Herd Notes

- With two convincing wins out on the west coast at Loyola Marymount (4-1) and San Diego State (5-1), Marshall moved up six spots in the rankings from 21st to 15th. The program's highest ranking.

- Marshall swept the Conference USA Weekly awards on Oct. 21. Milo Yosef was named Offensive Player of the Week and Paulo Pita was named Defensive Player of the Week. Yosef scored four goals & had one assist while Pita tallied two wins and had five saves during the Herd's trip to the West Coast.

- Milo Yosef was also named College Soccer News Athlete of the Week following his combined four goals and one assist in the two west coast matches.

- Marshall was picked to finish fourth in the Conference USA Preseason Coaches' Poll. It was the highest preseason selection for the Herd going back to 2011. Marshall has steadily climbed up in the preseason poll since head coach Chris Grassie took over before the 2017 season. In 2017, the Herd was picked 8th & finished 6th. In 2018, MU was picked 6th & finished 5th.

- Marshall is off to its best start since 2012 when the Herd began the season 10-1-1, and finished 11-5-1.

Last Time Out...

Marshall traveled up to Rochester, Michigan to face the Oakland Golden Grizzlies for the final contest of the Herd's six-match road swing. Marshall brushed off the dirt from the loss at Florida Atlantic and earned a 2-1 victory over Oakland. Milo Yosef scored his 11th goal of the season in the 29th minute to give the Herd the lead. Yosef took the cross from Jan-Erik Leinhos and put it in on the right side. In the 69th minute, the Golden Grizzlies tied the match scoring off a successful corner kick play. With less than 10 minutes remaining in regulation, Jonas Westmeyer fired a beauty on a free kick from about 25 yards out and beat Oakland's keeper into the upper 90 left corner, Westmeyer's third goal of the year. The goal proved to be the game-winner as Marshall held off the Golden Grizzlies over the final nine minutes and 31 seconds. It was Marshall's 11th win of the season, the most for the Herd since 2012.

Marshall in the Rankings

Back on September 24, 2001, Marshall was 6-1-0 including two wins over future Conference USA opponents UCF and FIU when the Herd received votes in the NCAA/United Soccer Coaches Poll (called the NSCAA - National Soccer Coaches Association of America at the time) for the first time in program history. Marshall was 26th overall, just outside of the Top 25. The Herd then defeated Western Michigan and Northern Illinois in Mid-American Conference action. Those two victories moved Marshall into the Top 25 for the first time with a ranking of 23rd on October 1, 2001. Unfortunately for the Herd, staying in the Top 25 was not in the cards as the squad lost its next two and eventually five of the next six. Two weeks with Marshall University listed as either a ranked or “also receiving votes” team.

On September 24, 2019, exactly 18 years later, Marshall found itself again moving into the national conversation following a 2-1 win over the 2018 National Championship Runners-Up the Akron Zips. The Herd was in the “also receiving votes” spot at 29th overall with a record of 5-1-1.

The following week, Marshall traveled to Old Dominion and came away with a convincing 4-1 victory. The Herd was again in the “also receiving votes” category and moved up to just on the cusp of the Top 25 at 26th overall on October 1.

Marshall then won two more matches at home over Dayton (2-0) and UAB (6-0). The Herd was still in the conversation, but slipped back one spot to 27th overall on October 8th. The next match could be the one that Marshall needed to move into the Top 25 for the first time in 18 years, a road contest at then No. 5 Charlotte.

The Herd went down to Charlotte and battled to a 0-0 draw against one of the top programs not only in Conference USA but in the country. That match was enough to open the eyes of many voters as the Herd jumped up from 27th overall to No. 21 on October 15, its highest ever ranking, and its first Top 25 ranking in 6,588 days.

Following the ranking, Marshall traveled west and came back with two more wins over Loyola Marymount (4-1) and San Diego State (5-1). With the convincing wins, the Herd moved up to 15th, a new highest ranking in program history. Marshall's first match after the No. 15 ranking was a 2-2 draw on the road at Wright State. Following the draw, Marshall suffered just its second loss of the season in overtime at Florida Atlantic.

Despite the draw and the loss, the Herd stayed in the rankings dropping down to 20th. Conference USA for the third-consecutive week had four teams all in the top 25 with FIU (#13), Kentucky (#15), Charlotte (#18) and Marshall (#20).

The Herd has two big-time matches coming up to end the regular season. On November 3rd, for senior day, Marshall takes on #15 UK. Then the Herd ends the season at #13 FIU on November 8th. The two matches hold a lot of weight at the end of the season as the top four teams all battle it out for seeds before heading to Norfolk, Va., Nov. 13-17.

Byron Carmichael starred for the Herd (1999-2002) and scored 15 goals for the 2001 squad that became the first to ever be ranked in Marshall men's soccer program history. Carmichael is Marshall's all-time leading scorer with 58 goals and was inducted into the MU Hall of Fame in 2008.

Series History versus Kentucky

The series between Marshall and Kentucky is the longest running rivalry in the Herd's history. Marshall has also played UK more than any other school with this being the 41st all-time meeting. The series began all the way back on September 23, 1981, a 3-1 win in Huntington. Since then, there have only been three years that Marshall and Kentucky did not meet on the pitch in 1986, 1987 and 1989. The Herd won the first eight match ups and the Wildcats are 21-8-3 since. UK's first win against Marshall came on October 7, 1992 with a 3-1 victory in Huntington. The teams have been conference foes since 1997 when Marshall joined the Mid-American Conference. Kentucky joined the MAC in 1995 as the Southeastern Conference does not sponsor men's soccer. The first postseason meeting was in 2000 in the MAC Tournament, held in Buffalo, N.Y. The Wildcats won 1-0 in the second round.

The rivalry continued as both programs moved to Conference USA in 2005. Since the 2005 season, UK owns an 11-5-2 record against Marshall and the programs have met four times in the C-USA Tournament including each of the last two seasons. The last time Kentucky came to Huntington, was October 14, 2017, and the Wildcats were ranked No. 21 in the country. Marshall came away with a big 1-0 victory in Head Coach Chris Grassie's first season. The Herd earned another 1-0 win over UK in 2017 in a first round upset in the conference tournament. Marshall as the sixth-seed defeated the No. 3 seed Wildcats on senior Dion Stergiotis' goal in the 33rd minute. Senior keeper Nate Himes tallied eight saves in the shutout including two back-to-back, acrobatic saves in the 32nd minute with Marshall able to make a big run downfield off the second save, leading to the goal by Stergiotis.

In 2018, Marshall visited Lexington while UK was ranked No. 5 in the country and lost 1-0 in overtime. In the loss, Paulo Pita recorded a career-high 14 saves, also tied for seventh in C-USA history. The Herd and the Wildcats met again in the second round of the conference tournament. UK was the top overall seed in the and Marshall was the five-seed. Kentucky was also ranked No. 3 in the country and won the semi-final round match 2-1 on its way to the Championship.

Sunday's meeting will be the 19th time that UK has made the trip to West Virginia. There have been 18 matches played in Huntington and one in Hurricane while Hoops Family Field was being built.

Sunday also marks the first time that two Top 25 NCAA teams will be playing men's soccer in Huntington. When the Herd was ranked back in 2001, Marshall played its next two matches on the road at Buffalo and Akron, unfortunately dropping both and the out of the polls.
