HERD NOTES

Countdown to 1,000 Points

Marshall has two players closing in on reaching the 1,000-point plateau in their careers. Sophomore Savannah Wheeler and senior transfer Brianah Ferby. The two have combined for over 200 points this season.

Wheeler has 923 points, all with the Herd, and is averaging 15.6 points per game throughout her career. The Catlettsburg, Ky., native began her time with the Green & White scoring 403 points, 13.4 per game in 2019-20. She followed up with 323 points, 17.0 per contest, in the just 19 games of the shortened COVID season of 2020-21. In 2021-22, Wheeler has reached double-figures in all 10 games with 197 points and is averaging 19.7 per game. She has played just 59 games in her career and has scored 10+ in 49. Wheeler would be the 23rd player in team history to reach 1,000 points.

Ferby, with 903 total points in her career, came to Marshall in the summer of 2021 after playing four seasons at Austin Peay. She was able to use her COVID year of 2020-21 to gain a fifth year of eligibility and decided to get a change of scenery. Ferby left Austin Peay with 819 points in 107 games. She scored 225 as a freshman in 2017-18, then 249 in 2018-19, 136 points in 2019-20 and finally 209 in the shortened 2020-21 season with a career-best 9.1 points per game. Ferby began her Marshall career as an igniter off the bench but has recently been in the starting lineup. She scoring 8.4 points per game and 84 so far in her Herd career.

Herd Stifles LA Tech

Marshall got off to a slow start against the Lady Techsters to begin Conference USA play, but then the defense took over in the second quarter. The Herd allowed LA Tech to score 16 points in the first quarter, but then only another 28 points over the next three periods as Marshall won 62-44. The Herd's defense held the Lady Techsters to just eight points in the second and seven points in the third. Marshall also outrebounded the visitors from Ruston, La., 37-25, allowing Louisiana Tech to grab just 11 boards in the second half. It was the first time that Marshall allowed 25 or fewer rebounds since Dec. 18, 2017 against Kentucky Christian (17 rebs.).

The Herd won the turnover battle as well as outscoring LA Tech 20-2 in points off turnovers. The point total for the Lady Techsters tied for the lowest output of the season, also a 62-44 loss at Ole Miss back on Nov. 19. It was Marshall's best defensive performance of the season so far, and was the lowest points given up by the Herd since an 89-40 victory over Kentucky Christian on Nov. 7, 2019.

Family Connection

Graduate student Kennedy Colclough may have grown up in Crofton, Md., and originally played at Stetson down in Florida, but she has a connection to Marshall and Huntington. Colclough was born in Huntington in 1998 and got to spend some time in the stands as a child and listen to stories of playing for the Herd from her father LaVorn Colclough who was a wide receiver for Marshall from 1995-98. He was a member of the 1996 I-AA National Championship squad and won two Mid-American Championships in 1997 and 1998.

LaVorn finished his playing career with 144 receptions (15th all-time) for 1,737 yards (17th) and 18 touchdowns (12th). He was named All-MAC twice in 1997 and 1998. LaVorn caught a career-high 74 passes in 1997. Against Kent State in 1997, on the first play from scrimmage, he caught a 92-yard touchdown pass from future first-round draft pick and two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year Chad Pennington, which is tied for the fourth longest pass play in MU History.

Wheeler Lights up Las Vegas Night

Savannah Wheeler had a career night against Oakland at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic. Wheeler scored 40 points, becoming the first Herd player with 40 in a game since Kristina Behnfeldt back in February of 1999. Wheeler did most of her damage inside of the three-point arc shooting 14-of-18 from the floor and was just 2-of-4 from three. She drew seven fouls and was 10-of-12 from the line. Wheeler put Marshall on her back as the offense started slow. She scored 12 points in the second quarter, including nine of the Herd's 11 points over the final three minutes of the second, cutting the deficit to one, 38-37.

Wheeler put up 12 more in the third quarter as the Herd outscored Oakland 21-6 in the period to take a commanding lead. She surpassed 900 career points, and her old career-high of 35 points, in the fourth quarter. She reached 39 points getting a layup to drop while also getting fouled for the third time in the period. Wheeler sank the free throw to complete the three-point play, and was then subbed out with 1:22 to go. She received a standing ovation and was mobbed by her teammates on the bench.

The sophomore guard was named Conference USA Player of the Week for her efforts as she also led the Herd with five assists and four steals. Wheeler's 40 is tied for the fourth-most in a game this season in the NCAA and she is one of just six players to score at least 40. At 5'6", she is also the shortest player this season in Division I to score 40.

Johnson & Liberatore Ignite Herd

Against Alderson Broadus, head coach Tony Kemper was looking for someone to get the team going as the Herd came out flat against the Battlers. He subbed in sophomore Alexis Johnson and then freshman Sarah Liberatore in the latter half of the first quarter and told each one to make something happen and be the spark. Johnson and Liberatore responded throughout the rest of the night.

The two combined for 33 points on 12-of-19 shooting (63.1%), 6-of-9 from three (66.7%), 10 rebounds, four assists and three steals.

Johnson tied her career-high with 18 points while shooting 7-of-10 from the field and hit two big three-pointers. Her first three came in the second quarter to cut the deficit to three and then two minutes later hit another three to pull the Herd within one sparking a 15-0 run to take the lead. Johnson pulled down seven boards with six coming on the defensive glass.

Liberatore had a career-night across the board in minutes played (21), points (15), rebounds (three) and tied career-bests with two assists and one steal. She had only hit three three-pointers in her career, but on this night Liberatore was 4-of-6 from outside with her first trey coming on her first offensive possession in the first quarter. Her three rebounds were all offensive in the fourth quarter to help shut down the Battlers.

Dishing Out Assists

In the win over Alderson Broadus, Savannah Wheeler finished with seven assists and Aliyah Dunham had six. It was the first time the Herd had two players with at least five helpers in the same game since Feb. 6, 2020 at Southern Miss when Kia Sivils and Wheeler both had five. It was the only time in the 2019-20 season that the Herd accomplished the feat. Marshall did it in five games in 2018-19, including having three players dish out at least five assists (Kristen Mayo-8, Shayna Gore-6, Taylor Porter-5) in an 86-64 win over Cleveland State on Dec. 8, 2018.

Colclough Finds Her Rhythm

Graduate student Kennedy Colclough has been finding her rhythm on offense and has come through big on the scoreboard. Prior to the St. Bonaventure game, she was averaging 16.5 points per game, and scored at least 19 points in the three previous contests. Averaging 20.3 during the stretch. After scoring a season-low six points against Morehead State, Colclough scored 19 at Purdue, 19 at Michigan State and a season-high 23 versus Coppin State. Over the three games, she shot 54.1-percent from the floor (20-of-37) and an astounding 19-of-20 (95.0%) from the line including going 10-for-10 against Coppin State. Her ability to finish at the rim has helped her pile up the points and get those free throw chances.

Points in the Paint

Despite consistently going against lineups that have a little more size, Marshall has won the points in the paint category in each of its first five games.

vs. Bluefield State	58-8
at Radford	28-22
vs. Morehead State	38-28
at Purdue	32-20
at Michigan State	34-30

Much of the success around the basket has come from the play of Kennedy Colclough, who is averaging 15.2 points per game, and Lorelei Roper who has had some key put-backs. However, the Herd's guards are not afraid to drive to rim either with Savannah Wheeler, Aliyah Dunham, CC Mays and Brianah Ferby making a lot of plays inside and also drawing contact. The four guards have combined to draw 63 fouls over the first five games with Wheeler leading the way with 27.

Wheeler Goes Off at Michigan State

Savannah Wheeler broke out of her shooting slump in a big way scoring 30 points in the Breslin Center. She came through with four three-pointers in the game, and usually coming at key moments. Wheeler tallied her 800th career point with a three in the second quarter that gave Marshall its first lead of the day. Prior to the game in East Lansing, Wheeler was just 3-of-16 from distance. Against the Spartans, she hit on 50 percent (4-of-8). Wheeler moved into 15th place all-time at Marshall, surpassing her old teammate Khadaiji Brooks, with now 90 made three's. It was her second career game with at least 30 points and was also the first 30-point game of the season from a player in Conference USA. Wheeler drew eight fouls in the game and was 8-of-9 from the line, as she was able to get her shot attempt to drop and then earn the and-one opportunity.

Ferby Comes Up Clutch

Marshall senior, and transfer from Austin Peay, Brianah Ferby hit the big shot with 1:19 remaining to help the Herd get the win over Morehead State. The Eagles were coming back and only trailed Marshall by one, when Savannah Wheeler broke through the full-court press and found Ferby wide open in the near corner. Ferby fired the three and stopped Morehead's momentum. Marshall struggled from distance throughout the contest against the Eagles. Prior to hitting the three, Ferby was 0-3 from three and 0-4 from the field in the contest. Despite the struggles, Ferby had no hesitation on launching the three.

Dunham Steals the Show

Marshall senior, and transfer from Xavier, Aliyah Dunham made a tremendous return to her home state. In her first two games with Marshall, the South Charleston, W.Va., native put up 30 total points, 12 assists and 12 steals. Dunham opened the year with 17 points, seven assists and six steals against Bluefield State in front of the home crowd. She followed that up with 13 points, five assists and six more steals at Radford. Dunham is an aggressive defender with quick hands and showcased her ability to pick the pockets of her opponents. Her career-high for steals is seven against St. John's in 2021 while playing for Xavier. She also had 40 games with the Musketeers with two or more thefts. Dunham is off to a quick start for Marshall and said that she plans to be that "pesky gnat" getting after the opponent.

Marshall Women's Basketball Signs Two

Marshall head coach Tony Kemper announced a pair of signees on Wednesday as Meredith Maier and Sydni Scott are headed to Huntington.

As a junior, the 6'0" Maier averaged 18.5 points, 12.9 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 4.7 steals for Fairmont Senior High School. A native of Grafton, West Virginia, she secured first team all-state and all-conference honor. She was also named to the all-tourney team at the state tournament, where she led the Polar Bears to a runner-up finish.

The 5'8" Scott, rated a four-star prospect by ESPN.com, hails from Prospect Park, Pennsylvania. She was named first team all-Philadelphia Catholic League and Daily Times All-Delco three times and was a 2021 PIAA 5A first team all-state pick. She led Cardinal O'Hara High School to the state title last season, averaging 14 points, five rebounds and five assists per contest.

"Both of these signees have the ability to instantly impact us at the collegiate level," said Kemper. "Sydni is a hard-nosed shooter with a basketball IQ that will help her acclimate quickly to Division I basketball. I like her upbringing as one of the best guards in what is always one of the toughest high school basketball leagues in the country ... the Philly Catholic League.

"Meredith adds outside scoring ability to our interior group. She is active and physical in the paint but is also a tremendous perimeter shooter. It is exciting to add such a talented West Virginia player to our program."

The Thundering Herd got off to a flying start in 2021-22 with a 108-45 victory over Bluefield State Tuesday evening. Marshall is back in action Sunday at Radford for a 2 p.m. ET tip.

Dead Ball Rebounds: 4.0

#33 Brianah Ferby recorded her 900th career point after hitting a free throw in the third quarter.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The Marshall women's basketball team clamped down on defense in a 62-44 win over the Louisiana Tech Lady Techsters Thursday night in the Cam Henderson Center. Senior Brianah Ferby recorded her 900th career point in the win.

The Thundering Herd improved to 6-4 and begin Conference USA play 1-0, while the Lady Techsters dropped to 8-4 overall and 0-1 in league action. The 44 points tied Louisiana Tech's lowest output of the season, matching a 62-44 loss at Ole Miss back on Nov. 19.

"It's great to start (C-USA play) with a win," said Marshall head coach Tony Kemper. "I thought our team played hard. We got done what we tried to get done, especially on the defensive end. (Louisiana Tech) didn't quite play how we thought they would on offense, so we had to scrap what we were going to do and adjust a little bit. I thought that affected our slow start, but we really moved the ball well after that."

"Rebounding was tough in there. They definitely had a size advantage on us, but I thought we were super-physical and scrappy with what we do have and it's great to polish it off."

Louisiana Tech came into the game averaging just over 40 rebounds per game. Marshall held the Lady Techsters to just 25 boards total, its lowest of the season, and only 11 in the second half. The Herd dominated in points off of turnovers, 20-2, and also outscored the Lady Techsters 16-6 on second chance points. Marshall finished the game with 12 steals as six players recorded at least one theft. Louisiana Tech came into the game averaging 10.3 steals per game and only tallied five.

Ferby finished the night with 12 points and was 2-of-5 from beyond the arc including a shot from about 30 feet away late in the fourth quarter as the shot clock was winding down. She tallied her 900th career point on a free throw at the 7:11 mark in the third quarter. Ferby tallied 819 points during her career at Austin Peay, and has put up 84 so far with the Green & White. She has reached double-figures five times this season and in 42 games in her career.

Sophomore Savannah Wheeler led all Marshall scorers with 16 and pushed her career total to 923 points. The reigning Conference USA Player of the Week has reached double-digits in 13-straight games and in 49 of her 59 career games. She added six rebounds three assists and led the Herd with four steals. Wheeler has tallied four steals in back-to-back contests.

Graduate student Kennedi Colclough scored 13 points and is now over 800 in her career (804). She has scored 10 or more points in eight games this season and 42 times in her career. Colclough scored 521 during her time at Stetson and now has 283 in her Marshall career. The 6-0 forward added six boards, one assist and one steal.

Junior Lorelei Roper starred on the glass again for the Herd leading all players with nine, including five offensive rebounds. Roper has pulled down at least seven rebounds in five-straight games. She also continued her shot-blocking streak to nine-straight after recording two on Thursday. Senior Aaliyah Dunham finished with nine points and led the Herd with four assists. She added two steals as well.

Junior Kia Silvils made her return to the lineup after missing the last two games with an injury. Silvils grabbed four boards, three offensive, to go along with one steal and one block. Freshman CC Mays had an excellent defensive game and finished with five boards and one steal to go along with seven points. Freshman Aarionna Redman buried a three in the second quarter and also had one assist. Sophomore Alexis Johnson finished with four boards and tied her career-high with three steals.

Marshall got off to a slow start on the offensive end. The Lady Techsters took the lead at the 6:55 mark and held it through the rest of the quarter, leading by as much as seven. Mays drilled a three after a great pass from Redman to cut the deficit to four, 14-10, with 2:03 to go in the period. Louisiana Tech scored the final two points of the first and also held the Herd off the scoreboard over the last two minutes, leading 16-10. The Lady Techsters shot 50-percent (6-of-12) in the first.

The Herd took over in the second quarter beginning the period on a 9-0 run over the first three minutes to take a three-point lead, 19-16. Ferby scored five of Marshall's points during the run with a three-pointer coming from the corner at the 7-minute mark. Thirty seconds later, Louisiana Tech finally scored to break the run, but could not take the momentum away from the Herd. Marshall outscored the Lady Techsters 22-8 in the second and went in at the half leading 32-24. The Herd shot 50-percent (8-of-16) from the floor including 4-of-6 from three. After being held to just one point in the first, Wheeler scored 10 on 4-of-6 shooting and 2-of-3 from three. Roper had both of her blocks in the second quarter.

Marshall was outrebounded 9-5 in the first quarter and then flipped those numbers in the second including four offensive boards that led to five second chance points. The Herd also scored 15 points off of six Lady Techster turnovers in the second.

Marshall struggled to score in the third quarter with just 12 points, however the Herd's defense continued to be stingy allowing just seven points to Louisiana Tech. Marshall continued to force the Lady Techsters to use up a lot of clock time before finally taking a shot, hitting just 3-of-12 in the third, also nabbed five turnovers, and led 44-31 heading into the fourth.

Louisiana Tech managed to drop the Herd's lead to eight, 46-38, with 7:58 remaining. However, Marshall went on a 5-0 run over the next 1:56 leading to a Lady Techster timeout. Wheeler hit a three and then Mays took off down the floor after a defensive rebound and sank a jumper in the paint to put the lead back to 13. Marshall maintained a double-digit lead throughout the rest of the game. The defense kept Louisiana Tech off balance. Marshall won the rebounding battle 13-4 in the fourth quarter. Roper pulled down six with four on the offensive side, and Mays grabbed four. Dunham drew five fouls in the final period and was 6-of-8 from the line.

HEAD COACH TONY KEMPER

Fifth season • @CoachTonyKemper
Career Record: 53-67 (Overall)
28-39 (C-USA)

Fort Hays State '01

Tony Kemper enters his fifth season as the head coach of the Marshall women's basketball team after being elevated to the position in March of 2017. Kemper had previously been an assistant coach with the women's program for five seasons before taking over.

Kemper helped the Thundering Herd navigate the COVID-19-riddled 2020-21 campaign, which yielded second-team All-Conference USA acclaim for Savannah Wheeler and a signature home win over perennial league stalwart Rice in late February.

Kemper led the Herd through a great improvement in his second season. He has brought some added excitement to the program as the attendance average for Marshall rose from 641 in 2016-17 to 1,153 in 2018-19. Kemper's 2019 recruiting class also ranked in the top 60 nationally.

After going 9-20 overall and 3-13 in C-USA in 2017-18, Marshall was predicted to finish 13th in the Conference USA 2018-19 preseason polls. Instead, the Herd rolled out an 8-win improvement overall and 7-wins better in conference play finishing 17-15 and 10-6 in C-USA, securing the No. 6 seed in the tournament. The 10 conference victories were the most C-USA wins for Marshall in program history. Following the conference tournament, the Herd earned a berth in the WBI, just the fourth postseason trip in program history. Marshall won its first round game 67-64 at Davidson before falling in the second round.

Following the 2020-21 season, Kemper increased his overall record to 47-63.

During the 2018-19 season, Marshall was fifth in the conference in points per game (67.3) and led the league in 3-point field goals made per game in conference action (8.9). The Herd also saw an increase in defensive production as Marshall was ranked 13th in C-USA in field goal percentage allowed in 2017-18 but jumped up to fifth in 2018-19. The Herd saw senior Taylor Porter honored twice as a Conference USA Player of the Week including once after breaking the Marshall single-game record draining 10 3-pointers in the senior day win over FIU.

Senior Shayna Gore was named First Team All-Conference USA. Gore was previously honored as Second Team All-Conference USA in 2017-18. The senior guard capped off her prestigious career under the guide of Kemper as just the third player in program history to score over 2,000 points (2,081). Her name can be found all throughout the record book including the program's all-time leader in 3-point field goals made with 303, more than twice the previous record of 146.

The Herd reached some other milestones in 2018-19 including earning a three-overtime victory at home against Louisiana Tech (Jan. 24). It was one of three overtime victories in 2018-19 after going 131 games – second-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time – without even playing an overtime contest. Marshall also earned its first win over Charlotte in the last 10 meetings (Jan. 5) and the team's first ever win over Middle Tennessee (Feb. 16) as Marshall was previously 0-8 against the Blue Raiders.

Kemper's teams have had major success in the classroom as well with seven college graduates over the last two years. The team's overall grade point average in 2017-18 was 3.23 and climbed up to 3.28 in 2108-19. His players have been honored 18 times on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better) and 11-time recipients of the C-USA Academic Medal for maintaining a GPA of 3.75 or higher.

During his first five seasons at Marshall as an assistant coach, Kemper has assisted in rebuilding a program that progressively increased its win total over the first four seasons - from 9 to 11 to 17 to 21 wins in the 2015-16 season. That 2015-16 win total was the most for Thundering Herd Women's Basketball in 29 seasons and, for the first time in school history, yielded a first-team All-Conference USA student-athlete for Marshall in Leah Scott.

He helped lead Marshall to two of only three postseason berths in the program's NCAA history, including its first postseason win in 2014-15 (WBI) and WNIT berth in 2015-16.

Kemper has also been heavily involved in the Thundering Herd's recruiting and academic success, helping sign the 34th-ranked class in 2017 and its group in 2015, which came in 52nd.

In the classroom, the program has placed 28 members on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.0 cumulative GPA or better) and three more were given the Commissioner's Academic Medal (3.75).

Kemper came to Marshall from Central Arkansas, where he coached with now-former Marshall head coach Matt Daniel for three seasons. At UCA, Kemper helped the Sugar Bears to their first Division I conference title and three seasons of at least 21 wins. His tutelage of inside players helped gain two Southland Player of the Year honors and a Defensive Player of the Year.

Before joining the women's staff, Kemper served as an assistant coach for the Central Arkansas men's basketball program for four years.

Two professional players emerged from UCA during those seasons – the leading scorer in Portugal's Proliga pro league in 2011, Nate Bowie, and professional center Durrell Nevels.

Prior to UCA, Kemper was an assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College - one of the nation's most successful junior college programs.

At Hutchinson, he oversaw day-to-day operations and directed the Blue Dragons' strength and conditioning efforts while also serving as a mathematics and physical education instructor.

The Logan, Kansas, native also held the head coaching spot at Quivira Heights High School in Bushton in 2003-04, guiding QHHS to a No. 1 seed to the regional tournament.

His coaching career began in 2002-03 as an assistant at Hill City (Kansas) High School. Kemper received a bachelor's degree in finance from Fort Hays State University in 2001 and a BBA in Business Education in 2003. He also earned a master's degree in organizational leadership from Fort Hays in 2008.

Kemper and his wife Sandra, a professor at Marshall in the Communications Disorders Department, live in Huntington with sons Brayden and Landry and daughter Jolie.
