HERD NOTES

Last Time Out: Herd Takes Two of Three versus Bellarmine

Marshall struggled to find its offensive rhythm in the first two games, losing game one 3-1 and still pulling out game two 5-3. In the first meeting, the Herd managed just five hits, four doubles, but could not find the timely hit. Grace Chelemen drove in Armani Brown in the fifth inning for Marshall's lone run of the game. Cailey Joyce threw all seven innings and allowed just six hits, three runs and struck out seven. In game two, Chelemen was moved to the top of the lineup and responded by going 4-for-4, scored two runs and drove in one. Sierra Huerta had two hits including a home run in the first inning. The Knights took a 3-2 lead in the top of the third, but the Herd tied the game in the bottom of the frame and then took back the lead with two runs in the sixth.

Game three, the Marshall bats found its spark with eight hits and also drew seven walks on the way to the 10-0 win. The Herd put up five runs in the second inning as Madison Whitaker got it started with a solo home run, her first in a Marshall uniform. Later, Aly Harrell and Katie Adams drove in two runs each as the Herd went through all nine batters. Marshall scored three more in the third, highlighted by a two-run home run from freshman Kay Kay Kenney. It was the first hit of her collegiate career as well. The Herd kept up the pressure with two more runs in the fourth. Laney Jones allowed just two hits and only four bases runners.

Despite some of the poor play on offense during the weekend, Marshall received great play from its defense. Diving catches, grabs in the gap, relay throws, double plays and a rundown that helped preserve the shutout on Sunday were just some of the highlights for Herd fans at Dot Hicks Field.

Kay Kay Kenney Reaching Base

Freshman Kay Kay Kenney earned her first two career starts in the lineup, playing in right field in games two and three against Bellarmine (March 27-28). In game two, Kenney reached base all three times at the plate with two walks and then getting on from an error. In game three, Kenney drew two more walks but sandwiched those around her first career hit that also happened to be a home run. Her two-run shot out to left gave Marshall a 7-0 lead. After the game Kenney said, "I didn't even know it was gone until I rounded second. That was when I noticed and started screaming." Kenney became the 11th different player to hit a home run this season for the Herd.

Paige Halliwill Steals Away Hits Roaming the Outfield

Freshman centerfielder Paige Halliwill has made an impact at the plate, but her presence in the outfield this year has been undeniable. Leading into Conference USA play, Halliwill has recorded 26 putouts as well as three assists in 15 games. She has made diving catches, run down and caught potential extra base hits and thrown runners out. Twice, Halliwill has started a relay that has eliminated a runner attempting to stretch a double into a triple. The first was against Saint Francis on March 6th. After picking the ball up at the fence in the right-center gap, Halliwill fired to Madison Whitaker who then turned and gunned it to Blakely Burch at third for the out. Halliwill did it again versus Bellarmine after making a diving attempt in left-center. She quickly got back up, threw to her relay, shortstop Sierra Huerta, who turned to Burch at third who put down the tag to retire the runner. In game two at Longwood, Halliwill fired to fellow freshman catcher Kat Sackett to retire a runner attempting to score. During the Bellarmine series, not only did Halliwill have the assist on the relay but she tallied 10 putouts with five in game one. The freshman made a diving catch in the top of the first to begin her great weekend. She continued with going on some long runs to take away shots in the gap.

Look Up And Say Goodbye Number 150

It has been no secret that since Head Coach Megan Smith Lyon took over at Marshall, that the Herd can hit the long ball. However, a home run from Sierra Huerta in game two on Saturday against Bellarmine (March 27) was the 150th homer hit by the Herd in Coach Smith Lyon's tenure, in just the 103rd game. Since the beginning of 2019, Marshall has been shattering team records for home runs and is averaging 1.46 per game since Coach Smith Lyon and her staff came to Huntington. In 2019, Marshall smashed the team record for home runs in a season with 79, besting the old mark of 52 set back in 2008. In 2020, the Herd was on pace to go even further with 48 bombs in 25 games and was leading the country in home runs per game with 1.92. Marshall was on pace to reach the century mark by the end of the regular season before the remainder of the year was canceled. So far in 2021, the Herd has an even bigger group of bomb hitters as 11 different players have sent one over the fence. There were eight different players in 2019 and nine in 2020 to tally a homer.

Two More Milestones for Mya Stevenson

Junior Mya Stevenson has been heating up a little more as the season has progressed, and with that she joined more exclusive company in MUSB History. In the first game of the series at Chattanooga, Stevenson came through in the clutch for the Herd with a three-run home run in the top of the sixth inning to tie the game at 8-8. Marshall went on to win 9-8. The home run achieved two separate milestones for the slugger. The homer was the 35th of her career, putting her into a tie with Shaelynn Braxton (2013-15, '17) for second all-time in team history. Also, the 3-run jack moved Stevenson into the 100 RBI Club. She is the 13th member of the group and has 102 after the Chattanooga weekend. She is just behind Alianna Tellis (2009-12) and Morgan Zerkle (2014-17) who both have 104, as well as Rebecca Gamby (2009-12) who is 10th with 105.

Kat Sackett, What a Weekend

Freshman catcher Kat Sackett, who had just had her first career start in game two at Longwood, had a tremendous weekend at the plate in Chattanooga. Sackett bat .500 (6-of-12), slugged 1.083 and drove in seven runs in the three wins. The freshman hit four doubles and the first home run of her career. In fact, Sackett's first four hits of her career were all doubles including her one hit at Longwood. She did not record a single until the third inning of game three at Chattanooga. It still drove in two runs. Sackett still hit her fifth double of the year in the fifth inning before finally sending one over the fence in right-center in the seventh. The Erie, Colo., native has collected an extra base hit in her first four contests.

#LookUpAndSayGoodbye Team 28 Bomb Counter - 25

Marshall picked up right where it left off in 2020 with blasting more home runs in 2021. Through 15 games, Team 28 has hit 25 bombs with 11 different players sending one over the fence. MUSB has also hit at least one homer in every contest except two.

HERD NOTES

Through 12 games in 2021, both hitters have over 30 in their respective careers. Stevenson blasted the 35th of her career at Chattanooga to move into a tie for 2nd all-time with Shaelynn Braxton (2013-15, '17). Harrell is right behind with 34. Four-time All-American, and current minor league hitting coach for the Chicago Cubs, Rachel Folden (2005-08) still holds the all-time mark with 58. However, there are two sluggers who are closing in quickly.

2021 Season Finally Gets Started

Head coach Megan Smith Lyon returns a very talented lineup in her third season. Marshall was picked to finish second in the east division in Conference USA. The offensive lineup that led the nation in 2020 in home runs per game (1.92) comes back nearly intact. The only player who hit a home run for the Herd in 2020 that is not back in the lineup is departed senior Haleigh Christopher who hit six. Marshall has 42-of-48 homers smashed back for 2021.

Junior Mya Stevenson led the team and tied for the NCAA lead with 12 home runs. Graduate Sierra Huerta, who was able to come back for another season, was second on the team with nine and senior Saige Pye cranked out eight in her first year at Marshall. All three players were named to the Conference USA All-Pre-season Team as voted on by the league's coaches.

Senior Aly Harrell was named the 2021 Conference USA Preseason Player of the Year. Harrell, who finished fifth on the team with five home runs, bat .441 a year ago and led the team with 23 walks and an on base percentage of .602. Since 2019, no one in the NCAA has been issued more free passes to first base from a walk or hit-by-pitch, than Harrell. The Gahanna, Ohio native combined for 114 free passes (91 walks and 23 hit-by-pitches) in 89 games, with Bailey Hemphill of Alabama as the next closest player with 86.

Along with the bats, Marshall returns a solid defense with playmakers at every position, and a pitching staff that is bringing back 16-of-18 wins from 2020. Senior Laney Jones finished last season with an 8-2 record and 61 strikeouts. Jones recorded four saves as well, tied for sixth in the NCAA, and tied a program record set back in 2004. Sophomore Ashley Blessin went 7-0 and tossed two shutouts. Senior Megan Stauffer also spent time in the circle with 13 innings and a 1-1 record. The only pitcher not back for Marshall is departed senior Kailee Williamson who threw 22.1 innings in 2020.

Coach Smith Lyon has also gathered a talented group of newcomers that add depth and assistance. Newcomers to the Herd for the 2021 season include five freshmen and six transfers. The freshman class consists of pitcher Brianna McCown, catcher Kat Sackett, infielder Amaya Lee, and outfielders Kay Kay Kenney and Paige Halliwill. The transfers are pitchers Cailey Joyce (La Salle University) and Madi Garay (University of Louisiana), infielders Taylor Robinson (Gulf Coast State College), Camryn Michallas (Gulf Coast State College), and Madison Whitaker (Wright State), and outfielder Ellie Boteler (Detroit Mercy).

Look Up and Say GOODBYE

Marshall returns 42-of-48 homers smashed in 2020. The only player who hit a home run in 2020 not back for 2021 is departed senior Haleigh Christopher who had six. (Career totals through the 2020 season)

Mya Stevenson Shatters Home Run Records

Since Mya Stevenson put on a Marshall uniform, she has been smashing long-held home run records. Everyone knows about her 20 home runs as a freshman that not only led the nation among freshmen, but broke the Herd's freshman record and single-season mark. The freshman record was just a year old as Aly Harrell hit 11 in 2018. However, the single-season record of 18 was set back in 2006 by four-time All-American Rachel Folden (2005-08). This season, Stevenson's power has continued to shine. On March 7 against Rutgers, the sophomore slugger hit her 10th home run and became the fastest player in program history to reach double-digit homers in a season, in just her 22nd game of the year. The old record was again set by Folden in 2006 who hit her 10th home run in her 23rd game of the season. Stevenson's 10th of the year was also her 30th of her career, again reaching that milestone faster than anyone else. It took just 83 games. Folden had been the quickest to 30 before, doing it in 119 games shortly in to her junior season. Over an 11-game stretch last season, Stevenson hit eight homers. Folden hit nine in an 11-game span (Feb. 24-March 12) in 2006. Stevenson is now tied with one of Folden's classmates, Samantha Rodriguez, for third all-time in team history with 32 career home runs. Folden still holds the all-time mark with 58.

The Series...

Marshall has dominated the series with the Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders. The Herd leads 18-1, and is undefeated against MTSU since the Blue Raiders moved into Conference USA before the 2014 season.

The first meeting came all the way back on March 1, 1997 in Knoxville, Tenn. Marshall squeaked out the one-run victory, 8-7. It took almost 14 years for the teams to meet again on Feb. 25, 2011. This time the game was in Athens, Ga., at the Georgia Softball Classic. MTSU came away with the one-run win, 3-2, scoring all three runs in the second inning taking advantage of three-straight errors from the Herd defense. Marshall scored one in the first and one in the third before pitcher Jordyn Fisherback settled in and finished with nine strikeouts. The teams combined for 18 strikeouts as on the other side, Andi Williamson had eight and Natalee Pulver recorded one.

Marshall and Middle Tennessee met for the first time as C-USA opponents, April 5-6, 2014 in Murfreesboro. In game one, the Herd trailed 7-4 before scoring four in the fifth and then one more in the sixth for the 9-8 win. Marshall pulled ahead late in game two for a 10-6 win, after trailing 6-3 after the fourth. The Braxton sisters, Kristina and Shaelynn, both hit home runs in the victory. Following the series, senior Savannah Webster was named C-USA Player of the Week after going 8-of-12 at the plate with two doubles and two home runs. In 2015, the Herd dominated game one with a 9-0 win, recording 12 hits and scoring five runs in the third inning. Game two turned into a slugfest with 26 combined hits and four total home runs as Marshall won 14-7. Shaelynn Braxton and Emileigh Cooper hit homers for the Herd who also set a team record (since broken) with 11 stolen bases. Morgan Zerkle and Elicia D'Orazio had three thefts each. Marshall finished the sweep with a 6-1 win on Sunday and totaled 22 stolen bases over the series.

In 2016, Middle Tennessee's first trip to Huntington, Marshall shut out the Blue Raiders twice and outscored MTSU 23-2 over the three wins. Jordan Dixon was named C-USA Pitcher of the Week after tossing every inning allowing two runs, just nine hits and striking out 30 batters in 19 innings.

In 2017, Marshall returned to Murfreesboro for the Herd's final regular season road trip of the year. In game one, Marshall had a 4-0 lead before scoring four in the top of the seventh for the 8-0 win. Taylor McCord tied a team record with four runs scored while going 3-for-3 with a walk, one double and one homer. The next two games were close contests as the Herd held on for a 3-1 win in game two, highlighted by two solo home runs from S. Braxton. Marshall then took game three 2-0 that included a solo home run from Morgan Zerkle. In 2018 in Huntington, the series was reduced to a Sunday doubleheader due to pouring rain and lightning on Saturday. It was the Herd's senior day and Marshall came out victorious with an 8-6 win in game one, and then a 3-2 walkoff in game two. Freshman Rachel Rousseau came in to pinch hit in the seventh with one out, runners at second and third and the Herd trailing 2-1. Rousseau doubled to left-center scoring both runners.

The last meeting in 2019, late April in Murfreesboro, the Herd's bats came out swinging. Marshall smashed eight home runs in the Saturday doubleheader, outscoring the Blue Raiders 20-2. During the Saturday games, Marshall broke its team record for home runs in a season beginning with three in the first inning of game one. The Herd shut out MTSU in game three as well and Mya Stevenson was named C-USA Player of the Week after hitting .500, slugging 1.500, with four home runs and 10 RBI.

Megan Smith

Head Coach
3rd Season
North Carolina '99

Megan Smith Lyon enters her third season leading the Marshall softball team after being hired as the program's fourth head coach on July 25, 2018. Coach Smith became the fastest to reach 50 wins in program history, needing just 76 games to get there, as she earned her 50th at Marshall with a dominating 8-0 win in five innings over Rhode Island on Feb. 23, 2020.

Coach Smith's record at Marshall is 71-33, a .683 winning percentage, and 464-298 overall (14 years).

Marshall was off to a record-breaking start offensively in 2020 before the year came to an abrupt end after 25 games, due to the cancellation of the season from the outbreak of the COVID-19 virus. The Herd was on pace to eclipse records that were set just the season before. As a team Marshall was batting .357, slugging .643, an on base percentage of .440, and was leading the nation in home runs per game with 1.92 (48 total). The team was on pace to hit the century mark in homers by the end of the regular season. The offensive onslaught started from the beginning of the year and picked up pace during the Pirate Classic (Feb. 28-March 1) as Marshall blasted 15 home runs in five games. The Herd tied its single-game record of five home runs twice. The first time came against the Delaware State Hornets (Feb. 28) and then at No. 11 Kentucky (March 11). Marshall was seventh in the nation in scoring with 7.56 runs per game, with the old team record of 5.40 set in 2015. Other per game averages that displayed the Herd's offensive prowess included 9.84 hits (old record 9.28 in 2015), 1.64 doubles (1.40 set in 2008), 6.96 RBI (4.88 set in 2019), 17.72 total bases (12.31 set in 2017), and 3.48 walks per contest (3.44 set in 2019). Marshall had eight wins by the mercy rule, tied for third-most in a season (2006) in team history.

Coach Smith led a big turnaround for the Herd with a 17-win improvement (tied for second-best in program history) at 42-22.

Her first season with the Herd was a record-breaking one along with leading the team to the Conference USA Championship game for the first time since 2014 as the No. 4 seed in the tournament. Following the 3-1 championship game loss to No. 2 seed Louisiana Tech, Marshall received an invite to the National Invitational Softball Championship and played in the Lynchburg, Va., Regional. Again Marshall fought its way into the regional championship game before falling to the host Liberty Flames. The Herd ended the season tying the record for most wins in a season with 42.

Coach Smith won her debut game for the Green and White with a 5-2 victory over UC-Riverside (Feb. 8) in San Diego, Calif. She earned her 400th career coaching victory with a 10-1 win against Presbyterian (Feb. 16). The Herd finished the early part of the season with a 17-6 record before diving into Conference USA action. Marshall was predicted to finish eighth in the preseason coaches' poll but battled through to a 17-7 record with the series win in 7-of-8 conference matchups. The Herd played well at home with a 13-6 record including two walk-off victories at the Dot in conference action against WKU and Louisiana Tech.

During the season, the team as well as individual players were ranked nationally in many statistical categories. By the end of the season Marshall was ranked in the top 100 in home runs (19th), shutouts (tied for 21st), slugging percentage (27th), on base percentage (40th), runs per game (45th), winning percentage (51st) and fielding percentage (97th). Individually Aly Harrell led the country in total walks (68) and combined free passes with 85 (68 walks and 17 hit-by-pitches). Sierra Huerta led the nation in hit-by-pitches with 30 which was also good for 12th most all-time in NCAA history. Freshman Mya Stevenson led all freshman across Division I with 20 homers. Marshall players in total ranked in the top 50 in the country 17 times by the end of the 2019 season.

The 2019 Marshall softball team broke or tied 15 team records and 15 individual records.

Smith, who sported a career record of 393-265 prior to coming to Marshall, led the Jayhawks to six consecutive 30-win seasons and back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 2014 and 2015 during her nine seasons at the helm. The 2015 campaign yielded the first 40-win season for the program in 23 years, the best start in school history for the second time in her tenure (12-0) and seven consecutive weeks in the top 25. Her 2013 team recorded the program's highest winning percentage (.680) in 21 years, broke the Big 12 record for batting average (.345), the highest mark in the NCAA that season. In 2012, Kansas had a 20-game win streak and, the year before, boasted an 11.5 game won-loss record improvement, the 16th-best turnaround in NCAA history. The 26-3 mark to open the 2011 season was also the best start in the program's history.

"I am extremely honored and excited to be a part of the Marshall family," said Smith. "There is such a strong history and tradition of success within the softball program and I am humbled to now be a part of that. I want to thank Mike Hamrick for this incredible opportunity for me and my son Cooper. I am eager to get to know the players and to get started this fall!"

At Kansas, she coached one All-American, one academic All-American, 20 All-Big 12 selections, 20 NFCA (National Fastpitch Coaches Association) All-Region selections, 50 All-Big 12 Academic Team honorees, three Big 12 Scholar Athletes of the Year and three student-athletes taken in the NPF (National Pro Fastpitch) Draft. The program also set single-season fielding percentage (2014, .979-second-highest nationally) and home run records during her time as head coach (60, 2011).

Prior to her time in Lawrence, Smith was an assistant for LSU for three seasons, where she helped the Tigers in winning the 2007 SEC Tournament and the Stanford Regional in the NCAA Tournament en route to 55 wins. LSU finished the regular season ranked third in the ESPN/USA Today poll. The following season, the Tigers picked up 44 wins on their way to a #9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament. During her tenure, she mentored two All-Americans and five NFCA All-South Region honorees.

Smith started the softball program at Western Carolina and posted a 41-20 record in WCU's inaugural season, earning 2006 Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors, while leading the Catamounts to the league's regular season title. That season, five student-athletes garnered first-team all-league acclaim, with another on the second team and two more were tabbed on the NFCA Southeast All-Region second team. She also coached the conference's 2006 Pitcher of the Year and Freshman of the Year. WCU broke the league's single-season home run record (81) that year, part of an explosive offensive season for the program (third in the nation in home runs per game, 14th in slugging percentage, 19th in scoring).

She also had assistant coaching stops at her alma mater North Carolina (2004), where she helped the Tar Heels reach the NCAA Tournament, and at Charlotte in 2003.

Her first head coaching position came at Young Harris College in Georgia, where she put up a 79-41 record over two seasons.

“We are very much looking forward to Megan leading our softball program,” said Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick. “She is a proven winner and has a reputation for helping mold top-quality student-athletes. Our program is eager for her arrival in Huntington.”

Smith, who is an NCAA Division I Softball Committee member, graduated from North Carolina in May 1999 with a Bachelor of Arts in Physical Education and Recreation Studies. She received her Master of Science in Human Performance and Sport Studies from Tennessee in August of 2000.

A Walkertown, N.C. native, Smith and the late Paul Buske have one son, Cooper.

Smith and assistant coach Corey Lyon, married on May 22, 2020.
