HERD NOTES

Countdown to 1,000 Points

Marshall has two players closing in on reaching the 1,000-point plateau in their careers. Sophomore Savannah Wheeler and senior transfer Brianah Ferby. The two have combined for almost 400 points this season.

Wheeler has 992 points, all with the Herd, and is averaging 16.0 points per game throughout her career. The Catlettsburg, Ky., native began her time with the Green & White scoring 403 points, 13.4 per game in 2019-20. She followed up with 323 points, 17.0 per contest, in the just 19 games of the shortened COVID season of 2020-21. In 2021-22, Wheeler has reached double-figures in all 13 games with 266 points and is averaging 20.5 per game, tops in the league and 18th in the NCAA. She has played just 62 games in her career and has scored 10+ in 52. Her last game scoring in single-digits was Feb. 27, 2021 with seven points at North Texas. Wheeler would be the 23rd player in team history to reach 1,000 points.

Ferby, with 938 total points in her career, came to Marshall in the summer of 2021 after playing four seasons at Austin Peay. She was able to use her COVID year of 2020-21 to gain a fifth year of eligibility and decided to get a change of scenery. Ferby left Austin Peay with 819 points in 107 games. She scored 225 as a freshman in 2017-18, then 249 in 2018-19, 136 points in 2019-20 and finally 209 in the shortened 2020-21 season with a career-best 9.1 points per game. Ferby began her Marshall career as an igniter off the bench but has recently been in the starting lineup. She is scoring 9.2 points per game and has 119 so far in her Herd career.

Taking Care of the Basketball

In 2021-22, Marshall has been taking care of the basketball, and leading the way has been senior point guard, Aaliyah Dunham. The Herd ranks 67th in the NCAA and first in Conference USA in Assist-to-Turnover Ratio at 1.04. Dunham is 20th in the nation and also leads the league at 2.65. Since 2010-11, Marshall has not been ranked in the top 100 in mid-January or finished a season that high. The Herd finished the 2015-16 season at 107th (0.91).

Individually, Dunham is the first Herd player ranked in the top 100 in Assist-to-Turnover ratio since Norrishia Victrium in the 2015-16 season. In mid-January, Victrium was 48th in the NCAA (2.15). She finished the season 43rd, and tops in C-USA, at 2.11.

Marshall also leads C-USA and ranks 19th in fewest turnovers per game at 12.6. The last time the Herd ranked in the top 20 in mid-January, was the 2013-14 season as Marshall was also 19th with 13.2 per game. The Herd finished that season 89th with 14.7 per contest. The last time Marshall finished a season in the top 50 in fewest turnovers per game was the 2014-15 season when the team ranked 44th with 14.0 per game.

Defensive Hot Streak

Since giving up 77 points in a loss to Coppin State on Dec. 4, Marshall's defense has been tough to score against. The Herd held six-straight opponents under 60 points, giving up an average of 52.3 points per game, with a 5-1 record over that span.

Dec. 12 at St. Bonaventure	L, 50-47
Dec. 15 vs. Alderson Broaddus	W, 88-56
Dec. 20 vs. Oakland	W, 79-58
Dec. 30 vs. Louisiana Tech	W, 62-44
Jan. 1 vs. Southern Miss	W, 72-55
Jan. 8 at Florida Atlantic	W, 66-51

It is the longest streak of holding opponents under 60 since Jan. 17-Feb. 5, 1976. Marshall's tough defense has also helped the Herd begin Conference USA play 3-0 for the first time since 2011-12.

Wheeler and Ferby Carry Herd Passed Owls

Savannah Wheeler (24) and Brianah Ferby (20) combined for 44 of Marshall's 66 points (66.7%) in a comeback win at Florida Atlantic. The Herd trailed the Owls by three going into the fourth, 38-35. Wheeler and Ferby then caught fire in the final period as Wheeler put up 11 points and Ferby exploded for 15. Marshall outscored FAU 31-13 in the fourth. Wheeler scored the first four points of the quarter to give the Herd a 1-point lead, 39-38. After the Owls hit a three to go back up by two, Ferby scored the next eight points over the next 1:26, putting Marshall up by six, 47-41. The two stars also took advantage of the free throw opportunities late, combining to go 9-of-10 at the line in the period. They shot 7-of-8 (87.5%) from the field and 3-of-4 from three as well in the quarter. It was the first time the Herd had two players with 20 in a game since Feb. 1, 2020, against FAU. Wheeler had 25 and Kristen Mayo scored 20 in the 85-75 win.

Herd Defense Clips Golden Eagles

Marshall began C-USA play 2-0 for the first time since the 2018-19 season after taking down Southern Miss, 72-55. It was the fifth-straight game that the Herd held an opponent to under 60 points, its longest streak since five-in-a-row in the 2011-12 season. Marshall outrebounded the top rebounding team in the league (43.8 per game) grabbing 44 and allowing the Golden Eagles just 33. It was also the third-consecutive game that Marshall's defense held its opponent to 20 or fewer points in a half as Southern Miss managed just 17 points in the first half.

Wheeler Goes For 30...Again

Savannah Wheeler is off to a great start this season, averaging 20.6 points per game through the first 11 games. Against Southern Miss, Wheeler scored 30 points after being shut out in the first quarter. The sophomore guard was 0-for-7 from the floor and 0-for-5 from three in the first. Wheeler found her rhythm in the second scoring 12 points on 4-of-5 shooting and 2-for-2 from three. By the end of the day, she recorded her third game of the season with 30 or more and the fourth of her career. After beginning 0-for-5 from beyond the arc, Wheeler hit 5-of-7 to cap her turnaround. Her 12 three-pointers attempted is a career-high. Over the last three games (Oakland, LA Tech and Southern Miss) Wheeler scored 86 points (28.7 ppg), grabbed 19 boards (6.3 rpg), dished out 13 assists and grabbed eight steals. She shot 27-of-51 (52.9%) from the field, 10-of-25 (40.0%) from three and 22-of-26 (84.6%) from the free throw line after drawing 22 fouls.

Herd Stifles LA Tech

Marshall got off to a slow start against the Lady Techsters to begin Conference USA play, but then the defense took over in the second quarter. The Herd allowed LA Tech to score 16 points in the first quarter, but then only another 28 points over the next three periods as Marshall won 62-44. The Herd's defense held the Lady Techsters to just eight points in the second and seven points in the third. Marshall also outrebounded the visitors from Ruston, La., 37-25, allowing Louisiana Tech to grab just 11 boards in the second half. It was the first time that Marshall allowed 25 or fewer rebounds since Dec. 18, 2017 against Kentucky Christian (17 rebs.).

The Herd won the turnover battle as well as outscoring LA Tech 20-2 in points off turnovers. The point total for the Lady Techsters tied for the lowest output of the season, also a 62-44 loss at Ole Miss back on Nov. 19. It was Marshall's best defensive performance of the season so far, and was the lowest points given up by the Herd since an 89-40 victory over Kentucky Christian on Nov. 7, 2019.

Family Connection

Graduate student Kennedy Colclough may have grown up in Crofton, Md., and originally played at Stetson down in Florida, but she has a connection to Marshall and Huntington. Colclough was born in Huntington in 1998 and got to spend some time in the stands as a child and listen to stories of playing for the Herd from her father LaVorn Colclough who was a wide receiver for Marshall from 1995-98. He was a member of the 1996 I-AA National Championship squad and won two Mid-American Championships in 1997 and 1998.

LaVorn finished his playing career with 144 receptions (15th all-time) for 1,737 yards (17th) and 18 touchdowns (12th). He was named All-MAC twice in 1997 and 1998. LaVorn caught a career-high 74 passes in 1997. Against Kent State in 1997, on the first play from scrimmage, he caught a 92-yard touchdown pass from future first-round draft pick and two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year Chad Pennington, which is tied for the fourth longest pass play in MU History.

Wheeler Lights up Las Vegas Night

Savannah Wheeler had a career night against Oakland at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic. Wheeler scored 40 points, becoming the first Herd player with 40 in a game since Kristina Behnfeldt back in February of 1999. Wheeler did most of her damage inside of the three-point arc shooting 14-of-18 from the floor and was just 2-of-4 from three. She drew seven fouls and was 10-of-12 from the line. Wheeler put Marshall on her back as the offense started slow. She scored 12 points in the second quarter, including nine of the Herd's 11 points over the final three minutes of the second, cutting the deficit to one, 38-37.

Wheeler put up 12 more in the third quarter as the Herd outscored Oakland 21-6 in the period to take a commanding lead. She surpassed 900 career points, and her old career-high of 35 points, in the fourth quarter. She reached 39 points getting a layup to drop while also getting fouled for the third time in the period. Wheeler sank the free throw to complete the three-point play, and was then subbed out with 1:22 to go. She received a standing ovation and was mobbed by her teammates on the bench.

The sophomore guard was named Conference USA Player of the Week for her efforts as she also led the Herd with five assists and four steals. Wheeler's 40 is tied for the fourth-most in a game this season in the NCAA and she is one of just six players to score at least 40. At 5'6", she is also the shortest player this season in Division I to score 40.

Johnson & Liberatore Ignite Herd

Against Alderson Broaddus, head coach Tony Kemper was looking for someone to get the team going as the Herd came out flat against the Battlers. He subbed in sophomore Alexis Johnson and then freshman Sarah Liberatore in the latter half of the first quarter and told each one to make something happen and be the spark. Johnson and Liberatore responded throughout the rest of the night.

The two combined for 33 points on 12-of-19 shooting (63.1%), 6-of-9 from three (66.7%), 10 rebounds, four assists and three steals.

Johnson tied her career-high with 18 points while shooting 7-of-10 from the field and hit two big three-pointers. Her first three came in the second quarter to cut the deficit to three and then two minutes later hit another three to pull the Herd within one sparking a 15-0 run to take the lead. Johnson pulled down seven boards with six coming on the defensive glass.

Liberatore had a career-night across the board in minutes played (21), points (15), rebounds (three) and tied career-bests with two assists and one steal. She had only hit three three-pointers in her career, but on this night Liberatore was 4-of-6 from outside with her first trey coming on her first offensive possession in the first quarter. Her three rebounds were all offensive in the fourth quarter to help shut down the Battlers.

Dishing Out Assists

In the win over Alderson Broaddus, Savannah Wheeler finished with seven assists and Aaliyah Dunham had six. It was the first time the Herd had two players with at least five helpers in the same game since Feb. 6, 2020 at Southern Miss when Kia Sivils and Wheeler both had five. It was the only time in the 2019-20 season that the Herd accomplished the feat. Marshall did it in five games in 2018-19, including having three players dish out at least five assists (Kristen Mayo-8, Shayna Gore-6, Taylor Porter-5) in an 86-64 win over Cleveland State on Dec. 8, 2018.

Colclough Finds Her Rhythm

Graduate student Kennedy Colclough has been finding her rhythm on offense and has come through big on the scoreboard. Prior to the St. Bonaventure game, she was averaging 16.5 points per game, and scored at least 19 points in the three previous contests. Averaging 20.3 during the stretch. After scoring a season-long six points against Morehead State, Colclough scored 19 at Purdue, 19 at Michigan State and a season-high 23 versus Coppin State. Over the three games, she shot 54.1-percent from the floor (20-of-37) and an astounding 19-of-20 (95.0%) from the line including going 10-for-10 against Coppin State. Her ability to finish at the rim has helped her pile up the points and get those free throw chances.

Points in the Paint

Despite consistently going against lineups that have a little more size, Marshall has won the points in the paint category in each of its first five games.

vs. Bluefield State	58-8
at Radford	28-22
vs. Morehead State	38-28
at Purdue	32-20
at Michigan State	34-30

Much of the success around the basket has come from the play of Kennedy Colclough, who averaged 15.2 points per game, and Lorelei Roper who had some key put-backs. However, the Herd's guards are not afraid to drive to rim either with Savannah Wheeler, Aaliyah Dunham, CC Mays and Brianah Ferby making a lot of plays inside and also drawing contact. The four guards combined to draw 63 fouls over the first five games with Wheeler leading the way with 27.

Wheeler Goes Off at Michigan State

Savannah Wheeler broke out of her shooting slump in a big way scoring 30 points in the Breslin Center. She came through with four three-pointers in the game, and usually coming at key moments. Wheeler tallied her 800th career point with a three in the second quarter that gave Marshall its first lead of the day. Prior to the game in East Lansing, Wheeler was just 3-of-16 from distance. Against the Spartans, she hit on 50 percent (4-of-8). Wheeler moved into 15th place all-time at Marshall, surpassing her old teammate Khadaji Brooks, with now 90 made three's. It was her second career game with at least 30 points and was also the first 30-point game of the season from a player in Conference USA. Wheeler drew eight fouls in the game and was 8-of-9 from the line, as she was able to get her shot attempt to drop and then earn the and-one opportunity.

Ferby Comes Up Clutch

Marshall senior, and transfer from Austin Peay, Brianah Ferby hit the big shot with 1:19 remaining to help the Herd get the win over Morehead State. The Eagles were coming back and only trailed Marshall by one, when Savannah Wheeler broke through the full-court press and found Ferby wide open in the near corner. Ferby fired the three and stopped Morehead's momentum. Marshall struggled from distance throughout the contest against the Eagles. Prior to hitting the three, Ferby was 0-3 from three and 0-4 from the field in the contest. Despite the struggles, Ferby had no hesitation on launching the three.

Dunham Steals the Show

Marshall senior, and transfer from Xavier, Aaliyah Dunham made a tremendous return to her home state. In her first two games with Marshall, the South Charleston, W.Va., native put up 30 total points, 12 assists and 12 steals. Dunham opened the year with 17 points, seven assists and six steals against Bluefield State in front of the home crowd. She followed that up with 13 points, five assists and six more steals at Radford. Dunham is an aggressive defender with quick hands and showcased her ability to pick the pockets of her opponents. Her career-high for steals is seven against St. John's in 2021 while playing for Xavier. She also had 40 games with the Musketeers with two or more thefts. Dunham is off to a quick start for Marshall and said that she plans to be that "pesky gnats" getting after the opponent.

Marshall Women's Basketball Signs Two

Marshall head coach Tony Kemper announced a pair of signees on Wednesday as Meredith Maier and Sydney Scott are headed to Huntington.

As a junior, the 6'0" Maier averaged 18.5 points, 12.9 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 4.7 steals for Fairmont Senior High School. A native of Grafton, West Virginia, she secured first team all-state and all-conference honor. She was also named to the all-tourney team at the state tournament, where she led the Polar Bears to a runner-up finish.

The 5'8" Scott, rated a four-star prospect by ESPN.com, hails from Prospect Park, Pennsylvania. She was named first team all-Philadelphia Catholic League and Daily Times All-Delco three times and was a 2021 PIAA 5A first team all-state pick. She led Cardinal O'Hara High School to the state title last season, averaging 14 points, five rebounds and five assists per contest.

"Both of these signees have the ability to instantly impact us at the collegiate level," said Kemper. "Sydni is a hard-nosed shooter with a basketball IQ that will help her acclimate quickly to Division I basketball. I like her upbringing as one of the best guards in what is always one of the toughest high school basketball leagues in the country ... the Philly Catholic League.

"Meredith adds outside scoring ability to our interior group. She is active and physical in the paint but is also a tremendous perimeter shooter. It is exciting to add such a talented West Virginia player to our program."

The Thundering Herd got off to a flying start in 2021-22 with a 108-45 victory over Bluefield State Tuesday evening. Marshall is back in action Sunday at Radford for a 2 p.m. ET tip.

Kennedi Colcough scored 13 points on 5-of-9 shooting in her return after missing the game at FAU. She was also 2-for-2 from the line and had one block.

DENTON, Texas – The North Texas women's basketball team triumphed over visiting Marshall 64-54 Thursday evening at The Super Pit in Denton, Texas.

The victory vaulted the Mean Green to 7-5 overall and 1-1 in Conference USA, while the Thundering Herd dipped to 8-5 and 3-1 in the league.

North Texas was powered by Jazion Jackson (16) and Quincy Noble (14), who netted a combined 30 points apiece. 5'6" Aly Gamez led the team with nine rebounds and Noble added six rebounds and five assists, which offset a 5-for-14 performance from the field, including an 0-for-6 clip from 3-point range.

Marshall was led by Savannah Wheeler who struggled in her own right, scoring 15 points on 4-for-15 shooting and 2-for-8 from 3-point range. She now was 992 points, eight shy of becoming Marshall's 23rd 1,000-point scorer.

Kennedi Colclough fought through foul trouble to post 13 points on 5-for-9 shooting. Lorelei Roper grabbed a team-best nine rebounds.

Marshall battled early, taking a one-point lead (11-10) on an Arionna Redman fast break layup with 2:55 left in the first quarter. However, North Texas got five points from Jackson and a three-point play by Amber Dixon to grab a seven-point advantage through one quarter of play.

The Herd closed to within five several times in the second quarter, but went to the locker room down by nine (34-25).

The third quarter went much the same way and the Mean Green remained in control until the Thundering Herd made a run in the fourth quarter. With the home team up 54-40, Roper, CC Mays and Colclough scored on consecutive possessions, which prompted North Texas head coach Jalie Mitchell to request a timeout at the 7:08 mark to stem the tide.

Out of the timeout, Noble promptly converted a three-point play and the visitors got no closer than seven the rest of the way.

The Mean Green led for 36 minutes and 33 seconds.

North Texas held a 46-37 edge in rebounding and 30-18 on points in the paint.

“Credit goes to North Texas,” Herd head coach Tony Kemper said. “I thought they were ready to play. They were very physical. There were many times during the game that I looked out there and thought if they make this (shot), they deserve to make it. They worked really hard to get the ball back after misses. We got beat pretty good on the glass and that was important because neither team shot very well.

“We didn’t have nearly enough offensive rebounds. And offensively we didn’t have enough people with good enough games to win on the road.”

As Kemper noted, both teams struggled from the perimeter. Marshall went 5-for-23 (21.7 percent), while North Texas made four of its 23 shots from deep (17.4 percent).

The free throw line was a different story as MU went 15-for-16 (93.8 percent), compared to NT's 14-for-20 (70 percent) effort.

THE OPPONENT - RICE

Scouting the Owls

Rice comes into the contest with a 5-5 overall record and begin Conference USA play at 0-2 with losses at Middle Tennessee, 87-63, and home against WKU, 78-61. The Owls have had four games either canceled or postponed due to COVID issues. Rice had to cancel its games against No. 23 Texas A&M on Dec. 19 and then Texas College on Dec. 29. League games versus North Texas and UAB have been postponed.

The Owls are in a new era with head coach Lindsay Edmonds now leading the way after Tina Langley left to be the head coach of the Washington Huskies. Rice is Edmonds' first head coaching job; however she comes to the Owls with a great track record as an assistant and most recently an associate head coach at North Carolina State. Coach Edmonds was a 1,000-point scorer at Appalachian State (then Lindsay Smith) from 2001-05. When she left, Edmonds was the school's all-time leader in three-pointers made with 177, she now ranks second.

Ashlee Austin has stepped up in now her third season. After averaging just 1.4 points per game in the 2020-21 season, Austin leads the Owls with 15.9 points per contest while shooting 50-percent from the field. She ranks second on the team with 7.2 rebounds per game. Haylee Swayze, who averaged 6.7 points per game last season, is second on the team in scoring at 12.3 per contest.

True freshman Malia Fisher leads Rice on the glass pulling down 8.8 boards per game, good for third in the conference. Fisher has tallied 17 blocks and ranks second in the league with 1.7 swats per contest. She is also averaging 9.0 points per game and was named Freshman of the Week on Dec. 13. Destiny Jackson leads with 43 assists, an average of 4.8 per game which is good for second in the league and 56th in the NCAA.

As a team, Rice is averaging 67.3 points per game and feature six players putting up at least 8.0 per game. Austin and Swayze are the only ones in double-figures. The Owls are averaging 40.5 boards per game, ranking fifth in the league. Five players are averaging over 4.0 rebounds per contest.

HEAD COACH TONY KEMPER

Fifth season • @CoachTonyKemper
Career Record: 55-68 (Overall)
30-40 (C-USA)

Fort Hays State '01

Tony Kemper enters his fifth season as the head coach of the Marshall women's basketball team after being elevated to the position in March of 2017. Kemper had previously been an assistant coach with the women's program for five seasons before taking over.

Kemper helped the Thundering Herd navigate the COVID-19-riddled 2020-21 campaign, which yielded second-team All-Conference USA acclaim for Savannah Wheeler and a signature home win over perennial league stalwart Rice in late February.

Kemper led the Herd through a great improvement in his second season. He has brought some added excitement to the program as the attendance average for Marshall rose from 641 in 2016-17 to 1,153 in 2018-19. Kemper's 2019 recruiting class also ranked in the top 60 nationally.

After going 9-20 overall and 3-13 in C-USA in 2017-18, Marshall was predicted to finish 13th in the Conference USA 2018-19 preseason polls. Instead, the Herd rolled out an 8-win improvement overall and 7-wins better in conference play finishing 17-15 and 10-6 in C-USA, securing the No. 6 seed in the tournament. The 10 conference victories were the most C-USA wins for Marshall in program history. Following the conference tournament, the Herd earned a berth in the WBI, just the fourth postseason trip in program history. Marshall won its first round game 67-64 at Davidson before falling in the second round.

Following the 2020-21 season, Kemper increased his overall record to 47-63.

During the 2018-19 season, Marshall was fifth in the conference in points per game (67.3) and led the league in 3-point field goals made per game in conference action (8.9). The Herd also saw an increase in defensive production as Marshall was ranked 13th in C-USA in field goal percentage allowed in 2017-18 but jumped up to fifth in 2018-19. The Herd saw senior Taylor Porter honored twice as a Conference USA Player of the Week including once after breaking the Marshall single-game record draining 10 3-pointers in the senior day win over FIU.

Senior Shayna Gore was named First Team All-Conference USA. Gore was previously honored as Second Team All-Conference USA in 2017-18. The senior guard capped off her prestigious career under the guide of Kemper as just the third player in program history to score over 2,000 points (2,081). Her name can be found all throughout the record book including the program's all-time leader in 3-point field goals made with 303, more than twice the previous record of 146.

The Herd reached some other milestones in 2018-19 including earning a three-overtime victory at home against Louisiana Tech (Jan. 24). It was one of three overtime victories in 2018-19 after going 131 games – second-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time – without even playing an overtime contest. Marshall also earned its first win over Charlotte in the last 10 meetings (Jan. 5) and the team's first ever win over Middle Tennessee (Feb. 16) as Marshall was previously 0-8 against the Blue Raiders.

Kemper's teams have had major success in the classroom as well with seven college graduates over the last two years. The team's overall grade point average in 2017-18 was 3.23 and climbed up to 3.28 in 2108-19. His players have been honored 18 times on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better) and 11-time recipients of the C-USA Academic Medal for maintaining a GPA of 3.75 or higher.

During his first five seasons at Marshall as an assistant coach, Kemper has assisted in rebuilding a program that progressively increased its win total over the first four seasons - from 9 to 11 to 17 to 21 wins in the 2015-16 season. That 2015-16 win total was the most for Thundering Herd Women's Basketball in 29 seasons and, for the first time in school history, yielded a first-team All-Conference USA student-athlete for Marshall in Leah Scott.

He helped lead Marshall to two of only three postseason berths in the program's NCAA history, including its first postseason win in 2014-15 (WBI) and WNIT berth in 2015-16.

Kemper has also been heavily involved in the Thundering Herd's recruiting and academic success, helping sign the 34th-ranked class in 2017 and its group in 2015, which came in 52nd.

In the classroom, the program has placed 28 members on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.0 cumulative GPA or better) and three more were given the Commissioner's Academic Medal (3.75).

Kemper came to Marshall from Central Arkansas, where he coached with now-former Marshall head coach Matt Daniel for three seasons. At UCA, Kemper helped the Sugar Bears to their first Division I conference title and three seasons of at least 21 wins. His tutelage of inside players helped gain two Southland Player of the Year honors and a Defensive Player of the Year.

Before joining the women's staff, Kemper served as an assistant coach for the Central Arkansas men's basketball program for four years.

Two professional players emerged from UCA during those seasons – the leading scorer in Portugal's Proliga pro league in 2011, Nate Bowie, and professional center Durrell Nevels.

Prior to UCA, Kemper was an assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College - one of the nation's most successful junior college programs.

At Hutchinson, he oversaw day-to-day operations and directed the Blue Dragons' strength and conditioning efforts while also serving as a mathematics and physical education instructor.

The Logan, Kansas, native also held the head coaching spot at Quivira Heights High School in Bushton in 2003-04, guiding QHHS to a No. 1 seed to the regional tournament.

His coaching career began in 2002-03 as an assistant at Hill City (Kansas) High School. Kemper received a bachelor's degree in finance from Fort Hays State University in 2001 and a BBA in Business Education in 2003. He also earned a master's degree in organizational leadership from Fort Hays in 2008.

Kemper and his wife Sandra, a professor at Marshall in the Communications Disorders Department, live in Huntington with sons Brayden and Landry and daughter Jolie.
