SCOUTING THE GUSTIES

The Gusties are coming off a bye week, getting some rest after a Week 1 loss against Whitworth in Spokane, Wash. During the Week 1 game, quarterback Jacob Ginskey ran for 109 yards and passed for 158, proving his ability to be a dual-threat quarterback. First-year Brayden Sturm caught a 63 yard pass to set up the sole Gustie touchdown of the day. Captain Bode Hogan got his first significant playing time after sitting behind All-Region linebacker Carson DeKam for three years, stepping in and adding 11 tackles and forcing a fumble to pace the Gustie defense. Eric Lyons Jr. added 10 tackles himself and sophomore Cody Bartnes caught the first interception of his career. Kicker Jack Sieben brought in four points with a 36 yard field goal and an extra point.

STORYLINES

Last Time Out

Gustavus started the season against #24 Whitworth in Spokane, Washington on September 6th. The Gusties found themselves in a 17-0 hole in the second quarter before Jack Sieben hit a 36 yard field goal to cut the lead to 14 heading into halftime. In the second half, Whitworth was held to two field goals and Jacob Ginskey punched in a 1-yard touchdown to get the score to 23-10, but a late comeback attempt was thwarted when Ginskey threw an interception on 4th and 7 on the Whitworth 34-yard line with 1:01 left. As for Bethel, they faced Northwestern-St. Paul during Week 2 after a Week 1 bye, defeating the Eagles 50-3. The Royals were led by junior quarterback Cooper Drews, who finished 31/53 passing for 320 yards and four touchdowns. His top target was freshman Tyler Terry, who finished with 177 yards on 15 receptions and two touchdowns. Defensively, no one had over six tackles, but seven players had three or more tackles.

MIAC Play Starts

This week marks the start of MIAC play across the conference. Teams will play nine consecutive games in nine weeks, without any non-conference or bye weeks. The MIAC regular season starts one week earlier this year to accomodate for the new MIAC single round-robin schedule, meaning the Gusties will play every MIAC school in the same season for the first time since 2019, before Macalester and St. Scholastica joined the conference. For the Gusties, one 2024 All-Conference member returns, defensive lineman Max Olson. Wide receiver Caden Kleinschmidt and punter Owen Forsythe also earned Honorable Mentions. For Bethel, they return four All-Conference members, Cooper Drews, Jaegar Ash, Isaiah Ward, and Taylor Glynn.
