NO. 13 GEORGETOWN HOYAS (13-4-3) VS

MICHIGAN STATE SPARTANS (12-4-4)

SUNDAY, NOV. 25 | 1 P.M.

SHAW FIELD | NCAA THIRD ROUND

BROADCAST - BEDN (DAN HELFRICH, TOM GREASER)

LIVE SCORING - GUHOYAS.COM

• Junior defender Dylan Nealis scored a goal in the 88th minute to defeat WVU in the NCAA Second Round at Shaw Field. The Blue & Gray held a 28-11 advantage in shots and took eight corner kicks to WVU's one. Sophomore Ethan Koehler took the shutout win in the net with five saves on the afternoon in place of Giannis Nikopolidis who was called into a game with the U-19 Greek National Team.

• To get here, the squad made history winning the first back-to-back BIG EAST Championships in program history with a 2-0 victory over the Marquette Golden Eagles at Shaw Field. Georgetown is now the only school in BIG EAST soccer history where its men's and women's teams have won back-to-back championships. The win gave the Hoyas their third tournament title for the program. The team was No. 12 in the United Soccer Coaches' Poll and Georgetown moved to No. 15 in TopDrawerSoccer.com's poll.

• The Hoyas are 2-1 all-time against the Spartans with the last meeting coming at Shaw Field in the 2013 NCAA Third Round. In that game, the Spartans managed a goal in the 28th minute to bounce the Blue & Gray from the tournament. The other home matchup was a 4-0 GU win in the District in the 2010 season.

TOURNAMENT NOTES

• Georgetown's NCAA Tournament berth is the seventh under Head Coach Brian Wiese who managed his 150th career victory on Sunday. The Hoyas have been to the tournament on eight previous occasions with six trips to the Round of 16 (2018, 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012, 1997) and two to the quarterfinals (2014, 2012). It marks GU's seventh tournament berth in the past nine seasons.

• In 2012, the squad was the national runner up, falling to Indiana 1-0 in the national championship game. Prior to that season, the program had never moved beyond the second round of the tournament with previous appearances in 2010, 1997 and 1994. The Hoyas are 9-5-5 overall in the NCAA Tournament.

BRIAN WIESE

HEAD COACH
13TH SEASON
DARTMOUTH '95

Now in his 13th season on the Hilltop, Georgetown Head Coach Brian Wiese has seen the most success in the program's history. Wiese and the Hoyas have placed the program on the national stage and Georgetown is regarded as one of the top contenders in the country year after year.

The 2017 season marked another impressive year for the Blue & Gray as the Hoyas went 14-4-2 overall and won the BIG EAST Championship for just the second time in program history to earn an automatic NCAA Tournament berth. The squad had one All-American and eight All-BIG EAST honorees, as well as a pair of MLS selections in Christopher Lema and JT Marcinkowski.

Wiese and company broke onto the national stage in 2012, which will be remembered as the most successful in program history. The Hoyas went 19-4-3 with a mark of 6-2-0 in the BIG EAST Conference. The squad was the third overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and the 19 wins were the most in program history. The Hoyas were the BIG EAST Blue Division Champions, the BIG EAST Championship runners-up and advanced to the national championship game in penalty kicks in a thrilling game against the University of Maryland after Georgetown began the season unranked.

With all of the success, the coaching staff was not forgotten as Wiese was named the United Soccer Coaches Division I Coach of the Year and Associate Head Coach Zach Samol earned United Soccer Coaches Northeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

In his tenure at Georgetown, Wiese has coached 19 players who have signed with an MLS squad, one Hermann Trophy finalist, three Hermann Trophy semifinalists, 10 All-Americans, 29 regional All-Americans, 10 BIG EAST Players of the Year and 44 All-BIG EAST honorees as well as the College Cup Most Outstanding Offensive Player.

On the academic side, he has had two Academic All-Americans, one Academic All-Region honoree, two BIG EAST Scholar-Athletes and one Elite89 Award winner.

The team has seen unprecedented success under Wiese with six NCAA Tournament berths in a seven-year span. The squad has also won four BIG EAST regular season championships, two BIG EAST Championships and been ranked among the top 25 in eight seasons including stints at No. 1 in the nation.

Wiese earned his first collegiate head coaching job at Georgetown in March 2006 after a successful stint as the associate head coach at the University of Notre Dame. Following his first season, Wiese and his staff brought in one of the biggest recruiting classes in school history as the Hoyas welcomed 11 newcomers to the program.

From 1996-2005, Wiese worked under nationally-recognized coach Bobby Clark for five seasons at Stanford University and then for five more at Notre Dame. In those 10 seasons, the teams posted a combined record of 136-48-25, advanced to nine-straight NCAA Tournaments and made one trip to the championship match. At UND and Stanford, Wiese worked with 11 All-Americans and eight Academic All-America selections as well as four players who were candidates for the MAC Hermann Trophy.

Wiese joined Notre Dame as an assistant in 2001 and was promoted to associate head coach in 2005. During his time with the Irish, he helped guide the team to five NCAA Tournament appearances (reaching the Sweet 16 in 2003 and 2005), to the 2003 BIG EAST Championship title and the 2004 BIG EAST regular season championship. He was named to CollegeSoccerNews.com's Top Assistant Coaches List in 2001 and was part of the BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year on two occasions (2001 and 2003).

Prior to his stint at Notre Dame, Wiese spent five years (1996-2001) as an assistant coach at Stanford University. The Cardinal posted a 71-21-12 record during that time and made four NCAA Tournament appearances. The team posted a 10-4-4 record in 1996, its first winning season in four years, was ranked second in the country in 1997 when they went 13-5-2 and finished the 1998 season No. 2 in the country after reaching the NCAA title game and finishing 18-5-2. In 2000, Stanford was ranked No. 1 in the country during the season, finished 18-3-1 overall and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. That year, the Cardinal posted a 0.44 goals-against average, the best in the country, and were second in the country with 68 goals scored.

During his time at Stanford, Wiese earned a master's degree in product design (mechanical engineering) in 1998.

A 1995 graduate of Dartmouth College in New Hampshire, Wiese earned a Bachelor of Arts in mechanical engineering. A goalkeeper, he was a three-time All-Ivy League selection, two-time Academic All-Ivy League honoree, was named the team's most valuable player in 1993 and captained the team as a senior.

Wiese played professionally briefly for the Bulawayo Highlanders in Zimbabwe. He began his coaching career in 1995, serving as the head coach of the Upper Valley Lightning boys U-15 club team in New Hampshire. Following that, he moved out west, taking over as the head coach of the Del Mar (San Diego) Tsunami girls U-17 club team from 1995-96.

Wiese and his wife Becky have three children Morgan (17), Ted (15) and Maya (13).

HOYA NOTES

• The St. John's game was part of Georgetown men's soccer partnership with Grassroot Soccer (GRS). GRS is an international adolescent health organization that educates, inspires and mobilizes young people to overcome their greatest health challenges and live healthier, more productive lives. GRS uses the power of soccer to connect young people with the mentors, information, and health services they need to thrive, and empowers adolescents to make educated choices about pressing health challenges such as HIV & AIDS, sexual health, gender-based violence and malaria. GRS's evidence-based programs, led by trained local Caring Coaches, incorporate soccer into dynamic lessons about health and wellness that engage young people and break down cultural barriers. GRS has reached over 1.2 million young people in nearly 50 countries with health education.

• The Hoyas earned a BIG EAST Championship berth with the victory at Providence. It is GU's 11th berth in the past 12 seasons.

• Ethan Koehler played his first minutes in goal for the Hoyas in a 2-1 double overtime win over Villanova. He replaced Giannis Nikopolidis who was called in to play for the U-17 Greek National Team.

• Georgetown has played a man up two times this season, but not won the game. GU fell to Louisville a man up and also tied a man up at Marquette.

• The game vs. No. 6 Louisville was moved to Cooper Field due to field conditions at Shaw. It was the second home game of the season that was moved due to rain.

• The Hoyas faced Yale at George Washington's campus due to field conditions at Shaw. Despite the game being played off GU's campus, it was considered a home game for the Blue & Gray because of NCAA rules.

• The Hoyas went 2-0-1 in preseason play, downing Delaware and Penn State, before tying No. 15 Virginia.

• GU finished the season with a mark of 14-4-2. Georgetown claimed the 2017 BIG EAST Championship and earned an automatic NCAA Tournament berth. It marked the second championship in three years for the Blue & Gray as well as the second tournament championship in program history. GU lost two players to Major League Soccer as well as a number of key seniors, but returns seven starters from a season ago.

• GU was picked first in the BIG EAST Conference Preseason Coaches Poll as the reigning league champions. Additionally, senior Brendan McDonough was named the BIG EAST Preseason Defensive Player of the Year while forwards Achara and Derek Dodson both earned spots on the Preseason All-BIG EAST squad.

• Along with preseason player of the year honors, McDonough was also one of four unanimous selections to the Preseason All-BIG EAST team. The second-year captain was already named to the Missouri Athletic Club (MAC) Hermann Trophy Watch List.

• The Hoyas received seven first-place votes and a total of 79 points. Butler earned the remaining three first-place votes and a total of 73 points. Both Georgetown and Butler represented the league in the NCAA Tournament field last season.

• Georgetown welcomed a new coach to the Hilltop in 2018 in Connor Klekota. Much like Wiese, Klekota comes from the Bobby Clark tree as he played at Notre Dame under Clark for four seasons including facing the Hoyas in a number of big matchups.

• One of the biggest losses from a season ago is goalkeeper JT Marcinkowski who decided to forgo his senior season a turn pro signing a Homegrown Contract with the San Jose Earthquakes. Marcinkowski has had quite a summer starting in goal against Man U in a friendly as well as being named to the MLS Homegrown game.

• In a late signing, the Hoyas added Giannis Nikopolidis to the roster in the spring as a freshman for 2018. Nikopolidis is the son of Antonis who is currently the head coach of the U-21 Greek National Team and considered the most successful Greek goalkeeper of all time having been awarded the most caps in national team history and playing an integral role in the 2004 UEFA Euro championship. His mother Vasiliki Stasinou was a member of the Greek National Women's Basketball Team.

• Georgetown has many professional ties as Brendan McDonough's father Terry McDonough is the vice president, player personnel for the NFL's Arizona Cardinals.
