GAMEDAY STORYLINES

► UH is making its sixth NCAA Tournament appearance in program history (1989, '90, '94, '96, '98, '16) and its first appearance since 1998.

► It is just the second time that the Rainbow Wahine won the Big West Conference Tournament for the automatic NCAA bid.

► Hawaii is 1-6 all-time in the NCAA tournament. Their lone win came in the first round of the 1990 NCAA tournament against the host school Montana in Missoula, MT. UH won that opening round game, 83-78 in the first round of the West Regional. UH then lost to Stanford in the second round, 106-76.

► Hawaii has appeared in the post-season 14 total times—six in the NCAA and eight in the WNIT. UH has an all-time post-season record of 6-16 (5-11 in WNIT)

► It is the second time in school history that both the University of Hawaii men's and women's basketball teams have both punched their tickets to the NCAA tournament in the same year. 1994 was the only other year that this has happened.

► UH's head coach Laura Beeman joins former UH head coach Vince Goo as the only two coaches to ever lead the Rainbow Wahine to the NCAA tournament in school history.

► Hawaii head coach Laura Beeman has led the Rainbow Wahine to the post-season all four years that she has been at the helm of the Rainbow Wahine squad—including three consecutive WNIT appearances and this year's appearance in the NCAA's.

► Beeman has led UH to back-to-back 20+ win seasons for the first since Goo led the 'Bows to over 20 wins three straight years from 2000-'02. Overall UH has hit the 20-win mark 15 times—11 under Goo; twice under Bill Nepf (1985, '87) and twice under Beeman. Last year the 'Bows won the Big West regular season crown with 23-9 overall record and 14-2 mark in conference. It was UH's first 20-win season since 2002.

► Hawaii is 1-6 all-time against UCLA with the last meeting being played in Hilo, Hawaii on Dec. 19, 2010. The Bruins, who were ranked No. 9 at the time, won that game, 72-44 a year before Beeman came on board.

► After winning the Big West tournament, UH went home to Honolulu on March 13 to allow the players to go to class on Monday and Tuesday before leaving on Wednesday morning to come back to California.

TOURNAMENT TIDBITS

- In their five previous NCAA tournament appearances, UH has always been in the West Regional. This is the first year that they will be in the Bridgeport Regional.
- Former UH head coach Vince Goo and current head coach Laura Beeman are the only two to have led UH into the post-season. Goo tallied five trips to the NCAA and six to the WNIT for 11 total post-season appearances. Four of those NCAA appearances were while UH was in the Big West and one was while the 'Bows were in the Western Athletics Conference.

* Big West Conference Regular Season Champion

() Big West Conference Women's Basketball Tournament Seed

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—The University of Hawai'i basketball team (21-10, 12-4 BWC) heads to Los Angeles, Calif. this week to take on third-seeded and 10th-ranked UCLA (24-8) in the First Round of the 2016 NCAA Tournament on Saturday, March 19 at 3:30 pm (PT). The game will be held at Pauley Pavilion on the UCLA campus. The winner of the UH-UCLA match-up will face the winner of the South Florida (23-9) vs. Colorado State (31-1) game on Monday, March 21.

The Rainbow Wahine captured the Big West's automatic NCAA bid after winning the 2016 Big West Conference Tournament with a resounding 78-59 victory over UC Davis this past Saturday in Anaheim, Calif. at the Honda Center. UH comes in as the 14th seed in the Bridgeport Region.

It is the Rainbow Wahine's sixth NCAA tournament appearance and the first since 1998. It marks the second all-time Big West tournament title (1996). It is also just the second time in Hawai'i history that both the Rainbow Warriors and the Rainbow Wahine will be playing in the NCAA tournament together in the same year (1994). The Rainbow Wahine are 1-6 all-time in the NCAA tourney. Overall, Hawai'i has advanced to the post-season 14 times total with eight appearances in the WNIT—including the last three-straight seasons under fourth year head coach Laura Beeman.

Beeman has led the 'Bows to back-to-back 20+-win seasons. Last year, UH won the Big West regular season title in 2015 to go with the BWC Tournament title won this season. Hawai'i finished the season strong, winning 11 of its last 12 games down the stretch.

Hawai'i is 1-6 all-time against UCLA with the last meeting being played in Hilo, Hawai'i on Dec. 19, 2010. The Bruins, who were ranked No. 9 at the time, won that game, 72-44 under the previous coaching staff. This season, Bruins tied for third in the Pac-12 with a 14-4 record while going 24-8 overall—including a 13-1 home mark. The Bruins have been ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in each of the last 15 weeks.

Learning about the Rainbow Wahine...

- After starting the regular season at 11-10 and the conference season at 3-3, Hawai'i finally got on the right track together and finished the season strong, winning 11 of their last 12 games. Their only blemish came on a four point loss to Big West regular season champions, UC Riverside, 81-77 (Feb. 27). During the last 12 games, UH out-scored their opponents by 806-642 for a total of 164 points more than their opponents, which averages to +13.7 per game.

- Under Beeman, UH has always prided themselves on defense and rebounding. This year was no exception...

- Defensively, UH was No. 1 in the conference and No. 36 in the NCAA in scoring defense, allowing 59.1 points per game overall. That number dropped to 55.5 in BWC games only. AND during the last 12 games, UH held their opponents to just 53.5 points per game. UH is ranked No. 16 in the NCAA and No.1 in the BWC in 3-point scoring defense, allowing teams to shoot just .267 from beyond the arch. UH did not allow anyone to score more than 60 points in 11 out of the last 12 games.

- UH's rebounding also took a strangle-hold on the Big West. Led by Destiny King's 6.5 rebounds, Megan Huff's 6.3 boards and Kalei Adolpho's 5.5 rebounds per game, the Rainbow Wahine out-rebounded their overall opponents by 324 total boards—which averages to a +10.5 advantage per game overall on the glass. The +10.5 rebounding margin ranks UH at No. 15 in the NCAA overall. Hawai'i also led the league in rebounding offense (41.8); rebounding defense (31.4); offensive rebounds (14.0); defensive rebounds (27.8); defensive rebound percentage (.728) and offensive rebound percentage (.400).

- Senior combo guard/forward Destiny King, who can play and has played all five positions, is finishing her collegiate career with a flourish. The Long Beach, Calif. native and all-Big West first teamer became just the fifth Rainbow Wahine in UH history to record over 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 250 assists this past week in the Big West championship game. She dished out seven assists (which tied her career-high) against UC Davis (Mar. 12), King joined UH's elite now with 1,056 points, 681 rebounds and 255 assists. King, who played for American Samoa this past summer in the Pacific Games, has put all the pieces of her game together. She is averaging a career-high 10.5 points and 6.5 rebounds per game. She has also tallied career-highs of 200 total rebounds; 99 made free throws (team-high), 78 assists (team-high), and 40 steals (team-high) on the season. She reached the 1,000 point mark at Cal State Fullerton (Feb. 25) earlier this season. King and Ashleigh Karaitiana are the only two players to have started all 31 games this season. King has started the last 88-straight games.

Down the stretch of the season, King refused to let UH lose, putting the team on her back and doing whatever was necessary to give UH the best opportunity to win. She has tallied the game high in points and rebounds 13 times each.

- As a true freshman in 2011-12, Ashleigh Karaitiana sat out due to a NCAA ruling regarding her being an amateur but playing against some professionals in Australia. She thought her collegiate career had ended last season, but during the summer, UH's coaches and compliance office worked on her appeal and she found out she got her year back in July. Since then, she has been one of the team's "glue" players that has held the team together through the thick and thin. Karaitiana earned BWC Second Team honors for her stellar work on the court.

Coach of the Year: John Margaritis, UC Riverside

Best Sixth Player: Megan Huff, Hawai'i

Best Hustle Player: Annelise Ito, UC Riverside

Defensive Player of the Year: Jewelyn Sawyer, LBSU

Earlier this season against Long Beach State (Jan. 7), Karaitiana became the 19th member of UH's 1,000 point club and the 11th member of the 1,000 point/500 rebound club as well. Currently the Hamilton, New Zealand native has amassed 1,165 points, 575 rebounds and is just 10 assists shy of joining King with over 250 assists as well. Recently, Karaitiana passed former UH-great Nani Cockett for second place in UH's all-time 3-point shooting. Karaitiana currently has made 143 treys in her career. She and King are the only two players to have started all 31 games this season. This season, Karaitiana is averaging 8.7 points per game and 3.9 boards per game. She leads UH with 42 made 3-pointers and in the BWC championship, she drained five treys en route to the land mark win for the program.

- Sophomore Megan Huff began her collegiate career as a middle-hitter/opposite on the Rainbow Wahine volleyball team. Last year as a freshman, she played a complete volleyball season before joining the basketball team for the final 21 games of the season.

This season, she began the wvb season once again, but this year, she chose to end her volleyball career after just a few games into the season so she could focus on basketball. Huff has not disappointed since joining the WBB team fulltime. She was voted as the Big West's "Best Sixth Player" for the second straight season and was selected to the all-BWC second team for the first time.

Huff has been a impactful player in the paint, averaging 9.4 points and 6.3 rebounds per game for second place on UH's roster. She has appeared in all 31 games and made four starts earlier this season in place of an injured Kalei Adolpho. Huff also leads the team with 30 blocked shots and has 14 steals and 33 assists to fill her stat line. She has recorded the team's game high in rebounds in 11 games this season and scored in double-digits in six of UH's last eight games.

- Senior Kalei Adolpho, the first DI female athlete from the Hawaiian Island of Moloka'i, also starred for the Rainbow Wahine Volleyball team. A multiple state winner in volleyball, basketball and high jump, Adolpho came to UH as a two-sport athlete. She played for legendary head coach Dave Shoji for four straight years. Adolpho played both WVB and WBB for the first three years of her career. She chose to focus on volleyball her true senior season and earned all-conference First team honors at middle hitter. She then chose to use her fifth year to pursue her master's degree in education while spending her final year of eligibility focussed in on basketball for the first time in her career.

The opportunity to finally spend a full summer and preseason with the basketball team has paid off dividends as Adolpho has emerged as a solid, athletic post for UH. She has posted career best numbers--averaging 6.6 points per game while clearing 164 total rebounds with 32 assists and eight steals. Adolpho has appeared in 30 games with 27 starts this season.

- Sophomore Sarah Toeaina has started the last 12-straight games and 19 overall while appearing in all 31. The Covington, Wash. native has deep and athletic roots in Hawai'i and the mainland. Her mother Maile played on the Rainbow Wahine volleyball team from 1988-91 and father Andrew was a linebacker on the Rainbow Warrior football team in 1991 and was in the San Francisco 49ers training camp, but an injury curtailed his football career. Older sister Alyx Toeaina throws the shot put, discus and the weight throw on Washington's track & field team, while cousin Senio Kelemete was a tackle for the Washington Huskies (2008-11) and was a fifth round draft pick by the Arizona Cardinals but is currently a guard on the New Orleans Saints roster. Cousin Matt Toeaina was a defensive lineman at Oregon (2002-05) and was a sixth round draft pick in 2007 by the Cincinnati Bengals but played for the Chicago Bears from 2007-12 while cousin Simi Toeaina played football at Oregon (2005-09). Nicole (Garbin) Toeaina played both basketball (2006) and soccer at Oregon (2001-06) and cousin Chloe Watson currently plays volleyball at Southern Idaho.

Toeaina has proven herself on the hard court serving as a steady force in the starting five. She is averaging 6.8 points and 2.9 rebounds per game.

- Freshman point guard Olivia Crawford has grown in leaps and bounds this season. She has appeared in 29 games this season while starting the last 19--including all of the conference season. Crawford's best game this season was against UC Riverside (1/16/16), when she scored a career-high 13 pointswith a career-high eight rebounds. She drilled four treys against the Highlanders that night. Crawford is averaging 3.4 points and 1.9 rebounds

- Junior Briana Harris has also finished this season on a strong note. The Inglewood, Calif. native has recorded double-digits in points in five of the last six games--including 15 against UC Santa Barbara. Harris pushes the tempo and will drive to the basket hard. This year, she is scoring 8.5 points per game while averaging 3.4 boards per game.

- Senior guard Marissa Wimbley came through big for UH in the BWC semifinal game. She scored a career-high 18 points while draining a career-high six 3-pointers--which ties the UH single-game record with six other Rainobw Wahine--including current teammate Ashleigh Karaitiana. Overall, Wimbley is averaging a career-high 4.2 points per game, 2.25 rebounds per game with 23 assists (also a career-high).

LAURA BEEMAN

HEAD COACH

FOURTH SEASON

UC SAN BERNARDINO (1992)

HAWAII RECORD: 78-47

Head coach Laura Beeman returns for her fourth season at the helm of the defending 2015 Big West champion Rainbow Wahine basketball team. She and her staff have revitalized the Hawai'i program in a flash, leading Hawai'i to its first conference title since 1997-98 and three-straight appearances in the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT). In her four seasons here, she has compiled a 78-47 overall record and a 48-18 mark in the Big West.

Beeman—the 2015 Big West Coach of the Year—guided the 'Bows to a Big West-best 14-2 conference record and 23-9 overall mark. The 'Bows opened the conference season with a pair of road losses, but went on to reel off 15-straight wins en route to capturing the regular season crown and a spot in their third consecutive WNIT tourney. The win streak was UH's longest since 1997-98 when Hawai'i won 19-straight under former head coach Vince Goo. Overall, UH's 2014-15 overall record was the best since the 'Bows recorded a 23-8 overall record in 2001-02. Beeman and her crew also posted UH's best conference record since 1997-98 when the Rainbow Wahine went 13-1 in the Western Athletic Conference. To date, while at UH, Beeman has coached eight All-Big West Selections (First Team-2; Second Team -3; Honorable Mention-3); three Big West "Sixth Player of the Year" awardees; one BWC "Defensive Player of the Year"; and two BWC All-Freshman Team players. This past year, senior Shawna-Lei Kuehu earned all-Big West first team honors while fellow senior, Ashleigh Karaitiana was named all-conference second team. Freshman Megan Huff, who joined the basketball team after finishing her rookie season on the women's volleyball team in December, made an immediate impact and garnered the Big West's "Sixth Player of the Year" award as well as all-freshman team honors. Junior Destiny King was UH's "utility" player all season and earned all-league honorable mention honors for her efforts.

Beeman's consistent trademark over the past three seasons has been defense and rebounding. UH finished the 2014-15 season leading the conference in several statistical categories for the overall season including field-goal percent defense (.360); rebounding offense (44.1) rebounding margin (+9.0); blocked shots (3.77); offensive rebounds (15.77) and defensive rebounds (28.35). In conference action, Hawai'i was even more dominant, leading the league in 12 different statistical categories—including scoring margin (+12.2); scoring defense (52.1); field goal percent defense (.348) and rebounding margin (+12.6) to name a few.

One of the passions of Coach Beeman, her staff and her players has been getting involved in multiple service opportunities to give back to the local communities. The coaches and players have conducted free basketball clinics to youth on the North Shore and have spent hours helping at Waikiki Health's Youth Outreach (YOI) program working with local at-risk and homeless youths. The team also sponsored a "YOI" Sneaker Drive at one of their games last season. The Rainbow Wahine have participated in the American Cancer Society's "Relay for Life", Special Olympics, and have participated in several elementary school reading programs.

In her first season, Beeman deftly guided her team through a difficult pre-season slate—which included the likes of Baylor, Stanford, Arkansas, and Oklahoma. The wicked schedule prepared the 'Bows in their return to the Big West Conference after 16 years in the Western Athletic Conference. In her first season, Hawai'i posted a 17-14 overall record—the first winning season in seven years. The 'Bows battled hard in the BWC and finished in a tie for second in the conference with a 13-5 mark. UH closed the season strong—winning six of their last seven regular season games. Hawai'i went 8-1 in conference home games and tallied its best conference record since 2001-02. The Rainbow Wahine were able to defeat all of their conference opponents at least once with series sweeps over UC Riverside, Long Beach State, UC Davis, and CSU Northridge. The 'Bows advanced to the post-season for the first time in 10 years and for the 12th time in school history. Hawai'i players garnered six Big West honors, led by junior post-player Kamilah Jackson who is the first Rainbow Wahine to earn first team conference honors since 1995-96. Junior guard/forward Shawna-Lei Kuehu was voted "Sixth Player of the Year" and was an Honorable Mention conference player. Junior guard Sydney Haydel earned "Defensive Player of the Year" and rookie guard Ashleigh Karaitiana was named to the All-Freshman team as well as honorable mention honors.

In her second season (2013-14), Beeman and her 'Bows posted a 17-14 overall record with a 10-6 conference record good for third place and another post-season appearance. The Rainbow Wahine once again had to navigate a challenging non-conference schedule, notching wins over Washington State, Ole Miss, Chattanooga and Minnesota. Jackson became just the second player in Rainbow Wahine history to lead the team in points and rebounds all four seasons of her career—even while missing seven games down the stretch of the Big West season. But in her absence, Hawai'i banded together to continue to out rebound their opponents 276-to-219 while Jackson was out—including a 19-rebound advantage in their win over UC Davis. UH finished first in the Big West in scoring defense, allowing just 62.8 points per game; first in 3-point field goal defense (.288); rebounding defense (35.1); rebounding margin overall (+6.0) and defensive rebounding percentage (.725).

Beeman was formally introduced as the new head women's basketball coach at Hawai'i at a press conference on March 23 at Les Murakami Stadium. She came to UH with nearly 20 years of coaching experience on the both the collegiate and professional level. The San Bernardino, Calif., native established herself as one of the best junior college coaches in the nation before enjoying similar success as an assistant coach at USC and with the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks. Beeman, 44, is the eighth head coach since the program's inception in 1974 and the third female head coach in its history.

Beeman spent her final two seasons prior to Hawai'i at USC as associate head coach under Michael Cooper where they re-established the Women of Troy as a PAC-12 power. There she helped quickly revitalize the program with 42 combined wins in the last two years. In her first season, the team finished 24-13 and advanced to the WNIT Championship game. The team ultimately finished with the program's best record in 17 years.

The Women of Troy garnered an 18-win season his past year, including a six-game win streak to finish the regular season. In just two years, Beeman coached nearly a half dozen all-conference players, while also helping put together back-to-back nationally ranked recruiting classes.

Beeman and Cooper had previously worked together for the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks in 2008. As an assistant under Cooper that season, she helped lead the Sparks to the Western Conference Finals after a one-year absence from the post-season. While with the Sparks, Beeman coached the No. 1 pick Candace Parker along with veteran All-Stars Lisa Leslie and DeLisha Milton-Jones.

Prior to her stint with the Trojans, Beeman made her mark at the junior college level where she enjoyed a phenomenally successful 15-year run as the head coach at Mt. San Antonio College (Mt. SAC). There she led the Mounties to 10 conference championships and four California Community College State Championships—including a string of three straight from 2006-08. Beeman was selected conference Coach of the Year four times and was voted the district and regional coach of the year in 2001. She led Mt. SAC to a school-best 37-1 record in both the 2007 and 2008 season. During her tenure with the Mounties, she produced 80 all-conference selections, 24 all-state selections, and 10 all-region selections. Beeman posted a 390-110 (.780) record during her tenure at Mt. SAC.

As a player, Beeman was an All-American guard at Cal State San Bernardino where she set the career, season and game assist records. She graduated in 1992 with a degree in business administration from CS San Bernardino and later earned a master's degree in education with an emphasis on counseling from the University of Redlands. She earned a second master's degree in education with an emphasis in physical education from Azusa Pacific University.
