VANDAL LEGENDS

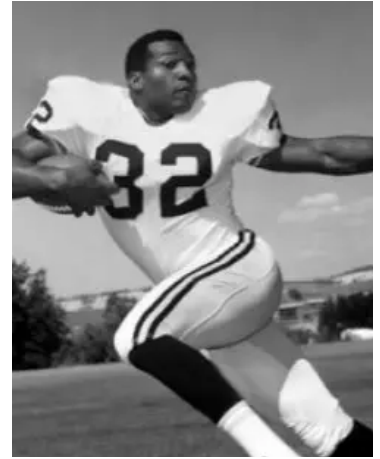

JERRY KRAMER (1955-57)

Played guard and kicker for the Vandals, was a two-time All-American and also competed in shot put. Drafted by the Green Bay packers with the 39th overall pick in the 1958 NFL draft and went on to play 11 seasons for them. Five-time all-pro and played on five NFL championship teams, including wins in Super Bowls I and II.

“Thunder Ray” measured in at 6’4”, 240 lbs, but could also run a lightning-quick 9.9 100-yard dash. His combination of size and speed helped him to be named All-American in 1965 and 1966. Led the nation with 1,329 yards in 1966. He was the first Vandal to ever be picked in the first round of the NFL Draft as the 13th overall pick by Washington in 1967.

RAY MCDONALD (1988-92)

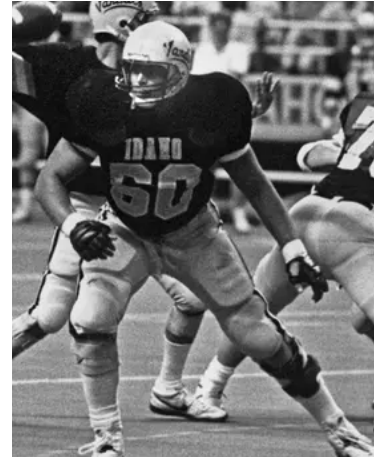

DENNIS ERICKSON (1982-85, 2006)

Erickson led the Vandals to a then-school record nine wins in 1982 and advanced to the playoffs for the first time in program history. His 1985 team won Idaho’s first-ever Big Sky championship. He won Big Sky Coach of the Year in 1982 and 1985, and coached four Big Sky MVPs in four seasons. Hewas inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2019.

Schlereth was a core member of the Vandals when they won three Big Sky titles in four seasons. He anchored an offensive line that went 38-11 in his career and advanced to the NCAA I-AA semifinals in 1988, earning second team All-America recognition. He was drafted by Washington and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection and three-time Super Bowl champion.

MARK SCHLERETH (1984-88)

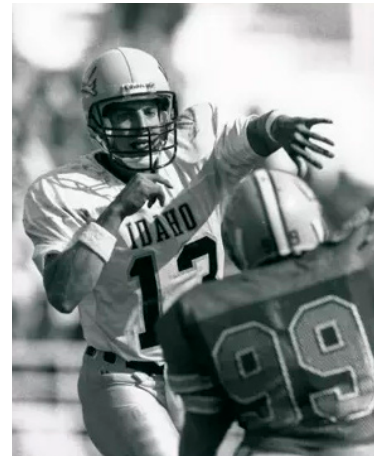

JEFF ROBINSON (1988-92)

Robinson was known for his ability to get in the opponent’s backfield and bring down the quarterback. He recorded 57.5 sacks in his career, which is still an Idaho record. In his career, he recorded 90 tackles for loss and 277 total tackles. He was a two-time Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year and a two-time All-American selection. He played 16 years in the NFL.

Nussmeier threw for more yards than any other quarterback in Idaho history (10,284), while also rushing for over 1,000 in his career. He won the 1993 Walter Payton Award. The south-paw won the 1992 Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year. He has had an amazing coaching career, including a Super Bowl win with the Eagles as their QB coach in 2025.

DOUG NUSSMEIER (1989-93)

VANDAL LEGENDS

JOHN YARNO (1973-76)

Played center for the Vandals. Was named AP first-team All-American in 1976 and also won Big Sky Player of the Year. Led the Vandals to their first winning season in five years and was named Idaho's Offensive MVP. The Seattle Seahawks took Yarno in the fourth round of the 1977 NFL Draft. His #56 jersey was retired by Idaho in 1977.

KEN HOBART (1980-83)

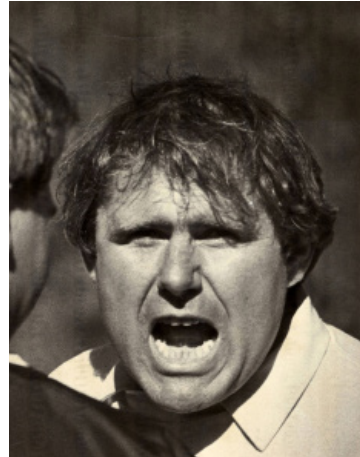

Originally an Idaho Vandals Baseball player, Hobart would later walk on to the football team as a seventh string quarterback. He would go on to rack up 9,300 yards of total offense, score 79 touchdowns, and lead the Vandals to a playoff quarterfinal appearance. In 1982, Hobart was named Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year and All-American.

JOHN FRIESZ (1985-89)

One of the most prolific passers in NCAA history. Friesz won the 1989 Walter Payton Award as national Player of the Year. Was named a three-time All-American, and three-time Big Sky Player of the Year. In 2006, his #17 jersey was retired and still hangs in the Dome. He was inducted to the Idaho and College Football Halls of Fame in 2006.

KEITH GILBERTSON (1986-88)

Gilbertson took over for the Vandals following Dennis Erickson's departure. His .757 win percentage (28-9) is still the best in UI history. He guided his teams to a 19-4 (.826) record in Big Sky play which is still the best ever in conference action. His teams won back-to-back conference championships in 1987-88, and advanced all the way to the semifinals.

JOHN L. SMITH (1989-94)

An Idaho native, Smith began his head coaching career in 1989 with the vandals where he recorded a 53-21 record. His teams won two conference championship and advanced to the playoffs five times including a semifinals appearance in 1993. He coached John Friesz and Dough Nussmeier, Idaho's two Walter Payton Award winners.

KADEN ELLISS (2015-18)

A three-time all-conference selection, Elliss totaled 289 total tackles, 47 tackles for loss, and 17 sacks during his time with the Vandals. In his senior season, Elliss tallied 16 tackles for loss and seven sacks, en route to being named First Team All-Conference. He was drafted in 2019, and was recently selected as one of the top 100 players in the NFL by PFSN.

Idaho

THE IDAHO FOOTBALL STANDARD

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMERS

DENNIS ERICKSON

Former Idaho Head Football Coach, Dennis Erickson, was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2019. Erickson, who got his first head coaching job with the Vandals, spearheaded one of the most successful eras in Vandals football history. In a four-year stretch from 1982-85, the first of Erickson's two stints at the head of Idaho football, Erickson led the Vandals to two NCAA DI-AA playoff appearances and won Big Sky Conference championships in 1982 and 1985. Erickson is the first coach in Idaho history to lead the Vandals to four-consecutive winning seasons. He is also a two-time recipient of the Big Sky Coach of the Year. The hall of famer finished his career at Idaho with 36 total wins - the second most of any Vandals head coach in program history - and went a flawless 4-0 against Boise State during his tenure.

Erickson brought in many of the most talented student-athletes the Vandals football program has ever seen. He recruited and signed future NFL head coach Scott Linehan, College Football Hall of Famer and Walter Payton Award winner, John Friesz, and three-time Super Bowl champion Mark Schlereth.

One of the most innovative offensive minds in the history of the game, Erickson went on to be the head coach at Wyoming, Washington State, and Miami where he won national championships in 1989 and 1991, and logging the highest winning percentage of any coach in Hurricanes history (.875). He later went to the NFL where the Everett, Wash. native took a job with the Seattle Seahawks and the San Francisco 49ers. After his time in the NFL, Erickson returned to the collegiate ranks where he guided the Oregon State Beavers to their first PAC-10 championship since the conference expanded in 1978, and took them to the Fiesta Bowl where his squad went on to beat Notre Dame by a score of 41-9. He wrapped up his college head coaching career at Arizona State where his team won a share of the conference championship after a 10-2 season in 2007. He finished his career with a 179-96-1 record and a .650 winning percentage.

Upon his induction to the Vandal Athletics Hall of Fame in 2018, Erickson stated, "If it wasn't for the University of Idaho, I probably never would have accomplished some of the things I've accomplished." he went on to say, "(Former athletic director) Bill Belknap and (former president) Dr. Richard Gibb gave me my first head coaching job. We still call north Idaho home because of the great people and great institution."

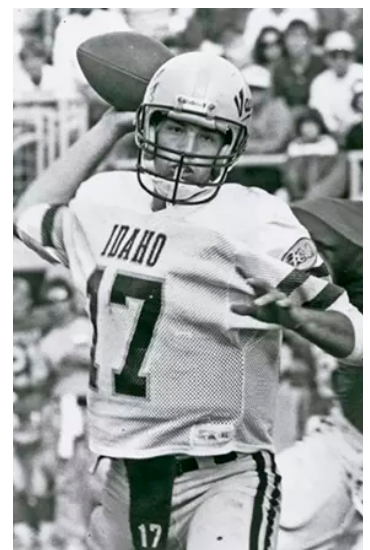

Recruited by Dennis Erickson out of Coeur d'Alene, John Friesz became a Vandal legend during his time in Idaho. With the benefit of learning as Scott Linehan's backup in the 1986 season, Friesz would go on to become a three-year starter for Idaho and made an immediate impact once he hit the playing field.

In his sophomore season, Friesz was named Big Sky Conference Player of the Year and was named Second Team All-American after he threw for 28 touchdowns that year. The following year, Friesz guided the Vandals to a 9-1 regular season, the no. 1 ranking in the country, and playoff wins against the Montana Grizzlies and Northwestern State, advancing to the I-AA semifinals and once again winning the Big Sky Player of the Year.

During his senior year, Friesz tossed 31 touchdown passes and threw for over 4,000 yards as he guided the Vandals to their third-consecutive conference title with a 8-0 record - the only time Idaho has finished undefeated in conference play. Averaging over 360 yards per game and having thrown for 300 or more yards on ten occasions, Friesz went on to receive the Walter Payton Award as the most outstanding player in the all of Division I-AA.

He was inducted to the College Football hall of Fame in August of 2006. His #17 jersey was officially retired by the football program in October 2006 and still hangs in the P1FCU Kibbie Dome's rafters. Friesz was inducted to the Vandal Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007 - the first class ever. He finished his career with 10,697 passing yards, and upon completion of his collegiate date he ranked third in DI-AA history for most passing yards per game at 305.6.

JOHN FRIESZ

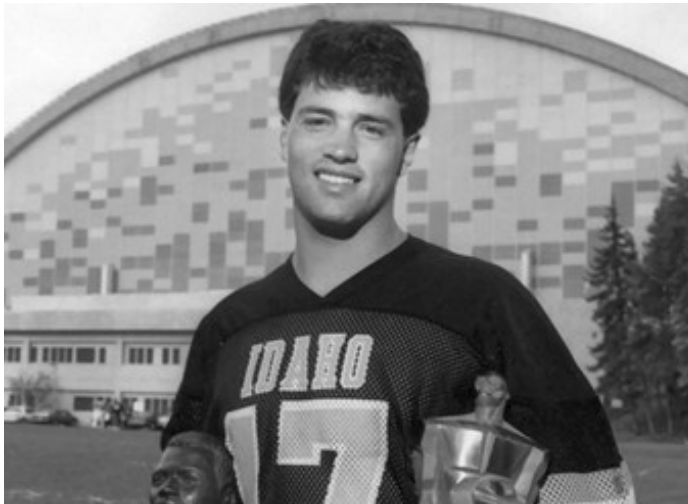

WALTER PAYTON AWARD WINNERS

The Walter Payton Award is annually awarded to the most outstanding offensive player in the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision. It is selected by a nationwide panel of media and college sports information directors. The First Walter Payton Award was given in 1987, but the award was changed in 1995, restricting eligibility to only offensive players. Since its inception, Idaho is one of just six current FCS programs with multiple winners of the award.

1.	Eastern Washington	4
2.	Villanova	3
T3.	IDAHO	2
T3.	Colgate	2
T3.	Eastern Illinois	2
T3.	New Hampshire	2

John Friesz's 1989 Walter Payton Award-winning season is the stuff that legends are made of. Tossing the rock for 4,041 yards for an average of 367 yards per game - both of which are still school records - Friesz and the Vandals climbed as high as number four in the rankings en route to winning their third-consecutive Big Sky Conference championship with a 9-3 (8-0) record. The Vandals went on to the playoffs for the fifth-straight year after wrapping up the regular season with a 26-21 win over arch-rival Boise State.

The Coeur d'Alene native's record-setting 1989 season was one that would catch the eyes of the nation, culminating in Friesz receiving the Walter Payton Award - the first player in Big Sky history to do so - being named the Coaches Choice I-AA Player of the Year, the Football Gazette National Offensive Player of the Year, and being named Consensus First Team All-American. Following his college days, he went on to have a successful 10-year career in the NFL.

Friesz, a three-time Big Sky Conference Player of the Year, inducted to the Vandal Athletics Hall of Fame in its inaugural class in 2007, was named the no. 3 Greatest Male Athlete in Big Sky Conference History in 2014, and would go on to be inducted to the conference's inaugural Hall of Fame class in 2020. His number 17 has been retired by Idaho Football and hangs in the rafters of the PIFCU Kibbie Dome.

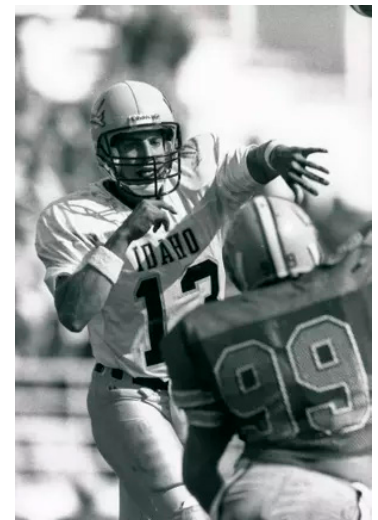

The 1993 Idaho Vandals, led by Doug Nussmeier, were an absolute unit. With one of the most talented arms in Vandals football history, "Nuss" re-wrote the record books in '93 throwing for 33 touchdowns, averaging a touchdown every 9.2 attempts, and having a 175.2 passing efficiency rating - which are still single-season bests for the Vandals.

With Nussmeier leading the Vandals attack, Idaho climbed the national rankings all the way up to number one where they spent three weeks in the season. Idaho kept racking up impressive win after impressive win - including wins over Utah (28-17) and Boise State (49-16) - wrapping up the regular season with a 9-2 record. After advancing to the NCAA I-AA playoffs for the eighth time in nine years, Nussmeier led the Vandals to the national semifinals for the second time in school history.

After his unbelievable record-setting senior season, Nussmeier, who was Friesz's backup in 1989, was named the Walter Payton Award winner. Idaho is still the only school to ever have multiple Walter Payton Award winners who played on the same team. He went on to be selected in the fourth round of the 1994 NFL Draft and is currently the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints.

Nussmeier was a 2007 inductee to the Vandals Athletics Hall of Fame, he was also inducted to the Big Sky Hall of Fame in 2025.

DOUG NUSSMEIER

JERRY RICE AWARD

Each year, the Jerry Rice Award is awarded to the most outstanding freshman player in the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision of college football. It is awarded by a nationwide panel of media and college sports information directors.

Past award winners of the Jerry Rice Award include players like Cooper Kupp, Trey Lance, Cam Ward, and Shedeur Sanders.

In 2022, Idaho's Gevani McCoy took the nation by storm as the Idaho Vandals, whom many considered to be an FCS sleeping giant, awoke from their slumber and became a force to be reckoned with in the Big Sky Conference.

As a redshirt freshman, McCoy won the starting job during fall camp and would go on to start in 11 of Idaho's 12 games that season, only missing the Idaho State game due to injury. Despite missing that contest, McCoy threw for 2,721 yards and 27 touchdowns (fifth-most in school history) to just seven interceptions. The native of Baldwin Hills, Calif. was ultra-efficient throughout the season, completing over 200 passes for a completion rate of 68.4% - a Vandals program single-season high - including an amazing 18-20 effort against Northern Arizona.

In one of the most memorable games in Idaho's most recent run of success, McCoy and the Vandals marched into Missoula, Mont. to play the Montana Grizzlies for the Little Brown Stein, a trophy which the Vandals hadn't won since 1999. The dual-threat quarterback engineered an unbelievable offensive attack, racking up 286 yards and two touchdowns on 21-27 passing, earning Big Sky Player of the Week honors as the Vandals recaptured the Little Brown Stein and put the nation on notice. Later in the season, he threw for a career high 344 yards and two touchdowns to go along with two rushing touchdowns against UC Davis. He tossed four touchdowns in three occasions throughout the season, as well, being named to the All-Conference Third Team and earning Big Sky conference Freshman of the Year honors. He was also tabbed as a Hero Sports Freshman All-American.

After guiding the Vandals to their first FCS Playoff appearance since 1995 (Idaho was in the Football Bowl Subdivision from 1996-2018), McCoy was named Idaho's first Jerry Rice Award winner as the most outstanding freshman in all of FCS.
