Thundering Herd Fall Notes

Notes from Old Dominion

The game captains for Marshall were sophomore running back Brenden Knox and junior lineman Alex Mollette on offense, and senior linebacker Omari Cobb a senior defensive back Kereon Merrell on defense.

The Marshall offense gained 236 yards on the ground – 105 more yards than the ODU defense had allowed in any game this season, including games against Virginia and Virginia Tech.

Marshall leads the all-time series with ODU, 5-1. Saturday's win is the third consecutive in the series for the Thundering Herd. Marshall is 3-0 against the Monarchs in Huntington.

Sophomore defensive end Darius Hodge had 4.5 of Marshall's season-high eight sacks.

Hodge tied a school record set by Cecil Fletcher on Sept. 13, 1986 at Ohio. He also tied two others for the third-most sacks in Conference USA history, equaling the 4.5 sacks by Louisiana Tech's Houston Bates against Illinois in 2014, and FAU's Martin Wright against FIU in 2013. The league record is six, held by Memphis' Keaton Cromartie (1997 vs. Memphis). Hodge's sack total is also the most by a Marshall player in Joan C. Edwards Stadium history. Hodge's 4.5 tackles for loss and 26 yards lost on those plays also tied for third in school history.

Marshall's eight team sacks are tied for the second-most in school history. Five other teams had eight-sack performances, most recently at Ohio in 2004. The record is 12, also at Ohio in 1986.

Senior kicker Justin Rohrwasser connected on a 45-yard field goal with 11 seconds left of the first half, his longest at Marshall (previous best: 40 yards). Rohrwasser has made six consecutive field goals dating back to last season. The boot was the Herd's longest since Kaare Vedvik made a 45-yarder at NC State in 2017. The last time a Marshall man made a longer field goal than Rohrwasser's 45-yarder was when Justin Haig hit one from 46 yards out against Louisiana Tech in the 2014 C-USA Championship Game.

In the first quarter, junior tight end Xavier Gaines connected with freshman Broc Thompson on a 33-yard pass, Gaines' first career completion.

Marshall true freshman Broc Thompson set a new career high in receptions (six) and receiving yards (91).

Armani Levias, a senior tight end for the Herd, tied a career high with five receptions (third time in his career with five receptions in a game).

Marshall quarterback Isaiah Green had a 17-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, his first rushing touchdown of the season.

Redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Jamare Edwards combined with senior defensive lineman Marquis Couch for a sack, a first for Edwards in his Marshall career.

Marshall junior linebacker Tavante Beckett set a career-high with 14 tackles.

Feeling the Sunshine

Since the beginning of the 2013 season, Doc Holliday is 12-3 in games contested in the state of Florida and/or against Florida schools.

Holliday Moves to the Top

Marshall head coach Doc Holliday led the program for a school-record 121st time against Old Dominion. The Herd's victory over Old Dominion was career win No. 73 for Holliday. He currently sits second on the school's all-time list behind Bob Pruett (94, 1996-2004). Holliday (66) is also five wins shy of breaking Pruett's (70) school record for victories over FBS programs.

First Quarter Dominance

Marshall's first quarter scoring advantage over the opposition since the beginning of the 2018 season is 146-66. Herd opponents have managed six touchdowns and eight field goals during that stretch (19 games). The Thundering Herd has now won 21 of its last 22 games when scoring first and has won 12 of its last 13 when leading after the first quarter. Related: since the beginning of the 2013 season, the Herd is 41-2 (.953) when scoring first.

<100

Marshall has not allowed a 100-yard individual rusher in 18 of its last 20 games.

Stingy D

The Herd has won 39 of its last 44 when holding offenses to 5.0 yards per play or fewer. The Herd has won 24 of its last 25 when allowing fewer than 300 yards. Fifteen (15) times in Doc Holliday's eight-plus seasons has the Herd allowed 125 yards passing or fewer. Marshall is 14-1 (.929) in those games. Marshall is 27-3 (.900) under Doc Holliday when the defense does not allow a rushing touchdown.

Feel the Rush

The Herd is now 40-6 (.870) in the last six-plus seasons when rushing for 150+ yards and 32-5 (.865) the last six-plus years with 200+ on the ground. All-time, Marshall is 11-0 under Doc Holliday when rushing for 300+ yards, as it did with 305 in the 33-31 win over Ohio.

30+

Marshall's 31 points in the win over Old Dominion makes the Herd 42-3 (.933) in its last 45 games when scoring 30+ points. All of those games are under Doc Holliday.

50+

Marshall's 56-17 win over VMI in 2019 was the 17th time that the Thundering Herd has reached the 50+-point plateau under coach Doc Holliday, two more than Jim Donnan (1990-95) for the all-time school mark. Bob Pruett (1996-2004) reached that mark 14 times and Cam Henderson (1936-42, 1946-49) did it on 13 occasions.

Protecting the Home Turf

Marshall is nationally known for being one of the toughest places to play in college football. The program has won 82.2 percent (162-35) of its home games in Joan C. Edwards Stadium, the fifth-highest mark in the country.

Herd Finishes under Holliday

Since Doc Holliday became head coach in 2010, the Herd has an excellent record of finishing off its opponents once it takes the lead. Marshall is 56-8 (.875) when it scores first, 51-8 (.864) when leading after the first quarter, 60-4 (.938) when leading at halftime and 60-4 (.939) when leading after three quarters. In fact, Marshall was won 46 of its last 48 contests (2016 vs. Charlotte, 2018 vs. Middle Tennessee) when it has the halftime lead.

Hang on!

It's easy to see why Herd Coach Doc Holliday talks about ball security so often. His ten Marshall teams have provided a strong indicator of why turnover margin is so important. Holliday's Herd teams have a combined 73-49 (.598) record. When Marshall has an edge in turnover margin, it is 40-9 (.816). When the turnover number is equal, Marshall is 17-7 (.708). When the opponent is more sure-handed, the Herd is 16-33 (.327).

Of Marshall's 122 games under Holliday, the Herd has played 60 while committing zero or one turnover, amassing a record of 45-15 (.750) in those games.

Marshall is 22-4 (.846) under Holliday when it has a turnover margin of +2 or better.

Marshall is 22-5 (.815) under Holliday when it has zero turnovers, and the Herd has won nine of its last 10 when it does not make a miscue (Cincinnati, 2019). Marshall has won 11 of its last 12 (Cincinnati, 2019) when winning the turnover battle and the win over Ohio was the seventh straight win when the MU quarterbacks have two-plus touchdown passes without an interception.

The Thundering Herd had five takeaways in 2018 wins over Eastern Kentucky and Florida Atlantic, giving Holliday nine consecutive wins when his team forces four or more turnovers.

Perfect Versus Texas at Home

Interestingly enough, Marshall has never lost to a school from Texas at home. The Thundering Herd is a perfect 13-0 against Texas schools in games played in Huntington. Marshall owns two wins over North Texas (1988, 2015), two wins over Houston (2008, 2012), three wins over Rice (2007, 2011, 2014), two wins over SMU (2005, 2009), two wins over UTEP (2006, 2010) and two victories over UTSA (2013, 2018).

Bowl Prowess

Marshall enters 2018 featuring an .846 winning percentage (12-2) in all NCAA-sanctioned bowl games, the highest mark nationally among programs that have made at least five appearances. (The Thundering Herd also participated in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl, at which point it was not sanctioned). The leaders are below:

1. Marshall: .857 (12-2)
2. Utah: .773 (17-5)
3. Army: .750 (6-2)
4. San Jose State: .700 (7-3)
5. Wake Forest: .692 (9-4)
6. Louisiana Tech: .682 (7-3-1)
7. Boise State: .667 (12-6)
7. Rutgers: .667 (6-3)
9. Oklahoma State: .655 (19-10)
10. USC: .654 (34-18)

Doc Holliday is 6-0 in bowl games with the Thundering Herd and has appeared in 27 bowls since entering the coaching ranks.

Notes from Middle Tennessee

The game captains for Marshall were sophomore running back Brenden Knox and senior lineman Levi Brown on offense, and senior linebacker Omari Cobb a senior lineman Channing Hames on defense.

After Saturday's win, Middle Tennessee trails the all-time series with Marshall, 5-4.

Marshall senior offensive lineman Levi Brown started his 42nd career game, which pushes him into the top 25 in program history in career starts. Brown is tied with Ryan Bee (2015-2018), Darryl Roberts (2010-14), Charles Henry (1971-74), Mark Brookover (1972-75) and John Spellacy (1985-88).

After Saturday's loss, Doc Holliday is 7-3 in Conference USA openers in 10 seasons as Marshall's head coach.

Marshall quarterback Isaiah Green threw an interception in the first quarter, snapping a streak of 59 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

Also in the first quarter, MU QB Isaiah Green connected with tight end Armani Levias for a 75-yard touchdown. The catch was Levias' first touchdown this season, the fourth of his career and the longest reception of his career. On the play, Levias surpassed his single-game best for receiving yards (previously 69 yards at Virginia Tech in 2018). The 75-yard play is also Marshall's longest this season.

Marshall junior Jackson White, a quarterback and holder on special teams, completed his first career pass after an errant snap on a field goal attempt. White's pass went 6 yards and gave Marshall a first down. In the fourth quarter, White attempted – and completed – another pass on a fake field goal attempt.

Marshall quarterback Isaiah Green set a new single-game career-high for rushing yards with 95. Green's previous best game came on Sept. 14 against Ohio (50 yards). Green's rushing total is the third-most by a quarterback in the Doc Holliday era (since 2010).

On a third quarter play, Marshall senior defensive back

Kereon Merrell recorded a sack and forced fumble when he hit Middle Tennessee quarterback Asher O'Hara on third down. That was the first sack and forced fumble in Merrell's career at Marshall.

Redshirt junior Simino Walden rushed for 12 yards on a play in the third quarter, Walden's first career carry.

The 48-yard reception by Marshall junior receiver Willie Johnson in the fourth quarter was his longest reception of the season.

Marshall senior linebacker Omari Cobb set a new single-game career high for tackles with 12.

Notes from Cincinnati

The game captains for Marshall were sophomore quarterback Isaiah Green and junior offensive lineman Cain Madden on offense, and senior defensive lineman Marquis Couch and senior defensive lineman Channing Hames on defense. Green, Madden and Hames were captains for the first time.

The game against Cincinnati was the 120th in Doc Holliday's head coaching career at Marshall, making him the all-time leader in games coached in program history. Cam Henderson coached 119 games from 1935-1949.

After Saturday's win, Cincinnati leads the all-time series 9-4-1.

The official attendance was 32,192 – the 13th largest crowd in Joan C. Edwards Stadium history.

Cincinnati scored on its opening possession, the first time this season the Marshall defense allowed a first quarter touchdown.

The fourth quarter touchdown run by Marshall sophomore Sheldon Evans was the first of his career.

Junior receiver Willie Johnson scored on a 40-yard run in the fourth quarter, the longest rush by a Marshall player this season and the longest run of Johnson's career. It was also Johnson's first career touchdown run.

Marshall's Nazeem Johnson (13) and Omari Cobb (11) each set career highs for tackles.

Sophomore linebacker Domenick Murphy had his first career fumble recovery.

Notes from Ohio

True freshman Broc Thompson and redshirt freshman Corey Gammage received their first career starts at wide receiver. Marshall started three freshmen receivers for the first time this season.

Junior tight end Xavier Gaines lined up at quarterback for one play in the first quarter, and raced 26 yards for a touchdown to open scoring. The run was Gaines' longest of his career. Gaines finished with a career-high 52 rushing yards and a season-high 53 receiving yards. Gaines became the first Marshall player to have a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same game since Hyleck Foster did so against Middle Tennessee in 2016.

Sophomore tight end Devin Miller caught his first collegiate touchdown pass. The 22-yard reception is also the longest of his college career.

Senior tight end Armani Levias tied a career-high with five receptions.

Brenden Knox led the way with 133 rushing yards. That's his fourth 100-yard rushing game in eight appearances carrying the ball. He has scored a rushing touchdown in five consecutive games. Knox's 100-yard effort is the 56th under Coach Doc Holliday. Devon Johnson had the most 100-yard rushing games under Holliday with 12.

Sophomore running back Sheldon Evans set a new career-high with 77 rushing yards. Sophomore quarterback Isaiah Green finished with 50 rushing yards, also a career best.

Senior linebacker Tyler Brown finished with seven tackles, his best single-game total in his collegiate career. He entered Saturday with seven career tackles.

Marshall was penalized only twice for a total of 20 yards - the two penalties are the fewest Marshall has incurred in a game since drawing only two flags against Miami (Ohio) in 2014.

Marshall had 305 rushing yards against the Bobcats, the 11th time the Herd has eclipsed 300 rushing yards as a team this decade. Marshall is 11-0 in those games.

The 5:42 that Marshall ate up in the final drive is the longest that the Herd has ever been able to ice the ball to protect a one-score lead. The 10 plays in that final drive matches the most Marshall has ever had in that same situation. That surpassed the previous mark of 4:56 that Marshall ate up at the end of the 27-21 win over Miami (Ohio) in 2001.

Notes From Boise State

The game captains were junior offensive lineman Alex Mollette and sophomore running back Brenden Knox on offense, and senior defensive back Chris Jackson and senior linebacker Omari Cobb on defense.

Marshall opened scoring with a touchdown run with 1:02 left of the first quarter, but the loss snaps the team's 19-game win streak when scoring first.

Senior linebacker Tyler Brown received his first career start. Friday night's game was Brown's 20th appearance at Marshall.

Sophomore running back Brenden Knox scored on a 13-yard run in the first quarter, extending his streak of consecutive games with a touchdown to four games, dating back to last season.

Senior defensive end Marquis Couch recorded his first sack of the season, which gave him 6.0 for his Marshall career.

The third quarter interception by senior linebacker Omari Cobb is the first for him this season and the second of his career.

Fermin Silva, a senior playing in his second game at Marshall, was credited with his first sack with the Herd and forced a fumble on the same play that was recovered by fellow defensive lineman Sam Burton.

Boise State running back George Holani rushed for 103 yards, snapping Marshall's streak of not allowing an individual 100-yard rusher at 15 games.

Notes from VMI

Isaiah Green threw a career-high four touchdown passes against VMI. The last time a Marshall quarterback tossed more TD passes was when Chase Litton threw six against Morgan State in 2016. Green completed 18 of 28 passes for 238 yards with four scores and one interception. He also rushed eight times for 46 yards. Marshall's 56 points scored marked the Herd's most since that 62-0 win over Morgan State and the 620 yards of total offense were the Herd's most since gaining 630 yards at Charlotte in 2015.

Talik Keaton's 67-yard punt return (the 26th-longest in program history) for a touchdown against VMI was Marshall's first since Deandre Reaves' 69-yarder for a score against FIU in 2015 and also the longest punt return since that one by Reaves. Keaton's 109 punt return yards (5 att.) against the Keydets are the eighth-most in school history and were the most by a Marshall man since Damone Williams had five returns for 140 yards at Ohio in 1998.

Eleven different players had a reception and 29 players recorded a tackle.

The Herd did not allow a 100-yard rusher for the 15th consecutive game.

Running back Brenden Knox, who scored twice, has had at least one rushing touchdown in three consecutive games dating back to last season.

Linebacker Tyler Brown recorded his first career sack.

Artie Henry's 51-yard touchdown catch was the longest reception of his career.

Marshall had 35 first downs, its most since recording 31 against Akron on September 17, 2016.

Obialo Named to Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Watch List

Marshall wide receiver Obi Obialo was named to the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Watch List.

The honor recognizes the top offensive player in Division I football who also exhibits the enduring characteristics that define Earl Campbell: integrity, performance, teamwork, sportsmanship, drive, community and tenacity; specifically, tenacity to persist and determination to overcome adversity and injury in pursuit of reaching goals. In addition, the nominee must meet one or more of the following criteria: born in Texas and/or graduated from a Texas High School and/or played at a Texas-based junior college or four-year college.

Obialo, a Coppell, Texas native, finished the season with 42 receptions for 505 yards and four touchdowns. In 2018, he was named a team captain four times and started all 13 games.

The Watch List announced today will be narrowed to up to 16 semifinalists in November and then up to 5 finalists in December. They will be selected by broadcasters, commentators, journalists, fans, and previous winners. The finalists will be brought to Tyler for The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Banquet scheduled for January 15, 2020.

Beardall Named to Patrick Mannelly Award, Senior Bowl Watch Lists

Matt Beardall has been selected to the Patrick Mannelly Award Watch List, an honor that is presented annually to the best long snapper in the FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision). Later in the fall, he was named to the Senior Bowl Watch List as well.

Beardall was a preseason All-Conference USA selection this season after garnering first-team honors a year ago. He enters 2019 having made 34 consecutive starts at the position.

The winner must be of senior standing, have started 75% of games in his senior year, snap on punts and placements, and demonstrate a strong mentality, notable athleticism, as well as speed, accuracy and consistency in their snaps.

The award is determined by a committee comprised of former NFL long snappers, punters and kickers, special team coaches, as well as snapping instructors, NFL player agents and sportswriters.

Semifinalists are chosen on Monday, November 16 and finalists will be announced the following Monday.

The winner will be announced on Saturday, December 14.

Knox Named to Wuerffel Award Watch List

Marshall running back Brenden Knox was named to the 2019 Wuerffel Trophy Watch List.

It was the second preseason honor for the Columbus, Ohio native, who was previously named to the AFCA Good Works Team Nominee List earlier this summer.

The Wuerffel Trophy, known as "College Football's Premier Award for Community Service," is presented each February in Fort Walton Beach. Named after 1996

Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Danny Wuerffel from the University of Florida, the Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player that best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.

Semifinalists for the award will be announced on November 5 and finalists will be announced on November 18. The formal announcement of the 2019 recipient will be made at the National Football Foundation's festivities in New York City on December 10. The presentation of the 2019 Wuerffel Trophy will occur at the 51st All Sports Association Awards Banquet on February 14, 2020 in Fort Walton Beach.

Knox, a second-team all-conference preseason pick by Athlon, exploded toward the end of 2018, ripping off 578 rushing yards and four touchdowns in the final five games of the season. In fact, his 297 rushing yards in December led all of college football. He averaged 115.6 yards per game in those final five games, which would have ranked No. 8 nationally for the entire season, but his rushing average includes production from all 13 games because he played on special teams.

Brown Adds Outland Trophy Honor

Marshall center Levi Brown was named to the Outland Trophy's Watch List on Tuesday. The honor is given annually to the nation's top interior lineman (offensive or defensive).

It was the second preseason honor for the Thundering Herd's Franklin, Georgia native after he was given a Rimington Trophy Watch List (top center) nod last week.

Brown was also named a preseason All-Conference USA selection by the league's coaches and Athlon earlier this summer.

The recipient of the 74th Outland Trophy will be announced during ESPN's The Home Depot College Football Awards on Dec. 12, live from the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta. The official presentation to the winner will be made at the NFID Outland Trophy Awards Dinner sponsored by Werner Enterprises and produced by the Greater Omaha Sports Committee on Jan. 15, 2020. Up to eight semifinalists will be named on Nov. 20 in Omaha and three finalists for the award will be announced on Nov. 25.

Jackson Named to Thorpe Award List

Marshall defensive back Chris Jackson was named to the Jim Thorpe Award Preseason Watch List.

The honor is given annually to the best defensive back in college football.

Jackson, who was a preseason all-Conference USA selection by the league's coaches and Athlon, earned postseason all-conference honors for the third consecutive season in 2018. He finished the year with 61 tackles (40 unassisted), one interception, 15 pass breakups and one fumble recovery.

The award recipient is selected by the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award National Selection Committee, which boasts members of the NCFAA, an Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame in-house award committee, former Paycom Jim Thorpe Award recipients, and sportswriters and college football journalists throughout the country.

The 2019 Paycom Jim Thorpe Award winner is selected from three finalists and will be announced at The Home Depot College Football Awards Presented by Gildan on Thursday, December 12, 2019, on ESPN. The Paycom Jim Thorpe Award commemorative banquet will be held on Tuesday, February 4, 2020, in Oklahoma City.

Brown, Levias Named to Preseason Watch Lists

Marshall center Levi Brown (Rimington Trophy) and tight end Armani Levias (John Mackey Award) have each been named to preseason watch lists at their respective positions.

Brown, who has been named to the list three times, was named a preseason All-Conference USA selection by the league's coaches and Athlon this summer. Levias, who was named to Athlon's second team, caught 20 passes for 258 yards and three touchdowns in 2018.

Conference USA's media corps picked the Thundering Herd to win the East Division earlier this week, to the tune of 14 first-place votes. North Texas was the top selection in the West with 20.

Thundering Herd By The Numbers

122 – Marshall head coach Doc Holliday has led the Thundering Herd in a school-record 122 games

50 – In the last six-plus seasons, the Marshall offense has scored 30 or more points 50 times. The Herd is 45-5 in those games, including 11 consecutive wins.

41 – The Marshall offensive line has allowed only 41 sacks in the last two-plus seasons (31 games), and ranked in the top 25 nationally in fewest sacks allowed in each of the past two years.

33 – The Marshall offense has scored 40 or more points 33 times since 2010, Doc Holliday's first year with the program. The Herd is 29-4 in those games.

30 – In the past six-plus seasons, Marshall quarterbacks have been interception-free 30 times. In those games, the Herd is 26-4.

23 – The Marshall defense has allowed only two runs of 50-plus yards in the last two-plus seasons and hasn't allowed a 50+ yard carry in 23 of its last 24 games.

21 – Since Doc Holliday took over as head coach, Marshall has won 21 out of 22 games when rushing for at least 250 yards.

21 – The Marshall football team has now won 21 of its last 22 games (at Boise State) when scoring first.

18 – The Marshall defense has not allowed a 100-yard rusher in 18 of its last 20 games (2019 at Boise State, Ohio).

14.5 – Senior defensive lineman Channing Hames currently boasts 14.5 career sacks, the most of any active Thundering Herd player. Hames, who was the New Mexico Bowl Defensive MVP in 2017, has 3.5 of his career sacks in Marshall's last two bowl games.

7 – Consecutive bowl wins by the Marshall football team, the longest active streak in college football.

5 – Marshall head coach Doc Holliday currently has 66 victories over FBS schools (73 total wins) as head coach of the Thundering Herd, five shy of breaking Bob Pruett's (1996-2004) all-time MU mark of 70 (94 total wins).

4 – Marshall is one of four college football programs with bowl wins in five of the last six seasons, along with defending national champion Clemson and the Big Ten's Wisconsin.

3 – Only three schools have a better (current home stadium) winning percentage than Marshall: Alabama, Boise State and Georgia Southern. The Herd is 162-35 at Joan C. Edwards Stadium, which opened in 1991, winning at an .822 clip.

1 – With seven consecutive bowl wins, the Marshall football program continues to rank No. 1 nationally in bowl winning percentage (minimum five bowls to qualify). The Herd is 12-2 all-time in bowl games.

Marshall vs. Ranked Opponents

Since moving to Division I-A (FBS) in 1997, the Herd has enjoyed a pair of landmark victories against nationally-ranked opponents. The following is the Marshall Thundering Herd's game-by-game results against NCAA FBS opponents ranked in the Associated Press (since 1936), UPI (1950-92), CNN (1993-96), ESPN/USA Today (1997-2004) or USA Today (since 2005) Top 25 polls since 1936.

Last Meeting vs. FAU (10/20/18)

By Chuck McGill (HerdZone.com)

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – There is a board outside of the Marshall football locker room with a photograph of every takeaway the defense has had this season. The pictures feature the player who created the turnover, accompanied by timestamp of when the play happened. At the top of the board are two words: Mission Takeaway.

On Saturday afternoon here at Joan C. Edwards Stadium, with Lane Kiffin and the high-powered offense of the defending Conference USA champion FAU Owls in town, Marshall took away everything in a 31-7 win. The Thundering Herd defense took away the effectiveness of Kiffin's offense, took away standout running back Devin Singletary and literally took the ball away with five turnovers created.

Adam Fuller's defense, on his 42nd birthday, took the cake and ate it, too.

"I can't say enough about our guys' ability to prepare," said Fuller, who heaped praise on defensive assistants J.C. Price, Cornell Brown, Byron Thweatt and Mike Treier. "We've been really good in the first quarter all year. It's important to start fast against a team that always starts fast. They've been doing a great job all year as far as how they prepare and bringing that over to the first drive and the first quarter. It's just about sustaining it throughout the football game."

Marshall (5-2, 3-1 Conference USA) did that throughout the game on defense. FAU (3-4, 1-2 C-USA) entered the game averaging 34.7 points, but the Herd limited the Owls to one inconsequential touchdown. In Kiffin's 77th game as a college football coach, the 7-point output equaled the lowest total of his career. Overall, the 24-point margin is the fourth-worst of Kiffin's career, which includes games at Tennessee, Southern Cal and FAU.

On the field, Singletary could not crack the Marshall defense. He ran eight times for 17 yards in the first half and 16 times for 39 yards overall, his lowest single-game rushing total of the season. Singletary had a 19-game touchdown streak snapped, too, going up against a Herd run defense that ranks in the top 10 nationally.

"FAU does so much to you," Fuller said. "They have really fast players who create space, so you're giving your guys as many keys as you can to make sure they're attuned to what could happen before the ball gets snapped because they go so fast. We changed how we signal it today. I became the main signaler so we could lose one more step in the process of how you call it."

"They're such a good run team and we've been really good against the run, but to see our strength against their strength go up was huge."

Marshall's defense set the tone early, forcing FAU to a three-and-out on its opening possession. In the first six games of the season, the Owls had averaged nine plays, 53 yards and a time of possession of 3:22 on game-opening drives, which included three touchdowns and a field goal. FAU quarterback Chris Robison began the game with an incomplete pass, Singletary rushed for three yards and backup running back Kerrith Whyte was stopped for no gain, leading to a punt.

FAU had two punts and an interception in the first quarter, and Marshall did not allow a touchdown in the opening quarter for the 10th consecutive game. The Herd has allowed 9 points in the first quarter this season, an average of 1.3 points per first quarter.

"Start fast, play 60 minutes as hard as you can and finish strong ... those are the three things you're always trying to push," Fuller said. "It's so critical to come out of the gates. I like that stat because it's about preparation. It means your kids are confident going into the game about the plan and they're able to execute the plan. That's why I'm excited about playing good defense for playing defense in the first quarter. You don't get a win for playing well in the first quarter; you get a win for playing all four quarters."

Marshall opened scoring with 14:23 left of the second quarter when Justin Rohrwasser made a 40-yard field goal to make it 3-0. The Herd won its 15th consecutive game when scoring first.

FAU's only points came on the ensuing drive when Robison connected with tight end Harrison Bryant for a 2-yard touchdown to make it 7-3 with 10:52 left of the second quarter. Marshall regained the lead for good with 3:26 left of the second quarter when junior quarterback Alex Thomson found junior tight end Armani Levias for a 29-yard touchdown. The Herd held a 10-7 lead at the half.

The lead ballooned to double digits, 17-7, when sophomore running back Tyler King scored from 17 yards out with 13:52 left of the second quarter. King finished with 125 yards on 21 carries, his third consecutive 100-yard game. That scoring drive took only three plays after senior defensive lineman Malik Thompson came down with an interception to give the Herd the ball at the FAU 27.

Thompson's first career interception – at any level of his football career – was one of four by the Herd defense. Junior cornerback Chris Jackson, junior safety Malik Gant and senior linebacker Artis Johnson also had interceptions, and Thompson forced a fumble that was recovered by senior cornerback Kereon Merrell.

The Marshall offense had zero turnovers, the first time in Doc Holliday's nine-year career his team has had five takeaway without an offensive turnover.

Thomson and Levias connected again in the third quarter, from 13 yards out, to make it 24-7. Thomson added a 3-yard touchdown run with 1:35 left to arrive at the final score.

Thomson finished with 102 passing yards and 50 rushing yards. Senior running back Keion Davis added 60 yards on the ground in his return from injury, including a 41-yard run on the final scoring drive. Levias led the team in receiving yards (47), and senior Tyre Brady added a team-high five receptions.

But, in what Holliday called the best all-around team performance of the 2018 season, the defense was the story. FAU, in its second season under Kiffin, had scored 30 or more points in 14 of the last 16 games. Singletary entered the game as the nation's leader in rushing touchdowns and missed tackles forced.

FAU averaged 4.54 yards per play on Saturday, and the only team to hold the Owls to a lower number was No. 9 Oklahoma in the season opener (4.38). The FAU offense converted only three of 17 third down opportunities and one of four fourth down tries.

There will be plenty of numbers for Fuller to study during Marshall's off week, and he'll have his work cut out for him with five new additions to 'Mission Takeaway'.

"The goal is two every game," Fuller said. "We like to emphasize it. Our job is to take the ball away whether it's stopping them on third down, fourth down or just physically taking the ball away on any down. It's exciting to be able to see that board filled up."

Doc Holliday Head Coach - Tenth Season (73-49 overall, 46-28 C-USA)

Coach John "Doc" Holliday, who has returned Marshall University football to the national picture, enters his 10th season leading the Thundering Herd.

Marshall protected its place as college football's winningest bowl program, by percentage, and extended the nation's longest bowl winning streak to seven games following its victory over USF in the 2018 Gasparilla Bowl. Six of those wins have come under Holliday, who has the most bowl wins by a coach in program history.

In 2018, the Thundering Herd won four of its last five games to finish 9-4, the 20th time in school history a team has won as many games. It has happened six times since the turn of the century, four in the last six seasons.

Marshall's three straight 10-win seasons from 2013-15 were also a first in the 20-season history of Conference USA football.

Holliday led a resurgence in 2017, improving the Thundering Herd by five games to reach yet another bowl game under his watch.

His 2015 Herd finished 10-3 with a win over Connecticut in the St. Petersburg Bowl. His 2014 and '15 teams – with a combined mark of 23-4 – had the best record among the Group of Five programs in the two-year College Football Playoff era.

In Holliday's seven MU seasons, he has built the Herd into a perennial Conference USA contender. His teams have sported 26 All-C-USA first team selections, 22 second-teamers, 39 honorable mention picks and 22 All-Freshman team selections. He has had nine players selected for C-USA's top individual player-of-the-year awards.

Holliday's 2014 Herd (13-1) grabbed the school's first C-USA Championship with a thrilling comeback, title-game win over Louisiana Tech. MU headed to the Boca Raton Bowl, where it routed Mid-American Conference champion Northern Illinois, 52-23. The Herd finished the season in the major polls – No. 22 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press media poll. It was Marshall's first appearance in the final polls since 2002.

The Herd coach was named the 2014 Conference USA Coach of the Year in voting by his peers and Marshall boasted a C-USA-record 10 all-conference first team selections.

Holliday received a six-year contract extension (through July 2021) for $755,500 annually on April 8, 2015.

The 2014 title season followed a successful 2013, as Marshall went 10-4, won the C-USA East Division crown and downed ACC member Maryland in the Military Bowl – the Terps' last game before heading to the Big Ten.

In December 2014, Holliday was named the 15th annual Gazette-Mail Sportsman of the Year by Charleston Newspapers. In April 2015, the Herd coach was honored as the 2014 Lowell Cade Sportsman of the Year by The (Huntington) Herald-Dispatch.

And in concert with Herd Athletic Director Mike Hamrick, Holliday has helped bring about upgrades in the Marshall non-conference schedule, with home-and-homes against Louisville, Pitt, North Carolina State, Purdue, Navy, Boise State, Cincinnati, Appalachian State, East Carolina, Akron and Ohio and a 2018 game at South Carolina, which will yield the largest guarantee in school history ($1.4 million).

Holliday, named as Herd coach on Dec. 17, 2009 in his first collegiate head coaching job, is widely regarded as one of the top recruiters in the nation. Since he has become a head coach, he has added a reputation for finding and hiring assistant coaches who have made a strong impact on his program. He has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including previous stops at Florida, North Carolina State and West Virginia, his alma mater.

In 2011, the Herd went 7-6 against the 16th-toughest schedule in the nation, a slate that was ranked second among non-BCS schools. Two of those victories came against eventual C-USA champion Southern Miss and Big East co-champ Louisville, the latter coming on the road for the program's first non-conference road win since the early 2000s. Marshall also won five Conference USA games, the most for the program since it had joined the league in 2005.

During his coaching career, Holliday has coached in 26 bowl games and three national championship games. He also has coached five All-Americans.

A native of Hurricane, W.Va., Holliday was born April 21, 1957. He was a three-year letter winner as a linebacker at West Virginia (1976-78) and has earned bachelor's (1979) and master's (1981) degrees from WVU. He won a West Virginia state wrestling title at 175 pounds (all divisions) in 1975 at Hurricane High.

Holliday and his wife, Diana, have four children – Meghan, Cade, Chase and Cody.
