TIPOFF

- Quincy will hit the road to start the season with the GMAC/GLVC Crossover as they take on the University of Findlay.
- QU will enter the season with a new head coach, Brad Hoyt, who will join the Hawks after thirteen seasons across the road at John Wood Community College.
- The Hawks will have to find new ways to score, as their top three scorers from last year have departed, including Zion Richardson who was third in the GLVC averaging 17.7 points per game.
- With over 67% of last year's points scored not on this year's roster, the Hawks will look to use their experience to their advantage. Quincy brought in five transfers, including five junior college players and Ethyn Brown from the University of Illinois-Chicago.
- Although the Hawks lost their top three scorers, they are returning two primary starters - Mason Wujek and John Kelly III - and five more letter-winners.
- Quincy finished thirteenth out of fourteenth finishing only ahead of Southwest Baptist in the GLVC standings. A historic program has yet to finish over .500 since their legendary season in 2016-17, first-year head coach looks to bring his winning ways from John Wood over to Quincy.

BRAD HOYT

HEAD COACH

14th Season Overall: 269-156 (.633)

1st Season at Quincy: 0-0 (.000)

Hoyt comes to QU from John Wood Community College, where he was the Head Coach of the men's basketball team and athletic director dating back to 2011. His 269-156 record at the helm of the TrailBlazers program makes Hoyt the all-time winningest coach in the programs' history.

Coach Hoyt has coached basketball in the Tri-State area for over a quarter century, spending the majority of that time at JWCC in the role of head or associate head coach, also making a three year stop as the skipper of the Culver-Stockton College Wildcats.

During his tenure at JWCC, Hoyt led the Trailblazers to six Mid West Athletic Conference Championships along with four national tournament qualifications. He was named the conference, region, district and Illinois Basketball Coaches Association Coach of the Year on four occasions. Under Hoyt, eight players earned conference and region Player of the Year along with eight first or second team NJCAA All-Americans, 27 All-Region selections, 30 All-Conference choices and four conference Freshman of the Year picks.

In addition to serving as Head Coach of the basketball team and Athletic Directory at JWCC, Hoyt also acted as the Dean of Student Affairs at the college, a founding member of the NJCAA Diversity Committee, Mid West Athletic Conference men's basketball chair, Region 24 men's basketball DII chair and men's Region 24 director, overseeing all men's sports for Region 24.

Hoyt has been a member of the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association since 2004 and the National Association of Basketball Coaches since 1999. He and his wife, Nikki, celebrated 26 years of marriage this year and have three children: Sydnie, Jake and Luke.
