TIP OFF

• South Dakota alum Todd Lee is the reigning Summit League Coach of the Year. He is 28-21 in Summit League play.

• This will be the fifth consecutive meeting between the two teams that has taken place outside of Vermillion. The teams have split those four meetings.

• A point in the South Dakota Showdown Series will go to the victor Saturday. The Coyotes currently lead this year's Showdown Series 5-2.

• South Dakota is seeking its first true road win in five tries this season. Mason Archambault has averaged a team-high 13 points and shot 46 percent from the field in those four games.

• Xavier Fuller averaged a team-high 16 points on 46 percent shooting throughout the month of December.

• Tasos Kamateros totaled 29 points in back-to-back games to start Summit League play

• The Coyotes made 8-of-34 from 3-point range in two Summit games to end the year. USD had averaged between 8-9 triples per game in the six games prior.

• USD will stay on the road and take on North Dakota Monday in a make-up game from Dec. 30.

Season four under Todd Lee began where season three ended - The Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls. The Coyotes were the No. 2 seed in the Summit League Tournament last March. USD defeated Western Illinois in the first round before bowing out to No. 3-seeded North Dakota State 79-74, ending USD's season with a 14-11 record. The Coyotes started 1-0 this season following a 59-53 win against Air Force on Veterans Day at the Pentagon.

The Coyotes were picked to finish fifth in the Summit League last season and lost six of their first seven games. But a win against rival South Dakota State inside The Pentagon ignited 11 wins in 12 games including 10 consecutive and a 9-0 start to conference play. South Dakota finished percentage points behind South Dakota State for the league crown with an 11-4 record. SDSU played two fewer games and finished 9-3. Head Coach Todd Lee was rewarded with Summit League Coach of the Year honors.

In the second-to-last game of the regular season, and with a win against North Dakota State in hand, Coyote point guard A.J. Plitzuweit sustained a gruesome leg injury that ended his season and will keep him out of this season as well.

Plitzuweit had burst onto the scene after transferring from Augustana and sitting out the 2019-20 season. He was named the 2021 Summit League Newcomer of the Year and was a first-team all-conference honoree. He scored 37 points in a game twice, and averaged 19 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.9 assists.

Stanley Umude, the ninth-leading scorer in the country last year at 21.6 points per game, earned his degree and opted to play his COVID-year at Arkansas. He and Plitzuweit combined to score more than half of South Dakota's points last year.

Alas, South Dakota is in the same position it was in a year ago - picked in the middle of the Summit and eager to see who emerges as the leaders on the court. Outside of Umude and Plitzuweit, the Coyotes return their next five leading scorers. Returning starters include Xavier Fuller (8.9 ppg), Tasos Kamateros (8.4 ppg) and point guard Kruz Perrott-Hunt (7.0). When Plitzuweit went down, it was Mason Archambault (5.0) who entered the starting lineup during the Summit League Tournament.

Joining the previously mentioned quartet in the starting lineup is redshirt sophomore Hunter Goodrick, a 6-7 forward from Australia. Goodrick averaged 12 minutes per game as a freshman during the 2019-20 season. He did not physically return to campus for the 2020-21 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. He is back for his second season with the Coyotes. He scored his first collegiate double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds against Tennessee State.

One of the first players off the bench for USD has been Erik Oliver, who lit up scoreboards night after night at Laramie County Community College the past two seasons. Oliver averaged 19.8 points per game as a freshman and 20.9 points as a sophomore.

He was named Region IX North Player of the Year and rewarded with NJCAA Honorable Mention All-America honors. He broke the program record for points in a game with 51 on 17-of-26 shooting that included nine 3-pointers.

The Coyotes have three true freshmen on their roster this season in Keaton Kutcher (Mount Vernon, Iowa), Ty Walker (Des Moines, Iowa) and Graham Cassoult (Papillion, Nebraska). The trio are expected to redshirt this season.

Xavier Fuller was an honorable mention all-Summit League performer a year ago. In addition to being the team's third-leading scorer, he was the team's top defender. Fuller's minutes went up and scoring went up in the three games without Plitzuweit. He averaged 19.5 points and shot 52 percent from the field during the Summit League Tournament. Fuller was a junior college all-American at Scottsdale Community College before joining the Coyotes.

Tasos Kamateros of Athens, Greece, and Kruz Perrott-Hunt of Auckland, New Zealand, are the only two players who have competed for the Coyotes in each of the last two seasons. They were the fourth- and fifth-leading scorers, respectively, for USD last season. Kamateros averaged 16.7 points over the final four games of last season. He also pulled down 16 rebounds in a conference win against South Dakota State. Perrott-Hunt scored in double figures in three of the final four contests. He shot 43 percent from beyond the arc and was third on the team in assists as the off guard.

South Dakota has added two new coaches to its staff in the offseason. Roman Gentry from nearby Sioux City, Iowa, is a 2012 graduate of USD and former all-conference performer. He played from 2008-10, averaging 13.5 points during his junior year as a mid-season transfer and then averaging 17.6 points during a senior season in which the Coyotes won the Great West Conference regular season and tournament crown. Gentry gives the Coyotes two former players on the coaching staff (Casey Kasperbauer).

Eddie Hill is also in his first season at USD and his eighth as an assistant at the Division I level. He most recently served three seasons as co-head coach of the ProSkills 17U Nike EYBL team in his hometown of Dallas, Texas. He has served in the past on the bench at Portland, UTEP, San Jose State and Cal State-Northridge. He had a decorated undergraduate career at Washington State.

South Dakota State is playing up to its billing as preseason Summit League favorites. The Jacks beat top-100 teams in George Mason and Washington State in non-conference play and have beaten Oral Roberts and North Dakota State en route to its 3-0 start inside the Summit. A head-scratching loss at Idaho is the lone blemish.

The Jacks, behind guards Noah Freidel and Baylor Scheierman, are the best 3-point shooting team in the country at 44 percent and they are making 10 triples a game and averaging 87 points - third-best nationally. Freidel dressed, but didn't play the last two games. He averages 18 points. Scheierman is perhaps the most complete player in the league.

HEAD COACH TODD LEE

University of South Dakota alum Todd Lee, the reigning Summit League Coach of the Year, begins his fourth season at the helm of his alma mater.

Lee earned his Coach of the Year distinction after leading the Coyotes to a runner-up finish in the Summit last season after being picked to place fifth. He made Stanley Umude one of the premier scorers in the nation, and saw A.J. Plitzuweit average 19 points per game in his first season at the Division I level. South Dakota ranked in the top-10 nationally in 3-point shooting, and led the Summit in both field goal percentage defense and fewest turnovers.

South Dakota was in position to claim a conference title when Plitzuweit sustained a devastating injury with one game remaining in the regular season. The Coyotes advanced to the semifinals of the Summit League Tournament before bowing out in a narrow loss to North Dakota State.

South Dakota won 20 games in the season before the COVID-19 pandemic. He guided Tyler Hagedorn to all-Summit and all-district honors after Hagedorn had redshirted the year prior. The Coyotes were 13-2 at home and finished as one of 11 teams in the nation that had five starters average 10 points or more on the season. Hagedorn was taken with the second overall pick in the NBA G League Draft back in October.

Lee returned to his alma mater after five seasons as the associate head coach at Grand Canyon University under former NBA great Dan Majerle. The Lopes were 103-58 in that time, and the program's 81 wins during its four-year transition to Division I are the most by any program making the leap.

Lee was the head coach at Kentucky Wesleyan from 2005-13. There, he compiled a 154-81 record and competed in five consecutive NCAA tournaments. Highlighting his run was a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2012 and a No. 1 national ranking. Over his final six seasons, the Panthers averaged 22 wins and had a .736 win percentage (134-48).

Lee graduated from USD in 1986 with a degree in business administration, and his master's degree led him to California. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Southwestern College in Chula Vista, California, in 1987. Other stops along the west coast include San Diego, CSU Bakersfield and UC Irvine.

Lee spent two years as an assistant coach for the Rapid City Thrillers of the CBA under current Arkansas head coach Eric Musselman. His family includes three sons, Carson, Jackson and Peyton.
