Thundering Herd Fall Notes

Holliday Moves to the Top

Marshall head coach Doc Holliday led the program for a school-record 129th time against UCF. The Herd's victory over FIU was Holliday's 71st over an FBS opponent, which moved him past Bob Pruett (70) in that category for the school record. Holliday (78) currently sits second on the school's overall win list behind Pruett (94, 1996-2004).

Bowl Prowess

Marshall enters 2020 featuring an .800 winning percentage (12-3) in all NCAA-sanctioned bowl games, the highest mark nationally among programs that have made at least six appearances. (The Thundering Herd also participated in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl, at which point it was not sanctioned). The leaders are below:

1. Marshall: .800 (12-3)
2. Army: .750 (6-2)
3. Utah: .739 (17-6)
4. Louisiana Tech: .708 (8-3-1)
5. San Jose State: .700 (7-3)
6. Rutgers: .667 (6-3)
7. WKU: .667 (4-2)
8. Ole Miss: .649 (24-13)
9. Wake Forest: .643 (9-5)
10. USC: .642 (34-19)

Doc Holliday is 6-1 in bowl games with the Thundering Herd and has appeared in 28 bowls since entering the coaching ranks.

Marshall-East Carolina Game Postponed

Marshall Football's September 12 game at East Carolina has been postponed, due to the severity of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic in the state of North Carolina.

Both schools will make every effort to reschedule the game on a date that has yet to be determined. This will be the third time the contest has been rescheduled this year.

Marshall and East Carolina have been forever linked since the tragic crash of Southern Airways Flight 932 on Nov. 14, 1970, which claimed the lives of all 75 aboard following ECU's 17-14 home victory earlier that afternoon.

The events of the day were depicted in the 2006 Warner Bros. motion picture We Are Marshall, starring Matthew McConaughey.

The two schools have met 15 times previously, with ECU winning 10.

One of Marshall's victories was a thrilling comeback win in the 2001 GMAC Bowl, which saw the Herd emerge with a 64-61 double overtime victory on the arm of MVP Byron Leftwich, who passed for a bowl-record 576 yards to bring MU back from a 38-8 halftime deficit.

"East Carolina has indicated to us that it is not able to play the game on September 12," said Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick. "We'll get together with ECU and do everything within our power to reschedule the game at a later date."

Marshall and ECU are also set to meet three more times: September 18, 2021 in Huntington, September 9, 2023 in Greenville and September 13, 2025 in Huntington.

Thundering Herd Places Five on C-USA Preseason Football Teams

Marshall University had five student-athletes recognized on Conference USA's preseason football team, including its Most Valuable Player, when the honors were released.

Brenden Knox, who won the league's 2019 postseason MVP award, garnered this season's preseason honor as well. He was joined by offensive lineman Cain Madden, linebacker Tavante Beckett, defensive back Nazeem Johnson and punt returner Talik Keaton.

Knox was previously named to the watch lists for the Maxwell Award, Wuerffel Trophy and the Doak Walker Award this summer.

The Columbus, Ohio native has picked up a slew of preseason awards on the heels of a 2019 campaign that saw him earn Conference USA Most Valuable Player, Marshall team MVP and offensive MVP honors.

Last year, he amassed a league-high 1,387 yards and 11 touchdowns on 270 carries (also tops in C-USA). He also caught 14 passes for 129 yards. His rushing yardage total also ranked third nationally among sophomores. Based on 2019 statistics, Knox will enter the 2020 season as the sixth-leading rusher in college football behind the likes of Oklahoma State's Chuba Hubbard and Clemson's Travis Etienne. At 1,965 career rushing yards through two seasons, he ranks as the third-best two-season start to a career through a sophomore season for Marshall running backs behind Chris Parker and Doug Chapman.

Madden was also named to the Outland Trophy watch list, which is an award given to the nation's top interior lineman. He was a breakout player on the offensive side of the ball for Marshall in 2019, as he was part of a unit that helped power a running game that finished second in the league in rushing yards and rushing yards per game. At season's end, he earned second-team all-league honors, but, like Beckett, has been a first-team selection on Athlon and Phil Steele's all-conference lists.

Beckett was also selected to the watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, an honor that is given annually to nation's defensive player of the year. The Chesapeake, Virginia native amassed a league-high 121 tackles in 2019 en route to Conference USA first-team honors. He shared team defensive most valuable player honors with fellow linebacker Omari Cobb, as well.

Johnson was also an honorable mention all-league honoree, racking up 88 tackles and seven passes defended in 2019. This summer, Athlon also added him to its preseason all-conference team.

Keaton was Conference USA's top punt returner in 2019 and was the only freshman in the league to be named to C-USA's first team. A year ago, he returned 16 kicks for 202 yards and one touchdown. He was second nationally in punt return yards among freshmen. This summer, Phil Steele also added him to his preseason all-league squad.

Knox Picks Up Two More Watch List Honors

Marshall running back Brenden Knox continued to rack up the preseason honors when he was selected to the watch lists for the Maxwell Award and the Wuerffel Trophy.

The Maxwell Award is given annually to the most outstanding player in college football. Semifinalists will be announced November 3, 2020, while the three finalists will be unveiled November 23, 2020. The winner will be announced as part of the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show held on December 10, 2020. The formal presentations of these awards will be made at the Maxwell Football Club Awards Gala hosted by Tropicana Hotel & Casino Atlantic City on March 12, 2021.

The Wuerffel Trophy, known as "College Football's Premier Award for Community Service," is presented each February in Fort Walton Beach. Named after 1996 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback from the University of Florida, Danny Wuerffel, the Wuerffel Trophy exists to honor college football players who serve others, celebrate their positive impact on society, and inspire greater service in the world. Semifinalists for the award will be announced on November 3 and finalists will be announced on November 23. The formal announcement of the 2020 recipient will be made at the National Football Foundation's festivities in New York City on December 8. The presentation of the 2020 Wuerffel Trophy will occur at the 52nd All Sports Association Awards Banquet on February 19, 2021 in Fort Walton Beach.

Knox was named to the Doak Walker Award Watch

List last week. That honor is given to the nation's top running back.

The Columbus, Ohio native has picked up a slew of preseason awards on the heels of a 2019 campaign that saw him earn Conference USA Most Valuable Player, Marshall team MVP and offensive MVP honors.

Last year, he amassed a league-high 1,387 yards and 11 touchdowns on 270 carries (also tops in C-USA). He also caught 14 passes for 129 yards. His rushing yardage total also ranked third nationally among sophomores. Based on 2019 statistics, Knox will enter the 2020 season as the sixth-leading rusher in college football behind the likes of Oklahoma State's Chuba Hubbard and Clemson's Travis Etienne. At 1,965 career rushing yards through two seasons, he ranks as the third-best two-season start to a career through a sophomore season for Marshall running backs behind Chris Parker and Doug Chapman.

In the last two months, Knox has also been named first-team preseason all-conference by Athlon and Phil Steele, while earning a spot on College Football America Yearbook's Group of 5 starting lineup.

Gaines Tabled For Paul Hornung Award Watch List

Marshall tight end Xavier Gaines was selected to the Paul Hornung Award Watch List.

The award, now in its 11th season, is given annually to the most versatile player in major college football by the Louisville Sports Commission and football legend and Louisville native Paul Hornung. The winner and his family will be honored at the annual Paul Hornung Award dinner at the Galt House Hotel in downtown Louisville in March of 2021.

Gaines saw action at quarterback, running back and tight end/receiver for the Thundering Herd last season, finishing with 27 catches for 306 yards and three receiving touchdowns. On the ground, he ran the ball 26 times for 187 yards and two more scores. He was one of only two players in Conference USA with 150-plus rushing yards and 300 or more receiving yards.

Previously this summer, the Frostproof, Florida native was named a preseason all-Conference USA selection by Athlon and Phil Steele.

Beckett, Madden Named to Preseason Watch Lists

Marshall linebacker Tavante Beckett and offensive lineman Cain Madden were each named to national watch lists.

Beckett was selected to the watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, an honor that is given annually to nation's defensive player of the year. The Chesapeake, Virginia native amassed a league-high 121 tackles in 2019 en route to Conference USA first-team honors. He shared team defensive most valuable player honors with fellow linebacker Omari Cobb, as well.

Thus far this preseason, he has earned first-team all-conference acclaim from Athlon and Phil Steele.

Madden was named to the Outland Trophy watch list, which is an award given to the nation's top interior lineman. He was a breakout player on the offensive side of the ball for Marshall in 2019, as he was part of a unit that helped power a running game that finished second in the league in rushing yards and rushing yards per game. At season's end, he earned second-team all-league honors, but, like Beckett, has been a first-team selection on Athlon and Phil Steele's all-conference lists.

As in previous years, the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) will announce a National Defensive Player of the Week each Tuesday this season. If not already on the watch list, each week's honored player will be added at that time. The FWAA and the Charlotte Touchdown Club will then announce five finalists.

The recipient of the 75th Outland Trophy will be announced in early December. The official presentation to the winner will be made in Omaha, Neb., at the Outland Trophy Awards Dinner sponsored by Werner Enterprises and produced by the Greater Omaha Sports Committee, scheduled for Jan. 13, 2021.

Knox Named to Doak Walker Award Watch List

Marshall running back Brenden Knox has been named to the Doak Walker Award Watch List, the PwC SMU Athletic Forum announced.

The junior has picked up a slew of preseason awards on the heels of a 2019 campaign that saw him earn Conference USA Most Valuable Player, Marshall team MVP and offensive MVP honors.

Last year, he amassed a league-high 1,387 yards and 11 touchdowns on 270 carries (also tops in C-USA). He also caught 14 passes for 129 yards. His rushing yardage total also ranked third nationally among sophomores. Based on 2019 statistics, Knox will enter the 2020 season as the sixth-leading rusher in college football behind the likes of Oklahoma State's Chuba Hubbard and Clemson's Travis Etienne. At 1,965 career rushing yards through two seasons, he ranks as the third-best two-season start to a career through a sophomore season for Marshall running backs behind Chris Parker and Doug Chapman.

In the last two months, Knox has also been named first-team preseason all-conference by Athlon and Phil Steele, while earning a spot on College Football America Yearbook's Group of 5 starting lineup.

The PwC SMU Athletic Forum Board of Directors will name ten semifinalists in November, and three finalists, as voted on by the Doak Walker Award National Selection Committee, will be announced in November.

The committee will cast a second vote in December to determine the recipient. The National Selection Committee consists of past recipients, former NFL All-Pro and college All-America running backs, media members and selected special representatives.

The recipient of the 2020 Doak Walker Award will be announced live on The Home Depot College Football Awards.

Thundering Herd Has Eight Honored by Phil Steele

Marshall Football had eight players recognized by Phil Steele in his 2020 preseason All-Conference USA team.

Linebacker Tavante Beckett, offensive lineman Cain Madden, punt returner Talik Keaton and running back Brenden Knox were selected to the first team, while defensive lineman Darius Hodge was named to the second team. Tight end Xavier Gaines and defensive back Steven Gilmore were picked for the third team and offensive lineman Alex Mollette made the fourth team.

Beckett, Keaton and Knox all earned postseason first-team all-league honors last season, with Knox garnering C-USA's Most Valuable Player distinction and Beckett amassing a league-high 121 tackles. Madden was a second-team pick by the C-USA coaches. All four were also first-team preseason all-conference picks, according to Athlon.

Hodge and Gaines were second-team Athlon preseason all-league picks. Hodge paced the team with 8.5 tackles for loss and seven sacks in 2019, while Gaines piled up 27 catches for 306 yards and three touchdowns.

Gilmore became a mainstay in the secondary for the Thundering Herd, racking up 50 tackles, two tackles for loss, two interceptions and four pass breakups with one forced fumble.

Mollette started all 13 games last season, helping to power a rushing attack that finished second in Conference USA in rushing yards and rushing yards per game. He was also a fourth-team preseason Athlon selection.

Knox, Madden Honored by College Football America Yearbook

Marshall running back Brenden Knox and offensive lineman Cain Madden have been named to College Football America Yearbook's Group of 5 starting lineup, the outlet announced. The honor is CFA's version of a Group of 5 conferences All-America team.

Memphis and Appalachian State were the only other schools to have multiple honorees.

Knox was named the 2019 Conference USA MVP, the Thundering Herd's team and offensive MVP and collected first-team all-league honors following a season that saw him amass a league-high 1,387 yards and 11 touchdowns on 270 carries (also tops in Conference USA). He also caught 14 passes for 129 yards. His rushing yardage total also ranked third nationally among sophomores. Based on 2019 statistics, Knox will enter the 2020 season as the sixth-leading rusher in college football behind the likes of Oklahoma State's Chuba Hubbard and Clemson's Travis Etienne. At 1,965 career rushing yards through two seasons, he ranks as the third-best two-season start to a career through a sophomore season for Marshall running backs behind Chris Parker and Doug Chapman.

Madden was a breakout player on the offensive side of the ball for the Thundering Herd in 2019. He was named to C-USA's second team after starting in all 13 games for Marshall. He was a key cog in a unit that paved the way for a running game that finished second in Conference USA in rushing yards and rushing yards per game. At season's end, he was honored with the team's Offensive Gridiron Gladiator Award, recognition given by the coaching staff to the player who is relentless and gives everything all of the time.

The duo was named to the first team on Athlon's preseason All-Conference USA team in June.

Thundering Herd Places Eight on Athlon's Preseason All-Conference Teams

Athlon Sports has released its 2020 Preseason All-Conference USA team and the Thundering Herd boasts eight representatives.

Linebacker Tavante Beckett, punt returner Talik Keaton, running back Brenden Knox and offensive lineman Cain Madden were picked for the first team. Tight end Xavier Gaines and defensive lineman Darius Hodge made the second team, while offensive lineman Alex Mollette and safety Nazeeh Johnson were fourth-team selections.

Beckett, Keaton and Knox all earned postseason first-team all-league honors last season, with Knox garnering C-USA's Most Valuable Player distinction and Beckett amassing a league-high 121 tackles. Madden was a second-team pick by the C-USA coaches.

Gaines piled up 27 catches for 306 yards and three touchdowns a year ago and Hodge was an honorable mention all-league pick, pacing the team with 8.5 tackles for loss and seven sacks.

Mollette started all 13 games last season, helping to power a rushing attack that finished second in Conference USA in rushing yards and rushing yards per game.

Johnson was also an honorable mention all-league honoree, racking up 88 tackles and seven passes defended in 2019.

Marshall Football will kick off its 2020 season with an August 29 matchup at East Carolina. The two schools have been forever linked since the tragic crash of Southern Airways Flight 932 on Nov. 14, 1970, which claimed the lives of all 75 aboard following ECU's 17-14 home victory earlier that afternoon.

The events of the day were depicted in the 2006 Warner Bros. motion picture We Are Marshall, starring Matthew McConaughey.

Feeling the Sunshine

Since the beginning of the 2013 season, Doc Holliday is 14-4 in games contested in the state of Florida and/or against Florida schools.

First Blood

The Thundering Herd has now won 25 of its last 27 games when scoring first and has won 14 of its last 16 when leading after the first quarter. Related: since the beginning of the 2013 season, the Herd is 45-3 (.938) when scoring first.

Stingy D

The Herd has won 42 of its last 47 when holding offenses to 5.0 yards per play or fewer. The Herd has won 26 of its last 27 when allowing fewer than 300 yards. Sixteen (16) times in Doc Holliday's nine seasons has the Herd allowed 125 yards passing or fewer. Marshall is 15-1 (.938) in those games. Marshall is 28-3 (.903) under Doc Holliday when the defense does not allow a rushing touchdown.

Feel the Rush

The Herd is now 44-7 (.863) in the last seven seasons when rushing for 150+ yards and 34-5 (.872) the last seven years with 200+ on the ground. All-time, Marshall is 11-0 under Doc Holliday when rushing for 300+ yards, as it did with 305 in the 33-31 win over Ohio in 2019.

Marshall's 30 points in the 2019 win over FIU makes the Herd 45-3 (.938) in its last 48 games when scoring 30+ points. All of those games are under Doc Holliday.

50+

Marshall's 56-17 win over VMI in 2019 was the 17th time that the Thundering Herd has reached the 50+-point plateau under coach Doc Holliday, two more than Jim Donnan (1990-95) for the all-time school mark. Bob Pruett (1996-2004) reached that mark 14 times and Cam Henderson (1936-42, 1946-49) did it on 13 occasions.

Protecting the Home Turf

Marshall is nationally known for being one of the toughest places to play in college football. The program has won 82.5 percent (165-35) of its home games in Joan C. Edwards Stadium, the fourth-highest mark in the country.

Herd Finishes under Holliday

Since Doc Holliday became head coach in 2010, the Herd has an excellent record of finishing off its opponents once it takes the lead. Marshall is 60-9 (.870) when it scores first, 53-9 (.855) when leading after the first quarter, 64-5 (.928) when leading at halftime and 65-5 (.929) when leading after three quarters. In fact, Marshall has won 50 of its last 53 contests (2016 vs. Charlotte, 2018 vs. Middle Tennessee, 2019 at Charlotte) when it has the halftime lead.

Hang on!

It's easy to see why Herd Coach Doc Holliday talks about ball security so often. His ten Marshall teams have provided a strong indicator of why turnover margin is so important. Holliday's Herd teams have a combined 78-51 (.605) record. When Marshall has an edge in turnover margin, it is 42-10 (.808). When the turnover number is equal, Marshall is 20-7 (.741). When the opponent is more sure-handed, the Herd is 16-34 (.320).

Of Marshall's 129 games under Holliday, the Herd has played 65 while committing zero or one turnover, amassing a record of 50-15 (.769) in those games.

Marshall is 23-4 (.852) under Holliday when it has a turnover margin of +2 or better.

Marshall is 24-5 (.828) under Holliday when it has zero turnovers, and the Herd has won 11 of its last 12 when it does not make a miscue (Cincinnati, 2019). Marshall has won 13 of its last 15 (Cincinnati and Charlotte, 2019) when winning the turnover battle and the 2019 win over Ohio was the seventh straight win when the MU quarterbacks have two-plus touchdown passes without an interception.

The Thundering Herd had five takeaways in 2018 wins over Eastern Kentucky and Florida Atlantic, giving Holliday nine consecutive wins when his team forces four or more turnovers.

Perfect Versus Texas at Home

Interestingly enough, Marshall has never lost to a school from Texas at home. The Thundering Herd is a perfect 13-0 against Texas schools in games played in Huntington. Marshall owns two wins over North Texas (1988, 2015), two wins over Houston (2008, 2012), three wins over Rice (2007, 2011, 2014), two wins over SMU (2005, 2009), two wins over UTEP (2006, 2010) and two victories over UTSA (2013, 2018).

Thundering Herd By The Numbers

129 – Marshall head coach Doc Holliday has led the Thundering Herd in a school-record 129 games.

71 – Marshall head coach Doc Holliday currently has 71 victories over FBS schools (78 total wins) as head coach of the Thundering Herd, one more than Bob Pruett's (1996-2004) previous mark of 70 (94 total wins).

53 – In the last seven seasons, the Marshall offense has scored 30 or more points 53 times. The Herd is 48-5 in those games, including 14 consecutive wins.

33 – The Marshall offense has scored 40 or more points 33 times since 2010, Doc Holliday's first year with the program. The Herd is 29-4 in those games.

33 – In the past seven seasons, Marshall quarterbacks have been interception-free 33 times. In those games, the Herd is 29-4.

30 – The Marshall defense has allowed only two runs of 50-plus yards in the last three seasons and hasn't allowed a 50+ yard carry in 30 of its last 31 games.

25 – The Marshall football team has now won 25 of its last 27 games (at Boise State, at Charlotte) when scoring first.

22 – Since Doc Holliday took over as head coach, Marshall has won 22 out of 23 games when rushing for at least 250 yards.

3 – Only three schools have a better (current home stadium) winning percentage than Marshall: Alabama, Boise State and Georgia Southern. The Herd is 165-35 at Joan C. Edwards Stadium, which opened in 1991, winning at an .825 clip.

1 – The Marshall football program continues to rank No. 1 nationally in bowl winning percentage (minimum six bowls to qualify). The Herd is 12-3 (.800) all-time in bowl games.

Marshall vs. Ranked Opponents

Since moving to Division I-A (FBS) in 1997, the Herd has enjoyed a pair of landmark victories against nationally-ranked opponents. The following is the Marshall Thundering Herd’s game-by-game results against NCAA FBS opponents ranked in the Associated Press (since 1936), UPI (1950-92), CNN (1993-96), ESPN/USA Today (1997-2004) or USA Today (since 2005) Top 25 polls since 1936.

Last Meeting vs. ECU (9/8/18)

(BY CHUCK MCGILL, HERDZONE.COM) HUNTINGTON, W.Va. -- There were turnovers on punt returns, and another on a mishandled kickoff return. An extra point was blocked in the first quarter, and a punt blocked in the fourth. A bobbled pass turned into an interception, and the giveaways piled up.

None of those blemishes were what Marshall head coach Doc Holliday focused on the most in the wake of a 32-16 win against visiting Eastern Kentucky on Saturday night here at Joan C. Edwards Stadium.

"You don't ever want to apologize for a win," he said to the media gathered in the Shewey Building.

Holliday's Herd is, after all, 2-0 through the first two weeks of the regular season. That was the goal, of course, even if the road there wasn't as smooth as Holliday or anyone else associated with the Marshall football program would have liked.

"I was disappointed in some things that happened out there today," Holliday said. "That's not normally us."

Holliday is correct. In his nine seasons at the helm, Saturday was the 13th time his team has committed four or more turnovers. After the win against ECU, Holliday's record in those games is 2-13. It is not often a team can overcome as many self-inflicted wounds, but that is what breathes life into Holliday's unapologetic words. The other win with four turnovers: Conference USA's 2014 title game against Louisiana Tech, a 26-23 Herd win.

"We found a way to win the game," Holliday said, "which is what matters."

It seemed, at the outset, that Marshall might get to its goal with ease. The Herd (2-0) opened a 6-0 lead when redshirt freshman quarterback Isaiah Green connected with junior receiver Obi Obialo for a 20-yard touchdown. The extra point was blocked.

A few minutes later, senior receiver Tyre Brady caught a 6-yard touchdown pass from Green, who was making his second career start. Brady has 11 career touchdowns in 14 games since joining the Herd.

After holding a 13-0 lead, ECU cut the deficit early in the second quarter when LJ Scott scored from 2 yards out. The Herd answered when Tyler King scored from 5 yards out following a 29-yard interception return from senior linebacker Frankie Hernandez. That was Marshall's third interception of the first half, with others by sophomore safety Brandon Drayton and junior cornerback Jaylon McClain-Sapp.

That is how Marshall managed Saturday night. A fumble or folly was neutralized by a defensive stop of takeaway. The Herd is 5-0 under Holliday when it turns over the opposition at least five times.

"We put (the defense) in a lot of bad situations," Holliday said, "but they created five turnovers."

The Herd held a 20-6 halftime edge and was prepared to return the kickoff to start the second half, but the ball was booted around and recovered by ECU. The Colonels scored with 12:28 left of the third quarter to make it 20-13, making the 24,304 a little uneasy on dreary night. Marshall answered with a five-play, 55-yard scoring drive that was punctuated by another Green-to-Obialo hook-up, this one from 40 yards. Both of Obialo's catches went for touchdowns – the first two of his MU career – and both came on so-called "free" plays in which the defense jumped offside and allowed Green to throw to the end zone and let Obialo make a play.

MU kicker Justin Rohrwasser added a 35-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter to make it 30-13. A Herd safety with 3:06 left made it 32-16.

Overall, Green finished 23 of 39 passing for 278 yards, three touchdowns and an interception. He has 550 passing yards this season, the second-most for any Marshall quarterback in program history through his first two career starts.

Brady led MU in receptions (six) and receiving yards (66) again. Sophomore tight end Xavier Gaines added three catches for 60 yards, both career highs.

The ground game sputtered, and sophomore receiver Willie Johnson carried twice for 36 yards to lead the team.

"We didn't run the ball as well as I like," Holliday said.

The defense made amends. ECU was held to 11 first downs, 139 rushing yards (a week after gaining 404 on the ground) and 48 passing yards. The Colonels' 187 total yards of offense are the fourth-fewest allowed by the Herd under Holliday, who has been the coach for 105 games.

Senior linebacker Chase Hancock paced the defense with 12 tackles, one sack, one tackle for a loss and a forced fumble. Junior safety Malik Gant added 11 tackles, including one for a loss.

The team finished with six sacks, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, three interceptions and 11 quarterback hurries.

Senior defensive lineman Malik Thompson finished with a sack, tackle for a loss and three quarterback hurries. He also tipped a pass at the line of scrimmage that led to an interception.

Those are highlights to Holliday, but the special teams play will weigh on him as Marshall begins preparations to travel to face South Carolina next Saturday.

"It was very frustrating," Holliday said. "We hadn't seen that around here in a long, long time and you won't see it again."

Doc Holliday Head Coach - 11th Season (78-51 overall, 51-29 C-USA)

Coach John "Doc" Holliday, who has returned Marshall University football to the national picture, enters his 11th season leading the Thundering Herd and his 129 games as head coach is a program record. With a 30-27 overtime win against FIU on November 30, 2019, he also became the program's all-time leader in coaching victories over FBS opponents (71), surpassing Bob Pruett's total of 70.

Marshall advanced to its seventh bowl under the veteran head coach with an appearance against UCF in the 2019 Gasparilla Bowl. Six of those wins have come under Holliday, who has the most bowl wins by a coach in program history.

In 2018, the Thundering Herd won four of its last five games to finish 9-4, the 20th time in school history a team has won as many games. It has happened six times since the turn of the century, four in the last six seasons.

Marshall's three straight 10-win seasons from 2013-15 were also a first in the 20-season history of Conference USA football.

Holliday led a resurgence in 2017, improving the Thundering Herd by five games to reach yet another bowl game under his watch.

His 2015 Herd finished 10-3 with a win over Connecticut in the St. Petersburg Bowl. His 2014 and '15 teams – with a combined mark of 23-4 – had the best record among the Group of Five programs in the two-year College Football Playoff era.

Holliday has built the Herd into a perennial Conference USA contender. His teams have sported 34 All-C-USA first team selections, 25 second-teamers, 41 honorable mention picks and 24 All-Freshman team selections. He has had 11 players selected for C-USA's top individual player-of-the-year awards.

Holliday's 2014 Herd (13-1) grabbed the school's first C-USA Championship with a thrilling comeback, title-game win over Louisiana Tech. MU headed to the Boca Raton Bowl, where it routed Mid-American Conference champion Northern Illinois, 52-23. The Herd finished the season in the major polls – No. 22 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press media poll. It was Marshall's first appearance in the final polls since 2002.

The Herd coach was named the 2014 Conference USA Coach of the Year in voting by his peers and Marshall boasted a C-USA-record 10 all-conference first team selections.

Holliday received a six-year contract extension (through July 2021) for $755,500 annually on April 8, 2015.

The 2014 title season followed a successful 2013, as Marshall went 10-4, won the C-USA East Division crown and downed ACC member Maryland in the Military Bowl – the Terps' last game before heading to the Big Ten.

In December 2014, Holliday was named the 15th annual Gazette-Mail Sportsman of the Year by Charleston Newspapers. In April 2015, the Herd coach was honored as the 2014 Lowell Cade Sportsperson of the Year by The (Huntington) Herald-Dispatch.

And in concert with Herd Athletic Director Mike Hamrick, Holliday has helped bring about upgrades in the Marshall non-conference schedule, with home-and-homes against Louisville, Pitt, North Carolina State, Purdue, Navy, Boise State, Cincinnati, Appalachian State, East Carolina, Akron and Ohio and a 2018 game at South Carolina.

Holliday, named as Herd coach on Dec. 17, 2009 in his first collegiate head coaching job, is widely regarded as one of the top recruiters in the nation. Since he has become a head coach, he has added a reputation for finding and hiring assistant coaches who have made a strong impact on his program. He has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including previous stops at Florida, North Carolina State and West Virginia, his alma mater.

In 2011, the Herd went 7-6 against the 16th-toughest schedule in the nation, a slate that was ranked second among non-BCS schools. Two of those victories came against eventual C-USA champion Southern Miss and Big East co-champ Louisville, the latter coming on the road for the program's first non-conference road win since the early 2000s. Marshall also won five Conference USA games, the most for the program since it had joined the league in 2005.

During his coaching career, Holliday has coached in 27 bowl games and three national championship games. He also has coached five All-Americans.

A native of Hurricane, W.Va., Holliday was born April 21, 1957. He was a three-year letter winner as a linebacker at West Virginia (1976-78) and has earned bachelor's (1979) and master's (1981) degrees from WVU. He won a West Virginia state wrestling title at 175 pounds (all divisions) in 1975 at Hurricane High.

Holliday and his wife, Diana, have four children -- Meghan, Cade, Chase and Cody.
