At Harding

Dr. Patrick McGaha is in his 14th year as the head coach of the Harding baseball team. He has a 365-310 record in his first 13 seasons and has led the Bisons to eight conference tournament appearances and its first-ever NCAA Tournament berth.

Entering the 2019 season, McGaha needs 16 wins to reach 500 in his collegiate coaching career and 35 wins away from 400 victories at Harding.

He became the winningest baseball coach in program history in 2016 when his Bisons defeated St. Edward's 5-1 in the second game of the series.

In his time at Harding, McGaha's student-athletes have received 44 all-conference, seven all-region, and two all-America honors. Additionally, McGaha's players have 62 academic all-conference, seven CoSIDA Academic All-District and three CoSIDA Academic All-America awards. The 2016, 2017 and 2018 teams received the ABCA Team Academic Excellence Award, and Harding has won the GAC Sportsmanship Award five of the last six seasons.

In 2015, Harding's Jerry Moore Field received the ABCA College Field Maintenance Award for NCAA Division II.

In 2017, McGaha's Bisons reached their fifth straight Great American Conference Tournament. The 2015 team led NCAA Division II with a .977 fielding percentage. The 2014 team also posted impressive defensive numbers, setting a school record with 56 doubles plays turned.

In 2011, McGaha led Harding to its best season in program history. Harding set a school wins record with a 42-14 mark. The Bisons won their first Gulf South Conference West Division title and their first conference championship in baseball since 1984. Following the regular season, Harding received its first-ever at-large bid into the NCAA II Baseball Tournament. The Bisons won their first game at the national tournament and finished the season ranked 24th nationally.

McGaha won the 2011 GSC West Division Coach of the Year award.

In 2009, Harding recorded its fourth 30-win season and second under McGaha, going 32-25 and collecting its first GSC Tournament victory since 2002. At 12-9 in GSC West play, Harding also had its first winning season in conference action since going 14-9 in 2002.

In 2007, McGaha's Bisons tied a school record with 34 wins. The squad finished 8-13 in Gulf South Conference West Division action and was in the playoff hunt until the final game of the season. McGaha's top hurler, senior Justin Phillips, signed a professional contract with the Kansas City Royals following the season.

Andy Schatzley is in his eighth season as a Harding baseball assistant in 2019 and serves as Harding's recruiting coordinator. On the field, he serves as hitting coach and infield instructor and gives the signals from the third base coaches box.

Last season, Schatzley helped guide the Bisons to their best winning percentage in his seven seasons, and the 2015 team led NCAA Division II in fielding percentage at .977. Schatzley was also honored by the ABCA with its College Field Maintenance Award for his care of Harding's Jerry Moore Field.

Schatzley came to Harding from Emporia State University in Emporia, Kansas, where he served as an assistant for the 2011 season. He helped guide Emporia State to the MIAA conference championship and a 43-13 record.

In the summer of 2013, Schatzley was the head coach of the Outer Banks Daredevils of the Coastal Plain League, a summer wood bat league for collegiate players. He was the head coach of the El Dorado Broncos of the Jayhawk League in 2009 and 2010 and won the National Baseball Congress national championship and NBC National Manager of the Year in '09.

Schatzley was a graduate assistant at Lubbock Christian University during the 2009 and 2010 seasons. In his time there, Lubbock Christian won two Sooner Athletic Conference championships and made two appearances in the NAIA World Series, winning the national championship in 2009.

Schatzley played collegiately at Pratt Community College (2004-06) in Pratt, Kansas, and a Lyon College (2006-08) in Batesville, Ark.

Schatzley is married to the former Sarah Fugett of Cave City, Arkansas. The couple has two children -- Liza and Walker.
