut further into the Florida Atlantic lead. A Hankins-to-Singleton six-yard scoring connection sliced the Owl lead to 30-27 with 9:30 left in the third quarter. However, Florida Atlantic scored the final two touchdowns for the 44-27 final.

Punter Brent Sutherland set a New Orleans Bowl record with a 70-yard punt in the fourth quarter. He finished the game with six punts for a 45.2 average.

Clinton McDonald led the Memphis defense with eight total tackles, while Jeremy Rockette and LaKeitharun Ford each had seven hits. McDonald also had one quarterback sack and two TFLs. LeRico Mathis recorded his third interception of the season, tying him for team-high honors with Brandon Patterson.

ST. PETERSBURG BOWL • 2008

|---|---|
| USF | 41 |

TROPICANA FIELD (33,000)
DECEMBER 20, 2008

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — This was the bowl game head coach Tommy West wanted for his program. Sure, he and his Tigers enjoyed their bowl trips four of the previous five years. But, this invitation to the inaugural magicJack St. Petersburg Bowl was — in Coach West's eyes — an opportunity to see where Memphis stood on the national scene, no matter the game's outcome.

The bowl game had Memphis playing its first BCS league foe in school postseason history, as the Tigers faced the USF Bulls. While the previous bowl trips were important in their own right, Coach West believed this bowl would set the course for the direction of the program's future.

The Bulls won the game 41-14 before a predominantly pro-USF crowd of 25,205 at Tropicana Field, home of the MLB American League champion Tampa Bay Rays. The appearance at Tropicana Field made history for the Tigers, as it was the first time Memphis played in a Major League Baseball stadium.

As for the game, it pitted one of the nation's best rushing offenses (Memphis) against one of the country's top rushing defenses (USF), and on this day, the defense won the battle. The Tigers entered the contest averaging over 200 yards via their ground game, but the Bulls had the nation's ninth-best rushing defense and it showed. USF held Memphis to only 66 yards on 30 carries, and Tiger running back Curtis Steele, a 1,000-yard rusher, gained most of those with 48 yards on 12 rushes.

While the Bulls' defense shut down the Memphis offense, the Tiger defense had no answer for USF quarterback Matt Grothe, who was named the bowl game's MVP. Grothe was 17-of-24 passing for 236 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 83 yards on 15 carries. He also had one reception for 14 yards. Grothe did all of his damage in the first three quarters, as he sat out the final period.

The Bulls got started early and never looked back. On the game's opening kickoff, USF's Dontavia Bogan took Matt Reagan's kickoff at the 1 yard line and returned it 56 yards to the Memphis 43. Three plays later, the Bulls were on the board when Grothe hit Taurus Johnson with a 28-yard scoring strike for a 7-0 lead. The USF scoring drive only took 1:02 off the clock.

Later on in the first period, USF struck again on a short six-play drive. Grothe was 3-of-3 passing for 57 yards in putting the Bulls at the Memphis 4 yard line. From there, Ben Williams gained the final four yards and increased the USF lead to 14-0.

However, West's Tigers did not go away. On the ensuing drive, Memphis marched 73 yards on six plays and cut the USF advantage in half at 14-7. The drive only took 2:19, and it ended when Tiger quarterback Arkelon Hall hit paydirt from three yards out.

The Bulls, though, took the momentum back on their next possession. After striking quickly on its first two scoring drives, USF put together a lengthy 14-play, 63-yard possession that ended in a Maikon Bonani 23-yard field goal for a 17-7 advantage. The drive took 5:51 off the clock.

After holding the Tigers on their next possession, USF had another five-minute scoring drive — this time, 5:24 — that culminated in a Grothe-to-Ben Busbee 13-yard touchdown connection to give the Bulls a 24-7 lead with only 4:15 left before halftime.

Again, the Tigers mounted a response. With a little over four minutes before intermission, Memphis started on its own 20, and Hall led the way. The Tiger quarterback was 7-of-10 passing for 60 yards, including a two-yard touchdown pass to Duke Calhoun with 0:08 left in the second quarter. The score cut the USF lead to 24-14 at the break and pulled momentum back to the Tigers' side.

That momentum, however, swung back to the Bulls in the third quarter. The USF defense held Memphis to only 60 yards on its first two second-half drives, while the Bulls' offense capitalized with 10 points to increase their lead to 34-14 by the end of the third quarter. Bonani added a 37-yard field goal midway through the third quarter, and Grothe threw his third touchdown pass near the end of the period to put the contest out of reach.

The Bulls added a final touchdown early in the fourth quarter for the 41-14 final.

Hall was 15-of-31 passing for 154 yards and one score. Calhoun was the Tigers' leading receiver with a game-high six catches for 39 yards and one touchdown. Brandon Patterson led the Tiger defense with nine tackles.

Grothe's primary targets were Carlton Mitchell (60 yards) and Johnson (40 yards, 1 TD), who each had four receptions. Tyron McKenzie led the USF defense with a game-best 11 tackles.

Memphis had to overcome five turnovers including a 19-yard, BYU interception return for a touchdown with 7:48 to play in regulation which gave the Cougars a 45-38 lead.

In the final minutes of the fourth quarter the Tigers had to convert two, fourth-down plays. The second conversion resulted in a five-yard touchdown pass from Paxton Lynch to Keiwone Malone with 45 seconds to play to help tie the game at 45-45.

In the first overtime period, Jake Elliott needed to kick the longest field goal ever in an overtime period – a 54-yarder – just to send the game on to a second overtime series.

And after Memphis had scored in the second overtime period, DaShaughn Terry intercepted a pass on BYU's second play from scrimmage to end the game.

Quarterback Paxton Lynch equaled an NCAA bowl record for touchdowns responsible for with seven en route to being named the Miam Beach Bowl's Most Valuable Player.

Lynch completed 24-of-46 passes for 306 yards and four touchdowns including the game-winning, 11-yard strike to Roderick Proctor in the end zone to cap Memphis' second overtime series on offense. Lynch also ran for 38 yards and three scores.

In his final game as a Tiger, Malone caught six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns. He also had a career-long, 41-yard run in the game.

The two teams combined to run an NCAA bowl record-tying 188 offensive plays, including 97 by the Tigers (tied for seventh-most in a bowl game), and accounted for a combined 905 yards of offense.

Memphis twice led by 10 points in the game, the last coming with 3:45 to play in the third quarter, when Alan Cross hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Lynch.

The Cougars wold take advantage of three, fourth-quarter Memphis turnovers to go from 10 points down to leading 45-38 when Zac Stout returned his interception for a score with 7:48 to play.

Late in the game and the Tigers trailing by seven, punter Nick Jacobs pinned BYU at its own four-yard line. A three-and-out series by the Cougars followed by a short punt and a nine-yard return by Joe Craig gave the Tigers the ball at the BYU 33 with 2:34 left in the fourth quarter.

Lynch and Malone would first hook up on a fourth-and-seven pass play for a 15-yard pickup to the Cougar 11. Four plays later and facing another fourth down, Lynch would scramble and Malone would make a diving catch in the end zone to help tie the game in the final minute.

Trevor Samson kicked a 45-yard field goal to give BYU a 48-45 lead in the first overtime period. After Memphis' first offensive series in overtime lost 12 yards on three plays, Elliott was called on to boot the 54-yard field goal to extend the game. In addition to being the longest in an overtime period, the field goal tied for the fourth-longest in a bowl game.

In the second overtime period, Malone caught a 15-yard pass on second down and following a Brandon Hayes' four-yard run, Lynch found Proctor open in the end zone for the rookie's first career touchdown reception.

Senior receiver Keiwone Malone caught six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns including a five-yard TD grab on a fourth-down play late in the fourth quarter to tie the game and send it to overtime.

BIRMINGHAM BOWL • 2015

LEGION FIELD (71,594)
DECEMBER 30, 2015

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – In front of a Birmingham Bowl-record crowd of 59,430, the Memphis Tigers overcame a 10-point first half deficit, however, Auburn scored all of the game's 21 second-half points en route to a 31-10 win at Legion Field.

The historic record-breaking season for Memphis ended with a 9-4 overall record, and the program's second straight bowl game appearance. During the season the team set single-season records with 522 points, 64 touchdowns, 6,331 offensive yards, and 322 first downs.

The record-breaking season added two more notches to its belt when Memphis recorded its 95th third-down conversion of the season, breaking the record previously set in 2007, and ending with 101 for the season. The second record came in the middle of the third quarter when the Tigers eclipsed the team single-season passing yard mark, previously set in 2007, and now stands at 3,995.

Paxton Lynch, who has single-season school records for touchdown passes, passing yards, and 300-yard passing games was 17-of-38 behind center for 104 yards. The rushing attack was paced by Doroland Dorceus who ran 10 times for 39 yards, and Jarvis Cooper had five rushes for 35 yards. Mose Frazier and Phil Mayhue each hauled in four receptions, with Frazier going for 46 yards.

Memphis forced three turnovers, two on Reggis Ball interceptions, and the third on an interception from Dontrell Nelson.

Auburn used trickery on its first drive of the game, converting a fake punt for a 37-yard pass to the Memphis 3-yard line; however, the defense tightened and did not allow another positive yard, forcing the Tigers to a 20-yard field goal, staking the visitors on the scoreboard to a 3-0 lead.

On its second drive of the game, Auburn got a 9-yard rush from Kerryon Johnson to push Auburn's advantage to 10-0 with just under two minutes remaining in the first quarter.

With 10:03 to play in the second quarter, Memphis kicker and Lou Groza Award finalist Jake Elliott booted a 53-yard field goal, tied for the third-longest in program history, and cutting the Memphis deficit to seven at 10-3, while breaking the Birmingham Bowl record for the longest field goal in the process.

It was Elliott's sixth career field goal of 52 yards or more, as he owns four of the five longest field goals in program history (the other is held by current New England Patriots kicker Stephen Gostkowski). Elliott's kick also tied a school record for most field goals in a season, as he moved even with Joe Allison's total from the 1992 season.

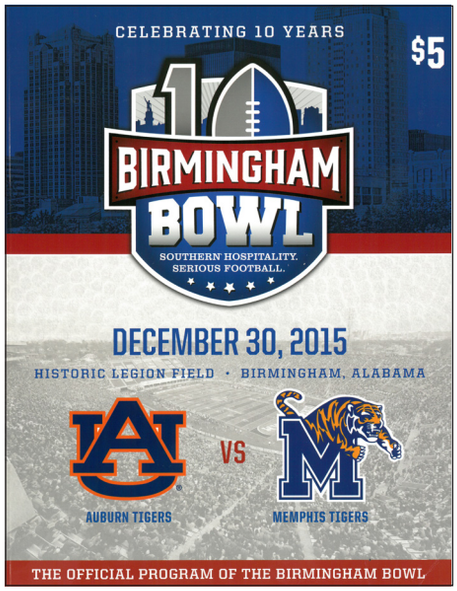

On Memphis' next possession, Elliott was set to take sole possession of the field goal record, but his 34-yard attempt was blocked, keeping the Auburn advantage at 10-3 with 5:55 to play in the opening half.

After stopping Auburn near midfield, the visitors on the scoreboard attempted a fourth-down pass that was picked off by Ball for his second interception in the game by the senior, this one returned 56 yards for his first collegiate touchdown, knotting the score at 10 points apiece and sending the teams into the locker room deadlocked through the first 30 minutes of play.

Memphis came out of the halftime break and drove 56 yards on 13 plays, taking the ball down to the Auburn 9-yard line before his pass attempt was tipped and intercepted in the end zone.

Two possessions later, Auburn used eight plays to drive 44 yards, scoring when quarterback Jeremy Johnson found Jason Smith out of the backfield, and Smith evaded to Memphis tacklers on his way to the end zone, giving Auburn a 17-10 lead halfway through the second quarter.

Auburn went ahead 24-10 on the first play of the fourth quarter when Johnson rushed in from five yards out with 14:57 remaining in the contest. Following a 56-yard punt return after Memphis' next possession, Auburn's Javon Robinson scored his first touchdown of the game from 4 yards out, pushing Auburn's lead to 21 at 31-10 with 12:57 to play.

UNDEFEATED TEAMS

Three University of Memphis football teams have gone undefeated since the Tigers first took up the sport in 1912. The most recent Memphis team to go through a season without a defeat was the 1963 squad which ended the year 9-0-1.

Memphis began its football program in 1912 and compiled a 1-2-1 record under head coach Clyde Wilson. The Tigers, then known as West Tennessee State Normal School, played Memphis University School to a scoreless tie in the first football game played at Memphis on October 5. The Tiger football squad notched its first victory three weeks later on October 26 against Bolton Agricultural 13-0. They eventually lost the final two games of the season to Christian Brothers College and MUS.

The first undefeated team was coach Zach Curlin's 1929 squad which posted an 8-0-2 record, scoring 146 points and limiting the Tigers' 10 opponents to a mere 27 points. Memphis, which was captained by Slick Headden and Joe Koch, captured the Mississippi Valley Conference Championship with that undefeated season.

Coach Allyn McKeen fielded one of the nation's highest scoring teams in 1938, a season which saw the Tigers finish with a 10-0-0 record. Memphis scored 281 points during the year, while only yielding 41 points. The biggest margin of victory was a 68-0 thrashing of Cumberland College. The Tigers also defeated Arkansas A&M 50-0 later in the season. Roland McMackin captained the 1938 Tigers.

The 1963 Memphis football team had only a scoreless tie with Ole Miss between them and a perfect season. The Tigers finished with a 9-0-1 record under head coach Billy J. Murphy. Unlike the 1938 team, which was noted for its offense, this team made its mark as a defensive club. There were five shutouts, and the five remaining teams scored only 52 points. The Tigers, captained by Richard Saccoccia, rolled up 199 points.

The 1963 squad had wins over Southern Miss (28-7), Tulsa (28-15), North Texas State (21-0), West Texas State (29-14), Mississippi State (17-10), Louisville (25-0), South Carolina (9-0), Chattanooga (13-0) and Houston (29-6).

Senior fullback Dave Casinelli led the NCAA in rushing and scoring during the 1963 season. Casinelli rushed for 1,016 yards and scored 84 points. He is the only Tiger back to win the national rushing and scoring titles.

TIGERS FOOTBALL THROUGH THE YEARS

Following are chronological notes and interesting facts about the rich tradition of Tigers football. Parts of this section were taken from Memphis State Football: The Fighting Tigers, written by Charles Holmes and William Sorrels. If you have any questions or can add facts to this section, please contact the Athletics Communications Office at 901-678-2337.

- The doors of West Tennessee State Normal School opened at 10 a.m., on the morning of September 10, 1912. Less than 300 students were enrolled in the two-year teachers school located in rural Shelby County. The campus consisted of three buildings that were erected at a cost of $450,000. President Seymore Mynders presided over a faculty that consisted of 25 teachers, including a young manual education instructor named Clyde Wilson.
- On October 5, 1912, West Tennessee State Normal School played its first football game at Red Elm Park, home of the Memphis Turtles baseball team. The game pitted the Normals of WTSNS against MUS. Game time was slated for 2 p.m., and trollies from downtown Memphis were decorated with blue and gray ribbons, the official colors of the new school located in Shelby County. The Normals had put together a team that consisted of numerous Messick High School stars, including Brian and Don Hanley, and the Howerton brothers. Clyde Wilson, who had volunteered to coach the football boys, led his charges to a 0-0 draw with the powerful MUS squad. The game featured a 16-minute first half and a 12-minute second stanza. Thus started Tiger football.
- West Tennessee State Normal School's first football victory came in the 1912 season, when the Tudors defeated Bolton Agricultural College 13-0.
- West Tennessee State Normal School opened practice for the 1913 season on Sept. 17, 1913, and later that same day, President Seymore Mynders died and a grieving campus thought little of the football season at hand. In the first game of the year, the Blue and Gray lost 67-0 to Memphis High School, and the team never really recovered. Had it not been for a 13-0 win over Somerville High, WTSNS would have gone through the 1913 season winless.
- Two assistant coaches were added in 1914 when the Normals faced the school's first eight-game schedule. Hubert Dennison and Hugh Chandler were named to assist Clyde Wilson. On Sept. 14, 1914, The Commercial Appeal ran a photograph of Coach Wilson, marking the first time a photo involving Normal football appeared in local print.
- In 1915, Cull Cullpepper joined the faculty at WTSNS after a brilliant football career at Auburn. With Cullpepper assisting Wilson, expectations were high for the coming football season. Normal opened the season with two disappointing losses to the Arkansas Aggies and Memphis HS, but then swamped Somerville HS 75-0. A close loss to MUS was followed by three victories to close out the campaign. After the final game, there was a spontaneous student parade, "with banners flying and with Normal yells and songs rending the atmosphere." Several students, in their exuberance, shouted, "We fight like Tigers!" A new nickname was born.
- Tom Shea, a renowned football player from the powerful Vanderbilt team, took over as head coach in 1916 and immediately led his team to the greatest barn burner in the school's history. On October 14, 1916, West Tennessee State Normal School defeated Somerville HS 115-0 in the highest scoring game in Memphis history. In that contest, Elton McClure, a halfback, scored six touchdowns. Hugh Washburn, Rollin Wilson and Charlie DeSaussure tallied three scores each, while Lacy Branson, Bob Berry and John McDougle each crossed the goal line once. Washburn kicked seven PATs.
- The 1919 season found Bic Campbell become head football coach but early season injuries took Hugh Washburn, H.K. Grantham, Bob Berry, Rollin Wilson and Pete McIntosh. None were able to return for the 1919 campaign and the final team record was 3-4-0.

See State Normal football falling to its lowest ebb. The 1920 squad posted a record of 0-5-0 and, in fact, scored only one touchdown on the season, that coming in the final contest of the year. So dismal was the football atmosphere that it appeared Normal would abandon the game in 1921.

- The 1921 season opened with no coach and the realization that five starters had transferred to Union University. Rollin Wilson, a stunt pilot who was twice an All-Memphis selection at quarterback during his playing days for Normal, volunteered to coach the team. Wilson trained the young players and put together an amazing 4-5-1 record. Following the season, President A.A. Kincannon decided to employ a full-time athletic director and coach. The job was given to Lester Barnard.
- With John Barnhill playing center, the 1922 team won five games, the most victories in a single season since the school's inception. Barnhill would go on to become a renowned head coach at Arkansas and Tennessee. Barnhill Arena in Fayetteville was named in his honor.
- The "high school era" ended in 1923 for West Tennessee State Normal School. From 1923 on, WTSNS would play only college teams and no longer would high school teams be accepted as opponents. Coach Barnard instilled the Tiger spirit in every man and each pregame prayer concluded with the whispered statement "Every Man A Tiger." Barnard left Memphis in 1923 to become the head coach at Central Michigan Normal College. Thus began the Zach Curlin era.
- Zachery Henry Curlin became the athletic director, and head coach, in the fall of 1924. He remained with the Tigers as football coach and athletic director for 14 years, continuing to serve the institution until his retirement in 1960. Curlin had been a standout football player at Vanderbilt and came to the Normals with high recommendations.
- The downtown newspapers began to use the nickname "The Tigers" more and more prior to the 1925 season. However, in 1925 the name of the school was changed to West Tennessee State Teachers College and publications began referring to the football team as the "Teachers or Tudors." The Tiger nickname would not return for 15 years.
- Under the direction of captain Graham Crawford, the 1927 Normals lost just two games, while capturing wins over Arkansas State College, Will Mayfield, Delta State College, Bethel, Lambuth and Arkansas A&M.
- West Tennessee State Teachers College joined its first conference, the Mississippi Valley Conference, which included UT-Martin Junior College, Sunflower Junior College, Bethel, Delta State, Murray Normal, Lambuth and Little Rock College.
- Allyn McKeen, who was practicing law in Memphis, volunteered to assist Curlin with the team in 1929. McKeen brought a more modern version of football to WTSTC, having just recently graduated from the University of Tennessee. That version was the single-wing. With players like Frank McGoffin, Gene Fulghum, captain Jimmy Graham and Rabbit Evans, the Teachers went undefeated, posting an 8-0-2 record and winning the school's first conference championship. Graham, who had become accustomed to playing without his helmet, learned the hard way that what the coaches said was law. When McKeen caught Graham entering a game without his helmet, he took a roll of adhesive tape and attached the helmet to Graham's head.
- On September 28, 1929, WTSTC played its first night football game. The contest, which pitted the Teachers against Sunflower Junior College, was played at Hodges Field "beneath the rays of 20 powerful projectors." The Commercial Appeal wrote that the Teachers had no trouble seeing the ball at night as the locals won the game, 20-0, before 1,500 fans.

- The 1930s opened with the Teachers again winning the Mississippi Valley Conference championship with a 6-3-1 record. In a runaway game against Arkansas State College, Sam Johnson scored five touchdowns and kicked seven PATs to lead the Teachers to a 73-0 victory.
- In 1935, WTSTC left the Mississippi Valley Conference and joined the SIAA (Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association) along with Middle Tennessee State College, Louisiana College, Delta State College, Troy State Teachers College, TPI (Tennessee Tech), Union University and Murray State Normal.
- After an 0-9-0 record in 1936, Curlin stepped down as head football coach to devote his attention to his job as intramural director. Allyn McKeen was brought back to become head coach, and he immediately hired a friend from Tennessee as his assistant line coach. That assistant was Cecil C. "Sonny" Humphreys. In an effort to increase a very small athletic budget, each faculty member pledged a week's salary to support the athletic program.
- In 1937, West Tennessee State Teachers College had five buildings, 698 students and an annual budget of $56,000.
- The 1938 season became WTSTC's only undefeated and untied campaign in the school's history. After posting a perfect 10-0-0 record, the Associated Press in New York (November 21, 1938) declared WTSTC as the nation's scoring champions with San Jose State second. McKeen's Teachers were invited to play San Jose State in the Prune Bowl in California, but due to a limited budget, school officials asked for a financial guarantee before taking the team to California. The guarantee never came and the boys from Memphis stayed home in 1938.
- Allyn McKeen did not return as coach in 1939. He was hired by Mississippi State College as head football coach and has since been enshrined in the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame for his accomplishments at the two schools. Cecil Humphreys was named head coach at a salary of $200 per month.

- West Tennessee State Teachers College became Memphis State College in 1941.
- Ed Molinski, a three-time all-American at the University of Tennessee, became an assistant for Humphreys in 1941 and helped guide the team to seven wins. However, the winds of war loomed in the not too distant future.
- On December 7, 1941, the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor and on the morning of December 8, 1941, C.C. Humphreys joined the FBI, accepting a position in counterintelligence. Most of the players enlisted in the armed forces after the 1942 season and football was disbanded until the 1947 season.
- When football returned to Memphis State's campus in 1947, Cecil C. Humphreys was hired as athletic director and he in turn hired an old friend from the University of Tennessee to coach the football team. That friend was Ralph Hatley. Upon Hatley's hiring, the coaching staff searched for ideas to improve Tiger football after the four-year delay caused by World War II. To put players in game situations, Hatley and his staff created the first Blue-Gray Spring Game. It was played in April of 1947.
- The 1947 roster featured all new players. No football lettermen from prior to World War II returned and, for only the second time in the school's history, a coach was forced to start from scratch. The first and only other time was Clyde Wilson's first team in 1912. With the help of a young assistant coach who had returned from the War as a decorated Marine, Hatley set out to sign new players. He and assistant Billy J. Murphy inked 37 players from Memphis, the most ever signed in one year from Memphis.
- By 1949, the Tigers were rolling, scoring 385 points and allowing just 87 by opponents. Memphis State was ranked second in the nation in scoring offense in 1949 and again in 1950. The 21-14 victory over Kansas State University in 1949 was considered the first major victory for Memphis State College.

- The 1950s found Memphis State College opening the season with the Ole Miss Rebels before 21,000 fans in Crump Stadium. It was the largest crowd to date to witness a Memphis State game. As had been done eight times in the past, Ole Miss won the game.
- In 1951, Lou McLelland, a standout end for the Tigers, was named to Williamson's first team all-American squad. In 1952, the Tigers defeated Louisville 29-25 in Memphis. The Cardinals quarterback that afternoon was Johnny Unitas.
- The highlight of the 1954 season came in Sugar Bowl Stadium in New Orleans, La., where the Tigers battled Tulane to a 13-13 tie. Andy Nelson scored both Tiger touchdowns.
- Modern day offense came to Memphis State in 1955, when the Tigers switched from the old single-wing to the brand new split-T. In 1956, the Memphis State administration, along with the administration of Arkansas State, agreed to create "The Ole Paint Bucket," a trophy that would be presented to the winning school in each year's Tiger-Indian tilt. The trophy was designed to keep students from the two schools from painting each other's buildings the week prior to the game. Memphis State captured the first two "Ole Paint Bucket" before the series was disbanded. The Tigers concluded the 1956 season playing in the Burley Bowl in Johnson City, Tenn. The boys from Memphis defeated East Tennessee State College 32-12 on November 22, 1956.
- In 1957, Memphis State College became Memphis State University, and Ralph Hatley stepped down after the season to concentrate on his duties as a teacher. A former assistant coach under Hatley, Billy J. Murphy, took over as head coach and the greatest era in Tiger football got underway.
- Billy J. Murphy accepted the position of head football coach on January 13, 1958, his 37th birthday. For the next 14 years Murphy would build the football team into one of the most powerful squads in the country. His 91-44-1 record stands as the winningest in Tiger football history. "No one else would have been tough enough to build a program there," said former Ole Miss Rebel head coach John Vaught. "He built Memphis State football into what it is today. If he had been on my staff, we would have won the world."
- The Tigers, who had never been able to sign local high school football stars, began to land such players as John Fred Ribilio, John Bramlett and Russ Vollmer. Murphy sent coaches into West Virginia and New Jersey to ink players like Dave Casinelli, Dennis Biodrowski, Richard Adragna, John Cronin and Bob Finamore.
- In 1959, the Tigers reached the national spotlight when they battled Alabama and its new head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. The Tigers, who had changed their offense prior to the game, opened the scoring and led 7-0 early in the game. Alabama regained the lead 14-7 and set up a frenzied fourth quarter conclusion. In the fourth stanza, the Tigers moved inside the Alabama 5-yard line. So confident was Tiger quarterback James Earl Wright in his ability to score that he called a two-point conversion play to try and gain the touchdown. Wright put the burden of scoring on his own shoulders. He took the snap and sprinted to his right. When he spotted an opening in the Alabama defense, Wright dove for the end zone. "I landed three feet deep into the end zone, but the closest official had turned to get out of my way," said Wright. "Finally, the official who was furthermost from the play, came in and spotted the ball at the one inch line and gave it to Alabama." The game prompted Coach Bryant to say..."Wright is too good to play for anybody but the University of Alabama."

- The decade of the 1960s opened with the boys from Memphis State winning two games, before taking on the Rebels of Ole Miss at Crump Stadium. The Rebels, led by All-American quarterback Jake Gibbs, were the No. 1 ranked team in the nation, and the Tigers, led by James Earl Wright, were a 32-point underdog. Even in their enthusiasm, Tiger fans had no idea that Wright would be honored as the Associated Press National Back of the Week for his play, beating out Gibbs. The 24,711 fans that packed Crump Stadium witnessed the Rebels score two late fourth quarter touchdowns to pull out a 31-20 victory over the Tigers. An area newspaper reported..."This was the largest crowd to ever see Memphis State play at home and perhaps the largest to ever see the Tigers. Under Billy J. Murphy, they've become a major power...on this night they really came of age against a magnificent foe."
- James Earl Wright became known as the Golden Boy of Tiger football. Although he played only one full, injury-free season, Wright won all-America honors, led the nation in passing and set school records in 10 categories. Before a career-ending knee operation on October 31, 1961, Wright had scored three touchdowns against The Citadel, two touchdowns and two TD passes against Hardin-Simmons, and three touchdown passes against Louisville. Shortly before surgery, Time magazine featured Wright as the nation's touchdown leader and called the Tiger quarterback the "most dangerous back in the South." When he left the Tigers in 1961, he held the record for the most total offense, most yards passing in a game, most touchdown passes in a game, most points scored in a game, most touchdowns in a season, most yards passing in a career, most touchdown passes in a career, most total offense in a career and longest touchdown pass from scrimmage.
- In 1962, Memphis State reached a major milestone when the team claimed its first win ever over an SEC opponent and on the road to boot. On October 27, 1962, Memphis State defeated Mississippi State University 28-7. It was a watershed event that was followed with an epic 0-0 tie with No. 3 ranked Ole Miss in 1963. These two events indicated that Memphis State had finally reached the mainstream of college football. With a record of 4-1 to start the 1962 season, the Tigers and their fans traveled to Scott Field in Starkville, Miss., anticipating that first win against an SEC opponent. According to the Columns..."The Maroons scored on a pass play but this proved to be the only flaw in the Memphis State defense. Charles Killett tied the score from the two yard line and Russ Vollmer added the conversion. Vollmer broke the game open with a 73-yard kickoff return to set up his own touchdown. A key interception by John Bramlett set up Dave Casinelli's slashing touchdown. Vollmer ended the scoring with a quarterback sneak for another score". Thousands of fans and students from Memphis, sensing the victory, rushed the field at the end of the game to tear down the goal posts. A great melee developed between fans of the two schools and fists and cowbells flew intermittently on the field for an hour before police could restore order. The win was touted as the greatest in Memphis State football history and helped set the stage for the 1963 season. The Tigers finished the 1962 season ranked 17th in the final poll.
- It had been 24 years since a Tiger football team experienced an undefeated season. But 1963 turned out to be one of those seasons that dreams are made of. With opponents like Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Southern Miss, Tulsa, Louisville and Houston, no one expected the Tigers to go through the campaign without a loss. After opening the season with a win over Southern Miss, the stage was set for the Memphis State-Ole Miss match up at Crump Stadium in Memphis. The Rebels were ranked No. 3 in the nation, and 31,650 fans packed the stadium for the contest. The game was described by Charles Gillespie of The Commercial Appeal as..."the first great shock of the 1963 intercollegiate football season. The two teams offered no quarter and none was given." The Rebel team had not been shut out in 48 consecutive games, the Tigers in 23 games. However, the two teams battled to a 0-0 deadlock, marking the first time that Memphis State had not been beaten by the Rebels. Memphis State's John Fred Ribilio was named the Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week for his play.

- The second great game of the 1963 season came against another SEC opponent, the Bulldogs of Mississippi State University. Murphy remembered the game as the "toughest game ever played," between the two teams. Russ Vollmer, the Tigers' quarterback, remembered the game because of his acceptance by the Memphis State fans. It was the kind of game that gave birth to legends. Vollmer broke the opening kickoff 79 yards to set up Memphis State's first score. In the second quarter, he returned a Mississippi State punt up the middle and cut toward the sideline, running out of bounds in the Mississippi State bench area. As he was attempting to return to the playing field, an over zealous Mississippi State player hit Vollmer with a "flying tackle." It knocked him over the bench and down a concrete stairwell that led to the dressing rooms under the Crump Stadium stands. The fall injured Vollmer's back and he was rushed to Methodist Hospital's Emergency Room, which was located next to Crump Stadium. Mississippi State moved to a 10-9 lead at halftime. Vollmer was found to have no serious injuries and returned to the Tiger locker room with a few minutes remaining at halftime. Eugene "Doc" Smith, the athletic trainer, taped the Tiger quarterback while the team returned to the field and started the second half. Vollmer, alone, came up the steps from the dressing room and began trotting around the field to the Memphis State sideline. The crowd began to murmur and then roar. Vollmer re-entered the game and engineered a 70-yard drive for the winning touchdown. He was named the Associated Press National Back of the Week for his heroic play. The Tigers went on to an undefeated season, and Billy J. Murphy was named The Football News National Coach of the Year.
- The first major bowl bid (excluding the Prune Bowl offer in 1938) came as a result of the undefeated season. The Sun Bowl invited the Tigers to play in Texas. However, contact had also been made by the wealthier Gator Bowl in Florida, and the team and coaches voted to take the Gator Bowl bid when it came. The bid never came and one of the best major college teams in the country sat at home in 1963.
- One of the most unusual events in college football occurred in 1964. Memphis State always held dates as late as possible in order to schedule SEC opponents. As the 1964 season drew nearer, the Tigers found themselves with just nine games. Athletic Director Eugene Lambert discovered that Southern Miss, already on the Tigers' schedule for one game, also had just nine games. Thus came one of the most unusual arrangements in modern collegiate football. Contracts were signed to play a second game during the same season between the two teams. The first was to be played in Memphis and the second in Jackson, Miss. Unfortunately, Southern Miss won both games 20-14 and 20-18. Harry Schuh, an offensive tackle for the Tigers, won first team All-America honors from Time, the Football Coaches Association, Playboy Magazine, TV Guide, United Press International and Associated Press.
- Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium opened on September 16, 1965, and served as the new home for the Tiger football team. The stadium was built at a cost of $3.7 million dollars and was operated by the Memphis Park Commission.
- In 1965, Memphis State took a 5-4 record to Quantico, Va., with the greatest confidence of icing a respectable 6-4 season against the Marines of Quantico. Lore has it that Memphis sportscaster and Voice of the Tigers Jack Eaton made a comment about "those clowns from Quantico" over the air, and local marines and vets flashed the word to Virginia - perhaps to the Pentagon - and the best football players serving in the Marine Corps at the time were transferred to Quantico, some arriving the night before the game, to face the Tigers. A festive group of Memphis State alumni from the Washington area drove down to see the game, but the grizzled marine sergeants on the other side of the field, some dressed in clown suits, made the most noise as they alternately beat a huge drum, cheered and consumed kegs of beer. The pride of the corps persevered 20-14.
- Billy Fletcher was named the Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week, the Associated Press Back of the Week and United Press National Player of the Week for his play against 9th-ranked Mississippi State. Fletcher set the Memphis State passing record against the Bulldogs that night, completing 18-of-30 pass attempts for 257 yards. The Tigers were ranked 15th by Associated Press on October 19, 1965. After the season, Dr. Lambert resigned as athletic director, and Murphy assumed that role as well as head football coach.
- The 1966 season concluded with the Tigers playing the 11th-ranked University of Houston Cougars in the Astrodome. The game marked the first ever indoor contest for the Tigers. Memphis State won the game 14-13.
- The shot-heard-around-Memphis came in 1967 when the Tigers opened the campaign with the Rebels of Ole Miss. The Liberty Bowl was packed with 50,414 fans on Sept. 23 as the two teams met for the 21st time in the series. But, this time the outcome was different. Led by Nick Pappas, Bob Baxter, Ricky Thurow and Herb Covington, the Tigers answered every Rebel score with one of their own and won the contest 27-17. The 1967 season also marked the first time that Memphis State appeared on regional television. On November 4, 1967, the Tigers took on Florida State University on ABC-TV. As a first-year member of the Missouri Valley Conference, the Tigers were now aligned with Drake, Louisville, Wichita State, Bradley, Cincinnati, Tulsa, North Texas State and Saint Louis, but were not eligible for the conference title in that first year of competition.
- The highlight of the 1968 schedule was the meeting of Memphis State and the University of Tennessee for the first time in school history. The Highland Hundred booster club had printed thousands of bumper stickers saying..."Draft the Volunteers, get the MSU-UT football series." A number of MSU students took the stickers and traveled across the state plastering cars. One group of students even went to Knoxville and stuck cars on the Tennessee campus. A bill was drafted to force the two teams to play, but the schools' presidents met with Governor Buford Ellington and set up the home-and-home contests. The Tigers lost to Tennessee 24-17, but claimed the Missouri Valley Championship, and Murphy was named the Conference Coach of the Year.
- Louis Fernandez was selected to play in the Shrine North-South All-Star Game after the 1969 season, and Danny Pierce was picked to play in the East-West Shrine Game in San Francisco. The Tigers were ranked 20th in the nation in the final United Press poll, and David Berrong and Steve Jaggard were tied for third in the nation in interceptions with eight each. Offensive tackle Bob Parker was selected to UPI's and The Football News All-America teams. Berrong was tabbed by the Associated Press and the Central Press Association on their All-America squads.

- The Tigers opened the decade of the 1970s with Paul "Skeeter" Gowen finishing 11th in the nation in rushing. The team compiled a 6-4 record and brought the five-year won-loss record to 33-15.
- In 1971, Memphis State claimed the Missouri Valley Conference championship, and for the first time since the 1954 Burley Bowl, earned that elusive bowl invitation. As conference champion, the Tigers were invited to the Pasadena Bowl to take on San Jose State. MSU won the game 28-9, but one note not covered in the game stories was a run by tailback Skeeter Gowen in the fourth period. After breaking free around the end, he scooted over the goal line, hotly pursued by a gigantic Spartan lineman. In the end zone, Gowen slowed to stop. But the lineman kept coming. Gowen trotted out of the end zone. So did the lineman. At that point the little Memphis back raced up the stadium steps into the seating area. When the big lineman finally gave up, Gowen sat down in the spectator seats, placed the ball in his lap and caught his breath.
- On February 5, 1972, Billy J. Murphy, the winningest coach in Tiger football history, announced that he was giving up coaching to devote himself full-time to his job as athletic director. In his war to bring Memphis State into national prominence, Murphy amassed a 91-44-1 record. At the beginning of his final season, the Tiger coach was rated the nation's 15th winningest football mentor. As he had promised, Murphy built a winner in five years. Enter Fred Pancoast.
- The 11th head football coach at Memphis State was Fred Pancoast. A native of Florida and a former University of Georgia and Florida assistant coach, Pancoast found a wealth of talent among the players he inherited. He quickly changed the team's look by adopting Dallas Cowboys-style uniforms.

- The Tigers were 5-5-1 under Pancoast in 1972, but the 1973 season contained numerous highlights, including MSU's first win in history over Ole Miss in the state of Mississippi. Playing the Rebels in the third game of the season was not normal but in 1973, MSU had Louisville and North Texas State scheduled ahead of its nemesis from Oxford. Powered by the arm of David Fowler and the legs of Cliff Taylor and Dornell Harris, the Tigers prevailed 17-13.
- Pancoast left Memphis State after the 1974 season to accept the head coaching position at Vanderbilt. He had posted a record of 20-12-1 in three short seasons and had gained wins over Ole Miss and Florida State among others.
- Richard Williamson, an assistant coach at Arkansas and Alabama, was hired on January 20, 1975, to replace Pancoast. Williamson, a former wide receiver for the University of Alabama and who caught Joe Namath's first career touchdown pass, was hired to direct the Tiger football fortunes. At 33-years-old, Williamson was one of the youngest head coaches in the nation. A hard-nosed disciplinarian, Williamson would weather several storms during his tenure at MSU.
- The Tigers traveled to Auburn, Ala., to play the second game of Williamson's career. Shug Jordan was entering his final season at Auburn, and the legendary coach and his team were set to meet the Tigers. Sixth-ranked Auburn was stunned by the Tigers and trailed 24-0 at halftime. The home team roared back in the second half, but led by quarterback Kippy Brown, tailback Terdell Middleton and receivers Earnest Gray and Keith Wright, Memphis State prevailed and won the contest 31-20. Other victories in 1975 included Florida State, Houston and Louisville, and the Tigers' final ledger read, 7-4-0.
- Many think the 1976 schedule was the most difficult ever played by the Tigers. The team opened the season like gangbusters, beating Ole Miss and Florida State before dropping a game to Tulsa. Then came wins against SMU and Auburn. With a 4-1 record, the Tigers were ready to take on Mississippi State in the Liberty Bowl. It seemed like the Tigers were set to win the rest of their games. But, on Monday prior to the game, two linebackers quit the team and in a solidarity move, many African-American players boycotted practice. The mood of the team was disrupted and the Tigers lost the game 42-33. MSU added two more victories before losing 21-14 to Tennessee in Memphis. Memphis State split its final two games of the year to post its second consecutive 7-4-0 season. What might have been, never was.
- The highlight of the 1977 season was a 21-13 win over Mississippi State and its head coach Bob Tyler. It marked the first non-conference loss for Tyler in his tenure at Mississippi State. Tiger tailback Eddie Hill was named the Associated Press National Back of the Week for his play. Later in the season, Tiger quarterback Lloyd Patterson was named the Associated Press Back of the Week for his play against Southern Miss, although it was Bob Orian's 91-yard return of a Golden Eagle pass that set up the win.
- The latter stages of the 1970s found the Tigers having up-and-down seasons, and after a disastrous 1980 campaign, Richard Williamson was notified that he would not be retained for the 1981 season. Thus ended the Williamson era at Memphis State University.

- After opening the decade of the 1980s with the dismissal of Williamson, Rex Dockery, a former University of Tennessee player and the head coach at Texas Tech, was hired to direct the Tiger football fortunes.
- In 1981, Bob Patterson was hired to replace Billy J. Murphy as athletic director. Patterson, a former Tiger offensive lineman, had come to MSU with Rex Dockery from Texas Tech. In November 1982, Charles Cavagnaro was hired to replace Bob Patterson as athletic director at Memphis State University. Cavagnaro, a graduate of MSU, had worked as a sports writer and editor of The Commercial Appeal. He had also spent time as the general manager of the Memphis Pros of the American Basketball Association.
- The 1981 and 1982 seasons were a struggle for Dockery and his staff. The Tigers battled to escape the noose of the nation's longest losing streak. After gaining his first coaching victory at MSU against Georgia Tech on September 26, 1981, the Tigers dropped the next 17 consecutive games. On November 27, 1982, the Liberty Bowl erupted when the Tigers defeated Arkansas State 12-0 to break the streak.
- The frustrations of the past two seasons exploded in the opening contest of the 1983 season. The Tigers opened against Ole Miss in the Liberty Bowl and handed the Rebels their worst defeat in a game against the Tigers in the history of the series. Powered by the running of Jeff Womack and Punkin Williams, MSU knocked off Ole Miss 37-17. After losses to North Carolina, Virginia Tech and Alabama, the Tigers rebounded to win against Tulane, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State, Cincinnati and Louisville to finish the season as the NCAA's second-most improved team. From 1-10-0 in 1982, the boys from Memphis State had improved their record to 6-4-1 and the future looked very bright. Tragedy struck in one brief instance and what had been the best of times became the worst of times.
- Rex Dockery, offensive coordinator Chris Faros, defensive back Charles Greenhill and pilot Glenn Jones were all killed in a plane crash in Lawrenceburg, Tenn., en route an all-star banquet. It was the darkest moment in Tiger football annals.
- Rey Dempsey, a Division 1-AA National Championship coach from Southern Illinois, was hired to direct the football program at MSU. His 1984 team had a .500 record at 5-5. There were wins over Mississippi State, Cincinnati, Southwestern Louisiana and a tie with nationally-ranked Florida State, but losses began to mount at the end of the season, and when the Tigers managed just a 2-7-2 ledger in 1985, Dempsey was fired and Charlie Bailey was hired as the head coach.
- A veteran of the coaching ranks at the University of Florida, Bailey's Tigers struggled to a 1-10-0 record in 1986 with the lone victory coming at the hands of Vanderbilt University in Nashville.
- The Tigers opened the 1987 campaign with a 16-10 win over Ole Miss and then stunned the college football world by upsetting 15th-ranked Alabama 13-10 in the Liberty Bowl. The season came to an end with MSU gaining victories over Louisville and Tulsa to post a 5-5-1 record.
- Bailey's Tigers gained national headlines again in 1988 by stopping 20th-ranked Florida 17-11 in Gainesville. For Bailey, it was a crowning moment in his football coaching career to return to Florida as an underdog and gain such a victory. Tailback Xavier Crawford and defensive backs Eddie Moore and Glenn Rogers Jr., led the team to the win. However, the 1988 season's 6-5-0 record soon paled in the light of an NCAA investigation of the Tiger football program.
- When it was determined by the NCAA that one player, James Maclin, had received approximately $300 in over payment for a summer job, Bailey was forced to resign, and the team received two years probation. Chuck Stobart was hired to rebuild the football program. He became the fifth coach in a 10-year span to lead the team.
- Arriving just three weeks before the team reported for fall camp, Stobart was forced to keep most of the staff of his predecessor. The Tigers defeated Vanderbilt and Cincinnati, but they dropped nine games in 1989 to finish the season with a 2-9-0 record.

HOME OF THE TIGERS

• 1912-1921 •
Games were played on the campus of the University of Memphis, then known as West Tennessee State Normal School and at Red Elm Park.

• 1922-1928 •
Games were still played on campus and at Russwood Park. During the 1926 season, one game was played at Crump Stadium, which had one set of wooden bleachers on the north side.

• 1929-1931 •
Games were played on campus and at Hodges Field in Memphis.

• 1932-1935 •
Games were still played at Hodges Field and on campus.

• 1936 •
The Tigers moved some of their home games to the Fairgrounds Stadium while also playing on campus.

• 1937 •
Half of the 1937 home season was played at the Fairgrounds and the final half of the year was spent at Crump Stadium in Midtown.

• 1937-1964 •
The Tigers continued to play all of their home games at Crump Stadium. In 1939, the WPA built concrete stands on the north side of the field, and in 1947, the WPA added the home side stands, completing the concrete facility.

• 1965-PRESENT •
In 1965, the City of Memphis constructed Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium (then called Memphis Memorial Stadium) as a home field for the University of Memphis. The Tigers opened the stadium versus Ole Miss on September 18, 1965.

1990s

- In 1991, Stobart's Tigers again put the school's name in headlines across the nation by beating the 14th-ranked Trojans of Southern Cal 24-10 in the Los Angeles Coliseum. The passing of Keith Benton and the rushing of Larry Porter aided in the monumental victory. The Tigers scored the first points of the game on a 45-yard field goal by Joe Allison. During the next three minutes, the Trojans marched 81 yards in 10 plays. Junior tailback Mazio Royster, USC's Heisman Trophy candidate, did most of the damage in the drive, but it was quarterback Reggie Perry who went the final 20 yards for the touchdown. After a Cole Ford field goal, Memphis trailed 10-3 at halftime. But the second half belonged to the boys from Memphis. On the opening drive, Benton hit wide receiver Russell Jones with a 40-yard touchdown strike and suddenly the score was tied at 10-10. Xavier Crawford and Porter began banging away on the ground in the third and fourth quarters and set up a four-yard touchdown pass from Benton to fullback Jeff Bynum to give the Tigers a 17-10 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, the Trojans bobbled the ball and it was recovered by the Tigers' Rod Brown. Three consecutive rushes by Crawford gained the Tigers their final score of the day and provided the 24-10 margin of victory. Actress Cybill Shepherd was presented the game ball since she gave the team an inspiring pregame speech in the locker room. Memphis gained wins over Mississippi State, Southern Miss and Louisville on its way to a 5-6-0 record.

- During the 1992 and 1993 seasons, the team's record improved to 6-5-0 and included impressive wins over Arkansas, Tulane, Ole Miss and Mississippi State. In 1992, Tiger cornerback Ken Irvin placed his name in the NCAA and Memphis record book by blocking four punts in a single game. The Tigers were hosting Arkansas in Memphis for the first time in the two schools' histories, and Irvin used the opportunity to not only log a couple of records but help Memphis to a 22-6 win over the Razorbacks. In a span of 60 minutes, Irvin broke the oldest record in the NCAA record book. The 1992 Memphis-Tulane game in the New Orleans Superdome saw the greatest first-half offensive explosion in modern Tiger history and produced the most points scored by a Tiger team in 23 years. Memphis tallied 35 points in the first quarter on touchdowns by tailback John Martin (2), wide receiver Isaac Bruce, flanker Mac Cody and strong safety Sam Edwards. Martin and Bruce added second quarter scores to up Memphis' halftime lead to 49-13. Cody caught his second touchdown pass of the game in the third stanza, and kicker Joe Allison added a 31-yard field goal to push the Tiger lead to 59-20. Allison booted his second field goal of the game in the fourth quarter to make the final margin of victory a whopping 62-20. With his three field goals against Tulane boosting his season total to 19, Joe Allison laid claim to the 1992 Lou Groza Award. The Groza Award, presented each year to the nation's top kicker, was the first national award ever won by a Memphis football player. The cousin of the late NASCAR driver Davey Allison, Joe finished the season with 23 made field goals. He was named to six All-America teams, in addition to being named the recipient of the Groza Award.
- In 1993, Memphis State shocked the nation by opening the season with a 45-35 victory over the nationally-ranked Bulldogs of Mississippi State. Senior quarterback Steve Matthews completed a school record 29-of-45 pass attempts for 340 yards and two touchdowns. The lefthander set Tiger records for most pass completions in a game (29) and for most attempts in a game (45). In addition, he ran for a 41-yard touchdown and finished the game with 362 yards of total offense. Matthews was named the Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week for his part in the Tiger win. The Tigers reached another milestone when they appeared on their first nationally televised broadcast against the Miami Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl. The game was carried by ESPN. Memphis had played in several regional broadcasts on ESPN and ABC, but they had never played in a national broadcast.
- The 1994 season marked the end of an era for head coach Chuck Stobart, but still found Tiger football battling for that elusive bowl bid. As a member of the Liberty Bowl Alliance (East Carolina, Cincinnati, Tulane, Southern Miss and Memphis), the Tigers had an opportunity to play their way into the first bowl game since the 1971 Pasadena Bowl. Early in the season, junior flanker Ryan Roskelly had a record-setting night against Tulsa. The Placentia, Calif., native returned 10 punts for 194 yards and one touchdown and caught six passes for 174 yards and a second score. Roskelly's 368 all-purpose yards set a Memphis record as did his punt return yardage and his number of returns. In fact, Roskelly's 194 yards in punt returns were the most by any player in NCAA Division I football in 1994. After claiming a third straight win over the Razorbacks, the Tigers ran off victories against Tulane, Arkansas State and Cincinnati. Racing with East Carolina for a bid to the St. Jude-Liberty Bowl, the Tigers found themselves in Oxford, Miss., facing backyard rival Ole Miss. Over the 73 years that the contest had been waged, the Tigers had never defeated Ole Miss in Oxford. Trailing the Rebels 16-5 with just 8:26 remaining in the game, the Tigers mounted the greatest comeback in the school's history. After a 43-yard punt return by Ryan Roskelly, Memphis drove the ball 31 yards with tailback Frank Fletcher going the final five yards for the score. The lead had been cut to 16-11. After holding Ole Miss and forcing a punt, the Tigers mounted their final drive of the game. Quarterback Joe Borich keyed the drive, which took 4:02, with three clutch plays. On 4th-and-15 from the 31-yard line, Borich (from a shotgun set) rolled left out of the pocket, then came back right toward the sidelines where he spotted tailback Frank Fletcher slanting downfield for an 18-yard gain. On 3rd-and-8 from the 11-yard line, Borich was flushed from the pocket, couldn't find anyone open and decided to run the ball. He gained nine yards and a first down at the Ole Miss two-yard line. With 11 seconds left, Borich called a sprint pass and found Ryan Roskelly in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. "I never saw the completion," Borich said after the game. After dropping the final game of the season and losing the Liberty Bowl bid to East Carolina, Chuck Stobart was relieved of his duties and a search began for a new head football coach.
- In 1994, the institution became the University of Memphis, marking the fourth name change since 1912.
- In January of 1995, Rip Scherer, the head football coach at James Madison University, was hired as the Tigers' 20th head football coach. Scherer, who had also served as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Arizona, took over at Memphis on January 13 and immediately began putting together his staff and trying to salvage recruiting. Scherer brought in Jim Pletcher (DC), Ted Million (OL) and David Lockwood (WR) from his staff at James Madison. He hired Keith Butler (DE), Wayne Weedon (DL), Vic Koenning (DB) and Maurice Knight (RB) from the previous Memphis staff. Scherer then selected experienced coaches Sparky Woods (New York Jets and South Carolina) and Jim Marshall (Richmond) to come in and work with the offense.
- On April 24, 1995, the football program received a major boost when it was announced that Conference USA had been officially formed. The new, all-sports conference featured Memphis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Southern Miss, Tulane and Houston as football playing members with UAB and USF as possible members in the near future. C-USA was further enhanced by gaining a five-year, $20 million television package with Liberty Sports Network which featured conference football over most of the nation. In addition, the Tigers also announced a deal that would televise all Tiger football games on SportSouth and on WLMT-TV in Memphis.
- The 1996 football season will long be remembered not so much for what occurred on the field but for what was accomplished in the recruiting period. The coaching staff set out on the recruiting trail and targeted most of the top players in the Memphis area as priority recruits. In the past, many of the star players from Memphis had chosen to leave the city to play their college football for other schools. This was not the case in 1996. Several weeks before the national signing date, Westwood High School All-Americans Kenton Evans and Damien Dodson announced their intentions to stay in Memphis and help build a nationally-recognized football program at Memphis. With such a star quarterback and receiver announcing their commitments with the Tigers, others followed. All-State tailback Teofilo Riley of Memphis Central and Reid Hedgepeth, a stellar tight end from Christian Brothers, joined the growing list of high school players to commit to Scherer. From outside the Memphis area, the U of M gained commitments from Kevin Luttrell, a defensive end from Brentwood Academy in Nashville, and from Marcus Jack, a top running back from Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Players from Georgia, Alabama, Florida, California and Texas joined the national recruiting effort, and when the ink had dried on the scholarships, Scherer and his staff had landed what most called the greatest recruiting class in school history.
- The highlight of the 1996 season came on a sunny afternoon at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium before a record-setting crowd of 65,885. The Tigers were pitted against the No. 6 ranked Tennessee Volunteers, who held a decided 15-0 series lead. The game, which was carried by CBS TV, matched Heisman Trophy candidate Peyton Manning against the Tigers' outstanding defense led by senior Tony Williams and Richard Hogans. Tennessee scored the afternoon's first points on a two-yard run at the 3:06 mark of the first quarter. Tennessee held their 7-0 lead until the final seconds of the first half when Keith Spann intercepted a Manning pass and returned it 76 yards to the Vols' 1-yard line. Memphis quarterback Qadry Anderson then sneaked in from one-yard out to knot the score at the half. UT opened the third quarter by driving 72 yards in 13 plays for the go-ahead score. But Memphis kick returner Kevin Cobb answered UT's score with a 95-yard acrobatic return, which again tied the score at 14-14. Both teams battled around midfield until the six minute mark of the fourth quarter when Jeff Hall connected on a 28-yard field goal. With 6:01 left in the contest, Memphis took the kickoff and mounted a 70-yard, 12-play drive which culminated in an Anderson to Chris Powers touchdown pass to seal the Memphis victory 21-17. The Tiger defense held the final 34 seconds as Tiger fans poured over the walls and tore down the goalposts.
- The 1998 football campaign produced a record of 2-9, but there were several bright spots encapsuled within the season. Junior tailback Gerard Arnold broke the University of Memphis single-season rushing record by gaining 1,059 yards. The 36-year-old record of 1,016 yards had been set by the late Dave Casinelli in 1962. Arnold had six 100-yard rushing games en route to breaking the record. The Lexington, Tenn., native completed the 1998 season as the nation's 33rd-ranked running back. Arnold was named to the All-C-USA second team. Freshman kicker Ryan White, a semi-finalist for the Lou Groza Award, became the only kicker in the nation to have a perfect year. The soccer-style kicker booted 16-of-16 field goals and 22-of-22 PATs on the season. He finished the season ranked 18th in the nation in kicking. White was named the All-C-USA kicker and also was selected to the C-USA All-Freshman Team.

- The 1999 season saw the fortunes of Tiger football start to climb. With new defensive coordinator John Thompson added to the staff, the defense took a new and aggressive approach to the game. After two three-point losses to Ole Miss and Mississippi State, the Tigers gained their first win of the season over Arkansas State. With renewed enthusiasm the team left for Knoxville to take on the seventh-ranked Volunteers, a 25-point favorite. But it was Memphis that took the fight to the Vols. After three Ryan White field goals and an 82-yard touchdown pass from Neil Suber to Ken Coutain, the U of M found itself leading Tennessee 16-10 with less than two minutes remaining in the contest. Tennessee mounted one final drive. On what appeared to be a fourth down quarterback sack by the Tiger defense, UT quarterback Tee Martin launched a "Hail-Mary" pass that was caught deep in Memphis territory. Two plays later Tennessee scored and captured a hard-fought 17-16 win. Memphis would go on to post a 4-2 Conference USA record and finished the season tied for second in the league. Led by freshman quarterback Travis Anglin, the Tigers won three of the final four games of the season, including league wins over Army, Tulane and Cincinnati. The 5-6 mark was the best record under head coach Rip Scherer since his arrival and caused the Memphis administration to extend his contract through the 2004 season. Six new assistant coaches were added to the staff in the spring of 2000, including Tommy West, Tim Walton, Jimmy Kiser, Clay Helton, Rick Mallory and Rick Whitt.

- It started with so much promise but due to a number of key injuries, the 2000 season collapsed in the later stages and forced the U of M to take drastic measures. Posting a record of 4-7, Rip Scherer was relieved of duties after six seasons as the head coach. The Tigers opened the season winning three of the first four games and four of the first six contests. Led by three quarterbacks, Memphis claimed wins over Louisiana-Monroe, Arkansas State, Army and East Carolina before the late season swoon. With injuries knocking out Anglin and Neil Suber, the Tigers were forced to turn to inexperienced backups. The team lost its final five games of the season, and on November 20, Scherer was dismissed. A search began immediately for his replacement, and it took just 10 days for the university to hire Tommy West, the Tigers' defensive coordinator, as its 21st head coach. West coordinated the Memphis defense in 2000 and led his unit to a national ranking of fifth in total defense and first in rushing defense.
- The 2001 football season was one of promise and improvement as the Tigers turned their "spread" offense into an exciting brand of football that found the youthful squad battling for a bowl bid until the final four seconds of the last game of the season. Under Tommy West's direction, the Tigers defeated such schools as Houston, Army, USF and C-USA power Southern Miss en route to a 5-6 finish. Freshman quarterback Danny Wimprine threw for a freshman record 1,329 yards and 14 TDs and junior tailback Dante Brown rushed for 902 yards and 11 TDs. Brown set a Memphis record by scoring four rushing touchdowns in the win over Houston, and his 902 yards ranked as the sixth-highest total in Memphis history.
- The Tiger football team fell short of their intended goals in 2002 and finished the season with a record of 3-9. However, numerous individual records fell as Wimprine rewrote the passing record book, and freshman tailback DeAngelo Williams let everyone know that he was the Tigers' back of the future. Wimprine broke the Memphis record for touchdown passes in a single game in the season opener against Murray State, when he tossed five scoring strikes. When the season ended, the New Orleans native had set records for most pass attempts in a game, most pass completions in a game, most touchdown passes in a game, pass attempts in a season, most pass completions in a season, most yards passing in a season and most touchdown passes in a season. He moved into third place on the Memphis all-time career passing list with 4,149 yards. Williams, who came to the U of M with incredible prep credentials, led the nation in average yards per carry for four weeks and was second in the nation after 11 games. He completed the season tied for fifth in the country in yards per carry averaging an amazing 6.6 yards per attempt. Memphis placed four players on both the All-C-USA team and C-USA All-Freshman team. Center Jimond Pugh was named first team at center, while teammates Derrick Ballard, Tony Brown and Travis Anglin were selected to the second team. Williams was voted to the All-Freshman squad as was Stephen Gostkowski, John Doucette and O.C. Collins. Collins was also named to two Freshman All-America teams for 2002. Two members of the 2002 Tiger squad were drafted by NFL teams as tackle Wade Smith was taken in the third round by the Miami Dolphins, and wide receiver Travis Anglin was picked in the seventh round by the Detroit Lions.
- Tommy West started the 2003 season off by signing what he termed the "the most noted and highly renowned recruit" in Tiger history. He was referring to the landing of defensive coordinator Joe Lee Dunn. Dunn served as the defensive coordinator for Memphis from 1989 through 1991 and left to take over similar spots at Ole Miss, Arkansas and Mississippi State, where he worked for seven seasons under Jackie Sherrill.
- For years and years, Tiger fans became accustomed to always saying... "wait until next year" as the college football season wound down to a close. But the 2003 season became that "next year," as Memphis closed with a bowl victory in New Orleans. After a season-opening win over Tennessee Tech, the Tigers surprised everyone by knocking off Heisman Trophy candidate Eli Manning and his Ole Miss Rebel team 44-34 before a national television audience. As the season progressed, victories came against C-USA foes Tulane, Houston, East Carolina, Louisville and Cincinnati and when the regular season finale was played in November, the Tigers had compiled a record of 8-4 and were receiving attention from several bowl representatives. On the night of Nov. 30, Memphis received the call from the New Orleans Bowl extending an invitation to play North Texas in the fourth annual event. The game was Dec. 16 and was played in the Superdome. Without the services of tailback DeAngelo Williams and with wide receiver Maurice Avery still limping on a bad knee, the Tigers rolled into New Orleans with thousands of fans and a host of media for the school's first bowl appearance in 32 years. Riding the arm of Wimprine, the Tigers dominated the Mean Green and came away with a 27-17 victory. It would be C-USA's only bowl win of the 2003 season and pushed the Tigers' all-time bowl record to 3-0. Wimprine was named the MVP of the New Orleans Bowl and weeks later, head coach Tommy West was voted the Tennessee Sports Writers Coach of the Year. Memphis' 9-4 record marked the best finish by a Tiger team since the 1963 season.
- West's Tigers continued to make history in 2004. The squad opened the season with a 5-1 record for the first time since 1967. Included in that span were wins over Ole Miss, Chattanooga, Arkansas State, Houston and Tulane. Memphis also enjoyed its first-ever national ranking by the Associated Press when the Tigers were listed at No. 25 on Sept. 12. Memphis also played four of its last five games of the season on national television. One of the most memorable games was oddly enough a loss to then C-USA foe Louisville. The game was played on Thursday night with the ESPN crew of Kirk Herbstreit, Lee Corso, Chris Fowler and Jill Arrington. A crowd of 52,384 fans watched the offensive explosion as Memphis and Louisville put up 105 points on the scoreboard. Louisville, ranked 14th nationally at the time, rolled off to the 56-49 victory. The crowd that supported the Tigers was the 11th-largest crowd in school history, but it was also the largest crowd ever to watch Memphis face a non-SEC foe. The following week on ESPN2, the Tigers became bowl eligible for the second straight season with a win over Southern Miss at home. It was the first time ever that Memphis had achieved back-to-back bowl appearances in school history. The Tigers finished out the regular season with wins over East Carolina and USF on the road and headed to the GMAC Bowl in Mobile, Ala., with an 8-3 record. Memphis faced Bowling Green State in the bowl meeting and dropped to 8-4 on the year with a 52-35 loss to the Falcons. The Falcons were powered by one of the nation's leading quarterbacks, Omar Jacobs, but the game took a bad turn when All-American tailback DeAngelo Williams left the game in the third quarter with a broken leg.
- The Tigers placed Williams, Gene Frederic, Wesley Smith and Stephen Gostkowski on the All-C-USA first team, and Danny Wimprine, Jeremy Rone, Tavares Gideon, Marcus West and Albert Means on the second team. Greg Hinds was named to the All-Freshman team, and Williams was named the Offensive Player of the Year for the second straight season. He shared the honor with Louisville quarterback Stefan LeFors. Wimprine finished out his four-year career with almost every passing record, throwing for 10,215 yards and 81 touchdowns. Williams continued to rack up honors by the end of the season and was named an All-American by the Associated Press, SI.com and Pro Football Weekly. He also was Tennessee's Player of the Year by the TSWA and was the Male Amateur Athlete of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame. In January, he settled a lot of nerves when he announced that he would "forgo his NFL career" to come back to Memphis for his senior season. Months later, Williams was named to the 2005 Playboy All-America team and the University began its Heisman campaign for the record-setting back.
- The 2005 season went down in history as the year the Tigers had a legitimate Heisman candidate.

CONFERENCE AFFILIATIONS

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY
• 1928-1934 •

Memphis, then West Tennessee State Teachers College, had its first conference affiliation during the 1928 season when the fledgling institution was a member of the Mississippi Valley Conference. Memphis joined with Tennessee Martin JC, Sunflower JC, Bethel College, Delta State College, Murray Normal, Lambuth College and Little Rock College to form the league. Memphis competed in the Mississippi Valley Conference for seven seasons and compiled an overall record of 19-6-3.

SOUTHERN INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION
• 1935-1942 •

The Tigers left the Mississippi Valley Conference in 1934 and promptly joined the membership of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The new affiliation united Memphis with Middle Tennessee State, Louisiana College, Delta State, Troy State, Tennessee Tech, Union University and Murray State. The Tigers competed for eight seasons prior to World War II and had a conference mark of 18-24-1.

MISSOURI VALLEY

As Memphis State grew in national stature, the institution sought to align itself with similar schools. In 1968, the Tigers joined the Missouri Valley Conference. and for a five-year period, dominated the football membership. MSU competed against such schools as Louisville, Tulsa, Wichita State, North Texas State, Cincinnati, Drake and West Texas State. Memphis State won three conference championship (1968, 1969, 1971), and head coach Billy J. Murphy was named the Coach of the Year three times. The Tigers compiled a 19-5-0 record and represented the league with a win in the 1971 Pasadena Bowl.

The Athletic Media Relations office launched a highly-publicized campaign that matched college football with another deep South favorite – NASCAR. By the end of summer, DeAngelo Williams had his own "Race for the Heisman" promotion that included 1:24 scale die-cast cars with a special paint scheme. Nearly 1,000 cars were mailed to local, regional and national media, but most notable was the fact that approximately 2,500 cars were bought by fans in just three days. A website was built, noting Williams' accomplishments, and eventually a full-size race car was donated and appeared at all Tiger home games. The promotion served its purpose, as Williams and the Memphis Tigers gained the national spotlight.

- But, the 2005 season was not marked by the accomplishments of just one player, but by a total team effort, as the Tigers overcame their share of adversity en route to a winning campaign. Prior to the start of the season, Memphis lost veteran receiver Mario Pratcher and defensive lineman Van Houston to knee injuries. In the first game of the season, starting quarterback Patrick Byrne suffered a broken leg on Memphis' first offensive series against Ole Miss. Byrne was lost for the season, and redshirt freshman Will Hudgens had to take over under center. Hudgens started against Chattanooga and led the Tigers to victory, but late in the third game of the season against Tulsa, Hudgens suffered a broken leg that ended his season. And, not only was Byrne sidelined in game one, but so was senior defensive end Rubio Phillips, who suffered a knee injury. The Tigers then turned to true freshman Billy Barefield at quarterback. Barefield led Memphis to an upset victory over then-undefeated UTEP, but struggled to generate much-needed offense in a loss to UCF on the road. At that point head coach Tommy West made two key moves – DeAngelo Williams took the team on his shoulders and leading senior receiver Maurice Avery moved to quarterback.
- The personnel changes proved to be successful as Avery led the Tigers to wins in five of the last seven games of the season, and Williams finished the season as the NCAA's leader in rushing yards per game. Williams also became the NCAA's all-time leader in all-purpose yards and finished his career ranked fourth all-time in NCAA history in rushing yards. While Williams scored 114 points, which was just over 30 percent of the team's scoring in 2005, the Tigers could not have been successful without senior kicker Stephen Gostkowski, who also scored 30 percent of the points with 101. Williams was named C-USA Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, and ultimately, was drafted in the first round by the Carolina Panthers, while Gostkowski was selected the league's Special Teams Player of the Year and was drafted in the fourth round by the New England Patriots. In addition to Williams and Gostkowski, five other Tigers were selected to the All-C-USA Team. Defensive end Marcus West, offensive guard Andrew Handy and safety Wesley Smith were picked to the first team, and punter Michael Gibson was named to the second team. Offensive lineman Brandon Pearce and receiver Maurice Jones landed on the C-USA All-Freshman Team.
- By the end of the season, eight starters were lost for the season, but Memphis turned the negatives into positives. Because of the dedication and determination of the coaching staff and players, the Tigers received an invitation to their third-straight bowl game. The Tigers traveled to Detroit for the Motor City Bowl and defeated Akron, 38-31, on Dec. 26 in front of over 50,000 fans at Ford Field. Williams rushed for 238 yards in the game and was named the MVP, while linebacker Tim Goodwell received the UAW Lineman Award. In addition, Williams and Gostkowski were invited to the Senior Bowl; Avery played in the Hula Bowl; and Goodwell appeared in the All-American Bowl.
- In 2006, the Tigers struggled as the injury bug struck again and wreaked havoc on the depth chart. In fact, during the season, 25 Tigers were sidelined for at least one game and 11 of those were season-ending injuries. Of the 25 injuries, 15 were to starters or potential starters and the injuries were just about split down the middle with 11 on offense and 14 on defense. With the constant changing lineup and a defense that struggled after defensive coordinator Joe Lee Dunn was released prior to the Tennessee game, the Tigers ended the year with a 2-10 record and snapped the bowl streak.
- The 2006 season wasn't without its highlights, though, as true freshman receiver Duke Calhoun showed his potential as a go-to guy, leading the Tigers in receiving yards with 681 and in receiving TDs with six. He, along with kicker Matt Reagan and defensive lineman Greg Terrell, was named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team. Rusty Clayton, Brandon McDonald, Michael Gibson, Ryan Scott, Brandon Pearce and Blake Butler were also named to the All-C-USA Team as for the first time in league history, coaches and media picked separate teams. Brandon McDonald became the third Tiger in two years to be drafted. He was selected in the fifth round by the Cleveland Browns.
- For the third straight season, the Tigers won their season finale as the U of M traveled to El Paso, Texas for a stunning 38-19 victory over UTEP. Memphis' defense, which showed marked improvement late in the season, held UTEP to just five yards rushing. Michael Grandberry was named the Tigers' only C-USA Player of the Week after that game, after he logged 118 yards on two kick returns.
- Perhaps the most memorable play of the 2006 season was against eventual C-USA champion Houston. With just over two minutes remaining on the clock, Brandon McDonald blocked UH's 24-yard field goal attempt and linebacker Greg Jackson picked up the ball and ran it 80 yards for a TD that tied the game at 20 and forced overtime. Memphis fell short of the victory, as UH booted a field goal to win the game, 23-20.
- The 2007 season started off slow as the Tigers opened with a 1-3 record. And, just as the team was feeling about as down and out as possible, an unexpected tragedy brought the group together. On Sunday, Sept. 30, defensive lineman Taylor Bradford was killed in an act of violence, and the Tigers were facing a game two days later. Following a powerful campus vigil on Monday, Oct. 1, the Tiger football team set out on the emotional task of playing a game on ESPN on Tuesday against C-USA foe Marshall. Coach Tommy West and his squad entered the field arm-in-arm in a chilling showing of togetherness. The team snapped a two-game losing streak with a win over Marshall and that game is sure to be remembered for years to come.
- After a disappointing mid-season loss to Middle Tennessee, the Tigers regrouped and welcomed Martin Hankins back under center. Hankins missed the Marshall and MTSU games with a hip injury. Hankins ultimately led the Tigers to wins in five of the final six games of the season. Memphis was back in a bowl game for the fourth time in five seasons.
- With its loss to Florida Atlantic in the New Orleans Bowl, the Tigers finished the season with a 7-6 record, which was good for the fourth-best turnaround nationally. In addition, the Tigers finished C-USA action with a 6-2 record which placed the U of M tied for second in the East Division with East Carolina. The six wins were the most victories for the Tigers since beginning C-USA play in 1996.
- Memphis closed out the 2007 season ranked in the top 25 in several national categories, including total offense (23rd), sack denial (10th), passing offense (13th), turnover margin (15th), fumbles lost (tied 3rd), turnovers lost (tied 10th) and fourth down conversions (11th).
- Several Tigers received C-USA honors, including offensive lineman Andy Smith, wide receiver Duke Calhoun and linebacker Jake Kasser. Offensive lineman Dominik Riley and deep snapper Keenan Bratcher were selected to the All-C-USA Freshman Team.

- In 2007, Memphis was the only non-BCS team to participate in a bowl game, the NCAA men's basketball tournament and the NCAA baseball tournament all in the same calendar year.
- The Tigers found themselves in uncharted territory early in the 2008 season, when they opened with three straight losses for the first time ever under head coach Tommy West. And while most counted the Tigers down and out, this squad refused to sit back and accept a losing season. Memphis rolled off consecutive wins over Nicholls State, Arkansas State and UAB to even the record at 3-3 at the halfway point.
- Just as things started to pick up, the East Carolina game forced the Tiger coaching staff to become creative offensively. Memphis lost the services of quarterbacks Arkelon Hall (thumb) and Will Hudgens (knee) in the first quarter on the road at ECU. Walk-on junior Brett Toney was pressed into service and the U of M fell to 3-5 with the loss to the Pirates. Toney started the Southern Miss and SMU games, which the Tigers won, again evening their record at 5-5.
- Two open dates in a four-week period allowed for Hall to return to the lineup for the final two games of the season at home versus UCF and Tulane. With bowl hopes and a potential share in the C-USA East Division title on the line, costly mistakes against UCF left the Tigers with one more chance for post-season hopes on Senior Day versus Tulane. The squad came out with something to prove and earned the sixth win for bowl eligibility with a commanding 45-6 win over the Green Wave.
- While the win over Tulane gave the Tigers something to celebrate, it was also a sad day for the Tiger family. Later that evening, the team learned that Murray Armstrong, who had served in many capacities with Tiger Athletics for 46 years, had lost his four-year battle with cancer.
- Memphis was among 12 NCAA FBS teams that started the season with a 0-3 record in 2008. Of those 12 teams, only the Tigers and Rutgers played in bowl games. Rutgers entered the Papajohns.com Bowl with a 7-5 record, and Memphis went into the magicJack St. Petersburg Bowl with a 6-6 record.
- In 2008, the Tigers were competing in the postseason for the fifth time in six years, and could count themselves among only 36 teams nationally who could make that claim of success.
- Several Tigers received C-USA honors, including Brandon Pearce and Clinton McDonald who were named to the first team. Curtis Steele was selected to the second team and was also named the league's Newcomer of the Year. Ronald Leary was selected to the All-C-USA Freshman Team.
- Senior Brandon Patterson, who earned his master's degree in Dec. '08, became the only Tiger football player to be named an Academic All-American two times in his career (2007-08).
- While many Tiger fans may not recall the 2-10 record many years from now, they are sure to remember the 2009 season for Coach Tommy West being dismissed with three games remaining on the schedule and the impassioned speech he gave in his press conference announcing the firing. West was let go following the 56-28 loss at his alma mater, Tennessee, with the Tigers sitting at 2-7 and no chance of a return to the postseason. West finished his 10-year career with the Tigers (nine as head coach) with a 49-61 mark, and ranks third all-time in wins at the U of M.
- Duke Calhoun and Carlos Singleton finished their Memphis careers as the No. 1 and No. 2 receivers in school history, while Curtis Steele closed out his two-year career as the No. 3 running back all-time. Calhoun also ended his career with the nation's third-longest active receiving streak through the 2009 season with 49 consecutive career games with a reception.
- Several Tigers were honored in 2009, including Steele, who was named to the All-C-USA first team, and punter/kicker Matt Reagan who was a third-team all-American as a punter by the Associated Press. Reagan is Memphis' first AP all-American since DeAngelo Williams (2005, second-team), and was punting for the first time in his collegiate career in '09. Also named to the All-C-USA team were Calhoun (2nd) and Reagan (2nd), as well as Dontari Poe and Jamie McCoy, who were placed on the All-Freshman team.
- On November 29, 2009, former Tiger running back (1990-93) Larry Porter was named as the 22nd head football coach at Memphis.

- The 2010 season was not without its highlights as five Tigers were named to the All-C-USA team, including linebacker Jamon Hughes, who was named to the first team. Hughes finished the season ranked third nationally in tackles. In addition, OL Dominik Riley was named to the second team, while P Tom Hornsey, CB Mohammed Seisay and OL Ricky Hart received All-Freshman honors.
- Australian punter Tom Hornsey became Memphis' first FWAA Freshman All-American as he ranked third nationally in yards punted (3,416) and fourth nationally in total punts (80). He was one of two true freshmen on the 2010 Ray Guy Watch List.
- In Feb. 2011, the Tigers had their very first workout in their new 13,000-square foot strength den dedicated solely to football. That wouldn't be the end of the committment to Tiger football, as a $10 million capital campaign was announced in June 2011, with plans to add an indoor practice facility, renovate the locker room, level the grass fields and brand the Murphy Complex.
- The Tigers won just two games in 2011 with victories over Austin Peay State and C-USA foe Tulane, and Coach Larry Porter was relieved of his duties as the head coach on Nov. 27, 2011. Porter was 3-21 in two seasons with the Tigers.
- Memphis placed two players on the All-C-USA Team, as junior Dontari Poe and senior Ron Leary were both named to the second team. Poe announced at the end of the season that he would make himself available for the NFL Draft, and he was selected in the first round as the No. 11 pick by the Kansas City Chiefs.
- On December 8, 2011, former TCU co-offensive coordinator Justin Fuente was named to 23rd head football coach at the U of M.
- Then, University of Memphis President Dr. Shirley C. Raines and BIG EAST Commissioner John M. Marinatto announced on Feb. 8, 2012, that Memphis had accepted a formal invitation to join the BIG EAST Conference as an all-sports member

CONFERENCE AFFILIATIONS

METRO
• 1980-1992 •

Despite competing as an independent in football, Memphis joined the Metro Conference in 1980 and began playing with such noted teams as Florida State, Georgia Tech, Virginia Tech, Louisville, Cincinnati, Tulane and Southern Miss. The teams did not play for a conference championship, but they did select an All-Metro Conference Team at the end of each season. The Tigers placed 60 football players on the various All-Metro teams, and linebacker Danton Barto was named the Defensive Player of the Year in 1990.

CONFERENCE USA
• 1996-2012 •

The Tigers joined their first football-playing league since the 1972 season when Memphis aligned with Louisville, Cincinnati, Tulane Southern Miss and Houston in 1996 to play for a conference title. During its years as a charter member, the Memphis program was witness to several changes in membership. DeAngelo Williams was a three-time C-USA Offensive Player of the Year as well as named the league's Athlete of the Year for the 2005-06 season while Stephen Gostkowski was named the C-USA Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005. Memphis had student-athletes honored 118 times as first or second-team all-conference selections or named to the conference's all-freshman team.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE
• 2013-PRESENT •

The University of Memphis began its first season in a rebranded BIG EAST Conference now called the American Athletic Conference in 2013. In its first season, Memphis was aligned with Cincinnati, UConn, Houston, Louisville, Rutgers, SMU, Temple, UCF and USF. East Carolina, Tulane and Tulsa joined the new conference ahead of the 2014 season. The Naval Academy joins the American for football in 2015. In two years, Memphis players have received three player of the year awards and nine, all-conference first-team selections.

TIGERS FOOTBALL THROUGH THE YEARS

beginning July 1, 2012. The BIG EAST would later announce on April 3, 2013 that the league was being renamed the American Athletic Conference, and would rebrand as such across all platforms, associations and media at the conclusion of the 2012-13 sports seasons.

- Justin Fuente's debut as the Tigers' head football coach on Sept. 1, 2012 would include a 2:40 delay for heavy rains and storms which passed over the stadium shortly after halftime. The game would resume at 10:38 p.m. and conclude shortly before midnight. UT Martin kicked a last-minute field goal to beat the Tigers 20-17.
- Memphis' first victory in the Justin Fuente era would come in the Tigers' 2012 Conference USA debut as the Blue and Gray rallied from a 10-0 halftime deficit to beat Rice 14-10. Memphis held the Owls to have of their previous total offense average.
- The Tigers would conclude the 2012 season by winning their last three games, capped by a 42-24 win over Southern Miss. Memphis won three straight games for the first time since 2008 and the team's four conference wins equaled the total for the previous three seasons combined.
- Senior offensive lineman Jordan Devey, junior defensive lineman Johnnie Farms and sophomore defensive end Martin Ifedi were all named All-Conference USA Second Team following the 2012 season. Additionally, senior linebacker Akeem Davis received the inaugural Lee Roy Selmon Community Spirit Award.
- Senior punter Tom Hornsey won the 2013 Ray Guy Award, presented annually to college football's best punter. Additionally, Hornsey was a Consensus NCAA All-American. He averaged 45.2 yards per punt which ranked seventh nationally. He helped the Tigers post a 41.02 net punting average which ranked fourth nationally.
- In its inaugural season in the American Athletic Conference, the Tigers had three players selected to the first all-conference team selected by the league's coaches. In addition to punter Tom Hornsey, place-kicker Jake Elliott and defensive end Martin Ifedi.
- In its second year as members of the league, Memphis captured an American Athletic Conference title in 2014. The Tigers posted a 10-3 overall record, recording a school-record number of wins, tying a mark set in 1938 when the Tigers went 10-0. Memphis was 7-1 in league play and shared the conference title with Cincinnati (which it beat 41-14 during the year) and UCF.
- Memphis won the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl with a dramatic, 55-48 double-overtime win over BYU. Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch, named the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-46 passes for 306 yards and four touchdowns including the game-winning, 11-yard strike to Roderick Proctor in the end zone to cap Memphis' second overtime series on offense. After Memphis had scored, Dashaughn Terry intercepted a pass on BYU's second play from scrimmage on its second overtime possession to end the game.
- Lynch's recognition as the Miami Beach Bowl MVP was earned with a performance in which he equaled an NCAA bowl record for touchdowns responsible for with seven. In addition to passing for four touchdowns, he ran for three. He twice completed passes to Keiwone Malone on fourth down plays in the final two minutes of regulation, including a diving, five-yard snag for a touchdown with 45 seconds to play as the Tigers came from behind to send the game to overtime.
- In the first overtime period of the Miami Beach Bowl, Jake Elliott needed to kick the longest field goal ever in an overtime period - officially a 54-yarder - just the second the game to a second overtime period. Elliott's kick tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NCAA bowl history and was the longest since 2004. It was the second-longest field goal in Memphis history and tied for the fifth-longest field goal of the 2014 NCAA FBS season.
- Elliott was named the American Athletic Conference's 2014 Special Teams Player of the Year. His was one of three major individual awards presented to the Tigers following the season. Justin Fuente was named the American's Coach of the Year while senior linebacker Tank Jakes was named the American's Co-Defensive Player of the Year.
- Along with Elliott and Jakes, offensive tackle Al Bond, tight end Alan Cross, defensive end Martin Ifedi, and cornerback Bobby McCain were all named 2014 All-Conference First Team. Memphis' all-conference, second-team picks were made up of quarterback Paxton Lynch, running back Brandon Hayes, return specialist Keiwone Malone and punter Spencer Smith.
- Senior defensive end Martin Ifedi became Memphis' all-time leader in quarterback sacks with 22.5 (-125 yards) and finished his career ranked tied for fourth in tackles for lost yardage with 36 (-159 yards).
- Both Bobby McCain (5th Round) and Ifeid (7th Round) were selected in the 2015 NFL Draft. It was the first time multiple Memphis players were selected in the same NFL Draft since DeAngelo Williams (1st) and Stephen Gostkowski (4th) were selected in the 2006 draft.
- Prior to the beginning of the 2015 season, the American Athletic Conference underwent a membership change, splitting in to two divisions and launching a conference championship game for the first time in the league's history. Memphis, who shared the conference title the previous season, was picked as favorites to win the West over Houston and Navy. Cincinnati was picked to win the league and the East Division.
- Seven first time starters in the season opener against Missouri State helped Memphis post a 63-7 win in the season-opener, as the Tiger offense racked up 519 total yards of offense, while holding the Bears to 125 yards total offense.
- In the first-ever meeting against Big 12 foe Kansas, Memphis posted over 500 yards of offense for a second straight game, rolling up 651 yards of total offense in a 55-23 win in Lawrence. Redshirt junior quarterback Paxton Lynch threw for a then-career-best 354 yards and Mose Frazier had a career-best 141 all purpose yards in the win.
- In Memphis' first-ever game in Bowling Green, the Tigers prevailed in a shoot-out, 44-41. After a 48 yard touchdown pass from Paxton Lynch to Tevin Jones tied the game at 41 with 2:54 left, junior Jake Elliott drilled a 44 yard field goal for the final 44-41 margin.
- In an American Athletic Conference opening game against pre-season favorites Cincinnati and aired nationally on ESPN, Memphis recovered against a potent Bearcat offense that rolled up 752 yards to win 53-46, starting the season with a 4-0 mark for the first time since 1961. Memphis' offense answered the Bearcat one, as Sam Craft scampered for a three-yard touchdown run, breaking a 46-all tie with 53 seconds left in the game for the fourth straight win and a second straight win over Cincinnati.
- Paxton Lynch passed for two touchdowns and rushed for a third one in a 24-17 win in his home state of Florida at USF in Raymond James Stadium. Playing for a second straight week on national tv, ESPN2 this time, Memphis trailed early, 10-0, in the second quarter before Sam Craft scored on a pass from Lynch to get the Tigers on the board. The win pushed Memphis to 5-0 overall and was a 12th straight win dating back to the 2014 season for Memphis.
- At 5-0, Memphis broke in to the national rankings heading in to week six. Memphis vaulted in to the Amway Coaches Poll at No. 25. The national ranking came as Memphis rolled in to a bye week, setting up the showdown with Midsouth foe Ole Miss as a match-up between two ranked opponents.
- Prior to Memphis' game against Ole Miss, a section of Tiger Lane at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium was renamed John Bramlett Drive in a morning ceremony.
- Memphis, which had moved up to No. 22 in the national rankings, bounced back from an early deficit against the visiting Rebels of Ole Miss in a 37-24 non-conference victory that aired nationally on ABC. Paxton Lynch, who would earn American Athletic Conference player of the week honors for the first time on the season, was 39-for-53 for 386 yards and three touchdowns to lead Memphis to a 6-0 start for the first time since 1961. Down 10-0 early, Memphis took a lead in the second quarter on a four-yard run from Sam Craft with 2:52 remaining. That was a lead the Tigers would never relinquish, as a pair of fourth quarter field goals from Jake Elliott would close the book on the win. The win over #13/12 Ole Miss also helped Memphis earn AutoNation National Team of the Week honors, while Alan Cross earned John Mackey Tight End of the Week honors after catching six passes for 41 yards, including a touchdown that put Memphis on the board down 10-0.
- Following the Ole Miss win, Memphis would appear in both national polls the following week. The Tigers

Memphis' win over #13/12 Ole Miss in 2015 vaulted the Tigers in to both polls the following week. The appearance in the Associated Press poll would be the second in school history.

TIGERS FOOTBALL THROUGH THE YEARS

moved to No. 17 in the Amway Coaches' Poll, their third straight week in that poll, and broke in to the Associated Press Top 25 poll at No. 18. The appearance in the AP ranking was the first for Memphis since 2004, and just the second in school history.

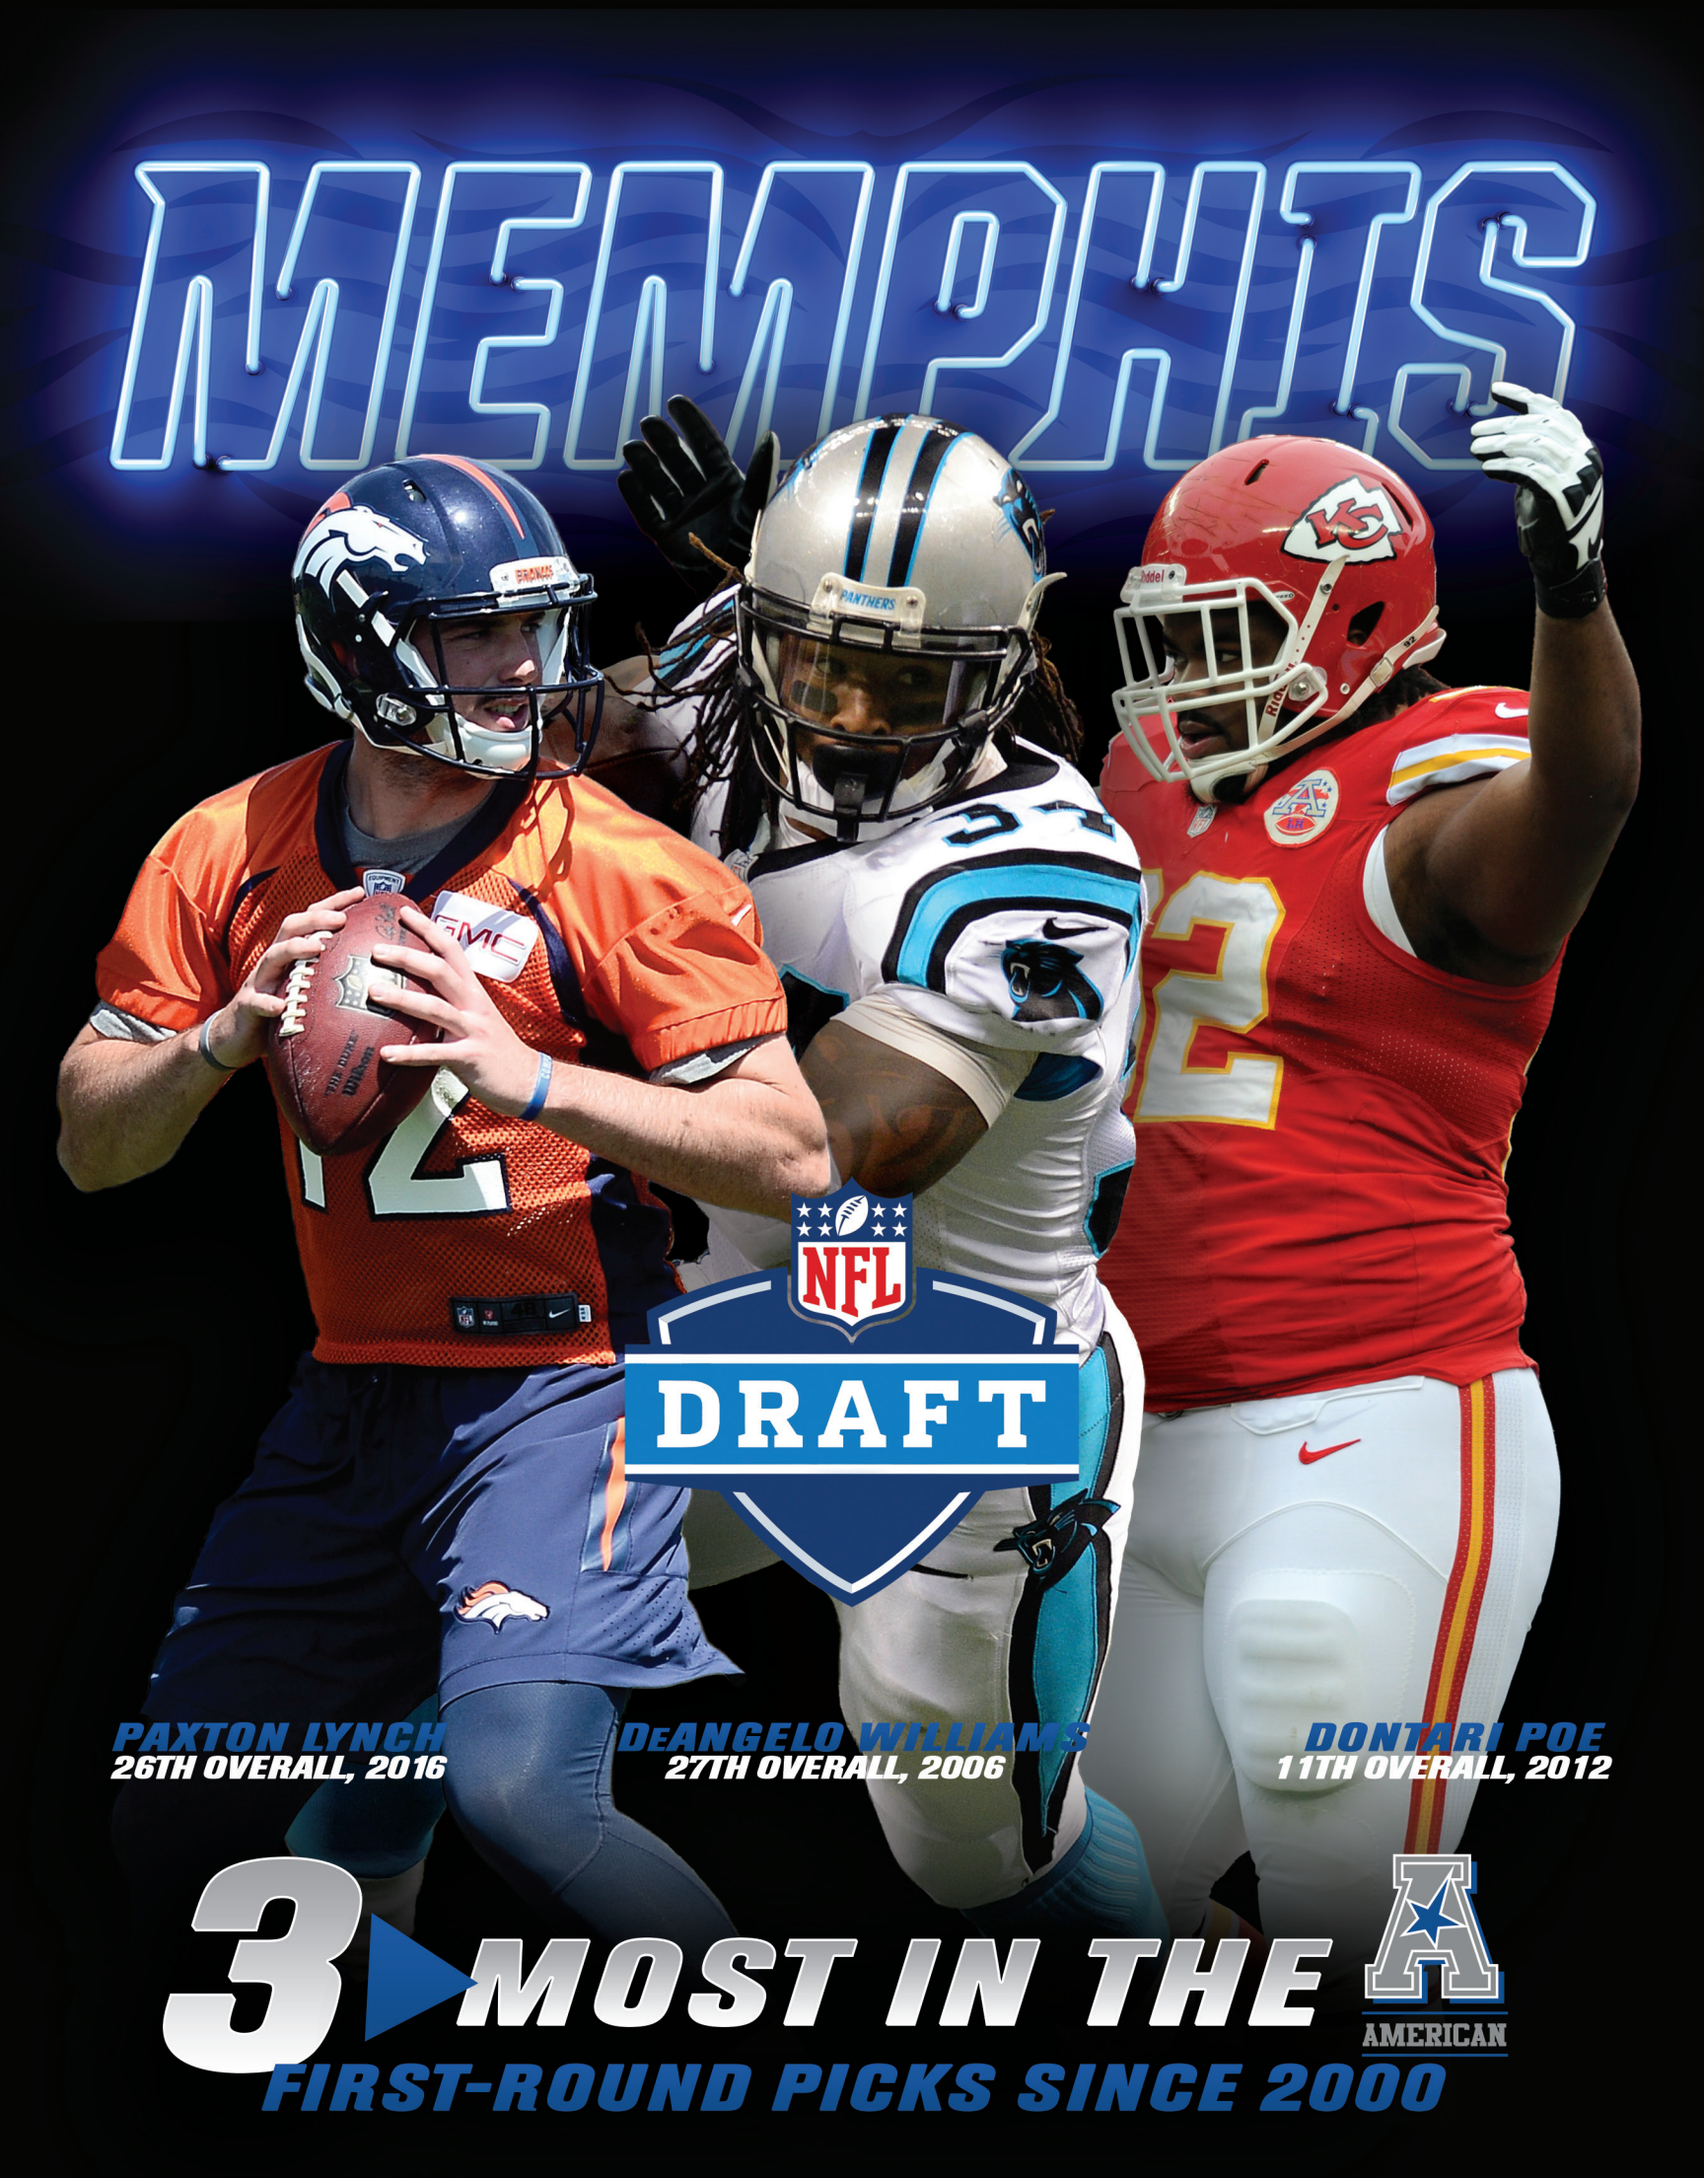

- On a short week, Memphis went to Tulsa for a Friday night game, also on ESPN2, and Paxton Lynch again capitalized on the big stage, going 32-for-44 for a career-best 447 passing yards, a new Memphis single game record. In the win, Memphis piled up a school record 704 yards of total offense. The win pushed No. 18/17 Memphis to 7-0 on the year, giving the program its best start since 1938.
- For the sixth time on the season, Memphis fell behind early in a Halloween game against Tulane. Tulane scored the first two touchdowns of the game to take a 13-0 lead early in the second quarter (the Green Wave's first point after was blocked by Jackson Dillon, his second straight blocked PAT on a Halloween game). But New Orleans' native Doroland Dorceus scored on a two-yard rush with 10:38 to play in the second quarter, starting a 41-0 scoring onslaught the pushed Memphis to 8-0 on the year.
- In their first-ever game against Navy, Memphis could not answer the Midshipmen's triple option offense, falling 45-20. The game featured a crowd of 55,212, the largest-ever crowd for a conference home game in Memphis history. In the game, Paxton Lynch notched his eighth 300-yard passing game of the season, but Memphis fumbled four times, allowing the Midshipmen to turn those turnovers in to 10 points. Tennessee native Keenan Reynolds came in to the game in Memphis needing one touchdown set the NCAA career touchdown record. The Tiger defense kept him out of the endzone, but could not keep Chris Swain from paydirt, as Swain rushed for 108 yards on 18 attempts, scoring three touchdowns. The loss would drop Memphis a game behind Houston and Navy in the West Division standings, a tough feat with a 9-0 Houston squad next up for Memphis on the schedule.

•Coming off their first loss of the season, the question was how would Memphis respond in a road game at an unbeaten Houston opponent. The answer was that it wasn't how the Tigers started that would be the story of this game, but how they finished. Memphis jumped out of the gates quickly, leading 20-0 after Doroland Dorceus went 61 yards for a touchdown with 1:52 left in the second quarter. But a Houston touchdown with 37 seconds left in the second quarter gave the Cougars enough of a turn of the tide, trailing 20-7 at the half. Out of the locker room, Houston cut the deficit to six on a touchdown early in the third quarter. Dorceus added his second touchdown of the game and Tevin Jones scored on a 25 yard sweep early in the fourth quarter to put Memphis up 34-14 with 14:51 to play. But that was it for the Tiger offense, as Houston scored three touchdowns in the final 12:56 to take the lead 35-34 with 1:27 left in the game. Memphis mounted one last drive, hoping to come back as they had in six previous games. Starting from their own 23, Memphis got to the Houston 31 yards line in 1:08, bringing on Jake Elliott, who would be named a Lou Groza finalist later in the month. Elliott's 48 yard attempt had the distance, but drifted right, as Houston handed Memphis its second straight loss, also snapping a five-game losing streak to the Tigers in the series history.

- The offensive drought that seemed to start in Houston in the fourth quarter unfortunately followed Memphis to Philadelphia, where the Tigers, playing in their second NFL venue of the year, were held without a touchdown for the first time on the season in a 31-12 loss to Temple.
- In the regular season finale, the Tiger offense unveiled some offensive frustrations from previous weeks, as Paxton Lynch unleashed for a school-record seven touchdowns in the opening half, going 9-for-14 for 222 yards. Lynch's seven touchdowns in a half tied an NCAA FBS record. The Tiger defense also toughened up for senior day, holding SMU to just 97 yards of total offense and accounting for two touchdowns of their own as Leonard Pegues and Jackson Dillon each recovered fumbles for touchdowns.
- As the Tigers were wrapping up senior day festivities against SMU, word began circulating that head coach Justin Fuente would be named the new head coach at Virginia Tech. The rumor turned out to be true, and Fuente would not be with the Tigers for their 2015 Birmingham Bowl Appearance, as he and some of his former Tiger assistants had left to begin work at Virginia Tech. Assistant head coach Darrell Dickey stepped in as the program's interim head coach, and guided the Tigers during the Birmingham Bowl.
- Memphis had five players earn all-conference honors, including first team honors for Paxton Lynch, Taylor Fallin, Spencer Smith and Jake Elliott. Elliott would earn his second straight American Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year Award. Alan Cross would earn his second straight all-conference honor from the league with honorable mention honors.
- On December 4th, just six days after announcing the beginning of its search to replace Coach Fuente, the Tigers' administration was introducing Mike Norvell as the program's 24th head coach. Norvell had spent the previous four seasons at Arizona State, where he served as the program's deputy head coach and offensive coordinator.
- As the team prepared for the bowl game, seniors Taylor Fallin (East-West Shrine Game) and Ryan Mack (NFLPA Collegiate Bowl) announced they would play in post-collegiate games.
- In front of a Birmingham Bowl-record crowd of 59,430, the Tigers came back from a 10-0 deficit to tie the game at 10-all after an interception return by Reggis Ball, but the Auburn defense held the Memphis off the board in the second half in a 31-10 win. In addition to the Tiger senior class, the game would be the final appearance in the blue and gray for redshirt junior Paxton Lynch as Lynch announced on New year's Eve that he was forgoing his final year of eligibility to enter the NFL draft.
- Jake Elliott would earn second team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation after leading all FBS kickers in scoring with 128 points in the regular season. Elliott would also be a finalist for the Lou Groza Award, attending The Home Depot ESPN College Football Awards Show.
- Lynch, who participated in the NFL Combine and who held a Pro Day workout that was televised live from the Billy J. Murphy Complex, would become the seventh Tiger drafted in the first round of the NFL draft as he was picked 22nd overall by the Denver Broncos. He becomes the sixth Tiger quarterback in program history to be drafted in to the NFL. Former teammates Alan Cross (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), Taylor Fallin (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), Mose Frazier (Denver Broncos), Tevin Jones (Houston Texans), Ryan Mack (Dallas Cowboys) and Winton McManis (San Francisco 49ers) would all sign undrafted free agent deals following the draft.
