Head Coach Weston Jameson

At Harding

Weston Jameson will be in his first season as men's basketball head coach in 2023-24. He is in his second stint at Harding after serving as assistant women's basketball coach from 2015-20. He was instrumental in leading the team to 106 wins over five seasons, two regular season conference championships, one conference tournament championship and an appearance in the 2017 Division II Final Four.

Before Harding

Jameson spent the 2021-23 seasons as an assistant women's basketball coach at Abilene Christian University in Texas. He helped ACU achieve historic offensive success, ranking fourth nationally in 3-pointers made per game and in the top 25 nationally in scoring offense. Jameson was an assistant women's basketball coach at Arkansas State University for the 2020-21 season. Before his first stint at Harding, Jameson worked as the junior boys head coach and senior boys assistant coach at Central Arkansas Christian School in North Little Rock in 2014-15.

Playing Career

Jameson was a three-year starter and four-year letter winner at point guard for the Harding men's basketball team from 2010-14. He had 474 assists in his time as a Bison, fourth on Harding's career list, and helped lead the Bisons to the 2014 Great American Conference Tournament championship. Jameson played in three NCAA Division II Tournaments during his career.

Education

Jameson graduated from Harding in December 2013 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and earned his Master of Arts in Teaching from Southern Arkansas University.

Family

He is married to the former Lauren Harrison of Searcy, a member of the Harding women's basketball team from 2010-14. The couple have three children--Berklee, Kelynn and Harrison.
