Thundering Herd Notes

Notes from WKU

The game captains were senior receiver Marcel Williams (Palm Coast, Florida) and senior running back Keion Davis (Fairburn, Georgia) on offense, and senior defensive lineman Ryan Bee (Ashland, Ohio) and junior safety Malik Gant (Washington, D.C.) on defense.

Marshall's win evens the series at 5-5. The Herd has won the last two games. Marshall's win in Bowling Green was the first for the program since Oct. 7, 1950, a 47-13 decision.

With a win, Doc Holliday ties Jim Donnan for the third-most coaching wins in program history with 64. Cam Henderson is second on the list with 68 wins, and Bob Pruett won 94 games from 1996-2004.

Senior receiver Tyre Brady (Homestead, Florida) eclipsed 100 yards in receiving for the second time this season and the sixth time in his two-year career with the Herd. Brady had his third career two-touchdown game, and the 162 receiving yards rank as the third most in his career.

Senior running back Keion Davis passed Ron Lear for 18th place on the program's career rushing list. Lear had 1,779 yards. Davis has 1,789 yards.

With his fourth tackle in the first half against WKU, Chase Hancock (Beckley, West Virginia) reached 250 career tackles for his four-year career.

Redshirt junior Alex Locklear (Huntington, West Virginia) started at right tackle in place of Tarik Adams (Valdosta, Georgia). It was Locklear's second career start. Kereon Merrell (Vienna, Georgia) started at cornerback in place of Jaylon McClain-Sapp (Jacksonville, Florida). It was also Merrell's second career start.

Senior offensive lineman Jordan Dowrey (Winchester, Virginia) made his 40th career start for Marshall. Dowrey is the active leader for career starts.

Senior linebacker Donyae Moody had his first career forced fumble.

Junior receiver Obi Obialo equaled a career high with 80 receiving yards.

Junior tight end Armani Levias established a new career long with a 35-yard reception.

Sophomore running back Tyler King had the longest rush by a Herd running back this season (20 yards).

Sophomore safety Nazeeh Johnson's interception was the second of his career (both vs. WKU – one in 2017).

Marshall's game-winning score came with 1:44 left in the fourth quarter. The last time Marshall scored later in a game to turn a deficit into the final margin of victory was on Justin Haig's field goal on the final play to beat FAU 24-23 in 2013.

Western Kentucky ran for only 61 yards (on 32 attempts). That's the fewest rush yards Marshall has allowed in a game since last season's matchup with the Hilltoppers, when WKU rushed for 34 yards (19 att.).

The Thundering Herd held WKU to just 4-for-16 clip on third down and an 0-for-2 effort on fourth down.

Brady Among the Leaders

Tyre Brady now ranks No. 21 in the nation in receptions per game (6.5), No. 24 in receiving yards per game (92.3) and is tied with several guys at No. 14 with five touchdown receptions.

Bee Climbs the Charts

Ryan Bee's two sacks against WKU give him 16 for his career. His next one will move him into Marshall's all-time Top 10. Rodney Garrett is No. 10 on the list with 16.5 in his career (1990-93).

Tough Against the Run

Through four games, Marshall is allowing an average of only 103 rush yards per game - that ranks No. 16 in the nation.

Green Through Four

Isaiah Green currently ranks second among all Marshall signal-callers in their first four starts in completions (87), passing yards (1,108) and is tied for fourth in touchdown passes (8). He is also passing for an average of 277 yards per game, which ranks No. 22 in the nation.

Protecting the Home Turf

Marshall is nationally known for being one of the toughest places to play in college football. The program has won 82.5 percent (156-33) of its home games in Joan C. Edwards Stadium, the fifth-highest mark in the country.

Stingy D

The Herd has won 33 of its last 37 when holding offenses to 5.0 yards per play or fewer. The Herd has won 20 straight when allowing fewer than 300 yards. Thirteen (13) times in Doc Holliday's eight-plus seasons has the Herd allowed 125 yards passing or fewer. Marshall is 12-1 (.923) in those games.

Marshall is 23-3 (.885) under Doc Holliday when the defense does not allow a rushing touchdown.

Feel the Rush

The Herd is now 33-3 (.917) in the last six seasons when rushing for 150+ yards and 26-2 (.929) the last six years with 200+ on the ground.

Herd Finishes under Holliday

Since Doc Holliday became head coach in 2010, the Herd has an excellent record of finishing off its opponents once it takes the lead. Marshall is 48-7 (.873) when it scores first, 44-7 (.863) when leading after the first quarter, 51-3 (.944) when leading at halftime and 51-4 (.927) when leading after three quarters. In fact, Marshall was won 37 of its last 38 contests (Charlotte, 2016) when it has the halftime lead.

Hang on!

It's easy to see why Herd Coach Doc Holliday talks about ball security so often. His nine Marshall teams have provided a strong indicator of why turnover margin is so important. Holliday's Herd teams have a combined 64-43 (.598) record. When Marshall has an edge in turnover margin, it is 35-8 (.814). When the turnover number is equal, Marshall is 15-6 (.714). But when the opponent is more sure-handed, the Herd is 14-29 (.326).

Of Marshall's 107 games under Holliday, the Herd has played 52 while committing zero or one turnover, amassing a record of 38-14 (.731) in those games.

Marshall is 20-4 (.833) under Holliday when it has a turnover margin of +2 or better.

The Thundering Herd had five takeaways in the 2018 win over Eastern Kentucky, giving Holliday eight consecutive wins when his team forces four or more turnovers.

30+

Marshall's 32 points versus Eastern Kentucky makes the Herd 35-3 (.921) in its last 38 games when scoring 30+ points. All of those games are under Doc Holliday.

50+

Marshall's 62-0 win over Morgan State in 2016 was the 16th time that the Thundering Herd has reached the 50+-point plateau under coach Doc Holliday, one more than Jim Donnan (1990-95) for the all-time school mark. Bob Pruett (1996-2004) reached that mark 14 times and Cam Henderson (1936-42, 1946-49) did it on 13 occasions.

Perfect Versus Texas at Home

Interestingly enough, Marshall has never lost to a school from Texas at home. The Thundering Herd is a perfect 12-0 against Texas schools in games played in Huntington. Marshall owns two wins over North Texas (1988, 2015), two wins over Houston (2008, 2012), three wins over Rice (2007, 2011, 2014), two wins over SMU (2005, 2009), two wins over UTEP (2006, 2010) and one victory over UTSA (2013).

Bowl Prowess

Marshall enters 2018 featuring an .846 winning percentage (11-2) in all NCAA-sanctioned bowl games, the highest mark nationally among programs that have made at least five appearances. (The Thundering Herd also participated in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl, at which point it was not sanctioned). The top are below:

1. Marshall: .846 (11-2)

2. Utah: .810 (17-4)
3. Army: .714 (6-2)
4. San Jose State: .700 (7-3)
5. Boise State: .667 (12-6)
5. Rutgers: .667 (6-3)
5. South Florida: .667 (6-3)
5. Wake Forest: .667 (8-4)
9. USC: .654 (34-18)
10. Louisiana Tech: .650 (6-3-1)

Doc Holliday is 5-0 in bowl games with the Thundering Herd and has appeared in 26 bowls since entering the coaching ranks.

Marshall-South Carolina Cancelled

The Thundering Herd's September 15 contest at South Carolina was cancelled due to severe weather caused by Hurricane Florence.

Notes from NC State

The game captains were senior receiver Tyre Brady and junior receiver Obi Obialo on offense, and senior linebacker Chase Hancock and junior safety Malik Gant on defense.

Saturday's attendance of 32,349 was the 12th-largest in Joan C. Edwards Stadium history.

Marshall and North Carolina State met for the fifth time. NC State has won all five meetings. Saturday was the first time the teams have met outside of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Marshall quarterback Isaiah Green connected with receiver Marcel Williams for an 82-yard touchdown in the second quarter. It was Green's longest pass of his career and the longest reception of Williams' career. The pass play is the longest by the Herd offense this season, tied for the 16th-longest pass play in program history and the 25th pass play of 80-plus yards in MU history.

Marcel Williams' touchdown reception was the third of his career and first of the season. His previous career long was 59 yards. The touchdown reception was his first since Oct. 28, 2017 against Florida International.

Senior running back Keion Davis set a new single game best for receptions (six) and receiving yards (99), and had a career long reception (31 yards). The 99 receiving yards ranks No. 4 on Marshall's all-time list for running backs in a single game. The record of 111 yards is held by Jackie Hunt, which came on eight receptions against Wake Forest in Fairfield Stadium in 1941.

Davis finished with 203 all-purpose yards, the second-highest total of his career.

The forced fumble by sophomore linebacker Jaquan Yulee was the third of his career, all as a member of Marshall's kickoff team.

Senior linebacker Artis Johnson scored a non-offensive touchdown for the second time in his Herd career. He returned an interception for a touchdown in Marshall's win at Middle Tennessee last season.

Notes from EKU

The game captains were senior receiver Tyre Brady and senior offensive lineman Jordan Dowrey on offense, and senior linebacker Chase Hancock and junior safety Malik Gant on defense.

Marshall improved to 11-8-1 all-time against Eastern Kentucky.

MU head coach Doc Holliday has now won eight consecutive home openers.

Marshall had three interceptions, the first time its defense has had three or more interceptions in the same game since Sept. 6, 2015 in a win against Purdue. This is the 10th time in the Holliday era the MU defense has had three or more interceptions (9 wins, 1 loss).

Junior receiver Obi Obialo's 20-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter was his first touchdown at Marshall. Obialo added a 40-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter.

Sophomore tight end Xavier Gaines established career highs in receptions (three) and receiving yards (60).

The last time Marshall won a game while committing at least four turnovers was Dec. 6, 2014 in the Conference USA championship game against Louisiana Tech (26-23). The Herd had four turnovers that day and finished minus-2 in turnover margin.

Marshall created five turnovers (3 interceptions and 2 fumble recoveries) - for the first time since it had five takeaways against Southern Miss in 2015.

Junior defensive back Jaylon McClain-Sapp intercepted EKU quarterback Austin Scott in the first quarter. It was McClain-Sapp's first collegiate interception.

Junior receiver Artie Henry's 5-yard reception on the last play of the first quarter was his first reception at Marshall.

Sophomore receiver Willie Johnson rushed for 20 yards in the first quarter, his first rushing attempt in college. He had a game high 36 rushing yards on two carries.

Sophomore receiver Simino Walden caught a 6-yard pass in the first quarter, his first college reception.

Senior linebacker Frankie Hernandez intercepted a pass in the second quarter and returned it 29 yards, his first career interception.

Junior defensive lineman Ty Tyler forced a third quarter fumble that was recovered by senior linebacker Artis Johnson for Marshall's fourth forced turnover of the game. For Tyler, it is his second career forced fumble. It was Johnson's first career fumble recovery.

Marshall linemen Ty Tyler and Channing Hames each had two sacks. The Herd had six sacks as a team, the seventh time Holliday's defense has produced six or more sacks in a game under his direction. Marshall is 6-1 in those games.

Kicker Justin Rohrwasser's 35-yard field goal in the fourth quarter was the first of his MU career.

Eastern Kentucky ended up with just 187 yards of total offense, the fewest Marshall has allowed since holding Rice to 180 yards in 2014. EKU passed for only 48 yards - the fewest Marshall has allowed in a game since UCF had just 29 pass yards in 2008.

Tight end Armani Levias got the first start of his Marshall career.

Notes from Miami

Malik Thompson got the first start of his Thundering Herd career.

Isaiah Green finished 24 of 37 passing for 272 yards and two touchdowns, an impressive showing for the 19-year-old college football rookie. That ranks as the third-most completions and fourth-most passing yards by a Marshall quarterback in his debut in program history.

Anthony Anderson scored twice in the first half - a 1-yard run in the first quarter and another 1-yard plunge in the second - for his first multi-touchdown game of his Herd career.

Senior receiver Tyre Brady, who began the season on the Biletnikoff Watch List, dazzled. He had game-highs in receptions (nine) and yards (116), and caught touchdown passes for 30 and 21 yards in the second half. It was Brady's third multi-touchdown game of his two-year MU career, and his fourth 100-yard receiving performance.

Miami's offense did not cross midfield until there was 11:30 left of the second quarter, and at one point in the first half Marshall held a 9-1 advantage in first downs and 180-13 edge in total offense.

The most points Marshall ever scored in a true season-opening road game was in the 42-27 win at Miami in 2014. The second-most was the 35 in Saturday's game.

Miami attempted five fourth-down conversions, the most by a Thundering Herd opponent since Southern Miss attempted six in a 31-10 Marshall win on Oct. 9, 2015.

Hamrick Reappointed to NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee

Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick's term as Conference USA's representative on the NCAA's Division I Football Oversight Committee has been extended four years to June 30, 2022, the Thundering Herd announced. Hamrick has served in the capacity since July of 2016.

The Football Oversight Committee ensures that appropriate oversight of football for both the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) is maintained; enhances the development of the sport and make recommendations related to regular-season and postseason football. The committee prioritizes enhancement of the student-athlete educational experience (academically and athletically), and in doing so, promotes student-athletes' personal growth and leadership development. It works in conjunction with appropriate governance entities to provide solutions to issues impacting the health and safety of football student-athletes.

"It has been an honor to serve on one of the NCAA's most prestigious committees," said Hamrick. "Continuing to serve the great game of football and impact its betterment has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my career."

The committee also supervises procedures for licensing of postseason bowls and qualifications and/or selection procedures for the FCS Championship. The committee reviews recommendations from the NCAA Division I Football Championship Committee and processes other issues related to the administration of the FCS Championship. The committee assumes many of the duties of the former NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and provides direction to the NCAA Football Rules Committee regarding playing rules governing FBS and FCS football.

Remaining Marshall Football Start Times, Broadcast Outlets Determined

The start times and broadcast outlets for the eight remaining Marshall Football contests were announced by the Conference USA office.

The 2018 home opener will be on September 8 at 6:30 p.m. when the Thundering Herd hosts Eastern Kentucky in a contest that will air on ESPN+.

The Thundering Herd will open league play at WKU on September 29 in a game that will start at 7:30 p.m. ET/6:30 p.m. CT and will air on Stadium, the same network that will broadcast Marshall's October 13 game at Old Dominion at 3:30 p.m.

Marshall's October 20 home date with Florida Atlantic will be the first of four appearances on Facebook. The Thundering Herd will battle the C-USA defending champions at 2:30 p.m. in a contest that will also air on CBS Sports Network.

The November 3 road game at Southern Miss (3 p.m. ET/2 p.m. CT), November 17 home date with UTSA (2:30 p.m.) and November 24 regular season finale at FIU (12 p.m.) will all air on both Stadium and Facebook.

Between those dates, the Thundering Herd will also host Charlotte on November 10 at 2:30 p.m. on ESPN+.

The 2018 C-USA Championship game on Saturday, Dec. 1 will air on CBS Sports Network at a time to be determined.

ESPN is scheduled to carry all six of C-USA's bowl games in which it has a guaranteed selection.

The C-USA office also announced a new multi-year contract with ESPN Thursday that will triple the network's inventory of league events to more than 175 broadcasts that will air on either ESPN3 or ESPN+ during the 2018-19 school year.

Broadcast Outlets Set for Four Thundering Herd Game Times

Marshall Football saw broadcast information and start times announced for four of its games.

Marshall's September 1 contest at Miami will be at 3:30 p.m. and will stream on ESPN+, an online subscription service similar to ESPN3. Keion Davis roared past the RedHawks for two kick returns for touchdowns in a 31-26 Marshall win in Joan C. Edwards Stadium a year ago.

The Thundering Herd's battle at South Carolina on September 15 will air on ESPNU at 7:30 p.m. Marshall and South Carolina have met just once, with the Thundering Herd pulling out a 24-21 road victory on Sept. 19, 1998 via a late interception by 2016 Marshall Athletics Hall of Fame inductee Dani Derricott and Billy Malashevich's 37-yard field goal as time expired.

The following weekend, Marshall will host NC State in a 7 p.m. affair that will air on CBS Sports Network, an outlet that will also carry the Thundering Herd's October 5 home game with Middle Tennessee at 7:30 p.m. Marshall wide receiver Tyre Brady set a Carter-Finley Stadium record with 248 receiving yards in last year's matchup with the Wolfpack in Raleigh.

It is the second-straight season that Marshall and Middle Tennessee will play on a Friday evening. Marshall won 38-10 in Murfreesboro last year on the strength of two rushing touchdowns apiece by Davis and Tyler King to go with a defensive effort that limited the Blue Raiders to just 53 yards on 31 carries.

Last Meeting vs. MT (10/20/17)

by Chuck McGill

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - As Chase Litton stood at the 5-yard line and watched one of his running backs surge into the end zone for a fourth quarter touchdown, he knew he was likely witnessing the end of a personal passing streak.

The 6-foot-6, 232-pound junior quarterback for Marshall had only one reaction to that realization, and an example of why the Thundering Herd is 6-1 overall and 3-0 in Conference USA play as the team enters the final weekend of football in October.

Litton signaled touchdown and then congratulated his teammates and the run by freshman running back Tyler King in the fourth quarter of Marshall's 38-10 win at Middle Tennessee on Friday night in front of an ESPN nationally televised audience.

As Litton bounced into the locker room after the game, he used his hands to flash six fingers in the air - the number of wins Marshall has this season.

"Forget the streak," he said.

Litton entered Friday's game with at least one touchdown pass in 27 consecutive games, the second-longest active streak in major college football and on course to target an NCAA record held by MU QB great Rakeem Cato. Instead, Litton continued another streak - 136 consecutive passes without an interception, which ties Cato for the longest streak since Doc Holliday took over as head coach - and led the offense to a turnover-free game on the road.

Litton, who watched most of the fourth quarter from the sidelines as backup Jackson White took snaps, finished 16 of 24 passing for 168 yards, no touchdowns and no interceptions. He has a four-game streak without an interception, the first time any quarterback has done that since Holliday was named the coach.

The QB watched as his running backs scored four touchdowns, a first for the offense since Nov. 8, 2014 at Southern Mississippi, a span of 37 games. King scored twice, including the aforementioned punctuation point with 12:47 left of the fourth quarter, and Keion Davis added another two scores. The Herd defense added another touchdown, the fifth non-offensive score by Marshall in seven games this season.

"We were joking about it on the sidelines," Yurachek said. "Nobody cares who scores, nobody cares if the offense wins the game or the defense wins the game. Nobody cares. What we cared about was we just beat a team on the road in our conference by 28 points. That's what matters."

Yurachek and Litton shared some sideline laughs because Litton targeted Yurachek on the play before King plunged in from the 1 to reach the final score. Litton zipped a pass to his left to a wide open Yurachek, who tried to outrun a defender to the pylon but was shoved out of bounds at the 1-yard line. If Yurachek had made it, the touchdown pass streak would have survived another week.

"I told him that he's slow," Litton said. "Before the play I told him that he better get in the end zone. We were laughing about it. The scoreboard says it all. We won the game and I'll take the win over that streak any day of the week."

"The coaches gave me chances. I missed a corner route to Marcel (Williams). I should have put it on him rather than a spot and assumed that's where he's going to be."

The selfless mindset is a major reason why Marshall will take a five-game winning streak into next Saturday's home game against Florida International. The Herd struck near-perfect balance with 198 rushing yards and 168 passing yards, did not turn the ball over, held Middle Tennessee to 53 rushing yards on 31 carries (1.7 yards per attempt) and gained yet another non-offensive TD in a four-touchdown win on the road.

The 28-point margin of victory is Marshall's sixth-largest ever in a Conference USA road game. Those are the numbers on which Litton was fixated in the wake of a victory that kept he and his teammates undefeated in league play and in control of their destiny in pursuit of a conference title.

"We can talk about that touchdown streak all we want," Litton said, "but the only streak that matters is still alive."

"That's five straight wins."

Doc Holliday Head Coach - Ninth Season (64-43 overall, 40-25 C-USA)

Coach John "Doc" Holliday, who has returned Marshall University football to the national picture, enters his ninth season leading the Thundering Herd.

Marshall has won six consecutive bowls – the current long streak in the FBS – with five of those triumphs coming under Holliday in the last seven seasons. Marshall's three straight 10-win seasons from 2013-15 were also a first in the 20-season history of Conference USA football.

Holliday led a resurgence in 2017, improving the Thundering Herd by five games to reach yet another bowl game under his watch.

His 2015 Herd finished 10-3 with a win over Connecticut in the St. Petersburg Bowl. His 2014 and '15 teams – with a combined mark of 23-4 – had the best record among the Group of Five programs in the two-year College Football Playoff era.

In Holliday's seven MU seasons, he has built the Herd into a perennial Conference USA contender. His teams have sported 26 All-C-USA first team selections, 22 second-teamers, 39 honorable mention picks and 22 All-Freshman team selections. He has had nine players selected for C-USA's top individual player-of-the-year awards.

Holliday's 2014 Herd (13-1) grabbed the school's first C-USA Championship with a thrilling comeback, title-game win over Louisiana Tech. MU headed to the Boca Raton Bowl, where it routed Mid-American Conference champion Northern Illinois, 52-23. The Herd finished the season in the major polls – No. 22 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press media poll. It was Marshall's first appearance in the final polls since 2002.

The Herd coach was named the 2014 Conference USA Coach of the Year in voting by his peers and Marshall boasted a C-USA-record 10 all-conference first team selections.

Holliday received a six-year contract extension (through July 2021) for $755,500 annually on April 8, 2015.

The 2014 title season followed a successful 2013, as Marshall went 10-4, won the C-USA East Division crown and downed ACC member Maryland in the Military Bowl – the Terps' last game before heading to the Big Ten.

In December 2014, Holliday was named the 15th annual Gazette-Mail Sportsman of the Year by Charleston Newspapers. In April 2015, the Herd coach was honored as the 2014 Lowell Cade Sportsperson of the Year by The (Huntington) Herald-Dispatch.

And in concert with Herd Athletic Director Mike Hamrick, Holliday has helped bring about upgrades in the Marshall non-conference schedule, with home-and-homes against Louisville, Pitt, North Carolina State, Purdue, Navy, Boise State, Cincinnati, Appalachian State, East Carolina, Akron and Ohio and a 2018 game at South Carolina, which will yield the largest guarantee in school history ($1.4 million).

Holliday, named as Herd coach on Dec. 17, 2009 in his first collegiate head coaching job, is widely regarded as one of the top recruiters in the nation. Since he has become a head coach, he has added a reputation for finding and hiring assistant coaches who have made a strong impact on his program. He has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including previous stops at Florida, North Carolina State and West Virginia, his alma mater.

In 2011, the Herd went 7-6 against the 16th-toughest schedule in the nation, a slate that was ranked second among non-BCS schools. Two of those victories came against eventual C-USA champion Southern Miss and Big East co-champ Louisville, the latter coming on the road for the program's first non-conference road win since the early 2000s. Marshall also won five Conference USA games, the most for the program since it had joined the league in 2005.

During his coaching career, Holliday has coached in 25 bowl games, three national championship games and coached 15 players who have gone on to the NFL. He also has coached five All-Americans.

A native of Hurricane, W.Va., Holliday was born April 21, 1957. He was a three-year letter winner as a linebacker at West Virginia (1976-78) and has earned bachelor's (1979) and master's (1981) degrees from WVU. He won a West Virginia state wrestling title at 175 pounds (all divisions) in 1975 at Hurricane High.

Holliday and his wife, Diana, have four children -- Meghan, Cade, Chase and Cody.
