QUICK GLANCE

THE GAME: Following a 17-23 home opener loss to Lamar, Idaho Football continues its three game homestand against an Abilene Christian team that is seeking its first win of 2026 following three ranked games to open the season. Saturday will mark the second ever meeting between the Vandals and Wildcats, after they met for the first time in September 2024. The trip to Abilene saw fourth-ranked Idaho survive a comeback bid by holding onto its 20-3 halftime lead to claim a 27-24 victory.

ABOUT IDAHO: The retooled Vandal offense took flight under first-year coordinator Ian Shoemaker in Idaho's week one loss at Cal Poly, with QB Joshua Wood posting 363 passing yards, the most by an Idaho signal caller since 2019, and UI scoring 34 points, the second-highest total of the Thomas Ford Jr. era. The Graham, Washington native has continued to show his abilities on the ground over the past two games, ranking third among Big Sky quarterbacks in rushing yards per game. Like Wood, Tony Harste had a career day in the season opener, hauling in nine catches for 180 yards and the first two touchdowns of his Vandal career. Senior captain Cruz Hepburn had the best day of his career in Black and Gold on the defensive end in San Luis Obispo, totaling 12 tackles and a pass breakup, while North Texas transfer Tyrane Stewart made the most of his first game for Idaho, securing 1.5 tackles for loss. After winning the kicking job in fall camp, Rathdrum, Idaho native Owen Forsman went a perfect 4-for-4, making three kicks from further than 40 yards out.

ABOUT ACU: Coming into the season, Abilene Christian got the toughest draw of any non-conference foe that Idaho will see this year, with a schedule ranked as the 17th-hardest by Massey. ACU opened the season vs. #14/15 Lamar, traveling to Lubbock for a matchup with #13 Texas Tech, and are coming off a home loss to #8/12 Stephen F. Austin. Paving the way for ACU will be a veteran offensive line that has received a lot of attention from the UAC. Tackle Luke Roaten was named a Second-Team Preseason All-American by Stats Perform FCS. Luke's twin brother Landon started next to him in 2025 and was named First-Team All-UAC, and center Colter Lynch earned Second-Team honors after all three started all 14 games for the Wildcats. Defensively, DB Dillon Williams has arrived in Abilene as the top FCS transfer portal safety, coming off a two-season stint at Central Arkansas where he compiled 163 total tackles, a sack, three interceptions, and 11 pass breakups.

PICK SIX

1. EARLY RETURNS: The Idaho receiver room returns four key contributors from a season ago in Ryan Jezioro, Marquawn McCraney, Nolan McWilliams, and Tony Harste. The group combined for 80 receptions, 1,025 receiving yards, and eight touchdowns in 2025. Harste posted a monster performance in week one, going for a career day across the board with nine catches, 180 yards, and two touchdowns. Entering 2026 as Idaho's leading returning pass catcher, Jezioro nearly achieved his second career 100-yard game against Cal Poly, totaling 93 yards off just three catches and secured a career-high seven catches last week against Lamar.

2. BUILDING THE BRAND: Idaho football is continuing to build its national brand, with three games scheduled to be broadcast nationally on linear ESPN channels in 2026. The Vandals open the season with their second regular season game on ESPN in program history at Cal Poly before traveling to Utah in Week 2 for a Thursday night matchup on ESPNU, before hosting the reigning FCS national champion Montana State Bobcats on ESPN on Oct. 2. Idaho has had six Big Sky contests selected for nationwide viewing since 2023, the most of any team in the league.

3. VANDAL QB ROOM: Joshua Wood returns for his second season with the Vandals after starting 10 games in 2025. Wood threw for 1,898 yards and 14 touchdowns while completing 58.5 percent of his passes, adding 589 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on the ground, posting the best season by an Idaho quarterback on the ground since Doug Nussmeier's 1993 Walter Payton Award winning campaign. The Graham, Washington native opened 2026 with a massive game against Cal Poly, throwing for 363 yards and two touchdowns, while running for 42. Israel Carter joins the Vandals after spending the 2025 season at Norfolk State, where he saw action in four games and completed 19-of-33 passes for 127 yards while rushing for 40 yards. Carter previously spent two seasons at South Florida, appearing in seven games and throwing four touchdowns in 2024.

4. RECORD RECRUITING CLASS: Idaho put together the highest-rated recruiting class in program history and the second-highest-rated class in the FCS, with the Vandals signing a class that included running back Kenny Golston, offensive tackle Kingston Kerkhoff and linebacker Ta'ulelei Mareko, each of whom held offers from Power Four programs. The class featured 17 three-star signees, the most in the Big Sky, while nine signees held FBS offers. Idaho's recruiting success has continued to build a talented roster, with multiple three-star and four-star players now wearing Black and Gold.

5. STRONG SCHEDULE IN 2026: Idaho's 2026 non-conference schedule sees the Vandals face off against Utah, the 21st-ranked team in the AP Preseason Poll, and Lamar and Abilene Christian, who are both ranked in the Stats Perform FCS preseason top 25. Three conference foes were given Stats Perform FCS preseason poll Top 10 nods: Montana, Montana State, and UC Davis, while two more of UI's Big Sky opponents, Southern Utah and Idaho State received votes.

6. NEW SEASON, NEW COACHES: Idaho enters the second year of the Ford era with a new look coaching staff, headlined by two new coordinators. Offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Ian Shoemaker is a familiar name in the Big Sky, due to his role in building one of the most electric offenses in conference history during a two-year stint at Eastern Washington. In addition to his background against Big Sky competition, Shoemaker brings nearly 30 years of experience at all levels of college football to Moscow. Lee Stalker takes over as the Vandals' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach after three seasons at Iowa State. During his time in Ames, Stalker helped transform the Cyclones defense into one of the best in the nation. Joe Begnal returns to Idaho as special teams coordinator with P4 experience under his belt. Coaches Spencer Treadwell (running backs) and VJ Malo (defensive line) bring more FCS experience to the Vandals.

STATS AND NOTES

NEW TRANSFERS
The Vandals added 21 transfers that will take part in the 2026 season. Damonte Bias (RB; El Camino College), J.J. Homuth (TE; Rochester Community and Technical College), Ferarri Miller (RB; Diablo Valley College), Jackson Weng (WR; Mt. San Jacinto), Zach Card (WR; Oregon State), Israel Carter (QB; Norfolk State), and Markel Taylor (WR; Sacramento City College) will be on offense. Jamarion Augustus (DE; Northern Iowa), Javen Augustus (DE; Coastal Carolina), P.J. Blanchard (DB; Antelope Valley College), Ishaan Daniels (DB; Weber State), Davon Donaldson (LB; Sacramento City College), Darrell Gipson Jr. (LB; Cincinnati), Mika Roberson (DB; Central Washington), Tyrane Stewart (DB; North Texas), Luke Teskey (DE; New Hampshire), De'Vaughn Robinson (DL; Moorpark College), Damon Fagan (S; NC State), Sha'heem Taylor (CB; Riverside City College), and Deion Gunn (DB; Ellsworth City College) will be playing defense. Jayden Fernandez (LS; Riverside CC), Tommy O'Sullivan (LS; SUNY Brockton), and Tyler Kinsman (K; Oregon) will contribute on special teams.

QB1
Joshua Wood returns after the most effective season by an Idaho dual-threat quarterback since Doug Nussmeyer in 1993. The senior ran for 589 yards and seven touchdowns, including a three touchdown day on the ground against Montana (9/27). The Graham, Washington native was the only quarterback in the Big Sky to run for more than 100 yards on multiple occassions in 2025. Wood backed up his strong 2025 with a standout season-opening performance against Cal Poly, totalling a career-high 405 yards of total offense, while throwing for two touchdowns. After week one in the FCS, Wood ranks top-five nationally in a litany of passing stats; yards per completion, yards per attempt, total passing yards, and passing efficiency.

KEY DEFENSIVE RETURNERS
Senior captain Cruz Hepburn is Idaho's top-returning tackler, securing 71 last season. Hepburn had a career game in a Halloween win at NAU, recovering a fumble for a scoop-and-score, in addition to nine tackles. Fellow captain Zach Wusstig totalled 49 tackles, including 2.5 for loss, in 2025 in his first season for Idaho after two at Portland State.

LOOK FOR THE PASS CATCHERS
Nearly 60% of Idaho's recieving yards from 2025 return for the Vandals in 2026. Ryan Jezioro and Marquawn McCraney lead the pack after being two of UI's quarterbacks' top targets last season, combining for 49 total grabs. In nine games, Jezioro collected 27, including four touchdowns, while McCraney secured 22, with seven coming in a monster 105-yard performance at Eastern Washington. After securing 12 grabs during the 2025 season, Tony Harste posted a breakout game against Cal Poly, hauling in his first two career touchdowns, in addition to nine catches for 180 yards.

Idaho's tight end room returns both of its top two producers from a year ago. Chance Bogan made 13 catches and his junior counterpart, Noah West-Baranco grabbed four recieptions, with two coming in the form of touchdowns.

NEW LOOK COACHING STAFF
Three new coordinators join the Vandals for Thomas Ford Jr's second year in charge. Former Eastern Washington offensive coordinator Ian Shoemaker arrives in Moscow following two successful seasons at Grand Valley State, while Lee Stalker joins the Vandals after three years as an assistant at Iowa State where coached he five players who received All-Big XII accolades. Former Michigan State assistant Joe Begnal returns to Moscow to serve as special teams coordinator after spending the 2022 season as Ford's right hand man at Idaho.

Other additions to the staff include running backs coach Spencer Treadwell, defensive line coach VJ Malo, defensive backs coach Dom Anderson, defensive quality control assistant Zion Tupuola-Fetui, and offensive quality control assistant and former Vandal Jake Cox.

ALL-BIG SKY HONORS
Safety Brayden Rice was the lone Vandal named to a Preseason All-Big Sky team. Included as a special teams addition, the Lewiston, Idaho native racked up 23 tackles in 2025.

THE HOME TEAM
Idaho is proud of its home in the Pacific Northwest. 62 Idaho football players, or 60% of its roster, comes Idaho, Oregon, or Washington.

Coach Ford and his staff placed a big focus on local connections and products in their 2026 recruiting class, with 12 of Idaho's 19 freshmen being natives the Northwest. Nash O'Kelley, Mason McKenna, Nathan Tweit, Dom Wolthuis, and Cal Huish all reign from the Gem State, joining the group of 23 players who are Idaho natives.

DOME FIELD ADVANTAGE
With Idaho's wins against St. Thomas, Utah Tech, and Portland State, the Vandals are now 166-100-1 in the Dome. The Vandals are 28-13 at home since returning to the Big Sky Conference in 2018. The Dome has been a finalist in the College Campus Tour Best FCS Stadium Bracket in back-to-back years and was picked as the 26th-best stadium in all of college football by a panel of 14 ESPN writers, the highest-ranked FCS stadium, one spot ahead of the Cotton Bowl, three spots ahead of Boise State's Stadium, and 12 spots ahead of WSU's Gesa Field.

2026 TEAM CAPTAINS
Idaho's 2026 captains were voted on by the team. Four Vandals were selected to don a black and gold "C" over the course of the upcoming season. Quaterback Joshua Wood was voted a captain for the second straight year, while fifth-year linebacker Cruz Hepburn, Layton Vining, a three-year starter on the offensive line, and safety Zach Wusstig make up Idaho's leadership group.

OFFENSIVE LINE CONTINUATION
Idaho started the same five offensive linemen in each of the 12 games in 2025, with four returning for 2026. Layton Vining, Kiegan Henson, Tyler Skinner, Charlie Vliem make up one of the most experienced groups in the nation, while third-year Vandal Leon Evans will start at right guard for the Vandals. Howard Stedford and LeRonn Nelson each return after featuring in multiple games last season and former Arizona State transfer Kaden Haeckel will join the duo to add strong depth to the Vandals' front.

STATS AND NOTES

IDAHO VS RANKED TEAMS
In addition to facing AP Preseason Poll No. 21 Utah, Idaho is slated to play against five teams that were ranked in the the Stats Perform Preseason Top 25. The Vandals will square off against Montana, Montana State, UC Davis, Lamar, and Abiline Christian. Two more conference foes, Idaho State and Southern Utah, each recieved votes in the national poll.

IDAHO ALUMNI IN THE NFL
Idaho legend and current New Orleans Saint Kaden Elliss was named a team captain with the Falcons in 2025, while Vandal corner back Marcus Harris was drafted in the fifth round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the Tennesee Titans. Long snapper Hogan Hatten is currently with the Detroit Lions, and Christian Elliss (Patriots) is also playing in the NFL.

KICKER BATTLE
In what has proven to be an intense kicker battle, Owen Foresman was recently named the starting kicker. The Rathdrum, Idaho native proved to be the right decision in week one, making timely kicks to go 4-4 with a long of 44 yards.

STABLE OF RUNNING BACKS
Idaho's ground attack of Demonte Bias, Ferrari Miller, Kenny Golston, and Joshua Wood looks to be one of the strongest rushing groups in the nation. Bias joins the Vandals after running for 835 yards on an average of 7.1 per carry at El Camino College last season. Miller tore it up at Diablo Valley College, being named the Bay 6 Offensive Player of the Year after posting 1,123 yards and eight touchdowns. Golston was a huge prep get for Coach Ford's staff, as the Oklahoma native gathered offers from three P4 programs. Quarterback Joshua Wood is one of the most dangerous duel-threat signal callers in the FCS, breaking loose for nearly 600 yards on the ground and seven scores. Wood is the lone returning Big Sky quarterback to run for more than 100 yards in multiple games last season.

IDAHO FCS VS FBS WINS
Idaho Football's win over Wyoming in 2024 was the 10th Vandal FCS vs FBS win since the 1978 division split, most of any team in the Big Sky. It was the second in as many years, with Idaho rolling Nevada 33-6 in 2023. Before the Nevada win, the last came in 1994 against UNLV, two seasons before the Vandals jumped into the FBS. It was the first FBS win since returning to FCS in 2018.

WINS AGAINST FBS TEAMS

Sept. 8, 2024	at Wyoming - W, 17-13
Sept. 9, 2023	at Nevada - W, 33-6

PLAYOFF SUCCESS
From 2022-24, Idaho made back-to-back-to-back trips for the first time since the return to FCS football in 2018. In 2023-24, the Vandals set the standard by going to back-to-back quarterfinal appearances for the first time in school history. The Vandals played 22 years in FBS football and won three Bowl games, the last coming in 2016 Famous Idaho Potato Bowls.

ERICKSON NAMED TO BIG SKY HALL OF FAME
Considered to be one of the greatest football coaches in school history, Dennis Erickson spent decades coaching at every level and establishing a name for himself wherever he went. Under Erickson, Idaho immediately surged from a 3-8 campaign the year prior to nine wins in his first season in Moscow, returning to the playoffs and winning the conference title for the first time in 11 years. In Erickson's four seasons at the helm, Idaho finished above .500 each year, the first time that had happened in at least that many seasons since the 1903-06 campaigns, when the program was less than 15 years old. Erickson's .610 winning percentage as the head coach at Idaho still stands as the fourth-best in school history,

DOME FIELD ADVANTAGE
Idaho has won 20 games in the P1FCU Kibbie Dome over the last four seasons, and is 28-14 in the historic building since their return to the Big Sky in 2018.

NOTES

- Idaho has played Montana State twice in the IAA/FCS Playoffs, but this will be the first playoff game played by Idaho in the Treasure State.

- Last year's game will be the sixth game against a Big Sky opponent for Idaho in the FCS/IAA playoffs. The winner of the regular-season match up lost the playoff game in four of five of the previous playoff appearances.

-In 2023, Idaho hosted a second round and a quarterfinal game at the P1FCU Kibbie Dome for the first time since 1993.

- Idaho has played 11 playoff games in the P1FCU Kibbie Dome, racking up a 6-5 record.

- In 2022, the Vandals returned to the playoffs after a 27-year drought, but Idaho was in the FBS from 1996 to 2018 (22 years). During that time, Idaho played in and won three bowl championships. (1998, 2009, 2016).

- In 2021, Idaho went 3-7 against Division I teams, and since then Idaho has made back-to-back-to-back appearances in the FCS playoffs for the first time since 1993-1995.

- The 2022 playoff team mirrored the 1982 team that went 3-8 in 1981 before going 9-4 under first-year coach Dennis Erickson and making the field in the FCS Playoffs.

- The Vandals have made five appearances in the quarterfinals and made two semifinal appearances (1988, 1993).

50TH ANNIVERSARY UNIFORMS

In celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the P1FCU Kibbie Dome in 2025, the Idaho Vandals football program decided to bring back its iconic gold jerseys that the team wore during the 1975 season.

Former Idaho offensive lineman, John Yarno, whose jersey (#56) is retired in the Dome, wore the jerseys during his playing days in Moscow. Yarno was Big Sky Conference MVP and ended up going on to get drafted in the NFL. Yarno was present for the game against Utah Tech when these uniforms were first unveiled, and went out with the captains for the coin toss.

The timeless gold jerseys garnered enough attention that they were featured on ESPN gear up prior to College Gameday that Saturday. They also caught the eyes of the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta, Ga., which saw the jerseys and requested them for display in the museum which pays homage to the best alternate uniforms in the sport.

The uniforms remain part of the Vandals' rotation in 2026, joining their classic black home and white road sets.

HEAD COACH THOMAS FORD

Thomas Ford Jr. was named the 37th head football coach on Dec. 18, 2024, making his return to Moscow where he was the running backs coach from 2022-23.

Ford spent the 2024 season as the running backs coach at Oregon State University. In 2024, the Oregon State rushing attack racked up 2,270 yards, led by Anthony Hankerson who had 1,082 yards and 15 touchdowns.

He spent the 2022 and 2023 seasons as Idaho's special teams coordinator and running backs coach. Under Ford, Idaho's special teams and running back units were among the best in the FCS.

In 2023, Anthony Woods ran for 1,155 yards and 16 touchdowns, leading an effort that saw Idaho rush for 2,077 total yards and 22 TDs and 2,057 yards and 22 TD in 2022.

Two players who played special teams under Ford, long snapper Hogan Hatten and returner Jermaine Jackson, earned NFL Roster spots in 2024.

Ford leveraged his connections in the Pacific Northwest to establish Idaho as a go-to destination for recruits in the I5 corridor. Dozens of players have come to Idaho from Western Washington and the Portland area from connections to the Idaho staff established by Ford.

In his first season, the Vandal rushing attack gained 2,057 yards on the ground and averaged 4.4 yards per carry. Roshaun Johnson tallied 12 touchdowns on the year while Anthony Woods added three and Elisha Cummings scored four. Woods, a freshman, earned Big Sky All-Conference Second-Team honors and Hero Sports Freshman All-American honors after racking up 872 yards on the ground with an average of 5.9 yards per carry.

On special teams, Idaho blocked a punt and a field goal on the season, while not allowing a single blocked kick all year. First-year kicker and punter Ricardo Chavez was ranked in the top-30 in the FCS in both field goal percentage and field goals per game. Jermaine Jackson was one of a handful of FCS players to return both a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown.

He was key in recruiting in his native Western Washington and in Arizona during the 2023 cycle.

Prior to coming to Idaho, Ford served as a quality control analyst for the University of Washington for two years. He was the Head Coach at Simon Fraser in 2018-19. In just his first season at the lead at Simon Fraser, he led SFU to its first win in four seasons and was named the 2018 GNAC Coach of the Year.

Before his time at SFU, he was the head coach at Stadium High in Tacoma from 2014-2017. He took an 0-10 team that had not seen a winning season in over two decades and to the playoffs in 2016 and 2017.

He was the Defensive Coordinator at the University of Puget Sound during the 2013 season. Ford's defense improved in almost every statistical category and finished second in the Northwest Conference and ranked 35th nationally in fumble recoveries.

He served as the Wide Receivers Coach and Special Teams Coordinator at SE Oklahoma State from 2009-2012. He coached Running Backs at Linfield from 2007-2008.

He played running back and ran track at Linfield College in Oregon. Ford set the Wildcats' single-game rushing record (237 yards against Redlands) in 2003. Linfield was 41-4 during Ford's playing career. He ranks still ranks fifth all-time on the career rushing list with 2,333 yards. Ford was a two-time Northwest Conference all-star, a member of four straight Northwest Conference championship teams, and team captain of Linfield's 2004 NCAA Division III national title team that was inducted into the Linfield Athletics Hall of Fame in 2016.

He played four years of professional indoor football, winning a National Indoor Football League championship with Tri-Cities Fever in 2005.

Ford's brother Tracy Ford played for the Vandals in the 2000s.

He earned his B.A. from Linfield and his master's degree at SE Oklahoma State.

Ford and his wife Shannon have two children, a daughter Zoey and son Kingston.

BIG SKY PEDIGREE

Idaho made its return to the Big Sky Conference in 2018. The Vandals were charter members of the Big Sky in 1963, competing in the league through 1995. Idaho won eight conference titles during that time and advanced to the FCS (then Division I-AA) Playoffs 11 of its final 14 years in the league. Idaho's first conference game as a member of the Big Sky since 1995 was Sept. 22, 2018, at UC Davis. The first home conference game was a 20-7 win against Portland State (Sept. 29).

THE P1FCU KIBBIE DOME

The P1FCU Kibbie Dome is one of the most unique facilities in all of the NCAA.

The P1FCU Kibbie Dome has been the home of Vandal athletics since 1975, when the barrel-arch roof was completed. In 1976, the building earned the award for America's Outstanding Structural Engineering Achievement. In 2023, Northwest-based credit Union P1FCU, partnered with UI as part of a 10-year naming rights deal that also includes financial education opportunities for student-athletes and through Idaho's extension offices around the state.

It took nearly seven years to complete the 14-story-tall structure, which is tall enough that Idaho's Theophilus Tower dormitory would fit inside. Construction began in 1969 on the site of the former Neale Stadium, which had been partially destroyed by fire. The field and stands were completed in 1971, but it took four more years to finish the unique roof. The east end addition, which includes the athletic department offices, locker rooms, training rooms and a weight room, was completed in 1982.

In 2004, the facility began its next phase of improvement, as enhanced academic and athletic support facilities were added for student-athletes. The Norm and Becky Iverson Speed and Strength Center was added to more than double the size of the previous weight room to 7,000 square feet. Locker rooms were also expanded to more than 14,000 square feet.

Team meeting rooms, two student-athlete computer labs and study rooms and expanded academic support areas have also been added. In 2010, the athletic training and equipment rooms were expanded and upgraded to nearly double their respective work areas.

In 2010 and 2011, the old plywood end walls were replaced with state-of-the-art KalWall translucent panels as part of a major renovation to bring the building up to code. In conjunction with the end-wall replacement and fire-safety measures, the Litehouse Center, Bud and June Ford Club and expanded premium seating, suites and loge boxes were added and the Bob Curtis Press Box was completely rebuilt on the North side of the facility. Those improvements were privately funded.

The Kibbie Dome serves as both a training and competition facility for many of Idaho's 16 varsity athletic teams, including football, basketball, track & field, tennis and starting in 2017 soccer. The facility has a capacity of more than 16,000. When the fans get excited, the Kibbie Dome crowd noise can be deafening and intimidating to opposing teams.

Beneath the football field, which is rolled up and stored at season's end, is a premier indoor track & field facility, as well as a full indoor tennis facility. The Cowan Spectrum, where Idaho men's and women's basketball play their home games, is also a part of the Kibbie Dome floor. With 93,000 square feet of floor, there is plenty of room for each team to practice at the same time.

Vandal track & field athletes can practice year-round in the facility. The track is a 290-meter flat circular with eight lanes in the straightaway. It also has two long jump pits, two pole vault pits and two throwing circles. The spacious floor area also gives the Kibbie Dome enough space to host indoor discus and javelin competitions, a boast few other indoor facilities in the nation can make.

The Idaho men's and women's tennis programs use the facility to train and compete during the winter and in times of inclement weather conditions. The floor can be cleared for action on up to nine courts at once.

The Kibbie Dome is for more than just Vandal Athletics, too. The facility has been used to host a multitude of different events, including Idaho high school football playoffs, concerts, student activities, intramural sports, community events and graduations. The facility is also used by students and staff as a workout venue.

The internationally-renowned Lionel Hampton International Jazz Festival also calls the Kibbie Dome its home. One of the banner accomplishments of the University of Idaho, the festival was recently awarded the National Medal of Arts, the nation's most prestigious arts honor. The festival dates back to 1967 and during its history, it has featured some of the best jazz musicians to ever play, including Ella Fitzgerald, Gerry Mulligan, Dizzy Gillespie, Dianne Reeves, Stan Getz, Carmen McRae, Diana Krall, Wynton Marsalis and Sarah Vaughan and of course, Lionel Hampton and his New York Big Band.

Every year, thousands of high-school, middle-school and elementary-school students from hundreds of schools all around the United States and Canada make the pilgrimage to Moscow to take part in adjudicated performances, workshops and concerts.
