Thundering Herd Notes

Notes from NC State

The game captains were senior receiver Tyre Brady and junior receiver Obi Obialo on offense, and senior linebacker Chase Hancock and junior safety Malik Gant on defense.

Saturday's attendance of 32,349 was the 12th-largest in Joan C. Edwards Stadium history.

Marshall and North Carolina State met for the fifth time. NC State has won all five meetings. Saturday was the first time the teams have met outside of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Marshall quarterback Isaiah Green connected with receiver Marcel Williams for an 82-yard touchdown in the second quarter. It was Green's longest pass of his career and the longest reception of Williams' career. The pass play is the longest by the Herd offense this season, tied for the 16th-longest pass play in program history and the 25th pass play of 80-plus yards in MU history.

Marcel Williams' touchdown reception was the third of his career and first of the season. His previous career long was 59 yards. The touchdown reception was his first since Oct. 28, 2017 against Florida International.

Senior running back Keion Davis set a new single game best for receptions (six) and receiving yards (99), and had a career long reception (31 yards). The 99 receiving yards ranks No. 4 on Marshall's all-time list for running backs in a single game. The record of 106 yards is held jointly by Len Hellyer and Robert Surratt.

Davis finished with 203 all-purpose yards, the second-highest total of his career.

The forced fumble by sophomore linebacker Jaquan Yulee was the third of his career, all as a member of Marshall's kickoff team.

Senior linebacker Artis Johnson scored a non-offensive touchdown for the second time in his Herd career. He returned an interception for a touchdown in Marshall's win at Middle Tennessee last season.

Green Through Three

Isaiah Green became the first quarterback in Marshall history to pass for 250 or more yards in his first three starts (272 against Miami (Ohio), 278 against ECU, 270 against NC State). He has also set a program "record" in terms of Marshall QB first-three starts with 69 completions and is second with 820 passing yards.

Protecting the Home Turf

Marshall is nationally known for being one of the toughest places to play in college football. The program has won 82.5 percent (156-33) of its home games in Joan C. Edwards Stadium, one of the best marks in the country.

Stingy D

The Herd has won 32 of its last 36 when holding offenses to 5.0 yards per play or fewer. The Herd has won 20 straight when allowing fewer than 300 yards. Thirteen (13) times in Doc Holliday's eight-plus seasons has the Herd allowed 125 yards passing or fewer. Marshall is 12-1 (.923) in those games.

Marshall is 23-3 (.885) under Doc Holliday when the defense does not allow a rushing touchdown.

Feel the Rush

The Herd is now 33-3 (.917) in the last six seasons when rushing for 150+ yards and 26-2 (.929) the last six years with 200+ on the ground.

Herd Finishes under Holliday

Since Doc Holliday became head coach in 2010, the Herd has an excellent record of finishing off its opponents once it takes the lead. Marshall is 47-7 (.870) when it scores first, 43-7 (.860) when leading after the first quarter, 51-3 (.944) when leading at halftime and 51-4 (.927) when leading after three quarters. In fact, Marshall has won 37 of its last 38 contests (Charlotte, 2016) when it has the halftime lead.

Hang on!

It's easy to see why Herd Coach Doc Holliday talks about ball security so often. His nine Marshall teams have provided a strong indicator of why turnover margin is so important. Holliday's Herd teams have a combined 63-43 (.594) record. When Marshall has an edge in turnover margin, it is 35-8 (.814). When the turnover number is equal, Marshall is 15-6 (.714). But when the opponent is more sure-handed, the Herd is 13-29 (.310).

Of Marshall's 106 games under Holliday, the Herd has played 52 while committing zero or one turnover, amassing a record of 38-14 (.731) in those games.

Marshall is 20-4 (.833) under Holliday when it has a turnover margin of +2 or better.

The Thundering Herd had five takeaways in the 2018 win over Eastern Kentucky, giving Holliday eight consecutive wins when his team forces four or more turnovers.

Marshall's 32 points versus Eastern Kentucky makes the Herd 35-3 (.921) in its last 38 games when scoring 30+ points. All of those games are under Doc Holliday.

50+

Marshall's 62-0 win over Morgan State in 2016 was the 16th time that the Thundering Herd has reached the 50+-point plateau under coach Doc Holliday, one more than Jim Donnan (1990-95) for the all-time school mark. Bob Pruett (1996-2004) reached that mark 14 times and Cam Henderson (1936-42, 1946-49) did it on 13 occasions.

Perfect Versus Texas at Home

Interestingly enough, Marshall has never lost to a school from Texas at home. The Thundering Herd is a perfect 12-0 against Texas schools in games played in Huntington. Marshall owns two wins over North Texas (1988, 2015), two wins over Houston (2008, 2012), three wins over Rice (2007, 2011, 2014), two wins over SMU (2005, 2009), two wins over UTEP (2006, 2010) and one victory over UTSA (2013).

Bowl Prowess

Marshall enters 2018 featuring an .846 winning percentage (11-2) in all NCAA-sanctioned bowl games, the highest mark nationally among programs that have made at least four appearances. (The Thundering Herd also participated in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl, at which point it was not sanctioned). The top are below:

1. Marshall: .846 (11-2)

2. Utah: .810 (17-4)
3. UNLV: .750 (3-1)
4. Army: .714 (6-2)
5. San Jose State: .700 (7-3)
6. Rutgers: .667 (6-3)
7. USC: .654 (34-18)
8. Mississippi: .649 (24-13)
9. Miami (Ohio): .636 (7-4)
10. Wake Forest: .667 (8-4)
11. WKU: .600 (3-2)

Doc Holliday is 5-0 in bowl games with the Thundering Herd and has appeared in 26 bowls since entering the coaching ranks.

Marshall-South Carolina Cancelled

The Thundering Herd's September 15 contest at South Carolina was cancelled due to severe weather caused by Hurricane Florence.

Notes from EKU

The game captains were senior receiver Tyre Brady and senior offensive lineman Jordan Dowrey on offense, and senior linebacker Chase Hancock and junior safety Malik Gant on defense.

Marshall improved to 11-8-1 all-time against Eastern Kentucky.

MU head coach Doc Holliday has now won eight consecutive home openers.

Marshall had three interceptions, the first time its defense has had three or more interceptions in the same game since Sept. 6, 2015 in a win against Purdue. This is the 10th time in the Holliday era the MU defense has had three or more interceptions (9 wins, 1 loss).

Junior receiver Obi Obialo's 20-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter was his first touchdown at Marshall. Obialo added a 40-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter.

Sophomore tight end Xavier Gaines established career highs in receptions (three) and receiving yards (60).

The last time Marshall won a game while committing at least four turnovers was Dec. 6, 2014 in the Conference USA championship game against Louisiana Tech (26-23). The Herd had four turnovers that day and finished minus-2 in turnover margin.

Marshall created five turnovers (3 interceptions and 2 fumble recoveries) - for the first time since it had five takeaways against Southern Miss in 2015.

Junior defensive back Jaylon McClain-Sapp intercepted EKU quarterback Austin Scott in the first quarter. It was McClain-Sapp's first collegiate interception.

Junior receiver Artie Henry's 5-yard reception on the last play of the first quarter was his first reception at Marshall.

Sophomore receiver Willie Johnson rushed for 20 yards in the first quarter, his first rushing attempt in college. He had a game high 36 rushing yards on two carries.

Sophomore receiver Simino Walden caught a 6-yard pass in the first quarter, his first college reception.

Senior linebacker Frankie Hernandez intercepted a pass in the second quarter and returned it 29 yards, his first career interception.

Junior defensive lineman Ty Tyler forced a third quarter fumble that was recovered by senior linebacker Artis Johnson for Marshall's fourth forced turnover of the game. For Tyler, it is his second career forced fumble. It was Johnson's first career fumble recovery.

Marshall linemen Ty Tyler and Channing Hames each had two sacks. The Herd had six sacks as a team, the seventh time Holliday's defense has produced six or more sacks in a game under his direction. Marshall is 6-1 in those games.

Kicker Justin Rohrwasser's 35-yard field goal in the fourth quarter was the first of his MU career.

Eastern Kentucky ended up with just 187 yards of total offense, the fewest Marshall has allowed since holding Rice to 180 yards in 2014. EKU passed for only 48 yards - the fewest Marshall has allowed in a game since UCF had just 29 pass yards in 2008.

Tight end Armani Levias got the first start of his Marshall career.

Notes from Miami

Malik Thompson got the first start of his Thundering Herd career.

Isaiah Green finished 24 of 37 passing for 272 yards and two touchdowns, an impressive showing for the 19-year-old college football rookie. That ranks as the third-most completions and fourth-most passing yards by a Marshall quarterback in his debut in program history.

Anthony Anderson scored twice in the first half – a 1-yard run in the first quarter and another 1-yard plunge in the second – for his first multi-touchdown game of his Herd career.

Senior receiver Tyre Brady, who began the season on the Biletnikoff Watch List, dazzled. He had game-highs in receptions (nine) and yards (116), and caught touchdown passes for 30 and 21 yards in the second half. It was Brady's third multi-touchdown game of his two-year MU career, and his fourth 100-yard receiving performance.

Miami's offense did not cross midfield until there was 11:30 left of the second quarter, and at one point in the first half Marshall held a 9-1 advantage in first downs and 180-13 edge in total offense.

The most points Marshall ever scored in a true season-opening road game was in the 42-27 win at Miami in 2014. The second-most was the 35 in Saturday's game.

Miami attempted five fourth-down conversions, the most by a Thundering Herd opponent since Southern Miss attempted six in a 31-10 Marshall win on Oct. 9, 2015.

Marshall Has Five Named to Preseason All-Conference USA Team

Conference USA's 14 head football coaches named five Marshall student-athletes to the league's preseason team, the C-USA office announced Monday afternoon.

That total stands second only to defending champion Florida Atlantic's six.

Marshall center Levi Brown, wide receiver Tyre Brady, linebacker Chase Hancock, safety Malik Gant and long snapper Matt Beardall were all honored.

Brady, Hancock, Gant and Beardall were also selected to Athlon's preseason list on its first team earlier this summer, along with defensive lineman Ryan Bee. Running back Tyler King, defensive back Chris Jackson and kick returner Keion Davis made the outlet's second team, while offensive lineman Tarik Adams was announced on the fourth team.

The conference office will release the C-USA Media Poll (predicted order of finish) on Tuesday.

Thundering Herd Ticket Office Announces Mini Plans Now on Sale

The Marshall University Athletics Ticket Office has officially launched sales for its 2018 Football Season Ticket Mini Plan. The full, six home game season ticket plans still offer customers the best discounted rate for those looking to attend each contest at Edwards Stadium this fall. Those season ticket plans will remain on sale leading up to the home opener on September 8 vs. ECU.

Mini plans that were recently launched Friday afternoon on HerdZone.com offer fans the flexibility to purchase tickets to any three-game combination on the Thundering Herd's 2018 home schedule. Mini plans are available in all sideline sections for $99, as well as in the lower and upper end zone sections for $69. Marshall will host the Wolfpack of NC State (Sept. 22) as well as 2017 Conference USA champion FAU (Oct. 20) for this year's homecoming game. Customers may call 800-THE-HERD to pick specific locations for mini plans or may place orders online at HerdZone.com where the best available seats will be allocated through the system selection.

Choose Your Seat and HerdZone Stadium Store Sidewalk Sale

The Marshall Athletics Ticket Office will conduct a football season ticket "Choose Your Seat" program on Saturday, July 21 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Joan C. Edwards Stadium. This will allow those looking to purchase season or mini ticket plans the chance to visit with a ticket office representative, ask questions and see what seats are available.

During this time the HerdZone Stadium Store will conduct a sidewalk sale for a large selection of Marshall gear. A wide variety of steep discounts will be offered.

Marshall Football student-athletes will be on hand throughout the day to sign autographs, take photos and help those looking to purchase ticket plans.

Single-game tickets to all Marshall home football games will go on sale on Wednesday, August 8. For all ticketing and Big Green Scholarship Foundation information, please visit HerdZone.com or call 800-THE-HERD.

Hamrick Reappointed to NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee

Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick's term as Conference USA's representative on the NCAA's Division I Football Oversight Committee has been extended four years to June 30, 2022, the Thundering Herd announced. Hamrick has served in the capacity since July of 2016.

The Football Oversight Committee ensures that appropriate oversight of football for both the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) is maintained; enhances the development of the sport and make recommendations related to regular-season and postseason football. The committee prioritizes enhancement of the student-athlete educational experience (academically and athletically), and in doing so, promotes student-athletes' personal growth and leadership development. It works in conjunction with appropriate governance entities to provide solutions to issues impacting the health and safety of football student-athletes.

"It has been an honor to serve on one of the NCAA's most prestigious committees," said Hamrick. "Continuing to serve the great game of football and impact its betterment has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my career."

The committee also supervises procedures for licensing of postseason bowls and qualifications and/or selection procedures for the FCS Championship. The committee reviews recommendations from the NCAA Division I Football Championship Committee and processes other issues related to the administration of the FCS Championship. The committee assumes many of the duties of the former NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and provides direction to the NCAA Football Rules Committee regarding playing rules governing FBS and FCS football.

Remaining Marshall Football Start Times, Broadcast Outlets Determined

The start times and broadcast outlets for the eight remaining Marshall Football contests were announced by the Conference USA office.

The 2018 home opener will be on September 8 at 6:30 p.m. when the Thundering Herd hosts Eastern Kentucky in a contest that will air on ESPN+.

The Thundering Herd will open league play at WKU on September 29 in a game that will start at 7:30 p.m. ET/6:30 p.m. CT and will air on Stadium, the same network that will broadcast Marshall's October 13 game at Old Dominion at 3:30 p.m.

Marshall's October 20 home date with Florida Atlantic will be the first of four appearances on Facebook. The Thundering Herd will battle the C-USA defending champions at 2:30 p.m. in a contest that will also air on CBS Sports Network.

The November 3 road game at Southern Miss (3 p.m. ET/2 p.m. CT), November 17 home date with UTSA (2:30 p.m.) and November 24 regular season finale at FIU (12 p.m.) will all air on both Stadium and Facebook.

Between those dates, the Thundering Herd will also host Charlotte on November 10 at 2:30 p.m. on ESPN+.

The 2018 C-USA Championship game on Saturday, Dec. 1 will air on CBS Sports Network at a time to be determined.

ESPN is scheduled to carry all six of C-USA's bowl games in which it has a guaranteed selection.

The C-USA office also announced a new multi-year contract with ESPN Thursday that will triple the network's inventory of league events to more than 175 broadcasts that will air on either ESPN3 or ESPN+ during the 2018-19 school year.

Broadcast Outlets Set for Four Thundering Herd Game Times

Marshall Football saw broadcast information and start times announced for four of its games.

Marshall's September 1 contest at Miami will be at 3:30 p.m. and will stream on ESPN+, an online subscription service similar to ESPN3. Keion Davis roared past the RedHawks for two kick returns for touchdowns in a 31-26 Marshall win in Joan C. Edwards Stadium a year ago.

The Thundering Herd's battle at South Carolina on September 15 will air on ESPNU at 7:30 p.m. Marshall and South Carolina have met just once, with the Thundering Herd pulling out a 24-21 road victory on Sept. 19, 1998 via a late interception by 2016 Marshall Athletics Hall of Fame inductee Dani Derricott and Billy Malashevich's 37-yard field goal as time expired.

The following weekend, Marshall will host NC State in a 7 p.m. affair that will air on CBS Sports Network, an outlet that will also carry the Thundering Herd's October 5 home game with Middle Tennessee at 7:30 p.m. Marshall wide receiver Tyre Brady set a Carter-Finley Stadium record with 248 receiving yards in last year's matchup with the Wolfpack in Raleigh.

It is the second-straight season that Marshall and Middle Tennessee will play on a Friday evening. Marshall won 38-10 in Murfreesboro last year on the strength of two rushing touchdowns apiece by Davis and Tyler King to go with a defensive effort that limited the Blue Raiders to just 53 yards on 31 carries.

Brown Named to Rimington Trophy Watch List

Marshall redshirt junior Levi Brown (Franklin, Ga.) was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List by the award's committee.

Brown, who was also recognized in 2017, was one of five centers from Conference USA named to the list.

A second-team All-Conference USA selection last year, Brown helped anchor an offensive line that allowed just 11 sacks, the fourth-fewest nationally.

While more than a dozen All-America teams are selected annually, the Rimington Trophy committee uses these three prestigious teams to determine a winner:

Walter Camp Foundation (WCF)

Sporting News (SN)

Football Writers Association of America (FWAA)

Because the selectors of these three All-America teams can place centers in a "mix" of offensive linemen that includes guards and tackles, their 11-man first teams can often have two centers. The Rimington Trophy committee's policy is to count all players that play primarily the center position for their respective teams as centers, even though they may be listed as guards or tackles on the All-America teams.

The center with the most first team votes will be determined the winner. If there is a tie with first team votes, then the center with the most second team votes will win. If there is still a tie, the winner will be determined by a majority vote from the Rimington Trophy committee. The winner will be recognized at the Rimington Trophy Presentation at the Rococo Theatre in Lincoln, Nebraska on Saturday, January 12, 2019.

Adkins Returns to Marshall as Offensive Line Coach

Marshall head coach Doc Holliday announced Friday that Greg Adkins has returned to the program as its offensive line coach.

Adkins, a four-year offensive lineman and 1990 Thundering Herd graduate, previously coached at Marshall for five seasons (defensive line, tight ends, offensive line) from 1991-95 and helped guide the program to the 1992 I-AA national championship and three more appearances in the I-AA national title game (1991, '93, '95).

"The Marshall Football family is excited to have Greg Adkins return as offensive line coach," said Thundering Herd head coach Doc Holliday. "He has proven himself at the highest level of our business and, having grown up here and graduated from Marshall, possesses an intimate knowledge of our program."

The Cross Lanes native and Nitro High School graduate returns to Huntington from Charlotte, where he was the 49ers' offensive line coach, run game coordinator and interim offensive coordinator.

Prior to that, he coached offensive lines at Oklahoma State (2015-17), Syracuse (2009-12), Tennessee (2003-08), Troy (2001-02) and Georgia (1996-200). He also handled recruiting duties at Syracuse, Tennessee and Troy. At Georgia, he also coached tight ends and the defensive line and mentored Tennessee's tight ends during his time there as well.

"Thank you to Doc Holliday, the coaching staff and the rest of Marshall Athletics for making this a warm welcome back to my alma mater," Adkins said. "I look forward to continuing to build upon the history of the University and football program!"

Adkins, who has over 25 years of coaching experience and has participated in 12 bowl games, had a stop in the National Football League as well, serving as the Buffalo Bills' tight ends coach in 2013-14.

Sports. Thweatt mentored CAA second-team pick Gage Steele in 2016.

Prior to his arrival in Harrisonburg, Thweatt was Virginia State's head coach in 2015 after eight seasons (2007-14) as Richmond's inside linebackers coach and Director of High School Relations (2013-14). He began his career as a graduate assistant at Virginia, his alma mater, where he was an honorable mention All-American for the Cavaliers at linebacker. After college, he spent time with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Tennessee Titans and in NFL Europe.

"I'm thrilled with the staff that we have assembled," said Holliday. "We built momentum at the end of last season with the (New Mexico) bowl victory and these guys will help us keep that going. Our fans have a lot to be excited about."

Marshall vs. Ranked Opponents

Since moving to Division I-A (FBS) in 1997, the Herd has enjoyed a pair of landmark victories against nationally-ranked opponents. The following is the Marshall Thundering Herd's game-by-game results against NCAA FBS opponents ranked in the Associated Press (since 1936), UPI (1950-92), CNN (1993-96), ESPN/USA Today (1997-2004) or USA Today (since 2005) Top 25 polls since 1936.

Last Meeting vs. WKU (11/11/17)

by Chuck McGill

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. - First, the Marshall football program honored those lost in the football program's plane crash, which occurred on Nov. 14, 1970.

The team wore all black tops-and-pants uniform combination for the first time, and the players' white helmets had tributes to the 75 people lost in the plane crash 47 years ago: a '75' decal on one side of the helmet; a green stripe down the middle with the names of each person who perished; and individual decals on 75 different helmets of the players, coaches, pilots and community members who died.

A solemn, emotional video tribute played in the minutes before kickoff, and the coaches and players locked arms and slowly walked from the end zone to midfield together as the crowd cheered.

Then, as this program has been wont to do, the Thundering Herd paid tribute to the past with a win on the Saturday closest to the anniversary of the crash. This time, Marshall defeated visiting Western Kentucky, 30-23, and shook off three years of struggles to get its seventh win of the season here Saturday night at Joan C. Edwards Stadium.

"This really is an emotional game for us," said Doc Holliday, who coached his 100th game at Marshall and recorded his 60th win. "I'm happy for our fans and I'm happy we were able to honor the '75' the way we did."

Marshall had lost three consecutive games to WKU, and the Hilltoppers had averaged 58.7 points in those meetings.

"That wasn't a rivalry because we never beat them," Holliday said. "Now it is a rivalry because we've won that game."

Marshall eclipsed 30 points for the sixth time this season even without its two leading receivers - Tyre Brady and Marcel Williams. Both players started but exited in the first quarter with undisclosed injuries and did not return. That forced the offense to lean on transfer Obi Obialo, who has played sparingly this season, and Nick Mathews, who had not recorded a reception in 2017 before Saturday's game.

"It's a next-man-up mentality," said Ryan Yurachek, a senior tight end. "Obviously you never want to lose your top two receivers, but it's good when guys come in and perform."

Marshall received contributions from several young players, including freshman running back Tyler King, who finished with 102 rushing yards and a touchdown. Freshman Willie Johnson led the team with 48 receiving yards on four catches, and Mathews set career highs for receptions (four) and receiving yards (46).

"If you told me we'd lose Brady the first play of the game and lose Marcel - those are two of our weapons," Holliday said. "We had three freshmen starting on the offensive line. We had some young kids in there."

Marshall rallied from an early deficit to outscore WKU 30-3 from the 9:45 mark of the first quarter through the end of the third quarter. The Herd controlled the ball - the offense possessed the ball for 36:44 for the game - and kept the Hilltoppers on the sideline. Junior running back Keion Davis and King each scored on runs, and senior specialist Kaare Vedvik was a perfect 3-for-3 on field goals.

The momentum swung heavily in Marshall's favor late in the third quarter when freshman defensive back Nazeeh Johnson stepped in front of a Mike White pass and intercepted it, and then raced 45 yards for his first career touchdown. That put the Herd up 27-10 with 1:37 left of the third quarter.

Another freshman, Jaquan Yulee, forced a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and set up Vedvik's career-best third field goal to make it 30-10 with 35 seconds left of the third quarter.

"That's a team we wanted to get a win against," Yurachek said. "With everything that's going on here the next three or four days (leading up to the anniversary of the crash), it was a special night, for sure."

"We lost the turnover battle the last two weeks and that's something we weren't happy with. We won the turnover battle tonight."

Marshall finished plus-two in turnovers after committed seven turnovers and forcing zero the past two weeks - both losses.

The Herd (7-3, 4-2 C-USA) put a stop to that skid after rallying in the first half. Marshall won the coin toss and deferred until the second half, so WKU (5-5, 3-3 C-USA) received the first opportunity. The Hilltoppers drove 73 yards in 11 plays before scoring on a 6-yard pass from White to wide receiver Quin Jernighan to make it 7-0.

The Herd defense took over from there.

WKU struggled the rest of the first half, and its offense had a trio of three-and-outs and managed zero first downs and 11 yards on nine plays against Marshall. That allowed the MU offense to grind out three scoring drives with the absence of Brady and Williams.

Marshall had three consecutive scoring drives to end the half, all of double-digit plays in length and more than five minutes in duration. Vedvik booted a 29-yard field goal to make it 7-3 with 14:56 left of the second quarter. Following a three-and-out, the MU offense drove 65 yards in 11 plays before junior running back Keion Davis scored from 3 yards out to give the Herd a 10-7 lead with 7:29 left of the half.

Then, the Marshall offense milked six minutes and 14 seconds off the clock before Vedvik drilled another field goal, this time from 42 yards out, with 4 seconds left of the second quarter to give the Herd a 13-7 lead. That drive lasted 15 plays and covered 67 yards, and left no time for WKU to answer.

Marshall outgained WKU 196-89 in the first half, and had 14 first down to the visitors' four. The Herd controlled the ball, keeping possession for 21:10 of a possible 30:00. The offense endured the losses of Brady, the team's leading receiver, and Williams, MU's second-leading receiver. Brady caught one pass for 1 yard on the game's second play, but did not return. Williams started but did not catch a pass in the first half, and was eventually replaced with Mathews, who caught two passes for 30 yards in the first half.

"Anytime you play to honor the '75' and our history and all that, we've been able to play extremely well on that particular game," Holliday said. "It was huge because of all of the implications of the game."

Doc Holliday Head Coach - Ninth Season (63-43 overall, 39-25 C-USA)

Coach John "Doc" Holliday, who has returned Marshall University football to the national picture, enters his ninth season leading the Thundering Herd.

Marshall has won six consecutive bowls – the current long streak in the FBS – with five of those triumphs coming under Holliday in the last seven seasons. Marshall's three straight 10-win seasons from 2013-15 were also a first in the 20-season history of Conference USA football.

Holliday led a resurgence in 2017, improving the Thundering Herd by five games to reach yet another bowl game under his watch.

His 2015 Herd finished 10-3 with a win over Connecticut in the St. Petersburg Bowl. His 2014 and '15 teams – with a combined mark of 23-4 – had the best record among the Group of Five programs in the two-year College Football Playoff era.

In Holliday's seven MU seasons, he has built the Herd into a perennial Conference USA contender. His teams have sported 26 All-C-USA first team selections, 22 second-teamers, 39 honorable mention picks and 22 All-Freshman team selections. He has had nine players selected for C-USA's top individual player-of-the-year awards.

Holliday's 2014 Herd (13-1) grabbed the school's first C-USA Championship with a thrilling comeback, title-game win over Louisiana Tech. MU headed to the Boca Raton Bowl, where it routed Mid-American Conference champion Northern Illinois, 52-23. The Herd finished the season in the major polls – No. 22 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press media poll. It was Marshall's first appearance in the final polls since 2002.

The Herd coach was named the 2014 Conference USA Coach of the Year in voting by his peers and Marshall boasted a C-USA-record 10 all-conference first team selections.

Holliday received a six-year contract extension (through July 2021) for $755,500 annually on April 8, 2015.

The 2014 title season followed a successful 2013, as Marshall went 10-4, won the C-USA East Division crown and downed ACC member Maryland in the Military Bowl – the Terps' last game before heading to the Big Ten.

In December 2014, Holliday was named the 15th annual Gazette-Mail Sportsman of the Year by Charleston Newspapers. In April 2015, the Herd coach was honored as the 2014 Lowell Cade Sportsperson of the Year by The (Huntington) Herald-Dispatch.

And in concert with Herd Athletic Director Mike Hamrick, Holliday has helped bring about upgrades in the Marshall non-conference schedule, with home-and-homes against Louisville, Pitt, North Carolina State, Purdue, Navy, Boise State, Cincinnati, Appalachian State, East Carolina, Akron and Ohio and a 2018 game at South Carolina, which will yield the largest guarantee in school history ($1.4 million).

Holliday, named as Herd coach on Dec. 17, 2009 in his first collegiate head coaching job, is widely regarded as one of the top recruiters in the nation. Since he has become a head coach, he has added a reputation for finding and hiring assistant coaches who have made a strong impact on his program. He has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including previous stops at Florida, North Carolina State and West Virginia, his alma mater.

In 2011, the Herd went 7-6 against the 16th-toughest schedule in the nation, a slate that was ranked second among non-BCS schools. Two of those victories came against eventual C-USA champion Southern Miss and Big East co-champ Louisville, the latter coming on the road for the program's first non-conference road win since the early 2000s. Marshall also won five Conference USA games, the most for the program since it had joined the league in 2005.

During his coaching career, Holliday has coached in 25 bowl games, three national championship games and coached 15 players who have gone on to the NFL. He also has coached five All-Americans.

A native of Hurricane, W.Va., Holliday was born April 21, 1957. He was a three-year letter winner as a linebacker at West Virginia (1976-78) and has earned bachelor's (1979) and master's (1981) degrees from WVU. He won a West Virginia state wrestling title at 175 pounds (all divisions) in 1975 at Hurricane High.

Holliday and his wife, Diana, have four children -- Meghan, Cade, Chase and Cody.
