HERD NOTES

Brand New Coaching Staff

Marshall softball marches into the 2019 season with its second new coaching staff in as many years. Megan Smith takes over the program after spending the past nine years as the head coach at Kansas University. Smith led the Jayhawks to six-consecutive 30 win seasons as well as back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 2014 and 2015. Marshall's fourth head coach in program history has had head coaching stops at Young Harris (JUCO) in 2001-02 and started the Western Carolina program in 2005. The Catamounts first season of play in 2006 resulted in a 41-20 record, the Southern Conference Regular Season Title, the SoCon Pitcher of the Year, Freshman of the Year and Smith was named Coach of the Year. After leaving Western Carolina, Smith was an assistant for three years at LSU that included an SEC title and a trip to the World Series.

Joining Coach Smith are assistants Corey Lyon and Maddie Holub. Former Herd player and Warrior Award winner Madi Marshall joins the staff as the Director of Operations.

Coach Lyon comes to Huntington after four seasons as the head coach at UL-Monroe where he won 111 games. The Warhawks had two 30+ win seasons during his tenure and finished second in the nation in stolen bases in 2015 with 143, ten thefts behind Marshall.

Coach Holub joins the Marshall staff after four seasons as the pitching coach at Saint Leo University (Division II) in Florida. Holub worked her pitching staffs into some of the best in Division II as Saint Leo never won fewer than 37 games during her time. Her pitching staff never had a group ERA higher than 2.04 and won the National Statistical championship in 2016 with a team ERA of a mere 0.93.

Sophomore Aly Harrell Named Preseason All-Conference

The reigning Conference USA Freshman of the Year, Aly Harrell, was the only Herd player named to the Preseason All-Conference squad. Harrell smashed a program rookie record of 11 home runs last season and added 10 doubles. She led the team with 41 RBI, the fourth most by a freshman in program history, and tied for the team lead with a .350 average. While able to bash the ball, Harrell showed a lot of patience as a freshman hitter with 23 walks, seven hit-by-pitches and struck out just nine times in 152 plate appearances. Harrell even set a Marshall record by drawing a walk in eight-straight games, breaking the old mark of seven set by four-time All-American Rachel Folden in 2008. The now sophomore is also an excellent fielder as she sported a .986 percentage in 21 games as the starter at first base. She had just two errors in 144 chances.

Coming Up Clutch

Another 2018 freshman who may have started to earn the nickname "Miss Clutch" is current sophomore outfielder Rachel Rousseau. In limited time as a rookie, Rousseau recorded five hits and four went for doubles. She also drove in five runs, scored eight times and stole five bases. Her first three appearances as a pinch hitter (at Furman and vs. Southern Miss games one and two), "Rou" got on base each time with two walks and an RBI single that gave Marshall a 4-1 lead in game one against Southern Miss. The freshman hit her second double of the season the next day in game three. In game two at WKU on April 22, Rousseau was brought in to pinch hit in the top of the seventh with one out, one on base and the game tied at 5-5. On the seventh pitch of the at-bat, the freshman right-hander ripped a double to center that scored the run and gave Marshall the lead. Two batters later Rousseau scored to give the Herd a 2-run lead and the eventual 7-5 win.

Finally, in the regular season finale against Middle Tennessee on senior day, Rou stepped up for a pinch hit in the bottom of the seventh with two on base, one out and trailing 1-0. On the second pitch, she ripped a shot into the left-center gap scoring both runners and giving Marshall a double-header sweep of the eventual Conference USA Tournament champion Blue Raiders. On the defensive side, Rousseau caught one at the wall at FAU in game three, taking away a sure extra base hit as the Owls had two runners on base. The catch at the top of the fence ended the inning.

Abigail Tolbert Steps into the Circle

After pitching just one inning in two seasons, Abigail Tolbert took a chance to step into the pitching circle and take charge for a team that had lost 2017 Conference USA Pitcher of the Year Jordan Dixon to graduation. Tolbert ended up leading the Herd with 160.2 innings pitched, a 3.49 ERA, 12-11 record, 10 complete games, five shutouts and 86 strikeouts. She earned her first career start against 13th ranked Auburn in the season-opener. She tossed back-to-back complete game shutouts against Presbyterian (Feb. 24), Winthrop (Feb. 25) and George Washington (March 2). Tolbert may have had her best performance of the season during an ESPN 3 broadcast against the James Madison Dukes, a team just outside of the top 25. The junior right-hander pitched a complete game, three-hit shutout and struck out a career-high seven batters. The Dukes had come in with a powerful offense that was punching out extra base hits all over the field.

Big Shoes to Fill

The Class of 2018 for the Herd saw another group come through with record setters and major contributors that Marshall will look to replace. Elidia D'Orazio left with her name throughout the record book including Marshall and Conference USA's all-time leader in stolen bases with 166. Taylor "The Sniper" McCord was a leader on and off the field and closed out her time as the program's all-time leader in runners caught stealing (57), second all-time in pickoffs (27) and the most runners combined thrown out with an astounding 84. Eloise "Weezy" Tribolet was an exciting outfielder who spent her final two collegiate seasons with the Green and White. In Tribolet's final game for Marshall she went 3-for-3 against WKU in the C-USA Tournament and robbed her second home run of the year. Jordan Colliflower worked her way from a walk-on who saw limited time on the field to a regular starter who had a 23-game hitting streak during her senior season, the second longest streak in program history, and was named an All-Conference USA performer. Madi Marshall was the 2018 Warrior Award winner named in honor of Emileigh Cooper, and set a team pinch-running record in 2017 scoring a run in 10-straight games.

Herd Welcomes Eight Newcomers

Along with a new coaching staff, the players who will have a chance to try and fill those shoes of the graduated seniors are eight new faces with three transfers and five freshmen. Senior outfielder Hannah Giammarino came over from Bowling Green for her final season and played high school and travel ball with now fellow classmate Hayden Ellis. Junior infielder Brooke Burns comes the Herd after two seasons at UNC, and is a former finalist for South Carolina State (HS) Player of the Year. Junior infielder Sierra Huerta makes the jump east after spending two incredible seasons at Moorpark College in California.

The freshman class includes a range of athletes in outfielder Carson Lyon (Monroe, La.), outfielder Chloe Lee (Tampa, Fla.), outfielder Rachel Pennington (West Hamlin, W.Va.), catcher Caitlin Myers (Charles Town, W.Va.) and pitcher Mya Stevenson (Mesquite, Texas). All five received numerous accolades during their prep careers and even walking away with school records.

Megan
Smith

Head Coach
1st Season
North Carolina '99

On Wednesday July 25, 2017, Megan Smith was named the four head coach in Marshall softball history.

Smith, who sports a career record of 393-265, led the Kansas Jayhawks to six consecutive 30-win seasons and back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 2014 and 2015. The 2015 campaign yielded the first 40-win season for the program in 23 years, the best start in school history for the second time in her tenure (12-0) and seven consecutive weeks in the top 25. Her 2013 team recorded the program's highest winning percentage (.680) in 21 years, broke the Big 12 record for batting average (.345), the highest mark in the NCAA that season. In 2012, Kansas had a 20-game win streak and, the year before, boasted an 11.5 game won-loss record improvement, the 16th-best turnaround in NCAA history. The 26-3 mark to open the 2011 season was also the best start in the program's history.

"I am extremely honored and excited to be a part of the Marshall family," said Smith. "There is such a strong history and tradition of success within the softball program and I am humbled to now be a part of that. I want to thank Mike Hamrick for this incredible opportunity for me and my son Cooper. I am eager to get to know the players and to get started this fall!"

At Kansas, she coached one All-American, one academic All-American, 20 All-Big 12 selections, 20 NFCA (National Fastpitch Coaches Association) All-Region selections, 50 All-Big 12 Academic Team honorees, three Big 12 Scholar Athletes of the Year and three student-athletes taken in the NPF (National Pro Fastpitch) Draft. The program also set single-season fielding percentage (2014, .979-second-highest nationally) and home run records during her time as head coach (60, 2011).

Prior to her time in Lawrence, Smith was an assistant for LSU for three seasons, where she helped the Tigers in winning the 2007 SEC Tournament and the Stanford Regional in the NCAA Tournament en route to 55 wins. LSU finished the regular season ranked third in the ESPN/USA Today poll. The following season, the Tigers picked up 44 wins on their way to a #9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament. During her tenure, she mentored two All-Americans and five NFCA All-South Region honorees.

Smith started the softball program at Western Carolina and posted a 41-20 record in WCU's inaugural season, earning 2006 Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors, while leading the Catamounts to the league's regular season title. That season, five student-athletes garnered first-team all-league acclaim, with another on the second team and two more were tabbed on the NFCA Southeast All-Region second team. She also coached the conference's 2006 Pitcher of the Year and Freshman of the Year. WCU broke the league's single-season home run record (81) that year, part of an explosive offensive season for the program (third in the nation in home runs per game, 14th in slugging percentage, 19th in scoring).

She also had assistant coaching stops at her alma mater North Carolina (2004), where she helped the Tar Heels reach the NCAA Tournament, and at Charlotte in 2003.

Her first head coaching position came at Young Harris College in Georgia, where she put up a 79-41 record over two seasons.

"We are very much looking forward to Megan leading our softball program," said Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick. "She is a proven winner and has a reputation for helping mold top-quality student-athletes. Our program is eager for her arrival in Huntington."

Smith, who is an NCAA Division I Softball Committee member, graduated from North Carolina in May 1999 with a Bachelor of Arts in Physical Education and Recreation Studies. She received her Master of Science in Human Performance and Sport Studies from Tennessee in August of 2000.

A Walkertown, N.C. native, Smith and the late Paul Buske have one son, Cooper.

Grand Larceny on the Bases

Marshall has recorded 2,276 total stolen bases in program history going back to 1994 averaging 91.04 per season (through end of 2018).

Marshall has been ranked more times in the Top 10 in the country than any other school since 2000 and has been in the Top 10 every year since 2009.

1. Marshall – 11 (3 times led the country)

2. Alabama – 7

T3. Miss. Valley State, Baylor, Prairie View & Akron – 6

T5. Southern U. & Jackson State – 5

T9. Alcorn & Loyola-Chicago – 4

Marshall has led the country in stolen bases per game three times – 2011, 2015 & 2017 (the only program to do so since 2000) and finished second in 2012 & 2013. Only Alabama (2007 & 2009) and Prairie View A&M (2001 & 2003) have led the country twice since 2000. Marshall set the team mark in 2017 with 162.

Morgan Zerkle (2015) and Elicia D'Orazio (2017) both won the Golden Shoe Award which is given annually to the nation's leader in stolen bases. Zerkle led the country with .94 per game and D'Orazio racked up 1.09 per game.

Marshall shattered the program record for steals in a game with 16 against Delaware State on March 5, 2017. The old mark was 11 steals at Middle Tennessee State April 10, 2015. Thieves in the game: Morgan Zerkle (5), Shaelynn Braxton (4), Eloise Tribolet (2), Abigail Estrada (2), Elicia D'Orazio (2) and Hayden Ellis (1).

Prior to the 2018 season, Marshall was the only team in Conference USA to have more than one player with 100 or more career steals. After the 2018 season Florida Atlantic now has two players over the century mark.

Elicia D'Orazio (2015-18) - 166 All-time Conference USA Leader
