* From 1981-2000, NCAA volleyball played a best-of-five match to 15 points for each set and true sideouts. From 2001-2007, the format switched to a 30-point per set rule with a point scored on every serve (rally scoring). In 2008, the format switched to a 25-point per set rule with a point scored on every serve.

*Hitting percentage is kills minus errors divided by total attacks

2005 REGULAR SEASON & TOURN. CONFERENCE USA CHAMPIONS

Team huddle during the Championship match against the Houston Cougars.

The Final Point: Senior Amber Sims (far right) tallies her 19th kill of the match to give Marshall the five-set victory.

The Herd rushes the floor to celebrate its first Conference USA Tournament Championship.

Marshall had fought its way to the Mid-American Conference Championship match in both 2003 and 2004, before ultimately falling to the Ohio Bobcats each time. The Herd then made the move to Conference USA for the 2005 season, and Marshall dominated its new opponents.

The Herd entered league play with an 8-4 record including defeating West Virginia in four sets to take home the Golden Ball trophy. Marshall's first C-USA opponent was the UTEP Miners, and the Herd dominated for the sweep. In fact, Marshall swept its first five league matches. Following UTEP, the Herd ran through East Carolina twice, then Southern Miss and UCF before finally having a match go to four sets with a 3-1 win over UAB on the road.

Marshall lost its first, and only, conference match at Memphis in five sets. The Herd led 2-1 before the Tigers battled back to take the last two sets in narrow fashion. Following the loss, Marshall got right back on track and only lost one set, to Houston the very next match, throughout the rest of the regular season. After the four-set victory at Houston, the Herd rolled off sweeps over Rice, Tulane, Tulsa, SMU, Southern Miss, UCF, UAB and enacted some revenge on Memphis with a sweep at home on Senior Day. Marshall ended the regular season with a 23-5 record and had a nine-match winning streak on the way out to Houston as the Rice Owls hosted the Conference USA Tournament.

Sophomore Kelly Anne-Billingy, who was the 2004 MAC Freshman of the Year, earned the first of three-straight C-USA Player of the Year Awards. Senior Katie Stein was named Setter of the Year and Mitch Jacobs was named Coach of the Year. Billingy and Stein were both honored as First Team All-Conference selections. Senior Nickie Sanlin was named Second Team All-Conference and sophomore Stephanie Cahill was selected to the Third Team.

In the first round, the Herd found itself in a hole early, trailing 2-0 to the No. 9 seed UCF Knights. Marshall came storming back taking the next three sets to earn the win in five to survive and advance. Sanlin led the Herd with 18 kills and a .406 hitting percentage. Stein recorded a triple-double with 50 assists, 10 kills and 10 digs.

Marshall then faced No. 4 UTEP in the second round, and despite having swept the Miners back in September, the Herd again found itself in a 2-0 hole after the first two sets. Marshall turned it on in the third set for a 30-24 win to stay alive, then a close 30-28 victory to force the match to the fifth and decisive set. The Herd dominated the final frame 15-6. Billingy scored the final two points to finish with 37 kills. Her tally was good for second-most all-time behind her own record of 38 set earlier in the year against Memphis (Billingy went on to set a new mark of 44 kills against Houston in 2006). Stein finished with 73 assists. As a team, Marshall hit .362 in the third set, .300 in the fourth and .500 in the fifth.

The comeback kids were hitting their stride and advanced to its third-straight conference championship match.

In the title match (full recap on the next page), Marshall battled through another five-set thriller. This time it was not to come from behind, but instead to hold off a No. 2 Houston Cougars squad that was fighting for its first C-USA title since 1997. The Herd took the first set 30-26, and then the Cougars tied things up with a 30-25 win in the second set. Marshall won the third, 30-28, and again Houston tied the match reversing the score with a 30-28 win in the fourth. The Cougars started the fifth set with a 3-0 run, before the Herd scored five-unanswered points to take the lead. Houston pulled back within one, 5-4, but that was the closest the Cougars got for the rest of the set. The Herd dominated the remainder of the way, outscoring Houston 10-4. Senior Amber Sims scored the final point with a kill, and the celebration began.

Marshall pulled off the Championship Double, earning the Regular Season title and then winning the Tournament. The Herd received the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, its second-ever trip and first since 1995. Sanlin and Billingy were named to the All-Tournament Team with Billingy being honored as the MVP.

The Herd took on Ohio State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, and the season came to an end, falling in three sets to the Buckeyes in Columbus.

Throughout the year, Marshall was led by the trio of seniors in Sanlin, Stein and Sims who closed out their Herd careers with a Championship. Stein set team records with 5,888 career assists and 200 service aces. She set single-season marks with 13.77 assists per set and tied another with 0.55 aces per set. Sanlin finished her career with 573 kills and 312 total blocks, good for sixth all-time. Sims ended her career with 1,138 kills fourth all-time (now ninth), and third all-time in total blocks with 428.

Billingy and Stein were both named All-America Honorable Mentions by season's end.

2005 REGULAR SEASON & TOURN. CONFERENCE USA CHAMPIONS

Houston - With a flair for the dramatic for the third consecutive day, the Thundering Herd volleyball team won a five-game thriller over No. 2 seed Houston to claim the Conference USA Tournament Championship, 3-2 (30-26, 25-30, 30-28, 28-30, 15-8), in its inaugural season in the league.

"I'm so proud of these girls," Marshall head coach Mitch Jacobs said. "I think I've aged 10 years this weekend, but to see these girls win it is awesome. They are champions because they play with the heart of champions."

In front of a nationally televised audience on CSTV, the Thundering Herd and Cougars faced off in a classic battle of No. 1 versus No. 2 at Autry Court on the campus of Rice University.

Unlike in the previous two days of the tournament, Marshall jumped out and looked impressive in game one to take the early advantage. Houston would fight back and claim game two and it looked like the two squads were headed for a classic battle to decide who would be the champions and grab the NCAA automatic bid.

In games three and four, neither team back downed as Marshall was able to claim the third stanza 30-28. Houston would counterpunch and take the fourth by the same score to force the thrilling game five finish in which the Herd would come out on top.

The Cougars laid claim to an early 3-0 lead in the final game, but Marshall wasn't about to quit. The Herd would get on the board with a kill by senior Amber Sims, then after a pair of Houston errors and kills by Nickie Sanlin and Stephanie Cahill, the Herd found itself on top 5-3. From that point, Marshall would go on a 10-5 run thanks to three kills by Kelly-Anne Billingsy and four more by Sims.

"After we got down in game five, something happened and all of a sudden we were just clicking," Jacobs said. "It was pure hustle and playing cohesive and believing we could get it done was what got us the win in game five. Everyone saw a great match tonight because the momentum was constantly shifting."

Billingsy led all players with 28 kills and was named the tournament MVP after posting 79 kills on the weekend.

"After last season, we said we were going to win a championship and go to the NCAA," Billingsy said. "So all season long it was a complete team effort to reach that goal. Everyone goes out and gives 110 percent all the time and it paid off today and we reached our goal."

Billingsy and teammate Nickie Sanlin made the all-tournament team for the Herd and for the fifth-year senior, getting to the championship was a long-time coming.

"Three years of playing in a championship game finally paid off," Sanlin said of the Herd's third straight tournament final after falling in the finals of the Mid-American Conference for two years in a row. "It feels so good to finally win a championship and not be on the other side."

Senior counterparts Katie Stein and Sims also had impressive tournaments to guide the Herd to the title.

"This is a dream come true," said Stein, who finished with 75 assists. "It's been a long-time coming. I didn't think we'd ever make it to this. To win the regular season, the tournament and get a chance to go to the NCAA Tournament is the perfect ending and nobody deserves it more than this team."

The senior class led the Herd to four-straight 20-win seasons for the first-time in modern volleyball history at Marshall and for Sims to finish with such a dominating performance is icing on the cake.

"It's everything I ever wanted and hoped it would be," said the senior who finished the match with 19 kills, a .615 hitting percentage and eight block assists. "After being in this position and for three years and finally pulling it off in an exciting match is amazing. It was really nice to have one of my best games ever tonight. It's like icing on the cake."

Jacobs added. TOURNAMENT

"Amber Sims was the best player out there today. She's the reason we're sitting here right now as champions."

It was not only the seniors that stepped up big on the night, Billingsy poured in 28 kills with 19 digs, Cahill came on strong late to finish with 12 kills and 14 digs and Maggie Arias had 20 digs on the night.

As a team, the Herd also finished with 13.5 blocks and 83 total digs to hold Houston to a .211 hitting percentage. Marshall hit .290 as a team, including a .400 clip in game five while shutting down Houston a negative .043 in the final game.

With the win on top of claiming the Conference USA title and NCAA bid, the Herd now has its most wins since 1995 at 26-5. Marshall is also on a 12-match winning streak, its longest in history. The win also marked the first-time Marshall has won three-straight five game matches in the history of the program. It will be Marshall's second NCAA appearance of all-time. The first was in 1995 when it won the Southern Conference title.

The Thundering Herd will now wait for the NCAA selections next weekend to find out where it is seeded and where it will play.

2005 NCAA First Round

COLUMBUS, Ohio - The Ohio State Buckeyes used a well-balanced offensive attack to knock off the Marshall Thundering Herd volleyball team 3-0 (30-25, 30-26, 30-22) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament Friday night.

The Buckeyes hit .296 as a team on the night, and held the Herd to a .137 mark, its second lowest of the season thanks to 10 OSU blocks.

"We didn't play the type of offense we're used to or capable of tonight," Marshall head coach Mitch Jacobs said. "You've got to give Ohio State a lot of credit. They got into our heads a little bit and took advantage of it."

Marshall finished the year 26-6 with the loss and Ohio State improves to 21-8 and advances to play Ohio University in the second round for the right to advance to the regionals in Palo Alto, Calif.

The loss caps the Herd's remarkable run where it picked up the most wins since 1980 and compiled the longest winning streak in school history, winning its last 12 matches on the way to a Conference USA title before tonight's NCAA loss.

"To be C-USA champs and make it to the NCAA Tournament, I'm so proud of this team," Jacobs said. "I know these seniors and this team set a goal to make it here and they had an outstanding year."

Marshall graduates three seniors, Katie Stein, Amber Sims and Nickie Sanlin and the class will be missed. Prior to the arrival of the '05 class Marshall was coming off a 6-21 season, the senior class then led Marshall to four-straight 20-win seasons and it finished it off with a tournament championship and subsequent trip to the NCAA Tournament.

"Ever since our freshman year, making it to the NCAA was a dream of ours and to end our careers here is bittersweet," Stein said. "I wish we could have had a better outcome and caused some damage in the tournament, but I couldn't have asked for a better season to end on."

Statistically, Marshall was led by Kelly-Anne Billingsy with 13 kills. Sims finished her career with 10 kills and a .368 hitting percentage. Ohio State was led by Ami Stevens with 13 kills, while Nicole Britenriker hit .615 on the night with nine kills.

MARSHALL VOLLEYBALL 2019 BLOCK PARTY

The Thundering Herd came up with some dominant performances at the net in 2019, and it played a major factor in the Herd's 8-win improvement from 2018. After averaging just 1.52 blocks per set, a total of 164.5, in 2018, Marshall end the year averaging a whopping 2.80 blocks per set and 283 total rejections. The Herd led Conference USA and ranked 12th in the nation in blocks per set. Marshall was ranked as high as third on Oct. 2.

VCU led the country with 3.18 per set
8 - Stanford - 2.88
9. Minnesota - 2.86
10. Stephen F. Austin - 2.81
11. Purdue - 2.81
12. Marshall - 2.80

Sophomore Isa Dostal and junior Destiny Leon were 1 and 2 in the conference in blocks per set. Dostal averaged 1.36 (131 total) and ranked 17th in the nation. Leon averaged 1.30 per set (130 total) and 37th nationally. Both players well surpassed their 2018 season totals. Dostal had 56 and Leon had just nine in 2018.

With Leon and Dostal both over 100 total blocks for the year, it was the first time since 2006 that Marshall has had two players with 100 or blocks in the same season. Chelsea Lazar had 121 (35 solo, 86 assists) and Uche Ndubisi had 116 (25 solo, 91 assists).

Along with Dostal and Leon, the Herd has plenty of others lending a helping hand:

Ciara Debell - 0.75 per set, 76 total
Mion Weldon - 0.74 per set, 67 total
Megan Taylor - 0.75 per set, 30 total
Ivana Trencheva - 0.50 per set, 19 total

Marshall recorded a season-high 22 blocks against Morehead State on Sept. 19. It was the first time the Herd tallied at least 20 blocks in a single match since Nov. 1, 2003 versus Bowling Green (20). The 2003 Herd Volleyball team averaged 2.57 blocks per set and finished the year with 369.5 (they played 37 matches). They also hit 10 or more rejections in a contest 18 times, with a record of 12-6 in those matches.

As a team Marshall hit double-digits in swats in 16-of-28 matches and tallied an 11-5 record in those contests. In 2019 alone, a Herd player recorded 10 total blocks (combined solo & assists) five times:

Destiny Leon - 10 (1 solo, 9 assists) at Saint Louis Sept. 14
Destiny Leon - 14 (4 solo, 10 assists) at Morehead State Sept. 19
Leon's 14 blocks 2nd most in MU History - Herd Record 15 by Juanita Venable vs. Furman Oct. 27, 1995**
Megan Taylor - 10 (10 assists) at Morehead State Sept. 19
Destiny Leon - 11 (4 solo, 7 assists) vs. No. 19 Rice Oct. 18
Isa Dostal - 10 (10 assists) at FIU Nov. 8

Going back to 2007, only four times did a Marshall player record at least 10 blocks in a single match:

Isa Dostal - 10 vs. Furman Aug. 31, 2018
Jillian Shemanski - 13 at SMU Sept. 23, 2012
Jalicia Ross - 11 vs. UCF Nov. 7, 2008
Jalicia Ross - 10 vs. Southern Miss Nov. 9, 2008

HEAD COACH

Ari Aganus

Head Coach
2nd Season
North Alabama '11

Head coach Ari Aganus enters her third season at the helm for Marshall in the fall of 2021. She was named the head coach in January of 2019.

Aganus is 28-15 in her two seasons.

The Herd continued to show improvement and fight in the spring of 2021, after the fall of 2020 was postponed due to COVID-19. Marshall finished 10-5 and 8-4 in C-USA play. By the end of the year, the Herd was honored with the C-USA Libero of the Year (Sarah Schank), the Defensive Player of the Year (Destiny Leon), and four players were named All-Conference. Ciara Debell, a First Team All-C-USA selection, was also honored as Second Team All-South Region. Off the court, nine players were listed on the Commissioner's Honor Roll, two received the Academic Medal and Schank was an All-Academic selection.

In her first season in 2019, coach Aganus led the Herd to an 18-9 overall record, and eight-win turnaround from the previous season. The improvement of eight wins is tied for the seventh-best turnaround in program history. She also led Marshall to a 9-5 finish in Conference USA action and the No. 4 seed in the C-USA Tournament after being picked to finish 10th in the preseason coaches' poll. The Herd ended the regular season with a six-match winning streak including two comeback victories on the road at FIU and Florida Atlantic.

Marshall saw one of its biggest improvements at the net as the Herd finished the year 12th in the NCAA in blocks per set (2.80). Marshall was ranked as high as third in the country in blocks on October 2. The Herd's top two players in blocks, Isa Dostal and Destiny Leon, finished first and second in C-USA in blocks per set as the two players far surpassed their blocking totals from a year ago. Marshall's 283 total team blocks was the most by a Herd team since the 2003 squad. The Thundering Herd's 2019 block party included its first 20-plus team block performance (22 at Morehead State) since 2003, most matches with 10 or more blocks (16) since 2003 and the first time since 2006 with two players totaling over 100 blocks each for the year. Marshall players also totaled 10 or more blocks individually in a contest five times in 2019, a feat that was accomplished just four times between 2007 and 2018.

Under the first-year coach's tutelage, senior Amber Weber and redshirt junior Ciara Debell also enjoyed banner seasons. Weber, the team's defensive and vocal leader, recorded almost 500 digs and ended her career as Marshall's all-time leader in digs per set (4.05). Debell was named Conference USA Offensive Player of the Week three times, first team all-conference and All-South Region. Debell's all-around numbers helped the Herd to the eight-win improvement as she tallied 422 kills, 254 digs and 76 blocks.

Herd players etched their names into the Marshall single-season record book in eight places in 2019 under coach Aganus.

Aganus, a native of Shannon, Illinois, comes to Huntington after three seasons as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for Grand Canyon University. The Lopes compete in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) and are based in Phoenix, Arizona.

Aganus served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of San Francisco for the 2015 season, where the Dons went 17-14, including a 13-match winning streak and tournament wins in the San Francisco Invitational, Utah State Invitational, St. John's Kaiser Classic and San Francisco Challenge.

Prior to San Francisco, Aganus was the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Clemson. In her lone season with the Tigers, Aganus helped guide the squad to an 18-13 overall record and assisted in the addition of five newcomers to the ACC mainstay. Prior to her stint working with the Tigers, Aganus spent a season at Wofford, working primarily with the defensive specialists while also serving as the team's recruiting coordinator, travel coordinator and film specialist. That season, the Terriers advanced to the Southern Conference Tournament for the first time in seven seasons.

Aganus worked as a graduate assistant at North Alabama in 2011 and 2012, where she mentored the outside hitters. Aganus also played two seasons at North Alabama, earning a degree in communications and claiming an All-Gulf South Conference nod as a senior. North Alabama went to the NCAA Division II Tournament in both of her seasons competing for the Lions.

Prior to closing her collegiate playing career at North Alabama, Aganus helped lead Kishwaukee College (Ill.) to its third consecutive NJCAA Division II National Championship. She was team captain and All-Arrowhead Conference selection during the championship season, which culminated not only in the title but also with a jaw-dropping overall record of 56-3.

Ari is married to Jake Aganus, an Athletic Trainer for Marshall and former Volleyball Director of Operations.
