HEAD COACH: DOUG TATE

Doug Tate enters his 16th year patrolling the Vikes sideline at Wallace Field as head coach of the two-time Canadian University champion men's rugby team.

With Tate at the helm, the Vikes won back-to-back Canadian University titles in 1997 and '98, the only two years the event was held. Tate also led the Vikes to a BC Rugby Premier Division Championship in 2003, and just last year the Vikes captured their ninth Barnard Cup as Island champs with a 23-18 upset of James Bay.

Tate can also boast a tremendous track record of success against the UBC Thunderbirds. The two schools meet in annual rivalry game to play for the Wightman Boot trophy. Tate has led the Vikes to a 12-year winning streak in the series with an overall won-loss record of 25-3-1. In 2008, the Vikes won the two-game series by a record margin of 84 points.

Countless Vikes players under Tate have suited up for National XV and Sevens teams. Just this past year, 17 current members of the Vikes were called to play for Canada in international competition.

Tate himself is familiar with the international stage. He was head of Canada's National Rugby Sevens team for five years (1997-02) and recently served as the Technical Director for the Canadian National Sevens Team during 2008 tour stops in San Diego, Hong Kong and Australia. Tate also coached Canada at the 1998 and 2002 Commonwealth Games.

Tate's playing career saw him suit up at the club, provincial and national level. Tate was a member of the 1981 Canadian National Team that toured to Argentina, as well as competing for UBC at the varsity level.

Along with coaching the Premier team, Tate also manages the Vikes first division team, the Norsemen, as well as the Vikes development team, the Jutes. The Vancouver native is a Certified Master Coach courtesy of the National Coaching Institute. He also has a Bachelor and Masters degree in Education.
