Where To Watch

- The Summit League Tournament is available to watch on Midco Sports Plus and the Summit League Network.

20 / 12 wins in a season

- With the win in Tuesday's match over NDSU, the Coyotes secured their 12th win in Summit League play this season, marking the ninth time the team has won 12 conference games under head coach Leanne Williamson.
- A victory also was the 20th win of the season, which is the seventh time the team has posted 20+ wins in a season with Williamson at the helm.

Made History

- Head coach Leanne Williamson made Summit League history last week as she became the winningest coach in conference history with 249 overall wins and 147 Summit League wins.
- Since taking over as the bench boss in 2014, the Coyotes have won over 15 games each year and 20+ six times. The Yotes put together a 31-3 record in the 2019 season, including a perfect 16-0 record in Summit League play.
- South Dakota has now won 10 or more Summit League matches in 11 of the last 12 seasons under Williamson.
- In each of the last seven seasons, the Coyotes have won either the Summit League regular season or tournament championship. The 2022 season saw USD accumulate a 29-4 record (16-2 SL) and claimed the Summit League title in the regular season and postseason tournament.

Ball Out

- Freshman Ava Ball set a new career-high a couple weeks ago in the Yotes loss to SDSU with 17 kills on a .300 clip.
- Ball had eight double-digit kills matches during the Summit League season and 10 on the season.
- She has had an ace in five of the last six matches and had a career-high of three against Kansas City.
- She has seven matches on the year with a .300+ hitting percentage.

Heating up on the Outside

- Audrey Nelson was on fire at the pin a couple weeks ago as she swung at a .450+ clip in all three matches (10/21-25).
- Nelson started the week with nine kills and just one error for a .471 swing rate in a four-set win over NDSU.
- She matched her career-high of 12 kills in a 3-1 win over Denver Thursday. After Denver took the first set, Nelson was key in the Coyote attack over sets 2-4 as she put away 11 kills on 12 swings with no errors.
- In the sweep of UND Saturday, she posted her second straight errorless match with seven kills on 15 swings (.467%).

Bode's Block Party

- Morgan Bode set a new four-set program record at Denver (Oct. 4) with 13 total blocks.
- It was a new career high for Bode and the first time recording double-digit blocks.
- She was especially dominant in the second set win with seven total blocks (2 solo).
- Bode became the first Coyote with 10+ blocks in a single match since Madison Harms in 2023 vs Drake (12).
- Bode ranks No. 4 in the Summit League in blocks (108), No. 4 in solo blocks (20) and No. 5 in blocks per set (1.02).

- The sophomore eclipsed 200 career blocks earlier this season.

Dropping Dimes

- Avery Van Hook ranks No. 12 across the NCAA with 1,095 assists on the season and No. 36 in assists per set (10.14).
- Van Hook has guided the Yotes to a 13.18 kills per set average during Summit League play which ranks No. 3 in the conference.
- Van Hook ended the regular season one of three players in the NCAA to total 1,000+ assists, 300+ digs and 100+ kills.

Winning Traditions

- Over the past seven seasons, the Coyotes have seen their fair share of success with either a Summit League Regular Season or Tournament Championship in each of those seven seasons.
- In 2022, South Dakota was crowned the regular season champions after posting a 16-2 league record and also claimed the tournament championship. It was the first time in program history, the Yotes claimed both titles in the same season.
- From 2020-22 the Coyotes won three straight conference tournaments and have five postseason titles in the last seven seasons.
- USD became the first Summit League team to win the postseason title as the No. 3 seed or higher, winning three games in three days.
- The Coyotes have made five appearances at the NCAA D1 National Tournament, most recently in 2024 when the Yotes faced No. 2 seeded Creighton in Omaha, Nebraska.

Killin' it Efficiently

- Amanda Loschen has been as efficient as anyone in the Summit League so far this season as she ranks No. 2 in the conference with a .342 hitting percentage.
- Loschen has nine double-digit kill matches this season.
- She has swung at a .300 clip in 19 matches and has nine matches at a .400+ clip.
- In USD's win over Denver, Loschen tallied 11 kills with no errors for a .579 hitting percentage and put away nine kills on 14 swings for a .643 clip.
- She put away eight kills on 15 swings with just one error for a .467% in the sweep of Ball State and had two solo blocks.
- Loschen also recorded a .400+ attack percentage in the five-set win over Montana State with 11 kills on 24 swings.

- The Yotes have two players in the top-10 in the Summit League rankings in total digs. Kamryn Farris leads the conference (504), while Avery Van Hook is No. 6 (342).
- Sam Untiedt is No. 14 with 229 on the season, while Lauren Medeck is No. 16 with 226.
- Farris was the only player in the Summit League to average over 4.0 digs per set in the conference season.

4 out of 5 PPOTW

- The reigning Summit League Defensive Player of the

- Year, Kamryn Farris, has locked down the back row for the Coyotes to start the season and earned four of the first five Summit League Kwik Star Defensive Peak Performer of the Week honors to start the season.
- Farris averaged over 5.0 digs per set in four straight weeks of play during the month of September with 212 total digs and a 5.3 digs/set average.
 - Farris became the first player since 2019 to win the defensive weekly award in three straight weeks.
 - The last player to accomplish this feat was USD's Anne Rasmussen who did it in 2019 and 2017.
 - Rasmussen set the Summit League single-season record with seven defensive weekly honors in the 2019 season.
 - At the Coyote Invitational, Farris had 58 digs across three matches for a 5.27 digs per set average. She matched her season-high for the third time with 25 digs in a reverse sweep of FGCU.

LEANNE WILLIAMSON

HEAD COACH • 12TH SEASON • WISCONSIN-MILWAUKEE

Leanne (Felsing) Williamson was named South Dakota's head volleyball coach on April 9, 2014, becoming the ninth head coach in program history. She previously was the assistant coach from 2009-13 and helped the Coyotes transition into the Division I level.

South Dakota played its best volleyball at the end of the season in 2024 and secured its fifth Summit League Tournament Championship and made its fifth appearance in the NCAA Tournament. It was the Yotes fifth conference tournament championship in the last seven years. It was the 11th year in a row where the Coyotes won 15 or more games under Williamson's guidance and ninth straight season with 10 or more wins in Summit League play. South Dakota earned a single-season program best three wins over teams inside the top-50 RPI and the win over Missouri was the program's first top-25 RPI win. After ending the regular season with three straight losses, the Coyotes responded by becoming the first Summit League team to win three games in three days to secure the Summit League Tournament Championship. The Yotes avenged a pair of regular season losses to Omaha with a 3-0 sweep over the Mavericks in the semifinal round, before grabbing a 3-2 win over SDSU in the championship to punch their ticket to the NCAA Tournament. The Coyotes set a new Sanford Coyote Sports Center attendance record of 2,810 in a November 19 match against South Dakota State and ranked 50th nationally in home attendance on the year. USD earned two wins over Power 4 opponents with a 3-1 win over then RV Missouri (Sept. 8) and a 3-1 win over Iowa State (Sept. 14) at the South Dakota Classic. Kamryn Farris was named the Summit League Defensive Player of the Year, Kylen Sealock was a All-League First team selection for the second straight season and Avery Van Hook was an All-League Honorable Mention. Following impressive freshman seasons, Lauren Medeck and Morgan Bode were named to the conference's all-freshman team. Farris and Sealock also garnered AVCA Northwest All-Region Honorable Mention honors. Farris set a four-set program record with 38 digs in a match against St. Thomas (Nov. 14).

The Coyotes secured their fourth Summit League regular season title in 2023 and second straight with a 12-4 conference record. South Dakota finished the regular with five straight wins, including four straight sweeps, but would fall in the first round of the conference tournament to NDSU 2-3. In the match against the Bison, Madison Harms became the Summit League's all-time career blocks leader, finishing her time as a Coyote with 666. USD won 15-plus matches for the 10th year in a row under Williamson and the Coyotes made their sixth straight postseason appearance, earning a spot in the National Volleyball Invitation Championship for the second time in program history. Madison Harms was named an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, AVCA All-Region Honorable Mention and the Summit League Player of the Year. Kylen Sealock joined Harms on the All-Summit First Team, while Avery Van Hook was selected to the All-Freshman Team.

South Dakota had a historic season in 2022, including its third-straight Summit League tournament title and the Summit League regular season crown. It was the first time that the Coyotes captured both the regular season and tournament titles in the same season. South Dakota finished first in the regular season at 16-2 before sweeping both Denver in the semifinals and Omaha in the Summit League tournament championship inside the Baxter Arena in Omaha. The Coyotes made history in the first round of its fourth NCAA tournament appearance in the last five seasons when they took #23 Houston to five sets. The 29-4 season marked the ninth-straight 15-plus win campaign for Williamson led teams. Williamson was named Summit League Coach of the Year for the third time, while Elizabeth Juhnke was named Summit League Player of the Year for the first time and Lolo Weideman was named Summit League Defensive Player of the Year for the first time. Madison Harms joined Juhnke and Weideman on the All-Summit League team after becoming the rally scoring era leader for assisted blocks, solo blocks, and total blocks at South Dakota. She was just the second Coyote in program history to record 500 career blocks. Juhnke became the first Coyote and fourth Summit League player to reach 2,000 career kills and owns the South Dakota and Summit League record for kills in a single season (677). Williamson earned her 165th career win and became the all-time career wins leader at South Dakota with a 3-2 victory over Missouri in the Sanford Coyote Sports Center on August 28.

The Coyotes captured a second-straight Summit League tournament title during the 2021 season, giving them two titles in the same calendar year. South Dakota finished second in the regular season at 15-3 before defeating South Dakota State and top-seeded Omaha in the Summit League tournament inside the Sanford Coyote Sports Center. South Dakota lost to #11 Minnesota in a NCAA Tournament First Round contest. The 20-10 season marked the eighth-straight 15-plus win campaign for Williamson led teams. Elizabeth Juhnke was named to the AVCA All-Region team and the All-Summit League First Team for the third straight season. Madison Harms joined Juhnke on the All-Summit League team after setting a school single season record with a .409 hitting percentage, the 14th best in the nation. South Dakota led the Summit League and ranked 40th nationally in home attendance.

The 2020 season was pushed from the fall to the spring due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic that caused many leagues to move fall sports into the spring. The Coyotes captured their second Summit League tournament title in the last three seasons with a thrilling 3-2 win over Denver in which it won the final three sets after trailing 0-2. The 15-7 campaign concluded with a NCAA tournament loss to Missouri as the NCAA conducted its entire tournament, reduced down to 48 teams, inside the CHI Center in Omaha. Elizabeth Juhnke earned AVCA Honorable Mention All-American honors while also earning All-Summit League honors along with Sami Slaughter and Madison Harms.

The 2019 season was another banner year for the Coyotes as Williamson led the program to a school-record 31 wins, the highest winning percentage in Summit League history (.912), and was named Summit League Coach of the Year for the second time in her career. South Dakota finished a perfect 16-0 in winning its first outright Summit League regular season title. The Coyotes advanced to the title game of the National Invitational Volleyball Championships (NIVC) before falling at home to Georgia Tech. It was the first home loss of the season after 14 wins and snapped an 18-match home court win streak that was tied for the sixth longest in NCAA. Sophomore Madison Jurgens was named Summit League Setter of the Year while senior Anne Rasmussen repeated as Summit League Defensive Player of the Year. Elizabeth Juhnke was named Summit League Freshman of the Year.

Williamson earned her 100th career victory as South Dakota posted a 3-0 sweep over Murray State on August 31. She became just the second volleyball coach in school history to reach 100 career wins. South Dakota averaged 1,167 fans in 15 home contests, including setting a Sanford Coyote Sports Center record for volleyball when 2,431 were on hand for the NIVC title match against Georgia Tech.

Williamson led the Coyotes to their first-ever Summit League tournament championship following a five-set win over Denver in 2018. That victory earned South Dakota its first-ever NCAA Division I national tournament berth. Senior Hayley Dotseth was named Summit League Player of the Year while junior Anne Rasmussen was honored as the Summit League Defensive Player of the Year.

Williamson garnered Summit League Coach of the Year honors in her third season at the helm as the Coyotes captured the program's first conference title in history. The 2016 season also saw the debut of the Sanford Coyote Sports Center with more than 2,400 fans in attendance at the home opener on August 30. The Coyotes finished 10-1 inside their new home with the only loss coming at the hands of NCAA Tournament participant Iowa State. USD also set a program record for wins in a season with 25 victories in 2016.

In six seasons as head coach, Williamson has coached 14 all-Summit League honorees. One of those all-Summit League honorees includes Brittany Jessen who she coached to earn the title of USD all-time assists leader. Jessen ended her career with 4,826 assists, fourth most in Summit League history.

In her five years as an assistant, she helped lead the Coyotes to their first Summit League postseason berth in 2013. USD posted a 19-13 overall record and 9-5 mark in the Summit League. USD was 8-0 at home during the season. She helped coach Kendall Krittenbrink to Summit League Player of the Year honors. Krittenbrink led the Summit with 521 kills, ninth most in League history. Krittenbrink was selected to the Division I Honorable Mention All-America Team and was also chosen by USA Volleyball to be part of the U.S. Collegiate National Team.
