Thundering Herd Fall Notes

Wells Racks up Honors after ECU Victory

Marshall quarterback Grant Wells racked up two more honors Tuesday, following the Thundering Herd's 59-0 blowout win over Eastern Kentucky.

The Charleston native was Pro Football Focus College's highest-graded player in the nation on the first weekend of play, recording a grade of 94.7 with five "big-time" throws and no turnover-worthy plays.

He was also one of eight Manning Award Stars of the Week for his performance, a 16-for-23 day with 307 passing, four touchdowns and no interceptions. He also posted 30 yards rushing on the afternoon. For his efforts, he earned Conference USA's Offensive Player of the Week honor.

Wells, who completed his first eight passes, became the first Marshall quarterback with 300-plus passing yards in a debut, exceeding the previous record of 292 by Stan Hill vs Miami (Ohio) on Nov. 11, 2002. He tied the school record for most passing touchdowns in a debut with four, equaling the mark set by Hill vs. Miami and Chase Litton vs. Norfolk State in 2015.

Notes Versus ECU

The game captains for Marshall were senior offensive lineman Alex Mollette and junior running back Sheldon Evans, and senior defensive back Nazeem Johnson and senior linebacker Tavante Beckett on defense. This is Evans' first time serving as a game captain.

After Saturday's win, Marshall leads the all-time series 12-8-1. The Thundering Herd has won four consecutive games in the series.

Saturday's win is Marshall's 10th in a row in home openers.

Two offensive players made their first career start for Marshall: Redshirt freshman quarterback Grant Wells and senior offensive lineman Alex Salguero.

Four defensive players made their first career start for the Herd: Junior defensive tackle Jamare Edwards, sophomore linebacker Eli Neal, junior linebacker Abraham Beauplan and junior safety Derrek Pitts.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Grant Wells became the first Marshall quarterback with 300-plus passing yards in a debut, passing for 307 yards. The previous record: Stan Hill vs Miami (Ohio) on Nov. 11, 2002 (292 passing yards).

Wells tied the record for most passing touchdowns in a debut with four, equaling the mark set by Hill vs. Miami and Chase Litton vs. Norfolk State in 2015.

Junior running back Brenden Knox reached a career milestone in the first half, surpassing 2,000 rushing yards. Knox also passed Keion Davis for No. 14 on the program's career rushing list.

Senior tight end Garet Morrell hauled in a 45-yard pass in the first half, a career long.

Sophomore receiver Talik Keaton established a new career-high for receiving yards in a single game. Keaton's 47-yard reception in the second quarter is a career long.

Sophomore running back Knowledge McDaniel made his debut carrying the ball, rushing for a team-high 93 yards.

Senior receiver Jaron Woodyard caught his first collegiate touchdown.

Freshman tight end Amir Richardson caught his first collegiate touchdown.

Sophomore quarterback Luke Zban completed his first career pass and touchdown.

Junior defensive tackle Rodney Croom combined on a sack, the first of his career.

Sophomore linebacker Eli Neal set a new single game career high for tackles with eight (previous best: four vs. Cincinnati in 2019).

Junior defensive end Koby Cumberlander established a new single game career high for tackles with five (previous best: four – accomplished three times in 2019).

Sophomore defensive end Owen Porter set a new single game career high with five tackles (previous best: two – twice in 2019).

Marshall tied the school record for fewest punts with zero, which has now been accomplished seven times. The most recent occurrence before Saturday: UAB in 2006.

Eastern Kentucky gained only 166 yards in the contest, the fewest for a Marshall opponent since UTSA gained only 137 in that 23-0 Herd win in 2018. ECU managed only seven first downs against Marshall, which is the fewest that MU has allowed in a game since SMU had seven in the Herd's 16-13 overtime win in 2005 - Marshall's very first C-USA victory.

Behind Wells and company, Marshall gained 627 yards of total offense - the Herd's most since gaining 630 at Charlotte in 2015.

The Luke Zban to Amir Richardson scoring strike marked the first pair of native West Virginians to connect on a touchdown pass since Mark Zban's 80-yard toss to Randy Moss at Central Michigan in 1997.

Holliday Moves to the Top

Marshall head coach Doc Holliday led the program for a school-record 130th time against Eastern Kentucky. The Herd's victory over FIU last November was Holliday's 71st over an FBS opponent, which moved him past Bob Pruett (70) in that category for the school record. Holliday (79) currently sits second on the school's overall win list behind Pruett (94, 1996-2004).

Bowl Prowess

Marshall enters 2020 featuring an .800 winning percentage (12-3) in all NCAA-sanctioned bowl games, the highest mark nationally among programs that have made at least six appearances. (The Thundering Herd also participated in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl, at which point it was not sanctioned). The leaders are below:

1. Marshall: .800 (12-3)
2. Army: .750 (6-2)
3. Utah: .739 (17-6)
4. Louisiana Tech: .708 (8-3-1)
5. San Jose State: .700 (7-3)
6. Rutgers: .667 (6-3)
7. WKU: .667 (4-2)
8. Ole Miss: .649 (24-13)
9. Wake Forest: .643 (9-5)
10. USC: .642 (34-19)

Doc Holliday is 6-1 in bowl games with the Thundering Herd and has appeared in 28 bowls since entering the coaching ranks.

Feeling the Sunshine

Since the beginning of the 2013 season, Doc Holliday is 14-4 in games contested in the state of Florida and/or against Florida schools.

First Blood

The Thundering Herd has now won 26 of its last 28 games when scoring first and has won 15 of its last 17 when leading after the first quarter. Related: since the beginning of the 2013 season, the Herd is 46-3 (.939) when scoring first.

Stingy D

The Herd has won 43 of its last 48 when holding offenses to 5.0 yards per play or fewer. The Herd has won 27 of its last 28 when allowing fewer than 300 yards. Seventeen (17) times in Doc Holliday's 10-plus seasons has the Herd allowed 125 yards passing or fewer. Marshall is 16-1 (.941) in those games. Marshall is 29-3 (.906) under Doc Holliday when the defense does not allow a rushing touchdown.

Feel the Rush

The Herd is now 45-7 (.865) in the last seven-plus seasons when rushing for 150+ yards and 35-5 (.875) the last seven-plus years with 200+ on the ground. All-time, Marshall is 11-0 under Doc Holliday when rushing for 300+ yards, as it did with 305 in the 33-31 win over Ohio in 2019. Marshall's 20 rushing first downs in the 59-0 win over EKU was the most for the program since 24 versus Morris Harvey in 1925.

Marshall's 59 points in the win over EKU makes the Herd 46-3 (.939) in its last 49 games when scoring 30+ points. All of those games are under Doc Holliday.

50+

Marshall's 59-0 win over EKU was the 18th time that the Thundering Herd has reached the 50+-point plateau under coach Doc Holliday, three more than Jim Donnan (1990-95) for the all-time school mark. Bob Pruett (1996-2004) reached that mark 14 times and Cam Henderson (1936-42, 1946-49) did it on 13 occasions.

Protecting the Home Turf

Marshall is nationally known for being one of the toughest places to play in college football. The program has won 82.6 percent (166-35) of its home games in Joan C. Edwards Stadium, the fourth-highest mark in the country.

Herd Finishes under Holliday

Since Doc Holliday became head coach in 2010, the Herd has an excellent record of finishing off its opponents once it takes the lead. Marshall is 61-9 (.871) when it scores first, 54-9 (.857) when leading after the first quarter, 65-5 (.929) when leading at halftime and 66-5 (.930) when leading after three quarters. In fact, Marshall has won 51 of its last 54 contests (2016 vs. Charlotte, 2018 vs. Middle Tennessee, 2019 at Charlotte) when it has the halftime lead.

Hang on!

It's easy to see why Herd Coach Doc Holliday talks about ball security so often. His 11 Marshall teams have provided a strong indicator of why turnover margin is so important. Holliday's Herd teams have a combined 79-51 (.608) record. When Marshall has an edge in turnover margin, it is 43-10 (.811). When the turnover number is equal, Marshall is 20-7 (.741). When the opponent is more sure-handed, the Herd is 16-34 (.320).

Of Marshall's 130 games under Holliday, the Herd has played 66 while committing zero or one turnover, amassing a record of 51-15 (.773) in those games.

Marshall is 23-4 (.852) under Holliday when it has a turnover margin of +2 or better.

Marshall is 25-5 (.833) under Holliday when it has zero turnovers, and the Herd has won 12 of its last 13 when it does not make a miscue (Cincinnati, 2019). Marshall has won 14 of its last 16 (Cincinnati and Charlotte, 2019) when winning the turnover battle and the win over ECU was the eighth straight win when the MU quarterbacks have two-plus touchdown passes without an interception.

The Thundering Herd had five takeaways in 2018 wins over Eastern Kentucky and Florida Atlantic, giving Holliday nine consecutive wins when his team forces four or more turnovers.

Perfect Versus Texas at Home

Interestingly enough, Marshall has never lost to a school from Texas at home. The Thundering Herd is a perfect 13-0 against Texas schools in games played in Huntington. Marshall owns two wins over North Texas (1988, 2015), two wins over Houston (2008, 2012), three wins over Rice (2007, 2011, 2014), two wins over SMU (2005, 2009), two wins over UTEP (2006, 2010) and two victories over UTSA (2013, 2018).

Marshall-East Carolina Game Postponed

Marshall Football's September 12 game at East Carolina has been postponed, due to the severity of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic in the state of North Carolina.

Both schools will make every effort to reschedule the game on a date that has yet to be determined. This will be the third time the contest has been rescheduled this year.

Marshall and East Carolina have been forever linked since the tragic crash of Southern Airways Flight 932 on Nov. 14, 1970, which claimed the lives of all 75 aboard following ECU's 17-14 home victory earlier that afternoon.

The events of the day were depicted in the 2006 Warner Bros. motion picture We Are Marshall, starring Matthew McConaughey.

The two schools have met 15 times previously, with ECU winning 10.

One of Marshall's victories was a thrilling comeback win in the 2001 GMAC Bowl, which saw the Herd emerge with a 64-61 double overtime victory on the arm of MVP Byron Leftwich, who passed for a bowl-record 576 yards to bring MU back from a 38-8 halftime deficit.

"East Carolina has indicated to us that it is not able to play the game on September 12," said Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick. "We'll get together with ECU and do everything within our power to reschedule the game at a later date."

Marshall and ECU are also set to meet three more times: September 18, 2021 in Huntington, September 9, 2023 in Greenville and September 13, 2025 in Huntington.

Thundering Herd Places Five on C-USA Preseason Football Teams

Marshall University had five student-athletes recognized on Conference USA's preseason football team, including its Most Valuable Player, when the honors were released.

Brenden Knox, who won the league's 2019 postseason MVP award, garnered this season's preseason honor as well. He was joined by offensive lineman Cain Madden, linebacker Tavante Beckett, defensive back Nazeeh Johnson and punt returner Talik Keaton.

Knox was previously named to the watch lists for the Maxwell Award, Wuerffel Trophy and the Doak Walker Award this summer.

The Columbus, Ohio native has picked up a slew of preseason awards on the heels of a 2019 campaign that saw him earn Conference USA Most Valuable Player, Marshall team MVP and offensive MVP honors.

Last year, he amassed a league-high 1,387 yards and 11 touchdowns on 270 carries (also tops in C-USA). He also caught 14 passes for 129 yards. His rushing yardage total also ranked third nationally among sophomores. Based on 2019 statistics, Knox will enter the 2020 season as the sixth-leading rusher in college football behind the likes of Oklahoma State's Chuba Hubbard and Clemson's Travis Etienne. At 1,965 career rushing yards through two seasons, he ranks as the third-best two-season start to a career through a sophomore season for Marshall running backs behind Chris Parker and Doug Chapman.

Madden was also named to the Outland Trophy watch list, which is an award given to the nation's top interior lineman. He was a breakout player on the offensive side of the ball for Marshall in 2019, as he was part of a unit that helped power a running game that finished second in the league in rushing yards and rushing yards per game. At season's end, he earned second-team all-league honors, but, like Beckett, has been a first-team selection on Athlon and Phil Steele's all-conference lists.

Beckett was also selected to the watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, an honor that is given annually to nation's defensive player of the year. The Chesapeake, Virginia native amassed a league-high 121 tackles in 2019 en route to Conference USA first-team honors. He shared team defensive most valuable player honors with fellow linebacker Omari

Cobb, as well.

Johnson was also an honorable mention all-league honoree, racking up 88 tackles and seven passes defended in 2019. This summer, Athlon also added him to its preseason all-conference team.

Keaton was Conference USA's top punt returner in 2019 and was the only freshman in the league to be named to C-USA's first team. A year ago, he returned 16 kicks for 202 yards and one touchdown. He was second nationally in punt return yards among freshmen. This summer, Phil Steele also added him to his preseason all-league squad.

Knox Picks Up Two More Watch List Honors

Marshall running back Brenden Knox continued to rack up the preseason honors when he was selected to the watch lists for the Maxwell Award and the Wuerffel Trophy.

The Maxwell Award is given annually to the most outstanding player in college football. Semifinalists will be announced November 3, 2020, while the three finalists will be unveiled November 23, 2020. The winner will be announced as part of the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show held on December 10, 2020. The formal presentations of these awards will be made at the Maxwell Football Club Awards Gala hosted by Tropicana Hotel & Casino Atlantic City on March 12, 2021.

The Wuerffel Trophy, known as "College Football's Premier Award for Community Service," is presented each February in Fort Walton Beach. Named after 1996 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback from the University of Florida, Danny Wuerffel, the Wuerffel Trophy exists to honor college football players who serve others, celebrate their positive impact on society, and inspire greater service in the world. Semifinalists for the award will be announced on November 3 and finalists will be announced on November 23. The formal announcement of the 2020 recipient will be made at the National Football Foundation's festivities in New York City on December 8. The presentation of the 2020 Wuerffel Trophy will occur at the 52nd All Sports Association Awards Banquet on February 19, 2021 in Fort Walton Beach.

Knox was named to the Doak Walker Award Watch List last week. That honor is given to the nation's top running back.

The Columbus, Ohio native has picked up a slew of preseason awards on the heels of a 2019 campaign that saw him earn Conference USA Most Valuable Player, Marshall team MVP and offensive MVP honors.

Last year, he amassed a league-high 1,387 yards and 11 touchdowns on 270 carries (also tops in C-USA).

He also caught 14 passes for 129 yards. His rushing yardage total also ranked third nationally among sophomores. Based on 2019 statistics, Knox will enter the 2020 season as the sixth-leading rusher in college football behind the likes of Oklahoma State's Chuba Hubbard and Clemson's Travis Etienne. At 1,965 career rushing yards through two seasons, he ranks as the third-best two-season start to a career through a sophomore season for Marshall running backs behind Chris Parker and Doug Chapman.

In the last two months, Knox has also been named first-team preseason all-conference by Athlon and Phil Steele, while earning a spot on College Football America Yearbook's Group of 5 starting lineup.

Gaines Tabled For Paul Hornung Award Watch List

Marshall tight end Xavier Gaines was selected to the Paul Hornung Award Watch List.

The award, now in its 11th season, is given annually to the most versatile player in major college football by the Louisville Sports Commission and football legend and Louisville native Paul Hornung. The winner and his family will be honored at the annual Paul Hornung Award dinner at the Galt House Hotel in downtown Louisville in March of 2021.

Gaines saw action at quarterback, running back and tight end/receiver for the Thundering Herd last season, finishing with 27 catches for 306 yards and three receiving touchdowns. On the ground, he ran the ball 26 times for 187 yards and two more scores. He was one of only two players in Conference USA with 150-plus rushing yards and 300 or more receiving yards.

Previously this summer, the Frostproof, Florida native was named a preseason all-Conference USA selection by Athlon and Phil Steele.

Beckett, Madden Named to Preseason Watch Lists

Marshall linebacker Tavante Beckett and offensive lineman Cain Madden were each named to national watch lists.

Beckett was selected to the watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, an honor that is given annually to nation's defensive player of the year. The Chesapeake, Virginia native amassed a league-high 121 tackles in 2019 en route to Conference USA first-team honors. He shared team defensive most valuable player honors with fellow linebacker Omari Cobb, as well.

Thus far this preseason, he has earned first-team all-conference acclaim from Athlon and Phil Steele.

Madden was named to the Outland Trophy watch list, which is an award given to the nation's top interior lineman. He was a breakout player on the offensive side of the ball for Marshall in 2019, as he was part of a unit that helped power a running game that finished second in the league in rushing yards and rushing yards per game. At season's end, he earned second-team all-league honors, but, like Beckett, has been a first-team selection on Athlon and Phil Steele's all-conference lists.

As in previous years, the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) will announce a National Defensive Player of the Week each Tuesday this season. If not already on the watch list, each week's honored player will be added at that time. The FWAA and the Charlotte Touchdown Club will then announce five finalists.

The recipient of the 75th Outland Trophy will be announced in early December. The official presentation to the winner will be made in Omaha, Neb., at the Outland Trophy Awards Dinner sponsored by Werner Enterprises and produced by the Greater Omaha Sports Committee, scheduled for Jan. 13, 2021.

Knox Named to Doak Walker Award Watch List

Marshall running back Brenden Knox has been named to the Doak Walker Award Watch List, the PwC SMU Athletic Forum announced.

The junior has picked up a slew of preseason awards on the heels of a 2019 campaign that saw him earn Conference USA Most Valuable Player, Marshall team MVP and offensive MVP honors.

Last year, he amassed a league-high 1,387 yards and 11 touchdowns on 270 carries (also tops in C-USA). He also caught 14 passes for 129 yards. His rushing yardage total also ranked third nationally among sophomores. Based on 2019 statistics, Knox will enter the 2020 season as the sixth-leading rusher in college football behind the likes of Oklahoma State's Chuba Hubbard and Clemson's Travis Etienne. At 1,965 career rushing yards through two seasons, he ranks as the third-best two-season start to a career through a sophomore season for Marshall running backs behind Chris Parker and Doug Chapman.

In the last two months, Knox has also been named first-team preseason all-conference by Athlon and Phil Steele, while earning a spot on College Football America Yearbook's Group of 5 starting lineup.

The PwC SMU Athletic Forum Board of Directors will name ten semifinalists in November, and three finalists, as voted on by the Doak Walker Award National Selection Committee, will be announced in November.

The committee will cast a second vote in December to determine the recipient. The National Selection Committee consists of past recipients, former NFL All-Pro and college All-America running backs, media members and selected special representatives.

The recipient of the 2020 Doak Walker Award will be announced live on The Home Depot College Football Awards.

Thundering Herd By The Numbers

130 – Marshall head coach Doc Holliday has led the Thundering Herd in a school-record 130 games.

71 – Marshall head coach Doc Holliday currently has 71 victories over FBS schools (79 total wins) as head coach of the Thundering Herd, one more than Bob Pruett's (1996-2004) previous mark of 70 (94 total wins).

54 – In the last seven-plus seasons, the Marshall offense has scored 30 or more points 54 times. The Herd is 49-5 in those games, including 15 consecutive wins.

34 – The Marshall offense has scored 40 or more points 34 times since 2010, Doc Holliday's first year with the program. The Herd is 30-4 in those games.

34 – In the past seven-plus seasons, Marshall quarterbacks have been interception-free 34 times. In those games, the Herd is 30-4.

31 – The Marshall defense has allowed only two runs of 50-plus yards in the last three-plus seasons and hasn't allowed a 50+ yard carry in 31 of its last 32 games.

26 – The Marshall football team has now won 26 of its last 28 games (at Boise State, at Charlotte) when scoring first.

23 – Since Doc Holliday took over as head coach, Marshall has won 23 out of 24 games when rushing for at least 250 yards.

3 – Only three schools have a better (current home stadium) winning percentage than Marshall: Alabama, Boise State and Georgia Southern. The Herd is 166-35 at Joan C. Edwards Stadium, which opened in 1991, winning at an .826 clip.

1 – The Marshall football program continues to rank No. 1 nationally in bowl winning percentage (minimum six bowls to qualify). The Herd is 12-3 (.800) all-time in bowl games.

Marshall vs. Ranked Opponents

Since moving to Division I-A (FBS) in 1997, the Herd has enjoyed a pair of landmark victories against nationally-ranked opponents. The following is the Marshall Thundering Herd’s game-by-game results against NCAA FBS opponents ranked in the Associated Press (since 1936), UPI (1950-92), CNN (1993-96), ESPN/USA Today (1997-2004) or USA Today (since 2005) Top 25 polls since 1936.

Last Meeting vs. ASU (8/31/02)

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) -- Byron Leftwich threw for 469 yards and four touchdowns as Marshall (No. 22 ESPN/USA Today, No. 19 AP) overcame a sluggish start in a 50-17 victory over Division I-AA Appalachian State on Saturday night.

Leftwich, who set a Mid-American Conference record with 4,132 yards passing last season, finished 27-of-41 and ran for a fifth score.

Josh Davis atoned for two fumbles and a dropped ball in the first quarter with a huge second half in the absence of Darius Watts, Marshall's top receiver who was out with a separated shoulder.

Davis had 11 catches for a career-high 264 yards, including a 76-yard TD scamper late in the third quarter that broke open a tight game. He had 182 yards after halftime.

Appalachian State, ranked second in the I-AA preseason poll, kept it close for a while despite playing without starting quarterback Joe Burchette. He underwent surgery Friday for a ruptured disc in his back and is expected to miss up to four weeks.

Midway through the third quarter, Appalachian State narrowed the gap to 23-17 after Davon Fowlkes scored on an 89-yard punt return.

That was more yards than the Mountaineer offense managed in the entire second half. Appalachian State had 47 yards in the half and 140 overall.

Richie Williams, the first freshman quarterback to start at Appalachian State since 1989, finished 9-of-24 for 64 yards.

Marshall avoided becoming the first ranked team to lose to a I-AA opponent, scoring the final 27 points to win comfortably.

Despite insisting it wouldn't look ahead to a Sept. 12 game at No. 16 Virginia Tech, Marshall looked anything but comfortable early.

A holding penalty negated a 100-yard return on the opening kickoff by Roberto Terrell.

Davis fumbled Leftwich's first pass after a jarring hit by Erik Crutchfield, and Josh Jeffries recovered for Appalachian State at the Marshall 16. Four plays later, Joey Hoover scored from the 2.

Davis then dropped a pass inside the Appalachian State 20, forcing Marshall to settle for a short field goal, and he fumbled a punt at the Marshall 15 that a teammate recovered.

As Davis left the field, coach Bob Pruett tried to settle him down. He responded with a 10-yard scoring run on a reverse to start the second quarter for a 9-7 lead.

Doc Holliday Head Coach - 11th Season (79-51 overall, 51-29 C-USA)

Coach John "Doc" Holliday, who has returned Marshall University football to the national picture, enters his 11th season leading the Thundering Herd and his 129 games as head coach is a program record. With a 30-27 overtime win against FIU on November 30, 2019, he also became the program's all-time leader in coaching victories over FBS opponents (71), surpassing Bob Pruett's total of 70.

Marshall advanced to its seventh bowl under the veteran head coach with an appearance against UCF in the 2019 Gasparilla Bowl. Six of those wins have come under Holliday, who has the most bowl wins by a coach in program history.

In 2018, the Thundering Herd won four of its last five games to finish 9-4, the 20th time in school history a team has won as many games. It has happened six times since the turn of the century, four in the last six seasons.

Marshall's three straight 10-win seasons from 2013-15 were also a first in the 20-season history of Conference USA football.

Holliday led a resurgence in 2017, improving the Thundering Herd by five games to reach yet another bowl game under his watch.

His 2015 Herd finished 10-3 with a win over Connecticut in the St. Petersburg Bowl. His 2014 and '15 teams – with a combined mark of 23-4 – had the best record among the Group of Five programs in the two-year College Football Playoff era.

Holliday has built the Herd into a perennial Conference USA contender. His teams have sported 34 All-C-USA first team selections, 25 second-teamers, 41 honorable mention picks and 24 All-Freshman team selections. He has had 11 players selected for C-USA's top individual player-of-the-year awards.

Holliday's 2014 Herd (13-1) grabbed the school's first C-USA Championship with a thrilling comeback, title-game win over Louisiana Tech. MU headed to the Boca Raton Bowl, where it routed Mid-American Conference champion Northern Illinois, 52-23. The Herd finished the season in the major polls – No. 22 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press media poll. It was Marshall's first appearance in the final polls since 2002.

The Herd coach was named the 2014 Conference USA Coach of the Year in voting by his peers and Marshall boasted a C-USA-record 10 all-conference first team selections.

Holliday received a six-year contract extension (through July 2021) for $755,500 annually on April 8, 2015.

The 2014 title season followed a successful 2013, as Marshall went 10-4, won the C-USA East Division crown and downed ACC member Maryland in the Military Bowl – the Terps' last game before heading to the Big Ten.

In December 2014, Holliday was named the 15th annual Gazette-Mail Sportsman of the Year by Charleston Newspapers. In April 2015, the Herd coach was honored as the 2014 Lowell Cade Sportsperson of the Year by The (Huntington) Herald-Dispatch.

And in concert with Herd Athletic Director Mike Hamrick, Holliday has helped bring about upgrades in the Marshall non-conference schedule, with home-and-homes against Louisville, Pitt, North Carolina State, Purdue, Navy, Boise State, Cincinnati, Appalachian State, East Carolina, Akron and Ohio and a 2018 game at South Carolina.

Holliday, named as Herd coach on Dec. 17, 2009 in his first collegiate head coaching job, is widely regarded as one of the top recruiters in the nation. Since he has become a head coach, he has added a reputation for finding and hiring assistant coaches who have made a strong impact on his program. He has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including previous stops at Florida, North Carolina State and West Virginia, his alma mater.

In 2011, the Herd went 7-6 against the 16th-toughest schedule in the nation, a slate that was ranked second among non-BCS schools. Two of those victories came against eventual C-USA champion Southern Miss and Big East co-champ Louisville, the latter coming on the road for the program's first non-conference road win since the early 2000s. Marshall also won five Conference USA games, the most for the program since it had joined the league in 2005.

During his coaching career, Holliday has coached in 27 bowl games and three national championship games. He also has coached five All-Americans.

A native of Hurricane, W.Va., Holliday was born April 21, 1957. He was a three-year letter winner as a linebacker at West Virginia (1976-78) and has earned bachelor's (1979) and master's (1981) degrees from WVU. He won a West Virginia state wrestling title at 175 pounds (all divisions) in 1975 at Hurricane High.

Holliday and his wife, Diana, have four children -- Meghan, Cade, Chase and Cody.
