A LITTLE OFF THE TOP

Saturday's match-up between Memphis and UCF will be the first rematch of an American Athletic Conference Championship game. Memphis is the first West Division team to make a second championship game. With the 31-30 loss to UCF on Oct. 13, Memphis trails 12-1 in the all-time series with the Knights.

Memphis lived up to the preseason expectations and won the American Athletic Conference West Division for the second-consecutive season. The Tigers were selected as favorites for the second-straight season and the third time in four years. Memphis was also picked to win the division prior to the 2015 and 2017 seasons.

Memphis took a different route to this year's West Division title. The Tigers recovered from a 1-3 start in league play, winning the final four regular-season games to clinch the championship. Last season, the Tigers tied the program record with seven conference wins.

Eight Memphis Tigers were named to the AAC's all-conference teams. RB Darrell Henderson, OL Dustin Woodard and PR Pop Williams were named to the first team. DB TJ Carter, WR Damonte Coxie, LB Bryce Huff and OL Trevon Tate are second-team honorees, while LB Curtis Akins was named Honorable Mention.

Memphis has reached the eight win mark for the 17th time in program history and accomplished a program first, winning eight or more games for the fifth-straight season for the first time. The Tigers won eight-plus games from 1960-63.

For the first time in program history, Memphis is going bowling for a fifth-consecutive season. With the Nov. 10 win over Tulsa, the Tigers clinched bowl eligibility. Memphis has a 5-6 record in its bowl games all-time. The Tigers' last bowl win was a thrilling 55-48 double-OT victory over BYU in the 2015 Miami Beach Bowl.

RB Darrell Henderson is the nation's most explosive back, with an FBS-best 10 rushes of 40-plus yards and 13 total plays of 40-plus yards. He is second in the nation with 1,699 rushing yards, 8.58 yards per carry and 19 rushing TD. Henderson is a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, honoring the nation's premier running back.

Henderson set the single-season American Athletic Conference record with 1,699 rushing yards. He has eight 100-yard rushing games this season and 15 in his career. His 3,335 career rushing yards rank second in Memphis history, his 33 career rushing TD are third all-time at Memphis and his 42 total TD rank second in program history.

Memphis has posted 45 victories over the last five seasons, giving the Tigers the 14th-most wins in the FBS since 2014. The 45 wins are tied with Houston for the most among American Athletic Conference schools during that stretch.

Head coach Mike Norvell recorded his 26th career win on Nov. 23 vs. Houston, surpassing Billy J. Murphy for the most wins over a three-year stretch by a Tiger head coach. Murphy won 25 games from 1961-63 (29 games). Earlier this season, Norvell surpassed Ralph Hatley for the most wins in the first three seasons as head coach of the Tigers.

Mike Norvell came to Memphis with an ability to develop dynamic offenses, and his first two seasons with the Tigers did not disappoint.

Year One of the Norvell-era offense was the second most-prolific in program history behind only 2015, rolling up the second-most total yards (6,028) and scoring the second-most points (505) for a season in school history. Year Two shattered those marks with 6,917 total yards, and 592 points scored. The Memphis offense also scored the most touchdowns (74) for a campaign in program history, including a single-season school record 39 touchdown passes. The Tigers' 4,355 passing yards were the first 4,000-plus passing season in school history and the 307 completions was the third-most for a season in school history.

Under Norvell's direction, Riley Ferguson and Anthony Miller blossomed at quarterback and receiver, respectively. Ferguson finished his career at Memphis with 7,955 passing yards, ranking third in program history despite only being on the roster for two seasons. Ferguson's 70 passing touchdowns ranks second only to four-year starter Danny Wimprine in the Memphis record book.

Miller became just the third Tiger and the first skill position player in school history to earn NCAA consensus All-America honors after finishing his career with 3,590 receiving yards and 238 catches. The 238 catches set a new Memphis career mark and his 3,590 yards in three seasons made Miller the first Tiger in school history to have over 3,000 career receiving yards. Miller's 37 receiving touchdowns are 15 more than the previous career mark at Memphis and helped him earn the Touchdown Club of Columbus' Paul Warfield honor.

While the offense flourished in Norvell's first two seasons, the Tigers defense and special teams were not to be overshadowed. After turning opponents over 29 times in 2016, the Tigers forced 31 turnovers in 2017, ranking third in the nation. Memphis' 15 fumble recoveries tied for fourth in the country.

Senior linebacker Genard Avery repeated back-to-back all-conference first team honors and finished his career among the top three in program history in career sacks (2nd, 21.5) and tackles for loss (3rd, 41.5). Freshman defensive back T.J. Carter also made a name for himself in the Tigers secondary, earning USA Today Freshman All-America honors after finishing fifth on the team with 69 tackles and leading the squad with five interceptions.

After ranking 11th in turnover margin in Norvell's first year at Memphis, the Tigers' ranked third (1.15) in 2017, thanks in part to an offense that turned the ball over just 16 times in 13 games.

The focus Norvell and his staff placed on the game's third phase, special teams, has provided major dividends in his time at Memphis. It also brought to an end what was believed to be the longest kick return for a touchdown drought in FBS history. The span of time was nearly 21 seasons, but the 2016 Tigers special teams laid that record to rest and then some.

In the Oct. 6 win over Temple, freshman Tony Pollard took an Owls' kickoff and raced 95 yards for a touchdown, the first by a Memphis player since November of 1996. Not to stop there, Norvell's special teams ran back two more kickoffs for scores and set the program's season record for kick returns for touchdowns with three. Pollard had a second kick-return score (100 yards vs. Navy), and Darrell Henderson added another (99 yards vs. SMU). The three kick returns for touchdowns were tied for the FBS lead in 2016.

Pollard continued his special teams prowess in 2017, returning four kickoffs for touchdowns and earning first team Walter Camp All-American honors after leading the country in yards per kickoff return (40.0) and kickoff return touchdowns (four). Pollard also grabbed his second consecutive American Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year honor in 2017.

In 2016, Memphis had the second-best kick return defense in the country, allowing opponents a mere 16.04 yards per return and none returned for touchdowns. A major reason for the Tigers' success on kick return defense was Lou Groza semifinalist Jake Elliott's 64 touchbacks out of 92 kickoffs (69.6 percent). Elliott's 64 touchbacks led The American and was third nationally. After Elliott graduated and moved on to the Super Bowl-winning Philadelphia Eagles roster in his rookie year, Norvell and his staff tapped freshman Riley Patterson to handle kicking duties and the Tigers still ranked among the country's best, finishing 14th in kickoff return defense (17.75 ypr).

Off the field, Norvell's Tigers are excelling in the classroom. The team just posted its highest GPA in program history in the fall of 2017 and, in his two seasons at the helm of the Tigers, 34 football players have earned their bachelor's degrees, including 2018 NFL Draft Combine invitees Riley Ferguson, Anthony Miller and Genard Avery. Norvell is married to the former Maria Chiolino of Fort Smith, Arkansas. They have one daughter, Mila.

THE MEMPHIS-UCF SERIES

- Saturday's match-up between Memphis and UCF will be the first rematch of an American Athletic Conference Championship game. Memphis is the first West Division team to make a second championship game.
- With the 31-30 loss to UCF on Oct. 13, Memphis trails 12-1 in the all-time series with the Knights.
- The Tigers won the first meeting over UCF, 37-28, at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium in 1990 but have not won a game in the series since.
- For the second-consecutive season, Memphis and UCF will play for a second time during the season. The two games against UCF last season marked the first time since 1964 for the Tigers to face the same team twice in a season.

BACK-TO-BACK

- Memphis lived up to the preseason expectations and won the American Athletic Conference West Division for the second-consecutive season. The Tigers were selected as favorites for the second-straight season and the third time in four years. Memphis was also picked to win the division prior to the 2015 and 2017 seasons.
- Memphis took a different route to this year's West Division title. The Tigers recovered from a 1-3 start in league play, winning the final four regular-season games to clinch the championship.
- Last season, the Tigers tied the program record with seven conference wins. Memphis won its first AAC West Division Championship and played in the conference championship game for the first time.
- Memphis has posted a 48-28 overall record since joining the American Athletic Conference in 2013. The Tigers are 30-18 in league games as a member of The American.

CONSISTENCY

- Memphis has reached the eight win mark for the 17th time in program history and accomplished a program first, winning eight or more games for the fifth-straight season for the first time. The Tigers won eight-plus games from 1960-63.
- The Tigers' eight win seasons: 1929 (8-0-2), 1938 (10-0), 1949 (9-1), 1950 (9-2), 1960 (8-2), 1961 (8-2), 1962 (8-1), 1963 (9-0-1), 1969 (8-2), 1973 (8-3), 2003 (9-4), 2004 (8-4), 2014 (10-3), 2015 (9-3), 2016 (8-5), 2017 (10-3) and 2018 (8-4).
- Memphis is one of just 18 FBS programs with eight-plus wins in five of the last six years – Alabama, Boise State, Clemson, Georgia, Houston, Iowa, LSU, Louisville, Marshall, Memphis, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Southern Cal, Stanford, Texas A&M, Washington, Wisconsin.
- With a win in the American Athletic Conference Championship, the Tigers will reach the nine win mark for only the ninth time out of 103 football seasons – 1938 (10-0), 1949 (9-1), 1950 (9-2), 1963 (9-0-1), 2003 (9-4), 2014 (10-3), 2015 (9-3) and 2017 (10-3).

KNOCK 'EM DOWN

- For the first time in program history, Memphis is going bowling for a fifth-consecutive season. With the Nov. 10 win over Tulsa, the Tigers clinched bowl eligibility.
- Memphis accomplished a program first in 2017, appearing in a fourth-consecutive bowl game.
- Last season, the Tigers clinched bowl eligibility status with their Oct. 19 win at Houston, marking the second-earliest in a season that Memphis has become bowl eligible. In 2015, the Tigers won their sixth game on Oct. 17 over Ole Miss to clinch a bowl berth.
- Memphis has a 5-6 record in its bowl games all-time. The Tigers' last bowl win was a thrilling 55-48 double-OT victory over BYU in the 2015 Miami Beach Bowl.

MORE THAN ONE WAY TO SKIN A CAT

- The Tigers have set the school record with 42 rushing TD this season. Memphis annihilated the previous record of 33 rushing TD set in 1961 and 2017.
- With 3,311 rushing yards, Memphis has also broken the single-season program-record for rushing yards, set in 2005. Led by DeAngelo Williams, the 2005 team rushed for 3,215 yards.
- In 2016 and 2017, Memphis passed for more TD than any other teams in program history. The Tigers tossed a school-record 39 TD passes last season and a program second-best 34 TD passes in 2016.
- Memphis' 526 points scored and 6,363 total offensive yards this season both rank as the second-most in program history. Both records were set last season, with 592 points and 6,917 yards.

FINISH STRONG

- The Tigers entered the final month of the regular season with the need for a strong finish and the Tigers did just that, going 4-0 in November to win the American Athletic Conference West Division title.
- The strong finish should not surprise anyone though. Under head coach Mike Norvell, Memphis has a track record of doing just that.
- Since 2016, Memphis has posted a combined 10-1 record in the month of November. Of the 10 November wins, five of them have come on the road.
- Norvell's late-season success goes back to his time at Arizona State as well, helping the Sun Devils to an 11-6 record in November games.

KAPTAIN KYSER

- Senior C Drew Kyser is set to make his 51st career start Saturday, which will tie former OG Gabe Kuhn (2014-17) for the program record for career starts. Kyser has been the keystone of the Tigers' offensive line since 2015, blocking for the most prolific offenses in school history.
- Kyser has made the fifth-most consecutive starts among active FBS offensive linemen (49 starts). He is one of just 10 FBS lineman to have started at least 40-consecutive games.
- The Memphis offensive line, led by Kyser, is one of only six FBS units to have started the same five players all season.
- Kyser is the only Tiger to have captained the team in every game this season.

OLD GUYS

- Sixth-year players Sam Craft and Jackson Dillon have seen it all in their Tiger careers, and the duo has played a big part in helping turn around the Memphis football program.
- The pair were freshmen in 2013 when Memphis posted a 3-9 record and finished last in the American Athletic Conference with a 1-7 record. Craft and Dillon then led Memphis to one of the biggest turnarounds in college football, posting a 10-3 record and winning a share of the American Athletic Conference title.
- Craft and Dillon have now been part of leading the Tigers to five consecutive bowl games after they both signed with a program that had not had a winning season or been to a bowl game since 2008.

STRIKING FEAR INTO THEIR HEARTS

- Tony Pollard has established himself as the nation's best kickoff returner, with six career kickoff return TD and a career kickoff return average of 30.5 yards on 74 returns. Pollard's next kickoff return for a TD will tie the NCAA record. Three players hold the record of seven career kickoff return TD – C.J. Spiller (Clemson, 2006-09), Tyron Carrier (Houston, 2008-11) and Rashaad Penny (San Diego State (2014-17).
- Opposing teams have taken notice. Pollard returned 38 kickoffs as a redshirt freshman in 2016, returning two for a TD. With far fewer opportunities in 2017, he managed to take four kickoffs to the house on 22 returns. This season, teams aren't taking the chance and Pollard has only 14 kickoff returns.
- The strategy has been effective though. With Pollard mostly out of the equation, the Tigers' average starting field position from a kickoff has dropped to inside the 30-yard line at 28.7. Last season, Memphis' average starting field position from a kickoff was over five yards better, at 33.8.
- The Tigers have found more ways to get the ball in Pollard's hands and his rushing numbers are up, with career highs in carries (55), yards (398) and TD (5). He also has 452 receiving yards and three TD.

THAT'S A LOT OF WINS

- Memphis has posted 45 victories over the last five seasons, giving the Tigers the 14th-most wins in the FBS since 2014. The 45 wins are tied with Houston for the most among American Athletic Conference schools during that stretch.
- The 45 wins from 2014-18 marks the winningest five-year stretch in program history. Memphis won 40 games from 2013-17.
- With 35 wins since 2015, the Tigers' senior class is only the sixth in program history to win 30 or more games in a four-year period. The Tigers' 1950 senior class was the first to win 30 games. The teams to win at least 30 games in a four-year span are: 1950 (30 wins), 1962 (30 wins), 1963 (33 wins), 1964 (30 wins), 2017 (37 wins) and 2018 (35 wins).
- With 10 wins last season, Memphis produced the winningest four-year stretch in program history. From 2014-17, the Tigers produced a 37-14 record and surpassed the previous best four-year stretch from 1960-63 (33-5-1 record).
- Memphis' 2017 campaign marked just the third 10-win season in program history, and second 10-win regular season since 1938 (10-0 record). The 2014 Memphis squad won 10 games (10-3 record), but that team's 10th victory came in the Miami Beach Bowl.
- The Tigers have only recorded nine-plus wins just eight times out of 102 total seasons of football – 1938 (10-0), 1949 (9-1), 1950 (9-2), 1963 (9-0-1), 2003 (9-4), 2014 (10-3), 2015 (9-3) and 2017 (10-3).

THAT'S A LOT OF WINS (BY A TIGERS COACH)

- Head coach Mike Norvell recorded his 26th career win on Nov. 16 at SMU, surpassing Billy J. Murphy for the most wins over a three-year stretch by a Tiger head coach. Murphy won 25 games from 1961-63 (29 games).
- Earlier this season, Norvell surpassed Ralph Hatley for the most wins in the first three seasons as head coach of the Tigers. Hatley won 21 games through his first three seasons as head coach at Memphis from 1947-49 (30 games).
- Norvell recorded 18 total victories in his first two seasons, surpassing head coach Richard Williamson (1975-80) for the most wins in the first two seasons as head coach of the Tigers. Williamson won 14 games in his first two seasons as head coach.
- Norvell's current .684 winning percentage is tied for the highest by a head coach in Memphis history. Allyn McKeen produced a .684 winning percentage as head coach from 1937-38.

TOM III IS A WINNER

- Memphis' live Bengal Tiger mascot, TOM III, attended his first game at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium as a cub in 2008, and starting with the 2009 season hasn't missed a Tigers game inside the stadium since. In 66 games attended, TOM III has produced a 37-29 record at the Liberty Bowl.
- Born Aug. 31, 2008, TOM III arrived in Memphis on Oct. 23 and attended his first game Nov. 22 against UCF at the Liberty Bowl. Since his arrival in Memphis, the Tigers have gone 60-69 (.465) overall.
- TOM III's predecessors did not have the same level of on-field success. The university's first live mascot, TOM, recorded an 85-119-6 (.405) record from 1972-91. Starting in 1992, TOM II patrolled the sidelines and saw Memphis produce an 84-108 (.438) mark until his passing in 2008.
- TOM III was raised by a proud Memphis Tiger, Scott Forman, who has attended 244-consecutive Memphis football games since 1999.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

- Since 2014, Memphis is a combined 28-5 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and 18-3 in the three seasons under head coach Mike Norvell. This season's 6-1 home record marks just the third season in program history with six or more home wins.
- 2018 marked the fifth-consecutive season that the Tigers won five-plus home games. The Tigers won five-plus home games in five-straight seasons from 1959-63.
- For the first time in program history last season, Memphis recorded an undefeated regular season record (7-0) at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1965.
- The seven home wins are a program record. The Tigers have only three unblemished home records in their history: 1938 (6-0), 1959 (5-0) and 2017 (7-0). The 1963 team went unbeaten at home with a 5-0-1 mark.

TIGERS IN OVERTIME GAMES

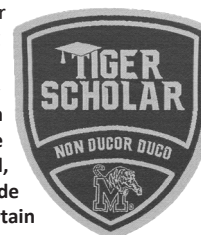

- Memphis has been involved in eight overtime games (2-6). Memphis has played a total of four multi-overtime affairs and has a 2-2 record in those games.
- The Tigers came up just short in the 2017 American Athletic Conference Championship game in double overtime at UCF, 62-56. The Tigers and Knights combined to score 117 points, the highest total in a conference title game in FBS history.
- The Tigers ended the 2014 season with the first overtime game in five seasons, defeating BYU 55-48 in double overtime at the Miami Beach Bowl.

- Henderson is the second player in program history to log back-to-back 200-yard rushing efforts (DeAngelo Williams, three-straight games in 2005). His 200-yard rushing game against Navy was the first by a Tiger rusher since Curtis Steele against Tulsa in 2009.

- Henderson and Taylor have the most combined rushing yards (2,593) of any duo in the FBS this season.

- Coxie has also made at least one reception in 17 consecutive games, which is 14th in program history.

- In 13 games last season, Memphis had 20 scoring drives of less than a minute.

- Against Mercer the Tigers tied the program record for points scored in a half, jumping out to a 56-0 halftime

- Under DC Chris Ball, the Memphis defense is one of just seven FBS programs to have 75-plus combined takeaways over the last three seasons. The Tigers have the fifth-most forced turnovers from 2016-18 with 77.
- Troy and UCF lead the FBS with 83 total takeaways since 2016. From 2016-17, the Tigers forced 60 total turnovers, second only to Wyoming's 65.
- Memphis had 16 INT and 15 fumble recoveries last season. In 2016, the Tigers grabbed 13 INT and 16 fumbles.
- TJ Carter led the Tigers with five INT as a freshman in 2017. Of the Tigers 16 total INT last season, 13 were by players that return this season.
- Memphis ranked fourth in the FBS in fumbles recovered last season. Three Tigers tied with two recoveries each, including returners Carter and DB Austin Hall.

- Over the last three seasons, Memphis has a distinct advantage when forcing an opposing offense to be one-dimensional. The Tigers have posted a 19-1 record since 2016 in games in which they hold their opponent to under 150 rushing yards. The one loss came in the 2017 AutoZone Liberty Bowl, when Memphis held Iowa State to 32 rushing yards.
- The Tigers did manage to do something last season that they were unable to do in 2016, overcoming a large rushing output to win a game. Memphis outlasted Navy after the Midshipmen rushed for 314 yards on 68 carries. The Tigers also beat Houston and SMU in games in which they rushed for over 200 yards.

- Memphis LB Bryce Huff has broken out in his junior season and leads the team with 9.5 sacks and 18 total TFL, both ranking in the Top 15 nationally. Playing in all 12 games this season with five starts, Huff is ninth on the team with 42 total tackles.
- Huff's 9.5 sacks are the seventh-most in a single season in program history and his 18 total TFL rank third in a single season at Memphis.
- Huff's biggest game this season was on Sept. 28 at Tulane when he recorded two sacks and five TFL, which ranks tied for third-most in a game in program history. He also finished with a career-high nine total tackles.
- The Mobile, Ala., native had 30 total tackles last season with two sacks and five TFL.

- Last season, DB TJ Carter became the first true freshman to start a season opener in the Memphis defensive backfield since 2011. Bakari Hollier started the first game of his career against Mississippi State in 2011.
- Carter started 2018 with his sixth career INT, returning it for his first career TD.
- Carter's team-high five INT in 2017 were the most by a Tigers freshman in program history. Johnnie Walker recorded four INT as a freshman in 1982, and Eric Harris had four INT in 1973.
- Carter's play did not go unnoticed, as he was named the American Athletic Conference Rookie of the Year and selected to the ESPN.com and USA Today Freshman All-America teams.

- Memphis returned eight of the 11 regular starters from last season's defense and a total of 13 players who started at least one game a season ago.
- The Tigers' most experienced player returned from injury for a sixth year at Memphis. LB Jackson Dillon has 39 career starts and 132 total tackles under his belt.
- Junior DB Austin Hall has the second-most starts, with 36. Hall started every game last season and made 11 starts in 2016 before a season-ending injury.

- DL Joseph Dorceus followed his brother and former Tigers RB Doroland Dorceus to Memphis to walk on to the football team in 2016. After redshirting a year and then earning his first playing time in 2017, Dorceus was awarded a scholarship in the spring of 2018.
- Undersized for the position at 6-0 and 275-pounds, Dorceus is an example of how hard work and determination can pay off. This season, he is tied for second on the team with six sacks and is fourth with seven total TFL. Dorceus has 40 total tackles, seven QB hurries, one forced fumble and two PBU.
- Dorceus can be seen on the other side of the ball as well, playing fullback in jumbo package situations.

THE NATION'S BEST

- Nobody in the FBS has been better than Tony Pollard at returning kickoffs since 2016. The Tigers junior has returned 74 career kickoffs for an average of 30.5 yards per return (2,255 yards).
- Pollard has a Memphis record with six career kickoff return TD, which is one shy of the NCAA career record.
- Last season, Pollard led the nation with a 40.05 yards per return average, the third-highest season average in FBS history.
- Pollard is the only active FBS player with five or more career kickoff return TD.
- From 1996-2016, Memphis had not had a kickoff return for a TD over a 233-game streak until Pollard went 95 yards for the score against Temple on Oct. 6, 2016.
- In the 50 seasons from 1947-96, Memphis had just 12 kickoff return TD. Then the Tigers endured the 20-year drought leading up to the 2016 season. Now, over the last 34 games, Memphis has returned seven kickoffs for TD.

POP!

- WR John 'Pop' Williams electrified the Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium crowd with a spinning, twisting, 72-yard punt return TD against Tulsa on Nov. 10. The punt return TD was the first for Memphis since Roderick Proctor in the 2015 season opener against Missouri State, a stretch of 47 games.
- Williams' punt return TD is just the third for the Tigers in the last 23 seasons.
- Williams finished the game with four returns for 109 yards, just the fifth 100-yard punt return performance in program history. The 27.25 punt return average is the sixth-best single game average in program history.
- With a season punt return average of 11.1 yards, Williams is second in the American Athletic Conference and ranks 11th in the FBS. His 310 total punt return yards on 28 returns this season are the second-most in the FBS.

THE KICKER

- PK Riley Patterson had big shoes to fill when becoming Memphis' primary kicker in 2016 after the illustrious career of PK Jake Elliott. Elliott finished his career as the program's all-time leading scorer and won Super Bowl LII with the Philadelphia Eagles last season.
- Patterson this season is 67-of-70 on PAT and connecting on 13 FG. He now has 106 total points, which ranks fifth in a single-season by a kicker.
- He is 13-of-16 on FG attempts this season. At Missouri, Patterson kicked a career-long 52-yard FG. The 52-yard FG was the first of 50-plus yards by a Memphis player since Jake Elliott kicked a 50-yard FG at Tulane in 2016.
- Patterson finished with 96 points in his freshman campaign, the eighth-most by a kicker in a season and tied for 11th-most in overall single-season scoring.
- On FG, Patterson went 11-of-16 with a pair of 42-yarders.

THE FRESHMAN

- The Tigers have a new punter in 2018, and like PK Riley Patterson last season, he has big shoes to fill. Adam Williams redshirted last season behind seniors Spencer Smith and Nick Jacobs.
- Williams has punted 45 times for an average of 42.5 yards per punt. He has a long punt of 73 yards, has 12 fair catches and 16 punts downed inside the 20 yard line.
- Williams, from Lebanon, Tenn., played football and soccer at Wilson Central and was a semifinalist for the Mr. Football Kicker of the Year. He was also named a Tennessee Titan Mr. Football finalist after hitting 16-of-18 FG as a senior and averaging 41.9 yards over 33 punts.
- He ended his career named the Region 4-6A Co-Special Teams Player of the Year and a TSSAA Class 6A All-State honoree.
- Spencer Smith ended his career as a three-time All-American Athletic Conference honoree. He finished his career with 169 punts for 7,333 yards and an average of 43.4, all in the top-10 at Memphis.

REJECTED!

- DL John Tate stuffed a pair of kicks in the Sept. 14 win over Georgia State, blocking a Panthers' FG and PAT. The blocked FG was the first by a Memphis player since 2015 vs. Cincinnati.
- Tate is no stranger to blocking kicks, as he blocked a PAT against ECU last season.
- The multiple-block effort by Tate marks the first time the Tigers blocked two kicks in the same game since 2012, when Memphis blocked a punt and FG vs. UAB.
- DL Jonathan Wilson blocked a PAT vs. South Alabama (Sept. 22). With the blocked kicks against Georgia State and South Alabama, the Tigers blocked a kick in consecutive games for the first time since 2015 (Nov. 21 vs. Temple and Nov. 28 vs. SMU).

LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM

The University of Memphis football program is fortunate to have one of the finest facilities in the nation in which to play its home games. Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, "built by the citizens of Memphis," is a memorial to the veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean War. The renovated 58,325-seat facility, built in 1965 at a cost of $3.7 million by the city of Memphis, is operated by the Spectra Venue Management.

The Tigers inaugurated the stadium in the fall of 1965 and, in 54 years, have compiled a 176-145-7 record at the Liberty Bowl. The stadium features an AstroTurf® playing surface, newly-renovated locker rooms, sky-suites and a four-level press box, which includes a VIP stadium club. The playing surface, which had been natural grass through 2004, was replaced with FieldTurf prior to the 2005 campaign. For the 2012 season, the surface changed to AstroTurf®.

The most recent Liberty Bowl renovations came in the summer of 2018 with the expansion of the home locker room in the south end zone. The transformation turned the previous space into a 6,000-square-foot, first-class area with state-of-the-art technology, spacious lockers and expanded rooms for athletic training and coaches' locker rooms.

The Liberty Bowl's previous makeover came in 2016. With the approval of the Memphis City Council in December 2015, a total of 5,596 chairback seats were added and reduced the stadium's capacity to 58,325. The new 22-inch wide chairback seats replaced the 19-inch wide chairbacks and 15-inch wide bleacher seating on the lower portion of the east and west sidelines. Other 2016 upgrades included lighting, scoreboard and the adjacent Pipkin Building, all improving the Tigers gameday experience.

The centerpiece of the 2012 renovations was a $2.5 million video scoreboard and sound system. A generous donation provided by FedEx to the UofM paved the way for the video board/sound system upgrades. The south end zone features a 98'x48' video board with a sound system located on the sides. The scoreboard's speakers and crown make the structure's size grow to 106'x58'. The north end zone was updated with an LED board that is 38'x10'.

In addition to the FieldTurf playing surface in 2005, the Liberty Bowl underwent several aesthetic changes from 2005-11 that made the stadium look more like the "Home of the Tigers."

Prior to the 2006 season, Jim McDonald of McDonald Outdoor provided several large photo wraps on the walls of the stadium's entrances to welcome Tigers fans. Graphics wraps were unveiled around the stadium's interior in 2008, and a facelift project for the lower-concourse restrooms was completed prior to that season.

A major renovation took place prior to the 2009 season when the Tigers' and visitors' locker rooms underwent makeovers. The most notable change was the separation of the two locker rooms in the south tunnel. The Tigers' locker room remained in the south tunnel, while the visitors' locker room moved to the stadium's north tunnel. Renovations in 2009 and 2013 brought the stadium into ADA compliance.

In the spring of 2010, the Memphis City Council approved a $15.7 million capital improvements budget to upgrade the grounds surrounding the Liberty Bowl. The renovations included the construction of a grand entrance off East Parkway which City Council approved naming "Tiger Lane" in honor of the facility's longest tenant — the University of Memphis. "Tiger Lane" officially opened Sept. 18, 2010, when Memphis hosted Middle Tennessee.

In December of 1983, city of Memphis officials named the playing surface Rex Dockery Field in honor of the late Tigers coach who was killed in a plane crash. Thirty years later, the University honored Dockery with a field re-dedication ceremony that included families of the four individuals who lost their lives. A commemorative plaque, located at the Tiger Lane entrance to the stadium, was unveiled in their honor.

Several professional teams also have called the Liberty Bowl home in its 53 years. In 1974, the Grizzlies of the World Football League played their only season in Memphis. From 1978-80, the stadium hosted the Memphis Rogues of the North American Soccer League, and later in 1984-85, the Showboats of the U.S. Football League (USFL). Three other professional football organizations spent one season in the Liberty Bowl: XFL's Memphis Maniax (2001), NFL's Tennessee Oilers (1997) and CFL's Memphis Mad Dogs (1995). In February 2019, Memphis' team in the Alliance of American Football opens play at the Liberty Bowl.

The largest crowd to witness a Tigers game at the Liberty Bowl was the record-setting 65,885 that attended Memphis' 1996 upset of No. 6 Tennessee 21-17.

The Liberty Bowl was where Memphis claimed its first conference championship since 1971. In the 2014 home finale, Memphis defeated Connecticut for a share of the American Athletic Conference crown. In 2017, the Tigers posted the program's first undefeated regular season at the Liberty Bowl (7-0 record) on their way to securing The American's West Division crown.

In 2015, Memphis set a home attendance record with an average of 43,802 fans per game. The past four seasons (2014-17), the Tigers attracted more than one million fans to the Liberty Bowl for an average attendance of nearly 40,000 per game.

GAME 1 // SEPT. 1 // MERCER

MERCER	14
MEMPHIS	66
LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM

If the debuts by several former record-setting University of Memphis quarterbacks serve as an indicator, Brady White's Tiger career could include a similar assault on the record books.

Ex-Tiger quarterback Riley Ferguson passed for 295 yards and three touchdowns in his debut in 2016.

Paxton Lynch, now in his third NFL season, tossed for 148 yards in his first game in 2013.

And Martin Hankins had 211 yards and two TDs in 2006.

Lynch, Ferguson and Hankins rank 2, 3 and 4 on the school's career-passing chart.

In the 66-14 season-opening victory over Mercer at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, White impressively began his run. He completed 22 of 28 passes for 358 yards and five touchdowns, all in the first half, to lead the UofM to numbers no Tiger quarterback had approached in a debut.

Behind his accuracy and leadership, Memphis led 56-0 at halftime (tying a record for most points in half). The Tigers also amassed 530 yards in the opening two quarters and 752, or two shy of a school record, for the game. White led the Tigers to touchdowns on each of their seven first-half possessions. Defensive back TJ Carter got the other first-half TD by returning a first-quarter interception 35 yards.

Henderson, who finished with 76 rushing yards -- all in the first half, helped the Tigers to 324 yards on the ground. Freshman Calvin Austin III led the Tigers with 83 yards, all on his late fourth-quarter touchdown run.

Defensively, the Tigers were dominant against the Football Championship Subdivision Bears. Mercer managed only 37 yards on 24 first-half plays and was limited to one first down.

GAME 2 // SEPT. 8 // AT NAVY

During a rainy American Athletic Conference opener at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, the University of Memphis dropped a 22-21 decision to Navy.

The culprit wasn't the wet conditions -- the Tigers outgained the Midshipmen in total yardage, 378 to 316. Memphis was undone by four turnovers leading to 10 Navy points.

Despite grabbing a 21-9 lead late in the third quarter, the Tigers (1-1, 0-1 AAC) were damaged by a fourth-quarter fumble that led to a Navy score and gave the Midshipmen (1-1, 1-0 AAC) momentum they had lost.

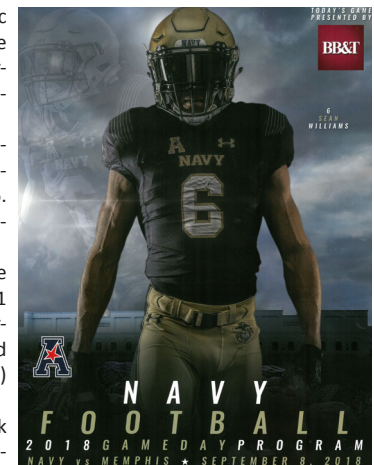

The fumble by UofM running back Patrick Taylor eventually led to a 19-yard touchdown run by Navy quarterback Malcolm Perry that trimmed the Tigers' lead to 21-16.

With 9:28 left, the Midshipmen regained possession following a Memphis punt and put together a time-consuming drive of nearly seven minutes, culminating on a 3-yard touchdown run by Navy quarterback Zach Abey with 2:37 to go. Abey's two-point conversion run failed, but Navy had a 22-21 lead.

The Tigers drove from their 32 to the Navy 35 on their final possession, but quarterback Brady White's fourth-down run came up inches short, allowing Navy to run out the clock.

Darrell Henderson led the Tigers with a career-high 212 rushing yards on 13 carries and scored on touchdown runs of 2, 59 and 78 yards. The three touchdowns also represented a career-best. White completed 15 of 25 passes for 145 yards with an interception.

Perry led Navy with 166 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 36 carries.

GAME 3 // SEPT. 14 // GEORGIA STATE

GEORGIA STATE	22
LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM

With each game, and each explosive carry, Darrell Henderson is doing his best to rekindle memories of the greatest running back in University of Memphis history.

In the 59-22 victory over Georgia State at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, Henderson certainly played the role of DeAngelo Williams. Accomplishing something that hadn't been done since 2005 – Williams' senior season – Henderson rushed for a career-high 233 yards and two touchdowns.

Henderson became the first Tiger running back since Williams to surpass 200 yards in back-to-back games. Henderson rushed for 212 yards last weekend at Navy. Williams rushed for 200 or more yards in three straight games in 2005, a school record.

Henderson rushed for touchdowns of 61 and 54 yards and finished the night averaging 16.6 yards per carry.

Quarterback Brady White passed for five touchdowns for the second time this season to complement Henderson. White completed 19 of 26 passes for 269 yards.

With the win, the Tigers (2-1) eased the pain from last weekend's heartbreaking 22-21 American Athletic Conference loss at Navy, a game in which Memphis led 21-9 in the third quarter.

The Tigers finished with 679 yards, including 410 rushing, the most yards gained on the ground by the UofM since 1972. Freshman Kenny Gainwell added 80 rushing yards, including a 72-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

Receiver Damonte Coxie led the Tigers with six catches for 123 yards and two touchdowns. The receptions, yardage and TDs were career-bests for the sophomore.

GAME 4 // SEPT. 22 // SOUTH ALABAMA

SOUTH ALABAMA	35
LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM

The game was designated Military Appreciation Day, but after the University of Memphis outlasted South Alabama, 52-35, for a hard-fought win at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, South Alabama had earned a level of respect as well.

The Jaguars battled from the start, scoring first to take a 7-0 lead, recovering from a 14-point deficit to tie the game at 21 and getting a touchdown late in third quarter to trim the Tigers' lead to four points.

Eventually, the UofM delivered a knockout punch – 21 fourth-quarter points on rushing touchdowns by Tony Pollard, Darrell Henderson and Patrick Taylor. Pollard scored on a reverse pitch from Henderson to give the Tigers a welcome cushion at 38-27 early in the fourth.

The Tigers improved to 3-1 behind yet another productive effort from the trio of Henderson, quarterback Brady White and receiver Damonte Coxie. Henderson, the nation's leading rusher, finished with 188 yards and two touchdowns; White passed for 292 yards and two TDs and Coxie caught eight passes for 113 yards and a TD.

South Alabama (1-3) was led by quarterback Evan Orth, who passed for 360 yards and three touchdowns and receiver Jamarius Way, who caught 10 passes for 185 yards and a touchdown.

Memphis displayed balance on offense, getting 292 passing yards and 271 rushing yards. South Alabama finished with 467 yards.

The Tigers put the game away early in the fourth quarter when Henderson did what he does best – breaking free for a lengthy score. His 54-yard touchdown run allowed Memphis to take a 45-27 lead, its largest of the game.

GAME 5 // SEPT. 28 // AT TULANE

MEMPHIS	24
TULANE	40
YULMAN STADIUM

The streak was snapped.

The University of Memphis entered its American Athletic Conference game at Tulane having won 11 straight in the series dating to 2002. The Green Wave, however, ended any fears of dropping a 12th straight behind an explosive second half that saw Tulane score 23 points in a six-minute, four-second span in a 40-24 victory.

The Tigers entered the game as one of the nation's most prolific offenses, but never got untracked at Yulman Stadium. Memphis, averaging 593 yards total offense, was limited to 277 yards. Darrell Henderson, the nation's leading rusher, also was held in check. He finished with 51 yards, or 126 below his 177-yard average.

Quarterback Brady White completed 14 of 30 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns.

Tulane's ability to stop the run – Memphis was limited to 31 rushing yards – and its overwhelming advantage in time of possession (39:39 to 20:21) was too much for the Tigers to overcome. The lopsided advantage in time of possession by Tulane (2-3, 1-0 AAC) eventually drained a Tiger defense that allowed more than 500 yards for the first time this season.

Despite its struggles, Memphis (3-2, 0-2 AAC) had its chances. After being held to 135 yards and only 16 snaps in the first half, the Tigers scored on its opening drive in the second half to trim the Green Wave's 17-7 halftime lead to 17-14. Henderson scored on a twisting 43-yard reception from White. Henderson also scored on a 47-yard rush in the first quarter.

But after Memphis appeared to put itself back into position for another win against the Green Wave, the Green Wave went on a scoring spree. It began on the final play of the third quarter when Darnell Mooney caught a short pass from reserve quarterback Justin McMillan and raced 51 yards for a touchdown.

GAME 6 // OCT. 6 // UCONN

The University of Memphis left no doubt.

One week after a disappointing American Athletic Conference loss at Tulane, the Tigers picked up their first league victory at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium in convincing, and overpowering, fashion.

The Tigers overwhelmed UConn, 55-14 before 27,581 by scoring on their first six drives – and seven of their first eight – to win their 12th straight regular-season game at home. Defensively, they limited UConn to 327 yards and forced four turnovers, including three interceptions.

In their one-sided victory, the Tigers (4-2 overall, 1-2 in AAC play) amassed 634 yards, mostly on the ground and almost exclusively behind Darrell Henderson and Patrick Taylor. Henderson and Taylor combined for 335 of the team's 378 rushing yards and scored three touchdowns apiece. Both surpassed 100 yards in the first half, one in which the Tigers rushed for five touchdowns.

Henderson, who had 134 yards rushing at the half, finished with 174. Taylor, who had 116 at halftime, finished with a career-high 161.

Quarterback Brady White flirted with perfection. He was 16-of-18 passing for 239 yards and a touchdown. His incompletions included a drop in the end zone and a pass he intentionally threw out of bounds.

For UConn (1-5, 0-3), quarterback David Pindell was 22-of-37 passing for 190 yards.

In the first half, the Tigers struck often and quickly, building a 41-14 lead by halftime. Memphis needed four or fewer plays to score on four of its six first-half touchdowns. Henderson had touchdown runs of 2, 26 and 61 yards, while Taylor had 35-yard touchdown runs on consecutive possessions.

GAME 7 // OCT. 13 // NO. 9/10 UCF

NO. 9/10 UCF	31
LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM

Darrell Henderson rushed for 199 yards, surpassed 1,000 yards in a season and moved to No. 2 on the University of Memphis football program's career rushing list, but his efforts weren't enough to topple the nation's 10th-ranked team.

UCF won its 19th straight game with a 31-30 American Athletic Conference victory over the Tigers Saturday at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, even though Henderson nearly ended the streak.

Henderson broke free for a 32-yard touchdown run with about six minutes left, but the play was negated by a holding penalty. Had the play stood, the Tigers would have led, 36-31.

The Tigers had one final chance, but ran out of time and good fortune. Memphis was moving into position for a last-second field goal by Riley Patterson, but a late penalty -- combined with no timeouts -- forced the Tigers to watch time run out.

UCF was trailing by 13 late in the third quarter when it converted more than a fourth-and-short play from its 29. Taj McGowan busted free from a scrum after gaining enough for a first down and rambled 71 yards for a touchdown with 2:41 to go in the quarter. It trimmed the Memphis lead to 30-24.

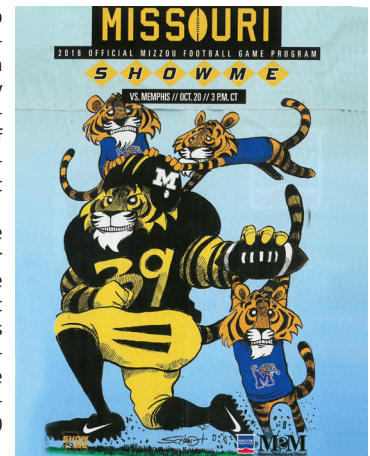

After the teams exchanged fumbles, UCF came up with another as Titus Davis pounced on a miscue by UofM receiver Kedarian Jones at the UCF 26. The Knights methodically marched 74 yards in eight plays, converting on third-and-11 during the drive and scoring on Milton's 7-yard run with 12:14 to go in the fourth quarter. Milton reached the ball across the goal as he was hit and spun around. The extra point gave UCF a 31-30 lead.

GAME 8 // OCT. 20 // AT MISSOURI

MEMPHIS	33
MISSOURI	65
FAUROT FIELD AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Against one of the nation's top rushing defenses, Patrick Taylor Jr. rattled off 115 yards on the ground with two touchdowns to lead the University of Memphis in a 65-33 setback at Missouri. Memphis spent the majority of the contest without the nation's leading rusher, Darrell Henderson, who left the game after the second drive.

Taylor's 115-yard performance marked the sixth time in his career he eclipsed the century mark on the ground. Missouri came into the contest allowing just four rushing touchdowns through six games. No Missouri opponent had more than one rushing score and Taylor had two on his own. Memphis was also the first to rush for 200 yards against Missouri.

Damonte Coxie led the Memphis offense with 111 receiving yards, 12 shy of matching his career-high. Quarterback Brady White hurled 208 yards with two touchdowns including one to Coxie.

Missouri jumped out to a 21-0 lead, capitalizing on a blocked punt and an interception on Memphis' first two drives.

With 2:15 remaining in the first quarter, Memphis' Riley Patterson kicked the first of two field goals to put the Blue and Gray on the board. Patterson's three points ignited a 17-0 run by Memphis to pull within four of Missouri, which included a one-yard rushing touchdown by Taylor and 30-yard pass to Tony Pollard.

Pollard finished the day with a team-high 130 all-purpose yards after rushing for 75 and pulling down 44 in the air.

Missouri had an answer to Memphis' strong second quarter start with three-straight touchdowns. Patterson snapped that offensive surge with a career-long 52-yard field goal with 2:41 before the half to make it a 41-20 game. The Tigers tacked on seven points in the third and six in the fourth, but were unable to overcome the first half deficit they had accumulated.

GAME 9 // NOV. 3 // AT ECU

MEMPHIS	59
ECU	41
DOWDY-FICKLEN STADIUM

A healthy Darrell Henderson cured several ills for the University of Memphis at ECU's Dowdy-Ficklen-Stadium.

Henderson returned from missing most of the previous game – a loss at Missouri – and rushed for a game-high 132 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Tigers to a 59-41 American Athletic Conference victory.

The win was the first on the road for the UofM, which improved to 5-4 overall and 2-3 in the conference. ECU dropped to 2-6 and 0-5.

For Memphis, the victory also snapped a two-game losing streak and pushed the Tigers closer to a fifth-straight postseason appearance. Memphis finished with 639 yards total offense.

Henderson had touchdown runs of 39 and 20 yards and turned a short screen pass into another score, a 71-yarder in the opening quarter.

The Tigers also got impressive efforts from quarterback Brady White and receiver Damonte Coxie. White passed for 362 yards and three touchdowns, while Coxie set a career-mark with 10 catches for 176 yards and two scores.

Ahead by seven at the half, the Tigers pushed their lead to 14 points on their first snap of the second half. Coxie hauled in a short slant from White, quickly split two defenders, and sprinted the remainder of the 75 yards to the end zone for a 31-17 advantage.

The teams went back-and-forth in the third quarter before Henderson put the game away with a pair of fourth-quarter scores. Henderson bolted 20 yards for a touchdown shortly after the UofM converted on fourth-and-short. And Henderson sealed the victory with a 39-yard scoring run with 7:31 left that made it 52-34.

GAME 10 // NOV. 10 // TULSA

University of Memphis running back Darrell Henderson continued rushing up the school's career charts. Quarterback Brady White again displayed his uncanny accuracy. And receiver Damonte Coxie kept his streak of consistency alive with a third-straight 100-yard game.

But in the 47-21 American Athletic Conference victory over Tulsa at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, it was the Tiger defense that set an early tone. The defensive unit, directed by coordinator Chris Ball, rewarded another solid outing by one of the nation's most proficient offenses and helped the UofM become bowl eligible for the fifth-straight year.

Memphis (6-4, 3-3 American) will extend a school-record postseason streak that began in 2014 when the Tigers beat BYU in the Miami Beach Bowl. Tulsa fell to 2-8 and 1-5.

Behind Henderson, White and Coxie, the Tigers amassed 499 total yards. They also got their first punt return for touchdown – a 72-yard, spinning, twisting run by John 'Pop' Williams – in three years.

Henderson rushed for 166 yards and scored twice to increase his season total to 17 rushing TDs. Patrick Taylor added 96 yards rushing and a TD, while White was 14-of-20 passing for 184 yards and two TDs. Coxie finished with six catches for 110 yards.

It was, however, the defense that showed its mettle, recovering from several difficult performances to put together a complete effort.

Midway through the third quarter – after taking a 27-7 lead – the Tiger defense had accumulated some of its best numbers of the season: nine tackles for lost yardage, four sacks, three quarterback hurries and a forced turnover. By the end of the game, those numbers read: a season-high 11 tackles for loss, a season-high five sacks and four QB hurries.

Memphis held Tulsa to a season-low 252 yards.

GAME 11 // NOV. 16 // AT SMU

MEMPHIS	28
SMU	18
GERALD J. FORD STADIUM

TD reception by James Proche, the Tigers quickly responded to put some distance between them and the Mustangs. Magnifico pushed the UofM lead back to nine (21-12) on a 9-yard TD catch with 13:19 to go.

Taylor added his second TD midway through the half on a 2-yard run.

SMU's Proche closed the scoring with another touchdown reception a few minutes later. He ended the night with 12 catches for 134 yards.

Memphis finished with 434 total yards. SMU had 366. Tiger quarterback Brady White completed 18 of 31 passes for 226 yards and the two TDs to Magnifico.

The Tigers led, 7-5, at the half, overcoming a disadvantage in time of possession by winning the first-half turnover battle. The UofM forced two turnovers, one of which led to the half's only touchdown.

Memphis outgained the Mustangs, 184-174, in total yards before halftime. The UofM defense limited SMU to 21 rushing yards. Because of their more than eight-minute advantage in time of possession (19:07 to 10:53) in the first half, the Mustangs ran 47 plays to the UofM's 34.

The drive for another trip to the American Athletic Conference title game remained alive for the University of Memphis.

On a Friday night at SMU, the Tigers rebounded from a sluggish first half to knock off the Mustangs, 28-18. Running back Patrick Taylor rushed for 112 yards and two second-half touchdowns to lead the UofM, while tight end Joey Magnifico caught one of his two TD receptions in the second half.

The Tigers never trailed after taking a 7-3 lead in the second quarter on the first of Magnifico's TDs.

Taylor boosted the UofM's lead to 14-5 shortly after halftime when he broke three tackles en route to a 9-yard scoring run. Darrell Henderson started the 65-yard scoring drive by rushing 35 yards.

Although SMU (5-6, 4-3) trimmed the Memphis lead to 14-12 with 1:22 to go in the third period on a 31-yard

GAME 12 // NOV. 23 // HOUSTON

The Tigers used a record-setting rushing performance and a clamp-down, fourth-quarter defensive effort to slam the door on Houston in an impressive 52-31 victory on Black Friday.

The win earned the Tigers to a second-straight conference West Division crown and sends Memphis to the American Athletic Conference championship game in Orlando. The Dec. 1 game, to be played at UCF's Spectrum Stadium, is set for a 2:30 p.m. (CT) kick-off on ABC.

A little more than a month ago, the Tigers were left for dead in their pursuit of a second-straight conference West Division title after a heart-breaking 31-30 setback to UCF that left them with a 1-3 league record. At the end of October, Memphis - still 1-3 at the time - was a full three games behind division leader Houston, which brought a 4-0 conference record into November.

The Tigers put together one of the greatest "month" comebacks of all-time. Memphis completed a sweep of November with a 4-0 mark to claim the division crown with a 5-3 record. The Tigers have an 8-4 overall record. Under Norvell, Memphis has a 10-1 record in games played in November.

The Memphis seniors improve their win total to 35 victories, the second-most wins by a four-year class in school history. The group has won eight or more games in each of their four seasons (9 wins in 2015; 8 in 2016; 10 in 2017; 8 in 2018).

In winning the division title and the seniors' 35th game, two records were set. One was a program record, as the Tigers shattered the school single-season rushing mark of 3,215. Memphis surpassed that mark when Darrell Henderson scampered 60 yards for the game-clinching touchdown with 9:39 left. With their 401 yards rushing, the 2018 Tigers now have 3,311 yards.

On that same 60-yard scoring run, Henderson set the American Athletic Conference single-season rushing record with 1,699 yards.

As for the game itself, the teams battled neck-and-neck through three quarters, and with 15 minutes left, the score was tied at 31-31. Memphis scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to close it out.
