GAMEDAY STORYLINES

▶ UH is making its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in program history (1972, '94, 2001, '02, '16), the fourth as a conference tournament champion and first as the Big West Conference representative.
▶ UH won its first-ever NCAA Tournament game with a 77-66 victory over California, Friday. The 'Bows are 1-4 all-time in the NCAA Tournament and this year's No. 13 seed is tied for the lowest in four previous appearances.

▶ UH's 28 wins is the most in program history, surpassing 27 wins by the 2001-02 squad, the last NCAA Tournament team who lost to Xavier in the first round of the 2002 Tournament and finished with a 27-6 final record.

▶ UH in entering its third week on the road having left Honolulu, March 1 for road games at UC Davis (March 3) and at Long Beach State (March 5) and last week's Big West Tournament (March 10-12) in Anaheim, Calif.

▶ UH and Maryland have met twice previously with the Terrapins winning both times, including the last meeting, Dec. 29, 1996 in the semifinals of the Outrigger Rainbow Classic in Honolulu (76-59).

▶ UH head coach Eran Ganot (34) is the second youngest coach among the remaining teams in the NCAA Tournament field. The youngest, VCU's Will Wade (33), is 14 months younger than Ganot.

UH-CAL POST-GAME NOTES

► UH led 36-30 at the half, improving its record to 21-1 when leading at halftime this season.
 ► UH's eight assists were a season-low.
 ► The win over 23rd-ranked Golden Bears was the third all-time over a nationally ranked team at either a road or neutral site (3-40).
 ► UH is the first Big West team to advance to the Round of 32 since Pacific in 2005.
 ► The minus-9 rebounding differential was UH's largest in a win.
 ► Guard Quincy Smith scored a career-high 19 points and converted a career-best 7-of-8 from the free throw line.
 ► UH is now 9-3 when shooting under 30 percent from 3-point range this season.
 ► UH held the lead for the final 30:36 of the game.

UH IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

► UH secured its conference's automatic berth by virtue of winning the conference tournament in 1994, 2001, '02, and '16.
 ► Of the four previous appearances, UH was part of the West Regional three times (1972, '94, and 2002) and Midwest Regional once (2001).
 ► UH's 13th seed in this year's tournament is tied with the 1994 squad for its lowest seed all-time.
 ► UH's highest seed was No. 10 in 2002.
 ► Former head coach Riley Wallace coached three NCAA Tournament teams (1994, 2001, and '02) during his 20-year career (1987-2007). Wallace is the program's winning coach with 334 victories.
 ► Legendary coach Red Rocha (1963-73) coached UH's first NCAA Tournament team in 1972.
 ► Prior to this year, UH never played an NCAA Tournament game in the Pacific Time Zone.

West Tournament title, marking the first time since 1994 that both men's and women's teams will appear in the NCAA Tournament in the same year.

► Hawai'i was the fourth different school in the last four seasons to win the Big West regular season title – Long Beach State (2012-13), UC Irvine (2013-14) and UC Davis (2014-15) and first among those teams to win the conference tournament.

► UH is making its 14th all-time postseason appearance and owns a 12-13 record. UH made four NCAA appearances (1-4), eight NIT appearances (10-8) and one CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament appearance (0-1). (Note: UH vacated the 2012-13 season for use of ineligible players and its appearance in the CIT is not counted in this list).

► UH played three teams during the regular season which made the NCAA Tournament – Texas Tech (L, 74-82), Northern Iowa (W, 68-52), and Oklahoma (L, 81-84).

► UH is 19-102 all-time versus nationally-ranked teams, which includes an 84-81 loss to third-ranked Oklahoma and the 77-66 victory over No. 23 California this season.

► UH is 2-9 versus nationally ranked teams on a neutral court.

► Eran Ganot surpassed legendary Big West coaches Jerry Tarkanian and Lute Olsen with the most wins by a rookie head coach as a member of the conference.

► Roderick Bobbitt is vying to become the first Big West player to lead the league in both steals (2.2) and assists (5.5) for two straight seasons.

► The 'Bows are a combined 11-2 in road (7-2) and neutral site (4-0) games this season, tying the program record set by the 2001-02 squad. UH's seven road games are tied with that same '01-02 squad for most "true" road wins in a single season.

► The 50 combined wins over the past two seasons is the most in consecutive seasons in program history, surpassing the 47 wins by the 1970-71 (23) and 1971-72 (24) teams.

► UH's 13 league wins is second most all-time second only to the 2001-02 team (15-3).

► UH is 9-0 when Big West Player of the Year Stefan Jankovic scores 20 or more points this season.

► UH is 23-0 when out-rebounding its opponents this season and 4-5 when getting out-rebounded. UH is 1-0 when rebounds are tied.

► Guard Isaac Fleming (9.5 pts./2.3 asts.) left the team prior to the final regular season road trip. Fleming appeared in 23 games making five starts and averaged 23.6 minutes played per game.

AWARDS & HONORS

► Junior forward Stefan Jankovic became just the second player in program history to be named conference player of the year, joining Anthony Carter (1997-98 WAC Pacific Division).

► Jankovic was also selected to the USBWA All-District IX first team, becoming just the fifth Rainbow Warrior to earn that distinction and first since Michael Kuebler in 2004.

► Jankovic and Roderick Bobbitt were both named to the All-Big West first-team, marking the second time in three seasons UH had a pair of first-teamers.

► Head coach Eran Ganot is the fourth head coach to earn Big West Coach of the Year honors in his rookie season, joining UC Santa Barbara's Bob Williams (1998-99), San Jose State's Bill Berry (1979-80) and Fresno State's Boyd Grant (1977-78).

► Guard Aaron Valdes was named the Big West Tournament MVP after averaging 17.0 points, 7.0 rebounds, and 4.7 assists per game in UH's three wins. Jankovic was also selected to the all-tournament team.

NATIONAL AND BIG WEST RANKINGS

► UH leads the Big West in scoring (77.6), scoring margin (+11.1), field goal percentage (46.2), rebounding margin (+4.7), assists (15.8), steals (7.9) while ranking second in field goal percentage defense (39.8), blocked shots (3.8), and turnover margin (+1.5).

► The 'Bows rank 21st in the NCAA in scoring margin.

► UH's 7.9 steals per game average ranks 27th nationally and the team is 38th in turnovers forced (14.8). Guard Roderick Bobbitt is 14th nationally with a 2.1 steals per game average.

► Hawai'i ranks 38th nationally with 15.8 assists per game while guard Roderick

Bobbitt is 37th at 5.5 per game.

► The 'Bows delivered their most lopsided win against Howard with a 35-point win, and beat UC Irvine by 22 points, their largest conference win of the season.

LIFE ON THE ROAD

UH is the most well-travelled team in Division I basketball logging more than 26,000 air miles on five road trips (includes flight to Spokane, Wash.) and having spent more than a month living in hotel rooms.

CLOSING IN ON 1,000

Guard Aaron Valdes needs 31 points to become the 17th member of the 1,000-point club and first since Christian Standhardinger in 2014. Currently, the Whittier, Calif., native has 969 points which ranks No. 18 on the program's career list and is eight points from tying Michael Kuebler (977) for 17th.

BACK-TO-BACK SUCCESS

Consecutive 20-win seasons has been a rarity for the program, a feat accomplish now only four times in the program's history. The previous was the 1996-97 and '97-98 teams but prior to that was the 1970-71 and '71-72 teams that won 23 and 24 games, respectively. The "Fabulous Five" squads qualified for the NIT and NCAA Tournaments in those two seasons. The previous and first back-to-back 20-win seasons were from 1948-51, three straight seasons. This year was the first time the feat was done by two different coaches. Benjy Taylor won 22 games last season as the team's interim coach.

(Note: due to the use of ineligible players, the school and the NCAA does not recognize the 2013-14 team which finished 20-11).

MOVING ON UP

During the quarterfinals of the Big West Tournament game against Cal State Fullerton, senior guard Roderick Bobbitt became the program's all-time steals leader, surpassing Tom Henderson record of 160. Bobbitt also ranks fourth all-time in career assists with 360 and third in assist per game (5.4). In addition, his three 30-point games is tied for ninth all-time.

Senior guard Quincy Smith also climbed into the Top 10 in career steals with 125, which ranks ninth.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Roderick Bobbitt (2.2) and Quincy Smith (1.7) rank No. 1 and 2 in the Big West in steals per game while also ranking among the top single-game performances in the Big West this season. Smith had a career-high six steals against UC Santa Barbara (Jan. 9) and Bobbitt posted five steals against Montana State (Nov. 13) and UC Irvine (Feb. 20), which is tied for third highest. Former guard Isaac Fleming posted six steals against Northern Iowa (Dec. 22).

In addition to being the career leader, Bobbitt set a single-season record of 100 last season and his 68 steals this year is tied seventh most in a season.

WHAT A MONTH!

During the month of February, forward Stefan Jankovic was selected as the Big West's Player of the Week twice (Feb. 8 & 22), the latter of which he averaged 29.5 points and 7.0 rebounds in a pair of road wins over CSUN and UC Irvine. That week, he was also named the Lou Henson Player of the Week, an honor given to the top mid-major player. For the week, he also shot a blazing 76.0% (19-of-25) from the field, including 66.7% (4-6) behind the three-point line. He was clutch at the charity stripe, hitting 17 of his 22 attempts including a career-high nine against the Anteaters. He earned his first award Feb. 8 after leading UH to road wins over UC Santa Barbara and Cal Poly and averaged 17.5 points and 9.5 rebounds per game. During the month, Jankovic averaged a team-best 19.3 points and 7.5 rebounds per game while shooting 60.5 percent from the field while also posting nine blocks and six steals.

FINDING HIS MEN

Roderick Bobbitt had a career-high 14 assists against Montana State which continues to be the best performance among Big West players this season. He and Aaron Valdes have delivered the top 3 Big West single-game highs this season and are two of only three players to post double-digit assist games along with UC Irvine's Luke Nelson. Bobbitt also dished out 10 assists against Nicholls State while Valdes had a career-high 11 versus Howard, part of a triple-double performance.

STAN SHERIFF CENTER SUCCESS

UH is 284-118 (.706) including this, its 21st season there. Wins vacated in the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons notwithstanding, the last time UH had a home losing record was in 2009-10 (10-11) but prior to that it was 1998-99 (6-13).

PACKING THE STAN

► UH hosted two sell-out crowds this season, including the first sellout 2004 when the 'Bows beat Nebraska in the second round of the NIT. As far as Stan Sheriff Center records go, the LBSU game was the first sellout in the arena for any sport since the women's volleyball team sold out against UCLA in 2013 and saw a turnstile number of 9,664.

► UH's last back-to-back sellout was in 1998 (3/16, 3/19) which was also the last consecutive sellout of any UH contest in the Stan Sheriff Center.

► The last back-to-back conference sellout was also in 1998 (1/31, 2/2)

► The 1997-98 season had 12 sellouts with an all-time high average of 9,615

'BOWS PICKED THIRD, VALDES HONORED

The preseason Big West all-conference awards and media poll were handed out with UH picked to finish third and Aaron Valdes selected to the six-player all-conference team. In 2014-15, Valdes ranked No. 10 in the Big West in scoring at 13.7 points per game.

SUMMER TRAVELS

Plans are currently in the works for the team to make an international tour to Australia and possibly New Zealand in the summer of 2016 or 2017. The previous international trip taken by the team was in the summer of 2011 when former coach Gib Arnold took the team to China and Japan.

TOURNEY TITLE

The 'Bows began their season winning their 14th Rainbow Classic title and first since 2012 with a thrilling win over Nevada in the championship game. The game also represented the fourth straight season the 'Bows played in a winner-take-all game in the classic. Aaron Valdes had 19 points to lead the way for UH, but it was Roderick Bobbitt's driving layup with 1.4 seconds left that gave his team the lead in a game UH had led by

EARLY AWARDS

After two impressive showings in wins over Montana State and Coastal Carolina at the Outrigger Resorts Rainbow Classic, senior PG Roderick Bobbitt was named the Big West's first men's basketball player of the week. It was Bobbitt's first such award and the first for the team since the 2013-14 season. On the same day, after helping the 'Bows to the classic title, he was voted the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, also a first for him.

EARLY SIGNINGS

Eran Ganot announced the signing of guards Matthew Owies and Drew Buggs to national letters of intent for the 2016-17 season. Both join the 'Bows as true freshmen. Owies is currently attending St. Kevin's College in Melbourne and has made his mark nationally for the Melbourne Tigers and internationally playing on the Australian national team. This past summer, his U20 Victorian team won the gold medal at the Australian National Junior Championship and in 2014 he guided Australia to a silver medal finish at the FIBA U17 World Championship in Dubai. Buggs, a 6-2, 175-pound combo guard from Long Beach, Calif., is currently attending Long Beach Poly High School. He helped his team to a CIF title in 2013 and, in his junior year, put his versatility on display averaging 8.8 points, 4.1 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 2.4 steals per game. Buggs also showcases his skills for Earl Watson Elite, one of the top AAU programs in the nation.

DOWN UNDER

Coach Ganot has made no qualms about making Australia one of his major recruiting destinations, already adding Purchase to the mix. Bringing in Aussie talent was also a focus of Randy Bennett's, whom Ganot was an assistant coach for at St. Mary's, which included headliner Matthew Dellavedova. SMU had as many as four Australians on the roster in 2012-13. Also on the 2015-16 roster is freshman walk-on Jakob Cornelissen, a fellow club teammate of Purchase's in Melbourne, with Owies joining the team in 2016-17.

HELPING OUT

The men's basketball program has developed a tradition of giving back to the community and continued that this season. Earlier in the season, the team visited Kapiolani Children's Hospital and, with the Phi Mu sorority presented a check in the amount of $1,720. They also paid a visit to the Next Step Homeless Shelter in Kaka'ako. Prior to entertaining the kids with a clinic, the 'Bows were giving a tour of the facility which houses approximately 200 people every night. The shelter features running water, soda machines, a library, a playroom for the kids and a microwave, toaster and coffee machine. Following the tour, assistant coach Chris Acker and the team entertained the children of the homeless families with a clinic and just overall fun exercises and interactions. The players and coaches even assembled a brand new hoop for the shelter. The 'Bows also handed out dinner to the tenants which is provided each night.

TAR HEELS COMING TO TOWN

North Carolina and UH will play at the Stan Sheriff Center in a game scheduled for Nov. 16, 2016. The game will be the fifth between the two schools with UNC winning the previous four contests. The teams last played in 1994 at the then-Special Events Arena (later renamed Stan Sheriff Center), the building's first men's basketball sell-out. The No.1-ranked Tar Heels defeated the 'Bows, 88-76, on their way to an NCAA Final Four appearance later that season.

Head Coach: Eran Ganot (Swarthmore College, 2003)

Assistant Coaches: Adam Jacobsen (Pacific, 1997), Chris Acker (University of Phoenix, 2012), John Montgomery (St. Mary's, 2007)

HEAD COACH ERAN GANOT 1ST SEASON, SWARTHMORE COLLEGE (2003)

Eran Ganot is the 21st head coach of the UH men's basketball program. At 34 years old, he is the second youngest to lead the Rainbow Warriors, Bruce O'Neil was 28 years old when he hired and began his four year head coaching career at UH (1973-76).

A former UH assistant coach, Ganot returns to Manoa from Saint Mary's College in Moraga, Calif., where he served most recently as the associate head coach; earning runner-up in the West Coast Conference (WCC) standings; making an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT); and ending the season with a 21-10 record.

At St. Mary's, Ganot coordinated all recruiting and scouting efforts and was responsible for game scheduling. In 2013-14, he served as acting head coach for five games and tallied a 3-2 record.

Since his return to SMC in 2010-11, the Gaels have earned a record of 124-44 (73.8 winning percentage), and have been among the nation's most consistently successful teams. During the five-year span at SMC, the Gaels made two NCAA appearances, three NIT appearances and won at least 21 games each season—including a three-year stretch in which they notched 25 wins each year.

Also during his tenure, the Gaels captured two regular-season WCC titles; appeared in the WCC Tournament championship game each year prior to this season; and claimed two conference Players of the Year—both players were coached in Ganot's position group.

In the last five years, Ganot has coached the guards while coordinating an offense that ranked in the top 10 in points per possession and top 15 in rebound margin. He has shown a true gift for developing players while at SMC. Under his tutelage, guard Matthew Dellavedova became SMC's all-time leader in scoring, assists, games played, free throw percentage and three-point shots; was named first team all-WCC three times; and was the 2012 WCC Player of the Year. Dellavedova was also a finalist for the 2012 Bob Cousy Collegiate Point Guard of the Year Award and continued his basketball career with the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Under Ganot's guidance, point guard Mickey McConnell also earned first team all-WCC honors and was named the 2011 WCC Player of the Year. He is currently playing in Germany after appearing for the NBA D-League's Texas Legends last season. McConnell was named Most Valuable Player of the 2010 WCC Tournament.

Most recently, Ganot guided Kerry Carter (2015) and Steve Holt (2014) to all-WCC first team honors, with Carter also earning a spot on the WCC All-Academic Team.

Ganot arrived at Saint Mary's after spending four seasons (2006-10) at UH, starting out as director of basketball operations and then earning a promotion to full-time assistant coach by then-coach Bob Nash after just one season. Seen as a rising star in the coaching ranks, Ganot stood out for his tireless work ethic, basketball insight and devotion to the UH program. During his first stint with the Rainbow Warriors, Ganot was responsible for recruiting, scheduling, opponent scouting and player development.

With a coaching emphasis on the UH guards, Ganot guided the development of 2008-09 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) second team all-District 6 and second team all-Western Athletic Conference (WAC) player Roderick Flemings.

As UH's director of basketball operations, Ganot coordinated team travel, prepared the scout team and assisted with recruiting, scheduling and film exchange, while also handling the day-to-day operation of the basketball office.

Prior to UH, Ganot spent his first three years (2003-06) as a volunteer assistant at Saint Mary's under head coach Randy Bennett. Ganot was responsible for overseeing academics and assisted with scheduling and recruiting. He also coordinated film exchange and video breakdown. The Gaels went 61-33, at the time, the best three-year record in school history and twice appeared in the WCC Championship game during his stay. The 2004-05 squad finished 25-9 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for just the fourth time in school history.

In 2006, Ganot received the school's Mike Gibbons Volunteer of the Year Award.

Stefan Jankovic poured in a career-high 22 points and the University of Hawai'i men's basketball team remained undefeated, cruising to a 99-74 win over Nicholls State on Sunday night at the Stan Sheriff Center. The fans came out in droves for Star Wars Night to watch their 'Bows improve to a perfect 4-0 with their most lopsided win of the young season. Roderick Bobbitt got his second double-double with 11 points and 10 assists and Aaron Valdes added 20 points on a hot 8-9 shooting.

Hawai'i 64

In front of a sold out Stan Sheriff Center crowd, the University of Hawai'i men's basketball team scratched and clawed but eventually fell from the ranks of the Big West Conference's unbeaten in a 78-64 loss to Long Beach State on Saturday. The sellout was the first since Nebraska in 2004. Mike Thomas put up a career-high 20 points on 7-11 shooting and pulled down a team-high five rebounds. Quincy Smith made his presence known on both sides of the ball, stuffing the stat sheet with 13 points, four rebounds, four assists and four steals.

UC Riverside	77
Hawai'i	71

With a Big West Conference title in its grasp, the University of Hawai'i men's basketball team hit a bump in the road, falling to UC Riverside 77-71. Stefan Jankovic delivered his third double-double (12 pts, 10 reb) in a losing effort despite playing with foul trouble for much of the game. Aaron Valdes scored a game-high 23 points including 5-9 in three pointers, and Roderick Bobbitt added 17 points and seven assists. Jaylen Bland led the Highlanders (14-15, 5-8 BWC) with 20 points with all of his baskets coming from beyond the arc.

NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAMS

1971-72

Head Coach: Red Rocha

Record: 24-3; Independent

At-Large Berth

The 1971-72 squad, famously nicknamed the "Fabulous Five," captivated the state by finishing the season with a 24-3 record and the program's first trip to the NCAA Tournament. The team played before sold-out crowds at the Neal S. Blaisdell Center, where it won all 19 games, including consecutive victories over nationally ranked Florida State. UH opened the NCAA Tournament with a 91-64 loss to Weber State. Bob Nash led the team in scoring (18.2) and rebounding (14.3), becoming the first Rainbow to average a double-double for the season. Coupled with a 23-5 record and an NIT appearance in 1970-71, the Fabulous Five posted the best two-year record (49-8) in school history.

WAC Tournament Champions

The 1993-94 team overcame an 0-4 start by winning the program's first WAC Tournament. The team failed to score more than 50 points in its first three games and lost by an average of 42 points at the Great Alaska Shoot-out. But the Rainbows rebounded and won seven of their first eight WAC games. In the WAC Tournament, UH squeaked out wins over Colorado State (66-61) and New Mexico (61-58) before upsetting in-state favorite Brigham Young (72-66) for the title. Making their first NCAA Tournament in 22 years, the Rainbows hung tough against Syracuse before falling 92-78 in first-round action. Guard Trevor Ruffin led the team in scoring (20.8) while center Tony Maroney was the team leader in rebounding (9.8).

WAC Tournament Champions

Behind a dominant performance by freshman guard Carl English, Hawai'i swept through the WAC Tournament and earned an automatic trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2000-01. English's heroic play ignited upsets of TCU (99-79), top-seeded Fresno State (76-67) and host Tulsa (78-72) in overtime. In the championship game against the Golden Hurricane, English's banker in the final seconds of regulation sent the game to overtime. UH overcame an 0-3 start to the conference season by winning seven of its eight WAC home games. The 'Bows were pitted against Syracuse in the NCAA Tournament first round and suffered a 79-69 defeat. Guard Predrag Savovic led the team in scoring (17.6) while Troy Ostler was the team leader in rebounding (5.8).

WAC Regular-Season Champions

WAC Tournament Champions

The 2001-02 squad was the winningest team in the program's history after posting a 27-6 mark. The team was also the first to win both the WAC regular season and tournament in the same season. UH finished the season with a No. 25 national ranking by the Associated Press. The team finished with a 16-1 home record which included a memorable 86-85 "White-Out" victory over Tulsa. At one point during the season, the team won 14 of 15 games. The team easily swept through the WAC Tournament, winning all three games by 14 or more points. In the NCAA Tournament, the team let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in a 70-58 loss to Xavier. Guard Predrag Savovic was named an AP honorable mention All-American after leading the team in scoring (20.3).
