DAN D'ANTONI

HEAD COACH EIGHTH SEASON MARSHALL '70

Dan D'Antoni, a Marshall Athletics Hall of Famer, was named the Thundering Herd men's basketball coach on April 25, 2014. A former star MU point guard, D'Antoni helped Marshall to appearances in the 1967 and 1968 National Invitation Tournaments.

During the 2018-19 campaign, D'Antoni led Marshall to the 2019 CollegeInsider.com Postseason title, only the second postseason championship in postseason history. Also during the season, he coached C.J. Burks and Jon Elmore as they each reached the top five in program history in points scored with Elmore becoming the all-time leader in not just program history, but in Conference USA history as well.

D'Antoni's fourth season saw Marshall end a 31-year NCAA tournament drought, win the program's first ever NCAA Tournament game, win Conference USA for the first time ever, beat multiple ranked teams for the first time in Thundering Herd history, have three players earn all-conference honors and win 25 games.

The 2017-18 Thundering Herd vanquished its postseason demons, captured its first Conference USA championship and received a Big Dance berth for the first time in 31 years. What followed elevated a season from unusual to unrivaled, as the Herd became the 28th No. 13 seed in the 34 years since the NCAA tournament expanded to 64 teams (now 68) to defeat a No. 4 seed (Wichita State). That was Marshall's first tournament win.

The Herd had never defeated multiple Top 25 teams in the same season, as it did in 2017-18, and records fell by the wayside. D'Antoni's fourth year saw the most points (3,017), most 3s (362) and most assists (615) by a Herd team in program history.

D'Antoni became the first coach in Marshall hoops history to improve his team's win total each of the first four seasons at the helm: 11 to 17 to 20 to 25. Only four coaches in Marshall hoops history have had back-to-back 20-win seasons and D'Antoni became the coach to reach that since Rick Huckabay did so in the 80s.

Other on the court honors included Jon Elmore, C.J. Burks and Ajdin Penava combining for six C-USA Player of the Week awards, three all-conference honors, one C-USA Tournament MVP, two all-tournament selections and one Defensive Player of the Year award. It was the second time three Marshall men's basketball players have been named to all-conference team in the same year since Keith Veney, John Brannen and Sidney Coles accomplished that in 1997.

Off the court, Elmore was named to the All-Academic team to become the second player ever in program history to be selected for the team three different times. The team as a whole also thrived in the classroom, as it had a cumulative 3.22 GPA.

In D'Antoni's third season, Marshall reached 20 wins and the Conference USA Conference Tournament final since 2012. Thanks to the team's "hillbilly style" of basketball, the Herd broke several records, including points (2,997) and 3-point field goals made (356), while having the No. 7 scoring offense in the nation.

Other on the court highlights included having three separate (Jon Elmore, Stevie Browning and Ryan Taylor) earn C-USA Player of the Week honors, which was the first time a Marshall team had three players recognized in the same season for player of the week honors since the 1986-87 season, Taylor becoming the first player in program and league history to be named the Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week on Jan. 11 and Elmore and Taylor becoming the first Marshall duo to be named on C-USA teams since DeAndre Kane and Damier Pitts in 2012.

Marshall also had academic success during the 2016-17 season. Austin Loop became the first person in program history to be named to the All-Academic team three times, while Elmore became the second player in school history to earn the honor multiple times.

D'Antoni's second season at the helm of the Thundering Herd turned man heads across Conference USA and the country with the nation's No. 3 scoring offense. Marshall finished 17-16 and improved in nearly every statistical category to the year prior.

During the 2015-16 season, D'Antoni led the Herd to its first 12-win season in C-USA play, the best conference season Marshall has had since joining the league in 2005. His high-octane offense broke or tied 14 C-USA, school and Henderson Center records. The Herd earned a program-best No. 3 seed in the league tournament and reached the C-USA semifinals for the first time since the 2011-12 season.

The fan support was tremendous throughout the year. Home attendance averaged 5,574 fans per game, while conference games averaged an attendance of 6,022.

Off the court, the Herd hit many academic milestones as well. Seven players were named to the league's Commissioner's Honor Roll, while Jacob Kilgore earned the Commissioner's Academic Medal for achieving a cumulative GPA of 3.75 or better.

"Coaching Marshall basketball has always been a dream of mine," D'Antoni said as he was introduced as the Herd coach, "even when I was little."

D'Antoni, a native of Mullens, W.Va., is Marshall's 28th men's basketball coach. He signed a four-year contract.

"It's a dream-come-true for me to bring a Dan D'Antoni back to Marshall University," Marshall Athletic Director Mike Hamrick said of D'Antoni's hire. "It's where he belongs. It's taken a while, but he's here."

D'Antoni, 68, is the older brother of former NBA coach Mike D'Antoni. Dan served as one of Mike's assistant coaches for nine NBA seasons. He was a member of the Phoenix Suns' staff from 2005-06 through 2007-08. He spent four seasons on the New York Knicks' staff, then served as an assistant on the Los Angeles Lakers' staff for two seasons.

During his career, D'Antoni also served as the head coach of the Knicks' and Lakers' NBA Summer League teams.

After D'Antoni graduated from Marshall in 1970, he joined the Herd staff as the head coach of the freshman basketball team, where he coached his younger brother, Mike, before becoming an assistant coach of the Herd varsity.

D'Antoni was named head basketball coach at Socastee High School in Myrtle Beach, S.C., in 1975. In 30 years at Socastee (1975-2005), D'Antoni accumulated over 500 wins and multiple coach of the year honors, while founding the Beach Ball Classic, one of the most prestigious high school basketball tournaments in the country. That event has featured more than 75 players who have gone on to play in the NBA.

D'Antoni was the head coach of the Beach Ball Select AAU basketball team, which featured future NBA players Raymond Felton and Ramon Sessions.

In March 2016, D'Antoni was elected to the South Carolina High School Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

D'Antoni was an All-State first team selection at Mullens High School. At Marshall, he was the starting point guard on Ellis Johnson's "Iron Man 5" that played in the 1967 and '68 NIT. The 1966-67 team reached the NIT semifinals, and D'Antoni led the tournament in assists as the Herd finished fourth. As a senior, he was an All-Mid-American Conference first team selection in 1968-69, when he led the Herd in scoring, at 17.5 points per game. D'Antoni was All-MAC second team his junior season.

D'Antoni is one of Marshall's 50 players to score 1,000 career points, with 1,109, and ranks 13th on the Herd's career free throw percentage list, at .774 (301-of-389).

D'Antoni -- whose given name is Lewis Joseph D'Antoni II -- was inducted into the Marshall Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990.

D'Antoni graduated from Marshall in 1970 with a degree in Speech and Physical Education, and also earned a Master's degree in Principles of Guidance from Marshall in 1972.

He is the father of three sons, all of whom played collegiate basketball: Matt played at Brown; Andrew attended the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and later served 3 1/2 years in Iraq, rising to the rank of captain in the U.S. Army; and Nick attended William & Mary, where he was captain of the basketball team. D'Antoni and his wife, Vanessa, also are parents of a daughter, Morgan.

Cam Henderson Notables

- In 1946-47, Henderson's Marshall squad won the NAIB National Championship with a 32-5 record and a string of 17 consecutive wins.
- Finished with a record of 358-158 (.694) in 20 seasons as Marshall's head coach (1935-1955), the winningest in school history.
- He was 611-245 in 35 years as a college head coach (Muskingum 1919-1923/Davis & Elkins 1923-1935)
- Holds the school record with 14 consecutive winning seasons from 1936-37 to 1949-50.
- Inducted into the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame in 1956.
- Inducted into the Helms Athletic Foundation NAIB National Hall of Fame in 1952.
- Named to the Citizens Athletic Foundation College Basketball Hall of Fame in 1974.

- Revolutionized college basketball with the invention of the "rule" fast break and zone defense.
- Another Henderson first was the "King" warmup drill made famous by the Harlem Globetrotters.
- Led Marshall to wins over Tennessee (3), South Carolina, Hawaii, Brigham Young and Colorado (3) in his career.
- Henderson holds the school records for wins in a career (358), most games coached (516), most years coaching (20) and most wins in a single season (32).
- Coached some of the greatest names in Marshall basketball history. His players include such legends as: Charlie Slack, Andy Tonkovich, Walt Walowac, Jule Rivlin, Hal Greer, Bill Toothman, Gene James and Bill Hall.
- Following three years of research, Witek & Novak, the creators of "Ashes to Glory," released the Emmy-award winning DVD entitled "Cam Henderson: A Coach's Story." Released in March of 2007, "Cam Henderson" looks at the life of West Virginia's greatest coach, who invented basketball's zone defense and fast break.

The subject of the book: Against all odds, Henderson beat bigger, stronger, nationally-ranked teams year after year for the colleges he served as coach of all sports. Recruiting his players from coal fields and steel mills, from family farms and Indian reservations, he gave poor country boys their only chance at a better life through sports, and by so doing, propelled Davis & Elkins and Marshall College into the national spotlight. Breaking the color line in West Virginia by recruiting Hal Greer was his final major achievement.

Notable Cam Henderson Center Moments

FEB. 18, 1984

A crowd of 10,705 - the largest in Cam Henderson Center history - watched Marshall down The Citadel, 85-71.

Thundering Herd fans showed up in record numbers during the 1984-85 season, giving Marshall an average attendance of 8,539 over 16 home dates.

SHOT "HERD" ROUND THE WORLD

Feb. 7, 1985 - Marshall basketball player Bruce Morris makes the

"shot HERD round the world" against Appalachian State. Morris' desperation shot from 89'10" swished as the buzzer sounded to end the first half.

Today, a pair of footprints on the Cam Henderson Center court marks the spot where the shot was taken from.

 Ties C-USA Tournament Record

The "Big Green" of Marshall breezed through the 1946-47 regular season with a record of 27-5 before accepting an invitation to the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament (today's NAIA). Marshall was the 13th team to be invited to the 32-team tournament. Other schools included Arizona State, New Mexico, Youngstown State, Loyola, Eastern Illinois, Western Carolina and Texas Wesleyan, which had the nation's leading scorer in Cliff McNeely, who scored 479 points in 30 games.

To save money on travel and food, head coach Cam Henderson took only eight players to Kansas City for the tournament; Bill Hall, Gene "Goose" James, Andy Tonkovich, Bill Toothman, Mervin Gutshall, Bob Wright, Dick Erickson and Jim Bakalis. Co-captain Albert "Babe" Mazza was left at home because of an injury and student manager Johnny Wellman, whom Henderson called "the best student manager I have ever had," had to stay home in order to graduate.

The "Big Green" opened the tournament against River Falls Teachers College of Wisconsin (now know as UW-River Falls). A crowd of over 5,000 immediately adapted the Herd as its tournament favorite as Bill Hall scored 34 points in a record setting 113-80 rout.

Marshall wowed the crowd with its warm-up as well as its game. Henderson developed the "King Drill," a flashy, quick-moving ballhandling drill that was later adopted by the Harlem Globetrotters for their "Sweet Georgia Brown" warm-up. During the game, the crowd was delighted by the Big Green "breaking fast all the time." Even Henderson said after the first night "about 75 percent were for us the rest of the way."

In front of 6,000 fans on Wednesday night, the Herd got a free throw from Andy Tonkovich with eight seconds left to win 55-54 over Hamline University (St. Paul, Minn.), after Marshall rallied from a 54-48 deficit with two minutes left to play.

Next up for the Herd was a Thursday night, 10 p.m. contest against Eastern Washington. Gutshall became the third Marshall player in as many games to lead the team in scoring as he poured in 20 points in a 56-48 win. Tonkovich added 13 while Hall had 12.

As the field had reached its Final Four, it included Arizona State, Mankato (Minn.) State and Marshall's next opponent, the Emporia (Kan.) State Hornets. Emporia had been tagged as the pre-tournament favorite and would take the Herd to overtime in what was called the most exciting game of the tournament.

Friday night's 9 p.m. start was attended by a then record crowd of over 8,000 fans. Marshall trailed by as many as 10 in the second half before tying the game and sending it to overtime. It would take a miracle shot for a team of destiny to have a shot at the title.

Toothman, who had only scored eight points on the night, was playing defense with the rest of the Herd as the Hornets tried to freeze the last 2:30 of overtime off the clock with a 55-54 lead. With 20 seconds remaining, Emporia missed a close shot and Marshall came down with the rebound. Toothman took the outlet pass and not knowing exactly how much time was left, took a 50-footer that "slipped through without even touching the net" according to the Associated Press. Marshall would steal Emporia's inbound pass and hang on for a 56-55 overtime win.

Only one team stood between Marshall and the championship. "Methodical" Mankato State, as it was called by the AP, had defeated Arizona State in the second game on Friday, 52-46. The Herd was on a roll and was not to be denied.

Marshall defeated Mankato (now known as Minnesota State-Mankato), 73-59, in front of 8,500 fans in Kansas City to give the Herd its first (and only) national basketball championship. The crowd had set another attendance record and was treated to an outstanding performance by Hall, who scored 27 points.

Hall, James and Tonkovich were named first-team NAIB All-Americans following the tournament. Toothman was picked as captain of the second-team All-NAIB, while Gutshall made honorable-mention despite scoring 68 points, good for third best in the tournament. Wright, Erickson and Bakalis had played in each of the five games, making it truly a team effort.

Charlie Slack and Hal Greer are carried off the court following a 95-91 victory over Bowling Green that gave Marshall the 1956 MAC Championship.

1955-56 Marshall Captures Mid-American Conference Crown

Under the direction of Jule Rivlin, the Thundering wins its first Mid-American Conference Championship and made its first NCAA Tournament appearance. Charlie Slack finished his career with two NCAA rebounding records, including the still-standing mark of 25.6 boards per game for one season. Slack also led the team in scoring with a 22.5 points per game average. The team also featured future NBA Hall-of-Famer, Hal Greer. Marshall lost to Morehead State, 107-92, in the NCAA Tournament.

1966-67 Herd Finish Fourth in NIT

Marshall goes 20-8 on the season and finishes fourth in the National Invitation Tournament. Marshall University Athletic Hall of Fame (1999) inductee George Stone set NIT and Madison Square Garden records as he scored 46 points versus Nebraska. Stone led the Herd in scoring on the season, averaging 24.4 points per contest.

In the NIT, Marshall defeated Villanova and Nebraska before falling to Marquette and Rutgers. George Stone was named to the All-NIT team.

1971-72 Thundering Herd Cracks Associated Press Top-10

Coach Carl Tacy's squad finished the season with a 23-4 mark en route to the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance. The Herd achieved a high ranking of No. 8 in the weekly Associated Press Poll. Russell Lee was named All-American and became the Milwaukee Bucks' first-round selection in the NBA Draft.

1983-84 Marshall Wins Southern Conference Championship

Marshall won 25 games and captured the Southern Conference title. The Herd fell victim to Villanova in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. LaVerne Evans led the Herd in scoring with a 20.5 points per game average.

1984-85 Herd Repeats as Southern Conference Champions

Marshall won its second consecutive Southern Conference Tournament championship but fell to Virginia Commonwealth in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Skip Henderson, Marshall's all-time leading scorer, led the team in scoring as a freshman with 17.7 points per game.

1986-87 Marshall Sweeps Southern Conference Championship

The Thundering Herd wins both the Southern Conference regular season and tournament championships. Marshall won 25 games on the season and made its fifth trip to the NCAA Tournament. Skip Henderson leads the team in scoring for the third year in a row with a 21.0 points per game average.

2017-18 Marshall Snaps the 31-Year Drought

The Thundering Herd won its first ever NCAA Tournament game, got into the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 31 years, won its first Conference USA Championship and won 25 games. Other on the court honors included Jon Elmore, C.J. Burks and Ajdin Penava combining for six C-USA Player of the Week awards, three all-conference honors, one C-USA Tournament MVP, two all-tournament selections and one Defensive Player of the Year award. It was the second time three Marshall men's basketball players have been named to all-conference team in the same year since Keith Veney, John Brannen and Sidney Coles accomplished that in 1997.
