UH MĀNOA POLICY ON GENDER EQUITY IN INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Gender equity in athletics extends the doctrine of fairness to all areas of athletic activity at the University level. It is activated by a sense of moral obligation that exceeds any specific duty to comply with legal requirements, although it also recognizes the necessity of observing the tenets of Title IX, Patsy Mink Act.

Its desired effect is to offer women and men equal opportunities to participate in sports for which there is demonstrated interest among athletes in Hawai'i and to provide equitable levels of support for coaching, travel, scholarships, operating expenses and facilities used. Beyond these specific goals, gender equity also fosters an attitude and establishes an environment in which men's and women's sports are encouraged in comparable ways.

Those who support gender equity are willing to cooperate in frequent self-evaluations and to implement change so that all student-athletes can have the same opportunity to realize the highest level of their abilities.

A copy of the plan titled, "Believe It, Achieve It," is available in the Senior Woman Administrator's Office.

The 2016 Hawai'i Football Media Guide has been produced to assist members of the media in the coverage of Rainbow Warrior football. The Sports Media Relations Office will follow-up with weekly press releases during the fall season to keep the media informed about the Rainbow Warrior football team. Please direct all inquiries to the UH Sports Media Relations Office at (808) 956-7523. We look forward to working with you throughout the season!

INTERVIEW POLICY

All players and coaches will be available for interviews after practice during the season from Tuesday and Wednesday at the grass practice field. Interviews with either players or coaches will not be allowed on Thursday or Friday. Contact UH Sports Media Relations for availability for Thursday night games.

If you wish to interview a particular player at a specific time, in person or by telephone, arrangements should be made through the Sports Media Relations Office at least 24 hours in advance. Every effort will be made to accommodate your requests, but players will not be asked to miss class, study hall, practices, or medical treatment to conduct interviews. Players' mobile or home numbers will not be released by the Sports Media Relations Office.

To schedule interviews with head coach Nick Rolovich, contact the Sports Media Relations Office at (808) 956-7523.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for 2016 home football games should be made in writing on company letterhead at least two weeks prior to the game. Direct all requests to:

Derek Inouchi, Media Relations Director
inouchi@hawaii.edu
(808) 956-4470 - fax
1337 Lower Campus Rd., Honolulu, HI 96822

Credentials will be available for pickup weekdays from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. in the Sports Media Relations Office.

After 4:30 p.m. on the day before game day, credentials will be available at the "Will Call" window of the Aloha Stadium Box Office. A picture ID is required to pick up items at "Will Call."

Due to the limited space available in the Aloha Stadium Press Box, news outlets covering the Rainbow Warriors or their opponent on a regular basis will receive top priority for credentials. All other credentials for print media are issued on the basis of space availability.

ESPN 1420AM, which holds the exclusive radio rights for Rainbow Warrior football, will be the only local radio station to receive season credentials. Local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show of notable length will receive first consideration.

Credentials should be used for professional use only. Individuals who abuse the use of their credential will lose their future privileges.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo passes are available for accredited news media and should be ordered in the same manner as press credentials. In accordance with NCAA and Mountain West rules, photographers must wear their credentials, are NOT permitted in either team's bench area (between the 25-yard lines) and must stay within the 12-foot restraining line. Children under the age of 18 are not permitted on the sideline at any time. Individuals violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium.

No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline workers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for the two originating stations.

For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact Multimedia Specialist Jay Metzger at jmetzger@hawaii.edu.

PARKING

Aloha Stadium is located in Halawa, just off the waters of historic Pearl Harbor (99-500 Salt Lake Blvd.). The media parking lot at Aloha Stadium is located in Section 1C. Media should enter the stadium through the Main Salt Lake entrance (Gate 1). Limited space is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Passes should be requested through the Sports Media Relations Office with highest priority going to news outlets who regularly cover the Rainbow Warriors and their opponents.

TELEPHONES & INTERNET SERVICES

The Sports Media Relations Office has one telephone line in the Aloha Stadium Press Box for office use only. Media members requiring telephone lines should call Hawaiian Telcom at (808) 643-4411 to install phone lines at the user's expense.

The Aloha Stadium Press Box and Hospitality Room features free wireless internet service to working media. In addition, wireless access and a limited number of hard lines are available at field level in the photo/video room located in the South Endzone dugout. Please see a Sports Media Relations staff member for login codes on game days.

SERVICES
Programs, flip cards and pregame notes will be distributed prior to each game. Last-minute number changes and starting line-up changes (if they are reported) will be issued prior to kickoff. Play-by-play accounts and flash quarter statistics will be distributed throughout the game. Final statistics, quotes and notes will be distributed following the game. Soft drinks and a light meal will be available in the buffet area behind booths 4, 5 and 6.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS
Head coach Nick Rolovich and selected players will be available at the post-game press conference following the 10-minute cooling-off period in the Aloha Stadium Hospitality Room near the security entrance and stadium personnel offices. With approximately five minutes remaining in the game, a Sports Media Relations representative will escort the media down to the field. No interviews will be allowed on the field. The UH main locker room is located on the mauka (east) side of the south end zone. The locker room is open to print media. Television cameras and videographers are not allowed inside the locker room.

HAWAIIATHLETICS.COM
The UH Athletics website (HawaiiAthletics.com) features a video component (H-TV), photo galleries and online media guides in addition to the existing player and coach biographies, press releases, statistics, schedules and everything else you need to know about UH Athletics. In addition, a .pdf version of every UH media guide is available on the website.

collegepressbox.com
SINCE 2005 EVERYTHING BUT THE PRE-GAME MEAL

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM
collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

WE ARE THE "RAINBOW WARRIORS"

In 2013, the University of Hawai'i changed its official nickname for men's sports to "Rainbow Warriors." Previously, the football team used the nickname "Warriors."

The school's women's teams are still referred to as "Rainbow Wahine." The word "Wahine" (pronounced wah-HEE-nay) means woman in the Hawaiian language.

All UH sports may also be referred to as "the 'Bows." The rainbow has been part of UH's nickname since 1923.

WHAT'S AN 'OKINA?

Q: Ever wondered what that punctuation mark in the word Hawai'i is?

A: In the Hawaiian language, it's called an 'okina, which translated literally in English means separator. Phonetically it is referred to as a glottal stop, similar to the sound that would be made in the English oh-oh. The 'okina is actually a letter in the Hawaiian language and typed out looks like a backwards, inverted apostrophe. The practice of the UH Sports Media Relations office is to use the 'okina in all Hawaiian words in which they occur.

UH'S SOCIAL MEDIA SITES

In order to broaden its reach to fans worldwide, UH Athletics maintains a presence in the world of social networking with official Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Instagram pages.

ALOHA STADIUM

Aloha Stadium seats approximately 50,000 spectators and features five levels of seating - orange, blue, brown, red and yellow. It is the largest outdoor arena in the state of Hawai'i and home to University of Hawai'i football as well as the Hawai'i Bowl.

The Aloha Stadium Press Box is located on the makai (ocean) sideline on the loge (brown) level. The main booth seats approximately 60 print media, statisticians and game operations personnel. There are additional booths for home/visiting team radio, TV, home/visiting team coaches, the UH Athletics Director, and the UH Mānoa Chancellor.

For more information about the stadium, see page 7.

BROADCAST PARTNERS

TELEVISION PARTNER

Oceanic Time Warner Cable is the television rights holder of UH Athletics. Robert Kekaula, who has been part of the broadcast team for UH football since 1992, begins his sixth year in the television play-by-play role. Former Rainbow Warrior and UH assistant coach Rich Miano will join Kekaula to provide color commentary for the telecasts, with Scott Robbs continuing to report from the sidelines.

Also for the sixth year, OCSports will present expanded pre-game and post-game coverage, hosted by Kanoa Leahey. Joining him for Game On!, the halftime show and post-game show will be Rob DeMello, Nate Ilaoa and Leonard Peters.

Overlooking the turquoise waters of Pearl Harbor lies the home of the University of Hawai'i's football team, Aloha Stadium. The 50,000-seat facility has been home to the state of Hawai'i's only Division I football team for more than 40 years.

UH made its stadium debut on Sept. 13, 1975, against Texas A&I. Three seasons later, Hawai'i played in front of its first sold-out crowd but lost the 1978 season-finale to USC, 21-5.

Through the 1980s, fans swarmed to Aloha Stadium as the Rainbow Warriors consistently averaged more than 40,000 spectators per game. Nearly a half-million fans walked through the turnstiles in 1989, not including a sellout crowd in UH's first postseason bowl game, a 33-13 loss to Michigan State in the Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl.

The 1992 season, in which the Warriors claimed its first Western Athletic Conference Championship, was witnessed by an average of 44,432 fans per game. In 1999, Aloha Stadium became the venue for June Jones as he took over the helm of the Warrior football team and sparked the best turnaround in NCAA football history. The Warriors went on to appear in five Aloha Stadium bowl games under Jones and two more times under head coach Greg McMackin.

Hawai'i's Showcase

For more than 20 years, Aloha Stadium hosted the annual Aloha Bowl on Christmas Day. The O'ahu Bowl was added in 1998 and created the nation's first bowl doubleheader. Despite both bowls being moved away, Aloha Stadium now plays host to the annual Hawai'i Bowl, which is celebrating its 15th edition and is slated for Dec. 24 this year.

The Pro Bowl, which features the top athletes from the NFL, was held in February for 30 consecutive years (1980-2009), drawing sellout crowds. The NFL held its annual all-star game at Aloha Stadium all but twice from 1980-2016.

In addition, many big-name musicians have graced the Aloha Stadium stage in its 40-year history. Frank Sinatra, Michael Jackson, Janet Jackson, the Rolling Stones, the Eagles, Van Halen, Gloria Estefan, Mariah Carey, Whitney Houston, the Backstreet Boys, Celine Dion and U2 have all rocked the complex.

High schools also take advantage of the state's largest outdoor facility. The state's football, baseball and soccer championships have been held on Aloha Stadium's turf many times throughout the years. Many high schools even hold their commencement ceremonies there.

The Stadium

In the summer of 2016, the stadium installed UBU Speed Series S5-M turf, considered the newest generation of synthetic turf.

Four spacious locker rooms, fitted with 100 lockers, are available for each team. Additionally, there are lounges, training rooms and team meeting rooms. Decorating the stadium's loge section are two press boxes that seat nearly 200 members of the media, stadium officials and VIPs.

In addition to traditional stadium refreshments, Aloha Stadium features an array of worldwide dishes to satisfy every taste bud. This includes Hawaiian, Mexican, Italian, Cajun, Japanese, Greek, Chinese, American and other cuisines at concession stands throughout the facility. Aloha Stadium also provides first-aid, lost and found, security and disability parking and seating. The box office is open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A new LCD screen on the North scoreboard debuted in 2010, doubling the width of the old screen. Current ongoing construction projects include seat replacement, roof replacement, waterproofing and resurfacing, and reinforcement of the exterior beams.

NICK ROLOVICH

Head Coach
1st Season As Head Coach
5th Season At UH

Nick Rolovich was formally introduced as the University of Hawai'i's new head football coach during a press conference on December 1, 2015, at the UH Athletics Department Lecture Hall. A standing-room-only crowd welcomed the former UH quarterback and assistant coach who was hired after spending the previous four years as the University of Nevada offensive coordinator.

Rolovich is the 23rd head coach for the Rainbow Warrior program. At 37, he is the fifth-youngest head coach in NCAA Division I FBS and the youngest to lead the Rainbow Warriors since Dick Tomey in 1977.

Regarded as one of the top offensive minds in the country, Rolovich has proven an accomplished play-caller in operating the Run and Shoot, as well as the Pistol offense. The former UH offensive coordinator and record-setting quarterback returns to Mānoa from Nevada, where he aided the Wolf Pack to bowl eligibility in three of the past four seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Under Rolovich's guidance at Nevada, quarterback Cody Fajardo made NCAA history in 2014, reaching 9,000 yards passing and 3,000 yards rushing in a career—only the second player in NCAA history, following fellow Wolf Pack signal caller Colin Kaepernick, to reach that mark. In addition, he tutored Bryant Moniz to 10,169 career passing yards during his tenure at Hawai'i.

Since joining the Nevada staff in 2012, Rolovich's Wolf Pack offense has ranked as high as eighth nationally (2012) in total offense, generating 2,786 yards passing with Fajardo at quarterback, while boasting a seventh-ranked rushing attack paced by Stefphon Jefferson's 1,883 yards.

With Fajardo's graduation last season, Rolovich redoubled Nevada's running game efforts, which finished 25th nationally with 210.6 rushing yards per game as the Wolf Pack averaged over 200 yards for the second consecutive season. Under his guidance, the tandem of James Butler and Don Jackson ranked fifth and seventh in MW rushing, both exceeding 1,000 yards rushing. Butler led the conference in yards per carry (6.5).

During his time in Reno, the Wolf Pack made three bowls: the 2012 Gildan New Mexico Bowl, the 2014 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl and the 2015 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Rolovich has coached four quarterbacks who are currently on professional rosters: UH's Bryant Moniz (CFL – Saskatchewan Roughriders) and Shane Austin (AFL – Cleveland Gladiators); Nevada's Fajardo (CFL – Toronto Argonauts); and City College of San Francisco's Jeremiah Masoli (CFL – Hamilton Tiger Cats).

Rolovich led an improved Wolf Pack offense in 2014, averaging 29.2 points per game to jump from 11th to fourth in the Mountain West in scoring offense. Rolovich's ground game racked up 2,671 yards. The Nevada offense came up clutch numerous times in 2014, ranking second in the nation in fourth-quarter scoring.

In his second season at Nevada in 2013, the first under Brian Polian, Nevada averaged 429 yards per game and was 45th nationally in total offense, scoring over 30 points on five occasions. Rolovich joined Nevada in 2012, expanding his offensive repertoire under College Football Hall of Fame coach Chris Ault—labeled "The Godfather of the Pistol." Rolovich was one of three coaches retained when Ault retired.

In 2012, Rolovich helped Fajardo develop into one of the top young quarterbacks in the nation, completing 67 percent of his passes, while throwing for 2,786 yards with 20 touchdowns and 1,121 yards rushing for 12 more scores.

During his time in Reno, Rolovich guided 10 offensive players to all-Mountain West honors. He previously mentored nine UH offensive players to all-Western Athletic Conference honors.

Rolovich's first coaching stint at UH was wildly productive from 2008-11, directing one of the top passing offenses in the nation. He was the quarterbacks coach all four seasons and spent the final two years as the Warriors' offensive coordinator.

For the latter three years of his time with the Warriors, he had play-calling duties, while UH threw for 13,915 yards—an average of 347.9 yards per game—and 96 touchdowns. That includes the 2010 season in which Hawai'i led the nation in passing offense (394.3 ypg) and finished sixth in total offense (500.6 ypg). That year, Rolovich mentored former walk-on quarterback Moniz to the top of the NCAA charts in passing yards, total offense, and touchdowns, and to an eighth-place ranking in passing efficiency. Moniz's favorite targets were receivers Greg Salas and Kealoha Pilares, both of whom spent time in the NFL. Salas finished his career as the school's all-time leader in receiving yards (4,345), while Pilares is eighth in all-purpose yards (3,379).

Rolovich was a two-year letterwinner at quarterback for Hawai'i from 2000-01, starting the bulk of the 2001 season and leading the team to an 8-1 record as a starter. He passed for 4,176 career yards and 40 touchdowns and still holds six school passing records. The highlight of his career was perhaps one of the best performances in college football history. Rolovich led the Warriors to an upset over previously unbeaten and No. 9 BYU in the 2001 season finale, 72-45, with 543 yards and eight touchdowns. As a senior that season, he ranked 10th nationally in passing efficiency with a 150.5 rating and broke 19 school passing and eight total offense records. He ended his college career with three consecutive 500-yard passing games, engineering at least 52 points each outing.

Rolovich participated in the 2002 Hula Bowl and was named the game's Most Valuable Player, completing 10-of-18 passes for 171 yards and three touchdowns.

He came to UH from City College of San Francisco (CCSF), where he was a two-time All-American, and directed the school to a national championship in 1999 under legendary coach George Rush.

Following his collegiate playing career, Rolovich participated in the Dallas Cowboys mini-camp before signing with the Denver Broncos. He was released after the team's final preseason game in 2002. The next year, he was allocated to the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe, where he threw for 907 yards and led the Fire to World Bowl XI.

Rolovich got his coaching start in 2002 as an assistant coach for San Marin (Calif.) High School, later reuniting with his college coach, June Jones, in coaching the Run and Shoot offense as a student assistant at Hawai'i during the 2003-04 seasons.

Rush gave Rolovich his first full-time college coaching position as quarterbacks coach at CCSF, where he helped guide the Rams to a J.C. Gridwire National Championship in 2007. He also coached all-conference quarterbacks Zak Lee and Masoli, who went on to earn Division I scholarships at Nebraska and Oregon, respectively.

Rolovich balanced between extending his playing career and successfully coaching the next generation of players. Prior to his first stint coaching at UH, he returned to Denver in 2003 and was cut following training camp. From there he began a five-year career in the Arena Football League, beginning with the San Jose SaberCats. Serving as veteran Mark Grieb's backup, Rolovich was a member of the Arena Bowl Championship team. He then spent time with the Chicago Rush, Arizona Rattlers and Las Vegas Gladiators. While with the Gladiators, he threw for 1,248 yards and 23 touchdowns and had a passer rating of 104.8 in 2007 before retiring and accepting a full-time role at his alma mater on Greg McMackin's coaching staff.

The Novato, Calif., native earned his bachelor's degree in economics from UH in 2004 and a master's in human performance and sport from New Mexico Highlands (2007).

Rolovich and his wife, Analea, have three sons, Daniel, William and Patrick, and a daughter, Alana.

What People Are Saying About Rolo...

Robert Bley-Vroman, Interim Chancellor, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa
"I'm enthusiastic about Nick Rolovich's return to Hawai'i. He not only has what it takes to build a football program that we can be excited about, but he also knows from personal experience the challenges of combining a rigorous academic program with the demands of athletics. He's great for the fans, and he'll be great for our student-athletes, too."

David Matlin, Athletics Director, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa
"I'm pleased to welcome back Nick Rolovich to the UH 'ohana. Nick is a Warrior at heart and someone I know our fans will support. He understands what it means to be a Warrior having played and coached here, and what effect a winning program has with this community. I have no doubt we picked the right man for this job. The future is bright for Hawai'i football."

Brian Polian, Head Coach, Nevada
"We were thrilled to learn that Nick Rolovich has been named head football coach at the University of Hawai'i. This is a well-deserved opportunity for Nick and his wonderful family. We will miss him professionally, but even more so as a person. UH made a great decision."

Clay Helton, Head Coach, USC
"The respect that Nick has in our profession is second to none. He is a brilliant offensive-minded person. He has a knack in recruiting and in building relationships with players. He will do a great job leading Hawai'i."

Bryant Moniz, Former UH Quarterback, Current Saskatchewan Roughriders (CFL) Quarterback
"Rolo is the right man for the job. He's a players' coach. The one guy who I'd lay my body on the line for every day and that's what Hawai'i needs. A coach who our athletes will die to play for. I'm excited for the future of HAWAI'I WARRIOR FOOTBALL!"

Shane Austin, Former UH Quarterback, Current Cleveland Gladiators (AFL) Quarterback
"Rolo is the type of coach you look forward to working with each day because you know he always has something up his sleeve. Whether it's a new wrinkle to the offense, a team-bonding activity, or simply the joy and energy he brings to practice or meetings; he provides a great environment to succeed and has fun doing it! But most of all, he relates to the players in a different way because he was in our shoes not that long ago and knows what it takes to be successful. He was born for this new role as Head Coach and I'm confident he can take any team to that next level. One message he would always say that has stuck with me throughout my career is, 'Don't be afraid to be great!' The future is bright for Hawaii football!"

Greg Salas, Former UH and Current Buffalo Bills Receiver
"I think his young spirit that he brings sets him apart; he's done what it takes to play at the highest level here with some of the numbers he's put up. He just makes it fun for young players. He's very relatable; he makes practice fun. He's always upbeat; he's always in a good mood. He will make play calls that are in a funny name; he gives us all nicknames. Those are some of the fun things that he brings to the table. He's very smart too. It can't be understated how smart he is. He knows how to attack a defense. He's just a fun young guy and I'm super happy."

Greg Alexander, Former UH Quarterback
"UH is getting a guy who knows the program, knows the people and has great respect out there. Very smart football mind and great recruiter. Think it's a great hire."

Greg McMackin, Former UH Head Coach
"I am very happy and excited for Rolo. (Athletics Director) Dave Matlin made a great choice. Rolo is the man who will bring pride back to the Warrior 'Ohana. He has a God-given gift of relating to players and the community. He is a great recruiter and strategist. He has full knowledge of all phases of the game. Most importantly he cares about the State of Hawai'i, the University and the football program. He has the heart of a Warrior."

Chris Ault, Former Nevada Head Coach, College Football Hall of Fame Inductee
"Rolo's a good fit for Hawai'i. He understands where the program was and where it is. In football, anytime you can link the past with the present, it provides a defined and visible barometer of where you have to go."

Cody Fajardo, Former Nevada QB, Current Toronto Argonauts (CFL) QB
"Hawai'i is very lucky to get such an amazing coach. He is hands-down my favorite coach that I have played for and I can't thank him enough for helping me grow into an elite collegiate quarterback but more importantly as a man. I can't wait to follow his success as a head coach for the University of Hawai'i. He will be missed in the Silver and Blue."

Dave Aranda, Former UH Assistant Coach, Current LSU Defensive Coordinator
"Rolo has a leadership quality that you can't learn, he was born with it. Players love playing for him, coaches enjoy coaching with him. He is a great person first, and second, an excellent good football coach."

George Rush, Former City College of San Francisco Head Coach
"As a player, Rolo had tremendous leadership skills. I remember when he was a freshman, he broke his clavicle in the state championship against Palomar and he tried to throw with it. He wanted to play so badly; he is a terrific competitor who leads by example. As a player and young assistant, he prepared himself very well for this opportunity. How he handles himself is key to his success. He's bright, articulate, likeable and is a players' coach. I believe UH is in a transitional state and they need someone who identifies with the islands. He has roots with Hawai'i through his wife's family and he embraces the aloha culture. He personifies things you like in a head coach – enormous energy and talent – and I'm certain he'll do a wonderful job there."

Mouse Davis, Former UH Assistant Coach, Former Portland State Head Coach, Veteran Professional Football Coach
"Rolo is a great one; he gets along well with the players and coaches. Throwing the football at Hawai'i is key to their success. His ability to throw the football and build an offense around, which so many teams are doing now, is important to the program. And he has good knowledge to do just that. He's the right kind of guy and will bring with him a scheme that will allow him to succeed. I wish him well and hopefully he gets the program back on track."

Former University of Hawai'i offensive lineman and assistant Brian Smith returns to the Rainbow Warrior football program as associate head coach and offensive coordinator. This will be Smith's second coaching stint at UH and fifth season overall.

A teammate of Rolovich's during their playing days at UH, Smith played center from 1998-2001 and spent four years on former head coach Greg McMackin's staff from 2008-11.

Smith rejoins the program after spending the past three seasons as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Occidental College in Los Angeles, Calif. With Smith calling the plays, Occidental averaged 33.8 points and 480.6 yards of total offense per game in 2015 and featured Conference Player of the Year running back Kwame Do, who ran for a single-season record 1,571 yards (174.6 avg.) and 13 touchdowns. Do, who was second nationally in rushing in Division III, finished as the league's career rushing leader (4,133 yards) and ran for more than 1,000 yards each season with Smith on staff. All-conference quarterback Bryan Scott threw for 2,541 yards (282.3 avg.) and 22 touchdowns last season.

Prior to joining Occidental, Smith was offensive line coach at California Lutheran, his second stint at the school where he began his collegiate coaching career. In 2012, he helped the Kingsmen to a league championship and second-best scoring offense in NCAA Division III. Three of Smith's offensive linemen were named all-conference and one earned all-region honors.

Smith joined McMackin's staff at Hawai'i in 2008, coaching the offensive line in his first season and the running backs from 2009-11. Under Smith's tutelage, UH's run game was its most productive during the Run-and-Shoot era as the team rushed for 1,942 yards (106.4 per game) in 2010, its highest total in 15 years. Also that year, running back Alex Green broke a 60-year-old single-game rushing record by scampering for 327 yards against New Mexico State. Green finished the season with 1,199 yards, the second-highest total in school history.

Smith got his first taste of collegiate coaching as a student assistant at UH under former head coach June Jones in 2004. The following year, he joined Cal Lutheran's staff for his first full-time position where he coached the running backs and receivers. The following season, he worked as a graduate assistant at Oregon State, helping the Beavers to a 10-4 record in 2006 and a victory in the Sun Bowl.

After one year in Corvallis, he moved to Portland State as offensive line coach under head coach Jerry Glanville and offensive coordinator Mouse Davis. In his only season in Portland, the Vikings led the nation in passing and were tops in the Big Sky Conference in total offense.

Smith lettered at UH during the program's transition to the Run-and-Shoot offense. In addition to playing center, Smith started at long snapper during his four-year career and was a member of the 1999 squad which captured a share of the Western Athletic Conference title and won the Jeep O'ahu Bowl.

Smith started most of the team's games during his junior and senior seasons of which he centered for Rolovich. Following his playing career at UH, Smith spent some time in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers and Baltimore Ravens, playing both center and long snapper.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 2005 from UH and a master's of arts degree in educational leadership from California Lutheran in 2013. He is married to the former Liane Yim and they have a daughter, Chloe.

A veteran defensive coach with 42 years of coaching experience in both the collegiate and professional ranks, Kevin Lempa returns to Mānoa for his second stint as defensive coordinator with the University of Hawai'i, and his first season under head coach Nick Rolovich.

Lempa has coached some of the best defenses in the nation in both the NCAA and the NFL across his extensive career, most recently serving the past three seasons as Boston College's defensive backs coach in his third stretch at BC. In 2015, the Eagles ranked first in the nation in total defense, aided by Lempa's secondary, which ranked sixth nationally in passing defense, allowing only 171.5 passing yards per game.

Lempa was instrumental to a BC program that achieved back-to-back, seven-win seasons in 2013 and '14 and advanced to the 2013 AdvoCare v100 Independence Bowl and the 2014 New Era Pinstripe Bowl on the heels of a 2-10 campaign in 2012; the five-win improvement from 2012 to 2013 tied for fourth-best in the FBS.

Over the course of an extensive career, Lempa has coached in 13 collegiate bowl games, including 10 as an assistant coach at Boston College – two more at Maryland and one during his time at UH.

Lempa also has over two decades grooming defensive backs, and dozens of his former players went on to play professionally, including nine in the National Football League. Proving a strong mentor, he has guided players to all-ACC, all-WAC, all-Ivy League, all-Big East, all-ECAC and All-American honors. Most recently highlighting the list, All-ACC safety Justin Simmons led the team and ranked second in the conference in interceptions in 2015 at Boston College.

He rejoined the Boston College staff after having served as defensive coordinator at Columbia (2012) and Central Connecticut State (2011), following a four-year run at Maryland. During his first two seasons with the Terrapins, Lempa coached the entire defensive backfield and continued on to coach the program's safeties. In his first season in College Park, Lempa helped direct an impressive pass defense as the Terps yielded just 210.7 yards per game to rank 33rd in the country in pass defense.

Prior to his time at Maryland, Lempa spent four seasons (2003-06) as the secondary coach with BC, where he led one of the top units in both the Big East and ACC. The Eagles were among the nation's best in picking off passes in 2006, making 21 interceptions to tie for third nationally, trailing only Western Michigan (24) and Wake Forest (22). They also had 17 interceptions in 2004, which led the Big East. There he guided 2007 consensus All-America first-team selection Jamie Silva.

During his first stint with the Warriors, Lempa served as defensive coordinator under coach June Jones from 2000-02. During his tenure, Hawai'i placed high nationally in several defensive categories. The 2001 team not only improved from 3-9 the prior year but finished the season with a 9-3 record and put four players on the all-Western Athletic Conference (WAC) team. The Warriors led the nation with 21 fumble recoveries, in addition to 14 interceptions, including three for touchdowns.

Aided by team MVP and second-round NFL Draft pick (St. Louis) linebacker Pisa Tinoisamoa, the 2002 team climbed even higher, turning in a 10-4 record and playing in the ConAgra Foods Hawai'i Bowl. Again the aggressive Lempa-led defense provided ample turnovers, charting 25, with 18 interceptions—including a then-school-record four pick sixes. The Warrior defense also broke the UH record for most defensive scoring (32).

Prior to his time in Mānoa, Lempa spent three seasons (1997-99) in the NFL as a defensive assistant with the San Diego Chargers where he first worked with Jones. San Diego had one of the better defenses in the NFL during that period and led the league in yards allowed (263.0 ypg) in 1998.

Early in his career, he made his first run as defensive coordinator (defensive backs), serving at Dartmouth from 1991-96, when the Big Green won three Ivy League Championships and finished the 1996 season with a 10-0 record and a No. 16 national ranking in Division I-AA, aided by a Lempa defense which ranked second in the nation in points allowed per game.

His coaching career began at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State (1974-75), where he mentored the wide receivers for two years before one season at Wesleyan (1976); and three years at Maine (1977-80) where he switched to the defensive side, taking on the Black Bears' outside linebackers and special teams.

Lempa is a graduate of Southern Connecticut State University, where he played wide receiver. He has a master's degree from the University of Maine. He and his wife, Sara, have two grown children, Christopher and Tara.

MAYUR CHAUDHARI

Special Teams Coordinator ▸ Tight Ends
1st Season

Mayur Chaudhari joins the University of Hawai'i football program as the new special teams coordinator and tight ends coach under first-year head coach Nick Rolovich's coaching staff.

Chaudhari, the son-in-law of former University of Hawai'i head coach Dick Tomey, comes to Mānoa after two seasons as an assistant coach at Lenoir-Rhyne University, where he oversaw the special teams and secondary for the Bears.

In 2015, L-R topped the South Atlantic Conference (SAC) and ranked fourth in the nation in net punting under Chaudhari's guidance, the unit led by all-SAC punter Michael DeStephens, who improved his average by 3.5 yards after his sophomore season working with Chaudhari. The Bears' special teams also received a nod for all-SAC kick returner Kristaan Ivory, who led the conference with a 25.9 average and ranked fourth in the nation. Also in 2015, cornerback Ivan Milliken provided the Bears with four blocks on special teams; three punts and a field goal.

Also under Chaudhari's charge, rookie cornerback Kyle Dugger was named the SAC Defensive Freshman of the Year after intercepting four passes and breaking up six more, while also blocking two kicks and scoring touchdowns on a punt return and blocked field goal. Another L-R corner, Cliff Barrett, drew national attention on a highlight-reel interception, earning No. 1 on that week's ESPN SportsCenter Top 10 Plays. Safety Chris Shaffer also was named for first-team all-SAC honors and picked up CoSIDA Academic All-America second-team accolades after recording 157 takedowns and six picks.

In 2014, L-R finished 11-1 and claimed the conference title and No. 1 seed in the NCAA Playoffs, before finishing the season No. 8 in the nation. Under Chaudhari in 2014, both free safety Marcus Kincaid and placekicker Justin Powell earned all-SAC accolades. Powell also earned all-region and All-American honors as well after making 11-of-13 field-goal attempts and 54-of-57 extra points.

Chaudhari arrived at L-R after spending one season (2013) as Army West Point's safeties coach, serving as an assistant under former University of Hawai'i defensive coordinator Rich Ellerson. He was also the United States Military Academy's head junior varsity coach during his stint in West Point, fulfilling roles as the defensive and special teams coordinator. One of Chaudhari's Black Knights safeties, Thomas Holloway, earned second-team Capital One CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, leading the team in tackles despite missing four games.

Chaudhari also coached at the U.S. Military Academy Prep School as the special teams coordinator, and worked with the secondary, linebackers and wide receivers for two seasons (2011-12). In addition, Chaudhari was the school's head track and field coach.

Chaudhari also had stints at Virginia Military Institute (2010) as safeties and nickels coach and San José State (2008-09) as a graduate assistant with roles as special teams, safeties and linebackers coach, where he worked under coach Tomey. At SJSU, Chaudhari mentored current Washington Redskins safety Duke Ihenacho to first-team all-Western Athletic Conference honors in 2009.

While in recent years he has coached on the eastern seaboard, Chaudhari's roots are on the west coast, holding numerous tenures in California, including one season at his alma mater, UC Davis (2007), as linebackers coach following a year at Stanford (2006) as a defensive intern aiding the secondary coaches and Menlo College (2005), where he worked with the team's running backs, served as video coordinator and assisted in recruiting.

He began his collegiate coaching career at UC Davis in 1998 as video coordinator and an offensive assistant. Following his initial season, his role expanded and assisted with running backs and tight ends while continuing to serve as video coordinator. In addition to his football workload, he also competed for UC Davis men's lacrosse.

Building up greater special-teams experience during the summer of 2015, he participated in a Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Atlanta Falcons.

Chaudhari is married to the former Leigh Kincaid, who is the daughter of former University of Hawai'i head coach Dick Tomey (1977-86). A San Jose native, he earned his bachelor's degree in English with a history minor from UC Davis in 2002.

Stutzmann, a former Warrior and UH teammate of Rolovich, was a four-year letterman (1998-2001) and three-year starter at slotback. At the end of his senior year, he ranked fifth on the school's all-time receiving list (2,025 yards). Stutzmann was also a two-time honorable-mention all-Western Athletic Conference selection.

As the primary play-caller for E&H's spread-and-shred offense, the Wasps averaged 32.7 points and 440.0 yards of total offense per game in 2015. Quarterback Kevin Saxton threw for 2,541 yards and 20 touchdowns with only five interceptions. In his first season at E&H in 2014, he transformed the Wasps' offense into an up-tempo threat, which averaged 36.6 points and 466 yards per game. Saxton was named the conference's Rookie of the Year and was third team all-league.

Prior to E&H, Stutzmann spent two years at Weber State in Ogden, Utah, where he coached the receivers. One of his receivers, Erik Walker, led the Wildcats with 62 catches for 658 yards and three touchdowns in 2013 and was an honorable-mention all-Big Sky Conference pick. Another receiver, Xavian Johnson, earned honorable mention in 2011.

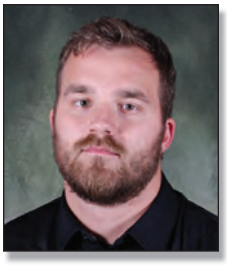

Stutzmann spent the 2012 season at Division III Rhodes College in Memphis, Tenn., where he helped the Lynx average nearly 300 passing yards per game, which ranked 15th nationally. In 2010, he was a graduate assistant at Memphis, which followed a one-year stint as wide receivers coach at Portland State, Stutzmann's first full-time coaching position. At PSU, he took charge of implementing the pass game and oversaw the kickoff returners, including Aaron Woods who was one of the nation's leaders in all-purpose yardage.

Stutzmann also served as a graduate assistant at UH under former head coach Greg McMackin during the 2008 season and was part of the offensive coaching staff, which included Rolovich and Smith.

The Saint Louis School graduate began his coaching career at Kalaheo High School in Kailua, O'ahu, where he spent one year as a teacher and offensive coordinator before moving on to his alma mater where he coached for four years.

Following his collegiate playing career at Hawai'i, Stutzmann played one year of professional football for the B.C. Lions of the Canadian Football League. The Honolulu native has a bachelor's degree in political science from UH in 2002 and a master's degree in education from UH in 2014.

Sean Duggan coaches the linebackers in his first season with the University of Hawai'i under head coach Nick Rolovich.

Duggan comes to UH from Boston College, where he coached alongside current UH defensive coordinator Kevin Lempa as a defensive graduate assistant after a four-year playing career with the Eagles. Duggan and Lempa were a part of a BC defensive staff that produced the nation's top total defense. The unit also was fourth nationally in points allowed (15.3), in addition to ranking second in run defense (82.8 rushing YPG) and sixth in pass defense (171.5 passing YPG).

Working with the linebackers, Duggan helped guide first team all-ACC inside linebacker Stephen Daniels, who led BC with 82 tackles, including 16 for loss and six sacks.

COACHING EXPERIENCE
- 2016-: Hawai'i Assistant (Linebackers)
- 2015: Boston College Graduate Assistant

As a player, Duggan played in 45 games for the Eagles, recording 115 career tackles, including 49 solo stopsand 6.5 tackles for a loss of 12 yards. He was voted a captain by his teammates prior to the start of the 2014 season. He forced a fumble and recovered two while donning the maroon and gold and made an interception in his senior campaign, returning it 15 yards in a victory against Syracuse.

A Cincinnati, Ohio, native, Duggan earned all-Ohio Division I second-team honors out of St. Xavier. He earned his marketing degree from BC's Carroll School of Management in 2014.

ABE ELIMIMIAN

- 2012: Washington State Graduate Assistant (DBs)
- 2010-11: Southern Methodist Graduate Assistant (Secondary)
- 2009: Crenshaw HS Assistant (Defensive Coordinator)

Former Rainbow Warriors cornerback Abe Elimimian returned to his alma mater in 2015 as the secondary coach and continues at Hawai'i for his second year back in Mānoa and first season under new coach Nick Rolovich.

In 2015, Elimimian's defensive backs proved to be a strength for the defense early in the season, holding seven opponents to fewer than 200 yards passing and allowing only one 300-yard passing game. UH allowed only three 100-yard receivers in the entire 13-game slate.

Under Elimimian's charge, the secondary generated 35 pass breakups on the year, led by all-Mountain West honorable-mention cornerback Nick Nelson, who came within striking distance of the single-season pass breakups record, knocking down 15 passes, the second-highest total in the Mountain West and tied for 11th most in the NCAA. In addition, senior safety Marrell Jackson tied for second in the conference and seventh nationally with three fumble recoveries.

During the final game of the 2015 season, Elimimian assumed defensive play-calling duties against Louisiana Monroe, a season-ending 28-26 victory for UH. In that game, UH's defense allowed only 20 points, with ULM notching a late defensive TD.

An all-conference defensive back under then-head coach June Jones, Elimimian returned to UH after a one-year stint at Simon Fraser (British Columbia, Canada), where he was the defensive coordinator during the 2014 campaign.

Prior to SFU, Elimimian served as a graduate assistant at Washington State under Mike Leach in 2012, where he assisted with the defensive backs. Elimimian arrived at WSU after two seasons as a graduate assistant under his former coach at Southern Methodist (SMU).

Assisting with the defensive secondary, Elimimian aided the Mustangs to an appearance in the 2010 Armed Forces Bowl and a victory in the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl. In the latter, SMU's defense held Pittsburgh to just 10 rushing yards and a bowl-record-low six points.

In 2010, Elimimian helped lead SMU defensive backs Chris Banjo and Richard Crawford to all-Conference USA honors.

Elimimian began his coaching career in 2009, serving as the defensive coordinator for his high school alma mater, Crenshaw High School, helping guide the Cougars to a 14-1 record, a Los Angeles City Championship and to the Open State California State Championship game.

Under his tutelage, six players earned Division I scholarships. These players included De' Anthony Thomas (Oregon), Hayes Pullard (USC), Greg Ducree (Washington), Marcus Andrews (San Diego State), Clint Floyd (Arizona State), and Noel Grigsby (San José State).

Prior to coaching, Elimimian played professionally for NFL Europe's Amsterdam Admirals in 2006 and '07. During the 2007 season, he started every game at cornerback and led the team in pass breakups. Elimimian signed as a free agent with the Chicago Bears in 2006 and the San Diego Chargers in 2005.

Elimimian played for Jones in the UH secondary from 2001-04, with the team registering a 36-17 record during his career, logging three Hawai'i Bowl appearances—recording victories in 2003 over Houston and 2004 over UAB.

The Los Angeles native ranks fourth on the UH all-time career interceptions list with 12 picks and is 18th in career tackles (189)—he remains tied for the school's single-game interception record with three against UTEP. He was a first-team all-Western Athletic Conference (WAC) pick as a senior and also appeared as a starter in the 2005 Senior Bowl.

He graduated from Hawai'i in 2004 with a degree in political science and a minor in speech. His younger brother, Solomon, also played at UH and was a member of the 2007 team that went 12-1 and played in the Sugar Bowl and is now a starting linebacker for the B.C. Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Kefense Hynson begins his first season at the University of Hawai'i, coaching wide receivers on Nick Rolovich's inaugural staff.

Hynson has accumulated collegiate experience coaching receivers, quarterbacks, running backs, tight ends and defensive backs. He has worked at the Division I FBS and FCS and Division II levels, in addition to several internships in the NFL.

He comes to UH after one season at Norfolk State in the same position. With just one year under his guidance, the Spartans improved from a 113th national ranking in passing yards to 77th, putting up an additional 450 yards receiving on the year.

Prior to NSU, Hynson served three seasons at the University of Montana, including the last two years as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In his first season with the Grizzlies, he coached the tight ends and special teams.

In 2014, Hynson helped Montana finish 9-5 and reach the second round of the FCS playoffs. The Grizzlies finished the season ranked 11th (FCS Coaches) and 13th (Sports Network) in the two major Division I FCS polls. UM averaged 29.6 points and 226.6 passing yards per game behind quarterback Jordan Johnson, who earned honorable mention all-Big Sky Conference honors.

The previous year, Johnson passed for 32 touchdowns and 3,387 yards, both of which ranked among the top five single-season totals in school history, ranked 14th nationally and had the highest scoring average (37.7 PPG) since 1999—during Hynson's first season as co-offensive coordinator. The Grizzlies ranked second in the always offensively-elite Big Sky in scoring that season.

With Hynson as co-offensive coordinator, UM produced a 1,000-yard receiver in consecutive seasons, including the most prolific receiver in history, Jamaal Jones, who tallied 1,044 yards receiving and eight touchdowns for second-team all-Big Sky honors in 2014. Jones followed 2013 second team all-Big Sky receiver Ellis Henderson, who registered 1,008 yards and a program third-best 14 receiving touchdowns.

Before joining the Montana staff, Hynson coached the wide receivers and was co-offensive coordinator at Yale from 2009-11. That followed a three-year stint at Division II Western Washington (2006-08), where he served as offensive coordinator for the final two seasons. Hynson's offense in his final season at Western Washington averaged 404 total yards, nearly 30 points a game and had 29 touchdown passes.

Hynson was running backs coach at Minnesota State in 2005 and director of football operations at Boise State in 2004 when the Broncos went 11-1, won the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) title and were ranked in both major polls. He has also held assistant coaching jobs at Quincy (defensive backs coach, 2004) and Willamette (assistant receivers coach, 2003) and completed NFL minority coaching fellowships with Seattle (2008), Oakland (2009), Kansas City (2010), Houston (2013) and Detroit (2014).

Hynson was selected to participate in the 2009 NCAA Football Coaches Academy and the 2011 NCAA Expert Forum.

Hynson was an honorable mention All-America defensive back at Willamette University in Oregon. He was a three-time Northwest Conference All-Star and served as team captain before graduating with his bachelor's degree in history in 2003.

An Oakland, Calif. native, Hynson and his wife, Shanina, have three children – Jade, Myles and Layla.

NFL veteran and Kahuku High School graduate Chris Naeole returns for his fourth season at Hawai'i and first year under new head coach Nick Rolovich. Naeole guided the UH program through a crucial transition period during the 2015 season, serving the program as interim head coach for the final four games, finishing with a 1-3 record.

In 2015, during his third season with the program, Naeole was assistant head coach and offensive line coach for the Warriors, and his teaching helped transform the offensive line unit into a hard-nosed and physical group, modeled after his style of play as an All-American and NFL guard.

Under his guidance in 2015, the UH offensive line produced its first 1,000-yard rusher since the 2010 season, as Paul Harris registered 1,132 yards and six touchdowns on the ground. In addition, the unit improved on total sacks allowed for the second consecutive year, recording the fewest in nine seasons. Senior tackle Ben Clarke earned all-MW honorable mention and was on the Lombardi Trophy watch list for the second straight year, collecting three of his four conference awards under Naeole's tutelage, and starting 50 consecutive games, in addition to consecutive seasons as a MW Scholar Athlete. Joining Clarke as all-MW honorable mention was sophomore guard Dejon Allen.

Naeole, a 1992 Kahuku High School graduate, played collegiately at Colorado where he was a consensus All-American as a senior in 1996. He was a three-year starter for the Buffs and only allowed one sack over his career. Naeole was the recipient of the John Mack Award, given to the team's Most Outstanding Offensive Player. He graduated from the university with a degree in sociology and a 3.0 grade point average.

Raised in Ka'a'awa, O'ahu, Naeole became the state of Hawai'i's then-highest draft pick, having been selected by the New Orleans Saints with the 10th overall pick in the 1997 NFL Draft. Naeole was also the highest-selected guard since 1988, and first Colorado offensive lineman selected in the first round since 1980.

He spent 12 years playing for both the Saints (1997-2001) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2002-08) before an injury ended his career in the middle of the season. He missed only one NFL game prior to the injury and started 150 of 154 career games.

Following his playing career, Naeole began coaching, spending his first three years as the defensive line coach at 'Iolani School under head coach Wendell Look. He also has participated in NFL summer internships with the Jaguars and Green Bay Packers in recent years and made guest-coaching appearances at clinics and camps throughout Hawai'i, New Orleans and Jacksonville.

Naeole earned numerous All-America honors as a senior at Kahuku. As a two-way star, he garnered first-team accolades by Prep Football Report, second-team from Blue Chip Report and honorable mention from USA Today. In addition to playing offensive guard, he was a defensive tackle for the Red Raiders and recorded 56 tackles, five sacks, eight passes deflected, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries as a senior.

From there, Naeole signed with Colorado where he was a two-time first-team all-Big 12 pick. He played on four bowl teams—including a 1993 Aloha Bowl victory over Fresno State—and was a starter on the Fiesta and Cotton Bowl-winning teams.

Naeole and his wife, Tara, have two children, Azure and Christian, and reside in Honolulu.

Lawrence "Legi" Suiaunoa begins his first season with the University of Hawai'i, coaching the defensive line as a member of head coach Nick Rolovich's inaugural staff.

Entering his 15th season of coaching at the collegiate level, Suiaunoa comes to UH after five seasons in the same position at the University of Montana, where he developed numerous all-conference players as a foundation for the Grizzlies' consistent top-level defense. During the 2013-14 seasons at UM, Suiaunoa also served in the role of associate head coach.

Under his guidance, senior consensus All-American defensive end Tyrone Holmes led the Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in sacks (18) in 2015, and wrapped his career with 34.5 sacks, ranking second on the school's all-time leaders list behind another Suiaunoa pupil, Zach Wagenma. Holmes was one of three finalists for the Buck Buchanan Award (FCS Defensive Player of the Year) in 2015.

In addition, Suiaunoa mentored defensive tackle Caleb Kidder to first-team all-Big Sky Conference honors after a 71-tackle junior campaign in 2015 following an injury rehab, logging seven pass deflections, six pass break-ups, an interception, a fumble recovery, and a blocked kick.

In 2014, Montana ranked among the FCS leaders in several defensive categories. The Griz were ranked seventh in the country in sacks (3.20 SPG), 19th in scoring defense (21.0 PPG), and 36th in tackles for loss (6.8 TFL/Gm).

Over the previous three seasons, Suiaunoa also guided the development of record-setting defensive end Zach Wagenmann, who was named first team all-Big Sky and was tabbed 2014 Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year. Under Suiaunoa's tutelage, Wagenmann set school records in career sacks (37.5), career tackles for loss (53), and career forced fumbles (11).

Senior defensive tackle Tonga Takai joined Wagenmann on the league's first team in 2014, while Holmes and defensive tackle Trevor Rehm were honorable-mention selections that season.

In 2013, UM ranked second in the FCS in sacks (3.73 per game), fourth in rush defense (92.55 yards per game), fifth in fumble recoveries (16), and 28th in scoring defense (22.9 PPG).

Suiaunoa came to Montana from Portland State, where he worked with the defensive line during the 2010 season.

Prior to his stint at PSU, he spent the 2009 season at Eastern Oregon as the defensive coordinator following a four-year stint at Western Washington (2005-08) coaching defensive line and linebackers, in addition to serving as strength and conditioning coach.

He was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nevada, in 2004.

Suiaunoa began his coaching career at Palomar (Calif.) Junior College in 2002-03, working with the linebackers. The Comets were 8-3 in 2003, reaching the first round of Southern California JC playoffs and were 10-1 in 2002, winning the Mission Conference championship and were ranked fourth in the nation in the final JC Grid-Wire Poll.

While his player career began at Palomar, he moved on to a three-year career as a linebacker at Nevada, earning his general studies administration degree in 2002. He was a two-year starter for the Wolf Pack and was recipient of the 2001 Coaches' Award.

An Oceanside, Calif., native, Suiaunoa and his wife, Rose, have three teenage girls—Malae (18), Sarai (16), and Rosalani (15); two sons—Lawrence (5) and Ramsey (2); and an infant daughter, Timena.

BUBBA REYNOLDS

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator
1st Season

Joseph "Bubba" Reynolds joined the University of Hawai'i strength and conditioning staff in January 2016 as the primary strength coach on first-year head coach Nick Rolovich's UH football coaching staff.

Reynolds came to Mānoa from the University of Nevada, where he spent three years on the strength staff, most recently serving one year as the associate director of strength and conditioning, assisting strength director Matt Eck in the design, implementation, execution and assessment of the Wolf Pack football team's training program. He was also the primary coach for the women's basketball, softball and 2016 Mountain West Champion swim and dive teams.

While completing his master's degree, he joined Nevada's Learfield Sports unit, Wolf Pack Sports Properties, as an intern, working with marketing and sponsorships.

Prior to his full-time position at Nevada, Reynolds spent two seasons as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach, also with the Wolf Pack, where he cut his teeth working with the Nevada football team while also developing and executing training programs for the softball, swimming and diving, golf and cheer programs.

Before Reno, Reynolds began coaching at the NCAA Division I level as a strength and conditioning intern at Notre Dame, working directly with diving, cross country and men's rugby, while also assisting in the implementation of programs for 25 olympic-lifting teams.

Reynolds got his coaching start in strength and conditioning at his alma mater, Humboldt State, as a student assistant strength coach, aiding in the training programs of the football team, as well as softball and men's and women's basketball, also preparing youth strength and conditioning summer programs. During his time in Arcata, he completed field experience at HSU's Human Performance Lab.

He has received certifications for CsCCa-SCCC-Strength and Conditioning Coach, PN- Level 1 Precision Nutrition, FMS- Level 1 Functional Movement Systems and NSCA-CSCS - Strength and Conditioning.

Reynolds was a standout linebacker at Humboldt State, earning second-team all-Great Northwest Athletic Conference (GNAC) honors as a senior team captain, a season in which he set a conference single-game record with 25 tackles against Dixie State. He also played rugby while at HSU. He began his playing career at Orange Coast College.

A native of Huntington Beach, Calif., Reynolds earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a minor in recreation from Humboldt State in 2011, going on to receive a master's in educational leadership from Nevada in 2015.

LOIS MANIN

Director of Football Operations
1st Season As DFO
18th Year At UH

Lois Manin returns to the University of Hawai'i as the football program's director of football operations. Manin spent the past eight-and-a-half years as deputy manager at Aloha Stadium, the state's largest outdoor arena.

Manin returns to the UH Athletics Department where she spent 17 years (1991-2007) primarily in Media Relations, the last 12 as its director. During her time at UH, Manin was the primary media liaison for the Rainbow Warrior football program which made five bowl appearances during her tenure and won nine or more games in five seasons. She worked with three head football coaches, three athletics directors and spearheaded the Heisman Trophy campaigns for quarterbacks Timmy Chang and Colt Brennan.

At the time, Manin was one of only a handful of female head media relations directors in the country. She is only the fourth female director of football operations in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

The Honolulu native joined Aloha Stadium manager Scott Chan's staff in 2007. Her responsibilities included the day-to-day operations for numerous areas of the stadium, while also serving as administrator for the swap meet and marketplace and food and beverage contracts. She also handled media and public relations.

Manin fills one of the program's most important positions which includes assisting the head coach in all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the football program.

Manin is a graduate of Colorado State University where she received a bachelor's in technical journalism. She was a four-year letterwinner for the school's softball team and earned all-conference and all-region honors. A three-sport athlete at Honolulu's Kaiser High School, Manin also earned all-state and all-league honors in softball.

JASON CVERCKO

Director of Recruiting & Retention
1st Season

Jason Cvercko enters his first season in 2016 as the director of recruiting and retention at the University of Hawai'i under head coach Nick Rolovich.

Cvercko comes to UH after one season as the coordinator of recruiting operations at the University of Nevada, where he worked alongside Rolovich, assisting a program that won the inaugural Arizona Bowl in 2015.

Prior to working on Brian Polian's staff at Nevada, Cvercko served as the director of football operations at Stony Brook University three years. With his assistance, the Seawolves' staff was able to sign Will Tye as a transfer, who went on to become the starting tight end for the New York Giants.

With the Seawolves, Cvercko also played a key role on the 2012 Big South Championship team that gave the program only its second Division I Football Championship appearance. The West Hartford, Conn., native also assisted the program in its move to the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA).

At both Stony Brook and Nevada, Cvercko served as the program's pro liaison.

Cvercko previously worked at the University of Massachusetts in 2011 as a recruiting and operations assistant where he assisted with the Minutemen's jump to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

As an undergraduate, Cvercko served as a recruiting intern at the University of Connecticut beginning in 2009, before graduating with his bachelor's degree in physical education in 2011. He was a member of Randy Edsall's staff when the Huskies made its first BCS bowl appearance in the Fiesta Bowl in 2011.

Cvercko and his wife Jordan were married in July 2016.

OLIVIA VEA

Video Coordinator
1st Season

Olivia "Oli" Vea enters her seventh season with the Rainbow Warriors and first as the team's video coordinator.

Vea's work with the program began as a student manager under head coach Greg McMackin in 2010 when UH advanced to the Hawai'i Bowl against the Tulsa Golden Hurricane.

After serving as a team manager for two seasons, she became a graduate assistant on Norm Chow's staff, a move which allowed her to work closely with her passion of film. In 2015, she was promoted to video specialist, where she produced highlight videos and managed practices and game-day productions.

Vea is a 2007 graduate of Kaimuki High School on O'ahu, where as a junior she first got involved in athletics. Aside from working at UH athletics, Vea has also served as an intern with the hit TV show Hawaii Five-O, assisting with production.

Vea graduated from UH in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in creative media, and is currently pursuing her master's degree in Pacific Island Studies.

JOHN ESTES

Graduate Assistant

Former Rainbow Warriors center John Estes returns to his alma mater to join first-year-head coach Nick Rolovich's inaugural staff as a graduate assistant for the 2016 season. He assists coaching the offensive line.

During his time in Mānoa, Estes set an NCAA record for most consecutive games started at 54 from 2006-09 and was a three-time first-team all-Western Athletic Conference pick, becoming just the sixth player in program history to do so. As a senior, Estes was named to the watch lists of the Rimington, Outland and Lombardi awards and was rated among the Top 5 centers by several NFL Draft-ranking services.

As a sophomore in 2007, Estes helped the Warriors rank No. 1 nationally in scoring (43.4), second in passing (439.5), and third in total offense (512.1) as UH went undefeated during the regular season and earned a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl. During his junior year, he helped the Warriors reach their third consecutive bowl game – Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl – and in his senior season, Estes and the Warriors were coached by then-offensive play caller Rolovich who was part of former head coach Greg McMackin's staff.

Estes signed as an undrafted free agent in 2010 with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent his rookie season on the injured list after suffering a knee injury in preseason. He served as a backup center in the 2011 season, however was placed back on the injured list in 2012. In 2015, he signed as a free agent to the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. He played in five regular-season games as well as the Western Final game against provincial rivals, the Edmonton Eskimos.

A native of Stockton, Calif., Estes earned his bachelor's degree in communications from UH in 2009.

MAKANA GARRIGAN

Graduate Assistant

Makana Garrigan begins his first season with the University of Hawai'i as a graduate assistant under first-year head coach Nick Rolovich. Coaching on the defensive side of the ball, he assists with the linebackers.

Garrigan came to UH from the University of Nevada where he coached, opposite of Rolovich, on the defensive end as a graduate assistant. He assisted with defensive backs and linebackers, assisted with the breakdown of opponent film, created playbooks and was responsible for recruiting in the surrounding areas of California, Oregon, and Washington, as well as junior colleges.

Prior to becoming a graduate assistant, Garrigan served as a student assistant at Nevada from 2012-15. He assisted with drills, ran scout units, assisted in the breakdown of opponent film, helped prepare for meetings and practice plans, served as a signal caller during games and helped in all areas of recruiting. Garrigan was also a part of the staff that took the Wolf Pack to the 2015 Arizona Bowl, the 2014 New Orleans Bowl, and the 2012 Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

Garrigan began his coaching career as a summer coach for Casa Grande High School from 2012-14 where he instructed positional drills for wide receivers and defensive backs. He also assisted with defensive backs and wide receivers in the 2014 Tri-County All-Star Game in the Northern Bay Area where he implemented 0-, 1-, 2-, and 3-coverage shells.

A native of Petaluma, Calif., Garrigan graduated in 2011 from Casa Grande High School where he was a four-year letterwinner. Garrigan caught 53 passes for 776 yards and 11 touchdowns. He set the school records for tackles (307) and interceptions (17), recording 11 in one season. He also earned co-Conference Player of the Year in 2011.

Garrigan was originally recruited to play for Nevada in 2011 but suffered from an ongoing injury and was medically disqualified before the start of his freshman season. Eager to still be around the game, he rejoined the program as a student assistant coach.

MARC MOODY

Graduate Assistant
1st Season

Marc Moody joins the University of Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors football staff as a graduate assistant for the 2016 season under first-year head coach Nick Rolovich. He assists with coaching the defensive line.

Moody comes to UH after five seasons as a member of the Pacific University football staff, most recently as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He was responsible for calling plays on the sidelines as well as in the box, creating defensive playbooks and weekly game plans. He was also in charge of recruiting in the Hawai'i and Southern California regions.

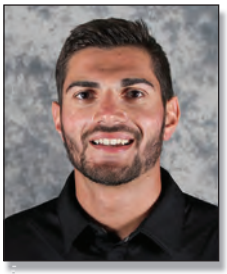

Moody joined the Pacific staff as a defensive assistant and assistant linebackers coach in 2012 and was the defensive ends coach from June 2012 to July 2013 while earning his bachelor's degree. In July 2013, Moody was named the defensive line coach, JV defensive coordinator, and equipment manager for the Boxers. That season, he helped the Boxers' defense lead the Northwest Conference in sacks (35) and rank fifth nationally with 3.5 sacks per game.

Moody coached three all-conference players in 2013 – second-team defensive end Sean Bangs, second-team defensive tackle Devin Lagorio, and honorable mention defensive end Alex Willeford. The following year, he helped the defense rank second in the NWC in sacks (25) and coached two all-conference players – first-team defensive end Jeff Bajema and second-team defensive tackle Eddie Carrillo.

A 2007 graduate of Saint Louis School in Honolulu, Moody played his freshman season at Mississippi Valley State where he was an all-Southwestern Athletic Conference second-team pick and was the runner-up for the conference's Freshman of the Year award.

Moody spent the 2008 season as a redshirt at Hawai'i before transferring to Saddleback Junior College for the 2009 season. He finished that season with 83 yards receiving and two touchdowns and recorded 14 tackles at linebacker, including eight solo tackles. Following the 2009 season, Moody transferred to Pacific to play out the remainder of his collegiate career. In 2010, he started three games at linebacker before his season ended early due to injury. In 2011, he saw action in seven games and recorded nine solo tackles and seven assisted tackles.

A native of 'Ewa Beach, O'ahu, Moody received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from Pacific in 2012. He and his wife, Ashley, have one daughter, Mia Lei.

MIKAHAEL WATERS

Graduate Assistant
1st Season

Mikahael Waters joins the University of Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors football staff in 2016 for his first year as a graduate assistant under first-year head coach Nick Rolovich. Working on the offensive side of the ball, he assists with coaching the wide receivers.

Waters comes to UH after two seasons at the University of Nevada as a student assistant where he worked on offense with Rolovich, and opposite of fellow graduate assistant Makana Garrigan. Waters assisted the Wolf Pack quarterbacks, ran drills and scout units, helped prepare practice plans, was a game-day signal caller, and assisted in all areas of recruiting.

Waters got his start with the Wolf Pack in 2013 as a student manager. He was also part of the staff that took Nevada to the 2014 New Orleans Bowl and the 2015 Arizona Bowl in which the Wolf Pack defeated Colorado State.

Born in Cape Town, South Africa, Waters moved to the U.S. when he was four years old. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nevada in May 2015.

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

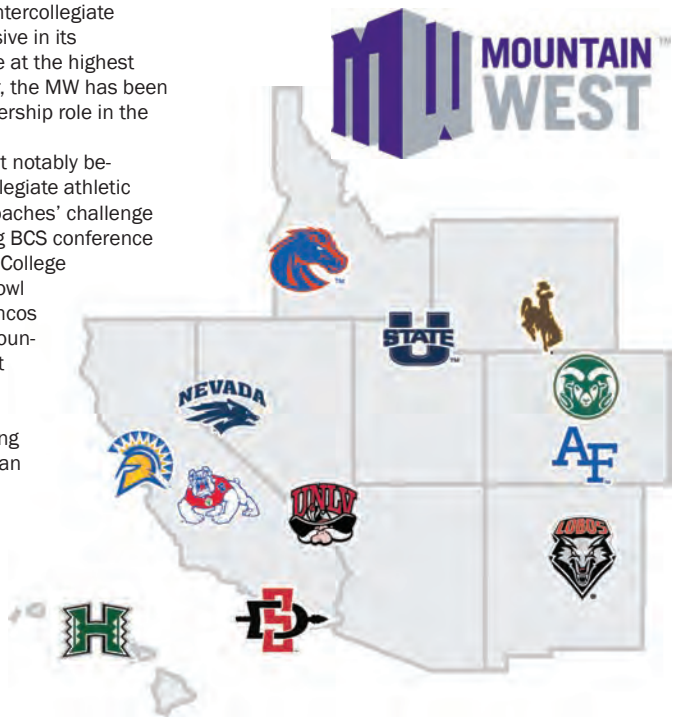

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 18th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 17 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the new NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. San Diego State President Elliot Hirshman currently sits on the DI Board of Directors, while MW Commissioner Craig Thompson and New Mexico Director of Athletics Paul Krebs are members of the DI Council. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2016 season, the MW has six contracted bowl affiliations – the Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, Hawai'i Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl and NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl. The league also has a secondary agreement with the Cactus Bowl. An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in six inaugural bowl games as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

Now entering its third season in the championship format, the postseason playoff era of college football continues in 2016-17. The format remains the same: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and a national championship game played in a different city each year. This season, each semifinal will be played on New Year's Eve with the national championship game on Jan. 9 at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Fla.

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performance during the regular season, including strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that No. 1 will play No. 4 in one semifinal and No. 2 will meet No. 3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

The semifinals will rotate among six different bowls, extending the experience to more fans. In the years when the bowls are not hosting semifinals, the bowls will feature eight other teams in four compelling matchups.

The highest-rated champion from among the five non-contracted conferences (American, C-USA, MAC, MW, Sun Belt, or one chosen by the playoff selection committee) is guaranteed a slot in the system.

The Hawai'i Bowl offers the University of Hawai'i an automatic spot if it wins a minimum of seven games or finishes with a .500 record. UH has qualified for the bowl six times since the bowl's inception in 2002 and have won three of those games (2003, '04, '06).

In 2012, the Mountain West began an affiliation with the bowl. In the event UH does not qualify for the bowl, a MW team will be invited.

This year's Hawai'i Bowl, the 15th edition, will feature a MW vs. Conference-USA matchup. The game will be played at Aloha Stadium on Christmas Eve and televised nationally on ESPN.

Nevada has appeared in three bowls in 2005, '09, and '11 while Boise State made two appearances in 2007 and '13.

HOMECOMING GAMES

UH boasts a 37-28-1 all-time record in Homecoming games since 1949. The Rainbow Warriors have lost their last three Homecoming games after winning 10 straight from 2002-11. UH's longest Homecoming win streak is 11 straight from 1967-77. The only tie occurred in 1952 against Willamette (7-7). This year's game is scheduled for Oct. 15 against UNLV.

After a promising start to the season, with a pair of early home wins and competitive road games against Big Ten foes, the 2015 season took a downturn with the first Mountain West contest. The Rainbow Warriors went 0-8 in conference play after a 2-2 start and finished with a fifth consecutive non-winning season which led to a coaching change.

With limited passing game success, first-year running back Paul Harris shined for the 'Bows, reeling off four consecutive 100-yard games to tie a school record last set in 1979. With six total 100-yard games, Harris became the first 1,000-yard rusher for UH since 2010, the second since 1992 and ninth in program history. He finished the year with 197 carries for 1,132 yards and was tied for the team-high with six touchdowns.

Another first-year player who proved his mettle in 2015 was multi-talented kicker Rigoberto Sanchez. He was one of only four players across the nation handling all four kicking duties for their respective teams. Pegged on the Ray Guy Award watch list, Sanchez ranked third in the MW and 13th nationally in punting (45.1 ypp) and encroached on Scott Harding's recent records for attempts and yardage. Sanchez earned all-MW honorable mention.

Highlighting the defensive effort, junior end Kennedy Tulimasealii received first-team all-MW honors after leading the conference in tackles for loss (18.5) and ranking 19th nationally. He was a force off the edge for the 'Bows, ranking third among MW defensive linemen in tackles (63 TT, 42 UA), and also recording eight hurries. Also joining Tulimasealii and Sanchez for recognition were MW honorable mentions Ben Clarke (OL), Julian Gener (LB) and Nick Nelson (CB).

UH began the season with a sound nationally-televised victory over Pac-12 opponent Colorado on Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium, scoring twice in the first half to set up a 28-20 win over the Buffaloes. The defense made a solid showing on the Big Ten Network against defending national champion Ohio State, holding the Buckeyes to just 18 points through the first three quarters. However, the fourth exposed the defensive fatigue, as the offense never got moving in the 38-0 loss. UH returned home to blowout Football Championship Subdivision foe UC Davis, 47-27, to move the record to 2-1. Heading back to the Midwest for another Big Ten matchup at No. 21 Wisconsin, UH again made a defensive stand against the run-heavy Badgers, while the offense never found its footing in the 28-0 loss.

Facing back-to-back road games for the first time in the season, the Mountain West-opening 55-0 loss at Boise State set the tone for the entire conference slate and was the third time the team had been blanked on the mainland in three tries.

Although the 'Bows hung close in their homecoming matchup with eventual MW champion San Diego State, the losses mounted, including consecutive comeback losses at New Mexico and Nevada. Following a 58-7 loss at home to Air Force on Oct. 31, fourth-year head coach Norm Chow was relieved of coaching duties.

Serving as interim head coach through the final four contests, assistant head coach (offensive line) Chris Naeole led the program to a 1-3 record to close out the campaign. The 'Bows sent off the 23 seniors with a victory in the finale, jumping out to a first-half lead on UL Monroe and holding off a late charge for a 28-26 season-closing win, as UH finished the year with a 3-10 record.

NON-WINNING SEASONS: UH posted its fifth consecutive non-winning season and sixth in the last seven seasons. Hawai'i's last winning season occurred in 2010 (10-4). The only other stretch in which UH went five years without a winning season was 1936-40.

HAWAI'I IN MOUNTAIN WEST PLAY: The Mountain West Conference woes of the previous three years extended into the 2015 campaign, as the Rainbow Warriors posted an 0-8 conference record, registering the second winless MW slate in the last three seasons. When the Rainbow Warriors joined the Mountain West in 2012, UH won only a single conference game in their inaugural season, and went winless in year two. The 2014 season provided signs the ship would turn with three MW wins, while 3-of-5 losses decided by 10 points or fewer. However, UH was downed by a combined margin of 324-126 this year by Mountain West foes, an average score of 40.5 - 15.8. UH is now 4-28 in Mountain West play since joining the conference, riding the third-longest conference losing skid in program history.

WARRIORS DRAWING MW AWARD NOTICE: Kennedy Tulimasealii was recognized by the Mountain West on its all-conference football team as a first-team defensive lineman.
Also featured on the preseason watch list for Polynesian Player of the Year, Tulimasealii tied for the Mountain West lead in tackles for loss with a season total of 18.5, ranking 19th in the nation. Racking up 63 tackles this season, including 42 solo stops, the Wai'anae, O'ahu junior ranked fifth on the team in total tackles. He also ranked third in tackles among MW defensive linemen. In addition, the edge rusher topped UH with eight quarterback hurries, forcing and recovering a fumble in one smooth takedown at New Mexico. Five others garnered honorable mention; offensive linemen Dejon Allen (So.) and Ben Clarke (Sr.), linebacker Julian Gener (Sr.), cornerback Nick Nelson (So.) and punter Rigoberto Sanchez (Jr.).

BIDDING ALOHA TO THE SENIORS: Following UH's season finale against UL Monroe, 23 seniors took part in the traditional "Senior Walk" ceremony, including nine starters - OL Ben Clarke, LB Benetton Fonua, LB Julian Gener, SS Marrell Jackson, WR Quinton Pedroza, DB Ne'Quan Phillips, LB Simon Poti, LB Lance Williams and QB Max Wittek. Also taking in their final game for the Rainbow Warriors were PK Mauro Bondi, WR Duke Bukoski, DB Gaetano DeMattei, LB Joshua Donovan, LS Brian Hittner, RB Pereese Joas, TE Harold Moleni, RB Jason Muraoka, PK/P Aaron Novoa, WR Ryan Pasoquen, WR Adonis Phillips, RB Dominique Small, OL Brendan Urban and FB Justin Vele.

BOWL-BOUND OPPOSITION: Reminiscent of 2014, UH again faced eight teams on the 2015 schedule that ultimately appeared in post-season bowls. That group included: Ohio State (Fiesta), Wisconsin (Holiday), Boise State (Poinsettia), San Diego State (Hawai'i), Air Force (Armed Forces), New Mexico (New Mexico), Nevada (Arizona) and San José State (Cure).

MORE THAN AROUND THE WORLD IN 60 DAYS: Through the course of the six-game 2015 road slate, the Rainbow Warriors became the most traveled team in the nation at both the collegiate and NFL levels. UH finished as the only program in the FBS to play games in five separate time zones, traveling to Ohio State, (9,020 miles), followed up with Wisconsin (8,300 mi.), Boise State (5,668 mi.), New Mexico (6,456 mi.), Nevada (5,136 mi.) and their final road swing to the ninth island at UNLV (5,522 mi.).

For the sake of comparison, the circumference of the earth is 24,902 miles. The UH traveling party exceeded that mark on their return flight from Albuquerque after the fourth road game. Through the course of the season, UH traveled over 40,125 air miles through the six road contests, crossing time zone borders a total of 26 times, flying just over $1^{3/5}$ of the earth's circumference. UH exceeded the NFL's top total (San Francisco 49ers) by over 12,000 miles.

RUNNING INTO THE RECORD BOOKS: Named to Phil Steele's all-Mountain West second team, but absent from the conference's post-season awards, running back Paul Harris was a primary offensive weapon for the 'Bows in 2015. The junior from Columbus, Ohio became just the ninth UH rusher to eclipse 1,000 yards in a season and first to do so since Alex Green in 2010, after racking up 1,132 yards. Harris finished the year with four-straight 100-yard games – tying a school record last accomplished in 1979 – and posted six century-mark games overall. Early in the season, he set a new UH record with a 95-yard touchdown run against UC Davis. Harris finished sixth in the Mountain West and 39th nationally in rushing, averaging 94.3 yards per game.

BEHIND ENEMY LINES: Kennedy Tulimasealii's selection to the all-MW team marked the second straight season for UH with a player on the first team, and he was the first defender to receive first team all-conference honors since Aaron Brown in 2011. The Wai'anae junior proved to be a terror off the edge, racking up a team-high eight QB hurries, in addition to tying for the conference lead with 18.5 tackles for loss (3.5 sacks), tying for 19th in the NCAA.

ANOTHER TRUE SPECIAL TEAMS WEAPON: To start the season, it was a concern for UH to replace both kickers, but the 'Bows targeted the perfect candidate in recruiting. Challenging Scott Harding's 2014 school record marks for punt attempts and yardage, multi-talented all-MW honorable mention kicker Rigoberto Sanchez proved to be one of the most steady players for UH in 2015. Coming in projected only as a field goal kicker, Sanchez earned the punting and place-kicking jobs in the fall and eventually became one of only four kickers who handled all of the kicking duties. Sanchez ranked second in the MW and third nationally with a 45.1 punting average including conference highs of 25 punts over 50 yards and 28 punts downed inside the 20. He was also 8-of-11 in field-goal attempts with a long of 50 yards against Nevada. Five of his eight successful kicks were from 46 yards or more. He also took over kickoff duties midway through the season and posted 14 touchbacks in 22 attempts.

PROVING IT ON AND OFF THE FIELD: Nose tackle Kory Rasmussen became the first Rainbow Warrior to earn the CoSida Academic All-District 8 honors since Kealoha Pilares and Mana Silva were selected in 2010. Holding a 3.35 cumulative GPA, Rasmussen, a communication major, started 9-of-13 games for UH, despite starting fall camp as a walk-on. Since then, he was awarded a scholarship and tied for 11th in team tackles with 43, including 4.5 for loss. The junior from 'Ewa Beach started his career at Colorado and is a two-time member of the UH Dean's List. Rasmussen was also one of 20 UH players named to the Academic All-Mountain West team.

GOING FOR GOLD: Senior left tackle Ben Clarke finished his four-year career without a single missed start, going 50 games strong. Getting to that mark held challenges in 2015, as a foot injury sustained against Ohio State kept him from practicing for weeks. However, the four-time all-Mountain West honorable mention still made gameday and led the UH line, allowing only four sacks with a season grade of 89 percent. His 50 consecutive starts ranks second at UH behind NCAA record-holder John Estes at 54.

THE TANDEM IN THE MIDDLE: Senior Julian Gener and junior Jerrol Garcia-Williams stepped to the challenge of leading UH from the middle linebacker position and provided some of the most exciting defensive efforts of the year. Gener topped the 'Bows tackle totals with 95 on the season, including 13.0 for loss to rank second on the team. The West Covina, Calif., native added two forced fumbles and intercepted one pass. Gener recorded three double-digit tackling performances, two of which ranked among the top four Mountain West performances of the year. Highlighting the year, he made a conference second-most 19 tackles versus eventual MW Champion San Diego State, setting a career high and logging the most stops since Solomon Elimimian had 20 against Utah State in 2007. Against Fresno State, Gener racked up tackles for loss on five stops, tying the UH single-game high with six previous single-game performances, most recently Art Laurel in 2012 versus South Alabama. Garcia-Williams also logged one of the conference's top showings, putting in 17 stops against divisional champion Air Force. The Las Vegas native finished the year with 89 stops, including 3.5 for loss and 1.5 sacks, but was unable to compete in the final game due to injury.

The Rainbow Warrior defense gave No. 1 Ohio State fits through the first three quarters of their Sept. 12 match-up.

>>Hawai'i (1-0)	8	10	7	3	-	28

HONOLULU – As storms passed over Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium, Hawai'i (1-0, 0-0) was able to weather its own storm and last-second charge by Colorado and its rushing attack, topping the Buffs 28-20.

The Warriors earned their first win of the year, while USC-transfer quarterback Max Wittek earned his first win as a starter and threw for his first three touchdowns.

Defensive end Luke Shawley recorded his first career sack and led UH with 14 tackles while kicker Rigoberto Sanchez converted on both of his two field goals, averaging 44.4 yards on 10 punts.

Wittek finished the game 19-of-38 for 202 yards and three scores. He threw an incendiary 79-yard touchdown strike to Marcus Kemp over the middle, giving UH a 15-7 second-quarter lead. Running back Paul Harris finished the game with 68 yards rushing on 17 carries in his UH debut.

It was a truly strong performance for the Hawai'i defense and they proved their worth holding off the Buffs time and time again, forcing three turnovers, including a pick by Julian Gener.

A 27-yard field goal by Rigoberto Sanchez gave UH an 18-14 lead at halftime.

The Warriors extended their lead to 25-17 in the third as Wittek found Isaiah Bernard on a 1-yard touchdown reception, his first as a Warrior. Sanchez's second field goal of the game extended UH's lead to 28-17. As the half continued to wind down, the Buffaloes mounted a 42-yard scoring drive coming away with three points and closing the margin to 28-20. The Warriors stalled on their final drive, allowing the Buffaloes one last chance to send the game into overtime.

COLUMBUS – Hawai'i delivered a solid effort against defending national champion and concensus No. 1 Ohio State, but the Buckeyes proved too much to contain, handing UH its first loss of the season, 38-0, at Ohio Stadium.

Despite the scoreline, the Hawai'i (1-1) defense featured a handful of strong individual performances including Benetton Fonua's team-leading 12 tackles with Marrell Jackson adding 11 of his own. The defense would also force two fumbles.

The 'Bows showed promise early in the first quarter on both sides of the ball. Quarterback Max Wittek finished the game completing 7-of-24 passes, totaling 67 yards. In contrast, OSU quarterback Cardale Jones completed 12-of-18 passes for 111 yards while splitting time under center with sophomore J.T. Barrett, who threw for 70 yards and completed 8-of-15 passes.

UH had a chance to spark a comeback near the end of the first half until Wittek threw his second interception of the quarter, sending the 'Bows to the locker room down 14-0.

Following a Wittek sack-fumble, the defense held tough on a goal-line stand, surrendering only a Buckeye field goal. But Ezekiel Elliott would once again prove to be the Buckeyes' go-to man, scoring his third rushing touchdown, giving OSU the 24-0 advantage early in the fourth quarter.

The Buckeyes took advantage of Hawai'i's mistakes after a fumbled UH exchange resulted in a touchdown return and a 31-0 lead. In a span of less than two minutes, the home team would again get into the endzone and complete the scoring.

The Rainbow Warriors' 85 passing yards marked the first time that Hawai'i was held to under 100 yards in 231 consecutive games.

The Buckeyes finished with a 363-165 advantage in total offense.

HONOLULU — Big plays were the name of the game for Hawai'i as they catapulted themselves past UC Davis 47-27 in a non-conference match-up at Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium.

Defense kept UH in the game early, taking a 13-10 lead into halftime. Once the second half came around, the 'Bows exploded for 34 points on numerous big plays including a UH-record 95-yard touchdown run by Paul Harris, a punt block and return for a touchdown.

Quarterback Max Wittek unleashed a sorely needed aerial assault, going 17-of-24 for 274 yards and two touchdowns. Marcus Kemp (119) and Devan Stubblefield (108) both went over 100 yards receiving. Harris matched the gaudy wide receiver stats, gaining 147 yards on just 11 carries, with a touchdown.

The defense was led by linebacker Jerrol Garcia-Williams, posting a career-high 15 total tackles and defensive end Kennedy Tulimasealii caused fits for the Aggies with a pair of tackles for loss and a QB hurry.

UH placekicker Rigoberto Sanchez booked a pair of field goals for UH's first two scores while Keelan Ewaliko returned a kickoff 65 yards, setting up a Wittek-to-Stubblefield score from 14 yards out and a 13-10 lead. Harris' record touchdown run in the third quarter gave UH a 20-10 lead as Hawai'i outscored the Aggies 34-17 in the second half. The final nail in the coffin came as the 'Bows special teams stepped up once again with Dejaun Butler's blocked punt, scoop and score, for a 47-17 advantage.

>>#22 Wisconsin (3-1)	7	7	7	7	-	28

MADISON –Just as in its last match-up with a Big Ten opponent, Hawai'i's defense put it all on the line to contain a dangerous offensive attack from Wisconsin on the road in a 28-0 loss at Camp Randall Stadium.

The Badgers put their power running game on display early as the tandem of Taiwan Deal and Dare Ogunbowale tag-teamed the Rainbow Warriors. Deal's second touchdown of the half gave the Badgers a 14-0 lead at the half.

The 'Bows first reached scoring range in the third quarter, using a 51-yard flea-flicker pass from wideout Makoa Camanse-Stevens to Paul Harris, who drove down the left sideline for a first down at the UW 13-yard line. However, the Rainbow Warriors were forced to settle for a 49-yard field-goal attempt by Rigoberto Sanchez, which missed the mark.

UW extended its lead to 21-0 after a Joel Stave-Austin Traylor touchdown. On their ensuing possession, the 'Bows drove to the UW 33-yard line but failed on a fourth-down attempt. The Badgers tacked on another score in the fourth quarter to build the lead to the final line of 28-0.

Offensively, the 'Bows stumbled in the running game, producing 15 yards on 18 carries. However, the UH passing game made up the difference with 240 yards in the air as Wittek completed 15-of-32 passes for 189 yards, zeroing in on Pedroza for career-bests of 134 yards on 10 receptions—the most receiving yards for UH since the 2013 season. Harris carried the ball six times for 22 yards and made the 51-yard reception.

Safety Marrell Jackson recorded a career-high 10 tackles to top the defense. For the second consecutive week, linebacker Jerrol Garcia-Williams put up double digits, tallying 10 stops (six solo). Linebacker Benetton Fonua came away with nine total tackles, while defensive end Kennedy Tulimasealii was huge in the second half, making eight stops including a big sack in the third quarter.

BOISE — The Hawai'i football team dropped its second consecutive road contest and fell to 0-1 in Mountain West play as Boise State cut loose offensively to a 55-0 victory at Albertsons Stadium.

After scoring two first-quarter touchdowns, the Broncos blew the game wide open with five more scores in the second quarter for a 49-0 halftime lead, matching the 2004 game at Fresno State for UH's largest halftime deficit ever.

The 35 second-quarter points by Boise State was the most in a quarter since the Broncos put up 38 during the 2004 season. In the second half, the Rainbow Warrior defense regrouped, twice holding the Broncos to field goals in the red zone, limiting the second-half scoring to only 6 points.

The offense was unable to find traction in either half and starter Max Wittek left the game before the half with 66 yards on 7-of-24 passing, gaining 13 yards on 3 rushes, with his net yards set back by a BSU sack. Ikaika Woolsey relieved Wittek in the second half in his most significant action of the early season, completing 4-of-22 for 22 yards, while rushing for 16 on 3 carries.

On the ground, UH logged 82 yards by seven rushers, led by Steven Lakalaka who picked up 34 yards on 8 carries. Defensively, linebacker Jerrol Garcia-Williams topped UH with 9 tackles, including one for loss, while nose tackle Kory Rasmussen registered 8 stops. In total, UH made 5 tackles for loss.

HONOLULU — For Hawai'i, a few missed opportunities at key times and a solid rushing attack by San Diego State led to the Rainbow Warriors first home loss of the season, 28-14, in front of a Homecoming crowd of 28,543 at Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium.

The loss marked UH's fourth straight Homecoming defeat and dropped the Warriors to 0-2 in Mountain West play. A usually stout Hawai'i (2-4, 0-2) rush defense was caught off guard as the Aztecs (3-3, 2-0 MW) ran for 218 yards on the ground and posted 402 yards of total offense. The Aztecs forced three turnovers and controlled the clock for 36 minutes compared to 23 for the Warriors.

SDSU's shifty running back Donnel Pumphrey rushed for a game-high 148 yards on 30 carries and three touchdowns. He scampered 34 yards for a touchdown on the Aztec's opening possession and scored from 8-yards-out following a UH turnover to give SDSU a 14-0 lead just six minutes into the game.

The second quarter started dramatically different for the Warriors as quarterback Max Wittek found receiver Isaiah Bernard for a 52-yard pass followed by running back Melvin Davis' 1-yard touchdown run, snapping a nine-quarter scoring drought.

Down 21-7, Wittek's one-yard score pulled the Warriors to within a touchdown midway through the third quarter. But after Wittek was forced out of the game due to injury, the Aztecs pushed their lead back to 14 with Pumphrey's third score.

UH's offense managed only 251 yards with Wittek accounting for 179 yards passing and Davis rumbling for 52 yards and a score.The 'Bows defensive stat line was spearheaded by linebacker Julian Gener who had a career-high 19 total tackles with one for loss, and linebackers Jerrol Garcia-Williams and Simon Poti who combined for 17 tackles.

ALBUQUERQUE – Despite having a 100-yard rusher, 100-yard receiver and nearly a 200-yard passer, Hawai'i fell victim to a fourth-quarter comeback by New Mexico in the closing moments of a conference tilt at University Stadium.

UNM back-up quarterback Austin Apodoca engineered a late Lobo touchdown, completing 4-of-5 passes including a 28-yard score to Dameon Gamblin with 55 seconds left for a 28-27 lead and eventual victory.

Behind quarterback Ikaika Woolsey, the Warriors led 24-14 at the half behind a pair of Paul Harris touchdown runs; a 49-yard field goal by Rigoberto Sanchez, and a 27-yard score to receiver Dylan Collie.

UNM trimmed the deficit just over eight minutes into the second half after getting the ball via a Lee Crosby interception, David Anaya's 11-yard touchdown reception trimmed the Rainbow Warrior lead to only three.

Held scoreless in the third quarter, UH scored again early in the fourth, as Sanchez added a 47-yard field goal from the right hash mark to push UH ahead 27-21.

With 8:27 remaining, UH ran the clock and the football, working down to the UNM 5-yard line, with rushes on 11-of-12 plays. A UNM stop on third down set up a missed Sanchez 22-yard field goal—a play that saw a flag thrown for leaping the center, which was later withdrawn after a field conference.

RENO – In spite of a career-high passing performance for Max Wittek and four timely and crucial defensive stands, Hawai'i fell in its fifth consecutive loss, dropping the Mountain West Conference game 30-20 to Nevada at Mackay Stadium.

Wittek finished the game with 291 yards and two touchdowns, both to receiver Devan Stubblefield as the Rainbow Warriors built a 17-0 lead just before halftime. Placekicker Rigoberto Sanchez connected on a 50-yard field goal to open the scoring — the longest by a UH kicker since 2007.

The Wolf Pack got on the scoreboard late in the half after capitalizing on a 46-yard kick return by Elijah Mitchell, with a 1-yard touchdown by James Butler. After a successful onside kick, Nevada tacked on a 40-yard field goal by Brent Zuzo to trim the UH lead to 17-10 at the half.

At the mid-point of the third quarter, the Wolf Pack added a 29-yard field goal by Zuzo, which UH countered with a 47-yard Sanchez field goal for a 20-13 lead.

Chewing up over five minutes on the clock, the Wolf Pack continued their second-half rise, knotting up the score at 20-all on a 5-yard pass from Tyler Stewart to Jarred Gipson. The Wolf Pack then took the lead off a 30-yard field goal by Zuzo.

A third Wittek interception gave Nevada the ball at the UH 21-yard line and Butler scored from 1-yard out, extending the Wolf Pack lead to 10 points and capping off a 30-3 scoring rally that began in the second quarter.

Hawai'i (2-7, 0-5)	0	0	0	7	-	7

HONOLULU — Vexed by the triple-option attack of Air Force and haunted by turnovers, Hawai'i was unable to keep up with the nation's third-ranked rushing attack in a 58-7 loss at Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium.

The loss marked the sixth straight for the Rainbow Warriors (2-7) dropping their record in Mountain West play to 0-5. The 51-point loss was the largest defeat in a conference home game.

The Falcons (5-3, 4-1) rushed the ball with ease as their triple-option attack gashed Hawai'i for 496 yards on the ground, the most given up by a UH defense since 2004. Running back Jacobi Owens rushed 30 times for 133 yards and two scores while quarterback Karson Roberts rushed for 65 and a score and threw for 80. Defensively, the Falcons forced four UH turnovers.

The Warriors offense struggled to get anything going as the team's only points came by virtue of a 98-yard kickoff return by Keelan Ewaliko. UH rushed for a season-low minus 2 yards on the ground while generating only 178 yards of total offense.

The first quarter was all about the run game as Air Force dominated on the ground and in time of possession. The Falcons rushed for 159 yards and held the ball for 11:01 of the quarter. Owens was the man cashing in the two scores, one from 2 yards out and the other from 11 yards.

As the turnovers mounted for UH, so did their deficit on the scoreboard as they found themselves going into halftime down 34-0 with the last dagger coming as time expired as AFA kicker Luke Strebel connected on a 36-yard field goal, his second of the quarter. The three turnovers led directly to 13 points for the Falcons, with all three scoring drives starting in Warriors' territory.

Linebacker Jerrol Garcia-Williams finished with a career-high 17 tackles.

LAS VEGAS - Even with a career rushing effort and a renewed focus in the first game under interim head coach Chris Naeole, Hawai'i was outpaced by UNLV for their seventh consecutive loss, 41-21, at Sam Boyd Stadium.

Making his second start of the season, Ikaika Woolsey went 16-of-33 for 187 yards. Running back Paul Harris was an offensive spark, rushing for a career-best 190 yards on 20 carries, his third game over the century mark in the season. Defensively, Julian Gener picked up 11 total tackles.

A mainstay in the Rainbow Warrior football program, the UH defense was tested and spread thin by air, allowing the Rebels to open up their run game steadily. Entering the game ranked 19th nationally against the pass, UH allowed 258 of UNLV's 547 total yards through the air while UH generated 378 total yards.

After trailing the Rebels for over 13 minutes in the first half, Harris found a seam and rushed for a 34-yard touchdown to knot the score at 7-7. The Rebels regained the lead after an 85-yard toss from Blake Decker to Aaron Criswell, giving UNLV a 14-7 advantage at the break.

After a Rebel field goal opened the third-quarter scoring, UH running back Melvin Davis' 1-yard score narrowed the deficit to three at 17-14. However, Hawai'i's celebration was short-lived as Decker responded quickly with a first-play pass to Devonte Boyd for a 75-yard score. Another Nicolai Bornand field goal stretched UNLV's lead to 27-14 to start the fourth.

A pair of receptions from Makoa Camanse-Stevens from Woolsey that amounted to 70 yards set up a second Davis touchdown, trimmed the deficit to 27-21. After that score, the period was all UNLV as the Rebels racked up two final touchdowns on runs by Lexington Thomas and Keith Whitely, extending the final margin to 41-21.

HONOLULU — Hawai'i did themselves no favors against Fresno State, turning the ball over four times while committing costly penalties in a 42-14 loss at Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium.

The Rainbow Warriors dropped their eighth consecutive game to fall to 2-9 overall and 0-7 in Mountain West play.

UH more than doubled its average for penalty yards per game, committing 11 fouls for 132 yards, including seven personal foul penalties and three in Fresno State's first scoring drive. One of those penalties was assessed to defensive back Nick Nelson that led to his ejection for targeting.

The Bulldogs (3-7, 2-5 MW) capitalized on UH's mistakes on the way to their fifth straight victory in the series. They never trailed in the game and at one point scored 28 consecutive points to cement the victory. Bulldogs quarterback Zack Greenlee had himself a game, going 20-of-35 for 285 yards and six touchdowns including two to wide receiver Da'mari Scott.

UH never found any traction offensively, even making a quarterback switch in the second half in hopes of resuscitating a stagnant offense. Starting quarterback Ikaika Woolsey finished 8-of-20 for 92 yards with a touchdown and interception, while backup Max Wittek came in going 12-of-29 for 153 yards and two interceptions.

Running back Paul Harris managed to string together his fourth 100-yard game of the season, rushing for 126 yards on a career-high 26 attempts while wide receiver Makoa Camanse-Stevens finished with a career-high six catches for 63 yards and a touchdown.

Usual stalwarts on defense linebacker Julian Gener had 17 total tackles, one-and-a-half sacks, and five tackles-for-loss, which tied the UH single-game record in the stat. Mountain West leader in tackles-for-loss Kennedy Tulimasealii had consistent pressure all night and increased his lead with another two behind scrimmage, bringing his season total to 15.5.

HONOLULU — Despite running back Paul Harris' fifth 100-yard game of the season, Hawai'i was unable to overcome a 35-point halftime deficit, falling to San José State, 42-23 at Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium.

The Rainbow Warriors fought with a renewed sense of vigor in the second half, outscoring the Spartans 23-7 after intermission. Still, Hawai'i completed its fourth winless conference campaign (0-8) and lost for the ninth straight time to fall to 2-10 overall.

Harris did his best to lead the Warriors, finishing the game with 179 yards on a career-high 28 carries and one score. Harris' fifth game this season with over 100 yards rushing is the most since Travis Sims posted nine in 1992. Quarterback Ikaika Woolsey threw for 202 yards on 13-of-25 passing and two touchdowns to receivers Devan Stubblefield and Makoa Camanse-Stevens.

Hawai'i was miffed both offensively and defensively against the Spartans who outgained the Warriors in the first half by 210 yards. Two turnovers did not help UH's cause either, with one being a Woolsey interception in the endzone.

SJSU dual-threat quarterback Kenny Potter was exactly that, a major threat both running and passing. Potter accounted for five scores in the first half alone, throwing for three scores and running for two while passing for 312 yards. Running back Tyler Ervin ran for 114 yards and one score and had a team-leading six catches for 62 yards.

The Spartans scored on their first five possessions for a 35-0 lead at the half. UH managed to score three touchdowns in the second half, with one coming on a miraculous 77-yard score by Stubblefield off of a tipped ball intended for Isaiah Bernard. Harris got the 'Bows on the scoreboard to start the half as Harris rushed all four times for 75 yards, including a 36-yard scamper.

The Warriors added a safety as linebacker Jahlani Tavai sacked Potter in the endzone and Woolsey found Camanse-Stevens for a five-yard score late in the game.

HONOLULU — In a game that Hawai'i never trailed, it took a missed two-point conversion from Louisiana Monroe for the Rainbow Warriors to scratch out a 28-26 victory in the season finale on Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium.

UH snapped a nine-game losing streak, giving the departing 23 seniors a final victory to cap their college careers. The victory was also the first under interim head coach Chris Naeole.

Leading 28-20 late in the fourth quarter, the Warriors botched a shotgun snap which ULM's Lorenzo Jackson recovered in the end-zone. With a chance to tie, the Warhawks were unable to convert the ensuing 2-point conversion as the ball slipped through the hands of a receiver. The touchdown capped a 16-point turnaround after the Warriors took a 28-10 lead early in the second half.

UH running back Paul Harris continued his run of stellar play, rushing for 166 yards and a touchdown before leaving with an injury in the third quarter. For Harris, it was his fourth consecutive 100-yard game, tying a school record last set in 1979.

Quarterback Ikaika Woolsey threw for 116 yards and a touchdown while also rushing for 36 yards and two more scores. Woolsey found senior tight end Harold Moleni for his first touchdown of the year.

Hawai'i held the Warhawks to 163 total yards in the first half while generating four sacks and six pass breakups in the game. Senior defensive backs Marrell Jackson and Ne'Quan Phillips led the team with nine total tackles each.

The game capped a frustrating season for the Warriors who started 2-1 before dropping nine straight, including all eight Mountain West contests. UH finished with double-digit losses for just the fourth time in school history and saw its head coach removed with a month left in the season.

WARRIOR FUN FACT

More than 30 years since he first put on a UH uniform, Gary Allen still owns 12 school records, including career rushing yards (3,451). His total is nearly 1,000 yards more than Michael Carter (2,528), who incidentally played quarterback during a time in which UH used the run-oriented Triple Option offense. Carter owns the school record for most rushing touchdowns with 39. Allen led the team in rushing for four straight years and owns the school-record 15, 100-plus yard games.

An entire ocean away from its nearest NCAA opponent, the University of Hawai'i football program has a unique and storied history. This year marks the program's 99th season of competition.

THE BEGINNING

The College of Hawai'i was founded in 1907. Two years later, in 1909, the university fielded its first football team. The "Fighting Deans," as Hawai'i athletic teams were known then, defeated McKinley High School, 6-5, under head coach Austin Jones in its inaugural game. The historic game was played before 2,500 fans at O'ahu College, now known as Punahou School.

Because of limited travel opportunities, Hawai'i only played local high schools, military and club teams for its first eight seasons. In 1920, the College of Hawai'i became the University of Hawai'i and Raymond Elliot coached the first intercollegiate game against the University of Nevada (Reno). Nevada outscored Hawai'i, 14-0, at Mō'ili'ili Field on Christmas Day.

A POT OF GOLD

The 1921 season marked the arrival of Otto "Proc" Klum, who ushered in the "Golden Age of UH Football." Known as "The Mānoa Fox," Klum served as head coach and athletics director until 1939, compiling an 84-51-7 record.

Klum coached UH to its first victory over a collegiate opponent in 1922, a Christmas Day triumph over Pomona College, 25-6, at Punahou's Alexander Field. He also took the team to its first road game in 1923 via oceanliner against that same Pomona team at the Pasadena Rose Bowl. The trip took five days. As a result of the prolonged hours of travel, later teams only traveled to the U.S. mainland every other year.

During Klum's reign, another UH tradition emerged. In the final game of the 1923 season, a rainbow appeared over the gridiron late during the team's contest against Oregon State. The Deans scored shortly thereafter and held on to win, 7-0. Reporters started calling UH teams the "Rainbows," and the tradition began that whenever a rainbow appeared from the "Mānoa Mist" over the UH campus, Hawai'i could not lose.

THE WONDER YEARS

Under Klum's guidance, Hawai'i produced the "Wonder Teams" of 1924-25, which went undefeated both seasons. The "Wonder Teams" outscored their opponents, 606-29, in 18 games. Among the fallen were Colorado, Colorado State and Washington State.

During the 1924 season, the Rainbows finished 8-0 and allowed only 12 points all season. The team concluded the season with a 13-0 shutout of Colorado on New Year's Day. The following season, only Washington State of the Pacific Coast Conference scored more than six points against the "Wonder Teams" and was only one of five teams to score at all. UH defeated the Cougars, 20-11, on New Year's Day to close out the 1925 season.

Among the many stars on those teams were the famed "Four Horsemen of Mānoa" - Bill "Doggie" Wise, Johnny Morse, Eddie Fernandez and Theodore "Pump" Searle—named after the gallant Notre Dame backfield.

A NEW HOME

In 1926, the Rainbows made the newly built Honolulu Stadium, a 24,000-seat facility in Mō'ili'ili, their homefield. UH played its first game at the stadium on Nov. 11 against the Town Team. Hawai'i lost that game, 14-7, before 12,000 Armistice Day fans.

That same season, the Rainbows

ROARING '20s

During the "Golden Age" of UH football, the teams produced a record of 53-21-5 in the 1920s, including consecutive undefeated seasons in 1924 (8-0) and 1925 (10-0).

TERMITE PALACE

Nicknamed for its deteriorating facade, Honolulu Stadium was home to Hawai'i football from 1926-74.

HAWAI'I FOOTBALL THROUGH THE YEARS

1955
The Rainbows upset Nebraska, 6-0, in Lincoln in what is considered one of the school's all-time biggest upsets, four years before the Territory of Hawai'i becomes the 50th state of the Union.

Head Coaches
1951 - Archie Kodros
1952 - Hank Vasconcellos

1960

1966
UH completes its first all-collegiate schedule. The Rainbows are ranked as high as No. 5 in weekly Division II poll.

Head Coaches
1962 - Jim Asato
1965 - Clark Shaughnessy
1966 - Phil Sarboe
1967 - Don King
1968 - Dave Holmes

1970

1973
The Rainbows record the biggest upset in school history by defeating Washington, 10-7, in Seattle. UW was favored by as many as 50 points.

Head Coaches
1974 - Larry Price
1977 - Dick Tomey

1974
UH becomes an NCAA Division I member. In June 1976, the NCAA reclassifies and drops UH to Division I-A (now I-AA). Athletics Director Ray Nagel appeals the decision and the next month the NCAA reinstates UH to Division I status.

blanked the 8th Field Artillery and Healani by identical 101-0 scores. Against Healani, halfback Fernandez had one of the best single-game performances in UH history, scoring six times on runs, punts and an interception.

Four years later, UH played its first night game at the stadium. The Rainbows defeated the Honolulu Athletic Club, 28-0, Oct. 8, 1930, before 9,500 fans.

For 48 years, the affectionately nicknamed "Termite Palace" housed the Rainbows and their fans until the construction of Aloha Stadium in 1975.

NO. 32
The only number retired in Hawai'i football history was worn by UH's first All-American, Thomas Kaulukukui. He still holds the school record for longest kickoff return (103) against UCLA in 1935 at the Los Angeles Coliseum and also went on to become one of UH's most successful coaches.

THE GRASS SHACK
One of the earliest stars in UH history was Thomas Kaulukukui, a 5-foot-5, 140-pound back from Hilo. As a member of UH's undefeated 1934 team, Kaulukukui helped lead the Rainbows to a 14-0 shutout of California in the New Year's Day Classic (later re-named the Poi Bowl). That team finished 6-0 and featured stars Maynard "Buster" Piltz and Anthony Morse.

The next year, Kaulukukui gained national fame and earned his nickname, the "Grass Shack," by legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice. During a 19-6 loss to UCLA at the Los Angeles Coliseum, Kaulukukui scored the team's lone touchdown, an electrifying 103-yard kickoff return, a record which still stands today.

Following that season, Kaulukukui became UH's first All-American when he was selected by the All-America Board of Football, which included legendary Glenn "Pop" Warner.

WAR TIME ERA
The 1940 season marked the end of Klum's 19-year tenure as football coach. The decade was also marred by World War II.

In 1941, the Rainbows just completed a 20-6 Shrine Game victory over Willamette in front of a sold-out Honolulu Stadium crowd of 24,000. The next morning, Japan invaded Pearl Harbor, resulting in the cancellation of the team's upcoming game against San José State and the 1942-45 seasons. Lost in the news of the attack was the naming of halfback Nolle Smith as a first-team Associated Press Little All-American.

UH returned to the gridiron in 1946 after the conclusion of the war. That same year also marked the program's entrance into the NCAA under head coach Kaulukukui. Hawai'i finished the season with an 8-2 record, culminating with a 19-16 victory over Utah in the Pineapple Bowl (formerly Poi Bowl).

In the late 1940s, the team began to travel by air, making the journey to the West Coast in an unheard-of nine hours. To cut down on costs, the teams stayed on the U.S. mainland for at least two weeks at a time.

Following the 1949 season, Harry "Clown" Kahuanui became the first UH player to be invited to the East-West Shrine Game and was named an honorable mention All-American by United Press International.

Kaulukukui coached until 1951 and accumulated a record of 34-18-3, becoming one of the school's winningest coaches at the time. As a result of his achievements as a player and coach, he was chosen as a charter member of the National Football Hall of Fame Association.

HAMMERIN' HANK
The 1950s marked the arrival of the Hank Vasconcellos era as head coach and athletics director. Vasconcellos, a Maui native, coached the Rainbows for nine seasons during the program's highest and lowest moments.

The 1954 season ended with a humbling 50-0 loss to Orange Bowl-bound Nebraska in front of a crowd of 20,000 fans at Honolulu Stadium.

In the rematch between the schools the next season, the Rainbows pulled off one of the biggest wins in the program's history before a crowd of 23,000 at Nebraska Stadium. As 40-point underdogs, the 27-member team won in Lincoln's 95-degree heat and 26 mile-per-hour winds. Of the 11 starters, seven played the entire 60 minutes, including star back Skippy Dyer, who broke up a Cornhusker pass on UH's 10-yard line with less than two minutes to play.

Despite a 34-0 shutout loss to San José State the next week, the Rainbows went on to finish with a 7-4 record and followed that season with a respectable 7-3 mark in 1956.

But only six years after that infamous victory over Nebraska and three consecutive losing seasons, the UH Board of Athletic Control, made up of faculty, students and alumni members, voted to abolish the football program in 1961 due to lack of finances.

ROCKY ROAD

Football returned to intercollegiate competition in 1962 behind the urging of new athletics director Young Suk Ko. The program went through five coaches in the decade, including former player Jim Asato and offensive guru Clark Shaughnessy, who led Stanford to a Rose Bowl victory.

After Shaughnessy's one-year "consultant" term concluded, the program went through turmoil with the firing of Ko and surprise hiring of Phil Sarboe as head coach. Sarboe coached for one year before bolting for northern California following the 1966 season, UH's first all-collegiate schedule. Sarboe's top assistant, Don King, took over for one year but quit after a 6-4 season amid tension with athletics director Bob Martin.

THE MODERN ERA

The arrival of head coach Dave Holmes in 1968 was the beginning of the most successful years in school history. In six years as coach, Holmes guided his teams to a 46-17-1 record, including a pair of nine-win seasons. Holmes still ranks as the all-time leader at UH in winning percentage (.718).

In 1973, Hawai'i recorded its biggest upset in school history with a 10-7 road victory over the Pacific-8 Conference's Washington Huskies, who were favored by as many as 50 points. Harold Stringert intercepted three passes and lineman Levi Stanley had 11 tackles in the victory. The Rainbows won its first eight games that season and was ranked as high as No. 5 in the weekly Division II poll.

But following that season, Holmes resigned due to team turmoil. Larry Price, a former player who served as an assistant to the four previous coaches, was named head coach and served at that capacity for the next three years.

During Price's tenure, UH became an NCAA Division I member, changed its nickname to the Rainbow Warriors, introduced the "Hula-T" formation, and on Sept. 13, 1975, christened the newly-built 50,000-seat Aloha Stadium against Texas A&I. Hawai'i lost its stadium debut, 43-9, before 32,247 fans.

GREEN MACHINE

From 1967-75, UH won 67 percent of its games and never suffered a losing season. Twenty-six players from this era went on to sign with professional teams. Under head coach Dave Holmes, Hawai'i opened the 1973 season with a 10-7 upset of Washington in front of 52,500 in Seattle, regarded by many as the biggest upset in school history.

HOUSE OF ALOHA

Aloha Stadium became the new home of UH football in 1975. Hawai'i fans have flocked to the 50,000-seat facility for the past 33 years.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

Dick Tomey, a UCLA assistant who was hired to replace Price, put UH on the national football map. Tomey headed the program from 1977-87. During his tenure, he guided Hawai'i into the Western Athletic Conference in his third year and drastically upgraded the schedule by playing the likes of Nebraska, Oklahoma, USC, Iowa and Michigan.

In the 1977 season-finale, UH hosted nationally ranked USC, a team which featured Heisman Trophy winner Charles White. A record crowd of 48,767 at Aloha Stadium watched as the Rainbow Warriors nearly pulled off the upset against John Robinson's Trojans before falling 21-5.

During the third week of the 1984 season, the Rainbow Warriors faced Brigham Young. With just five minutes remaining, UH let a 13-12 lead slip away as the Cougars scored a late touchdown for the victory and later went on to win the national championship that season.

Following the 1986 season, defensive end Al Noga became the first UH player to be named a first team All-American by the Associated Press and was tabbed as the school's first Heisman Trophy candidate.

TRIPLE THREAT

2002 - 2004
UH is invited to the Hawai'i Bowl in consecutive seasons. In the inaugural ConAgra Foods Hawai'i Bowl, the Warriors fall to Tulane, 36-28, but rebound for a marathon 54-48 triple-overtime victory over Houston in 2003 and, in 2004, a 59-40 win over UAB in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

2004
Quarterback Timmy Chang becomes the NCAA career passing leader, surpassing former Brigham Young signal caller Ty Detmer. Chang finishes his career with 17,072 yards and ranks second all-time behind Detmer with 122 career touchdown passes.

2006
Quarterback Colt Brennan completes the best season in school history for a quarterback, completing an NCAA single-season record 58 touchdowns and throwing for 5,549 yards. Brennan, winner of the Sammy Baugh Award as the nation's top passer, finishes sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting after breaking or tying 19 NCAA records, 17 WAC records, and 41 school records.

2007
A school-record five Warriors are picked in the NFL Draft and another six sign free-agent contracts in both the NFL and CFL.

UH completes a perfect 12-0 regular season and earns the program's first outright WAC title. The Warriors secure their first trip to a BCS game, the 2008 Allstate Sugar Bowl and Brennan earns a trip to New York City as a Heisman finalist.

the program and introduced the spread offense or "Triple Option" to Hawai'i. During his tenure, the offense, which featured two slotbacks and one fullback, frequently placed UH among the top rushing teams in the country.

In the 1988 season opener, ninth-ranked Iowa came to the islands and the Rainbow Warriors shocked the Hawkeyes, 27-24, behind running back Heikoti Fakava's three touchdowns. It was also a coming-out party for freshman kicker Jason Elam, who booted two critical field goals in the fourth quarter.

After just two seasons, Wagner was named WAC Coach of the Year and led the Rainbow Warriors to their first major bowl game – the Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl. UH fell to Michigan State, 33-13, but following the season, Wagner became the first UH coach to head an all-star team in the Hula Bowl.

In 1992, behind quarterback Michael Carter, Hawai'i won a share of the WAC championship and posted its first bowl game victory, a 27-17 defeat of Illinois in the Thrifty Car Rental Holiday Bowl. UH finished the season ranked No. 20 and months later, three-time All-American kicker Elam was drafted by the Denver Broncos in the third round.

During Wagner's nine seasons as head coach, Hawai'i defeated nationally ranked rival Brigham Young three times, including a 1990 victory on the day quarterback Ty Detmer won the Heisman Trophy. In addition, Carter was one of a handful of quarterbacks in NCAA Division I history to rush and pass for 1,000 yards in the same season.

B-Y-WHO?

UH ended a 10-game losing streak to nationally ranked rival Brigham Young with an emphatic 56-14 victory on Oct. 28, 1989. The following year, the Rainbow Warriors routed the Cougars again, 59-28, on Dec. 1, the day BYU quarterback Ty Detmer won the Heisman Trophy. In the two games, UH quarterback Garrett Gabriel (right) completed 63-percent of his passes for 799 yards and seven touchdowns.

THE LONGEST YARD

Wagner was fired following consecutive losing seasons and was replaced by Fred vonAppen in 1996. A former assistant coach with the NFL's San Francisco 49ers, vonAppen coached three disappointing seasons in which the Rainbow Warriors posted a 5-31 record.

UH lost 10 games in vonAppen's inaugural season and in 1998, Hawai'i suffered through a winless 0-12 campaign, a first in the program's rich history. Following that season, he was replaced by alumnus June Jones, who brought with him the explosive run-and-shoot offense.

Under Jones, UH dropped the "Rainbows" from its nickname and were simply known as the "Warriors" while introducing the new "H" logo that replaced the iconic rainbow logo. The Warriors began using the new nickname and featured the green "H" helmet at the start of the 2000 season.

BYE, BYE TY

Warrior quarterback Timmy Chang (right) broke the NCAA career passing-yards record on Nov. 6, 2004, against Louisiana Tech at Aloha Stadium. The Saint Louis School product ended his career with 17,072 yards, surpassing the previous record of 15,031 yards set in 1991 by Ty Detmer of Brigham Young.

RUNNIN'-N-SHOOTIN'

It only took one season under Jones' tutelage for the Hawai'i football program to return to championship form. Jones, whose run-and-shoot offense he perfected in the NFL, posted a 9-4 record in 1999, the best by a first-year head coach at UH.

Jones and the Warriors made history by recording the NCAA's best turnaround season (from 0-12 to 9-4). UH finished the season as WAC co-champions and defeated Oregon State, 23-17, in the Jeep O'ahu Bowl.

In 2001, the Warriors capped off a stellar season by handing Brigham Young a 72-45 romp on national television. Despite a 9-3 record, Hawai'i was snubbed for a bowl game. That snub became the impetus for the creation of the Hawai'i Bowl.

Later that year, wide receiver Ashley Lelie became the school's first-ever NFL first-round draft pick, being selected as the 19th overall selection by the Denver Broncos.

Over the next three seasons, Jones led the Warriors to bowl appearances. After a 10-win season, UH was invited to the inaugural ConAgra Foods Hawai'i Bowl, where they lost to Tulane of Conference USA, 36-28. The next season, Jones and the Warriors met Houston in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, a game which UH pulled out, 54-48, in triple-overtime and followed that with a 59-40 rout of UAB in the 2004 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

Also in 2004, quarterback Timmy Chang became the NCAA's all-time passing leader and finished his career with 17,072 passing yards. In 2006, Chang's successor, Colt Brennan, won the Sammy Baugh Trophy as the nation's top quarterback. Brennan led the nation in seven statistical categories in one of the nation's most prolific passing seasons ever. Brennan and the Warriors garnered their first Top 25 ranking in 13 years and a 41-24 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl win over Arizona State of the Pac-10.

IN COLT WE TRUST

Colt Brennan (right) finished his career as arguably one of college football's best quarterbacks of all time. A 2007 Heisman Trophy finalist, Brennan passed for 131 career touchdowns, breaking Ty Detmer's NCAA record of 121. In all, he broke or tied 31 NCAA records and led the Warriors to two bowl games, including a perfect 12-0 regular season in 2007.

THE PERFECT SEASON

The next season, Brennan led UH to an undefeated 12-0 regular season and captured the program's first outright WAC championship with an emphatic win over Boise State. During their stretch run, the Warriors captivated the entire state as fans flocked Aloha Stadium with capacity crowds for the team's final three home games.

After a come-from-behind win over Washington in the season-finale that capped UH's perfect regular season, the Warriors were invited to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, the program's first-ever BCS bowl appearance. In front of a network audience on FOX, UH fell to third-ranked Georgia, 41-10.

Brennan was invited to New York City as the school's first Heisman Trophy finalist and finished third in the final voting. At the end of his three-year career, Brennan tied or broke 31 NCAA records and was drafted in the sixth round by the Washington Redskins.

FALL FROM GRACE

Following that record-breaking season, Jones left UH for SMU, which led to the dismisal of the school's athletics director and an exodus of players, including two of the team's top returning receivers, both of whom declared for the NFL Draft.

However, just weeks after Jones' departure, defensive coordinator Greg McMackin was named head coach and assembled a staff which included former record-setting quarterback Nick Rolovich as offensive coordinator.

In four seasons, McMackin guided the Warriors to two Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl appearances, including 10 wins and a share of the WAC Championship in 2010. After a turbulent 2011 season, in which the Warriors were predicted to win the WAC but finished with a 6-7 record, McMackin retired and was replaced by Honolulu-native and longtime assistant coach Norm Chow, who became the first Asian-American head coach of a major college football team.

CHOW TIME

Chow was introduced as UH's 22nd head coach and brought with him a resume that included being on the coaching staff of three national championship teams and having coached three Heisman Trophy-winning quarterbacks and six NFL first-round draft picks. He also brought with him the pro-set offense, which he perfected at stops at BYU, North Carolina State, USC, UCLA, Utah and the NFL's Tennessee Titans.

The 2012 season also marked UH's entrance into the Mountain West Conference, ending a 33-year affiliation with the WAC. UH concluded its first season under Chow with a 3-9 mark, including a 1-7 record in the MWC.

In 2013, UH reintroduced the nickname "Rainbow Warriors," in an effort to standardize the school's nickname for its men's sports.

After compiling a 10-36 record, Chow was fired with four games remaining in the 2015 season. Offensive line coach Chris Naeole took over as interim coach for the remainder of the season before Athletics Director David Matlin picked former UH quarterback Nick Rolovich as the program's 23rd coach. Rolovich comes to UH after spending four seasons as Nevada's offensive coordinator and reinvigorates the program with slogans such as "Pride Rock" and "Live Aloha, Play Warrior."

ALOHA, JUNE

Head coach June Jones concluded a nine-year stint with the Warriors by compiling a 76-41 record with six bowl appearances. Jones led UH to an NCAA-record turnaround season in 1999 with a 9-4 record and a WAC co-championship. His teams won eight or more games six times, including a perfect 12-0 regular season in 2007.

COLLEGE DIVISION BOWL HISTORY

In its early years, the University of Hawai'i participated in several New Year's Day bowl games as a way to play major mainland college teams. From 1934-35, UH competed in the New Year's Classic, later renamed the Poi Bowl in 1936 and Pineapple Bowl in 1940.

The games were played at old Honolulu Stadium either on New Year's Day or Jan. 2. UH posted a 5-9 all-time record in those games, including upsets of California (14-0) in 1935 and Utah (19-16) in 1947.

Due to World War II, the Pineapple Bowl was suspended from 1942-46. The bowl returned in 1947 and lasted until 1952.

1989 JEEP EAGLE ALOHA BOWL

MICHIGAN STATE	33
HAWAI'I	13

December 25, 1989
Aloha Stadium (50,000) ▸ Honolulu, HI

HONOLULU - Playing on its home field of Aloha Stadium, the University of Hawai'i football team was the visitor in the Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl VIII. The Rainbows wore their white road uniforms for the first time at home in a 33-13 loss to Michigan State.

It was Hawai'i's first appearance in an NCAA-sanctioned post-season bowl game and if stage fright had anything to do with it, it may explain why the Rainbows were guilty of eight turnovers. Within the first 15 minutes of the game, the Rainbows had already committed four turnovers, one of which led to Blake Ezor's three-yard TD run for MSU.

The fourth turnover, a pass interception near the end of the opening quarter, resulted in Ezor taking it over from the 2 on the first play of the second quarter. This capped a 48-yard, seven-play drive with Ezor carrying five times. Moments later, an interception of a Gabriel pass by Carlos Jenkins led to a 30-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Langeloh added another field goal late in the half after a UH fumble, giving the Spartans a 19-0 lead at intermission.

Hawai'i tried to make a game of it in the second half with Gabriel hitting Chris Roscoe for an 11-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 19-6. But the Spartans then picked off their fourth interception of the game and drove 57 yards with Hyland Hickson gaining the final yard.

On the following series, Gabriel hit Dane McArthur with a 23-yard scoring toss only to see the Spartans come right back with a 48-yard drive and Ezor scoring his third touchdown of the game.

Ezor finished the game with three touchdowns, tying an Eagle Aloha Bowl record. He carried the ball 41 times for 179 yards, both new marks, and was selected by the media as the MVP for Michigan State.

1992 THRIFTY CAR RENTAL HOLIDAY BOWL

HAWAI'I	27
ILLINOIS	17

December 30, 1992
Jack Murphy Stadium (44,457) ▸ San Diego, CA

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - The University of Hawai'i made its first appearance in a U.S. mainland bowl game a successful one, defeating Illinois, 27-17, at Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego, Calif.

After spotting the Illini the lead twice, 7-0 and 10-7, Hawai'i put together 20 second-half points to complete its most successful season ever with an 11-2 mark. When the final polls came out several days later, the Rainbows were ranked 20th in the nation, the first time Hawai'i was listed in the final ratings.

With Illinois holding a 7-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, Travis Sims capped a 64-yard drive by going over from the 6-yard line to tie the score. Illinois responded on the next drive and Chris Richardson kicked a 19-yard field goal to make the score 10-7 at halftime.

The Rainbows went back to basics in the second half, sticking to their triple-option run by quarterback Michael Carter, scoring 20 unanswered points. UH took the kickoff and marched 80 yards in 13 plays with Sims going up the middle from the 1-yard-line to put Hawai'i ahead for good. After forcing the Illini to punt on the next series, Hawai'i marched 62 yards in 16 plays with Jason Elam kicking a 45-yard field goal to make it 17-10.

On its next possession, Illinois turned the ball over on its own 21- yard line. Two plays later, the Rainbows tried a fumble-rooskie, but were called for an illegal procedure as the officials were not informed about the trick play. Elam kicked a 37-yard field goal to put Hawai'i up, 20-10.

UH's Zac Odom intercepted a Jason Verdusco pass and six plays later, Carter hit Darrick Branch for a 53-yard touchdown pass for a 27-10 UH lead. After the Illini scored with 4:42 remaining, Carter and UH ran out the clock. Carter was selected the Outstanding Offensive Player of the Game with 105 yards rushing and 115 yards passing. Junior Tagoai was voted the game's Outstanding Defensive Player.

1999 JEEP O'AHU BOWL

HAWAI'I	23
OREGON STATE	17

December 25, 1999
Aloha Stadium (40,974) ▸ Honolulu, HI

HONOLULU - It was a fairy-tale ending for a fairy-tale season. Hawai'i capped its worst-to-first season with a 23-17 Christmas Day win over Oregon State in the Jeep O'ahu Bowl before a crowd of 40,974 at Aloha Stadium.

The Warriors, a year removed from a winless season, notched their ninth win against four losses.

Senior quarterback Dan Robinson connected with Channon Harris for two scoring strikes and the Warrior defense recorded six sacks to help lead the school to a victory in its first bowl game in seven years.

Things did not start well for UH. OSU running back Ken Simonton busted loose in the first half, gaining 58 yards and rushing for a touchdown, while the Warrior offense struggled to get started.

The Warriors got their first break early in the second quarter when lineman Tony Tuioti recovered a fumble deep in Beaver territory. The turnover was converted into a 26-yard field goal by Eric Hannum.

Moments later, UH took a 10-7 lead when Harris finished an 80-yard drive with a 9-yard touchdown catch. OSU also failed to capitalize on numerous first-half scoring opportunities as Ryan Cesca missed field-goal attempts of 42 and 31 yards, while UH's Sean Butts blocked a third attempt.

Hawai'i took the lead for good when Robinson found a wide-open Harris for a 30-yard touchdown in the third quarter. A 23-yard field goal by Hannum four minutes later gave UH a 20-10 lead. UH sealed the game in the fourth quarter with its defense and the tough performance of O'ahu Bowl MVP Avion Weaver. The junior running back finished the game with 150 total yards of offense, including 85 on the ground.

The Beavers (7-5) outgained the Warriors, 438-349, including 159 yards rushing by Simonton. However, the UH defense held the OSU offense scoreless for nearly the entire second half. A 13-yard run by Simonton cut the lead to 23-17 with 1:31 left, but the Beavers were unable to recover the ensuing onside kick.

2002 CONAGRA FOODS HAWAI'I BOWL

TULANE	36
HAWAI'I	28

December 25, 2002
Aloha Stadium (35,513) ▸ Honolulu, HI

HONOLULU - Tulane rode its Green Wave into Honolulu with a 36-28 victory in the ConAgra Foods Hawai'i Bowl at Aloha Stadium.

Tulane (8-5) gained 429 total yards and sacked Warrior quarterbacks eight times to win the program's fourth bowl game. But it was the Tulane special teams that sparked a 30-point second half to overcome a 14-6 halftime deficit.

The Warriors took an early 14-0 lead with touchdown runs by Thero Mitchell and Josh Galeai. The Green Wave settled for two field goals, 22 and 37 yards respectively, by Seth Marler to get on the board before the end of the first half.

In the second half, Tulane used big returns by Lynaris Elpheage, who cut the lead to two with a 60-yard punt return for touchdown and a 56-yard punt return to set up the go-ahead score.

Tulane added to the lead after Warrior quarterback Shawn Withy-Allen fumbled in UH territory. One play later, Mewelde Moore rumbled 25 yards for a touchdown and Tulane had a 26-14 lead.

Hawai'i got the ball back just before the end of the third quarter after blocking a field-goal attempt and turned it into a touchdown. Withy-Allen, facing fourth-and-one, tossed a 57-yard strike to Justin Colbert, who turned and dashed untouched to bring the Warriors within five, 26-21.

Tulane answered with a 10-play, 80-yard drive that took 4:32 off the fourth-quarter clock. Withy-Allen hit Colbert on a crossing pattern for a 31-yard score to put the Warriors within reach, but a safety by the Green Wave ended all hopes.

Colbert caught nine passes for 158 yards and two touchdowns in his last game as a Warrior. Withy-Allen completed 18-of-31 passes for 239 yards and two touchdowns.

2003 SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

HOUSTON	48	3OT
HAWAI'I	54

December 25, 2003
Aloha Stadium (29,005) ▸ Honolulu, HI

HONOLULU - An all-world performance by quarterback Timmy Chang and a defense that came up with timely big plays and three overtimes amounted to a 54-48 Hawai'i win over Houston in front of 29,005 in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl on Dec. 25 at Aloha Stadium.

Chang came off the bench to throw for 475 yards and five touchdowns on 26-of-42 passing, and Kelvin Millhouse Jr. snagged two interceptions, one that led to the go-ahead touchdown, to help Hawai'i win its second bowl game in three tries under head coach June Jones.

Chang completed passes to eight different receivers, most notably to senior Jeremiah Cockheran, who finished with five catches for a game-high 162 yards, and true freshman Jason Rivers, who had a career night with seven catches for 143 yards and three TDs.

Quarterback Kevin Kolb, who finished 19-of-34 for 332 yards and two TDs, led the Cougars to a quick 10-0 lead. UH answered back with a Nolan Miranda field goal and Chang-to-Clifton Herbert 48-yard touchdown.

Houston took a 20-13 lead at the break, but the Warrior defense and Chang responded. The defense forced two punts and two interceptions, while Chang connected on 8-of-12 for 191 yards and two scores to take the lead, 27-20, at the end of the third.

Houston scored 14 points in the fourth, including the tying TD with 22 seconds left in regulation. The teams matched touchdowns in two overtimes and Michael Brewster scored the game-winner on an 8-yard run to leave it up to the Warrior defense, which held Houston to four-and-out on the final stand.

2004 SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

UAB	40
HAWAI'I	59

December 24, 2004
Aloha Stadium (38,754) ▸ Honolulu, HI

HONOLULU - Hawai'i outscored Alabama-Birmingham (UAB), 31-14, in the second half to win the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, 59-40, Dec. 24 at Aloha Stadium. A crowd of 38,754 filled the stands, then the largest in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history.

Quarterback Timmy Chang threw for 405 (31-of-46) yards and four touchdowns, and rushed for another, while slot receiver Chad Owens caught eight passes for 114 yards and two touchdowns, and scored another on a 59-yard punt return, to put an exclamation point on both storied careers. The two were named the game's co-MVPs.

The teams traded scoring and UAB's Nick Hayes added a 36-yard field goal to make it 28-26 at halftime.

The Warriors took control in the second half. Chang threw a 15-yard strike to Owens to put Hawai'i ahead, 35-26. The pass put Chang over the 17,000-yard mark as college football's career passing leader. Four minutes later, Owens returned a punt for a 59-yard score down the near sideline to put the Warriors up, 42-26.

Justin Ayat added a 43-yard field goal, but quarterback Darrell Hackney managed an 80-yard drive and scored on a 4-yard touchdown rush to bring the score to 45-33, heading into the fourth quarter.

Chang helped put the game out of reach, putting together a 15-play, 85-yard drive, capped by a 4-yard touchdown scramble with 9:05 left to play. Hackney hit Lance Rhodes for a 17-yard touchdown to cut the Warrior lead to 12 with 2:05 left in the game, but Britton Komine returned the onside kick 42 yards to the house to end all hopes for the Blazers.

2006 SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

HAWAI'I	41
ARIZONA STATE	24

December 24, 2006
Aloha Stadium (43,435) ▸ Honolulu, HI

HONOLULU – The largest crowd in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history (43,435) saw Hawai'i score 38 second-half points to defeat Arizona State, 41-24, Dec. 24 at Aloha Stadium.

Warrior quarterback Colt Brennan threw for a school-record 559 yards (33 of 42) and five touchdowns, giving him 58 touchdown passes on the season, a new NCAA record. Jason Rivers tied the school record with 14 catches for a school- and NCAA bowl game-record 308 yards and two touchdowns. Both were named Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl co-Most Valuable Players, along with Arizona State's Ryan Torain who finished the game with 18 carries for 160 yards and one touchdown.

For the first time since opening day, Hawai'i (11-3) did not score a touchdown in the first half, squandering scoring opportunities, a missed field goal in the first quarter and an interception in the second, allowing Arizona State to take a 10-3 halftime lead.

But the Warriors erupted for 21 points in the third quarter when Brennan threw touchdown strikes to Rivers (38 yards), and two to Ryan Grice-Mullen (7 and 36 yards, respectively) to take a 24-10 lead heading into the fourth quarter. Grice-Mullen finished with eight catches for 111 yards and two touchdowns.

Dan Kelly added a 43-yard field goal before Arizona State (7-6) scored 14 straight points to cut the Warrior lead to three, 27-24, with 10:25 left to play.

But Brennan and the Warrior offense were not finished. Brennan found Davone Bess for a 21-yard touchdown to cap an 80-yard drive, and Rivers capped a 95-yard drive with a 79-yard touchdown catch-and-run to seal the win.

2008 ALLSTATE SUGAR BOWL

HAWAI'I	10
GEORGIA	41

January 1, 2008
Louisiana Superdome (74,383) ▸ New Orleans, LA

NEW ORLEANS - The No. 10 University of Hawai'i Warriors (12-1) had its dreams of a perfect season come to an end with a 41-10 loss at the hands of No. 4 Georgia (11-2) in front of a sold-out crowd of 74,383 at the 2008 Allstate Sugar Bowl at the Louisiana Superdome.

Colt Brennan had his lowest career passing total as a starter, going 22-for-38 with 169 yards and three interceptions. He ended his career with 31 NCAA records.

Jason Rivers had another big bowl game, catching 10 passes for 105 yards, his fourth 100-plus yard game in four bowl games played. Ryan Grice-Mullen scored the lone touchdown reception for the Warriors.

Georgia scored on its first possession as Knowshon Moreno ran in a 17-yard touchdown before UH answered with an 11-play, 42-yard drive resulting in a 41-yard field goal by Dan Kelly.

But it was all Georgia from then on, as the Bulldogs scored on their next three possessions. Moreno started it with an 11-yard touchdown run. They then followed it up with a 52-yard field goal by Brandon Coutu and an 11-yard touchdown pass from Matthew Stafford to Sean Bailey, making the score 24-3 at halftime.

Georgia would add another touchdown on a fumble recovery by Sugar Bowl Most Outstanding Player Marcus Howard. The Bulldogs added 10 more points to make it 41-3 before UH was able to score their only touchdown.

Tyler Graunke entered the game in the middle of the fourth quarter and went 13-for-19 with 142 yards while leading the Warriors to their lone touchdown drive.

2008 SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

HAWAI'I	21
NOTRE DAME	49

December 24, 2008
Aloha Stadium (45,718) ▸ Honolulu, HI

HONOLULU – Hawai'i concluded its 2008 campaign with a 49-21 loss to Notre Dame in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl Christmas Eve at Aloha Stadium. UH finished the year with a 7-7 record.

Making its sixth bowl appearance in the last seven years, the Warriors could do little to contain the Fighting Irish who finished with a 7-6 mark. The loss ended a string of three straight Hawai'i Bowl wins for UH dating back to 2003.

Jimmy Clausen passed for 401 yards and five touchdowns to end Notre Dame's nine-game bowl losing streak and give the Fighting Irish their first bowl win in 15 years. Clausen, who passed for 302 yards and three touchdowns in the first half, completed 22-of-26 passes en route to co-MVP honors.

Clausen shared the MVP award with sophomore receiver Golden Tate, his primary target, who hauled in six passes for 177 yards. Tate caught touchdown passes of 69, 18 and 40 yards. The three touchdown receptions tied a Hawai'i Bowl record.

Senior wide receiver Aaron Bain earned bowl MVP honors for Hawai'i after scoring two touchdowns on the day. Bain finished with career-highs in receptions (8) and yards (109). Junior quarterback Greg Alexander finished 23-of-39 for 261 yards for UH. Senior Solomon Elimimian, the school's all-time leader in tackles, led UH with nine stops, including one sack.

UH made it a 14-7 game when Bain scored on a 10-yard connection from Alexander midway through the second quarter. It was all Irish after that. Notre Dame answered right back on its next possession with a 69-yard bomb from Clausen to Tate to move its cushion to two touchdowns and begin a string of 28 unanswered points by the Fighting Irish.

2010 SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

HAWAI'I	35
TULSA	62

December 24, 2010
Aloha Stadium (43,673) ▸ Honolulu, HI

HONOLULU – A turnover-riddled Hawai'i team fell to Tulsa, 62-35, in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl Christmas Eve at Aloha Stadium. The Warriors finished the season with a 10-4 mark.

Tulsa scored 24 points off of six UH turnovers in the first half, including two interception returns for touchdowns. UH limited the dangerous Tulsa offense to just 94 yards and five first downs in the first half but the Golden Hurricane took advantage of an error-prone Warrior offense to stake a 27-14 halftime lead, a lead they would not relinquish.

Hawai'i ended the game with a 550-531 advantage in yards, but still lost handily while giving up their most points since a 63-17 loss to No. 1 USC in 2005.

Tulsa All-American Damaris Johnson earned bowl MVP honors for Tulsa (10-3) after racking up 326 all-purpose yards. Johnson tallied 94 yards rushing, 101 receiving and 127 in returns en route to setting a new NCAA career mark in all-purpose yardage. Meanwhile, playing his final game as a Warrior, senior Greg Salas recorded 13 catches for a career-high 214 yards and two touchdowns.

Curnelius Arnick had two interceptions, including a 54-yard touchdown return in the second quarter to lead a Tulsa defense that recorded five interceptions.

Both offenses got into gear in the second half and the Warriors cut the Golden Hurricane lead to just six points on two occasions in the third quarter. However, Tulsa pulled away with a pair of touchdowns—a Johnson 67-yard run and a Thomas Roberson 47-yard reception—to take a 20-point lead into the fourth quarter.

Former University of Hawai'i quarterbacks Timmy Chang and Colt Brennan re-wrote the school passing and total offense record books with a combined 93 records. The duo also tied or broke 45 NCAA records including career records for yardage (Timmy Chang, 17,072) and touchdowns (Colt Brennan, 131). Those records have since been broken by Houston's Case Keenum.

Chang, a four-year starter from 2000-04, also set the NCAA record for career total offense (16,910) and at the conclusion of his career, ranked third in touchdown passes (117). Brennan, who succeeded Chang from 2005-07, was second all-time in total offense (14,740) and passing efficiency (167.6) and third in career passing yards (14,193) at the conclusion of his career.

TIMMY CHANG (2000-04)

- Set NCAA passing yards record (17,072), breaking Ty Detmer's record in the first quarter against Louisiana Tech on Nov. 6, 2004, at Aloha Stadium.
- 2000 WAC Freshman of the Year and first team all-WAC in 2004. Also named second team all-WAC in 2002 and honorable mention in 2000 and '03.
- Two-time Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl Most Outstanding Player (2003 and '04). Led UH to victories over Houston in 2003 (475 yds, 5 TDs) and UAB in 2004 (405 yds, 4 TDs).
- Posted 36 career games with 300 or more yards passing and 11 career games with 400 or more yards. Career-best 534 yards passing at Louisiana Tech on Oct. 18, 2003.
- Then school-record six touchdown passes against Idaho on Nov. 20, 2004. Recorded 37 career multiple-touchdown games.
- Started first three games of 2001 season before sitting out the rest of the season and earning a medical hardship.

1925 FIGHTING DEANS

The 1925 Fighting Deans completed the school's second straight perfect season by winning all 10 games. During the 1924-25 seasons, the "Wonder Teams" outscored their opponents, 606-29.

1992 WAC CHAMPION RAINBOW WARRIORS

The 1992 Rainbow Warriors captured a share of the school's first WAC Championship and earned a trip to the Holiday Bowl, where they defeated Illinois, 27-17.

ALL-TIME RESULTS

The University of Hawai'i football program officially began as a club sport in 1909 as the "Fighting Deans," two years after the College of Hawai'i was founded. The College of Hawai'i became the University of Hawai'i in 1920. The University of Hawai'i became a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) in 1946 and the football program played its first all-college schedule in 1966.

1999 WAC CHAMPION WARRIORS

The 1999 Warriors set an NCAA record for biggest turnaround with a 9-4 record and share of the WAC championship. UH, which finished 0-12 a year earlier, was invited to the Jeep O'ahu Bowl and defeated Oregon State, 23-17.

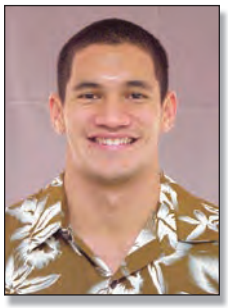

2007 WAC CHAMPION WARRIORS

The 2007 Warriors finished a perfect 12-0 regular season and won their first outright WAC championship. UH earned a trip to the school's first BCS bowl game where it lost to Georgia in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

BEN YEE MOST INSPIRATIONAL AWARD

The Ben Yee Most Inspirational Award was presented annually to the player(s) who exemplifies courage and leadership during the season. Ben Yee, a long-time supporter of the Warrior Football Program who, along with Alec Waterhouse and Ed Wong, formed the Na Koa Football Booster Club, selects each recipient in conjunction with the football staff at the end of each season. From 1969-76, the Most Inspirational Award was named after former head coach Clark Shaughnessy. No award was presented from 1977-94 and in 2012-15.

NFL DRAFT PICKS

A total of 70 former Warriors have been selected in the NFL Draft. In the 2002 draft, wide receiver Ashley Lelie was the program's highest pick, taken in the first round (19th overall) by the Denver Broncos. At least one Warrior has been selected in 12 of the last 16 drafts, including a record five players who were taken in the 2007 draft.

THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

The state of Hawai'i consists of eight main islands: Ni'ihau, Kaua'i, O'ahu, Maui, Moloka'i, Lana'i, Kaho'olawe, and the Big Island of Hawai'i.

Hawai'i is the most isolated population center on the face of the earth. Hawai'i is 2,390 miles from California; 3,850 miles from Japan; 4,900 miles from China; and 5,280 miles from the Philippines.

From east to west, Hawai'i is the widest state in the United States. The Hawaiian Archipelago consists of over 130 scattered points of land stretching some 1,600 miles in length from the Kure Atoll in the north to the island of Hawai'i in the south.

The University of Hawai'i at Mānoa is the flagship campus of the UH system, which is comprised of three universities and seven community colleges. UH Mānoa enjoys recognized national and international standing—one of only a handful of institutions to hold the distinction of being a land-grant, sea-grant and space-grant research institution. Its Honolulu-based campus and facilities span the mountains to the sea, while world-class astronomy facilities in Hawai'i County are on the same island as a fiery, still-erupting volcano. UH Mānoa's schools and programs are considered leaders in the perpetuation of the Hawaiian language and pursuit of Hawaiian studies. They range from the Hawai'inuiākea School of Hawaiian Knowledge, one of the largest schools of indigenous knowledge in the nation, to the medical school's Native Hawaiian Center of Excellence, to the law school's Center for Excellence in Native Hawaiian Law.

A DISTINGUISHED HISTORY

Founded in 1907, the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa is the flagship campus of the University of Hawai'i System. A destination of choice, students and faculty come from across the nation and the world to take advantage of UH Manoa's unique research opportunities, diverse community, nationally-ranked Division I athletics program, and beautiful landscape. Consistently ranked a "best value" among U.S. colleges and universities, our students get a great education and have a unique multicultural global experience in a Hawaiian place of learning—truly like no place else on earth.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

UH Mānoa is a leader in Hawaiian, Pacific, and Asian studies, as well as in fields like Astronomy, Oceanography, International Business, and Travel Industry Management. We offer a wide array of degrees and certificates, including bachelor's degrees in 87 fields, master's degrees in 87 fields, and doctorates in 51 fields. We also offer three first professional degrees, three post-baccalaureate degrees, 29 undergraduate certificates, and 27 graduate certificates. We are the only UH campus with schools of Law, Medicine, Engineering, Nursing & Dental Hygiene, and Social Work, among others.

A LEADER IN RESEARCH

One of only a handful of universities nationwide to hold the distinction of being a land-, sea-, and space-grant institution, UH Mānoa is ranked in the top 50 public universities in research expenditures by the National Science Foundation. The University of Hawai'i at Mānoa maintains a vibrant and active research program with more than $300 million in new extramural funds for research in 2014. UH Mānoa's faculty includes members of the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering and the National Institute of Medicine.

Classified by the Carnegie Foundation as having "very high research activity," UH Mānoa is known for its pioneering research in such fields as oceanography, astronomy, Pacific Islands and Asian area studies, linguistics, cancer research, and genetics.

FIRST-RATE SCIENCE

UH Mānoa's Hawai'i Institute of Marine Biology (HIMB) at Coconut Island in Kane'ohe Bay is the world's only coral reef research center and marine biology lab built on a coral reef.

Our top-ranked Institute for Astronomy is involved in three major next-generation telescope projects: the Pan-STARRS project which will detect killer asteroids threatening Earth; a NASA Discovery mission to a new class of comets that may be the source of the earth's ocean water; and the Advanced Technology Solar Telescope on Maui's Haleakala, which when complete, would be the largest solar telescope ever built and would investigate the sun's magnetic fields.

Within the next four years, the Hawai'i Space Flight Program will make UH Mānoa the first university in the world with the capability to design, build, launch, and control its own satellites.

DIVERSITY

UH Mānoa is proud of its diverse, multiethnic heritage. The School of Medicine is the most multi-ethnic in the nation, and the Law School consistently ranks among the most diverse in the nation.

HAWAIIAN, PACIFIC & ASIAN STUDIES

UH Mānoa is home to the nation's only School of Hawaiian Knowledge, which offers both bachelor's and master's degrees encompassing the breadth of Hawaiian knowledge and experience.

Our School of Pacific and Asian Studies hosts eight area centers focused on Asia and the Pacific, including Chinese Studies, Japanese Studies, Korean Studies, Okinawan Studies, Pacific Islands Studies, Philippine Studies, South Asian Studies, and Southeast Asian Studies. We also offer instruction in more Asian-Pacific languages than any other U.S. institution of higher learning, from Hawaiian and Samoan to Korean and Japanese.

The East-West Center is an education and research organization established by the U.S. Congress in 1960 to strengthen relations and understanding among the peoples and nations of Asia, the Pacific, and the United States. Located on UH Mānoa's campus, this national and regional resource offers an interdisciplinary research program, dialogue and professional enrichment programs, and educational programs with strong ties to UH Mānoa students, faculty, and staff.

UNIQUE FACILITIES

- The design of the Center for Korean Studies was inspired by Kyongbok Palace in Seoul, Korea. The main building was based on the design of the palace's throne hall.

-The Waikiki Aquarium, founded in 1904 and part of UH Manoa since 1919, is the third oldest public aquarium in the United States. The aquarium was designated the Coastal Ecosystem Learning Center for the Pacific Island Region of the Coastal America Partnership. The aquarium's exhibits, programs, and research focus on the aquatic life of Hawai'i and the tropical Pacific.

-The Lyon Arboretum and Botanical Garden is the only university botanical garden located in a tropical rainforest in the United States. On its 194 acres, the Arboretum maintains a world-renowned collection of more than 5,000 tropical plant species including one of the largest palm collections found in a botanical garden. Its major emphases are tropical plants, native Hawaiian plants, conservation biology, and Hawaiian ethnobotany.

-UH Mānoa is home to nearly 600 kinds of plants and trees, including over 100 Monkey Pod trees (Samanea saman) or 'ohai and a gigantic Baobab tree (Adansonia digitata), also known as a Dead Rat tree. Garden collections at UH Mānoa include a palm collection, a botanical garden, and the East-West Center Japanese Garden and Native Plants Garden.

Proud to be recognized as a land-, sea-, and space-grant institution, UH Mānoa is ranked in the top 50 public universities in research expenditures by the National Science Foundation. Classified by the Carnegie Foundation as having "very high research activity," UH Mānoa is known for its pioneering research in such fields as oceanography, astronomy, Pacific Islands and Asian area studies, linguistics, cancer research, and genetics. The University of Hawai'i at Mānoa maintains a vibrant and active research program with more than $300 million in new extramural funds for research in 2014.

THE RAINBOW

Before 1923, UH teams were nicknamed the "Deans." Then in the final game of the 1923 season, UH head coach Otto Klum's squad upset Oregon State, 7-0, at Mo'ili'ili Field. During the game, a rainbow appeared over the field. Reporters started calling UH teams "the Rainbows," and the tradition began that Hawai'i would not lose a game if a rainbow appeared.

Rainbows, however, had magical powers long before football came to the islands. Hawaiian chiefs considered them sacred and used them as signs of a chief's presence. A rainbow hovering over a newborn child indicated that he was of a god-like rank.

The rainbow was part of the official logo at the UH Athletics Department from 1982-2000.

THE WARRIOR

The Warrior holds an honored place in Hawaiian history, for it was the warrior who united the Hawaiian Islands under Kamehameha the Great. The Hawaiians expected the warrior to display great strength, skill and a fighting spirit.

Although it wasn't until 1974 that the UH football team adopted the nickname "Rainbow Warriors," the use of the name goes back a number of years.

One reason for using the nickname is the tremendous amount of support of the UH scholarship fundraising organization, 'Ahahui Koa Anuenue—the Order of the Rainbow Warrior. Since its inception in 1966, this organization has provided a tremendous amount of support to Hawai'i's student-athletes.

THE RAINBOW WĀHINE

In 1972, Dr. Donnis Thompson, a professor in the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department, with the assistance of the men's Athletics Department, created the first women's athletics program. The men's program was known as the "Rainbows" and so Dr. Thompson called the women's athletics program the "Rainbow Wahine."

The Hawaiian word "wahine" is translated in English as woman, and the pluralized word "wahine" (with the macron over the "a"), means women, hence the name Rainbow Wahine. She also created a new logo based on the Rainbow in a rounded version and added the name "wahine." Dr. Thompson became the first women's athletics director and served until 1981.

THE "H" LOGO

The UH Athletics Department unveiled a new logo in 2000. The theme of the new logo and identity is "pupukahi i holomua," translated into English as "unite and move forward as one."

Although the "H" outwardly represents Hawai'i, it also carries the significance of the Hawaiian expression and meaning of "ha." In Hawaiian culture, "ha" means "breath"—the spirit of life passed on from one person to another, generation to generation, with its lessons and success.

Although the patterns on the logo are inspired by the renaissance of the use of Hawaiian kapa designs, they are decorative. They represent the characteristics of the different people who have come together to obtain knowledge, success and efficient skills.

The triangles are universally symbolic. The three points represent the balance of the individual: the body, mind and spirit. Ancient Hawaiians believed that each entity with these values could not stand strong without the other two. This is the significance to the specific three triangles within the "H."

THE SEAL

The original University of Hawai'i seal, adopted in 1921 by the Board of Regents and amended in 1946, contains a torch and book titled "Malamalama" ("the light of knowledge") surrounded by the state motto, "Ua mau ke ea o ka 'aina i ka pono" ("the life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness").

In 2006, the seal was updated to modernize it in a manner that reflects its history, spirit and global perspective while providing a readable version for modern print, electronic and product applications.

The motto, inscribed in both the Hawaiian and English languages on Founders' Gate at the entrance to the Manoa Campus on University Avenue, is "Maluna a'e o na lahui o pau ke ola ke kanaka" ("above all nations is humanity").

THE COLORS

Green and white became the official UH colors when a group of faculty wives were deciding on decoration and color schemes for the school's social calendar. At the time, materials took weeks to be shipped to the islands, making materials of many colors scarce.

The wives reasoned that basic white would always be available and green decorations could constantly be provided by Hawai'i's lush growth of tropical plants.

As it turns out, green is the color of Lono, the ancient Hawaiian god of agriculture. In addition, the use of green represents not only the richness of Manoa, but also spiritual prosperity and success. The UH Manoa campus itself is located in the heart of the rich and fertile Manoa Valley. Green is also the color of the ti leaf, a symbol of good omen and an emblem of divine power.

White, meanwhile, was associated with Hawaiian royalty and is symbolized with the best and the finest.

With the creation of the new athletics logo in 2000, the Athletics Department incorporated black and silver into its color scheme.

For many cultures in Hawai'i, black is a color that is respected. For Hawaiians, it takes them back to the "kumulipo," the chant of creation, referring to the symbolism "from out of the darkness." The hidden meaning states that there is a new birth, or one cleanses to start anew.

Silver comes from the shimmering reflection of rainfall as it creates a blanket of mist over Manoa and a symbol of hope and victory. It ultimately forms a bow or arc of prismatic color, the rainbow that is frequently seen over the valley.

FIGHT SONG: "Co-ed"

Here's to our dear Hawai'i
Here's to our Green and White
Here's to our Alma Mater
Here's to the team with fight
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Here's to old warriors calling.
Here's to old battles won.
Here's to Hawai'i's victory.
Here's to each valiant one.

ALMA MATER

In green Manoa Valley our Alma Mater stands
Where mountain winds and showers refresh her fertile lands;
The flag of freedom beckons above her shining walls,
To larger truth and service our Alma Mater calls.

Hawai'i, we have gathered within thy wide-flung doors,
As sons and daughters claiming her freely offered stores;
Our loyal praise we tender, and pledge to hold thy aim,
Till ocean's far horizons shall hear thy honored name.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR DAVID A. K. MATLIN

David Matlin enters his second year as the University of Hawai'i athletics director.

As a former employee of the UH Athletics Department, an MBA graduate from UH's prestigious Shidler College of Business, and a local business leader with more than 20 years of sports management experience in Hawai'i, Matlin has a deep appreciation for the significance of the role that athletics plays in the success of the University and in the lives of the people of Hawai'i.

Prior to coming to the University of Hawai'i in 2015, his previous 13 years were spent with an affiliation with ESPN and managing the Hawai'i Bowl, Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic, and the Hawaiian Islands Invitational which allowed him to build relationships with NCAA conferences, athletic directors, and national organizations. He was one of nine members on the Executive Committee of the Football Bowl Association, which is the national organization established to promote, protect and ensure the quality of the student-athlete experience for all college bowl games. Matlin is well-respected among local and national constituents in the field of sports, specifically within intercollegiate athletics.

Matlin has over two decades of sports and entertainment marketing and management experience and has been involved with various entertainment events highlighted by the Major League Baseball World Series; the 25th Houston Astrodome Anniversary; the Miss Universe Pageant; NCAA men's volleyball Final Four; and the NIT Basketball Tournament. He has been the Executive Director of the Hawai'i Bowl and the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic for the past seven years. He was also involved in other productions such as the Christina Aguilera, Howie Mandel and Ray Charles concerts, as well as the Broadway musicals "Annie" and "Annie Get Your Gun."

This is Matlin's second stint at the UH Athletics Department after serving five years (1994-99) as an information officer primarily working with the ticket office, while also enrolled in the school's MBA program. While working at UH, he was instrumental in developing and integrating information technology to assist with sales and distribution of individual, group and season tickets for all of UH's ticketed programs. He also implemented a point-of-sale ticketing, credit authorization and remote phone sales system which increased ticket sales from 300,000 to more than 600,000 in a two-year period. He helped to devise a strategic three-year plan which included online and remote outlet sales, as well as interactive voice recognition for telephone sales.

Matlin graduated from the University of Michigan in 1987 with a Bachelor of Arts. Soon after graduating, he started his career as a marketing operations manager for the Houston Astros. In three years, he created operating procedures for the stadium's information systems, promotions and special events. He was also in charge of fulfilling over $3 million in local, regional and national sponsorship programs. In his fourth year, at the age of 26, he was promoted as the youngest Director of Sales in Major League Baseball. Matlin oversaw a staff of 16 and handled renewals and new sales of both group and season tickets, skyboxes and luxury suites. In just two years, new season-ticket sales increased by 35 percent, and he was instrumental in developing the Diamond Level seating area which netted an additional $700,000 in ticket revenue in 1993.

After six years with the Astros, Matlin moved to San Antonio, Texas, where he was the assistant general manager/director of marketing of the Arts Center Enterprises and The Majestic Theatre. There, he honed his marketing skills in advertising and promoting Broadway shows, musical concerts and comedy acts.

Matlin became the vice president of m2c and the director of operations for the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl in 2002. He has also provided management consulting for Panda Travel, Sodexo, and AIO Group. He focused his efforts on business development and client training. In 2008, he created DAKM Enterprises, Inc. and was named the Executive Director of both the Hawai'i Bowl and later the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic. Matlin was also the president of Value Travel Hawai'i.

Matlin is married to the former Dana Hatate and they reside in Honolulu with their two children, Kisa and Ross.

ALOHA STADIUM

Home of the Rainbow Warrior football team since 1975. The 50,000-seat stadium has also served as home to NFL's Pro Bowl and the Hawai'i Bowl. In 2011, the stadium installed a new "Removable Active Panel" artificial turf system developed by UBU Sports and was named the Hawaiian Airlines Field.

ATHLETICS COMPLEX

Houses athletic administration, staff and coaches' offices. Also features two practice gyms, academic center, locker, equipment and training rooms and a newly renovated lecture hall.

CLARENCE T. C. CHING BEACH VOLLEYBALL

Completed in 2015, the Clarence T. C. Ching Beach Volleyball Courts is the home of UH's beach volleyball team. There are two competition courts located on the Diamond Head side of the Ching Athletics Complex and additional courts located on the mauka side of the pool. Seats approximately 778.

CLARENCE T. C. CHING ATHLETICS COMPLEX

Completed in 2015, the Clarence T. C. Ching Athletics Complex is the UH Mānoa's only on-campus, all-purpose track and field, football, beach volleyball, soccer and recreational facility which includes coaches' offices and locker rooms for women's soccer, cross country, and track & field teams. The entire complex seats approximately 4,100.

DUKE KAHANAMOKU AQUATIC COMPLEX

The home of the men's and women's swimming & diving teams and women's water polo team. Locker rooms and showers were renovated and a new conference room/player lounge was added in 2011. In 2015, shade structures for the diving wells were added. Named after the great Hawaiian Olympic swimmer and surfer, the DKAC seats 2,000.

LES MURAKAMI STADIUM

Home to the baseball team. It was renamed in 2002 after the former coach who guided the Rainbows for 31 years. The seats were replaced in 2008 to all green seats to give the stands a fresh, new look. In the winter of 2007, a Domo Turf surface was installed. A new video scoreboard was added in 2014. LMS seats 4,312.

MARINE EDUCATION AND TRAINING CENTER

Since 1995, the Honolulu Community College Marine Education and Training Center has been the home to the co-ed and women's sailing teams. The $8.7 million facility has been touted as the best of its kind anywhere in the world. Covering eight acres, the center houses classrooms, work bays, laboratories, offices and a library as well as the latest in state-of-the-art equipment.

PRACTICE FIELDS

Two grass practice fields for the football and women's soccer teams. The makai field also features a shot put area and a javelin runway for track & field practice and competition.

RAINBOW WAHINE SOFTBALL STADIUM

Home to the softball team. Renovated to seat 1,200 in 1998, and in 2008, a clubhouse and athletic training room were added. Brand new stadium field lights were installed in 2014. In 2015, a brand new video scoreboard was put up in right field and customized padding was installed behind home plate.

STAN SHERIFF CENTER

Home to the men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams since 1994. It seats 10,300 and has hosted the 1998 and 2004 NCAA men's volleyball championships and the 1999 NCAA women's volleyball championship. A $2 million Daktronics scoreboard with a digital sideline board was unveiled in 2011. In 2014, the first- and second- floor concourses were resurfaced.

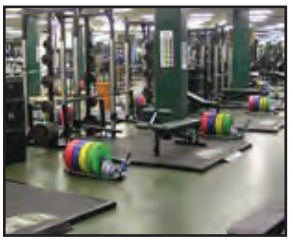

UH TENNIS COMPLEX

Home to the men's and women's tennis teams. All 12 courts underwent major renovation in 2004. In 2009, the courts were resurfaced and in 2015, shade structures were added between each of the makai courts. Seats approximately 1,000.

WAIPIO PENINSULA SOCCER STADIUM

Home to the women's soccer team since 2000. Located near Pearl Harbor, the complex was the first soccer facility of its kind in the state with 23 regulation fields, including the 4,500-seat Waipi'o Peninsula Soccer Stadium with lights for evening events. The complex covers 288 acres with two locker rooms, two training rooms, concession booths and administrative offices.

ALEXANDER WATERHOUSE TRAINING FACILITY

Since its construction in 1994, the 10,000 square-foot Alexander C. Waterhouse Physiology Research and Training Facility has provided UH student-athletes the tools to excel with quality strength training. Student-athletes are granted the opportunity to utilize various strength, flexibility, and conditioning methods, with an education in body-type testing and nutrition for the athletes to develop optimal individual performance and injury prevention.
