WE ARE CSUN

We are now "CSUN" and request that CSUN be used to refer to the school and its Division I athletic programs. Please do not refer to the school as "Cal State Northridge," "CS Northridge," "CSU Northridge," "CS North" or "Northridge." Both the men's and women's programs are the "Matadors" and there is no need to add "Ladu" before any women's athletic program.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENTS

UC Santa Barbara (11-9, 7-1 Big West) is coming off of its first loss of the conference season but is still in second-place in the Big West at 7-1. Last week, the Gauchos swept UC Riverside on the road before seeing their seven-match win streak ended with a 3-1 loss at UC Davis. Series: Tuesday's match is the 52nd meeting all-time between CSUN and UCSB with the Gauchos holding a 41-10 lead in the series. UCSB won both meetings in 2019 including a 3-2 win in Santa Barbara and a 3-0 win in Northridge. Hawai'i (11-5, 8-0 Big West) swept both Cal Poly and CSU Bakersfield at home last week to remain the only unbeaten team left in the Big West. Redshirt senior Brooke Van Sickle leads Hawai'i and ranks second in the Big West averaging 3.95 kills per set. The Rainbow Wahine lead the Big West in both blocking and opponent hitting percentage. Series: Saturday's match is the 27th meeting all-time between the Matadors and the Rainbow Wahine with Hawai'i holding a commanding 24-2 lead in the series. In the most recent meetings between the two teams, the Rainbow Wahine won in four sets in The Matadome before winning in straight sets in Honolulu.

BIG WEST STANDINGS

Two road wins last week moved the Matadors into a tie for sixth in the conference standings as the Big West season nears its midpoint. Wins at UC Davis and UC Riverside pulled the Matadors into a four-way tie with CSU Bakersfield, Long Beach State and Cal State Fullerton at 3-5. CSUN closes the first half of the Big West schedule this week against the conference front-runners, traveling to UC Santa Barbara (7-1) before hosting Hawai'i (8-0). The Matadors open the week one-game behind fifth-place UC San Diego (4-4), two games behind fourth-place UC Irvine (5-3) and three games back of third-place Cal Poly (6-2).

SENIOR SALUTE

With 24 kills in two matches last week, senior Nicole Nevarez upped her career kills total to 641. Nevarez, who ranks second on the Matadors with 157 kills this season, heads into the week averaging 2.35 kills over 273 career sets as a Matador. Nevarez, who passed the 400 career digs plateau two weeks ago, now has 429 career scoops while averaging 1.57 digs per set. Fellow senior Lexi McLeod, who surpassed 600 digs in her Matador career two weeks ago, posted a career-high 26 digs against Cal State Fullerton last week and heads into the week with 686 career digs. McLeod ranks second on the Matadors with 207 digs this season while the senior from Bakersfield is now averaging 2.44 digs per set in her career. With 63 career aces, McLeod is within 16 aces from entering the Matadors' rally scoring era top-10. Sydney Gedryn currently ranks 10th with 79 career aces. With 106 kills this season, McLeod has now posted double figure kill totals in all three of her seasons at CSUN and now has 452 career kills. Senior Makayla Bradford added 35 digs in two CSUN wins last week to move her career total to 645 digs while averaging 3.73 digs per set over 173 career sets.

CONFERENCE RANKS

The Matadors have moved into the top-10 in the Big West in all seven statistical categories for the first time this season. As a team, CSUN ranks as high as seventh this week in team blocking at 2.07 per set. Also this week, the Matadors are eighth in opponent hitting percentage (.222) and are ninth in both aces per set (1.14) and digs per set (13.36). The Matadors rank 10th in hitting percentage (.156), kills per set (11.14) and assists per set (10.11). Individually, six Matador players rank in the conference's top-20 this week. Bradford is the highest ranked CSUN player this week, ranking ninth in digs per set at 3.86. McLeod is 15th this week in digs, averaging 3.14 per set. Redshirt freshman Taylor Hunter, who has ranked as high as fourth in blocking this season, is 11th this week averaging 0.89 blocks per set followed by sophomore Lauryn Anderson who is 15th at 0.86 bps. Anderson also ranks 15th in hitting percentage at .264 while Taylor Orshoff is 18th in kills per set at 2.65 and Nevarez ranks 17th in aces at 0.21 per set.

MATADOR QUICK SETS

Senior Seyvion Waggoner had her best match of the season in CSUN's 3-2 win at UC Davis. Waggoner put down a season-high 13 kills on 22 swings to hit .409. She reached double figures in kills for the first time this season and 20th time in her career ... With 54 kills at UC Davis, the Matadors matched their team season-high which they also accomplished in four sets against Cal State Fullerton on Oct. 8 ... With 103 kills and just 33 errors in 247 attacks, the Matadors hit a combined .283 in two wins last week to improve their hitting to .156.

TERRUSA NAMED CSUN'S INTERIM HEAD COACH

Long-time Matador assistant coach Susie Terrusa became just the seventh head coach in the program's 45-year history when she was named interim head coach on Sept. 18, 2020. She follows in the footsteps of former colleague Jeff Stork, who announced his retirement the day before. Terrusa and Stork worked side-by-side for 18 years guiding the Matadors on the volleyball court. Terrusa, who was promoted to associate head coach in 2018, completed her 21st season as the program's top assistant coach in 2019. She was instrumental in the Matadors advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2013 while posting 24 wins, the most by a Matador team since 1996. This marks Terrusa's second stint as CSUN's interim head coach. She was also appointed to the role on Dec. 18, 2001, after the resignation of Dr. Lian Lu, and served in that capacity until March 15, 2002. As the interim head coach, she continued the Matadors' recruiting efforts and served as the scheduling coordinator. Under Stork, she has served as recruiting coordinator and has also assisted with the daily practice routine, fundraising, community outreach and game coaching.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following Tuesday's road match at UC Santa Barbara and Saturday's home contest with Hawai'i, the Matadors close the month of October with road matches at UC San Diego (Oct. 29) and UC Irvine (Oct. 30).

Susie Terrusa was named CSUN's interim head women's volleyball coach on Sept. 18, 2020.

Terrusa becomes just the seventh head coach in the program's 45-year history. She follows in the footsteps of former colleague Jeff Stork, who recently announced his retirement. Terrusa and Stork worked side-by-side for 18 years guiding the Matadors on the volleyball court.

"The volleyball program has a solid foundation and we're excited about where the program is headed with Susie at the helm," said Izzi. "I also want to thank her for taking on this extra responsibility during these uncertain times. Susie has been a part of our volleyball program for over 20 years and has played an integral role in building and maintaining a successful program that competes on a national level."

Terrusa, who was promoted to associate head coach in 2018, recently completed her 21st season as the program's top assistant coach in 2019. She was instrumental in the Matadors advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2013 while posting 24 wins, the most by a Matador team since 1996.

Terrusa was instrumental in the Matadors advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2013 while posting 24 wins, the most by a Matador team since 1996. CSUN has posted an impressive winning percentage of .614 (62-39) over the past four seasons. Under Terrusa's guidance, CSUN's last several recruiting classes have propelled the Matadors into the upper echelon of the Big West Conference as evidenced by CSUN's first-ever Big West championship in 2013 and third-place finishes in both 2011 and 2012.image

During the 2003 and 2004 seasons, she helped guide the Matadors to a 33-24 overall record and a 23-13 mark in the Big West. The Matadors also earned consecutive berths in the NCAA Tournament.

Terrusa was named interim head coach on Dec. 18, 2001, after the resignation of Dr. Lian Lu, and served in that capacity until March 15, 2002. As the interim head coach, she continued the Matadors' recruiting efforts and served as the scheduling coordinator. Under Stork, she has served as recruiting coordinator and has also assisted with the daily practice routine, fund-raising, community outreach and game coaching.

Terrusa was an elementary school teacher at St. Euphrasia School in Granada Hills, Calif., from 1991-99. She began her coaching career in September of 1998 as the boy's volleyball head coach at Agoura High School where she coached until June of 1990. She also served as the head coach of a 16-and-under girl's club team from 1989-92.

Terrusa was the head coach for the girl's program at Alemany High School from 1996-99. While at AHS, she also served as the boy's varsity assistant coach and the boy's junior varsity head coach from February 1995 to August 1999.

Formerly Susie Taylor, she lettered four seasons as a setter at UCLA (1983-86) and was a member of the Bruins' 1984 squad which captured the NCAA Championship.

Terrusa earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from UCLA in 1987. She attained a Multiple Subject Preliminary Teaching Credential from CSUN in September of 1997. She and her husband, Paul, reside in Moorpark, Calif
