Beating the Best

- Annually playing one of the toughest schedules in the nation, WVU has earned a win over a top-25 opponent in 14 of the last 16 seasons, including once in 2021.
- What's more, the squad also has 16 top-15 wins in the last 15 years, including 12 top-10 victories, most recently on Aug. 30, 2021, vs. No. 3 Pitt.
- Nine of the squad's 16 top-15 victories since 2006 have come in Morgantown.

Two is Enough

- The Mountaineers have found a winning combination in scoring multiple goals in a match. The squad has won 35 of its last 37 contests when finding the back of the net twice or more.

Defend the Net

- Since the start of the 2019 season, the Mountaineers have done their part in limiting opponents' chances in the final third. WVU has allowed five shots on goal or fewer 30 times out of 36 matches, good for 83.3%. That includes nine of 10 matches in 2020-21, and all five contests so far this fall.
- What's more, West Virginia has conceded just three shots on goal or fewer 20 times since 2017, including four times this season.
- The last time WVU held an opponent without a single shot on goal was on Sept. 3, 2016, against Princeton.
- Along with limiting opponent scoring opportunities, the Mountaineers have earned three clean sheets in five matches in 2021.

Veteran Presence

- Seventeen Mountaineers have earned the starting nod in at least one career match at WVU.
- WVU features two players who have started at least 60 career matches, three who have started at least 30 matches, five who have started at least 20 matches and nine players who have started at least 10 matches.

- Additionally, West Virginia appears at No. 6 in this week's College Soccer News poll, up three spots from last week, as well as No. 10 by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Together Again

The Mountaineer coaching staff - head coach Dan Stratford, associate head coach Andy Wright and assistant coach Nick Noble - has a unique connection with the WVU men's soccer program. The trio played together at WVU, as Noble started in goal for the Mountaineers from 2003-06, while Stratford and Wright were mainstays of the Mountaineer lineup from 2004-07. All three went on to play professionally.

- During their time as players in the program, they led West Virginia to a Big East regular-season championship in 2006, as well as three NCAA Tournament appearances.
- What's more, Stratford, Wright and Noble have made their mark on the WVU record book, as Stratford ranks No. 1 all-time in four different categories, including matches played (85) and game-winning points (31), Wright ranks inside the top three in eight categories and Noble tops the leaderboard in a variety of goalkeeping stats, including wins (45).

On the Move

- On June 14, 2021, Conference USA announced the addition of WVU as an affiliate member for the sport of men's soccer. The Mountaineers will begin play in C-USA in 2022.
- West Virginia has been a member of the Mid-American Conference since 2012, winning the league's regular-season championship in 2018, and the MAC Tournament title in 2019.
- The addition of West Virginia in 2022 will bring Conference USA to 10 men's soccer members with Charlotte, FIU, Florida Atlantic, Marshall, Old Dominion and UAB and affiliate members Coastal Carolina (starting in fall 2021), Kentucky and South Carolina.

Non-Con Conquerors

- Since the start of the 2018 season, WVU is 20-8-3 against nonconference opponents. That includes 4-0-1 in 2021, 2-0 in 2020-21, 6-4-1 in 2019 and 8-4-1 in 2018.
- In that time, the Mountaineers are 13-3-2 in nonconference matchups at home.
- Coach Dan Stratford is 6-0-1 against non-MAC opponents in his head-coaching tenure at WVU.

What a Week

- Junior midfielder Luke McCormick received plenty of recognition for his highly productive week from Aug. 30-Sept. 3.
- After opening the scoring with a 21st-minute goal in a 2-1 win over then-No. 3 Pitt on Aug. 30, and tallying the first assist of the night in WVU's 3-1 victory over then-No. 17 Penn State on Sept. 3, the Derby, England, native was named the United Soccer Coaches Men's Division I Player of the Week (Sept. 8) and the TopDrawerSoccer.com Player of the Week (Sept. 7). He also was featured on TDS' Men's Team of the Week.
- Additionally, he took home the MAC Player of the Week (Sept. 6) honor, as well as WVU Student-Athlete of the Week (Sept. 7) accolades.
- McCormick became the first Mountaineer men's player to earn a national weekly honor by United Soccer Coaches since Jarrod Smith on Sept. 11, 2006.

Morris Collects CoSIDA Honors

- Fifth-year senior defender Kevin Morris was named a 2020-21 CoSIDA Academic All-America First Team selection in July 2021.
- Morris became the squad's first Academic All-American since Jack Elliott garnered the award in three consecutive years from 2014-16.
- In all, West Virginia has had eight Academic All-Americans, including four first-team honorees.
- Morris, who earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics with a 3.90 GPA in December 2020, has been named a CoSIDA Academic All-District performer in each of the last two seasons.
