The Journey of Team 28

2021 Conference USA

Charlotte: 28 all-time meetings, tied 14-14, last meeting March 16-17, 2019 - Herd won series 2-1

The Charlotte 49ers are 27-16 overall, and lead the C-USA East Division at 11-5. The 49ers took 3-of-4 from Middle Tennessee, Florida Atlantic and FIU before splitting with WKU. All four games against the Hilltoppers on the road were close as the largest margin for either team was three, as WKU won the last game 6-3 on a walkoff 3-run homer. Since the WKU series, Charlotte has played four non-conference games and suffered losses in each one. The 49ers fell 10-2 against UNC Greensboro, dropped a doubleheader at (RV) Notre Dame (3-0 & 11-6), and then lost 3-0 at No. 22 James Madison on Wednesday. In the loss at JMU, Lindsey Walljasper went the distance allowing eight hits, however her defense was able to make some plays to help keep the 49ers in the contest. On offense, Charlotte managed six hits but struck out 11 times as Odicci Alexander improved to 10-0. This season, Charlotte is batting .286, and .283 in conference play, and the team is led by C-USA Player of the Year candidate Bailey Vannoy. The junior catcher has been explosive at the plate in her whole career, but in 2021 she is batting .411 with 21 doubles and 12 home runs, slugging .816 and has 115 total bases. The 49ers have totaled 84 doubles, 33 home runs and seven triples in 43 contests. Charlotte is also not afraid to steal as the team is 54-of-65 with Spenser Gray (15-of-15) and Vannoy (14-of-18) leading the way. In the circle, the team has a combined 3.36 ERA and 209 strikeouts. Walljasper leads with a 3.05 ERA, 12-8 record, 12 complete games and 94 strikeouts in 149.1 innings. Madelyn Wright is next with a 3.08 ERA, 12-6 record and 75 strikeouts in 100 innings. Head coach Ashley Chastain is in her second season at the helm. In the shortened 2020 season, she led the team to a 14-13 record, and she is now 41-29 overall.

Marshall Softball Talking Points-Coaches

Head Coach Megan Smith Lyon, 3rd Season, Overall Division I record: 392-262/Overall Collegiate Record: 471-302

- Third season with Marshall after being hired in July of 2018 as the fourth head coach in Marshall softball history.
- Marshall record is 78-38. Has quickly established Marshall as a powerful offensive threat. After setting program record with 79 home runs in 2019, then in 2020 Herd led NCAA in home runs per game with 1.92 (48 total) and was on pace for over 100 before remainder of year was canceled due to COVID-19 pandemic.
- Herd bats hit 150th home run during coach Smith Lyon's tenure in game two vs. Bellarmine on March 27. It was just the 103 game of her time at Marshall.
- Became the fastest coach in program history to reach 50 wins (76 games) with 8-0 victory over Rhode Island on Feb. 23, 2020.
- Won 1st game with the Herd in MU debut vs. UC-Riverside, 5-2 win (Feb. 8). Went 4-1 during the first tournament at the helm for Marshall.
- Earned 400th career coaching win Feb. 16, 2019 with 10-1 victory over Presbyterian. Herd also tied single-game, program record with 5 HRs in the win.
- Spent the past nine seasons as the head coach at Kansas University. Recorded six 30+ win seasons including a 40-15 mark in 2015. Finished with 273 wins.
- Took the Jayhawks to NCAA Regionals in 2014 & 2015. In 2015 the team spent 7-consecutive weeks ranked in the top 25.
- Kansas led the Big 12 and the nation with a conference record .345 batting average. Also set team records with a .979 fielding percentage in 2014 (2nd highest nationally), and 60 home runs in 2011.
- Team sported a 20-game winning streak in 2012.
- Boasted an 11.5 game won-loss record improvement in 2011 from the year before, the 16th-best turnaround in NCAA history. Kansas opened the season with a 26-3 record, the best start in program history.
- While at Kansas, the Jayhawks had one All-American, one Academic All-American, 20 All-Big 12 selections, 20 NFCA All-Region selections, 50 All-Big 12 Academic Team honorees, three Big 12 Scholar Athletes of the Year and three players taken in the NPF Draft.
- Actually coached against Marshall in her first season at Kansas, during the Florida Lipton Invitational hosted by the Florida Gators. Marshall won the first matchup 7-3 on Feb. 19 and then the Jayhawks won the second contest, also by a score of 7-3, on Feb. 21.
- Started the softball program at Western Carolina and finished with a 41-20 record in the first season (2006) and a 16-4 Southern Conference mark and was named SoCon Coach of the Year. The Catamounts won regular season title along with 6 players named all-conference (5 1st team), 2 All-Region 2nd team and the 2006 Pitcher of the Year (Mendy McKenzie). Western Carolina broke conference single season home run record with 81 and ranked 3rd in NCAA in home runs per game, 14th in slugging percentage and 19th in scoring.
- Spent two seasons as the head coach at Young Harris and had a 79-41 record. Finished as the NJCAA Regional Runner-up both years.
- Prior to coaching at Kansas, spent three seasons as an assistant at LSU under Yvette Girouard. Tigers won the 2007 SEC Tournament, the Stanford Regional in the NCAA Tournament and finished the year with 55 wins. LSU ended the regular season 3rd in the ESPN/USA Today Poll.
- Also an assistant coach at Charlotte in 2003 and for her alma mater UNC in 2004. The Tar Heels made the NCAA Tournament (Waco regional) that season.
- Played third base at UNC for Donna J. Papa from 1996-99. Still listed fifth all-time in career assists with 380. Team finished first in the ACC in 1996 and 1998. Won 30+ games in a season three times, record of 125-106 during playing days.

HERD NOTES

Last Time Out: Herd Wins Series at FIU

Marshall won its second-consecutive league series taking three games on the road over the FIU Panthers. The Herd took the first game 3-1 behind another great pitching performance from Cailey Joyce as well as some standout defensive plays. On offense, Mya Stevenson started what became a great weekend at the plate with two doubles and scored two runs. Saige Pye obliterated a pitch to left for a solo home run and Katie Adams had an RBI driving home Stevenson in the fourth with a single.

Marshall came out flying right from the start in game two. Grace Chelemen started the day with a single to right on the very first pitch. What followed was an offensive onslaught that put the Herd up for good as 12 batters came to the plate and Marshall put up seven runs. Sierra Huerta hit a homer to left for a three-run shot. Camryn Michallas drove in two runs and Saige Pye also drove in two with one RBI in each of two plate appearances in the inning. Brianna McCown came out in relief and pitched five innings with five strikeouts. Stevenson hit two more doubles and scored once. Megan Stauffer entered the circle in the sixth and finished the game as the Herd won 12-6.

FIU bounced back in game three, also the nightcap of the Saturday doubleheader, with a 5-2 victory. Aly Harrell hit her 39th career home run in the first inning, however the Herd couldn't muster much offense the rest of the way. Stevenson had one double, her fifth of the series and scored in the second after Katie Adams drove her home with a double as well.

On Sunday, Marshall was playing for the series win and FIU was playing for a split. The Panthers scored first in the bottom of the second, but then the Herd responded in the top of the third as Saige Pye hit a two-run homer to give Marshall the lead. The inning continued as Stevenson and Paige Halliwill both scored on a single from Grace Chelemen. FIU cut the Herd's lead to one, 4-3, in the bottom of the sixth. Marshall shot back in the top of the seventh to deflate the Panthers' momentum. Stevenson led off the inning with yet another double, her sixth of the series, and then Adams drilled a home run to right field. Kat Sackett added one more exclamation point with a solo homer to right-center. Stauffer once again finished the game in the circle, getting FIU to go down in order. The Herd took the game 7-3, and the series.

Stevenson finished the weekend with eight hits, six going for doubles. She and Pye ended the series on seven-game hitting streaks.

Mya Stevenson Heats Up in Conference Play

Junior Mya Stevenson has been heating up at the plate, and at the right time. Stevenson struggled through the beginning of the season as her batting average was under .100 through the first eight games, and had picked it up to .171 by the end of non-conference action. Since then, the Mesquite, Texas native is batting .390 in C-USA games and .438 over the last 10 contests. Over that 10-game stretch, Stevenson has 14 hits, six doubles, three home runs, is slugging .906 and has scored nine runs. Her six doubles all came in the series at FIU as she hit two in each of the first two games and then one in each of the last two. During the trip to Miami, Stevenson bat .571 (8-of-14) and scored six runs. Her home runs in C-USA play have come against Middle Tennessee (one) and Florida Atlantic (two). It is the perfect time for the record-breaking slugger's bat to catch fire as the Herd enters the final stretch.

Saige Pye Ties Single-Game Doubles Record

Senior Saige Pye made her presence at the plate known in the series with the Florida Atlantic Owls driving in three runs in each of the three games that she played. However, in the third game (game two of the Saturday doubleheader) Pye tied a program record that had only been achieved twice since 2000 and had not been done since 2005. Pye hit three doubles to three-straight plate appearances, all to right-center. Her first of the day followed a glass-shattering home run by Aly Harrell in the third inning that looked like things were really going to take off for Marshall's offense. The Owls ended the inning and Pye was stranded at second. Her second double of the day scored one run in the fifth, while her third of the day was the most clutch scoring two runs to tie the game at 7-7. The last time a Marshall player hit three doubles in a game was Deanna Tourville against the Ohio Bobcats on April 16, 2005, 16 years and one day earlier. The first time the feat was accomplished since 2000 was by Hall of Famer Nichole Corrigan against Miami (OH) on May 5, 2000. Single game records from 1994-99 are incomplete.

Madison Whitaker Ties Team Assists Record

Senior Madison Whitaker recorded eight assists in Marshall's game two loss at Middle Tennessee, tying the program record (going back to 2000) for most in a single game. Whitaker began the game listed as the starter at second. She moved to shortstop for the beginning of the bottom of the first after starter Sierra Huerta went out with a leg injury in the top of the inning. The senior transfer from Wright State then had a busy day as she also tallied six putouts. In all, Whitaker was responsible for 14 outs and had no errors.

Kay Kay Kenney Reaching Base

Freshman Kay Kay Kenney earned her first two career starts in the lineup, playing in right field in games two and three against Bellarmine (March 27-28). In game two, Kenney reached base all three times at the plate with two walks and then getting on from an error. In game three, Kenney drew two more walks but sandwiched those around her first career hit that also happened to be a home run. Her two-run shot out to left gave Marshall a 7-0 lead. After the game Kenney said, "I didn't even know it was gone until I rounded second. That was when I noticed and started screaming." Kenney became the 11th different player to hit a home run this season for the Herd.

Paige Halliwill Steals Away Hits Roaming the Outfield

Freshman centerfielder Paige Halliwill has made an impact at the plate, but her presence in the outfield this year has been undeniable. Leading into Conference USA play, Halliwill has recorded 26 putouts as well as three assists in 15 games. She has made diving catches, run down and caught potential extra base hits and thrown runners out. Twice, Halliwill has started a relay that has eliminated a runner attempting to stretch a double into a triple. The first was against Saint Francis on March 6th. After picking the ball up at the fence in the right-center gap, Halliwill fired to Madison Whitaker who then turned and gunned it to Blakely Burch at third for the out. Halliwill did it again versus Bellarmine after making a diving attempt in left-center. She quickly got back up, threw to her relay, shortstop Sierra Huerta, who turned to Burch at third who put down the tag to retire the runner. In game two at Longwood, Halliwill fired to fellow freshman catcher Kat Sackett to retire a runner attempting to score. During the Bellarmine series, not only did Halliwill have the assist on the relay but she tallied 10 putouts with five in game one. The freshman made a diving catch in the top of the first to begin her great weekend. She continued with going on some long runs to take away shots in the gap.

Look Up And Say Goodbye Number 150

It has been no secret that since Head Coach Megan Smith Lyon took over at Marshall, that the Herd can hit the long ball. However, a home run from Sierra Huerta in game two on Saturday against Bellarmine (March 27) was the 150th homer hit by the Herd in Coach Smith Lyon's tenure, in just the 103rd game. Since the beginning of 2019, Marshall has been shattering team records for home runs and is averaging 1.46 per game since Coach Smith Lyon and her staff came to Huntington. In 2019, Marshall smashed the team record for home runs in a season with 79, besting the old mark of 52 set back in 2008. In 2020, the Herd was on pace to go even further with 48 bombs in 25 games and was leading the country in home runs per game with 1.92. Marshall was on pace to reach the century mark by the end of the regular season before the remainder of the year was canceled. So far in 2021, the Herd has an even bigger group of bomb hitters as 11 different players have sent one over the fence. There were eight different players in 2019 and nine in 2020 to tally a homer.

Two More Milestones for Mya Stevenson

Junior Mya Stevenson has been heating up a little more as the season has progressed, and with that she joined more exclusive company in MUSB History. In the first game of the series at Chattanooga, Stevenson came through in the clutch for the Herd with a three-run home run in the top of the sixth inning to tie the game at 8-8. Marshall went on to win 9-8. The home run achieved two separate milestones for the slugger. The homer was the 35th of her career, putting her into a tie with Shaelynn Braxton (2013-15, '17) for second all-time in team history. Also, the 3-run jack moved Stevenson into the 100 RBI Club. She is the 13th member of the group and has 102 after the Chattanooga weekend. She is just behind Alianna Telles (2009-12) and Morgan Zerkle (2014-17) who both have 104, as well as Rebecca Gamby (2009-12) who is 10th with 105.

Kat Sackett, What a Weekend

Freshman catcher Kat Sackett, who had just had her first career start in game two at Longwood, had a tremendous weekend at the plate in Chattanooga. Sackett bat .500 (6-of-12), slugged 1.083 and drove in seven runs in the three wins. The freshman hit four doubles and the first home run of her career. In fact, Sackett's first four hits of her career were all doubles including her one hit at Longwood. She did not record a single until the third inning of game three at Chattanooga. It still drove in two runs. Sackett still hit her fifth double of the year in the fifth inning before finally sending one over the fence in right-center in the seventh. The Erie,

HERD NOTES

Colo., native has collected an extra base hit in her first four contests.

Double It Up

Since 2019, Marshall has been known for hitting the home run (see the next Herd Note). However, the Herd has also been racking up doubles as well. In 2021, Marshall leads Conference USA and is third in the country in doubles per game with 2.04. The Herd piled up 13 doubles in the series at FIU, led by Mya Stevenson who had six! Since Head Coach Megan Smith Lyon took over, the Herd set a team record for doubles in 2019 with 83 (1.30 per game), was on pace to break that mark in 2020 with 41 in 25 games (1.64 per game) before the remainder of the year was canceled, and is now in the top 10 in the country. Katie Adams has been a doubles machine, leading the team with nine and she is 27th in the NCAA in doubles per game (.36). Kat Sackett of course began her career with four doubles and has seven. Twelve different players have hit a double in 2021 with eight of them hitting two or more. Two times this season Marshall has had two players hit at least two doubles in the same game. Sierra Huerta and Sackett accomplished the feat in game two of a doubleheader at Chattanooga on March 20, and the Saige Pye (3) and Aly Harrell (2) did it again in game two against Florida Atlantic on April 17, 2021. Prior to this year, the last time that the Herd had two players hit two doubles in the same was Feb. 28, 2018 against Kent State with Taylor McCord and Harrell. With the doubles and the homers, Marshall leads C-USA and is 15th in the country in slugging percentage (.553).

Harrell and Stevenson Race up the MUSB Home Run Charts

Aly Harrell and Mya Stevenson have been in a friendly competitive arms race since the two became teammates in 2019. Through 27 games in 2021, Aly is second all-time with 39, and Mya is right behind with 38. The two were tied until Aly hit No. 39 in the FIU series. Aly and Mya both surpassed Shaelynn Braxton (2013-15, '17) in the series at Middle Tennessee. Harrell hit her 35th in game two to tie Stevenson and Braxton. Harrell then cranked her 36th career bomb in the third inning of game three to take the lead. Three innings later, Stevenson moved ahead of Braxton and tied Harrell with her 36th. Stevenson jumped back out on top with two homers in the series with FAU, then Harrell came back with two more home runs to tie it right back up. The two have combined for 66 home runs since becoming teammates in 2019 (Harrell hit 11 her freshman season in 2018) and 77 overall for the Herd. Four-time All-American, and current minor league hitting coach for the Chicago Cubs, Rachel Folden (2005-08) still holds the all-time mark with 58. However, there are two sluggers who are closing in quickly.

2021 Season Finally Gets Started

Head coach Megan Smith Lyon returns a very talented lineup in her third season. Marshall was picked to finish second in the east division in Conference USA. The offensive lineup that led the nation in 2020 in home runs per game (1.92) comes back nearly intact. The only player who hit a home run for the Herd in 2020 that is not back in the lineup is departed senior Haleigh Christopher who hit six. Marshall has 42-of-48 homers smashed back for 2021.

Junior Mya Stevenson led the team and tied for the NCAA lead with 12 home runs. Graduate Sierra Huerta, who was able to come back for another season, was second on the team with nine and senior Saige Pye cranked out eight in her first year at Marshall. All three players were named to the Conference USA All-Preseason Team as voted on by the league's coaches.

Senior Aly Harrell was named the 2021 Conference USA Preseason Player of the Year. Harrell, who finished fifth on the team with five home runs, bat .441 a year ago and led the team with 23 walks and an on base percentage of .602. Since 2019, no one in the NCAA has been issued more free passes to first base from a walk or hit-by-pitch, than Harrell. The Gahanna, Ohio native combined for 114 free passes (91 walks and 23 hit-by-pitches) in 89 games, with Bailey Hemphill of Alabama as the next closest player with 86.

Along with the bats, Marshall returns a solid defense with playmakers at every position, and a pitching staff that is bringing back 16-of-18 wins from 2020. Senior Laney Jones finished last season with an 8-2 record and 61 strikeouts. Jones recorded four saves as well, tied for sixth in the NCAA, and tied a program record set back in 2004. Sophomore Ashley Blessin went 7-0 and tossed two shutouts. Senior Megan Stauffer also spent time in the circle with 13 innings and a 1-1 record. The only pitcher not back for Marshall is departed senior Kailee Williamson who threw 22.1 innings in 2020.

Coach Smith Lyon has also gathered a talented group of newcomers that add depth and assistance. Newcomers to the Herd for the 2021 season include five freshmen and six transfers. The freshman class consists of pitcher Brianna McCown, catcher Kat Sackett, infielder Amaya Lee, and outfielders Kay Kay Kenney and Paige Halliwill. The transfers are pitchers Cailey Joyce (La Salle University) and Madi Garay (University of Louisiana), and infielders Camryn Michallas (Gulf Coast State College), and Madison Whitaker (Wright State).

Look Up and Say GOODBYE

Marshall returns 42-of-48 homers smashed in 2020. The only player who hit a home run in 2020 not back for 2021 is departed senior Haleigh Christopher who had six. (Career totals through the 2020 season)

Mya Stevenson	12 - 32 career (tied for 3rd all-time with Samantha Rodriguez 2005-08)
Sierra Huerta	9 - 18 career (34 combined with JUCO career, 17 for Moorpark College 2017-18)
Saige Pye	8 - 9 career (hit one as a freshman at Georgia Tech in 2018)
Aly Harrell	5 - 30 career (4th all-time)
Blakely Burch	2 - 10 career
Rachel Rousseau	2 - 9 career
Katie Adams	3 - 3 career (1st of her career at Norfolk State)

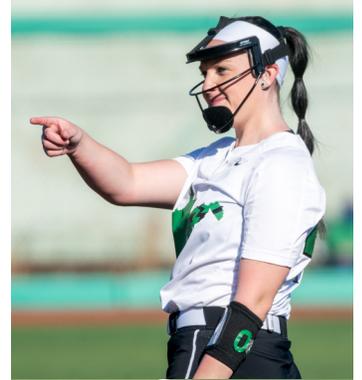

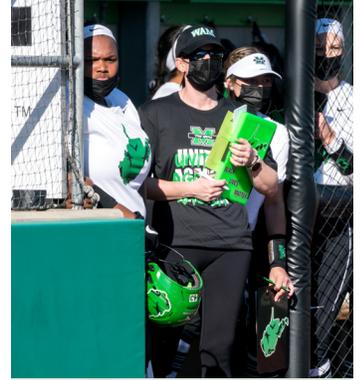

Mya Stevenson Shatters Home Run Records

Since Mya Stevenson put on a Marshall uniform, she has been smashing long-held home run records. Everyone knows about her 20 home runs as a freshman that not only led the nation among freshmen, but broke the Herd's freshman record and single-season mark. The freshman record was just a year old as Aly Harrell hit 11 in 2018. However, the single-season record of 18 was set back in 2006 by four-time All-American Rachel Folden (2005-08). This season, Stevenson's power has continued to shine. On March 7 against Rutgers, the sophomore slugger hit her 10th home run and became the fastest player in program history to reach double-digit homers in a season, in just her 22nd game of the year. The old record was again set by Folden in 2006 who hit her 10th home run in her 23rd game of the season. Stevenson's 10th of the year was also her 30th of her career, again reaching that milestone faster than anyone else. It took just 83 games. Folden had been the quickest to 30 before, doing it in 119 games shortly in to her junior season. Over an 11-game stretch last season, Stevenson hit eight homers. Folden hit nine in an 11-game span (Feb. 24-March 12) in 2006. Entering the 2021 season, Stevenson is tied with one of Folden's classmates, Samantha Rodriguez, for third all-time in team history with 32 career home runs. Folden still holds the all-time mark with 58.

Team 28 Bomb Counter - 37

Marshall picked up right where it left off in 2020 with blasting more home runs in 2021. Through 23 games, Team 28 has hit 37 bombs with 11 different players sending one over the fence. MUSB has also hit at least one homer in every contest except three.

Team 28 is also tops in C-USA, and 9th in the NCAA in home runs per game with 1.61.

Warrior Award

In memory of Emileigh Cooper (three photos to the right), who the Herd Family tragically lost in February of 2016, the Marshall softball team established the Warrior Award in 2017, that will be given out each year to the player that best personifies the qualities that Cooper held as a member of the Herd from 2012 to 2015.

As a senior in 2015, Cooper roared to the forefront as a leader for Marshall, batting .434 and being named second team All-Conference USA. From walk-on to All-Conference performer, Cooper knew how to get her teammates fired up and ready on game day.(Pause in video for WEARE clip).... In 2015, players were told to pick one word that held significant meaning to them and Cooper chose "Warrior". Her identity statement for that season was "I am a confident Warrior. I am the fire in C-USA that will always keep burning." On March 13, 2015 at Dot Hicks Field, Cooper came to plate in the 10th inning with Rebecca Myslenski at first, as Marshall was locked against WKU in a scoreless game. Before Emileigh went up to the plate she turned around and looked at teammate Elicia D'Orazio who was due up next and said, "Don't worry about getting ready. I'm going to end this now." Two pitches later she did just that hitting a walk-off home run. A Warrior.

Rebecca Myslenski won the inaugural Warrior Award in 2017 as a member of the MUSB Family who stuck through major injuries, being medically disqualified, and stayed with the team taking on a major role with the staff. Myslenski played sparingly during her freshman and sophomore seasons due to knee injuries. However, when she was in the game she could be relied on to make the tough plays, especially while playing at first base. She had to stop playing after her sophomore year, but instead of leaving the team or Marshall, Myslenski came back as a student assistant and helped the Herd over the next two years in many capacities. She still kept a great attitude despite not being able to play, and did whatever she could to help MUSB.

Madi Marshall won the award in 2018. The senior showed grit and fight while struggling through some health issues to always have a great attitude and could keep the team in great spirits. Madi's electric personality was well in line with Cooper's as Madi was able to learn from Cooper during Madi's freshman year in 2015. She kept a smile on her face even when not in the starting lineup and again would do whatever was needed to help MUSB. Madi played second base, outfield, came in as a pinch runner or a pinch hitter. She hit the only home run of her career as a grand slam against FIU during senior weekend in 2016. Madi also set a team record as a pinch runner, scoring a run in 10-straight contests in 2017.

Hayden Ellis earned the honor in 2019. The senior catcher battled through adversity on and off the field. She stuck with the Herd backing up Taylor McCord at catcher through her first three years. As a senior, Hayden fought her way back from a shoulder injury that took away most of her junior season to have a career year. She set career-highs in every category and even had an explosive weekend against Louisiana Tech at home. During the Saturday doubleheader, as the Herd celebrated its Strikeout Cancer Day, Hayden belted three home runs in the two games with her father in attendance who had going through his cancer battle. The next day, on Emileigh Cooper Day, she was given the Warrior Award on the field before the series finale.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic cutting the season short after just 25 games, no Warrior Award was given in 2020.

The Warrior Award came right back in 2021, and the latest winner received the honor on April 29. Blakely Burch came to Huntington in the summer of 2017 after spending her freshman season at USC Upstate. She mixed in right away with her new team playing in 48 games with 43 starts. Over the next four years, Blakely developed into a leader on and off the field, and came through clutch in many situations, whether with her bat or her glove. She starred in the 2019 season with 60 starts, and setting the team record for triples in a season with seven. You could always tell she was looking to take that next 60 feet with occasionally needing to slam on the breaks at second and having to settle for a double. She smacked a home run against WKU that put the Herd up and eventually led to a series win. Blakely had two walkoffs in her career with one in 2020 against East Tennessee State, and probably more famously her 2-run double to defeat Louisiana Tech on, none other than Emileigh Cooper Day. Blakely was off to a great start in 2020, including blasting a home run against her former team that helped lead Marshall to another victory, before unfortunately going down with a knee injury in the 14th game of the season, it would be her last of the year. However, that Warrior Mentality took over as she worked her way back from surgery, while also finishing school, planning a wedding and getting accepted into the nursing program at Jacksonville. In her career with the Green & White, Blakely has played in 148 games, has 88 hits, with 38 going for extra bases, including nine triples good for fourth all-time in program history, and 27 hit-by-pitches tied for sixth at MUSB. Her fire and passion was always present on the field and in the dugout, and will forever have a permanent place in Marshall Softball History.

The Series...

Marshall and Charlotte have met many times over the years, including 10 times before becoming Conference USA foes. The series dates back to 1996 as the Herd took the first two games in Charlotte. Marshall won again in 1997 before the 49ers took the next two at a tournament in Chapel Hill. The Herd captured the next two games, in 1999 and 2000, before Charlotte took over in the series. The 49ers won the next five contests including two shutouts in 2010, the last time the programs met as non-conference opponents.

The first C-USA series came in 2014 in Charlotte as the 49ers took the first two games before Marshall came back with a 2-1 victory on Sunday to hold off the sweep. Charlotte won the series again in 2015, this time the Herd won the first game before falling in the next two.

The 49ers visited Huntington for the first time in 2016 and swept a struggling Marshall squad that managed to score just three runs all weekend.

In 2017, things turned around for the Herd with yet another visit to the Queen City. This time Marshall swept Charlotte and continued its winning streak that improved to 11 in-a-row after the Sunday win. The teams had a tight battle in the first game. The Herd took a 3-2 lead in the top of the seventh, taking advantage of a 49ers' error. Then Abigail Estrada had the inning of a lifetime in left field recording all three outs including a diving catch, and one grab near the wall to help end the game. In game two, Marshall won 8-4 with 12 hits, four doubles, one home run and stole three bases. The Herd scored four runs in the fifth to help put the game away. Marshall dominated right from the start in game three as Jordan Dixon held Charlotte to just one hit, and Estrada hit a grand slam as part of a 6-run, sixth inning. The Herd won 8-0.

In 2018, the series returned to Huntington and Marshall came out victorious in the series again taking 2-of-3. Aly Harrell hit a home run in the game two loss, but drove in three runs in the game three victory.

The Herd went back to Charlotte in 2019, and the bats went off. Mya Stevenson hit for the cycle in game one and scored three times. Harrell also hit a homer and Abigail Tolbert earned her 12th win of the year. In game two, Stevenson hit two doubles and a home run driving in a career-high seven runs. Hannah Giammarino drilled a homer as well, had three hits and scored three times in the 13-0 shutout. Charlotte managed just three hits off Kailee Williamson as she improved to 6-0. On Sunday, it was the 49ers' turn to bring out the bats as the home team won 11-6. Hayden Ellis hit a home run for Marshall, but Charlotte racked up 16 hits including a 5-for-5 day from senior Kiersten Berrier. Following the series, Stevenson was named Conference USA Player of the Week.

Megan Smith

Head Coach
3rd Season
North Carolina '99

Megan Smith Lyon enters her third season leading the Marshall softball team after being hired as the program's fourth head coach on July 25, 2018. Coach Smith became the fastest to reach 50 wins in program history, needing just 76 games to get there, as she earned her 50th at Marshall with a dominating 8-0 win in five innings over Rhode Island on Feb. 23, 2020.

Coach Smith's record at Marshall is 78-38, a .672 winning percentage, and 471-303 overall (14 years).

Marshall was off to a record-breaking start offensively in 2020 before the year came to an abrupt end after 25 games, due to the cancellation of the season from the outbreak of the COVID-19 virus. The Herd was on pace to eclipse records that were set just the season before. As a team Marshall was batting .357, slugging .643, an on base percentage of .440, and was leading the nation in home runs per game with 1.92 (48 total). The team was on pace to hit the century mark in homers by the end of the regular season. The offensive onslaught started from the beginning of the year and picked up pace during the Pirate Classic (Feb. 28-March 1) as Marshall blasted 15 home runs in five games. The Herd tied its single-game record of five home runs twice. The first time came against the Delaware State Hornets (Feb. 28) and then at No. 11 Kentucky (March 11). Marshall was seventh in the nation in scoring with 7.56 runs per game, with the old team record of 5.40 set in 2015. Other per game averages that displayed the Herd's offensive prowess included 9.84 hits (old record 9.28 in 2015), 1.64 doubles (1.40 set in 2008), 6.96 RBI (4.88 set in 2019), 17.72 total bases (12.31 set in 2017), and 3.48 walks per contest (3.44 set in 2019). Marshall had eight wins by the mercy rule, tied for third-most in a season (2006) in team history.

Coach Smith led a big turnaround for the Herd with a 17-win improvement (tied for second-best in program history) at 42-22.

Her first season with the Herd was a record-breaking one along with leading the team to the Conference USA Championship game for the first time since 2014 as the No. 4 seed in the tournament. Following the 3-1 championship game loss to No. 2 seed Louisiana Tech, Marshall received an invite to the National Invitational Softball Championship and played in the Lynchburg, Va., Regional. Again Marshall fought its way into the regional championship game before falling to the host Liberty Flames. The Herd ended the season tying the record for most wins in a season with 42.

Coach Smith won her debut game for the Green and White with a 5-2 victory over UC-Riverside (Feb. 8) in San Diego, Calif. She earned her 400th career coaching victory with a 10-1 win against Presbyterian (Feb. 16). The Herd finished the early part of the season with a 17-6 record before diving into Conference USA action. Marshall was predicted to finish eighth in the preseason coaches' poll but battled through to a 17-7 record with the series win in 7-of-8 conference matchups. The Herd played well at home with a 13-6 record including two walk-off victories at the Dot in conference action against WKU and Louisiana Tech.

During the season, the team as well as individual players were ranked nationally in many statistical categories. By the end of the season Marshall was ranked in the top 100 in home runs (19th), shutouts (tied for 21st), slugging percentage (27th), on base percentage (40th), runs per game (45th), winning percentage (51st) and fielding percentage (97th). Individually Aly Harrell led the country in total walks (68) and combined free passes with 85 (68 walks and 17 hit-by-pitches). Sierra Huerta led the nation in hit-by-pitches with 30 which was also good for 12th most all-time in NCAA history. Freshman Mya Stevenson led all freshman across Division I with 20 homers. Marshall players in total ranked in the top 50 in the country 17 times by the end of the 2019 season.

The 2019 Marshall softball team broke or tied 15 team records and 15 individual records.

Smith, who sported a career record of 393-265 prior to coming to Marshall, led the jayhawks to six consecutive 30-win seasons and back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 2014 and 2015 during her nine seasons at the helm. The 2015 campaign yielded the first 40-win season for the program in 23 years, the best start in school history for the second time in her tenure (12-0) and seven consecutive weeks in the top 25. Her 2013 team recorded the program's highest winning percentage (.680) in 21 years, broke the Big 12 record for batting average (.345), the highest mark in the NCAA that season. In 2012, Kansas had a 20-game win streak and, the year before, boasted an 11.5 game won-loss record improvement, the 16th-best turnaround in NCAA history. The 26-3 mark to open the 2011 season was also the best start in the program's history.

"I am extremely honored and excited to be a part of the Marshall family," said Smith. "There is such a strong history and tradition of success within the softball program and I am humbled to now be a part of that. I want to thank Mike Hamrick for this incredible opportunity for me and my son Cooper. I am eager to get to know the players and to get started this fall!"

At Kansas, she coached one All-American, one academic All-American, 20 All-Big 12 selections, 20 NFCA (National Fastpitch Coaches Association) All-Region selections, 50 All-Big 12 Academic Team honorees, three Big 12 Scholar Athletes of the Year and three student-athletes taken in the NPF (National Pro Fastpitch) Draft. The program also set single-season fielding percentage (2014, .979-second-highest nationally) and home run records during her time as head coach (60, 2011).

Prior to her time in Lawrence, Smith was an assistant for LSU for three seasons, where she helped the Tigers in winning the 2007 SEC Tournament and the Stanford Regional in the NCAA Tournament en route to 55 wins. LSU finished the regular season ranked third in the ESPN/USA Today poll. The following season, the Tigers picked up 44 wins on their way to a #9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament. During her tenure, she mentored two All-Americans and five NFCA All-South Region honorees.

Smith started the softball program at Western Carolina and posted a 41-20 record in WCU's inaugural season, earning 2006 Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors, while leading the Catamounts to the league's regular season title. That season, five student-athletes garnered first-team all-league acclaim, with another on the second team and two more were tabbed on the NFCA Southeast All-Region second team. She also coached the conference's 2006 Pitcher of the Year and Freshman of the Year. WCU broke the league's single-season home run record (81) that year, part of an explosive offensive season for the program (third in the nation in home runs per game, 14th in slugging percentage, 19th in scoring).

She also had assistant coaching stops at her alma mater North Carolina (2004), where she helped the Tar Heels reach the NCAA Tournament, and at Charlotte in 2003.

Her first head coaching position came at Young Harris College in Georgia, where she put up a 79-41 record over two seasons.

“We are very much looking forward to Megan leading our softball program,” said Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick. “She is a proven winner and has a reputation for helping mold top-quality student-athletes. Our program is eager for her arrival in Huntington.”

Smith, who is an NCAA Division I Softball Committee member, graduated from North Carolina in May 1999 with a Bachelor of Arts in Physical Education and Recreation Studies. She received her Master of Science in Human Performance and Sport Studies from Tennessee in August of 2000.

A Walkertown, N.C. native, Smith and the late Paul Buske have one son, Cooper.

Smith and assistant coach Corey Lyon, married on May 22, 2020.
