FROM THE JUMP

Hampton continues its three-game home stretch at the Convocation Center against Delaware. In its last time out the shorthanded Pirates fell to the Campbell Camels 66-55. Coach Ivan Thomas's side has been known to take care of the ball and have a strong free-throw percentage. In HU's loss to Campbell the Pirates committed 17 turnovers and only shot 50 percent from the charity stripe. George Beale in his first start with Hampton led the team in scoring with 15 points.

The series between the Pirates and the Blue Hens began before both sides were in the Coastal Athletic Association. With Delaware leaving the conference for Conference USA, Saturday's contest could be the series' last meeting. Since joining the CAA, Hampton has defeated Delaware only once during the 2022-23 season. The Pirates were able to win a close contest 67-66 on their home court.

Ivan Thomas Head Coach

Overall Record: 0-0 (1st Season)
Record at Hampton: 0-0 (1st Season)

The Hampton University men's basketball team launched a new era with the hiring of Norfolk native Ivan Thomas. With his proven expertise, unwavering dedication, and a clear vision for success, Thomas is primed to carve out a legacy of excellence, uniting the Hampton basketball community in a shared pursuit of greatness. He most recently was an associate head coach for Ed Cooley's inaugural staff at Georgetown.

His appointment, revealed by Director of Athletics Anthony D. Henderson, Sr. reflects Hampton's continued commitment to athletic excellence on and off the court.

Henderson highlights Thomas's proven track record across various basketball realms, from successful high school coaching at Kecoughtan and T.C. Williams to impactful roles within collegiate and AAU circuits. "We are excited to welcome Ivan Thomas back home as our head men's basketball coach," Henderson said. "He has a deep commitment to excellence and is a proven winner at the high school, AAU, and collegiate levels. He is a tremendous recruiter who has developed players throughout his career. As a native of Virginia, he has strong ties to the Hampton area and has a vision of how to build Hampton basketball into a championship program. He understands the commitment it takes to be successful on the court and the role athletics can play in developing young men."

This sentiment resonates throughout Thomas's coaching journey, punctuated by notable milestones such as his instrumental roles at Providence under Ed Cooley's leadership, where he contributed to multiple postseason appearances and NCAA Tournament berths. His responsibilities included recruiting, in-game coaching, and player development. He spent eight seasons as a part of Ed Cooley's Providence staff before following Cooley to Washington, D.C. a year ago. The Friars made six postseason appearances including five NCAA Tournament berths. His return to Virginia, his home state, symbolizes a homecoming of sorts, aligning perfectly with his vision to elevate Hampton basketball to championship status.

Thomas spent seven years as head coach at Hampton's Kecoughtan High, leading the team to a 127-60 mark and to Peninsula District championships in 2010 and 2012. Thomas was the head coach at T.C. Williams High in Alexandria, Va., where he led the team to a 75-9 mark, winning three league titles. He was named Virginia Coach of the Year in 2008 after guiding the Titans to the state title. He was head coach at Edison High in Alexandria, Va. from 2002-05 and got his first coaching job as an assistant at Schaumburg High helping lead the team to the 2000 state championship. He also spent 13 years as an AAU coach for the Boo Williams 17-U team.

Thomas received his master's degree in guidance and counseling from VCU in 1999 and his master's degree in educational leadership from George Mason in 2003, as well as his bachelor's degree in sociology from VCU in 1997. Thomas was born and raised in Norfolk, Virginia. He is married to Dr. Jennifer Miles-Thomas, and they have three children, Christopher, Taylor, and Jordan Thomas.

Brian Graves Associate Head Coach

A native of the 757, Brian Graves comes back to Hampton as the associate head coach under Coach Ivan Thomas. Graves has built his reputation on the recruiting trail bringing in nine players that went on to play professionally in a 12-year span. He most recently was an assistant coach at Virginia State.

During his time with the Trojans, the team became one of the best defensive squads at the Division II level. Virginia State held opponents to 41.1 percent shooting from the field which was the 17th best in the country. VSU also ranked 24th in the nation for three-point percentage defense (31.0 percent).

In his return to Longwood, Graves worked with the guards while serving as a mentor and helped build player relationships on the team. Two Lancers were selected to Big South All-Conference teams. Under Graves's direction, Isaiah Wilkins would become a first-team selection, and DeShaun Wade received.

Prior to returning to Longwood, he spent one season at Western Carolina as an assistant and two years at North Carolina Central. During his time the Eagles, the program won the 2019-20 MEAC regular season title.

Graves got his first shot as a head coach leading Bryant & Stratton to a 19-11 record. Three of his players went to sign with four-year institutions, most notably Hampton signee Greg Heckstall. Heckstall would go on to have a professional career playing overseas.

That head coaching stint was after his first stop as a collegiate coach was at his alma mater Catawba. As an associate head coach of the Indians, Graves recruited numerous impact players such as 2015 South Atlantic Conference Freshman of the Year Jerrin Morrison. Two more Indians would receive all-conference honors under Graves. Catawba improved across the board during his tenure. The Indians secured 11 conference wins which was the program's most since the 2009-10 season.

Before joining the coaching ranks at Catawba, Graves was a decorated athlete winning numerous honors and accolades for the Indians from 2003-07. He started at point guard all four years, captaining the team twice, and earned three All-SAC selections. Graves was a first-team honoree in his junior and senior seasons. Tallying 600 assists in his career, he leads the SAC all-time and is second in league history for assists in a single season with 203. The highly effective distributor is currently second all-time at Catawba for assists and steals. With Graves high level of play the Indians won two conference titles and one tournament title while making three NCAA appearances. He finished his collegiate career as a 1,000-point scorer accumulating 1,380 points.

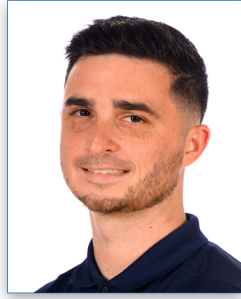

Following his college playing career, Graves went on to the professional ranks, playing for the Grevenbroich Elephants in Germany in 2007-08 and 2009-10, the Vermont Frost Heaves in the Premier Basketball League in 2009, and the Tru Hope Trailblazers in the Atlantic Coast Professional Basketball League from 2010-11. He captained both Grevenbroich and Tru Hope and earned all-league honors at both stops, including German All-Regionalliga West first-team honors in 2010 and All-ACPBL second-team recognition in 2011.

Graves entered the coaching ranks as the junior varsity head coach at Heritage High School from 2010-12. In 2011 he led the team to the Peninsula District Championship. Graves also was a player at Heritage appearing in two state tournaments.

Graves is from Newport News, Va., and is married to Gabrielle Graves. The couple has a 12-year-old son Brian "BJ" Graves Jr. Graves goal is to leave a lasting impact on as many student-athletes as possible throughout his coaching career.

Greg Fahey
Associate Head Coach

Greg Fahey enters his first season on Head Coach Ivan Thomas's inaugural staff as an associate head coach. The Randolph, N.J. native comes to Hampton from Georgetown where he most recently served as special assistant to Ed Cooley for one season.

During his time at Georgetown, Fahey worked closely with Coach Cooley and Mark Fox in the NIL space. Before arriving to Washington D.C., Fahey spent four seasons at Siena serving as assistant coach and director of basketball operations. Fahey helped develop eight all-conference players including two MAAC Player of the year award winners in Manny Camper and Denver Nuggets Guard Jalen Pickett. The Saints also captured back-to-back MAAC Regular Season Championships.

Fahey arrived at Siena after spending the previous season as a graduate assistant at Providence College.

Fahey first entered the collegiate ranks as an assistant coach for two seasons at Division III FDU Florham, where he recruited a pair of future All-MAC Freedom Conference players.

Fahey began his coaching career as the head junior varsity and assistant varsity coach for three years at New Jersey powerhouse St. Benedict's Prep. He helped guide the Gray Bees to an 89-15 record, highlighted by a peak ranking of No. 8 nationally. St. Benedict's Prep posted a 35-2 mark during the 2015-16 season to finish 12th nationally and earn a berth to the Dick's High School National Tournament.

Throughout his time both at FDU Florham and St. Benedict's, Fahey also spent four seasons on the Nike EYBL circuit with the City Rocks. In his first three seasons, he served as an assistant coach before becoming the 16U EYBL head coach in his final year with the program.

Fahey graduated from Marist College in 2013 with a degree in sports communications and a minor in psychology. He was a four-year manager for the Red Foxes' men's basketball program, working his way up to head manager his senior year. In the spring of 2022, Fahey also completed a master's degree from Providence College in higher education, also earning a certificate in sports administration. Fahey grew up in Randolph, N.J. where he served his community as a volunteer firefighter
