TIP OFF

• South Dakota alum Todd Lee is the reigning Summit League Coach of the Year. He is 34-23 in Summit League play. USD has had win streaks of at least five games inside the Summit in each of the last three seasons.

• The two teams have split their last six meetings, but only one of those took place in Vermillion and that was two years ago. Four of the five meetings since were played in Brookings.

• South Dakota is 3-1 against SDSU inside the Sanford Coyote Sports Center (USD women are 5-0 vs. SDSU).

• Boogie Anderson is the team's fourth-leading scorer at 10.4 points per game since entering the starting lineup in place of an injured Xavier Fuller seven games ago. Anderson averaged 4.1 points before being inserted into the starting lineup.

• Mason Archambault ranks sixth nationally in free-throw percentage (92.9%).

• True freshman Keaton Kutcher had his redshirt pulled six games ago as injuries (and illness) continue to deplete the Coyotes' depth. Kutcher has totaled 18 points and averaged 13 minutes since seeing the court.

• Tasos Kamateros has two double-doubles (pts-rebs) in his last three games. He had season-highs of 21 points and 12 rebounds last time out (vs. North Dakota).

Season four under Todd Lee began where season three ended - The Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls. The Coyotes were the No. 2 seed in the Summit League Tournament last March. USD defeated Western Illinois in the first round before bowing out to No. 3-seeded North Dakota State 79-74, ending USD's season with a 14-11 record. The Coyotes started 1-0 this season following a 59-53 win against Air Force on Veterans Day at the Pentagon.

The Coyotes were picked to finish fifth in the Summit League last season and lost six of their first seven games. But a win against rival South Dakota State inside The Pentagon ignited 11 wins in 12 games including 10 consecutive and a 9-0 start to conference play. South Dakota finished percentage points behind South Dakota State for the league crown with an 11-4 record. SDSU played two fewer games and finished 9-3. Head Coach Todd Lee was rewarded with Summit League Coach of the Year honors.

In the second-to-last game of the regular season, and with a win against North Dakota State in hand, Coyote point guard A.J. Plitzuweit sustained a gruesome leg injury that ended his season and will keep him out of this season as well.

Plitzuweit had burst onto the scene after transferring from Augustana and sitting out the 2019-20 season. He was named the 2021 Summit League Newcomer of the Year and was a first-team all-conference honoree. He scored 37 points in a game twice, and averaged 19 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.9 assists.

Stanley Umude, the ninth-leading scorer in the country last year at 21.6 points per game, earned his degree and opted to play his COVID-year at Arkansas. He and Plitzuweit combined to score more than half of South Dakota's points last year.

Guards Kruz Perrott-Hunt and Mason Archambault have emerged as the leaders of this new team. They are two of the top eight scorers in Summit League play. KPH has five 20-point efforts this season while Archambault has three.

Xavier Fuller was an honorable mention all-Summit League performer a year ago. In addition to being the team's third-leading scorer, he was the team's top defender. He is averaging close to 13 points per game, but a leg injury has kept him out of the last eight contests. Fuller is expected to return at some point this season.

The absence of Fuller has led to the emergence of Boogie Anderson who has made seven consecutive starts. The Coyotes are 6-1 in that span and Anderson has averaged 10.4 points and 30 minutes per game. He had averaged 4.1 points and 16 minutes in 14 games coming off the bench.

Another result of a team decimated by injury and illness was the decision to pull Keaton Kutcher's redshirt. Kutcher made his collegiate debut six games ago at home against Denver. He had 11 points in game two against Omaha and has averaged 13 minutes per game since seeing the court.

The Coyote big men include redshirt sophomore Hunter Goodrick and third-year sophomore Tasos Kamateros. Goodrick averaged 12 minutes per game as a freshman during the 2019-20 season. He did not physically return to campus for the 2020-21 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. He is back for his second season with the Coyotes, and is one of the top rebounders in the Summit.

Kamateros and Perrott-Hunt are the only two players who have competed for the Coyotes in each of the last two seasons. Kamateros is the team's third-leading scorer and second-leading rebounder.

Erik Oliver has been a staple off the Coyote bench this season. He lit up scoreboards night after night at Laramie County Community College the past two seasons. Oliver averaged 19.8 points per game as a freshman and 20.9 points as a sophomore. He was named Region IX North Player of the Year and rewarded with NJCAA Honorable Mention All-America honors. He broke the program record for points in a game with 51 on 17-of-26 shooting that included nine 3-pointers.

South Dakota has added two new coaches to its staff in the offseason. Roman Gentry from nearby Sioux City, Iowa, is a 2012 graduate of USD and former all-conference performer. He played from 2008-10, averaging 13.5 points during his junior year as a mid-season transfer and then averaging 17.6 points during a senior season in which the Coyotes won the Great West Conference regular season and tournament crown. Gentry gives the Coyotes two former players on the coaching staff (Casey Kasperbauer).

Eddie Hill is also in his first season at USD and his eighth as an assistant at the Division I level. He most recently served three seasons as co-head coach of the ProSkills 17U Nike EYBL team in his hometown of Dallas, Texas. He has served in the past on the bench at Portland, UTEP, San Jose State and Cal State-Northridge. He had a decorated undergraduate career at Washington State.

EARLIER MEETING THIS SEASON

True freshman Zeke Mayo scored a season-high 21 points and Baylor Scheierman didn't miss a shot in totaling 19 points in an 84-65 SDSU win inside Frost Arena back on Jan. 8.

Mason Archambault scored 16 points to lead four South Dakota players in double figures. Big man Hunter Goodrick tied his career-high of 15.

Mayo made the first five 3-pointers he took. Scheierman was 3-of-3 from long range as part of an overall 8-of-8 effort. He also had seven rebounds and six assists.

South Dakota made 8-of-23 from 3-point range and shot 45 percent from the field overall.

South Dakota State has the nation's fourth-longest winning streak at 11. You can argue they boast the best offense. They lead the nation in 3-point shooting at 44.5 percent, and rank second in scoring (87 ppg) and overall shooting (51.8 percent).

Scheierman will give Oral Roberts' Max Abmas a run for Summit League MVP. Scheierman leads the league in rebounding and assists while averaging 18 points a night in Summit play. He is shooting 56 percent from the field in conference play, also best in the league.

HEAD COACH TODD LEE

University of South Dakota alum Todd Lee, the reigning Summit League Coach of the Year, begins his fourth season at the helm of his alma mater.

Lee earned his Coach of the Year distinction after leading the Coyotes to a runner-up finish in the Summit last season after being picked to place fifth. He made Stanley Umude one of the premier scorers in the nation, and saw A.J. Plitzuweit average 19 points per game in his first season at the Division I level. South Dakota ranked in the top-10 nationally in 3-point shooting, and led the Summit in both field goal percentage defense and fewest turnovers.

South Dakota was in position to claim a conference title when Plitzuweit sustained a devastating injury with one game remaining in the regular season. The Coyotes advanced to the semifinals of the Summit League Tournament before bowing out in a narrow loss to North Dakota State.

South Dakota won 20 games in the season before the COVID-19 pandemic. He guided Tyler Hagedorn to all-Summit and all-district honors after Hagedorn had redshirted the year prior. The Coyotes were 13-2 at home and finished as one of 11 teams in the nation that had five starters average 10 points or more on the season. Hagedorn was taken with the second overall pick in the NBA G League Draft back in October.

Lee returned to his alma mater after five seasons as the associate head coach at Grand Canyon University under former NBA great Dan Majerle. The Lopes were 103-58 in that time, and the program's 81 wins during its four-year transition to Division I are the most by any program making the leap.

Lee was the head coach at Kentucky Wesleyan from 2005-13. There, he compiled a 154-81 record and competed in five consecutive NCAA tournaments. Highlighting his run was a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2012 and a No. 1 national ranking. Over his final six seasons, the Panthers averaged 22 wins and had a .736 win percentage (134-48).

Lee graduated from USD in 1986 with a degree in business administration, and his master's degree led him to California. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Southwestern College in Chula Vista, California, in 1987. Other stops along the west coast include San Diego, CSU Bakersfield and UC Irvine.

Lee spent two years as an assistant coach for the Rapid City Thrillers of the CBA under current Arkansas head coach Eric Musselman. His family includes three sons, Carson, Jackson and Peyton.
