HERD NOTES

Ferby Comes Up Clutch

Marshall senior, and transfer from Austin Peay, Briannah Ferby hit the big shot with 1:19 remaining to help the Herd get the win over Morehead State. The Eagles were coming back and only trailed Marshall by one, when Savannah Wheeler broke through the full-court press and found Ferby wide open in the near corner. Ferby fired the three and stopped Morehead's momentum. Marshall struggled from distance throughout the contest against the Eagles. Prior to hitting the three, Ferby was 0-3 from three and 0-4 from the field in the contest. Despite the struggles, Ferby had no hesitation on launching the three.

Dunham Steals the Show

Marshall senior, and transfer from Xavier, Aaliyah Dunham made a tremendous return to her home state. In her first two games with Marshall, the South Charleston, W.Va., native put up 30 total points, 12 assists and 12 steals. Dunham opened the year with 17 points, seven assists and six steals against Bluefield State in front of the home crowd. She followed that up with 13 points, five assists and six more steals at Radford. Dunham is an aggressive defender with quick hands and showcased her ability to pick the pockets of her opponents. Her career-high for steals is seven against St. John's in 2021 while playing for Xavier. She also had 40 games with the Musketeers with two or more thefts. Dunham is off to a quick start for Marshall and said that she plans to be that "pesky gnat" getting after the opponent.

Marshall Women's Basketball Signs Two

Marshall head coach Tony Kemper announced a pair of signees on Wednesday as Meredith Maier and Sydney Scott are headed to Huntington.

As a junior, the 6'0" Maier averaged 18.5 points, 12.9 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 4.7 steals for Fairmont Senior High School. A native of Grafton, West Virginia, she secured first team all-state and all-conference honor. She was also named to the all-tourney team at the state tournament, where she led the Polar Bears to a runner-up finish.

The 5'8" Scott, rated a four-star prospect by ESPN.com, hails from Prospect Park, Pennsylvania. She was named first team all-Philadelphia Catholic League and Daily Times All-Delco three times and was a 2021 PIAA 5A first team all-state pick. She led Cardinal O'Hara High School to the state title last season, averaging 14 points, five rebounds and five assists per contest.

"Both of these signees have the ability to instantly impact us at the collegiate level," said Kemper. "Sydney is a hard-nosed shooter with a basketball IQ that will help her acclimate quickly to Division I basketball. I like her upbringing as one of the best guards in what is always one of the toughest high school basketball leagues in the country ... the Philly Catholic League.

"Meredith adds outside scoring ability to our interior group. She is active and physical in the paint but is also a tremendous perimeter shooter. It is exciting to add such a talented West Virginia player to our program."

The Thundering Herd got off to a flying start in 2021-22 with a 108-45 victory over Bluefield State Tuesday evening. Marshall is back in action Sunday at Radford for a 2 p.m. ET tip.

#33 Brianah Ferby on defense at Purdue.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. – The Marshall women's basketball team battled but suffered its first loss of the season, 70-60, at the Purdue Boilermakers, Monday night from Mackey Arena.

The Thundering Herd falls to 3-1, while Purdue improves to 4-1.

"It was a hard-fought game," Herd head coach Tony Kemper said. "I thought we competed well enough defensively to win the game. We struggled to rebound with them. (6-6 Ra Shaya) Kyle is really long and she is always around the rim, pretty hard to keep her out of there."

"It kind of came down to where we just needed one rebound in there. We were down four, just got a stop and missed the rebound. But, we had a chance. I thought we executed very well defensively what we wanted to get done. Offensively, we were completely out of sorts. They pushed us out of everything. Hats off to Purdue. They really flipped their pressure and got after us."

"Hard-fought game. Wish it would have been different but hopefully we learn some things."

Graduate student Kennedi Colclough led the Herd with 19 points, her best scoring output in a Marshall uniform since joining the Herd before the 2020-21 season. Senior Brianah Ferby was next with 11 points and sophomore Savannah Wheeler scored 10, including 6-of-6 from the free throw line. Junior Lorelei Roper and freshman CC Mays had six points each. Roper led the Herd with five boards and also had two blocks and a steal.

Senior Aaliyah Dunham had five steals, her third game with the Green & White with at least five thefts. She also scored four points and had two assists. Sophomore Alexis Johnson and freshman Aarionna Redman had two points each. Junior Kia Sivils finished the game with one rebound and one block. Freshman Sarah Liberatore entered the game toward the end of the first and attempted a three, but could not convert.

The Herd shot just under 38-percent from the field, but struggled from distance hitting just one three-pointer. Marshall hit 15-of-18 from the line, good for 83.3-percent. Wheeler and Roper were perfect from the line and Colclough hit 7-of-8. Purdue won the rebounding battle, but only by six despite some size advantage.

Marshall shot nearly 42-percent in the first quarter, but struggled with turnovers committing four. The Herd tied the game twice, at 2-2 on a layup from Colclough and then again at 4-4 on a jumper from Roper. Purdue took the lead from there and held on for the remainder of the game. Roper scored four points, had two rebounds, one block and one steal in an active first.

The Boilermakers continued to lead through the second quarter, however Marshall kept it close. Purdue's largest lead of the period was nine at 23-14 at the 8:12 mark. The Herd did not let the lead get to double-digits as Wheeler hit two free throws and Redman grabbed an offensive rebound and then got the put back to close within five. Marshall brought the deficit down to four, 28-24, on a layup from Colclough with 2:55 to go before the halftime break. Purdue put the lead back to six, and the Herd went in to the locker room trailing 32-26. Colclough scored four points in the second. Wheeler grabbed three rebounds and Dunham nabbed two steals.

Marshall outscored Purdue 17-15 in the third quarter and used some great defensive play from Dunham, as well as the Herd's first three of the game to drop the deficit to four. Marshall trailed by nine with 1:48 to go in the period after two free throws from Purdue. Ferby buried a three from the corner ten seconds later to get within six. Dunham then grabbed a steal with just under a minute to go and found Johnson cutting to the basket in transition for a fast-break layup. Dunham ripped away another steal, her fifth of the game, that halted another Boilermaker possession. Purdue did not score a field goal over the final 2:39, hitting only four free throws to end the period.

The Herd continued to fight in the fourth quarter, however Purdue maintained the lead and was able to take advantage of free throw opportunities to build the lead out to 10 for the final.

HEAD COACH TONY KEMPER

Fifth season • @CoachTonyKemper
Career Record: 50-64, 27-39 (C-USA)

Fort Hays State '01

Tony Kemper enters his fifth season as the head coach of the Marshall women's basketball team after being elevated to the position in March of 2017. Kemper had previously been an assistant coach with the women's program for five seasons before taking over.

Kemper helped the Thundering Herd navigate the COVID-19-riddled 2020-21 campaign, which yielded second-team All-Conference USA acclaim for Savannah Wheeler and a signature home win over perennial league stalwart Rice in late February.

Kemper led the Herd through a great improvement in his second season. He has brought some added excitement to the program as the attendance average for Marshall rose from 641 in 2016-17 to 1,153 in 2018-19. Kemper's 2019 recruiting class also ranked in the top 60 nationally.

After going 9-20 overall and 3-13 in C-USA in 2017-18, Marshall was predicted to finish 13th in the Conference USA 2018-19 preseason polls. Instead, the Herd rolled out an 8-win improvement overall and 7-wins better in conference play finishing 17-15 and 10-6 in C-USA, securing the No. 6 seed in the tournament. The 10 conference victories were the most C-USA wins for Marshall in program history. Following the conference tournament, the Herd earned a berth in the WBI, just the fourth postseason trip in program history. Marshall won its first round game 67-64 at Davidson before falling in the second round.

Following the 2020-21 season, Kemper increased his overall record to 47-63.

During the 2018-19 season, Marshall was fifth in the conference in points per game (67.3) and led the league in 3-point field goals made per game in conference action (8.9). The Herd also saw an increase in defensive production as Marshall was ranked 13th in C-USA in field goal percentage allowed in 2017-18 but jumped up to fifth in 2018-19. The Herd saw senior Taylor Porter honored twice as a Conference USA Player of the Week including once after breaking the Marshall single-game record draining 10 3-pointers in the senior day win over FIU.

Senior Shayna Gore was named First Team All-Conference USA. Gore was previously honored as Second Team All-Conference USA in 2017-18. The senior guard capped off her prestigious career under the guide of Kemper as just the third player in program history to score over 2,000 points (2,081). Her name can be found all throughout the record book including the program's all-time leader in 3-point field goals made with 303, more than twice the previous record of 146.

The Herd reached some other milestones in 2018-19 including earning a three-overtime victory at home against Louisiana Tech (Jan. 24). It was one of three overtime victories in 2018-19 after going 131 games – second-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time – without even playing an overtime contest. Marshall also earned its first win over Charlotte in the last 10 meetings (Jan. 5) and the team's first ever win over Middle Tennessee (Feb. 16) as Marshall was previously 0-8 against the Blue Raiders.

Kemper's teams have had major success in the classroom as well with seven college graduates over the last two years. The team's overall grade point average in 2017-18 was 3.23 and climbed up to 3.28 in 2108-19. His players have been honored 18 times on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better) and 11-time recipients of the C-USA Academic Medal for maintaining a GPA of 3.75 or higher.

During his first five seasons at Marshall as an assistant coach, Kemper has assisted in rebuilding a program that progressively increased its win total over the first four seasons - from 9 to 11 to 17 to 21 wins in the 2015-16 season. That 2015-16 win total was the most for Thundering Herd Women's Basketball in 29 seasons and, for the first time in school history, yielded a first-team All-Conference USA student-athlete for Marshall in Leah Scott.

He helped lead Marshall to two of only three postseason berths in the program's NCAA history, including its first postseason win in 2014-15 (WBI) and WNIT berth in 2015-16.

Kemper has also been heavily involved in the Thundering Herd's recruiting and academic success, helping sign the 34th-ranked class in 2017 and its group in 2015, which came in 52nd.

In the classroom, the program has placed 28 members on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.0 cumulative GPA or better) and three more were given the Commissioner's Academic Medal (3.75).

Kemper came to Marshall from Central Arkansas, where he coached with now-former Marshall head coach Matt Daniel for three seasons. At UCA, Kemper helped the Sugar Bears to their first Division I conference title and three seasons of at least 21 wins. His tutelage of inside players helped gain two Southland Player of the Year honors and a Defensive Player of the Year.

Before joining the women's staff, Kemper served as an assistant coach for the Central Arkansas men's basketball program for four years.

Two professional players emerged from UCA during those seasons – the leading scorer in Portugal's Proliga pro league in 2011, Nate Bowie, and professional center Durrell Nevels.

Prior to UCA, Kemper was an assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College - one of the nation's most successful junior college programs.

At Hutchinson, he oversaw day-to-day operations and directed the Blue Dragons' strength and conditioning efforts while also serving as a mathematics and physical education instructor.

The Logan, Kansas, native also held the head coaching spot at Quivira Heights High School in Bushton in 2003-04, guiding QHHS to a No. 1 seed to the regional tournament.

His coaching career began in 2002-03 as an assistant at Hill City (Kansas) High School. Kemper received a bachelor's degree in finance from Fort Hays State University in 2001 and a BBA in Business Education in 2003. He also earned a master's degree in organizational leadership from Fort Hays in 2008.

Kemper and his wife Sandra, a professor at Marshall in the Communications Disorders Department, live in Huntington with sons Brayden and Landry and daughter Jolie.
