2021 Marshall Senior Class

Oliver Semmler making another defensive stop at home in 2021.

Oliver Semmler, from Au am Rhein, Germany, transferred to Marshall before the 2020 season and became an immediate star in the net. Oliver helped carry the Herd to the National Championship as the 2020 C-USA Goalkeeper of the Year. He received the C-USA Golden Glove Award and was named First Team All-Conference. Oliver set the program record with 11 shutouts last season that also led the NCAA. This season's highlights include two more program records of seven-straight clean sheets and over 760 minutes without conceding a goal. He is second all-time at Marshall with 19 clean sheets out of 32 total matches played. His career 0.55 goals against average is tops in Herd history.

Pedro Dolabella after scoring his second goal against Butler in 2021.

Pedro Dolabella, from Brasilia, Brazil, came to the Herd in 2017 and has been a major factor in the rise of the program. He leaves a trophy case of accolades both on and off the pitch. A 4x Academic Medalist, 2x All-C-USA selection, 2019 All-Academic Team, 2x United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-Region, 2021 Senior CLASS Award finalist and the 2020-21 C-USA Men's Soccer Scholar Athlete of the Year. Pedro was honored as the 2019 C-USA Tournament Off. MVP after scoring the game-winning, Golden Goal in the title match vs. #17 Charlotte. Last season, he helped lead the way to a National Championship including playing all 97 minutes of the title match. This season, Pedro leads the Herd with 10 goals including five game-winners. Over his career, Pedro has appeared in 87 matches with 82 starts, logged nearly 7,000 minutes, is sixth all-time at Marshall with 23 goals, tied for fourth with 16 assists and sixth with 62 total points.

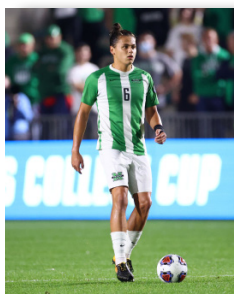

Ryan Sirk celebrating another big moment in 2019.

Ryan Sirk, from Casa Grande, Arizona, is a three-time member of the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll and an Academic Medalist. He redshirted his first season in Huntington in 2018, but made a big impact on defense in 2019. Ryan logged 1,107 minutes appearing in 19 matches with 12 starts, helping the Herd to its first Conference USA Championship. Last season, Ryan appeared in eight matches including the Sweet 16 against then #1 Clemson. Ryan came on to attempt the Herd's seventh penalty kick in the shootout, and converted his shot to tie things up at 6-6 as Marshall went on to win. In his career, Ryan has appeared in 30 matches with 14 starts and over 1,300 minutes of action.

Noah Raphael after scoring a goal vs. Coastal Carolina in 2021.

Noah Raphael, from Calvert County, Maryland, transferred to Marshall from Duquesne, along with fellow senior Nathan Dossantos. Noah appeared in 22 matches and logged over 570 minutes for the Dukes over two seasons. Since coming to Huntington, he has appeared in 23 matches with two starts, logged almost 400 minutes and has scored two goals as his speed and aggressiveness have provided a spark for the Herd. He scored his first career goal just eight minutes into his Herd debut against West Virginia Tech this past spring. This season, Noah netted a goal against Coastal Carolina in the 74th minute.

Nathan Dossantos scans the field during the National Championship.

Nathan Dossantos, from Oakville, Ontario, Canada, transferred to Marshall after two seasons at Duquesne, along with fellow senior Noah Raphael, and became a star for a stingy Herd defense. In his first season in Huntington, Nate was named First Team All-C-USA, and a United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-American selection. He was named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team after helping lead the Herd to the National Championship with three shutouts to finish the run. Nate was a key factor on a defense that allowed only 34 shots on goal and 11 shutouts in 18 matches. This season Nate and the defense have been at it again with program records for consecutive shutouts and scoreless minutes. He has appeared in 33 matches and over 3,000 minutes for the Green & White.

Davi Edwards keeping an eye out vs. UNC in the Final Four.

Davi Lima Edwards, from Brasilia, Brazil, came to the Herd before the 2020-21 season. He appeared in four matches last season with one start coming against West Virginia Tech, where he assisted on Noah Raphael's goal just eight minutes into the contest. Davi also appeared in three of Marshall's NCAA Tournament matches, playing against then Number 1 Clemson in the Sweet 16, against Number 8 Georgetown in the Elite 8 and versus Number 16 North Carolina in the Final Four. Davi was also a member of the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll in 2020-21.

Vinicius Fernandes makes a move vs Indiana in the Nat. Title match.

Vinicius Fernandes, from Sao Paulo, Brazil, came to the Herd as freshman in 2018 and has been very instrumental in the rise of the program. As a freshman he was named to the All-Freshman team as well as Third Team All-C-USA. In 2019, Vini scored the game-winner against #15 Kentucky in the C-USA Tournament semi-final that sent Marshall to the Title match. Last season he drilled another game-winner against #11 Kentucky in the regular season. Vini converted his PK attempt in the shootout against Clemson. He was named to the NCAA All-Tournament team. This season, Vini has a career-high five goals and leads the team with eight assists. In four years, Vini has appeared in 71 matches with 58 starts, logged over 4,800 minutes, has 13 goals and 14 assists.

Jan-Erik Leinhos directs the attack in the National Championship.

Jan-Erik Leinhos, from Kassel, Germany, came to Huntington in 2018 and made an immediate impact with his play all over the pitch, helping the rise of the program. He started in all 20 matches as a freshman and was named to 2018 C-USA All-Tournament Team. In 2019, he was honored as a Third Team All-C-USA, and a United Soccer Coaches All-Region Second Team selection in helping to bring Marshall its first league title. In 2020, the right back elevated his play yet again as a major factor in the Herd's journey to its second consecutive conference championship and the National Championship as he grabbed the attention of the National TV broadcasters. Over his career, Jan-Erik has appeared in 71 matches with 69 starts, logged over 6,100 minutes, scored nine goals and has nine assists.

Ibrahima Diop driving downfield at ETSU in 2021.

Ibrahima Diop, from St. Louis, Senegal, transferred to Marshall before the 2021 fall season after spending three years at UConn where he appeared in 42 matches with 30 starts, logged over 2,400 minutes and scored six goals. After netting four goals and one assist as a freshman, he was named to the American Athletic Conference All-Rookie Team. Upon his transfer to Huntington, Ibrahima reunited with his old high school teammate in Pedro Dolabella and has provided a spark for the Herd's offense. In 2021, Ibrahima has appeared in 14 matches with three starts and logged over 500 minutes as a forward. He has two goals. Ibrahima scored his first Marshall goal with a great bending shot off a free kick from about 25 yards away at East Tennessee State. His second came vs. South Carolina off a assist from Dolabella.

Vitor Dias leaves a defender on the grass vs. Fordham in NCAA To.

Vitor Dias, from Brasilia, Brazil, has been wowing fans, opponents and broadcasters with his ball-handling skills and abilities in the open-field or in tight spaces since coming to Huntington. ## Clean Sheets

Marshall recorded its first clean sheet in program history on Sept. 16, 1980 - its second season of existence - with a 1-0 win over Northern Kentucky. Since then, the Herd's defense has put together a total of 190 clean sheets over the years with a record of 171 wins and 19 draws. Marshall's defense has earned at least one shut-out in every season since 1980, now 42-straight seasons. 1982 was the first season that Marshall tallied multiple clean sheets in a season with six, however none were consecutive.

The first time the Herd had consecutive clean sheets came in 1983, Sept. 17 with a 5-0 win over Kentucky and then on Sept. 22 with a 1-0 victory over Appalachian State. In 1995, seven of Marshall's 10 wins were by shutout.

The first time that Marshall put together more than just back-to-back clean sheets appeared in 1997 as the Herd strung four shutouts together. From Oct. 3 through Oct. 15, the Herd defeated Eastern Michigan (2-0), Bowling Green (1-0), Western Michigan (1-0) and then Lincoln Memorial (7-0). None of the matches went to extra time.

Marshall had three-straight in 2002 out of five total from Sept. 6-15. In 2003, all six of the Herd's wins that season were shutouts, including back-to-back twice.

In the 2005 season, Marshall was able to string four-straight clean sheets again from Oct. 23 to Nov. 9. The defense went 479 minutes and 20 seconds without allowing a goal. That stood as the team record for seven years.

Marshall's 2012 squad began the year with a team record five-straight clean sheets and set the new record for time as well, going 493 minutes and 34 seconds before finally allowing a goal to UNC Asheville on Sept. 14. The Herd still won the match 2-1. Marshall finished the season with another team record of 10 total clean sheets, besting the old mark of eight from 2000. Daniel Withrow was there for all 10, but split the VMI win with Michael McCabe who played the last 20 minutes. Withrow tallied 18 saves during the streak of five in-a-row. He had 25 during the other five, including nine in a 2-0 win over FIU in the final shutout of the season.

Under head coach Chris Grassie, Marshall has totaled 34 clean sheets with 31 wins and three draws. The Herd had eight in 2019, its most since the 2012 season, including the Conference USA Tournament Championship victory (1-0) over No. 17 Charlotte.

In the National Championship season of 2020-21, Marshall broke the old record for most clean sheets in a season with 11. Oliver Semmler earned all 11 to set the individual single-season record as well. The Herd had three separate streaks of three-straight clean sheets. The first of three in-a-row came March 3-18 against South Carolina (2-0), FIU (1-0 in OT), and No. 11 Kentucky (1-0) with a grand total of 336 minutes and eight seconds without allowing a goal. Marshall then ended the regular season with three more against Florida Atlantic (1-0), UAB (1-0) and No. 12 Charlotte (2-0) for the C-USA Championship. This time the Herd went 377 minutes and 23 seconds. Finally, the Herd's defense came up big when it mattered the most with its final string of three-straight in the NCAA Tournament. Marshall defeated No. 8 Georgetown 1-0 in the Elite 8, then took down No. 16 UNC 1-0 in the Final Four, culminating in the 1-0 overtime victory against No. 3 Indiana in the National Championship. The Herd ended the season not allowing a goal for the final 356 minutes. Marshall only conceded eight goals all year long, a program best.

In 2021, Marshall's defense got off to a rough start allowing 10 goals in the first six matches. There was one shutout during those first six games, a 1-0 decision at Bowling Green. However, since allowing a goal to then No. 4 WVU at 41:48 back on Sept. 17, the Herd did not allow a goal for seven-straight contests and a total of 760 minutes and 37 seconds. Both program records. The old record for consecutive clean sheets and shutout minutes was five in-a-row and 493 minutes and 34 seconds, both set back in 2012.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. — On a cool and soggy night, the 2nd-ranked Marshall men's soccer team went out with a flurry of goals on Senior Night in a 4-0 victory over South Carolina on Saturday. The Herd honored ten seniors prior to the match, and it was the seniors who led the way on the pitch for the win.

Graduate student Pedro Dolabella scored two goals and had one assist. Senior Ibrahima Diop netted a goal, and senior goalkeeper Oliver Semmlé tallied five saves as the Marshall defense earned its ninth clean sheet of the season.

The Thundering Herd improved to 11-1-3 overall and 5-0-2 in Conference USA. The Gamecocks fall to 5-8-2 and 1-4-2 in league action.

"We had a lot of guys getting forward tonight and making good decisions," Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "Once we got possession of the ball again, it was a very choppy game, but as (South Carolina) began to chase again there was a ton of space opened up and our guys are so deadly. Pedro (Dolabella) reads the game so well. He understands it perfectly. He shows up at the top of the box and just, thank you very much."

Marshall held the advantage in time of possession again at 53-percent to 47-percent, and outshot South Carolina 13-7 despite playing 41 minutes and 27 seconds a man down. Senior Vitor Dias was issued a straight red card in the 12th minute.

However, just like in the Charlotte match, the Herd responded to the challenge and scored the first goal of the contest just 55 seconds after the red card. Redshirt junior Milo Yosef had the ball on the far side of the 18-yard box and found junior Joao Souza who finished with the touch passed the keeper. For Souza it was his first goal of the season and Yosef was not done with the helpers.

The teams continued to battle through a soaked pitch with rain constantly coming down throughout the first half. The action got physical as well as the Gamecocks began to push to try and slow down the Herd and find the equalizer. South Carolina was issued three yellow cards in the first half, all coming in a six-minute span.

The Gamecocks did have the first shot on target in the match coming in the 10th minute, however Semmlé was there to make the save. Semmlé made another stop in the 42nd minute diving to his right side and just knocking it away before the ball could slide through by the near post. South Carolina received a corner kick after the ball was deflected out by Semmlé, but the Marshall defense cleared the ball away before the Gamecocks could attempt a shot. The first half ended with Marshall in the lead at 1-0.

The Herd came back out after the break still a man down, however just seven minutes and 28 seconds into the second half the numbers on the pitch were evened up as Jordan Matthews was issued his second yellow card and sent off for the remainder of the match. Now with numbers at 10-on-10, the Herd went back on the attack.

In the 64th minute, South Carolina picked up its fifth yellow of the day. Thirty-two seconds later, Yosef fired another centering pass that Dolabella knocked into the net to give Marshall a 2-0 lead. Yosef had been an issue the entire match for the Gamecocks defense with his speed. The Aachen, Germany native set a career-high with his second assist and has a career-best seven helpers this season, good for second on the team. Dolabella was also not done in the scoring category.

Five minutes and three seconds later, now in the 67th minute, it was Dolabella's turn for the assist as he found fellow senior night honoree Diop for the goal. Dolabella and Diop were high school teammates at The Pennington School in New Jersey, and Diop transferred to Marshall over the summer after three years at UConn to reunite with Dolabella. Diop netted his second goal of the season and eighth of his collegiate career. Again, Dolabella was still not finished on this senior night.

In the 71st minute, Marshall almost scored again when senior Jan-Erik Leinhos fired a shot that was saved by the keeper.

After the Herd took the 3-0 lead on Diop's goal, South Carolina turned up the pressure in the attempt to get on the scoreboard. Semmlé made two more saves in the 72nd and 75th minutes to chants of "Oli Oli" from the crowd.

Even with the 3-0 lead, the Herd did not let up on the offensive end. In the 77th minute, junior Alex Adjetej went flying down the pitch and sent a pass to Dolabella who broke through the middle yet again for his second goal of the night as Marshall led 4-0. Adjetej earned his third assist of the season. Dolabella picked up his career-best 10th goal.

South Carolina was issued its sixth card of the night less than 30 seconds after Dolabella's second goal. The Gamecocks did not quit and kept on fighting to try and end the shutout. Semmlé made his fifth and final save of the match in the 82nd minute. The Aachen, Germany native earned his 19th career clean sheet, trailing only Daniel Withrow's 21.5 for tops all-time in team history.

The Herd sent in several subs toward the end of the match to allow players to come off to a nice ovation from the home crowd. Dolabella was subbed out in the 84th minute and went out on senior night adding to his already impressive resume and legend at Marshall. The player who was once told he wasn't good enough to play Division I soccer netted five total points in the match and tied his career-high with the two goals.

"I came to America to go to high school and I had no (scholarship) offers," Dolabella said about his journey. "Everyone was telling me to go to Division III. And Chris (Grassie), I thank him for opening doors for me. My first year I came as a walk-on. When I got here my first goal was to just make the away trips, but in the preseason I came in locked in and ready and prepared well. I was able to play a lot my first year and just build confidence.

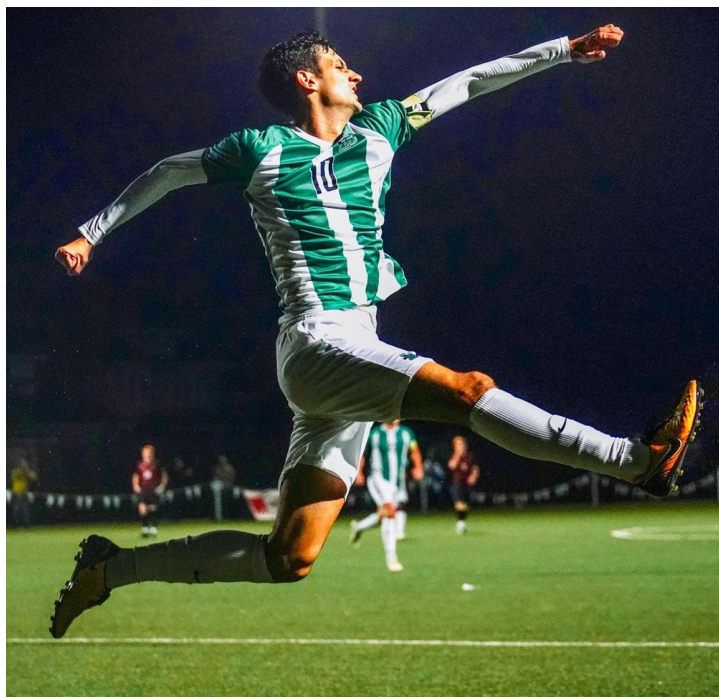

"Getting to lift Marshall to a National Championship with all of my teammates and all of these wonderful people, it's like a movie you know. Probably the best memory of my life being able to accomplish that. But most importantly for sure is the journey and the people you meet along the way and the memories you make."

Coach Grassie also talked about the impact that Dolabella has had on the program.

"One of my proudest coaching relationships has been with Pedro because he has grown so much," Grassie said about his midfielder. "He's grown from a temperamental young man. He has always had so much talent, but it is the 17-year old Pedro versus the 22-year old Pedro. He has all that maturity. He understands completely how we play. He is an ambassador for the way we play and he's been able to control that emotion and make it work for him instead of against him.

"He is just such an ambassador for the way we play, the way we defend, the way we knock the ball around and that is Marshall soccer. I have had a great relationship with him and will be very sad to see him go."

Dolabella now has 23 goals in his career, good for sixth all-time at Marshall. He is tied for fourth all-time in assists with 16 and jumped over former teammate Jamil Roberts on the all-time points list to sixth with 62. Dolabella currently leads Conference USA in goals, goals per game, points and points per game.

Pedro Dolabella scored two goals and assisted on another on Senior Night.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The 11th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team defeated the (RV) FIU Panthers in overtime on Saturday at Hoops Family Field. Junior defender Nathan Dossantos headed in the golden goal in the 92nd minute.

The Thundering Herd improved to 5-1-1 overall and 2-0-0 in Conference USA. The Panthers fall to 2-2-0 and 1-1-0 in league play.

"I think it was a good game from the boys," Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "We had our game plan and it worked perfectly. We had tons of shots and created a lot of chances and their keeper stood on his head for a little bit which was frustrating, but we knew it was coming, it was just a matter of time really before we broke them down."

"I felt today, overall was our best performance of the season. FIU has some good players, but I think man-to-man we dealt with that pretty well. We stayed on top of them for the entire match really. The back line had to deal with some counter-attacks and I thought they were just tremendous in killing the space and closing their man down when they needed to. (Oliver Semmle) didn't have too much to do and obviously Nate (Dossantos) had a fantastic performance today and he gets the winning goal. Which is fully deserved and would love to see him get some plaudits from that for player of the week."

For Dossantos, the game-winner was his first goal in a Thundering Herd uniform and the second of his collegiate career. He scored one goal his freshman year at Duquesne against George Mason.

Marshall dominated possession in the contest, spending the majority of the match in its attacking third. The Herd outshot the Panthers 28-6 and 15-2 in shots on goal. Marshall had numerous opportunities, however FIU's goalkeeper Johan Penaranda always seemed to be there, tallying 14 saves.

The Herd's defense played a spectacular match in limiting FIU's attack. Dossantos and redshirt junior Collin Mocynas directed the Herd's defensive effort as the Panthers only two shots on goal were easy saves for junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmle, with one save in each half.

The match was physical from the start as the teams combined for 32 total fouls. FIU was tabbed for five yellow cards and Mauro Bravo picked up his second yellow, which led to a red card, with just 50 seconds remaining in regulation. The Panthers played the remainder of the match a man down.

In the first half, Marshall fired off 10 shots with four on goal. FIU managed just two shots and one on goal, with Semmle making the save in the 37th minute. Junior Noah Raphael fired a shot from about 25 yards out with seconds left on the clock that just went high over the crossbar. After the first 45 minutes, the teams went back to locker rooms scoreless.

Marshall turned up the pressure even more in the second half with 17 totals shots and 10 on goal. Penaranda made some great saves to keep FIU in the match as the Herd spent the majority of the time again on the attacking side.

Right after the red card that sent Bravo off the pitch, the Herd charged ahead to try and get a last second goal before the horn. FIU sent a ball out of bounds beyond the end line with just seconds remaining. Sophomore Gabriel Alves quickly lined up to attempt a corner kick, Marshall's 10th of the match, that the Panther's defense was able to stop and force the contest to overtime.

The Herd jumped right into attack mode in overtime. Another ball over the end line by FIU gave Marshall the chance for the corner kick, just about 90 seconds in to the extra period. Junior Jan-Erik Leinhos lined up from the far corner, fired in a kick toward the far side of the goal which deflected off the head of junior Pedro Dolabella across the box to the near side of the net where Dossantos went low to head the ball in for the game-winner. Leinhos and Dolabella each collected their third assists of the season.

Marshall in the Rankings

Back on September 24, 2001, Marshall was 6-1-0 including two wins over future Conference USA opponents UCF and FIU when the Herd received votes in the NCAA/United Soccer Coaches Poll (called the NSCAA - National Soccer Coaches Association of America at the time) for the first time in program history. Marshall was 26th overall, just outside of the Top 25. The Herd then defeated Western Michigan and Northern Illinois in Mid-American Conference action. Those two victories moved Marshall into the Top 25 for the first time with a ranking of 23rd on October 1, 2001. Unfortunately for the Herd, staying in the Top 25 was not in the cards as the squad lost its next two and eventually five of the next six. Two weeks with Marshall University listed as either a ranked or "also receiving votes" team.

On September 24, 2019, exactly 18 years later, Marshall found itself again moving into the national conversation following a 2-1 win over the 2018 National Championship Runners-Up the Akron Zips. The Herd was in the "also receiving votes" spot at 29th overall with a record of 5-1-1.

The following week, Marshall traveled to Old Dominion and came away with a convincing 4-1 victory. The Herd was again in the "also receiving votes" category and moved up to just on the cusp of the Top 25 at 26th overall on October 1.

Marshall then won two more matches at home over Dayton (2-0) and UAB (6-0). The Herd was still in the conversation, but slipped back one spot to 27th overall on October 8th. The next match could be the one that Marshall needed to move into the Top 25 for the first time in 18 years, a road contest at then No. 5 Charlotte.

The Herd went down to Charlotte and battled to a 0-0 draw against one of the top programs not only in Conference USA but in the country. That match was enough to open the eyes of many voters as the Herd jumped up from 27th overall to No. 21 on October 15, its highest ever ranking, and its first Top 25 ranking in 6,588 days.

Following the ranking, Marshall traveled west and came back with two more wins over Loyola Marymount (4-1) and San Diego State (5-1). With the convincing wins, the Herd moved up to 15th, a new highest ranking in program history. Marshall's first match after the No. 15 ranking was a 2-2 draw on the road at Wright State. Following the draw, Marshall suffered just its second loss of the season in overtime at Florida Atlantic.

Despite the draw and the loss, the Herd stayed in the rankings dropping down to 20th. Conference USA for the third-consecutive week had four teams all in the top 25 with FIU (#13), Kentucky (#15), Charlotte (#18) and Marshall (#20).

Marshall returned to Hoops Family Field after a month on the road, ranked 20th, and defeated #15 Kentucky in front of a record crowd. After the win, Marshall moved up to 14th in the standings. It is the highest ranking in program history. All four of C-USA's top teams still remained in the top 25 with Marshall (#14), Kentucky (#16), Charlotte (#17) and FIU (#19).

The Herd capped the regular season with a win at No. 19 FIU to take the top overall seed in the C-USA Tournament and the Regular Season Title. It was the first regular season championship for Marshall in C-USA and its first for the program since 2000, back in the Mid-American Conference days. When the rankings came out on Tuesday, Marshall was in its highest spot at No. 13. Conference USA still showcased its strong soccer programs with four teams in the top 25 with No. 15 Kentucky, No. 17 Charlotte and No. 23 FIU.

With the Herd's wins over Kentucky and Charlotte in the Conference USA Tournament, Marshall moved up again to a new highest ranking of 11th. The Herd secured a first round bye in the NCAA Tournament and hosted West Virginia on Sunday, Nov. 24. Marshall defeated WVU, 2-1, before falling in the third round at No. 6 Washington.

The Herd's play in 2019 began a streak of being ranked in the top 25 in every poll, now standing at 27-straight (Nov. 2, 2021). Marshall has also been ranked in the top ten, 16 times.

Byron Carmichael starred for the Herd (1999-2002) and scored 15 goals for the 2001 squad that became the first to ever be ranked in Marshall men's soccer program history. Carmichael is Marshall's all-time leading scorer with 58 goals and was inducted into the MU Hall of Fame in 2008.

History! We Are...National Champions

Marshall put together a historic season like no other that saw it end holding the National Championship trophy. The 2020 season was postponed to the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. So without much of an opportunity to train as a team in the fall, the Herd bound together as team once they could hit the pitch in January. Through some cold and awful weather, that included two "once in a lifetime" ice storms for the Huntington area, Marshall began the journey without the chance to have a preseason. The Herd overcame a little bit of a rough start, as well as losses at Akron and at West Virginia, and stayed ranked in the top 25 throughout the year. Marshall's defense kept the squad in many matches as the Herd fired off many shots offensively, but just not seem to finish. Head Coach Chris Grassie, in just his fourth season at Marshall, kept talking postgame about needing to finish. However, his defense led by center backs Nathan Dossantos and Collin Mocuynas, with Jan-Erik Leinhos and Gabriel Alves on the outside, and Oliver Semmler in goal continued to shut down opponents. Three times the Herd defense did not allow an opponent a shot on goal. By the end of the regular season, Marshall was ranked 9th in the nation and met 12th-ranked Charlotte at home with the Conference USA Title, and the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament on the line. The Herd produced its eighth clean sheet of the year, third in-a-row, and received goals from Leinhos and Pedro Dolabella for the 2-0 victory.

Marshall took its back-to-back C-USA titles into the NCAA postseason, ranked No. 10. With a first round bye, the Herd met No. 23 Fordham in the second round. The match went to overtime, however Milo Yosef scored his second goal of the day in the 97th minute to keep the journey going. The next step was a meeting with No. 1 Clemson in the Sweet 16. Max Schneider scored for the Herd, but the Tigers tied the match and the two teams battled through both overtime periods. In the penalty kick shootout, Semmler made a stop that opened the door for the Herd, and then Vitor Dias blasted the winner!

Marshall was on to the Elite 8 against No. 8 Georgetown, the defending National Champions. Once again the Herd defense had an outstanding day with its ninth shutout and Jamil Roberts scored the eventual winner in the 70th minute. The beginning of an amazing run for the senior forward. In the Final Four against No. 16 UNC, Marshall's defense again rose to the occasion as the Tar Heels outshot the Herd 11-1, and 5-1 on goal. Semmler was there to make every stop, and even though Marshall had just one shot on goal they made it count. Yosef centered a pass across the box that Dias made a quick dummy move and a touch to Roberts on the left side who sent a low shot between the keepers legs for the score in the 60th minute. Second-straight game-winner for Roberts, and Marshall was on to its first ever National Championship match.

The Herd faced 8-time National Champions, No. 3 Indiana Hoosiers. In the College Cup Final, Marshall put on a show in front of a National TV audience, outplaying the Hoosiers throughout the night. Marshall held possession 62-percent of the match and outshot Indiana 17-8 and 8-1 on goal. However, Roman Celentano, Indiana's goalkeeper was having a great match making save after save. The teams were scoreless after 90 minutes and headed to overtime. Finally, in the 98th minute, Yosef pushed the ball across the pitch and made a quick pass to Dias in the middle who fired a shot that was blocked by a defender. Dias immediately took control of the rebound, made a couple quick moves and then fired another shot that was deflected by Celentano. The loose bounced near the right post, where Roberts jumped up for the finish. Roberts was named the NCAA Tournament Offensive MVP as he hit three-straight game-winners. Of course with the Championship-winning Golden Goal as the biggest.

At the welcome home celebration the next day, in front of a packed house at Hoops Family Field, an emotional Roberts said what a way to go out to have his last kick in a Marshall uniform win the National Championship.
