HU-A&T at NBA All-Star Game

Hampton takes on North Carolina A&T as part of the NBA All-Star Game weekend. It marks the first time that the Pirates have participated in the event.

The fourth time the NBA has sponsored the HBCU Classic, it marks the first appearance by Hampton and North Carolina A&T.

On hand for the HBCU Classic will be Rick Mahorn, the greatest basketball player in Pirate history. He played at Hampton (then Hampton Institute) from 1976-80, amassing 2,460 points and 1,465 rebounds. A member of the Hampton and CIAA Halls of Fame, he is the only Pirate basketball player to have his number (44) retired.

A second-round pick of the Washington Bullets, he played in the NBA for 18 seasons with the Bullets, Pistons, 76ers and Nets.

A loyal and fervent Pirate supporter, he has remained close to the program.

The Game

Hampton (12-13, 6-6) takes on longtime rival North Carolina A&T (9-14, 2-10) with the star-studded backdrop of the NBA All-Star Game and ancillary activities.

It will be the second meeting of the two Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) teams. On Martin Luther King Day, Jan. 19, the Pirates throttled the Aggies 82-61 before a crowd of 4,776 at the Hampton Convocation Center.

In the first meeting, the Pirates led 43-34 at intermission and outscored the Aggies 39-27 in the second stanza in a game televised on CBS Sports. Jalyke Gaines-Wyatt (24 points) and Michael Eley (18) both came off the bench to score 42 of Hampton's 82 points.

Gaines-Wyatt is now Hampton's starting point guard, averaging 11.9 ppg. Hampton's leading scorer, Michael Eley (12.7 ppg) has missed seven games this season --- including the last four --- dealing with a turf toe injury. On Jan. 8, Eley tallied 43 points at Campbell, a career and team high. He scored four points in 12 minutes against UNCW on Jan. 24 in his last appearance.

Forwards Daniel Johnson (9.7 ppg) and Xzavier Long (9.6 ppg) are scoring threats. Long leads the CAA and is 13th nationally in rebounding with 10.3 rpg.

Trademark of Coach Ivan Thomas's team is an aggressive, physical style of play on the defensive end. CAA opponents average just 64.3 ppg in 12 contests against the Pirates.

Super Mom - Super Fan

Hampton coach Ivan Thomas grew up in nearby Norfolk and spent most of his life in the Hampton Roads area. His mom, Lucille Thomas, is a fixture at Pirate games --- both at home and away. She can usually be seen sitting (or rather standing) behind the Pirate bench cheering and applauding the team and encouraging her son's team.

Hampton's Last Game

William & Mary 74

Hampton 77

Feb. 7, 2026 Hampton, Va.

In a battle of the CAAs top offense against Hampton's stingy defense, it was the Pirate offense in the closing minutes that made the difference as Hampton (12-13, 6-6) upended William & Mary (15-9, 6-6) 77-74 at the Convocation Center.

Trailing 72-71 with 1:31 left, the Pirates outscored the Tribe 6-2 for the win. Etienne Strothers put the Pirates ahead for good with a three-pointer and Elijah Kennedy's jam with :53 on a fast break after a Tribe turnover gave the Pirates a 76-72 lead. Following a William & Mary bucket, Daniel Johnson's free throw with :03 iced the win.

Hampton got off to a quick start in the game and led 19-12 following an Aidan Haskins trey midway through the half. With the Pirates leading 31-26, William & Mary reeled off six straight points to tie the score. The Tribe scored 13 of the final 17 points to lead 39-35 at the half.

The William & Mary lead grew to as many as eight, 49-41, in the second half following a Jo'el Emanuel basket. Trailing 58-41 midway through the second half, Hampton scored nine straight points capped by a pair of free throws by Kennedy to lead 60-58. The Tribe battled back to take a four-point lead 66-62 with 5:04 left. The visitors still led, 72-71, with 1:31 setting up the late-game heroics by the Pirates.

King of the Boards

Hampton Head Coach Ivan Thomas developed the idea of presenting championship belts to recognize players for their outstanding performance. It began when Thomas was an assistant coach at Providence under Ed Cooley. When Cooley moved to Georgetown, he took Thomas with him and the tradition continued. Thomas brought the concept of crediting players for hard work to Hampton when he was named

Chief of Dimes

Put in the Work

Pirate head coach in 2024. Belts are presented to players for KING OF THE BOARDS (rebounding), CHIEF OF DIMES (assists) and PUT IN THAT WORK (take a charge, rebound, deflection).

Go to Work Mentality

When Coach Ivan Thomas heads for the locker room prior to a game, he comes equipped with a beat up old blue tool chest. Scratched into the side are the words, "Go to Work." The tool chest is emblematic of the blue collar, hard-working mentality of the 2025-26 Pirates.

Give Me the Ball

Michael Eley had a little more carry-on luggage during the trip to Campbell and Charleston. Eley exploded for a career high 43 points Jan. 8 at Campbell. Afterward, he was presented the game ball by Campbell staff. Eley hand-carried it to Charleston and on the flight back to Virginia. It tied the Hampton record for points since when Hampton moved to Division I in 1995. He also tied for eighth most points in a game in CAA history.

Kennedy and Kennedy

Though not related, Elijah Kennedy and Tyra Kennedy have a lot in common. They were nominated for the CAA's Dean Ehler's Leadership and Sport Excellence Awards, presented to basketball players who embody the highest standards of leadership, integrity, teamwork and sportsmanship in academic and athletic achievements and community engagement.

Pirates Get Sneak Preview of CareFirst Arena

Following Hampton's Jan. 31 game at Towson, the Pirates held a practice at Washington, D.C.'s CareFirst Arena, site of the 2026 Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) Tournament. With only five returnees from last year's team, it gave the Pirates a second look at the facility after playing Howard.

Hampton's 2025-26 team captains: Xzavier Long, Daniel Johnson, Michael Eley, Kody Williams.

The Hampton men's basketball program launched a new era by hiring Virginia native and Georgetown associate head coach Ivan Thomas on March 15, 2024.

With a rich background in basketball, coaching, and player development, he brought a wealth of experience and an unwavering commitment to nurturing talent on and off the court.

In his first season, the program reached milestones that had not occurred in years. The Pirates had their first undefeated month since 2002-03. Hampton posted a 17-16 record in Thomas's inaugural season. His 17 wins at the helm were the second most by a first-year head coach in program history.

HU finished the 2024-25 campaign with eight conference wins, surpassing the CAA win total from the first two seasons in the league. The program had its deepest run in the CAA Tournament.

The Pirates had success with their bench production, averaging 35.5 points per game, fourth most in the country. Under Thomas's guidance, Etienne Strothers and Daniel Johnson earned CAA Rookie of the Week honors. Hampton had two postseason honorees. Noah Farrakhan was named Third Team All-CAA and Johnson made the All-Rookie Team.

Before taking control of the reins, he was an associate head coach for Ed Cooley's inaugural staff at Georgetown. He also served on Cooley's staff at Providence. Cooley played an instrumental role at Providence under Cooley's leadership, where he contributed to multiple postseason appearances and NCAA Tournament berths. His responsibilities included recruiting, in-game coaching, and player development. He spent eight seasons on Ed Cooley's Providence staff before following Cooley to Washington, D.C. The Friars made six postseason appearances with five NCAA Tournament berths.

The Norfolk, Va., native spent seven years as head coach at Hampton's Kecoughtan High, leading the team to a 127-60 mark and two league titles. He was the head coach at T.C. Williams High leading the team to a 75-9 mark, winning three league crowns. He was named 2008 Virginia Coach of the Year after guiding the Titans to the state title. He was head coach at Edison High from 2002-05 and got his first coaching job as an assistant at Schaumburg High helping lead the team to the 2000 state championship.

Thomas received his master's degree in guidance and counseling from VCU in 1999 and his master's degree in educational leadership from George Mason in 2003, and his bachelor's degree in sociology from VCU in 1997.

He is married to Dr. Jennifer Miles-Thomas, and they have three children, Christopher, Taylor, and Jordan Thomas.
