Dear Prospective Employer:

We are very proud of our student-athletes and the accomplishments they have achieved during their time at Gonzaga. We are particularly proud to showcase their preparation and achievements through this format. Nowhere is there a better way to individually demonstrate winning in competition, the classroom, and the community than through a resume. These women and men have been contributing members of our community through these formative years and are ready to share their talent and potential in the professional world. We are excited to see the impacts they will make as they enter this next phase of their careers.

We believe that the experience of participation in varsity athletics gives these candidates a way to demonstrate the traits that will make them great additions to your organizations. Their drive, compassion, commitment, creativeness, and ambition set them apart from other students. We further believe the attributes that have made them a good fit in the Gonzaga community and culture will make them great additions to yours.

The University's mission states, "Through engagement with knowledge, wisdom, and questions informed by classical and contemporary perspectives, Gonzaga cultivates in its students the capacities and dispositions for reflective and critical thought, lifelong learning, spiritual growth, ethical discernment, creativity, and innovation." As such, this publication not only offers a glimpse into the portfolios of our remarkable senior student-athletes, their careers as Zags, and the talents they offer, but also previews their aspirations for sharing their gifts and continuing their passion for success following graduation.

These seniors have shown great grit and perseverance despite the challenges presented by a global pandemic. They are well prepared and have demonstrated the attributes it takes to be successful. We are proud to stand behind our graduates and watch their future contributions and accomplishments as they impact your organizations.

Thank you for your continued support of Gonzaga University and our student-athletes.

Sincerely,

Chris Standiford
Director of Athletics

Career & Professional Development

Dear Alumni & Employers:

We are pleased to share with you the resumes of Gonzaga University student athletes. These young men and women have excelled in the classroom, in the community and in their individual athletic endeavors and are excited to bring their knowledge, skills, and abilities to the workplace.

These student athletes possess intellect, integrity and tremendous energy, and will be a valuable asset to any organization fortunate enough to employ them. They have demonstrated the ability to manage the demands of intercollegiate athletics with a rigorous academic program, and many of them have provided volunteer service on campus and in their communities. In addition, they have developed the ability to work as a team and to communicate with a diverse group of individuals. These skills will serve them well as future professionals working in a variety of settings. You will find that they are truly committed to helping and serving others in a manner consistent with our Jesuit values.

Why hire a Zag student athlete? These students have the kind of winning personalities you want on your team. They are intelligent and thoughtful problem solvers with strong communication skills who understand how to accomplish organizational goals within a team environment. Career & Professional Development provides a variety of services designed to help you identify, recruit and hire Gonzaga talent. In addition to recruiting and hiring Zag student athletes, you are invited to join us by becoming a mentor on ZagsConnect, posting a job or internship on ZagsIgnite, participating in a Career Fair or hosting a Trek visit to your organization. Please call 509.313.4234 to get connected to Career & Professional Development and learn more about the services we provide to employers.

We hope you have the opportunity to recruit and hire some of these outstanding individuals. We are confident they have the ability to make immediate and significant contributions to your organization.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'O. Ray Angle'. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

O. Ray Angle, Assistant Vice President
