Herd Notes

- With two convincing wins out on the west coast at Loyola Marymount (4-1) and San Diego State (5-1), Marshall moved up six spots in the rankings from 21st to 15th. The program's highest ranking.

- Marshall swept the Conference USA Weekly awards on Oct. 21. Milo Yosef was named Offensive Player of the Week and Paulo Pita was named Defensive Player of the Week. Yosef scored four goals & had one assist while Pita tallied two wins and had five saves during the Herd's trip to the West Coast.

- Milo Yosef was also named College Soccer News Athlete of the Week following his combined four goals and one assist in the two west coast matches.

- Marshall was picked to finish fourth in the Conference USA Preseason Coaches' Poll. It was the highest preseason selection for the Herd going back to 2011. Marshall has steadily climbed up in the preseason poll since head coach Chris Grassie took over before the 2017 season. In 2017, the Herd was picked 8th & finished 6th. In 2018, MU was picked 6th & finished 5th.

- Marshall is off to its best start since 2012 when the Herd began the season 10-1-1, and finished 11-5-1.

Last Time Out...

Marshall entered the match at Wright State just a few hours removed from finding out the team had jumped up in the rankings to No. 15. The Herd then battled to a 2-2 draw against a feisty Raiders squad that was looking to right the ship after going 1-3-1 over its previous five contests. Marshall scored first when sophomore Vitor Dias found the back of the net after a great pass from redshirt freshman Milo Yosef. The goal came in the 20th minute and was the third of the year for Dias. The teams went in at the break with Marshall leading 1-0. Wright State tied it up for the first time in the 58th minute. For almost 30 minutes, it appeared as if the match was destined for overtime tied at 1-1 and then junior Pedro Dolabella sent in a header off a pass from freshman Joao Souza in the 86th minute. However, not even one minute later Wright State tied the match again at 2-2. The teams fought back-and-forth for the remaining few minutes as well as both overtimes. Neither team could gain much of a rhythm or find the back of the net resulting in the double-overtime draw.

Marshall in the Rankings

Back on September 24, 2001, Marshall was 6-1-0 including two wins over future Conference USA opponents UCF and FIU when the Herd received votes in the NCAA/United Soccer Coaches Poll (called the NSCAA - National Soccer Coaches Association of America at the time) for the first time in program history. Marshall was 26th overall, just outside of the Top 25. The Herd then defeated Western Michigan and Northern Illinois in Mid-American Conference action. Those two victories moved Marshall into the Top 25 for the first time with a ranking of 23rd on October 1, 2001. Unfortunately for the Herd, staying in the Top 25 was not in the cards as the squad lost its next two and eventually five of the next six. Two weeks with Marshall University listed as either a ranked or “also receiving votes” team.

On September 24, 2019, exactly 18 years later, Marshall found itself again moving into the national conversation following a 2-1 win over the 2018 National Championship Runners-Up the Akron Zips. The Herd was in the “also receiving votes” spot at 29th overall with a record of 5-1-1.

The following week, Marshall traveled to Old Dominion and came away with a convincing 4-1 victory. The Herd was again in the “also receiving votes” category and moved up to just on the cusp of the Top 25 at 26th overall on October 1.

Marshall then won two more matches at home over Dayton (2-0) and UAB (6-0). The Herd was still in the conversation, but slipped back one spot to 27th overall on October 8th. The next match could be the one that Marshall needed to move into the Top 25 for the first time in 18 years, a road contest at then No. 5 Charlotte.

The Herd went down to Charlotte and battled to a 0-0 draw against one of the top programs not only in Conference USA but in the country. That match was enough to open the eyes of many voters as the Herd jumped up from 27th overall to No. 21 on October 15, its highest ever ranking, and its first Top 25 ranking in 6,588 days.

Following the ranking, Marshall traveled west and came back with two more wins over Loyola Marymount (4-1) and San Diego State (5-1). With the convincing wins, the Herd moved up to 15th, a new highest ranking in program history. Marshall's first match after the No. 15 ranking was a 2-2 draw on the road at Wright State.

The remaining regular season matches for Marshall are on the road at Florida Atlantic (Oct. 26), at Oakland (Oct. 29), home against No. 16 Kentucky (Nov. 3) and on the road at No. 11 FIU (Nov. 8).

Byron Carmichael starred for the Herd (1999-2002) and scored 15 goals for the 2001 squad that became the first to ever be ranked in Marshall men's soccer program history. Carmichael is Marshall's all-time leading scorer with 58 goals and was inducted into the MU Hall of Fame in 2008.
