HEAD COACH LISA FORTIER

SEVENTH YEAR - CAL STATE-MONTEREY BAY, 2004

Lisa Fortier was named the Head Coach of the Gonzaga University women's basketball program on April 14, 2014 after having spent nearly a decade on staff, including seven years as an assistant. In her first six seasons at the helm, Fortier has taken the program to new heights.

Fortier is the only coach in program history to have five 20-win seasons in their first six seasons, most recently with the 28-3 mark posted in 2019-20. Last season, Fortier led the Bulldogs to their first regular-season Top 10 ranking, reaching No. 10 in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll and a No. 11 ranking in the Associated Press poll, their highest AP ranking ever. Gonzaga put together its best regular-season record (28-2), finished the season with a 28-3 record—the highest win percentage in program history—and secured its fourth-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title with a conference- and program-record tying 17-1 record. Gonzaga was slated to host the NCAA Tournament First and Second Rounds—the first time the Zags would host since the NCAA adjusted hosting rules to include the top 16 seeds in 2014-15—before the abrupt end of the season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Fortier's Zags further displayed national dominance both offensively and defensively, ranking second in the nation in three-point field goal percentage (39.5) and third in scoring defense (51.9 ppg). Five players earned WCC All-Conference recognition in 2019-20, highlighted by Gonzaga's ninth Player of the Year, Jill Townsend, while six players were named WCC All-Academic. For her efforts, Fortier was named a semifinalist for the Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year award.

In her six years at Gonzaga, Fortier has had two players named the WCC Player of the Year (Jill Townsend and Jill Barta), 11 All-WCC First Team selections, five All-WCC Second Team selections, four All-WCC Honorable Mention selections and four WCC All-Freshman Team performers. She's been named the WCC Coach of the Year four times, and she was selected as the Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year in 2015. Fortier's players have also excelled academically as 30 players have been selected to the WCC All-Academic team along with seven players earning Division I-AAA ADA Scholar-Athlete recognition. Fortier also coached 2018 CoSIDA Academic All-District 8 selection Chandler Smith.

2018-19: In 2018-19, Fortier led the Bulldogs a No. 11 USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll ranking and a No. 12 Associated Press Poll ranking while guiding the Zags to a 29-5 overall record, which ties for the second-best in program history. GU claimed its third-straight WCC regular-season title while Fortier was named WCC Coach of the Year for the fourth time in five seasons, surpassing her own conference record for the award. The Bulldogs advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time in program history and the fourth time under Fortier, securing the No. 5 seed, the highest in program history. Gonzaga advanced to the NCAA Second Round for the sixth time in history, falling to Oregon State 76-70 in Corvallis, Ore. Fortier coached three Zags to First Team All-WCC honors in Laura Stockton, Zykera Rice and Chandler Smith while Jill Townsend was selected Honorable Mention. Fortier was also selected as a Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year Late Season Candidate in addition to being selected as 20 local Spokane women as part of the 2019 Women in Business Leadership Awards.

2017-18: With a young crew that carried just one senior on the roster, Fortier posted her then-winningest season with a 27-6 record, the program's 10th 25-win season in 11 years. The Zags went 17-1 in conference play, the first WCC Team ever to accomplish the feat, claiming the regular-season title. Gonzaga went on to claim the WCC Tournament title as well, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in history. Three players earned WCC All-Conference recognition, led by Player of the Year Jill Barta, the eighth POY in program history. WNBA Draft pick Jill Barta became the third Zag in history to be named First Team All-WCC three time in her first three seasons.

2016-17: Fortier's Zags swept the WCC regular-season and tournament championships while Fortier became the fastest coach in program history to 50 wins. At 26-7, Gonzaga advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the eighth time in nine years and ninth time overall. Fortier's 2016-17 squad set program records in three pointers made (224), free throw percentage (77.4) along with breaking the single-game three-pointers made record three times, finally settling on 17. Jill Barta became only the second sophomore in the Division I era to score 1,000 career points at GU.

2015-16: In her second year, Fortier led the Zags to the WNIT Second Round behind freshman phenom Jill Barta. Barta was selected First Team All-WCC—the first freshman to earn First Team honors in eight years—while Shelby Cheslek collected Honorable Mention honors. Cheslek was also named WCC All-Academic First Team while Kiara Kudron, Shaniqua Nilles, Emma Stach, Georgia Stirton and Elle Tinkle were honorable mention selections.

2014-15: In her first season as head coach, Fortier led Gonzaga to a 26-8 finish and its seventh-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. The Zags advanced to their fourth Sweet 16 following a pair of upsets in the first and seconds rounds as an 11-seed. Gonzaga set new program records in 2014-15, including a program-best 77.4 percent from the free throw line which also ranked fourth in the country. The Bulldogs also set new marks in free throws made (534) and made three-pointers (211). Fortier was named the WCC Coach of the Year after guiding the Zags to their 11th-straight WCC regular-season title. Four Zags also collected All-WCC honors as Sunny Greinacher and Elle Tinkle were named All-WCC First Team, Keani Albanez picked up All-WCC Second Team honors and Emma Wolfram was selected to the WCC All-Freshman team. Fortier was also named the WBCA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year after completing the best rookie season of any Gonzaga coach to date. Her 26 wins and 76.5 win percentage were both top of the list among first year finishes for any GU women's basketball coach.

Fortier first came to Gonzaga in 2004, spending two years as the coordinator of basketball operations. She then spent one season as an assistant coach at the University of Northern Colorado before returning to GU in 2007.In her seven years as a Gonzaga assistant, the Bulldogs produced an overall record of 196-43. The Zags dominated the West Coast Conference during that span, compiling a 98-8 mark to go with seven consecutive WCC regular-season championships and five WCC Tournament titles.

After a second-round appearance in the WNIT in Fortier's first season as an assistant, the Zags qualified for the NCAA Tournament the next six years, which included a stretch of three-straight Sweet Sixteens from 2010-12. The highlight was an Elite Eight run in 2011, in which the Bulldogs upset three higher-seeded teams.

ASSISTANT COACH JORDAN GREEN

SEVENTH YEAR - GEORGE FOX, 2001

Jordan Green was hired as the first member of Head Coach Lisa Fortier's staff in April of 2014. He brings a wealth of experience and expertise in both guard and post player development to Gonzaga. Green also has a high knowledge of basketball in the Pacific Northwest as he has recruited the area extensively for most of his professional career.

The Bulldogs have reached new heights during Green's tenure, securing a regular-season Top 10 ranking in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches poll—the highest regular-season ranking ever—along with a No. 11 Associated Press ranking. Each of those milestones came during the 2019-20 season which saw the Bulldogs finish with a program-best 28-2 regular-season record along with the highest win percentage in program history at 90.3 percent (28-3 overall record). The Zags were slated to host the NCAA First and Second Rounds as a Top 16 seed before the season ended abruptly due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Green has helped guide the Bulldogs to five West Coast Conference regular-season titles, two WCC Tournament titles, five post-season appearances including three-straight NCAA tournament appearances and an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance. Since his arrival, Gonzaga has had two players named WCC Player of the Year (Jill Townsend and Jill Barta), 11 All-WCC First Team selections, five All-WCC Second Team selections, four All-WCC Honorable Mention selections and four WCC All-Freshman Team performers.

Prior to arriving at Gonzaga, Green made stops at Idaho, Idaho State and Seattle University. The Cashmere, Wash., native closed out his third season on the Idaho coaching staff in 2013-14 and first as the associate head coach. As a member of the Vandals, Green coordinated recruiting and team travel, handled scouting responsibilities and worked with their post players. The Vandals posted a 54-45 three-year record with Green on the bench, including a 32-16 mark in the Western Athletic Conference. Idaho also earned NCAA Tournament berths in both 2012-2013 and 2013-14 after winning the WAC Tournament Championship. The Vandals' NCAA Tournament bid in 2012-13 was only the second in school history and first since 1984-85. It also was their first post-season berth since 1985-86 campaign. Green coached five All-WAC performers including Alyssa Charleston, a three-time All-WAC performer and a Capital One All-American.

Prior to his time at Idaho, Green worked at Idaho State University as an assistant coach from 2004-11. During his tenure, Idaho State won two Big Sky Championships and made a splash in the post-season three-times; one NCAA Tournament and two appearances in the WNIT. The versatile coach was in charge of guard player development in addition to scouting opponents, coordinating travel and assisting with recruiting.

Before his stop at Idaho State, Green kicked off his coaching career with a single season with the men's basketball program at Seattle University in 2003-04.

Green played basketball collegiately at George Fox University, where he was a three-time captain and a NAIA All-American Honorable Mention. On the all-time statistical charts at George Fox, he ranked third in steals (253), seventh in points (1,468) and 10th in assists (373). He earned his bachelor of science in education from George Fox in 2001, and received his master's in athletic administration and physical education from Idaho State in 2005.

Green is married to Jessica Green, and they have a son Jaden and daughter Josephine.

ASSISTANT COACH STACY CLINESMITH

SEVENTH YEAR - UC SANTA BARBARA, 2000

Stacy Clinesmith, former WNBA veteran and Spokane native, was hired as an assistant women's basketball coach on May 2, 2014. The standout from Mead high school has been able to transfer her knowledge of the game as a player into developing guards as a coach. Stacy brings tons of energy and enthusiasm, and does a tremendous job of creating relationships with recruits and within the community.

In her six seasons with the Bulldogs, Clinesmith has mentored 12 All-WCC guards, including one WCC Player of the Year: Elle Tinkle (twice), Keani Albanez, Laura Stockton (twice), Chandler Smith (twice), Jill Townsend (twice, including the 2019-20 Player of the Year), Katie Campbell, Jessie Loera. In 2019-20, freshman Kayleigh Truong was honored as a member of the WCC All-Freshman team.

In 2019-20, Clinesmith mentored WCC Player of the Year Jill Townsend at guard. The junior led the Zags in scoring (12.3 ppg), second in rebounding (5.6 rpg), first in free-throw percentage (85.1), second in field goal percentage (49.7) and third in three-point field goal percentage (41.1). She also tutored Jessie Loera—who led the Zags in assists and finished her career ranked fourth all-time with 445 assists—and Katie Campbell who was selected to the All-WCC Second Team. In 2018-19, both Loera and Laura Stockton averaged over 4.0 assists per game, while Stockton finished her career ranked third all-time in program history with 459 assists. In 2017-18, Clinesmith oversaw three guards in Stockton, Chandler Smith and Loera who all averaged over 2.7 assists per game and scored at least 6.2 points per contest. Smith picked up All-WCC Second Team honors while Emma Stach was selected WCC All-Tournament. In 2016-17, she tutored All-WCC Honorable Mention selection Stockton at point guard; Stockton finished the season with 144 assists, 10th on the single-season GU list. That season, Gonzaga ranked first in the conference in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.06.

Clinesmith arrived at Gonzaga following three seasons as an assistant coach at Santa Clara University. During her stint with the Broncos, Clinesmith coached two All-WCC honorees, and All-Freshman selection and five WCC All-Academic honorees. In her first season at SCU, she guided the team to its best start in program history, and as the guard coach, mentored Alyssa Shoji who went on to set the WCC single-season three-point field goal record (99).

Clinesmith began her career in the collegiate ranks serving as Oregon State University's Director of Basketball Operations in 2008-09 and went on to become the assistant coach at Central Washington University in 2010-11.

Before hitting the collegiate coaching ranks, Clinesmith enjoyed a record-setting basketball career. She was tabbed the Washington State 3A Player of the Year while at Mead and went on to become one of the most accomplished guards ever to play at UC Santa Barbara. She finished her college career second in UC Santa Barbara history in assists (647) and fourth in scoring (1,565 points).

Clinesmith led the Gauchos to four-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and earned All-Big West honors three times, starting with her sophomore season, and was named to the Big West All-Freshman Team as a rookie. The Gauchos won the Big West Tournament titles in each of her four seasons and Clinesmith was tabbed the Big West Tournament Most Valuable Player in 2000.

After her collegiate career, Clinesmith was drafted by the Sacramento Monarchs in the second round of the 2000 WNBA Draft and spent two seasons playing for Sacramento before joining the Detroit Shock in 2002. She went on to play with the Springfield Sprint of the National Women's Basketball League (NWBL) and the Gigantes de Carolina in Puerto Rico.

Clinesmith graduated from UC Santa Barbara in 2000 with a bachelor of arts degree in sociology. She has been a certified strength and conditioning coach since 2004.

ASSISTANT COACH CRAIG FORTIER

SEVENTH YEAR - CAL STATE-MONTEREY BAY, 2003

Fortier joined the Gonzaga women's basketball staff on May 5, 2014, rounding out head coach Lisa Fortier's staff hires. Craig, Lisa's husband, brought over a decade of coaching experience with him to Gonzaga, including three seasons as the associate head coach of the Eastern Washington men's basketball team.

Fortier had also previously spent time as a graduate assistant for Gonzaga's men's basketball team from 2004-06; during that same time, Lisa served as the coordinator of basketball operations for GU's women's team.

Working primarily with the posts, he has tutored 11 all-conference forwards including seven first team selections. He coached 2018 WCC Player of the Year Jill Barta, who was a three-time First Team All-WCC selection in three seasons, just the third Zag in program history to do that. Barta finished seventh all-time with 1,620 points and 10th all-time with 652 rebounds. She was drafted into the WNBA after three seasons on the court at Gonzaga. Under his tutelage, Jenn Wirth, Zykera Rice, Kiara Kudron and Sunny Greinacher were also selected First Team All-WCC. Rice also joined Barta in the WNBA ranks, earning a training camp spot with the Seattle Storm in 2019.

While at Eastern Washington, Fortier helped direct the Eagles' defense, and in 2013-14, EWU finished in the top three in the Big Sky in three different categories, including blocked shots (1st; 4.3), field goal percentage defense (2nd; 44.6) and three-point field goal percentage defense (3rd; 34.5). The Eagles also had top three season in school history in turnovers per game, averaging 12.0 in 2013-14, 13.4 in 2012-13 and a school best 11.8 in 2011-12.

Prior to his time with the Eagles, Fortier was instrumental in helping the Whitworth men's basketball program reach new heights. In 2010-11, Fortier helped the Pirates advance to the NCAA Division III Sectional Final (Elite Eight) for the first time in program history. Whitworth ended that season with an impressive 28-2 mark, also a program record.

Fortier's experience also includes a one-year stint as an administrative assistant for the men's basketball team at Colorado State University and a one-year stint and the assistant men's basketball coach for his alma mater, Cal State Monterey Bay.

He graduated from Cal State Monterey Bay in 2003 with a degree in human connection. He earned his master's degree in sport and athletic administration from Gonzaga in 2006.

Fortier has been married to Lisa since 2006 and they have two sons Marcus (2010) and Calvin (2012), and a daughter, Quincy (2014).

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS - ALEX YOUNG

FIRST YEAR - SAN DIEGO, 2018

Alexandria (Alex) Young joined the Gonzaga women's basketball program in October 2020. Young came to Gonzaga following two seasons with Fresno State women's basketball.

As the Director of Basketball Operations, Young oversees all day-to-day operations within the basketball office, coordinates travel, community service opportunities and summer camps.

Prior to her tenure at Gonzaga, Young worked as the Graduate Assistant for Fresno State women's basketball where she served as the assistant to the recruiting coordinator. She was also responsible for organizing team travel, outreach programs, equipment and video exchange. In addition, Young was tasked with creating graphics and videos for social media and recruiting.

Young attended the University of San Diego, where she was a five-year member of the women's basketball team. She earned a Bachelor's degree in communication studies with a minor in visual arts in 2018 and secured her Master's degree in sports administration from Fresno State in May of 2020.

VIDEO COORDINATOR - KIARA KUDRON

Kiara Kudron joined the Gonzaga women's basketball program as video coordinator in October 2020. Kudron, who played for the Zags from 2012-17, arrived at Gonzaga after playing three seasons of professional basketball overseas.

As the video coordinator, Kudron will be responsible for using video editing software to compile breakdowns of specific plays and/or techniques to help analyze the team's performance in order to inform future practice sessions and strategies.

Prior to Kudron's return to Gonzaga, she spent 2017-20 playing professional basketball overseas in Madrid, Spain and Contern, Luxembourg. During her career at Gonzaga, Kudron helped the Bulldogs to four NCAA Tournament berths, four WCC regular-season titles and three WCC Tournament titles. She finished her career ranked 11th all-time in rebounds with 651 and was selected to the 2016-17 All-WCC First Team, 2017 WCC All-Tournament, 2016-17 WCC All-Academic and 2016-17 DI-AAA Scholar Athlete Team.

Kudron graduated from Gonzaga with a Bachelor's degree in physical education with a concentration in health and fitness. She earned her Master's in organizational leadership. Kudron currently resides in Liberty Lake, Wash.

NCAA TOURNAMENT RECAPS

2019 - SECOND ROUND

Gonzaga secured its 14th regular-season West Coast Conference Championship in the last 15 years and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the third-straight season and 11th time overall. Lisa Fortier continued to break her own records, securing the WCC Coach of the Year for the fourth time in her first five seasons, extending her previous record of the award. Gonzaga finished the regular-season with a program-record 27-3 mark and a 16-2 record in WCC play, in addition to reaching new heights nationally with a program-best No. 12 ranking in the Associated Press poll and a No. 11 ranking in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll.

The Zags earned their second at-large bid, securing their highest seed to date at No. 5 and faced No. 12-seeded Arkansas-Little Rock (UALR) in the first round at Gill Coliseum in Corvallis, Ore. The Bulldogs started off hot, racing out to a 16-0 lead in the first six minutes, and they never looked back. Gonzaga defeated UALR 68-51 to earn their first NCAA Tournament win since 2015. Zykera Rice led all scorers with 18 poins off 8-of-14 from the floor to go along with six rebounds while Katie Campbell set a new Bulldog NCAA Tournament record with five made treys for 15 points; the junior added seven boards, two blocks and an assist in the win. The Bulldogs dominated the glass 43-27 while outscoring the Trojans 24-20 in the paint to win their first NCAA Tournament game since 2015.

Gonzaga faced No. 4 Oregon State in the second round in a back-and-forth tight matchup. Neither team led by more than eight, and the game featured 10 ties and nine lead changes. The Zags led for over 25 minutes of the game with a slight 34-32 halftime lead. With 3:26 to go in the final quarter and the game tied 59-all, Oregon State put together an 8-2 run to take a six-point lead (67-61) with 49 seconds to go. The Zags were unable to counter the run and fell 76-70. Rice led all scorers with 20 points while Chandler Smith added 13. Jessie Loera and Jenn Wirth also finished in double-figures with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

2018 - FIRST ROUND

The Zags won their 13th regular-season West Coast Conference Championship in 14 years and their seventh WCC Tournament Title in 10 years, as the Bulldogs went back to the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight year and ninth time in 10 years, and 10th time overall. Lisa Fortier was tabbed the WCC Coach of the Year for the third time in her first four years, the first coach in conference history to achieve that. The Zags went 17-1 in WCC action setting a new conference record.

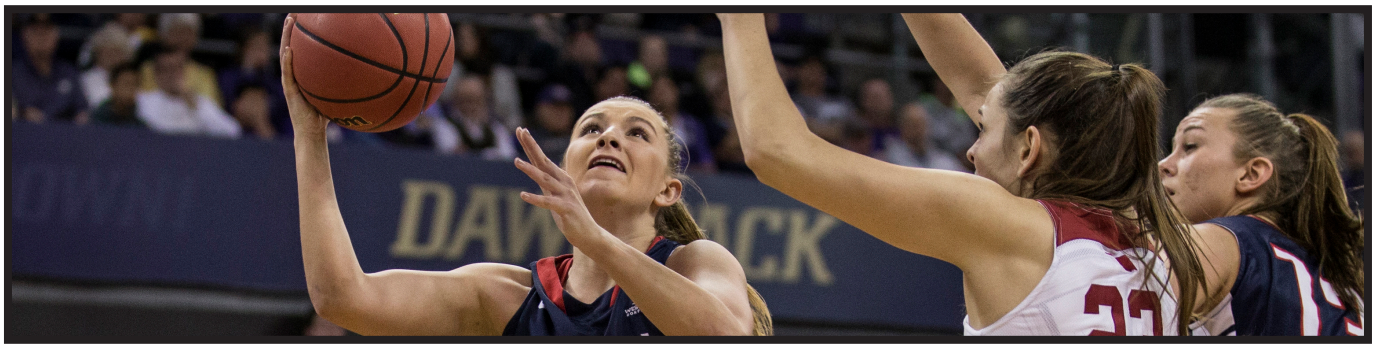

Gonzaga earned a 13-seed for the first time in program history in the NCAA Tournament and faced fourth-seeded Stanford on their home floor in the first round. Jill Barta led all scorers with 21 points, hitting three threes and going six-for-six from the line. Laura Stockton scored 14, going five-of-seven from the field. Jessie Loera scored 12 points, all in the first half. The Zags attacked to get to the foul line, hitting 17-of-19 attempts, and forced 18 turnovers, but Stanford built their lead through the first three quarters and won 82-68.

2017 - FIRST ROUND

After winning their 12th regular-season West Coast Conference Championship in 13 years and storming to their sixth WCC Tournament Title in nine years, the Bulldogs returned to the NCAA Tournament for the eighth time in nine years, and ninth time overall. Lisa Fortier was named WCC Coach of the Year for the second time in her first three years, the first GU coach to do that, and Jill Barta was chosen as the WCC Tournament MOP after a tournament-record 37 points in the championship game.

The Bulldogs entered the NCAA Tournament as an 11th-seed for the fourth time, holding a 7-3 record under that seed in tournament history. GU fell to sixth-seeded Oklahoma 62-75 in Seattle, Wash. in the first round, the first time they did not advance as an 11 seed. Laura Stockton shined in her first NCAA Tournament game with 14 points, four assists, and three steals. The Bulldogs tied their single-game tournament record with 44 rebounds, a nine-rebound advantage over the larger Sooners.

2015 - SWEET SIXTEEN

After sweating out Selection Sunday, the 2014-15 Gonzaga women's basketball team saw their name and their matchup on the bracket. They then reeled off another incredible run in the NCAA Tournament. For the seventh and eighth time, GU won NCAA Tournament games as a double-digit seed, the most in NCAA history. No other women's team has more than four wins as a 10-seed or lower. The Zags boast the second-best record of any NCAA Division I team, men's or women's, as a double-digit seed in the NCAA Tournament: 8-6.

Prior to their upset NCAA Tournament victories, and 11th straight West Coast Conference regular-season title, the Bulldogs reeled off 16 straight victories, the fifth-longest win streak in program history. The 2014-15 Zags were the first team in West Coast Conference history to start league play with a 15-0 record.

Gonzaga, the 11-seed, opened the NCAA Tournament with an 82-69 upset win over sixth-seeded George Washington. Sunny Greinacher and Keani Albanez both finished with 19 points, and the Zags held George Washington to just 29 percent shooting from the field.

The Bulldogs then stunned third-seeded Oregon State on its own court, 76-64. Paced by a career-high 19 points from redshirt freshman Emma Wolfram, GU silenced a large boisterous crowd in Corvallis. Gonzaga led by as many as 12 points midway through the second half, but Oregon State tied the game at 64. That would be the last points the Beavers would score as Gonzaga had the game's final 12 points.

The Zags advanced to their fourth Sweet 16, and a trip back home to play inside the Spokane Arena against fifth-ranked nationally Tennessee. Gonzaga led for the majority of the game over the second-seeded Volunteers in front of nearly 9,000 raucous fans. The Bulldogs led by 17 points with just over six minutes left in regulation. But, Tennessee proved its ranking and matched it's largest-ever comeback in an NCAA Tournament game to force overtime. The Lady Vols pulled away and held off the valiant effort from the Zags.

2014 - FIRST ROUND

The Gonzaga University women's basketball earned their sixth-straight bid to the NCAA Tournament, and seventh time in the last eight seasons. The Bulldogs won the West Coast Conference Tournament Championship for the sixth time in eight years, earning the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. Kelly Graves was named the WCC Coach of the Year, and Sunny Greinacher was named the WCC Tournament Most Outstanding Player as a junior.

The Bulldogs received their highest seed ever in the NCAA Tournament as a six-seed. Gonzaga traveled to College Station, Texas for its first round meeting with James Madison. In the second meeting all-time between the programs, JMU held off the Zags to advance. It marked the second-straight season that GU fell in the first round. Gonzaga was led by Greinacher's 17 points and eight rebounds. Haidon Palmer finished her phenomenal career with 14 points and game-high seven assists. Keani Albanez added 12 points.

2013 - FIRST ROUND

The 2012-13 season saw the Gonzaga University women's basketball team earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth-straight year and for the sixth time in seven years. The Bulldogs won the West Coast Conference Tournament Championship for the fifth time in seven years, earning the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. Senior Taelor Karr was named WCC Player of the Year, junior Haiden Palmer was tabbed WCC Tournament Most Valuable Player and Kelly Graves garnered WCC Coach of the Year accolades.

The Bulldogs, who were seeded 12th in the NCAA Tournament, dropped a hard-fought 72-60 decision to No. 5 seed Iowa State University in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, hosted at the McCarthey Athletic Center. It was the first time since 2007 - the Zags inaugural appearance in the Big Dance - that they fell in the first round. Gonzaga was led by junior Haiden Palmer with 14 points, 10 steals and four assists. Senior Taelor Karr closed out her stellar career with 15 points, seven rebounds, and two assists.

2012 - SWEET SIXTEEN

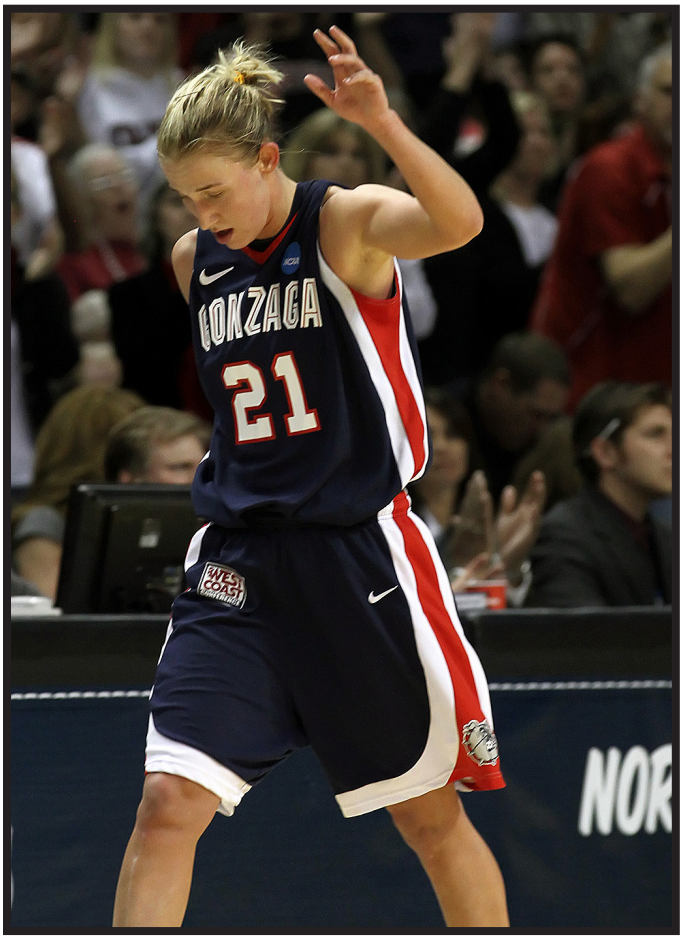

The 2011-12 Gonzaga University women's basketball team once again took Spokane and the nation on a historic ride. The Zags made history earning their first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, their fourth-straight overall and fifth in six years. The Bulldogs won their unprecedented eighth-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title with a 14-2 mark but fell in the championship game of the league tournament.

Gonzaga, the No. 11 seed for the second-consecutive year, again hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament. With two sold out and boisterous crowds behind them, the Bulldogs upset No. 6 seed Rutgers 86-73 in the First Round behind 20-plus point games by both senior Kayla Standish (23 points) and sophomore Haiden Palmer (21 points) and knocked off No. 3 Miami 65-54 in the Second Round behind a 19-point performance by Standish and a 16 point outing by fellow classmate Katelan Redmon to reach the Regional Semifinals for the third consecutive year.

After their victory over the Hurricanes, Gonzaga headed east to Kingston, R.I. for its Sweet Sixteen match up with the University of Kentucky. Their memorable ride came to an end with a 79-62 setback to No. 2 seed Kentucky.

2011 - ELITE EIGHT

The 2010-11 Gonzaga University women's basketball team took Spokane and the nation on a pretty spectacular ride. The Bulldogs, who won their seventh-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title with another perfect 14-0 mark and won their third WCC Tournament title in four years, made fans around the nation with their improbable run in the 2011 NCAA Tournament, that ended in the Elite Eight.

Gonzaga, who was seeded No. 11 in the NCAA Tournament, hosted the first and second rounds of the tournament in the McCarthey Athletic Center. With two sold out crowds behind them the Zags defeated the No. 6 seed University of Iowa 92-86 in the First Round on a 34-point performance by senior Courtney Vandersloot and a 30-point outing by junior Kayla Standish, and then defeated No. 3 UCLA 89-75 in the Second Round to gain a spot in the Sweet Sixteen for the second-consecutive year. Another highlight of GU's win over the Bruins, seeing Vandersloot become the first player in NCAA Division I history to score 2,000 points and dish out 1,000 assists in their career.

After defeating UCLA, Gonzaga had a short trip to the Spokane Arena for its Sweet Sixteen game versus No. 7 seed Louisville. With 11,000 fans backing them against the Cardinals, the Bulldogs good fortunes continued with a 76-69 victory.

Gonzaga's great run finally came to an end when No. 1 seed Stanford University used its size advantage to win the Elite Eight match-up 80-63.

2010 - SWEET SIXTEEN

Gonzaga's 2009-10 season was a historic one. GU won its unprecedented sixth-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title, earned its second-straight, and third in four years, trip to the NCAA Tournament after winning the WCC Tournament handily, and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament - the then-first such appearance in school history. Overall the Zags finished 29-5 overall, had a perfect 14-0 mark in conference play, and finished No. 12 in the final Top-25 poll.

Gonzaga was seeded No. 7 in the NCAA Tournament, its highest seed in school history. It faced No. 10 University of North Carolina, a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), in the First Round in Seattle, Wash. Senior Tiffanie Shives was a huge reason the Bulldogs pulled off the victory over the Tar Heels. Scoreless for 31 minutes, Shives scored 14 of her 16 points in a crucial five-minute stretch of the second half, including hitting four-straight three-pointers, the help GU hold off UNC for a wild 82-76 win. The Bulldogs' reward for winning the track meet and earning their second tournament win in school history was a rematch with No. 2 seed Texas A&M in the Second Round. The Aggies had defeated the Zags 80-76 earlier in the season in Las Vegas.

Twenty minutes in December made Gonzaga fearless in March; no one more than senior Vivian Frieson. And because of Frieson, the Bulldogs made a trip to the Regional Semifinals. Gonzaga's do-everything forward scored 23 points, including the go-ahead 12-footer with 17 seconds left, to lead the Zags to a 72-71 upset win over second-seeded Texas A&M in the Second Round. The win was Gonzaga's 20th-straight, its last loss coming to the same Aggies three months prior in Las Vegas.

The historic season came to an end in the Sweet Sixteen as Xavier University won a rematch of the 2009 NCAA Tournament, 74-56. Sophomore Katelan Redmon scored 14 points and junior Courtney Vandersloot dished out 11 assists in the Zags loss.

2009 - SECOND ROUND

The Bulldogs had an unprecedented year in 2008-2009. Gonzaga won its fifth-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title, earned its second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament after winning the WCC Tournament for the second time in three years and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. Overall the Zags finished with a 27-7 mark, one win shy of tying the school record, and had a 12-2 record in conference action.

Gonzaga, seeded No. 12 in the NCAA Tournament, upset No. 5 Xavier University 74-59. Showing the savvy of an experienced tournament team - not one making just its second appearance ever - Gonzaga imposed its pace on Xavier's defense that was sixth best in the country at the time, allowing 53 points per game. Juniors Heather Bowman and Vivian Frieson, along with sophomore Courtney Vandersloot led the way for GU in their stunning First Round victory. Bowman scored a team-high 23 points, while Frieson added 17 points, three blocks, and three assists. Vandersloot, the West Coast Conference Player of the Year, finished with 15 points and dished out 11 assists.

The Bulldogs battled with No. 4 Pittsburgh to the last minute but unfortunately fell to the Panthers 65-60. Vandersloot led the Bulldogs with 18 points, seven assists, and seven rebounds. Bowman, the Bulldogs' leading scorer, battled her way to 15 points.

2007 - FIRST ROUND

The 2007 season is not one that will be forgotten any time soon. The Zags finally got the monkey off their backs and won their inaugural West Coast Conference Tournament Championship, earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament; their first-ever appearance. Gonzaga also won its third-straight WCC regular season title with an impressive 13-1 record. Stephanie Haw was named WCC Co-Player of the Year; Heather Bowman WCC Newcomer of the Year, and Kelly Graves garnered WCC Co-Coach of the Year.

The Bulldogs, who were seeded 12th in the NCAA Tournament, dropped a tough decision to Middle Tennessee State University in the first round of the NCAA Tournament hosted by Stanford University. Gonzaga was led in the game by then-senior and future director of basketball operations Michelle (Elliott) Clark. Clark scored 17 points, hitting 4-of-5 shots and sinking 7-of-9 from the charity stripe. Kate Ridenour added 10 points.

WNIT APPEARANCES

1987-88 WCC CHAMPIONS

In only its second year of NCAA Division I competition Gonzaga won its first West Coast Conference title posting an 11-3 record in league play. The team finished the season 18-9 overall including a seven-game win streak to open WCC play. The team was led by All-WCC performers Tammy Tibbles and Carla Curfman, both players graduating among the school's all-time leading scorers.

1993-94 WNIT TEAM

The Bulldogs posted a school-record 21 wins en route to the school's inaugural NCAA Division I postseason appearance. Gonzaga would go 1-2 in the WNIT Tournament in Amarillo, Texas - finishing in seventh place in the old tournament format. The team was led by First Team All-WCC selections Ivy Safranski and Juanita Rivera, both players graduating among the school's all-time leading scorers.

2003-04 WNIT TEAM

Gonzaga returned to the post-season for the first time in 10 years as the Bulldogs posted an 18-12 record to finish second in the WCC. Gonzaga advanced to the WCC Tournament championship game, losing by three points to regular-season champion Loyola Marymount. The Bulldogs lost in the first round of the WNIT, dropping a 69-64 decision at Oregon State. The team was led by First Team All-WCC selections Ashley Burke and Shannon Mathews, both juniors at the time.

2004-05 WNIT TEAM

Much like the Bulldogs men's team in 1999, the Gonzaga women captured the hearts of Spokane as they made a magical run through the West Coast Conference that was capped by a second-straight postseason berth. Gonzaga ran off a 23-game win streak that was the longest in the nation ending in the WCC Tournament Championship game at Santa Clara. Along the way GU became only the second team to finish with a perfect WCC record and earned the school's first national ranking in both the Associated Press and WBCA Coaches poll. The season ended in the second round of the Women's NIT at eventual champion Southwest Missouri State. The season was also highlighted by Shannon Mathews earning WCC Player of the Year honors along with Honorable Mention All-America honors.

2007-08 WCC CHAMPIONS/2008 WNIT SECOND ROUND

The 2008 season didn't end like many envisioned, but it was none-the-less another successful year. The Gonzaga Bulldogs rolled through West Coast Conference action, finishing with a 13-1 overall mark to win its four-straight title. The Zags, seeded first in the WCC Tournament, fell in the finals to host San Diego. Gonzaga didn't earn a bid into the NCAA Tournament but had a spot in the WNIT. GU's season came to an end in the second round of the WNIT with a setback to the University of Colorado. Gonzaga closed out the year with a 25-9 overall record.

2016 WNIT SECOND ROUND

The 2015-16 Bulldogs clinched their 10th consecutive postseason berth despite a season plagued with injuries. After a loss in the WCC quarterfinals, Gonzaga received an at-large selection to the Women's National Invitation Tournament. The Zags were matched up with the Big West Conference regular season champions, UC Riverside, in the first round. GU cruised to an 88-54 victory in the Kennel. The Bulldogs matched their season-high point total by shooting a season-high 56.1 percent from the field. Gonzaga gave up season-high 92 points in a 15-point second round loss to Utah in Spokane.

GONZAGA AND THE WNBA

COURTNEY VANDERSLOOT became the first Bulldog player in school history to be drafted in the first round of the WNBA, as she was the third overall pick, taken by the Chicago Sky during the 2011 Draft at the ESPN Studios in Bristol, Conn. The Sky is a member of the Eastern Division.

Vandersloot, the first player in NCAA Division I history to score 2,000 points and dish out 1,000 assists in their career, was the second overall Zag to be drafted in the WNBA.

She was named to the WNBA All-Rookie Team at the end of the 2011 season. Vandersloot was joined on the team by Maya Moore of the Minnesota Lynx; Danielle Robinson of the San Antonio Silver Stars; Danielle Adams, also of the Silver Stars and Liz Cambage of the Tulsa Shock. Vandersloot received 10 votes. Moore, who was named Rookie of the Year, and Robinson, each received 11 votes, while Cambage and Adams each got nine.

In her rookie campaign, Vandersloot led Chicago and ranked second among rookies in assists (3.7 apg). She played in all 34 games and started 26, averaging 6.5 points. In June of 2011, Vandersloot recorded highs in points (18) and assists (10) both against the Connecticut Sun in separate games. Vandersloot was selected as a reserve for the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game.

In 2014, Vandersloot helped the Sky win the East Conference and advance to the franchise's first WNBA Championships.

In her eight seasons with the Chicago Sky - where she has started 188 of 219 games, she is averaging 9.1 points, 5.4 assists, 2.7 rebounds and 1.2 steals per contest.

VIVIAN FRIESON was selected as the 31st pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Tulsa Shock, becoming the first Zag in women's basketball history to be drafted by the WNBA.

Frieson was let go by the Tulsa Shock during training camp and played for Kvarnby Basketball located in Mölndal, Sweden during the 2010-11 season. She played for Townsville Fire in Australia.

While a Zag, Frieson averaged 12.5 points and a team-best 7.4 rebounds while averaging 28.6 minutes per game in 2009-10. She shot an impressive 52.8 percent from the field (181-for-343). The all-around forward also contributed 70 assists, 46 steals and 45 blocks.

In GU's 2010 Sweet Sixteen NCAA Tournament run, Frieson averaged 16.0 points, 8.7 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 3.0 blocks and 2.0 steals per contest. Arguably her biggest shot of her career came with 18 seconds left in the Zags NCAA Tournament second round game versus Texas A&M that catapulted them to the 72-71 win and to their inaugural Sweet Sixteen appearance.

In her four seasons in a Bulldog uniform, Frieson averaged 8.6 points, 5.7 rebounds, 1.6 assists, 1.2 steals and 1.0 block per contest.

She is currently an assistant women's basketball coach at Seattle University.

HEATHER BOWMAN was invited to the 2010 Seattle Storm training camp.

Bowman became the second Zag in school history to be invited to a WNBA training camp as fellow classmate Vivian Frieson was drafted by the Tulsa Shock in the third round of the 2010 draft.

Bowman was released from her Seattle Storm contract and played basketball for Riva Basketball Club, located in the southernmost region of Switzerland during the 2010-11 season. She went on to play for Frankston Blues in Australia.

Bowman ended her career Gonzaga as one of the most prolific players in Gonzaga and West Coast Conference history. The GU and WCC career scoring leader with 2,165 points was also a four-time All-WCC honoree, four-time WCC All-Tournament member, the 2007 WCC Newcomer of the Year, and the 2008 WCC Player of the Year. She averaged 16.8 points, 6.8 rebounds, 1.2 steals, and 1.0 assist per contest over her four-year career.

Bowman was the women's basketball video coordinator at Gonzaga University. She was an assistant coach at Whitworth University, but returned to professional basketball and played for Martigny in Switzerland in 2013.

KAYLA STANDISH was selected as the 19th pick in the 2012 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx, becoming the third player in Zag women's basketball history to be drafted by the WNBA.

Standish was released from the Minnesota Lynx during training camp in May of 2012. She then went to play professionally in Australia with the Townsville Fire.

Standish made an immediate impact with the Fire, averaging 11.5 points, 5.9 rebounds and 1.0 block per game during the 2012-13 campaign. She shot a blistering 46.6 percent (115-of-247) from the field and sank 75.9 percent (44-of-58) at the charity stripe. She hit double-figure points in 16 of the Fire's 27 games and had two double-doubles.

The Townsville Fire closed out the year with a 15-12 overall record and a 13-11 record in regional play. It was an exciting finish to the Townsville Fire season as the squad made the WNBL Grand Final after rattling off a six-game winning streak. The history making season came to an end with a tough 71-57 setback to the Bendigo Spirit in the WNBL Grand Final.

After the Fire's season completed in early March of 2013, Standish moved to the Mackay Meteorettes of the Australia-State League. She is currently with the Frankston Blues of the Australia League.

KATELAN REDMON became the second Gonzaga women's basketball player to be drafted in the 2012 WNBA Draft, picked in the third round, 36th overall by the New York Liberty.

Redmon was released by the Liberty during training camp but was re-signed shortly there after. She played in seven games during the 2012 season, averaging 1.0 point and 1.1 rebounds per game. Her first WNBA game was against the Chicago Sky and former Zag teammate Courtney Vandersloot.

Redmon also played professionally in Israel with Elitzur Netanya and for Tabes GB in France.

HAIDEN PALMER was selected in the third round (29th overall) in the 2014 WNBA Draft by the Indiana Fever. She became the fifth player in Zag women's basketball history to be drafted by the WNBA.

Palmer played the 2014 Preseason schedule with the Fever before being released. Since then she has played professionally with Team USA in the Four Nations International Basketball Tournament and began playing overseas in 2014 with Mayaguez in Puerto Rico. She moved to Netanya in Israel in 2014-15, then Snaefell in Iceland in 2015-16, Herne TC in Germany in 2016-17, and Wasserburg, also in Germany, in 2017-18.

During her senior season, she led the team in points (15.1), rebounds (5.5) and steals per game (3.0), while also dishing out 2.6 assists per game.

Palmer, named All-WCC for the third-consecutive year her senior year, scored in double-figure points in 27 of 34 contests, including six games with 20 or more points. She registered three double-figure rebounding games and had two double-doubles.

She was named Associated Press All-American honorable mention, becoming the fourth Zag in school history to earn the accolade.

SHELBY CHESLEK was signed by the Phoenix Mercury and played the 2016 preseason schedule and two games of the regular season that year before being released.

She then traveled to China to play with Team USA in the Four Nations International Basketball Tournament. After that, she played nine months in Athens, Greece in 2016 and completed a three-month summer season with the South West Metro Pirates in Brisbane, Australia in 2017. She currenlty plays with PINKK-Pecsi in Pecs, Hungary.

Her senior year she was named to the DI-AAA ADA Scholar Team, Honorable Mention All-West Coast Conference, and Academic All-Conference. She appeared and started in all 33 games, averaged 9.7 points, scored career-highs of 20 points versus Saint Mary's and at Pacific. Cheslek averaged 8.6 rebounds per game, which led the team and ranked third in the conference.

Her 283 rebounds were the fifth-most in a single season in program history and her 65 total blocks were the third-most in a single season in program history. She finished second in program history with 932 career rebounds.

JILL BARTA became the sixth player in Gonzaga history to be drafted in 2018 as the Las Vegas Aces took her in the third round with the 32nd overall pick. She was immediately traded, along with a second round pick, to the Minnesota Lynx.

Barta played one game with the Lynx in the 2018 Preseason, scoring four points in 13 minutes. She was released shortly after.

Her 603 points are sixth all-time in a season at GU and she set a new record shooting 87.6 percent from the free throw line in her career.

Her name dots the record book after her outstanding career at Gonzaga. After three years with the Zags on the court, the Fairfield, Mont., native finished seventh all-time in scoring at 1620 points, 10th in rebounds with 652, and holds school records in 30-point games with seven and single-game rebounds with 22.

Barta became the third Zag in program history to be named First Team All-West Coast Conference her first three seasons and in 2018 she was named the WCC Player of the Year, along with being a WBCA All-Region selection. She won back-to-back Most Outstanding Player awards at the West Coast Conference Tournament, scoring 30-plus points in each title game.

ZYKERA RICE was signed by the Seattle Storm in May 2019. Rice played in one preseason game with the Storm, finishing with two points, three rebounds, two steals and one assist in 14 minutes of play. Rice was released shortly thereafter.

Rice was then selected to the 3D China Women's All-Star Team as part of the 3D Global Sports programs out of Canada. Rice, along with 10 other players, traveled to China representing 3D Global Sports as part of the annual Sino-International Women's Basketball Challenge.

Her senior year with the Zags, Rice was named First Team All-WCC and WCC All-Tournament in addition to earning WCC All-Academic Honorable Mention honors. She led the Bulldogs in scoring (15.0 ppg), rebounding (5.8 rpg) and blocks (0.8 bpg) while finishing second in field goal percentage (52.3 percent). She finished her career with 1,061 points to rank 20th in program history.
