

Game Notes – N.C. Central at Marshall – September 18, 2021

Attendance for Saturday's game at Joan C. Edwards Stadium was 24,833.

Marshall had won 10 consecutive games when scoring first.

The first quarter reception of 49 yards by Marshall's Corey Gammage is the longest of his career. Gammage also posted his first career 100-yard receiving game.

Thundering Herd running back Rasheen Ali scored on a 49-yard run in the third quarter, the longest run of his career. Ali also had his first career 100-yard rushing game.

MU quarterback Grant Wells passed for at least 300 yards for the third consecutive game, the first Herd QB to accomplish that feat since Rakeem Cato, who threw for 300-plus yards against Purdue, Tulsa and Southern Miss during the 2012 season. Wells now has five career 300-yard passing games (13 career games).

Marshall cornerback Steven Gilmore recorded a second quarter sack, his first this season.

Senior defensive back Cory McCoy recovered his first fumble at Marshall (fourth of his collegiate career). McCoy also recorded his first sack at Marshall.

Herd receiver Willie Johnson had season highs in receptions (three) and receiving yards (66), and caught his 11th career touchdown.

MU running back Sheldon Evans had a career long reception of 56 yards and established a new career high with 65 receiving yards.
