HERD NOTES

Marshall Women's Basketball Signs Two

Marshall head coach Tony Kemper announced a pair of signees on Wednesday as Meredith Maier and Sydney Scott are headed to Huntington.

As a junior, the 6'0" Maier averaged 18.5 points, 12.9 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 4.7 steals for Fairmont Senior High School. A native of Grafton, West Virginia, she secured first team all-state and all-conference honor. She was also named to the all-tourney team at the state tournament, where she led the Polar Bears to a runner-up finish.

The 5'8" Scott, rated a four-star prospect by ESPN.com, hails from Prospect Park, Pennsylvania. She was named first team all-Philadelphia Catholic League and Daily Times All-Delco three times and was a 2021 PIAA 5A first team all-state pick. She led Cardinal O'Hara High School to the state title last season, averaging 14 points, five rebounds and five assists per contest.

"Both of these signees have the ability to instantly impact us at the collegiate level," said Kemper. "Sydney is a hard-nosed shooter with a basketball IQ that will help her acclimate quickly to Division I basketball. I like her upbringing as one of the best guards in what is always one of the toughest high school basketball leagues in the country ... the Philly Catholic League.

"Meredith adds outside scoring ability to our interior group. She is active and physical in the paint but is also a tremendous perimeter shooter. It is exciting to add such a talented West Virginia player to our program."

The Thundering Herd got off to a flying start in 2021-22 with a 108-45 victory over Bluefield State Tuesday evening. Marshall is back in action Sunday at Radford for a 2 p.m. ET tip.

Women's Basketball Lights up the Scoreboard in Season Opener

The Marshall women's basketball team poured on the points in a 108-45 victory over the Bluefield State Big Blue in the season opener, Tuesday night in the Cam Henderson Center. The Herd featured six players in double-figures.

Marshall begins the season 1-0.

"Obviously, we came out good in the first quarter," said Marshall head coach Tony Kemper. "Our defense waned a little in the second quarter. It was a great third quarter and welcome home Aaliyah Dunham. I'm so happy that she's here and I think you saw the reason why. She's a really good player and I believe she's happy to be home too."

It was the first time that Marshall scored at least 20 points in all four quarters since an 87-42 win over FIU on March 7, 2019. It was the first time that the Herd hit the century mark since a 111-38 decision over Kentucky Christian on Dec. 18, 2017. Tuesday was also the first time that Marshall had six players in double-digits since Dec. 20, 2016, a 136-62 victory over Maine Fort Kent.

Marshall's defense forced 30 turnovers against Big Blue, the first time that the Herd forced 30 or more since Nov. 5, 2019 in an 89-40 win over Kentucky Christian.

In another first, Tuesday's victory was the first time a Conference USA team put up 100 points since Feb. 29, 2020 as Middle Tennessee defeated WKU 108-103 in double overtime. It was also the most points in a non-overtime contest since North Texas won 114-54 over A&M Texarkana on Dec. 29, 2019.

Marshall shot 56.8 percent from the floor and hit 9-of-17 from downtown (52.9-percent). The Herd scored 58 of its points in the paint and scored 42 off turnovers. Marshall held the Big Blue to just 46 total shots while the Herd put up 74 shots, hitting 42. Bluefield State shot 30.4 percent for the game, hitting eight 3-pointers. Marshall outrebounded the Big Blue 44-27.

Dunham and freshman CC Mays led the way in scoring with 17 points each. Dunham shot 6-of-9 from the floor and hit three 3-pointers. The Xavier transfer added seven assists and six steals. Mays scored the majority of her points inside, firing down the lane and getting to the basket for a 7-of-9 effort. She added six rebounds with four coming on the offensive glass.

Graduate student Kennedy Colclough was next with 15 points as she was 6-of-9 from the floor, again getting to the basket and finishing. Sophomore Savannah Wheeler put up 14 points with four rebounds and three steals. Senior Brianah Ferby, a transfer from Austin Peay, displayed her speed and shooting ability with 13 ures with 10 points on 5-of-10 shooting. Johnson also grabbed six boards.

Christiana McLean and Aarionna Redman also had their Herd debuts as both players have dealt with past injuries and were able to get on the floor. Both players had six points. McLean was 3-of-5 from the floor to go along with two rebounds, two assists and one steal. Redman was 2-of-3 from 3-point range, grabbed three boards and had three steals playing stout defense.

Junior Lorelei Roper and freshman Samantha LaFon had four points each. Freshman Sarah Liberatore had two points and one steal. Freshman Ksenija Mitric did not score but had one rebound and one assist. Junior Kia Sivils had two boards, two assists and one steal. Freshman Sofia Llanos played one minute in her collegiate debut.

The Herd dominated the first quarter 23-8. Marshall shot 45.5 percent from the floor while the Big Blue hit on just 3-of-12 (25-percent). The Herd used its speed to run up the points in the beginning with its first six points coming on layups, including a steal from Roper who went coast-to-coast for the bucket. Bluefield State called timeout after Roper's score, and then came out and hit a three to cut the deficit in half, 6-3. The Herd turned on the jets again with a 13-0 run to take a 19-3 lead with 1:19 to go in the period. Marshall scored 18 of its 23 points on layups. Johnson led the way in the first with six points. Dunham had three assists.

Marshall kept right on rolling offensively in the second quarter with 26 more points. However, Bluefield State was able to find some offensive rhythm, scoring 19 points, including 4-of-9 from three. Mays had a great second quarter with nine points, going 3-of-4 from the field and 2-for-2 from the line. Dunham and Colclough had five points each in the second.

The teams went in at the break with Marshall leading by 22, 49-27.

The Herd's defense matched the offensive intensity in the third quarter as Marshall outscored Bluefield State 36-4. It was the first time the Herd scored 30 in a period since tallying 31 in the third quarter of an 86-58 win over FIU on Jan. 19, 2019. Bluefield State did not score a point in the period until the Herd had put up 29 unanswered, and led 78-27. The Big Blue finally scored a basket with 2:18 remaining in the period.

Dunham went off with the hot hand scoring 12 of her 17 in the third. She was a perfect 4-of-4 from the field, 2-of-2 from three and 2-of-2 from the line. She also had four steals and three assists in the third. As a team, Marshall shot 65 percent (13-of-20) from the floor and 8-of-10 from the line. Wheeler had nine points in the third on 3-of-4 shooting and 3-of-3 from the line.

Marshall's offense slowed, but only slightly, in the fourth quarter with 23 points. Redman and McLean scored all of their points in the fourth to lead the way. The Herd still shot 56.3 percent from the floor (9-of-16) in the fourth and 3-of-5 from three.

THE OPPONENT - RADFORD

Scouting the Highlanders

Radford (0-1) opened its season at Pittsburgh, falling by the score of 82-63.

Ashley Tudor led the way with 12 points, while Rachel LaLonde pulled down four rebounds.

The Highlanders started their offensive attack early as transfer Bridget Birkhead immediately made her presence known with a three-ball that gave Radford a 3-2 edge in the first minute of the game. Pittsburgh knocked down a three of its own on the very next possession, however, and would hold onto that lead the rest of the way.

Jackie Christ helped pace Radford in the first quarter in her first start wearing the Radford red, scoring four points and pulling down a rebound. Makaila Brown also saw her first minutes as a Highlander in the first quarter and recorded a rebound.

A Kyanna Morgan three-pointer brought the deficit back to just five to start the second quarter as the Highlanders tried to fight back. Christ and LaLonde also added a pair of made shots to keep Radford in the game.

With a 37-22 deficit headed into halftime, Radford's offense came back out aggressively and finished the game strong. The three-ball came alive while Tudor and Taiye Johnson put in good work at the free throw line. Bryonna McClean, who was held scoreless in the first half, scored all of her six points in the second half.

Newcomer Carmen Williams started things in the fourth quarter as she scored her first collegiate points from beyond the arc. Williams added another three-pointer to finish the night with six points off the bench. The Highlanders wound up outscoring the Panthers 34-27 off the bench and also converted 13 points off Pittsburgh turnovers. Morgan and Tudor played a key role off the bench, combining for 23 points.

HEAD COACH TONY KEMPER

Fifth season • @CoachTonyKemper
Career Record: 48-63, 27-39 (C-USA)

Fort Hays State '01

Tony Kemper enters his fifth season as the head coach of the Marshall women's basketball team after being elevated to the position in March of 2017. Kemper had previously been an assistant coach with the women's program for five seasons before taking over.

Kemper helped the Thundering Herd navigate the COVID-19-riddled 2020-21 campaign, which yielded second-team All-Conference USA acclaim for Savannah Wheeler and a signature home win over perennial league stalwart Rice in late February.

Kemper led the Herd through a great improvement in his second season. He has brought some added excitement to the program as the attendance average for Marshall rose from 641 in 2016-17 to 1,153 in 2018-19. Kemper's 2019 recruiting class also ranked in the top 60 nationally.

After going 9-20 overall and 3-13 in C-USA in 2017-18, Marshall was predicted to finish 13th in the Conference USA 2018-19 preseason polls. Instead, the Herd rolled out an 8-win improvement overall and 7-wins better in conference play finishing 17-15 and 10-6 in C-USA, securing the No. 6 seed in the tournament. The 10 conference victories were the most C-USA wins for Marshall in program history. Following the conference tournament, the Herd earned a berth in the WBI, just the fourth postseason trip in program history. Marshall won its first round game 67-64 at Davidson before falling in the second round.

Following the 2019-20 season, Kemper increased his overall record to 39-52.

During the 2018-19 season, Marshall was fifth in the conference in points per game (67.3) and led the league in 3-point field goals made per game in conference action (8.9). The Herd also saw an increase in defensive production as Marshall was ranked 13th in C-USA in field goal percentage allowed in 2017-18 but jumped up to fifth in 2018-19. The Herd saw senior Taylor Porter honored twice as a Conference USA Player of the Week including once after breaking the Marshall single-game record draining 10 3-pointers in the senior day win over FIU.

Senior Shayna Gore was named First Team All-Conference USA. Gore was previously honored as Second Team All-Conference USA in 2017-18. The senior guard capped off her prestigious career under the guide of Kemper as just the third player in program history to score over 2,000 points (2,081). Her name can be found all throughout the record book including the program's all-time leader in 3-point field goals made with 303, more than twice the previous record of 146.

The Herd reached some other milestones in 2018-19 including earning a three-overtime victory at home against Louisiana Tech (Jan. 24). It was one of three overtime victories in 2018-19 after going 131 games – second-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time – without even playing an overtime contest. Marshall also earned its first win over Charlotte in the last 10 meetings (Jan. 5) and the team's first ever win over Middle Tennessee (Feb. 16) as Marshall was previously 0-8 against the Blue Raiders.

Kemper's teams have had major success in the classroom as well with seven college graduates over the last two years. The team's overall grade point average in 2017-18 was 3.23 and climbed up to 3.28 in 2108-19. His players have been honored 18 times on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better) and 11-time recipients of the C-USA Academic Medal for maintaining a GPA of 3.75 or higher.

During his first five seasons at Marshall as an assistant coach, Kemper has assisted in rebuilding a program that progressively increased its win total over the first four seasons - from 9 to 11 to 17 to 21 wins in the 2015-16 season. That 2015-16 win total was the most for Thundering Herd Women's Basketball in 29 seasons and, for the first time in school history, yielded a first-team All-Conference USA student-athlete for Marshall in Leah Scott.

He helped lead Marshall to two of only three postseason berths in the program's NCAA history, including its first postseason win in 2014-15 (WBI) and WNIT berth in 2015-16.

Kemper has also been heavily involved in the Thundering Herd's recruiting and academic success, helping sign the 34th-ranked class in 2017 and its group in 2015, which came in 52nd.

In the classroom, the program has placed 28 members on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.0 cumulative GPA or better) and three more were given the Commissioner's Academic Medal (3.75).

Kemper came to Marshall from Central Arkansas, where he coached with now-former Marshall head coach Matt Daniel for three seasons. At UCA, Kemper helped the Sugar Bears to their first Division I conference title and three seasons of at least 21 wins. His tutelage of inside players helped gain two Southland Player of the Year honors and a Defensive Player of the Year.

Before joining the women's staff, Kemper served as an assistant coach for the Central Arkansas men's basketball program for four years.

Two professional players emerged from UCA during those seasons – the leading scorer in Portugal's Proliga pro league in 2011, Nate Bowie, and professional center Durrell Nevels.

Prior to UCA, Kemper was an assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College - one of the nation's most successful junior college programs.

At Hutchinson, he oversaw day-to-day operations and directed the Blue Dragons' strength and conditioning efforts while also serving as a mathematics and physical education instructor.

The Logan, Kansas, native also held the head coaching spot at Quivira Heights High School in Bushton in 2003-04, guiding QHHS to a No. 1 seed to the regional tournament.

His coaching career began in 2002-03 as an assistant at Hill City (Kansas) High School. Kemper received a bachelor's degree in finance from Fort Hays State University in 2001 and a BBA in Business Education in 2003. He also earned a master's degree in organizational leadership from Fort Hays in 2008.

Kemper and his wife Sandra, a professor at Marshall in the Communications Disorders Department, live in Huntington with sons Brayden and Landry and daughter Jolie.
