SOUTH DAKOTA FOOTBALL

SOUTH DAKOTA FOOTBALL HISTORY

HISTORICALLY SPEAKING

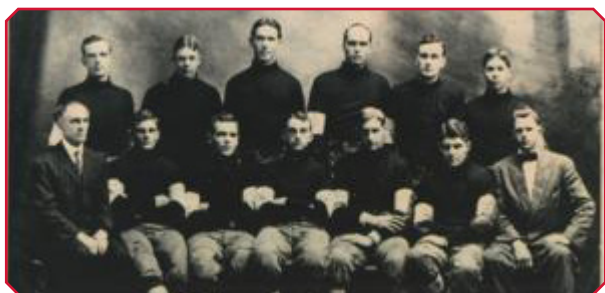

The Coyotes played their first game in 1889 when South Dakota played to a 6-6 tie with Agricultural College (now South Dakota State University), and then posted an 11-0 win over Yankton College.

From 1889-1900, USD was 16-7-5, including a 6-5 win over the University of Nebraska in 1899. Two years later, Ralph Norton became the Coyotes' first football coach. He was succeeded by A.H. Whittemore who coached South Dakota for 10 seasons (1902-09, 1920-21).

1912 TEAM

Rev. James Henderson's 1912 team had a 5-1 record, including a 10-0 win over Minnesota and a close 7-6 defeat to Michigan. Both schools were (and still are) members of the Big Ten, one of the top NCAA Division I football conferences in the country.

The 1912 team is recognized as one of the greatest in South Dakota annals. The team defeated South Dakota State, 73-6; blanked North Dakota, 44-0; and destroyed Creighton, 68-0.

GENE VIDAL

Eugene "Gene" Vidal of Madison was a star in the early days of Coyote football. He gained notoriety as a pioneer in the aviation industry; but before doing that, he left his mark on athletics at USD and at Army West Point. He lettered in football, basketball, track, and baseball at South Dakota.

After graduation from USD in 1916, he became an All-American at the United States Military Academy at West Point. In 1920, Vidal, the father of writer Gore Vidal, played professional football for the New York Giants and the Washington Redskins, and later served in President Franklin Roosevelt's administration.

DARWIN INMAN MEMORIAL STADIUM

Darwin Inman Memorial Stadium was constructed in the 1920s and hosted USD's first NCC football championship in 1927, the sixth-year of league competition.

Darwin Inman Memorial Stadium served as the home of Coyote football from 1924-78, and saw more than 130 South Dakota victories on its grounds.

NATIONAL RUNNERS-UP

Led by Coach Dave Triplett, quarterback Scott Jones, running back James Hambrick, and a stout defensive front seven, the 1986 Coyote squad broke 23 school records and rolled to a program-record 11 wins (also hit by the 2024 team, tying the program record). The season culminated with an appearance in the NCAA Division II championship game in Florence, Alabama.

THE DAKOTADOME

One of the first multi-purpose domes in the nation, the DakotaDome has been the home of the Coyotes since the fall of 1979. The Dome hosts Coyote football and track and field. It served as the primary home of Coyote basketball (1979-2016) and swimming and diving (1979-2025).

Completed in 2019, the Dome went through a $26 million renovation that focused primarily on the west side of the structure that included a new football locker room, office space, and meeting rooms among other things.

TRANSITION TO NCAA DIVISION I FCS

South Dakota announced their intention to transition to the Division I ranks on November 29, 2006 by then USD President James W. Abbott. The Coyotes competed in their final Division II season with the 2007-08 academic year. The 2008-09 academic year marked the first Division I season with the 2025-26 year being the 18th Division I season for the Yotes.

SIGNATURE WINS

Just three years into its Division I transition, South Dakota defeated Minnesota 41-38 in Minneapolis in the second week of the 2010 season. A year later, the Coyotes knocked off top-ranked and defending national champion Eastern Washington (20-17) inside the DakotaDome. In 2015, USD stunned North Dakota State (24-21) in Fargo, ending the Bison's 26-game home winning streak in Valley play.

The history-making wins continued in 2024, when USD once again defeated top-ranked North Dakota State (29-28) in the final week of the regular season to secure a share of the program's first-ever Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) title.

MISSOURI VALLEY FOOTBALL CONFERENCE ERA

South Dakota joined the MVFC ahead of the 2012 season. Founded in 1985, the MVFC has shaped itself into the nation's premier NCAA FCS conference.

Six years after joining, in 2017, the Coyotes rode a 6-0 start to reach the FCS Playoffs for the first time in program history. Led by MVFC Offensive Player of the Year Chris Streveler, the Yotes reached as high as fourth in the national rankings and won on the road at Nicholls State in their FCS Playoff debut to reach the second round. Streveler was named the FCS Offensive Player of the Year and finished second in the voting for the Walter Payton Award.

THE BOB NIELSON ERA

In December of 2015, then athletic director David Herbster would turn to Bob Nielson to lead the University of South Dakota football program into the future -- and what a bright future that was.

Known for his ability to turn programs around, Nielson had turned programs around his entire career and lead four of his previous five schools to their respective NCAA Playoff, including a pair of NCAA Division II national championships at Minnesota-Duluth. That trend would continue at South Dakota for Nielson.

In his nine seasons at USD, Nielson compiled a record of 53-48 with four trips to the FCS Playoffs. In his final campaign in 2024, Nielson won the program's first-ever MVFC title (7-1 MVFC record) and took South Dakota to their first-ever FCS Playoff semifinal appearance.

MAKING RUNS IN THE FCS PLAYOFFS

The South Dakota football program made four FCS Playoff appearances - all of them coming under the direction of Nielson heading into the 2025 season. The 2023 and 2024 campaigns also made it the first time in program history the Coyotes both made the Playoffs in back-to-back seasons but also being a top-4 seed and hosting through the Quarterfinals.

THE DAKOTADOME

One of the region's most recognizable, man-made landmarks, the DakotaDome has served as the cornerstone of Coyote athletics for decades. Originally constructed in 1979, the 9,100-seat facility was one of the first multi-purpose domes in the nation.

Today, it serves as home for Coyote football and indoor track and field. Basketball, swimming & diving, and volleyball competed in the Dome before the Sanford Coyote Sports Center came online in 2016 and the completion of the Natatorium (swim & dive) was completed in the spring of 2025.

The playing surface for football is AstroTurf PureGrass. A high-definition video board from Daktronics was installed ahead of the 2016 campaign. The Summer of 2024 saw a new turf installed in the Dome [MORE INFORMATION BELOW].

In addition to Coyote athletic teams and events, the DakotaDome hosts many other events. The championship games of the state high school football playoffs take place annually inside the Dome. The DAKOTA Farm Show called the Dome home for more than 30 years, which came to an end following the 2024 show. The facility also hosts community youth events, including camps and high school track meets, and graduation ceremonies.

The DakotaDome amenities include Coyote Landing - a gathering arena on the northeast side of the facility. Similar spaces have been created on the northwest and southwest sides with the new renovation (2020). The Dome Club is a spectacular space featured behind the south wall where patrons can gather and oversee the action on the field.

// DAKOTADOME RENOVATIONS

South Dakota completed an 18-month, $26 million renovation to the west side of the DakotaDome in the summer of 2020. This "first phase" featured two new entrances to the facility, bringing the total to four main entrances. It also included a new football locker room that covers more than 6,000 square feet and boasts 110 individual lockers.

The most noticeable improvement for fans are the installation of permanent seating throughout the west side, the addition of loge boxes and suites right above the sidelines, and a new modern concourse with an industrial kitchen. New lighting and sound system also enhance the game day experience.

The second phase of this renovation was completed in January of 2021. It focused primarily on the 400 level of the west side where football offices and meeting spaces were designed. It also saw the creation of a new equipment room and athletic training space on the 100 level.

In the summer of 2024, the DakotaDome had a playing surface revamp. Replacing the old 'South Dakota' wordmark with the Coyote, the new turf now features the iconic USD paw logo at midfield.

These improvements ultimately pave the way for others. Locker rooms and office spaces on the east side for coaches and support staff will be updated and reassigned. A modern concourse and fan amenities will also be installed on the east side.

// ATTENDANCE NOTES

Since official tracking of attendance numbers was based on tickets sold ahead of the 2019 football season, the past two seasons (2023, 2024) have seen season attendance averages climb.

The 2024 season saw the best single-season average of 7,281 fans per game in the eight home games, including the two FCS Playoff games in December.

The last two seasons have seen the Yotes average north of 7,000 fans per game, as the Coyotes posted back-to-back record breaking seasons.

The 2024 season was one for the ages. Putting down a new turf in the summer of 2024, the Coyotes inaugural season on it saw them go a perfect 8-0 and win the program's first-ever Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) title with a 29-28 win over No. 1-ranked North Dakota State in a nearly sold-out DakotaDome (9,062). The 7,068 fans per game average sits second-best since 2019.

Below is a table of the attendance averages since the 2019 season:

// DAKOTADOME TRADITIONS

MOTORCYCLE ENTRANCE

On game days, the South Dakota football team runs onto the field behind a motorcycle with the lights turned off, in front of Coyote Nation.

HOME OF THE COYOTES

It's only fitting that the official animal of the state of South Dakota is also the mascot of the state's flagship university: the coyote.

However, long before the Coyote (always pronounced 'KIGH - YOTE') was honored by the state in 1949, it became a symbol for the University's athletic teams.

When the school's first yearbook was published in 1902, the editors had already dubbed the team "the Coyotes," and the name stuck.

The school's official costumed mascot is Charlie Coyote.

SOUTH DAKOTA SONGS

The University of South Dakota recognizes three official fight songs as part of the University. South Dakota Victory and Hail South Dakota are played as the school's "official" fight song(s), played following wins with the football team. The other Get Along Coyotes by Fred Waring, Roy Ringwald, and Pat Balard (1941).

An entire week is devoted to Dakota Days to showcase the pride and school spirit of USD, a way of life on campus. Dakota Days culminates with the D-Days football game on Saturday afternoon, where the Coyotes are 69-33-5 in 107 Dakota Days games (through 2024).

FIRST TEAM ALL-CONFERENCE

For over its 125+ years of football, the University of South Dakota has been a member of three different conferences before settling in the NCAA Division I FCS era prior to the 2008 season. In 1922, the Coyotes joined their inaugural conference in the North Central Conference (NCC), of which they remained a member of during the entirety of their Division II days (1922-2007). USD joined the Great West Conference as their first Division I FCS conference, then joined the Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) ahead of the 2012 campaign. Since joining the NCC in 1922, 261 Coyotes have been named a First Team All-Conference performer. In the Division I FCS era (2008-pres.), 36 of Coyotes have garnered First Team All-Conference selections.
