THE OPENING TIP...

• Southern Indiana begins a four-game road stretch Thursday at 5:30 p.m. against UT Martin. Thursday is the only regular season meeting between USI and UT Martin. Entering Thursday, USI sits in first place in the Ohio Valley Conference standings by three games and has already clinched an OVC Tournament berth.

• USI begins its second road stint in the month of February, which includes six of nine games away from home on the schedule. Southern Indiana split its first road swing of the month, winning 81-72 at Tennessee Tech on February 1 before suffering the first OVC loss for the Screaming Eagles, 65-58, at Tennessee State on February 3.

• Last week, USI bounced back from the loss against the Tigers by sweeping a two-game homestand. The Screaming Eagles defeated Eastern Illinois, 70-60, last Thursday before winning 75-58 on Saturday against SIUE. Saturday's win against SIUE helped USI clinch its first-ever OVC Tournament berth.

• On Saturday, Southern Indiana had a bit of a slow start in the opening quarter against the Cougars, as it was 18-12 USI through one period of play. However, USI found its groove in the second quarter on both ends of the court, outscoring SIUE 23-9 and giving USI the necessary insurance toward the win. USI shot nearly 48 percent compared to SIUE's 30 percent, and USI tallied 36 points off the bench.

• In Saturday's win, freshman forward Chloe Gannon matched a career-high 18 points, while sophomore guard Ali Saunders posted 13 points on a perfect 5-5 shooting from the field. Senior forward Meredith Raley added 10 points.

• Between the two games last week, Raley led the way for USI. The senior forward averaged 16 points and seven rebounds while shooting 10-19 for nearly 53 percent. Raley also recorded four total assists. Last Thursday against Eastern Illinois, Raley matched a season-high 22 points with 12 rebounds for her fourth double-double this season.

• On the season, junior guard Vanessa Shafford paces USI at 14.5 points and eight rebounds per game. Raley and fellow senior forward Madi Webb are second and third on the team in scoring with 12.5 and 10.6 points per game, respectively. As a team, Southern Indiana is averaging 70.5 points on an OVC-best 44.1 percent shooting.

*Includes OVC, GLVC & NCAA II Tournament games

10-game win streak summary
• Between December 22 and February 1, USI Women's Basketball won 10 consecutive games, including nine straight to begin the Ohio Valley Conference season.
• At the time, the 10 wins in a row and nine in the OVC ranked among the top 10 best winning streaks in the nation. The streak allowed USI to surpass its 2022-23 overall and conference win totals.
• The overall and conference winning streak was a program best since the 2017-18 campaign while USI was in the Great Lakes Valley Conference of D-II and won 13 in a row. Plus, the nine consecutive victories to begin the OVC slate was USI's best start to a conference schedule since 1996-97, when the Screaming Eagles went 30-2 overall, 20-0 in the GLVC, and was an NCAA II National Finalist.

Caught in the Webb
• Senior forward Madi Webb has been stellar in USI's frontcourt this season, which was evidenced with a career night on January 18 against Little Rock. Webb posted career highs with 22 points, 11 rebounds, and 33 minutes played against the Trojans. Webb led all scorers in the contest.
• The 22 points and 11 boards marked Webb's second consecutive double-double, her only ones of the season, and her third career double-double. Webb had 18 points and 10 rebounds the week before in her return at SIUE.
• Webb is third on the team in scoring at 10.6 points per game and second in field goal percentage at nearly 52 percent. Webb leads the OVC with a 54.5 shooting percentage in conference-only games.

Raley on a roll
• Senior forward Meredith Raley has been on a roll lately, scoring 10-plus in 11 of the last 13 games, including four 20-point outings. Raley also recorded two consecutive double-doubles in USI's wins against Tennessee Tech and at SIUE, and she recently matched a season-high 22 points with 12 rebounds on February 8 against Eastern Illinois.
• Raley tallied a game-high 18 points on January 20 against Morehead State to reach a career milestone of 1,000 points, becoming the 21st USI Women's Basketball player to reach the 1,000-point mark.
• Since December 22, Raley is averaging 14.5 points and 7.3 rebounds per game, shooting 49 percent from the floor and nearly 80 percent at the charity stripe.

Shafford getting it done on both ends of the court
• Junior guard Vanessa Shafford is once again showcasing her versatility on both ends of the court this season following a strong 2022-23 season offensively and defensively.
• So far, Shafford is pacing Southern Indiana with 14.5 points, eight rebounds, and 1.7 steals per game. While the guard's scoring and shooting stands out routinely, her performance defensively is also just as productive.
• On the offensive end, Shafford ranks seventh in scoring in the Ohio Valley Conference and fourth in field goal percentage at 44.9 percent. Once again, Shafford is active on the glass, as her eight boards per game rank fifth in the OVC.
• Shafford recently had a double-figure scoring streak snapped on February 10 against SIUE. Prior to that game, Shafford had scored 10-plus in 19 consecutive games. The guard averaged 15.5 points per outing during the streak.
• Last season, Shafford scored 10 or more points in 22 games, including ten straight games between December 21 and January 26. Shafford was inside the top-five in the nation in three-point shooting, connecting from three at 46.8 percent. Shafford also paced USI at 7.1 rebounds per game. She secured 10 or more rebounds in seven games last season.

Seeing double-doubles
• In Southern Indiana's 69-66 home win against Tennessee Tech on January 6, the Screaming Eagles had two players post double-doubles. Junior guard Vanessa Shafford tallied 16 points and a career-best 15 rebounds, while senior forward Meredith Raley accounted for 12 points and 10 boards.
• In the next game at SIUE on January 11, USI captured an 87-64 road win behind double-doubles from its senior forwards. Madi Webb posted 18 points and 10 rebounds while Meredith Raley tallied 13 points and 11 boards.
• On February 8, USI claimed a 70-60 home win behind another pair of double-doubles. Meredith Raley registered 22 points and 12 rebounds and Vanessa Shafford accounted for 13 points and 10 caroms.

Saunders named OVC Newcomer of the Week
• Sophomore guard Ali Saunders was named OVC Newcomer of the Week on January 30. Saunders earned the honor after posting a season-best 14 points with five rebounds and matched a season-best seven assists against Western Illinois on January 25.
• Saunders hit timely three-pointers as well, finishing with four total makes from long range. The guard shot 5-7 overall for over 71 percent from the floor in her fifth start of the season.

Shafford named OVC co-Player of the Week
• Junior guard Vanessa Shafford was named OVC co-Player of the Week on January

9. In earning the honor, averaged a double-double in two games the previous week, registering 21 points and 12 rebounds per game. The junior also shot efficiently over 46 percent overall and 50 percent from long range.
• Shafford began the week with a career-high 26 points with six made triples against Tennessee State before notching a double-double of 16 points and a career-best 15 rebounds against Tennessee Tech.

Saunders steps up against Tennessee Tech
• In USI's 69-66 home win against Tennessee Tech on January 6, sophomore guard Ali Saunders stepped up in a huge way for the Screaming Eagles. Saunders made her first start of the season in place of graduate guard Tori Handley, who missed the game due to injury.
• Playing a team season-high 38 minutes for USI, Saunders posted a season-best 12 points with five arounds and a career-high seven assists. The seven assists were the most by a USI player since Soffia Rieckers had seven helpers against Southeast Missouri in December 2022.
• Not only was Saunders' stat line impressive in an all-around performance, but the sophomore guard extended USI's late three-point lead to two possessions by draining a clutch three-pointer with 30 seconds left on the clock.

Lucky '13' for Gannon
• Between December 17 and December 29, freshman forward Chloe Gannon scored exactly 13 points in three consecutive games.
• Gannon first posted 13 points on December 17 when USI hosted Big 12 Cincinnati. Gannon then matched it in the two following matchups against Brescia (KY) and at Southeast Missouri.
• At the time, the 13 points were the most by a USI freshman since Vanessa Shafford had 15 points against Rockhurst in February 2022. Gannon has since surpassed her own freshman marks, renewing her career high with 18 points on two occasions.
• Gannon's three-game stretch of 13 points was also the first time a USI player scored the same exact points total of 10 or more in three straight games since Ariel Barnes did so as a junior during the 2012-13 season. Barnes just so happened to also score 13 points in three consecutive games between January 31 and February 7 of 2013.

Blackwell returns in 2023-24
• Redshirt senior guard Addy Blackwell missed all of the 2022-23 season while recovering from offseason injuries that required surgery. Last season, she was able to learn and see a different perspective from the sideline while still exemplifying her leadership.
• Prior to her injury, Blackwell was one of USI's top offensive threats in 2021-22 as the floor general. During the 2021-22 campaign, Blackwell averaged just over nine points per game while shooting nearly 41 percent overall (67-165). She was also one of USI's top three-point threats at 44 percent (47-107) from beyond the arc.
• Coming back into the starting lineup in 2023-24, Blackwell is tallying 5.3 points per game and is shooting nearly 37 percent overall and 35 percent from beyond the arc.

USI establishing post presence with new faces
• At the end of the 2022-23 season, USI lost one of its best inside players in Hannah Haithcock, who graduated to pursue her master's degree. Haithcock led the squad at 14.8 points per game and was second in rebounding with 6.5 caroms per outing. Haithcock ranked among the top of Ohio Valley Conference in both categories and was an All-OVC First Team selection.
• This season, USI has used a combination of new faces to try and fill that void down in the post, led by senior transfer forward Madi Webb. After spending three seasons at SIUE, Webb has improved her points and rebounds production in a USI uniform. Webb is third on the team with 10.6 points per game and is third with 4.9 rebounds per game. She is shooting a 51.8 percent from the floor, second best on the team. Webb leads the OVC with a 54.5 field goal percentage in conference-only games. She set career marks with 22 points and 11 rebounds on January 18 against Little Rock.
• Also contributing to USI's inside presence is freshman forward Chloe Gannon. Gannon is off to a solid start in her USI career. The freshman is averaging 8.8 points and 4.1 rebounds per contest, while shooting a team-best 54.3 percent from the field. Gannon scored 13 points in three consecutive games between December 17 and December 29, and she has posted a career-best 18 points twice in OVC play.

USI versus D-I teams in nonconference
• USI went 3-5 against Division I teams in the non-conference season, averaging 63.3 points per game. Junior guard Vanessa Shafford led the Screaming Eagles with 15 points per outing. Behind her were senior forwards Madi Webb and Meredith Raley at nine points per contest. Shafford also paced the squad with an average of 7.9 rebounds and 11 total steals.

Handley nets career high against Murray State
• Graduate guard Tori Handley caught fire late in USI's game against Murray State on December 1, leading to a new career-high 16 points in 32 minutes.
• Most of Handley's scoring damage was done in the second half, and more specifically, in the fourth quarter with 12 of the 16 points.
• The new career-best 16 points surpassed Handley's previous mark of 15 that she set during her freshman campaign at SIUE. It was also Handley's first double-digit game of the season and only her fifth such game at USI.

Shafford's Double-Double Deep Dive against NIU
• On November 16, junior guard Vanessa Shafford recorded her sixth career double-double in USI's 66-60 win against Northern Illinois. She led the way with 21 points, which was three off a career high, and 14 rebounds.
• At the time, the scoring performance was her 30th career double-figure game and fifth outing in a USI uniform scoring 20 or more. The rebounding effort was her eighth career double-digit game on the glass.
• The 21 points and 14 rebounds against Northern Illinois was also Shafford's third career double-double of tallying at least 20 points and 10 rebounds. In 2022-23, Shafford posted 21 points and 11 rebounds twice, achieving the feat against Bowling Green and Tennessee Tech last season.

Scoring Balance in Season-Opening Win
• The Screaming Eagles opened the 2023-24 season with a 67-63 home win against Wright State on November 6. The win moved USI to 29-20 in season openers since 1975-76 and to 31-13 in home openers since 1980-81.
• In the winning effort, USI showcased balanced scoring on the offensive end. Eight USI players played 10 or more minutes and scored at least five points in a balanced scoring effort.
• Leading the scoring effort was senior transfer forward Madi Webb, who posted 13 points in her USI debut, including nine second-half points toward her second career double-figure performance.

Preseason Projections and Selections
• Southern Indiana was projected sixth in the 2023-24 Ohio Valley Conference Preseason Poll with 104 points.
• Senior forward Meredith Raley was named to the Preseason All-OVC team. Last season, Raley averaged 13.3 points per game, 4.6 rebounds per game, and shot 47.8% (133-278) from the floor. She also connected at the free throw line at an 80.6% (87-108) clip and recorded 2.1 assists per game. The Haubstadt, Indiana native won OVC Player of the Week honors twice during the 2022-23 season. Raley made 22 starts in 28 appearances last season.
• Junior guard Vanessa Shafford was also named to the Preseason All-OVC team. In 2022-23, Shafford started all 29 games and led the team in minutes played. Shafford posted 13.0 points per game and led the squad with 7.1 rebounds per contest, which was third in the OVC. She was second on the team with 2.2 assists and tied for a team-high 1.7 steals per outing. Shafford shot 44.2 percent (134-303) overall, and she ranked first in the OVC and fourth nationally in three-point percentage at 46.8 percent (66-141).

The 2023-24 Non-Conference Schedule
• Taking a look at USI's 2023-24 non-conference schedule, the Screaming Eagles played seven of 10 out-of-conference matchups at home inside Screaming Eagles Arena, including a December 17 contest against Big 12 Conference-opponent Cincinnati.
• Last season, when Cincinnati was an American Athletic Conference member, USI fell at Cincinnati, 99-57. Even though the Big East Conference is not considered to be a "Power-5" conference, USI played at Butler last season, coming up short 58-48.
• In addition to the home meeting against Cincinnati this season, USI had two other "P-5" opponents on the schedule. Southern Indiana traveled to face Southeastern Conference-opponent Missouri on November 20 and visited Big Ten Conference-opponent Purdue on November 26.

USI signs Sepulveda during early signing period for 2024-25
• USI Women's Basketball signed 5'10" combo guard Lexi Sepulveda during the early signing period for 2024-25. Sepulveda is from Bolingbrook, Illinois and out of Plainfield East High School.
• Sepulveda was a McDonald's All-American nominee in 2023-24 as a senior.
• As a junior in 2022-23, Sepulveda averaged 22.7 points, 4.8 rebounds, 3.1 steals, and 2.3 assists. Her squad won 22 games last year. Additionally, Sepulveda surpassed 1,000 high school career points last season as a junior. She earned all-state and all-conference accolades at the end of last season.

2022-23: A new experience for USI Women's Basketball
• The Screaming Eagles faced new challenges in 2022-23, making their debut at the NCAA Division I level and as an Ohio Valley Conference member. Southern Indiana faced 10 new, first-time opponents last season, going 4-11 in those games.
• With those new challenges also came an unfamiliar sight in recent history for the program. With a 12-17 overall record, USI went below .500 for the first time since 2010-11, as USI had 10 straight winning seasons before last year. Overall, USI has had 34 winning seasons in program history.
• 13 of USI's winning seasons have been 20-plus win seasons, including four of the last six full seasons and five of the last eight (negates 2020-21 due to COVID-shortened season).
• Since 1994-95, when USI had its first 20-win season, Southern Indiana has racked up 545 total wins at an average of 18.2 wins per season.

USI's 2022-23 success at the foul line
• USI was the best in the OVC and among the best in the nation in free-throw shooting last season. USI was second in the OVC with a 77.4 free throw percentage, sitting second in free throws made and fifth in attempts. USI was inside the top-30 in the nation in free throw percentage.
• On February 9 at Tennessee Tech, USI went a perfect 18-18 at the charity stripe. It had been the first time USI went perfect at the line since going 11-11 against McKendree on January 17, 2022. It was the first time USI went perfect at the stripe with at least 15 attempts since going 22-22 against St. Joseph's (IN) on January 16, 2014.

Raley named OVC Player of the Week twice in 2022-23
• Senior forward Meredith Raley was a two-time OVC Player of the Week in 2022-23. Raley earned the accolade on December 13 after averaging 14 points and 9.5 boards per contest in two games at Butler and Eastern Michigan. A stellar performance of 17 points and 16 rebounds at Eastern Michigan on December 10 highlighted the week. Raley's second career double-double marked the first time a Screaming Eagle pulled down 15 or more rebounds in a game since Kacy Eschweiler tallied 22 rebounds against Ferris State University on November 16, 2018.
• Raley was named OVC co-Player of the Week on November 29. In earning the honor, Raley scored 23 points on November 23 against Bethel University (Ind.), hitting the 20-point plateau for the first time.

USI Women's Basketball alum on the bench
• Besides Head Coach Rick Stein being a Southern Indiana alum (class of '92), his assistant coaches are also graduates of USI. Associate Head Cacoh Randa Gatling was a graduate in 1999, assistant Emma DeHart graduated in 2022, and newest assistant Ashley Johnson graduated in 2020.
• Randa Gatling was a member of the 1997 NCAA Division II national finalist team, which was inducted into the USI Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012. Her play helped the Eagles to NCAA II Tournament appearances in 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998 as well as GLVC championships in 1995, 1997, and 1998. She was the team captain in 1997-98. The Eagles were a dominating 100-16 (.862), including an amazing 67-9 (.881) in the GLVC, during Gatling's four years in an Eagle uniform.
• Emma DeHart joined the staff following her USI playing career from 2017-22. DeHart was a three-time All-GLVC honoree and five-time Academic All-GLVC member while playing for the Screaming Eagles under Stein. She finished her career ranked No. 1 all-time at USI in games played (126), No. 2 in three-point field goals attempted (433), No. 8 in free throws made (296) and three-point field goals made (127), No. 9 in free throws attempts (389), No. 12 in scoring (1,189) and assists (230).
• Ashley Johnson played for Southern Indiana from 2017-20. Johnson finished her career ranked No. 11 all-time at USI with 236 career assists, tied for No. 12 with 155 steals, and No. 39 with 677 career points. In three seasons in a USI uniform, Johnson made 51 starts in 86 appearances. Plus, Johnson collected Academic All-GLVC honors while with the Screaming Eagles. In her senior season in 2019-20, Johnson was arguably one of the top point guards in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, earning first-team All-GLVC honors.

USI's Overtime Record
• Southern Indiana is 18-13 all-time in overtime games. USI last played in overtime in 2022-23 against Eastern Illinois University, losing 67-62. The previous overtime contest before that was in 2021-22 at Cedarville University, losing 88-82. The last time USI had multiple overtime games in a season was 2015-16. The last multi-overtime game for USI was a 101-100, triple-overtime loss against the University of Indianapolis in 2010-11.

Magic mark of 75
• The Eagles are 452-79 (.851) all-time when scoring at least 75 points. USI is 325-30 (.915) since 1996-97 when reaching the 75-point plateau.

Record watch
• Senior forward Meredith Raley is 16th all-time on USI's all-time scoring list (1,078), while junior guard Vanessa Shafford is 24th (877). Redshirt senior guard Addy Blackwell is 48th on USI's all-time scoring list (606).

Gatling 500
• USI Associate Head Coach Randa Gatling also hit a milestone when Head Coach Rick Stein earned his 400th career win in 2021-22. Gatling, who has been on the bench for all of Stein's wins, picked up her 500th career win, including her 100 wins as a player at USI. Currently, Gatling has 539 wins overall as a player and assistant coach at USI.

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – University of Southern Indiana Women's Basketball clinched its first-ever Ohio Valley Conference Tournament berth inside Screaming Eagles Arena on Saturday night behind a 75-58 victory against Southern Illinois University Edwardsville.

After missing out on the OVC's postseason field of eight last season due to a tiebreaker, Southern Indiana became the first OVC program to claim its spot this season with its league-leading 11-1 conference record. Saturday's win pushed USI's overall record to 16-6. Following Saturday's results, USI holds a three-game first-place lead in the conference standings. Additionally, Southern Indiana swept its pair of home games this week, marking the sixth OVC weekly sweep for the Eagles this season.

Saturday was Homecoming and Hall of Fame Night at Screaming Eagles Arena, and on an evening of celebration and welcoming back alumni, Southern Indiana got its largest crowd of the season excited right away. In fact, the 2,000-plus crowd was a Screaming Eagles Arena record for a USI Women's Basketball game since its opening in 2019-20. USI started the game with back-to-back three-pointers within the first minute of action. USI led 8-0 before SIUE got on the scoreboard. Senior forward Meredith Raley (Haubstadt, Indiana) had a fast start for the Screaming Eagles, scoring seven of USI's first 10 points. The offense then cooled as the Eagles led 12-4 with 4:30 left on the clock in the opening quarter. Southern Indiana grabbed an 18-12 lead at the end of the first quarter off a buzzer-beating jumper by junior guard Vanessa Shafford (Linton, Indiana).

Defenses continued to make things tough for both offenses in the early minutes of the second period. However, Southern Indiana got the offense rolling by using its size advantage inside to add to its lead. Raley reached the 10-point mark just 13 minutes into the first half. Shafford drained a jumper to put USI up by double digits, 25-14, three minutes into the second quarter. Southern Indiana produced two double-figure runs that allowed the Screaming Eagles to build a sizable lead. Freshman forward Chloe Gannon (Manchester, Tennessee) paced the charge by the Eagles with 10 second-quarter points, as USI outscored the Cougars 23-9 and shot nearly 70 percent in the second frame to take a 41-21 halftime advantage.

Out of the intermission, it took nearly four minutes for Southern Indiana to find the bottom of the net, but back-to-back triples did the trick. Sophomore guard Ali Saunders (Depauw, Indiana) drained one of the treys before stroking through a mid-range jumper to give USI a 21-point lead, 49-28, midway into the third quarter. The Screaming Eagles tacked on to their lead with another pair of threes from Saunders and graduate guard Tori Handley (Jeffersonville, Indiana). Southern Indiana's defense also remained tough, as USI held SIUE to 3-15 for 20 percent shooting for the third straight quarter. The Eagles carried a 59-31 lead to the fourth stanza.

In the first portion of the fourth quarter, Saunders canned another three, while Gannon added to her solid game. Gannon reached 18 points in the fourth, matching a career best. Southern Indiana led by more than 30 in the middle of the period, but the Cougars did not go quietly. SIUE shot for 60 percent and connected five times from long range in the fourth.

For the game, Southern Indiana was 28-59 for 47 percent shooting, knocking down eight threes. USI was also 11-15 for 73 percent at the foul line. The Screaming Eagles had 36 bench points and won the rebounding battle, 39-36. Gannon paced USI with 18 points, and Saunders finished with 13 points on a perfect 5-5 shooting night and 3-3 from beyond the arc. Shafford tallied nine points with 11 rebounds. Shafford had scored 10 or more in the previous 19 games. Raley chipped in 10 points in the game Saturday.

SIUE (4-21, 1-11) was held by Southern Indiana's defense to only 30 percent shooting (18-60) with seven triples. The Cougars did go a perfect 15-15 at the free-throw stripe. SIUE had three players score in double figures.
