THE MATCHUP

Wilkes University will travel to Reading, Pa. as they compete in Middle Atlantic Conference (MAC) action against Alvernia University, with kickoff scheduled for 12:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 8. Wilkes (3-1, 2-1 MAC) returned to the win column as they blanked Albright College 27-0. Alvernia (1-3, 0-2 MAC) look to get their first win in the MAC as they fell to Lebanon Valley 32-6 last week at home.

THE HEAD COACHES

Jonathan Drach (Western Michigan '04) was named head coach of the Wilkes University football team on February 8, 2018 becoming the ninth mentor of the program since its inception in 1946. Drach will continue to serve as the offensive coordinator during the 2022 season as well as working with the quarterbacks. In 2021 Wilkes finished its third season with six or more wins under Drach as the Colonels finished 6-4 including 5-0 start to the season. Five Colonels earned All-MAC honors including returners wide receiver/return specialist Nate Whitaker and punter Alex Orlando as Honorable Mentions. In 2019 he led the Colonels to an 8-3 overall record, finishing 6-2 in MAC play and earning a postseason berth for the first time since 2010 and the program's first trip to the Centennial-MAC Bowl Series. The eight wins were also the most since 2006 for the program. Drach pioneered one of the biggest turnarounds in Division III football in 2018 when he led the Colonels to a 6-4 record after the team went winless in 2017. In 2018 and 2019, four Colonels were named All-MAC under Drach. Drach came to Wilkes after 11 years at Hobart. As the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, Drach was instrumental in leading the Statesmen to six Liberty League Conference championships, seven NCAA playoff appearances and three consecutive undefeated regular seasons. He began his career as the quarterbacks coach in 2007 until adding offensive coordinator to his responsibilities in 2014. Drach coached the Liberty League Offensive Player of the Year in 2007, 2014, 2016 and 2017 and the ECAC Offensive Player of the Year in 2007 and 2016. He also coached seven All-League quarterbacks and a Bill Middleton Memorial Football Award Winner. A native of St. Charles, Ill., Drach earned his bachelor's degree in business finance and economics from Western Michigan University in 2004. A three-year starter, he enjoyed his finest year as a senior, completing a single season record 67 percent of his passes for 1,499 yards and 13 TDs.

Steve Azzanesi (Wesley '00 & '04) enters his first year as Alvernia's head coach in the fall of 2022. Azzanesi joined the Alvernia staff after most recently serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for NCAA Division I (FCS) Delaware State University, where he spent two seasons with the Hornets. Azzanesi helped lead the Hornets to a steady increase in success in his two seasons with the program. Prior to his time at Delaware State, Azzanesi enjoyed a highly successful 18-year career as an assistant coach at Wesley College - one of the top programs in NCAA Division III history. During his 18-year tenure at Wesley, Azzanesi held various positions within the Wolverine staff. Before leaving Wesley, Azzanesi's most recent role was as the Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator. During his 18-year stint, the Wolverines were 180-42 overall, including 63-13 in conference play. Wesley also made 14 NCAA Division III Tournaments, won six South Region titles, and played in the national semifinal six times. Azzanesi was a member of the offensive staff for the entirety of his Wolverine career before becoming the offensive coordinator in 2018. In 2015, while Azzanesi was serving as the pass game coordinator and assistant head coach, Wesley's offense was one for the record books. The Wolverines led NCAA Division III with an average of 591 total yards per game. They averaged 399 yards in the air and 192 yards on the ground. Their quarterback, future NFL player Joe Callahan, was one of only two quarterbacks in NCAA history to pass for both 5,000 yards and throw for 55 touchdowns in one season. Callahan would go on to make his NFL debut with the Green Bay Packers in December of 2017.

SCOUTING THE WILKES OFFENSE (MULTIPLE)

- Wilkes ranks first in the MAC in scoring offense (34.5), total offense (397.3), passing offense (219.8), and rushing offense (177.5).

- Wilkes outpaced Albright last week, totaling 395 yards of total offense on their way to a 27-0 victory over the Lions. The ground game was what led Wilkes up and down the field, gaining 232 yards while scoring all three of their touchdowns on the ground. This was led by the offensive line, who was selected to the D3football.com Team of the Week earlier in the season.

- Sophomore quarterback Isaiah Rodriguez completed 11 of 27 passes on the day for 163 passing yards, marching the Colonels for three different scores. Rodriguez called his own number in the second quarter, scoring on an 8-yard touchdown to give Wilkes a 14-0 lead. Rodriguez finished with 21 rushing yards on five attempts. He still ranks first in the MAC in quarterback efficiency (145.7), while ranking second in passing yards (851) and passing yards-per-game (212.8).

- Junior running back Elijah Jules ran for 115 yards and two touchdowns on 15 rushing attempts against Albright. Jules scored in the first quarter on a 10-yard run to get the Colonels on the scoreboard first. He would then run for another 10-yard touchdown in the third quarter to extend Wilkes lead 21-0. Senior running back Walter Lewis ran for 55 yards on nine rushing attempts, while first year tailback Ben Contella earned 33 yards on five carries. Jules leads the MAC in rushing yards-per-game with 100.0 while tied for first in rushing touchdowns (5) and second in rushing yards (400).

- Whitaker led the Colonels with four receptions on the day, earning 49 receiving yards. Jules led the team with 62 receiving yards, which included a 60 yard catch and run that helped set up Wilkes to score in the second quarter. Whitaker is fifth in the MAC with 230 receiving yards. He also is fourth in average yards-per-game with 53.0

SCOUTING THE WILKES DEFENSE (4-3-4)

- Wilkes is second in scoring defense (16.3) and passing defense (137.5), third in total defense (250.8), and fourth in rushing defense (113.3).

- Wilkes recorded their first shut out of the season, not letting Albright score any points during the game. This was the first shutout for the Colonels since last season, when they blanked Alvernia at Schmidt Stadium 23-0. Wilkes held Albright to 87 yards of total offense. This is the first time since 2007 that the Colonels have held an opponent to less than 100 total yards of offense when they allowed 7 yards to King's College in a 35-0 victory.

- Brandon Holcomb led the Wilkes with eight tackles last week, with Steele Hess and Angel Ramos following behind with seven and six tackles respectively. Ramos led Wilkes with 1.5 sacks on the day, which helped him to record 2.5 tackle-for-loss as well.
