NATIONAL NUMBERS

10

Marshall is tied for the nation's lead in clean sheets this season with 10. The Herd has kept the sheet spotless in 5 of their last 7 matches.

Marshall has the 3rd-best goal differential among teams in this season's NCAA Men's Championships. MU have scored 5 goals, while only allowing 2.

MARSHALL NOTES

- Marshall is the first member of Conference USA history to play for a men's National Championship. Charlotte was the National Championship runner-up to North Carolina in 2011, but the 49ers were members of the Atlantic-10 at the time.
- The Thundering Herd is also just the fourth unseeded team since the 16-team seed era (2003-present) to make the final. Marshall is ranked No. 10, however only eight teams were seeded this season with the reduced field due to the pandemic.
- On May 12, Vitor Dias was named a United Soccer Coaches 1st Team All-American.
- In four years under head coach Chris Grassie, Marshall is 44-24-10 good for a .628 winning percentage, including 27-5-6 (.790) over the last two championship seasons. In the four previous years before Coach Grassie took over, the Herd was 23-40-12, a .387 winning percentage.
- A Herd player has won C-USA Offensive MVP in back-to-back seasons for the 1st time in program history. Milo Yosef won the honor in 2019 and Vitor Dias claimed the award in spring 2021.

- Jamil Roberts is second all-time in team history with 20 career assists. He moved into second with an assist on the game-winner against FAU (4/3).

- Nathan Dossantos has been named C-USA Defensive Player of the Week three times this year including the last two weeks of the season. The centerback was a pivotal piece of a stifling Herd defense all season long. Jamil Roberts in a tweet said "just rename it the Dossantos Trophy already."

- The Marshall defense boasted a streak of not allowing a shot on goal for 322 minutes and 58 seconds of clock time. The Herd allowed a goal to Old Dominion in the 25th minute back on March 27th. ODU did not register another shot on target through the double overtime draw. Marshall then held FAU and UAB without a shot on goal in back-to-back contests. No. 12 Charlotte finally broke the streak at 57:58 that was saved by Oliver Semmler in the Championship match.

- Vitor Dias stepped up in a big way in spring 2021 to lead C-USA in points, and tied for the lead in points per game (1.50) and goals. Dias had two matches with a career-high 2 goals against WVU Tech & again at South Carolina.

- Jamil Roberts was drafted in the 3rd round, No. 77 overall, in the 2021 MLS Superdraft by Sporting Kansas City. It made back-to-back drafts that a Herd player was taken as Paulo Pita was picked No. 24 overall in the first round by Los Angeles FC in 2020.

MARSHALL MEN'S SOCCER

HERD IN THE TOP 25

Back on September 24, 2001, Marshall was 6-1-0 including two wins over future Conference USA opponents UCF and FIU when the Herd received votes in the NCAA/United Soccer Coaches Poll (called the NSCAA - National Soccer Coaches Association of America at the time) for the first time in program history. Marshall was 26th overall, just outside of the Top 25. The Herd then defeated Western Michigan and Northern Illinois in Mid-American Conference action. Those two victories moved Marshall into the Top 25 for the first time with a ranking of 23rd on October 1, 2001. Unfortunately for the Herd, staying in the Top 25 was not in the cards as the squad lost its next two and eventually five of the next six. Two weeks with Marshall University listed as either a ranked or "also receiving votes" team.

On September 24, 2019, exactly 18 years later, Marshall found itself again moving into the national conversation following a 2-1 win over the 2018 National Championship Runners-Up the Akron Zips. The Herd was in the "also receiving votes" spot at 29th overall with a record of 5-1-1. The following week, Marshall traveled to Old Dominion and came away with a convincing 4-1 victory. The Herd was again in the "also receiving votes" category and moved up to just on the cusp of the Top 25 at 26th overall on October 1. Marshall then won two more matches at home over Dayton (2-0) and UAB (6-0). The Herd was still in the conversation, but slipped back one spot to 27th overall on October 8th. The next match could be the one that Marshall needed to move into the Top 25 for the first time in 18 years, a road contest at then No. 5 Charlotte. The Herd went down to Charlotte and battled to a 0-0 draw against one of the top programs not only in Conference USA but in the country. That match was enough to open the eyes of many voters as the Herd jumped up from 27th overall to No. 21 on October 15, its highest ever ranking, and its first Top 25 ranking in 6,588 days. Following the ranking, Marshall traveled west and came back with two more wins over Loyola Marymount (4-1) and San Diego State (5-1). With the convincing wins, the Herd moved up to 15th, a new highest ranking in program history. Marshall's first match after the No. 15 ranking was a 2-2 draw on the road at Wright State. Following the draw, Marshall suffered just its second loss of the season in overtime at Florida Atlantic. Despite the draw and the loss, the Herd stayed in the rankings dropping down to 20th.

Marshall returned to Hoops Family Field after a month on the road, ranked 20th, and defeated #15 Kentucky in front of a record crowd. After the win, Marshall moved up to 14th in the standings. It is the highest ranking in program history. The Herd capped the regular season with a win at No. 19 FIU to take the top overall seed in the C-USA Tournament and the Regular Season Title. It was the first regular season championship for Marshall in C-USA and its first for the program since 2000, back in the Mid-American Conference days. When the rankings came out on Tuesday, Marshall was in its highest spot at No. 13. With the Herd's wins over Kentucky and Charlotte in the Conference USA Tournament, Marshall has now moved up again to a new highest ranking of 11th. The Herd secured a first round bye in the NCAA Tournament. In the spring of 2021, Marshall returned to the rankings in the first posting on March 2 and have stayed there the rest of the year. The Herd's highest ranking of the season and in program history was No. 8 on March 16 and March 23. Marshall went into the regular season finale, and also the Conference USA Championship match, against No. 12 Charlotte and defeated the 49ers 2-0. It was the Herd's 15th victory all-time over a ranked opponent and the seventh in the Coach Grassie era.

AROUND THE HERD

On to the Championship to Face Indiana

The NCAA Tournament journey of the 10th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team rolls on to the National Championship of the College Cup for the first time in program history, as the Herd defeated No. 16 North Carolina 1-0 on Friday. Senior Jamil Roberts scored the game-winner in the 60th minute.

Marshall improves to 12-2-3 for the year and becomes the first member team in Conference USA history to play for a men's National Championship. Charlotte was the National Championship runner-up to North Carolina in 2011, but the 49ers were members of the Atlantic-10 at the time.

The Thundering Herd is also just the fourth unseeded team since the 16-team seed era (2003-present) to make the final. Marshall is ranked No. 10, however only eight teams were seeded this season with the reduced field due to the pandemic.

"It was a great performance," Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "I thought we possessed the ball very well. We could have had a little bit more penetration, but I thought they defended really well. They seemed to have that extra bit of energy, UNC did, being in the Final Four before. (UNC) had a lot of sort-of half-chances around the box, but we knew that we would break them entirely at one point because they had been running, and running and running. And it happened once with Jamil (Roberts) getting in with the shot, but there were three or four more occasions where we were a pass away from having a clear shot at the goal.

"We still have a couple of levels to go which is great to see, something to work on over the next couple of days before the final. Which is the scary thing about this team, I don't think we have played our best football yet. So hopefully we are saving it for the big occasion."

Marshall was outshot 11-1 in the contest, but the Herd made the one count. Five of the Tar Heel's shots were on goal and junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmle was there every time to make the save as the five stops were a season-high. Semmle recorded four saves in the first half as North Carolina had been applying a fair amount of pressure when it got the chance.

"I think we struggled a little bit in the buildup in the first half," Semmle said. "They got some chances from our mistakes. At halftime we talked about it and we fixed it. We knew that they were going to press high, with two strikers. We were aware of it so it was no surprise for us. I think in the second half we handled the pressure better.

"We trust each other, so there is no reason to panic. We know how good we are and how good everyone else on the team is. So if I pass the ball to anyone, I know that they won't lose the ball. It is all about trusting your teammates and that is why we are confident and we don't hesitate under pressure."

Semmle made one last save in the first half in the 42nd minute as the teams went in at the break scoreless.

In the second half, Marshall still maintained possession much of the time in attempting to keep the ball away from UNC and trying to find that break-away chance. Finally, in the 60th minute, redshirt sophomore Milo Yosef had the ball on the far side just entering the 18-yard box. Yosef made a pass to his left that junior Vitor Dias made one quick touch to keep it away from a defender, and then the ball found Roberts charging in from the left. Roberts kept the ball low and sent it right between the legs of the keeper for the goal.

"Going to be honest I needed the flick (from Vitor Dias)," Roberts said about the goal. "Milo (Yosef) drove down the right-hand side and he looked up and he saw me. I think it was just a miscued pass, but Vitor has been doing it all season with a bit of magic in the box. He flicks it around the corner to me and it was up to me finish it and happily I did.

"We have started to get into a groove since midway through the season. We've got the best defense in the country, the best goalkeeper in the country, and that is why we never panic in those late game situations."

Roberts scored his second goal of the NCAA post-season, as he also hit the game-winner in the second half against Georgetown. It was his fourth of the season and 18th of his career putting him into a three-way tie for sixth all-time at Marshall. The goal gave Roberts a career total of 56 points, moving him ahead of Ryan LaPointe (1989-93) into sixth place all-time in team history. Roberts also sits in second place all-time with 20 assists.

Yosef and Dias received the double assist. Dias now leads the team in helpers with six, just passing Roberts. Yosef notched his fourth assist of the year. North Carolina attempted to turn up the pressure over the final 30 minutes. However, Marshall's defense was up to the task. UNC fired off five shots in a 15-minute span that either missed wide, hit the crossbar, or were deflected by Herd defenders. Semmler only needed to make one save in the second half coming in the 81st minute, that was also the final shot of the game for the Tar Heels. Semmler recorded his 10th clean sheet of the season to set a Marshall single-season program record. He surpassed Daniel Withrow (2009-12) who had 9.5 in 2012.

The Herd did not need to wait long to find out its opponent for the championship match. No. 3 Indiana defeated No. 2 Pittsburgh 1-0 as Herbert Endeley scored the game-winner in the 79th minute.

Coach Grassie remains confident and unwavering about his team.

"It will probably be the same themes of what we talked about all along," coach Grassie said when asked about what he will talk to the team about on Monday night.

"We talk about being brave on the ball. We talk about being together as a team and the brotherhood and the family atmosphere that we've got. And then talked about working really hard and then not panicking and playing our game.

"We don't have to play the best game of our lives to win the National Championship. We just have to play well."

Dias Honored as a First Team All-American

Marshall men's soccer junior midfielder Vitor Dias added another honor to his incredible season as he was named a United Soccer Coaches First Team All-American, the organization announced on Thursday. Dias continues to be honored on a national level while his skills have been showcased on the national stage.

Dias is the second All-American in program history and the first to be named to the first team. Teammate Milo Yosef was honored as a second team All-American selection in 2019. This season alone, Dias was named Conference USA Player of the Year, Offensive MVP, Co-Midfielder of the Year, First Team All-Conference, a MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist and All-Southeast Region First Team.

Dias leads the Herd in scoring this year with six goals and 17 points. He is tied for the team lead with five assists. The Brasilia, Brazil native is a magician on the pitch with his footwork and ball-handling skills which were on full display when Marshall scored in the 70th minute against Georgetown in the Elite 8. Starting in the middle of the field, Dias went to his right and passed back to a teammate, who then directed a pass back to Dias on the right side of the 18-yard box. He then dribbled down to the back of the six-yard box by the end line, evading defenders. Dias sent a pass that deflected off a Hoya defender to the left side where Jamil Roberts tapped it in. In the Sweet 16, Dias fired in the final penalty kick to defeat

No. 1 Clemson. The match was tied at 1-1 throughout all 110 minutes and then entered the PK shootout. After Olive Semmler made a great save to keep things tied at 6-6, that opened the door for Dias who blasted a left-footed shot to the far side and the celebration ensued.

Soccer Earns Southeast Region Staff of Year

For the second year in-a-row, the Marshall men's soccer coaches were honored as the United Soccer Coaches Southeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Head coach Chris Grassie along with assistant coaches Petsa Ivanovic, Josh Faga and Kyle Sniatecki, graduate assistant Anthony Uriarte and strength and conditioning coach Sam Black have done an amazing job with the Herd and brought an exciting style of play to Huntington.

In four seasons, coach Grassie and his crew have taken Marshall to back-to-back Conference USA Championship Titles, trips to the NCAA Tournament, and now in 2021 playing in the Final Four of the College Cup for the first time in team history. The Herd has also consistently been ranked in the top 25, with a few times up in the top 10, each week.

Over the last two years, Marshall is a combined 27-5-6 which is good for a .789 winning percentage. The Herd has been dominant on the field this season with nine shutouts with the most recent, a 1-0 clean sheet over the defending National Champions No. 8 Georgetown in the Elite 8.

Marshall has been a powerhouse on the pitch with a stifling defense and an attacking offense. The Herd has outscored its opponents 28-8, and outshot the competition 254-99 and 111-28 on goal.

This season, coach Grassie was named Conference USA Coach of the Year for the second consecutive time and the team piled up numerous awards yet again, with the goal of a National Championship still in front of them.

Dias, Dossantos & Schneider Named All-Region

The 10th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team earned more accolades as three players were selected to the United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region Team, the organization announced Wednesday. Junior Vitor Dias was named to the First Team, with junior Nathan Dossantos and sophomore Max Schneider were named to the Second Team.

Dias has been an absolute star for the Herd in his second season at Marshall. The Brasilia, Brazil native was named the Conference USA Player of the Year, Offensive MVP, Co-Midfielder of the Year and First Team All-Conference. Dias leads the team in scoring with six goals, is tied for the team lead with five assists and has 17 points. His fancy footwork and great ball-handling skills have allowed him to either create chances for himself or opportunities for his teammates. He assisted on Marshall's first goal against Fordham in the NCAA Tournament, nailed the game-winning penalty kick in the shootout against Clemson and assisted on the game-winner against Georgetown in the Elite 8. Dias is also a MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist.

Dossantos is an incredible transfer find for Marshall. The junior defender came to Huntington after two seasons at Duquesne and has been a leader at center back. The Oakville, Ontario, Canada native has helped lead a stingy Herd defense that in 16 matches has allowed just 28 shots on goal, eight goals, and has delivered nine shutouts including the Elite 8 win over Georgetown. Dossantos and the Marshall defense had three matches this season where the opponent did not even have a shot on goal. He was named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week three times and earned First Team All-Conference honors. Schneider has been a rock for the Herd in the midfield. The Cologne, Germany native is a force on the defensive end as well as on the attack. Schneider uses his height, speed and leaping ability to win a lot of challenges anywhere on the field. He owns a strong leg that was displayed with a blast on a free kick against Clemson that gave the Herd a 1-0 lead. Schneider was named Second Team All-Conference USA after earning All-Freshman Team honors in 2019.

Dias Named MAC Hermann Trophy Semifinalist

Marshall men's soccer junior midfielder Vitor Dias was named a Missouri Athletic Club (MAC) Hermann Trophy semifinalist, the organization announced Tuesday. The MAC Hermann Trophy is the most prestigious individual award in college soccer and is presented annually to the most outstanding male and female players of the year. The award this year was pushed back to accommodate the seasons that were affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. The winners will be announced May 27 at the 2021 MAC Hermann Trophy Press Conference and Banquet taking place at the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis.

Dias leads the 10th-ranked Herd and Conference USA in scoring. He is also the first player in program history to be named a semifinalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy.

"Very happy for Vitor to be nominated," Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "After such a tough year dealing with COVID, and him getting stuck in Brazil for nine months, then having to spend three weeks in Mexico, all before starting this season, it's truly a great accomplishment. He's a great player and is really fun to watch. He also always does his defensive work, which sometimes goes unnoticed as his attacking play is so eye-catching. Very happy for another program first, and let's hope he wins the award as he's 100-percent deserving."

The junior has stepped up big time for Marshall in his second season in Huntington. The Brasilia, Brazil native has six goals, four assists and 16 points. Dias netted three goals and three assists in 2019. In the 2021 spring season, Dias started off hot with two goals and two assists against WVU Tech, career-highs in both categories. He was named Conference USA Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts. He continued in the very next match with the game-winner against East Tennessee State.

Dias scored Marshall's lone goal in a loss at Akron before lighting up the net for two more goals in the next match at South Carolina. He assisted on the game-winner at then No. 11 Kentucky. Dias also had the assist on Marshall's first goal against Fordham in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Dias made a great move around a Rams' defender that left him on the grass, then found Milo Yosef trailing for the score.

By the end of the regular season, the league noticed the talent of Dias as he was named C-USA Player of the Year, Offensive MVP, Co-Midfielder of the Year and First Team All-Conference. Dias was not selected for any postseason awards in 2019. His speed, smooth moves and excellent ball-handling skills make him a terror in the open field or even in tight spaces.

Dias does not take shots very often as he is tied for fifth-most on the team with 20. However, he makes it count when he does take a shot as he has 12 on goal, third-best on the team, and of course six for scores.
