OPENING TIP

After a split road weekend, the Idaho Vandals are finally back at home, hosting the Eastern Washington Eagles in a Saturday night matchup and a rivalry that features one of the most familiar faces one will find in Moscow. UI and EWU are set to tip-off the second game of a doubleheader following the conclusion of the women's game at 4:00 PM. Fans are encouraged to get on campus early and cheer on both teams in the ICCU Arena.

LAST TIME OUT

Eastern got the best of Idaho in the teams' two regular season matchups last year en route to claiming the top seed going into the Big Sky Tournament in Boise. The Eagles and Vandals commenced conference play in Moscow in 2024 and former came out on top 79-58. The rematch in February would also go the way of the red and black, albeit in a competitive 87-79 manner

MONSON IN MOSCOW

Eastern Washington's head coach, Dan Monson, is a name that needs little introduction in the northwest. In fact, Dan's father Don is immortalized on a banner that hangs in the ICCU Arena, an ode to his tenure as the Vandals' head coach from 1978-83, a stint that included two regular season titles and two tournament championships.

No stranger to the area himself, Dan played football at Idaho before beginning his coaching career. The younger Monson most recently completed a 17-season stay at Long Beach State, the last season of which culminated in his fourth career appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

SCOUTING THE EAGLES

One of the biggest stars for the Eagles this season has been senior Andrew Cook, a transfer from NAIA Carroll College in Montana. Cook has been a versatile offensive threat since arriving in Cheney, leading the team with 15.2 PPG and recording the second-most APG (2.1). Junior Guard Nic McClain has been one of Eastern's best two-way players, holding the second-most PPG (14.6) and the highest 3PT% (.400) on the team while also averaging the most steals (2.3) per game.

All-in-all, Eastern brings a roster similar in many ways to Idaho in terms of personnel. The red and black will look to do much of their damage beyond and around the arc. Despite this, the size and physicality of the team has much in common with the Vandals' last opponent, Portland State. The Eagles are similarly willing to do the dirty work in the paint, with two separate outings of 34 points under the net in the month of January.

SERIES HISTORY VS. EWU

Also similar to the Vikings, Eastern Washington's history with Idaho spans many years and multiple stints. The Vandals are currently 10-16 all time versus the Eagles since 2009 in a rivalry that has generally gone the way of the birds in recent history. EWU has secured the last four straight regular season matchups en route to their two consecutive top-seed performances, as well as seven of the last eight meetings between the two.

The most recent postseason meeting between the two took place a decade ago in the 2015 conference tournament in Missoula, back before a neutral site was established and the #1 seed earned the right to host. The Eagles would defeat the Vandals 91-83 in Dahlberg Arena en route to upsetting the host Grizzlies and earning a bid to the NCAA Tournament.

ALEX

Head Coach
California-Berkeley, '07

Alex Pribble was named the 31st head men's basketball coach in University of Idaho program history on March 20, 2023. Pribble enters his second season at the helm as head coach of the Idaho Vandals in 2024-25.

The first season under new leadership saw growth both on and off the floor. Idaho finished the 2023-24 campaign with the most wins in a season (11) in the last five years. They secured notable conference victories over Idaho State and Big Sky Tournament champion Montana State and achieved the highest Net Ranking (254) for an Idaho team since 2017-18. Julius Mims was recognized by the Big Sky Conference as a member of the All-Defensive Team after leading the team with 48 blocks and 34 steals.

Off the court, Pribble and the Vandals made an impact in more ways than one by excelling academically with a program-best team semester GPA of 3.24 in the Fall of 2023. Additionally, they initiated the CHAMPS mentoring program to engage with students in local elementary schools.

Pribble joined the Vandals after serving as an associate head coach for four seasons at Seattle U, where he helped lead the Redhawks to back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since the 1960s and the programs' first-ever Western Athletic Conference regular season title.

During the 2022-23 season, Pribble helped guide the Redhawks to their second consecutive 20-win season and a 7-0 start in WAC play. Seattle U's hot start in conference action received national attention as the Redhawks were among the top teams in the nation to receive votes in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches Poll.

Throughout the season, Pribble was pivotal in the development of First Team All-WAC guard Cameron Tyson, who went on to average 18.6 points per game and total the most three-pointers among all players in the Western Athletic Conference at 97.

The run through the 2021-22 season saw the Redhawks achieve a 23-9 overall record and a 14-4 mark in the WAC, en route to earning a regular season conference championship. Seattle U started WAC play 8-0 for the first time in 10 years and saw the program reach 23 wins for the first time since 1957-58.

Prior to his time with the Redhawks, Pribble spent four highly successful years as the head men's basketball coach at NCAA Division II Saint Martin's University in Lacey, Washington. He took over a program that went 6-22 overall in the year before Pribble's arrival to quickly rebuild a program that put together four-straight winning seasons, two consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, the program's first-ever Sweet 16 berth and achieve the school's highest national ranking (No. 8) in program history.

In the 2018-19 season, Pribble led the Saints to a school record 26 wins and the school's first Great Northwest Athletic Conference regular-season championship. Pribble went on to be named the GNAC Coach of the Year and boast four players who would receive All-GNAC postseason honors and regional recognition.

Before his tenure at Saint Martin's, Pribble spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Eastern Washington from 2013 to 2015. During the 2014-15 season, Pribble helped cap off a historic season for the Eagles, who finished 26-9 overall and 14-4 in the Big Sky Conference to clinch a share of the regular-season title and garner the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history.

Big Sky Player of the Year Tyler Harvey helped facilitate the Eagles' run as the nation's leading scorer at 23.1 points per game, en route to being selected as a second-round pick in the NBA Draft in 2015.

Prior to arriving at Eastern Washington, Pribble was the top assistant for two seasons at San Francisco State. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at California-Berkeley under then-head coach Ben Braun.

Pribble graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in sociology in 2007 and a master's degree in education in 2008 from California-Berkeley. A walk-on at Cal before receiving a scholarship after his sophomore season, Pribble played in 76 games for the Bears under Braun during his four-year collegiate career.

PRESEASON NOTES

Second-year head coach Alex Pribble returns 10 players from last season, including a Big Sky All-Defensive Team member in Julius Mims and two starters that combined to start in 58 games.

After returning only three percent of the team's scoring a season ago, Pribble and his staff retained 52 percent of the program's offensive output to couple with five impact transfers and one freshman.

Idaho posted an 11-21 overall record and a 5-13 conference mark in 2023-24. The Vandals delivered key victories over Big Sky Tournament Champion Montana State, Idaho State, and a regular season sweep over Sacramento State. The Silver and Gold finished off the season ninth in the Big Sky.

Senior forward Julius Mims begins his second season in Moscow after averaging 11.1 points, 7.2 rebounds, 1.5 blocks and 1.1 steals per game in 2023-24. Mims formed into one of the most efficient scorers and premiere shot blockers in the conference, leading the league with a 63 percent field goal percentage (150-237) and the second most blocks (48). The Billings, Montana native recorded double figures in 18 games and five double-doubles in his junior campaign. Mims was one of six players in the Big Sky selected to the Preseason All-Conference Team.

Another vital returning piece in the front court is senior big man, Kyson Rose. The Kennewick, Wash. native started in 26 games and averaged 6.6 points per game on 48 percent shooting from the field and 36 percent from three. Rose scored 10 more points in eight games for the Vandals.

Junior Tyler Linhardt was a key contributor in his first season at Idaho, providing an offensive spark with nine double-figure scoring efforts in 23 games. Linhardt looks to take a big step in his second season in Moscow after averaging 8.2 points per game on 45 percent from the field and 32 percent from three.

Speaking of taking a step, Idaho will lean on second-year guard Kristian Gonzalez to continue his progression after a promising true freshman season. The Chula Vista, California native scored 124 points, knocked down 15 3-pointers and played hero in a 55-53 win against Idaho State, scoring 11 points, including seven of the team's final 12 points.

Redshirt sophomore guard Tyler Mrus returns to the fold after suffering a season-ending injury against Cal State Northridge on Nov. 9. The Bothell, Wash. native received a medical redshirt and looks to bolster a backcourt that proves to be one of the deepest in the last seven years. Idaho reloaded in the transfer portal at the guard position, adding a quartet of talent in Jojo Anderson (Whitworth), Isaiah Brickner (Marist College), Kolton Mitchell (Idaho State) and Jack Payne (Colorado State).

The Vandals also added a local product and transfer from Oregon State, Jayden Stevens.

The freshmen class includes a single newcomer, Ewan Steele, who is from Ontario, Canada.

Other returners include Trevon Blassingame (Jr., Auburn, Wash.), Takai Hardy (So., Fairfield, Calif.), Titus Yearout (R-So., Lapwai, Idaho), Jack Hatten (R-Jr., Bakersfield, Calif.) and Miles Klapper (R-Fr., Hillsborough, Calif.).

Coach Pribble brought aboard three new members to his staff in 2024-25 with the additions of assistant coach Markhuri Sanders-Frison and graduate assistants Luke Chavez and Mark Moore.

The non-conference stretch for Idaho features 13 contests, including five games at the ICCU Arena, four in California, two against NCAA Tournament teams from a season ago, one Big Sky-Summit League Challenge matchup and a trip to Corvallis, Oregon.

The Vandals play in 18 conference games in a double round-robin format, taking on every Big Sky opponent at home and on the road. Idaho starts the new year with its conference opener against defending conference champion Montana State on Thursday, January 2.

The Vandals hit the road for two games, facing Sacramento State on Thursday, Jan. 9 at 7 p.m. and Portland State on Saturday, Jan. 11 with tip-off set for 2 p.m.

Single-game and season tickets are available now. For more information, call the Vandal ticket office at (208) 885-6466 or visit GoVandals.com/tickets.

Fans can follow the Vandals all season long on X, Facebook, and Instagram, @VandalHoops, and with the Voice of the Vandals, Dennis Patchin, at GoVandals.com/Listen. All home and conference contests will be streamed live through ESPN+.
