 2019 Conference USA Coach of the Year

Chris Grassie was named Marshall University's head men's soccer coach on Jan. 10, 2017. The two-time Conference USA Coach of the Year signed a new five-year agreement in May 2021 that will keep him signed through the 2025 season.

Grassie, who just finished his fifth season at the helm of the program, has built the Herd into not just a Conference USA contender, but a national power. He has led Marshall to back-to-back C-USA Titles as well as hoisting the 2020 College Cup National Championship Trophy.

Coach Grassie's record at Marshall is 56-28-13 (.644 winning percentage), with an overall collegiate coaching record of 155-48-21 (.739 winning percentage). Over the last three years, Grassie's record is an astounding 40-9-9 (.767 winning percentage). In his five years at Marshall, Grassie's teams are 13-11-4 against Top 25 opponents including a 12-5-4 record against top-ranked teams since 2019. In 2021, he became the fastest in program history to record his 50th win in just his 88th match. The milestone came on Sept. 29 with a 2-0 victory over Butler at Hoops Family Field.

Over the past five seasons, Marshall has had 32 players named All-Conference, 15 superlative awards, 25 times honored as league players of the week, 10 on the C-USA All-Tournament team, 14 named All-Region, six named all-academic, six Scholar All-Region, two United Soccer Coaches All-Americans and two Scholar All-Americans. Players have been honored 73 times on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (GPA of 3.00 or better) and 22 have received the Conference USA Academic Medal for a GPA of 3.75 or better.

In 2021, Marshall won double-digit matches for the third-straight year, program's longest streak since 1995-98, with 11 more wins. The Herd was ranked in the top 25 throughout the season and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. Marshall's defense set two more team records with seven-straight clean sheets and a span of 760 minutes and 37 seconds without conceding a goal. From 2019 through 2021, the Herd's defense has earned 28 shutouts, the most in a three-year span in team history.

On the way to the National Championship in 2020-21, the Herd was a powerhouse on the pitch with a ball-control, stifling defense and an attacking offense. Marshall outscored its opponents 30-8, and outshot the competition 272-118 and 120-34 on goal over 18 matches. The Herd led the nation with 11 shutouts, including the final three contests of the NCAA Tournament.

The Herd captured its second-straight Conference USA Championship with a 2-0 win over No. 12 Charlotte at home on April 18. Grassie then led his squad into the NCAA Tournament for the second time. The Herd began with a 2-1 overtime victory over No. 23 Fordham in the second round. Marshall then took down the No. 1 overall seed Clemson Tigers in the third round. The Herd, ranked No. 10 in the country, but unseeded in the tournament, pulled off the upset after having to move to a penalty kick shootout following the 1-1 draw after 110 minutes of action. Marshall finally dispatched the top-ranked Tigers 7-6 to move to the Elite 8 for the first time in team history.

The Herd faced the defending national champions in No. 8 Georgetown, and continued its historic run with a 1-0 victory. On the Final Four where Marshall took on No. 16 North Carolina and came away with another 1-0 victory, advancing the Herd to its first-ever National Championship match against No. 3 Indiana. Marshall never looked the part of a first-time participant as Grassie had his squad ready for the big lights of Cary, N.C. The Herd dominated possession against the 8-time National Champs, 62-38, and outshot the Hoosiers 17-8 and 8-1 on goal. The match moved to overtime where senior Jamil Roberts tapped in his third-straight game-winner, this time as the Golden Goal as the lads from Huntington celebrated a National Championship victory.

In 2019, Grassie doubled his win total (16 in first two seasons) Marshall earned its way into the United Soccer Coaches/NCAA poll for the first time since Oct. 1, 2001, and finished the year 16-3-3. The Herd began to receive votes on Sept. 24, 2019 after a 2-1 win over Akron, the 2018 National Championship Runners-up. The votes continued to come as Marshall kept on winning. Finally, the Herd entered the Top 25 at No. 21 on Oct. 15 after a scoreless draw at then No. 5 Charlotte. Marshall remained in the Top 25 for the rest of the season, culminating at No. 11 by season's end.

The Herd kept on dominating throughout the year, and showed how it could compete with some of the best in the country. On Senior Day (Nov. 3), 15th-ranked Kentucky came to Hoops Family Field and in front of a record crowd of 2,032, Marshall defeated the Wildcats 1-0 and put the team in prime position to win the Conference USA Regular Season Title. However, the Herd had to do it on the road at No. 19 FIU. Marshall traveled south and spoiled the Panthers' Senior Day with a 2-1 victory, locking up the No. 1 seed in the C-USA Tournament and the Regular Season Championship.

Marshall received the first round bye in the conference tournament and came out in the semi-final round with a second shutout over Kentucky, 1-0. The Herd entered the Championship match against No. 2 seed Charlotte. The teams battled through a scoreless match into the second overtime. Three minutes into the final overtime period, junior Pedro Dolabella found the back of the net with a header off a corner kick to give Marshall its first ever conference tournament title, and first ever berth into the NCAA Tournament. Dolabella was named Tournament Offensive MVP and senior Carlos Diaz-Salcedo was honored as Defensive MVP. Sophomores Collin Mocyunas and Vinicius Fernandes were also named to the All-Tournament Team.

During a packed watch party for the NCAA Selection Show, the Herd learned that it was ranked No. 11 overall and would be hosting a second round match. The opponent ended up being the West Virginia Mountaineers. On a sunny, late November day, Grassie's squad took the pitch against the cross-state rivals in front of a new record crowd of 2,126, also the largest crowd of any first or second round match in the NCAA Tournament in 2019. Marshall put on a strong show for the packed house with a 2-1 victory to advance to the third round. The Herd's amazing season came to an end in the Sweet 16 at No. 6 Washington.

Coach Grassie's squad brought an attacking style and a stifling defense to the pitch as players piled up numerous awards throughout the year. Marshall scored 47 goals, the most since scoring 50 in 2000 and the third-highest total in program history, and allowed just 20 goals. The goal differential of 27 was the best since 2000 and the third-best in program history. Ten different players scored at least one goal and five scored four or more. Seven players were honored on all-conference teams as well as freshman Milo Yosef being named the league Offensive MVP and the Freshman of the Year. Senior keeper Paulo Pita was the Co-Winner of the Golden Glove Award, finishing the year with eight shutouts, and was later drafted in the first round of the MLS Super Draft, going 24th overall to the Los Angeles FC. Pita was the first Marshall player to be taken in the first round and the first to be drafted since Daniel Withrow went in the fourth round in 2013.

By the end of the year, Grassie's players were honored with some more firsts in team history. Yosef was the first player to be named a United Soccer Coaches All-American (second team). Senior defender Illal Osmanu was the first Herd player to be named a United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-American (second team) and senior midfielder Jonas Westmeyer became the first CoSIDA Academic All-American. Coach Grassie and his staff were honored as the United Soccer Coaches Southeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

In 2018, Marshall finished the year 8-9-3 and again pulled off another first-round upset in the C-USA Tournament. This time as the No. 5 seed over fourth-seeded FIU and shutting down the league's leading scorer for the win. Marshall advanced to the semi-final for the second-consecutive season and fell 2-1 to the No. 1 seed, and ranked third in the country, Kentucky Wildcats. UK went on to win the tournament championship and advance to the Quarterfinals in the NCAA Tournament. Marshall also earned key wins over Ohio State (1-0), reigning C-USA Tournament champions Old Dominion (4-2) and defeated South Carolina in double overtime for this first time in back-to-back seasons since 2009-10.

In 2017, Marshall defeated No. 21 Kentucky in the regular season for the first time since 2011 and for the first time at home since 2000, with a 1-0 victory. The Herd then upset the third-seeded Kentucky Wildcats, 1-0, in the first round of the C-USA Tournament. Marshall fell in the semi-final round to the eventual tournament champions, No. 2 seed Old Dominion Monarchs, 1-0. The Herd went 5-2-0 at home for its best home record since Hoops Family Field was opened in 2013. Along with the win over the ranked Wildcats, Marshall defeated UNC Asheville (3-0), Eastern Illinois (3-0), South Carolina (2-1) and UAB (2-1).

Grassie returns to Huntington after spending the last six seasons at the University of Charleston, where he compiled a 99-20-8 record and advanced the Golden Eagles to the NCAA Division II Final Four the last three seasons. UC was the national runner-up in 2014 and 2016.

The Thundering Herd's new head coach is familiar with the program. Grassie served as a graduate assistant at Marshall from 2004-06, where he focused on team training, goalkeepers and recruiting. While at MU, he received his master's degree in exercise science with a focus in athletic administration.

Grassie replaces Gray, who retired in November after 22 seasons and 190 wins with the Herd.

Grassie is the winningest coach in University of Charleston history. In the last three seasons, UC is 61-7-3, including a 29-4-2 record in the Mountain East Conference and 32-1-1 record at home. Grassie led UC to the MEC tournament championship in 2013, and MEC championships in 2014, 2015 and 2016. In 2014, when the Golden Eagles posted the best record in the country and led all Division II programs in goals scored and goals against average, Grassie won the MEC Coach of the Year and NSCAA Atlantic Coach of the Year awards. In 2015, when UC finished 20-3-0, Grassie won the MEC Coach of the Year and MEC All-sports Coach of the Year awards.

Grassie's UC teams have won six consecutive conference tournament championships dating back to the now-defunct West Virginia Conference. He has coached eight All-Americans and four of his former players landed professional contracts. UC's program reached No. 1 in the national rankings under his direction, and finished the 2016 season ranked No. 2 after losing to Wingate University in the national championship game. The Golden Eagles have consistently been ranked in the top 3 nationally the last three seasons.

Under Grassie's direction, UC had the West Virginia Conference Player of the Year in 2012; Mountain East Offensive Player of the Year, MEC Defensive Player of the Year and MEC Freshman of the Year in 2014; and MEC Offensive Player of the Year and MEC Defensive Player of the Year in 2015.

Prior to UC, Grassie spent four seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan (2007-10). The Wolverines won the Big Ten championship in 2010 and appeared in the 2010 College Cup, losing in the semifinals to eventual national champion Akron.

Prior to arriving at Marshall, Grassie spent the 2003 season as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Alderson Broaddus. As a player at Alderson Broaddus, Grassie was named to the all-conference team multiple times and was a team captain. He majored in political science and history. After graduation, Grassie played professionally in England, most notably with Northwich Victoria.

Grassie is a native of Newcastle upon-Tyne in the United Kingdom. He and his wife, Allison, have two children: a son, Ever, and a daughter, Ia.

Note: Dating back to 1979 (Marshall's first season) there have always been at least 2 OT periods, sometimes full periods and then later adapting to sudden victory. There were also some periods where up to 4 OTs could be played during postseason play before PKs. From 1997-2001 there were two, 15-minute sudden victory OT periods. The current two, 10-minute sudden victory OT periods has been in place since 2002.

Marshall in the Rankings

Back on September 24, 2001, Marshall was 6-1-0 including two wins over future Conference USA opponents UCF and FIU when the Herd received votes in the NCAA/United Soccer Coaches Poll (called the NSCAA - National Soccer Coaches Association of America at the time) for the first time in program history. Marshall was 26th overall, just outside of the Top 25. The Herd then defeated Western Michigan and Northern Illinois in Mid-American Conference action. Those two victories moved Marshall into the Top 25 for the first time with a ranking of 23rd on October 1, 2001. Unfortunately for the Herd, staying in the Top 25 was not in the cards as the squad lost its next two and eventually five of the next six. Two weeks with Marshall University listed as either a ranked or “also receiving votes” team.

On September 24, 2019, exactly 18 years later, Marshall found itself again moving into the national conversation following a 2-1 win over the 2018 National Championship Runners-Up the Akron Zips. The Herd was in the “also receiving votes” spot at 29th overall with a record of 5-1-1.

The following week, Marshall traveled to Old Dominion and came away with a convincing 4-1 victory. The Herd was again in the “also receiving votes” category and moved up to just on the cusp of the Top 25 at 26th overall on October 1.

Marshall then won two more matches at home over Dayton (2-0) and UAB (6-0). The Herd was still in the conversation, but slipped back one spot to 27th overall on October 8th. The next match could be the one that Marshall needed to move into the Top 25 for the first time in 18 years, a road contest at then No. 5 Charlotte.

The Herd went down to Charlotte and battled to a 0-0 draw against one of the top programs not only in Conference USA but in the country. That match was enough to open the eyes of many voters as the Herd jumped up from 27th overall to No. 21 on October 15, its highest ever ranking, and its first Top 25 ranking in 6,588 days.

Following the ranking, Marshall traveled west and came back with two more wins over Loyola Marymount (4-1) and San Diego State (5-1). With the convincing wins, the Herd moved up to 15th, a new highest ranking in program history. Marshall’s first match after the No. 15 ranking was a 2-2 draw on the road at Wright State. Following the draw, Marshall suffered just its second loss of the season in overtime at Florida Atlantic.

Despite the draw and the loss, the Herd stayed in the rankings dropping down to 20th. Conference USA for the third-consecutive week had four teams all in the top 25 with FIU (#13), Kentucky (#15), Charlotte (#18) and Marshall (#20).

Marshall returned to Hoops Family Field after a month on the road, ranked 20th, and defeated #15 Kentucky in front of a record crowd. After the win, Marshall moved up to 14th in the standings. It is the highest ranking in program history. All four of C-USA’s top teams still remained in the top 25 with Marshall (#14), Kentucky (#16), Charlotte (#17) and FIU (#19).

The Herd capped the regular season with a win at No. 19 FIU to take the top overall seed in the C-USA Tournament and the Regular Season Title. It was the first regular season championship for Marshall in C-USA and its first for the program since 2000, back in the Mid-American Conference days. When the rankings came out on Tuesday, Marshall was in its highest spot at No. 13. Conference USA still showcased its strong soccer programs with four teams in the top 25 with No. 15 Kentucky, No. 17 Charlotte and No. 23 FIU.

With the Herd’s wins over Kentucky and Charlotte in the Conference USA Tournament, Marshall moved up again to a new highest ranking of 11th. The Herd secured a first round bye in the NCAA Tournament and hosted West Virginia on Sunday, Nov. 24. Marshall defeated WVU, 2-1, before falling in the third round at No. 6 Washington.

The Herd’s play in 2019 began a streak of being ranked in the top 25 in every poll, now standing at 30-straight (Dec. 14, 2021). Marshall has also been ranked in the top ten, 17 times, including 15-straight in the fall of 2021.

NORFOLK, Va. – The top-overall seed, and 13th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team defeated No. 4 seed, and 15th-ranked Kentucky Wildcats, 2-1, Friday night in the semi-final round of the Conference USA Tournament. Marshall advances to the Conference USA Tournament Championship Match, Sunday at 1 p.m. Sophomore Vinicius Fernandes scored the game-winner in the 77th minute.

It is Marshall's first C-USA Championship appearance since 2015.

The Thundering Herd improves to 14-2-3 while Kentucky falls to 12-4-3.

“The guys played very well and we were able to dictate play,” third-year Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. “And we cleared out a lot of chances during the game so the goal was bound to come. The defense played really well especially in the midfield with Max (Schneider) and Carlos (Diaz-Salcedo) had his best game of the season. Looking forward to Sunday's match up and feeling really confident.”

The teams battled through a scoreless first half as both sides were trying to gain control. Kentucky outshot the Herd 7-2 in the half, however neither team had a shot on goal. Junior Jamil Roberts and redshirt freshman Milo Yosef had the two shots for Marshall. The Wildcats had several opportunities with six corner kicks to the Herd's three, but the Herd defense stood tall and held off the attack.

The second half began the same way as the first half with the two familiar foes fighting for position and trying to push through. Marshall had a few chances early but could not quite find the back of the net to end the scoreless tie. Redshirt senior Paulo Pita recorded his lone save of the match on a shot from Bailey Rouse in the 75th minute.

One minute and 39 seconds later, the Herd broke open the scoreless affair. Roberts fired a cross from the far side that just eluded a diving Enrique Facusse, and Fernandes tapped it in for his second goal of the year. For Roberts it was his 10th assist of the season, tying a Marshall single-season record. Andy Zulauf (1981-85) set the mark in 1981 and Greg Ogle (1982-85) tied it one year later. The record was tied again by Shawn Sizemore (1990-93) in 1993.

Fernandes scored his fifth career goal and Roberts has 15 career assists. Roberts is in a four-way tie for fourth all-time in career assists in program history.

The Marshall defense continued a superb effort as the Wildcats kept up the pressure but yet could not find another shot on goal. Kentucky fired off 17 shots with eight on goal in the quarterfinal win over Florida Atlantic. Marshall held UK to 11 total shots and just one target.

The Herd now waits for the winner of No. 2 seed Charlotte and No. 3 seed FIU.

NORFOLK, Va. – The top-seed, and 13th-ranked, Marshall men's soccer team is the 2019 Conference USA Tournament Champions and receive the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Herd defeated the No. 2 seed, and 17th-ranked, Charlotte 49ers, 1-0 Sunday afternoon in the second overtime. Junior Pedro Dolabella scored the Golden Goal in the 103rd minute.

The Thundering Herd wins its first double – conference regular season and tournament championship – in program history. Marshall improved to 15-2-3, a record number of wins in a single-season in team history. The Charlotte 49ers lost its third-straight C-USA Championship match.

"I can't imagine an ending like this," Dolabella said after hitting the game-winner. "We've been overlooked and we proved again that we are the best team. Whatever happens we are the best. Everybody deserves it. Nobody works harder than we do. So for all the Marshall fans, everybody in Huntington, this is for you. We love you. We Are Marshall!"

Dolabella was named the Tournament Offensive MVP. Senior Carlos Diaz-Salcedo was named Tournament Defensive MVP. Also joining Dolabella and Diaz-Salcedo on the All-Tournament Team are sophomore Vinicius Fernandes and redshirt sophomore Collin Mocyunas.

The next step for the Herd is to find out where it will begin in the NCAA Tournament as Marshall could potentially host at least one match. This will be the first trip to the NCAA postseason in program history.

"I'm extremely pleased for our lads," third-year Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "They were immense today. Charlotte is a very organized and difficult team to play against. And the strong wind made things very interesting, particularly in the first half. But we held strong and were brave enough to try and make the game."

"From the second half onwards there only looked like one winner! Pedro (Dolabella) was phenomenal today and thoroughly deserved the goal! It's great to win on a set piece. Paulo (Pita) was solid on net all day and came for every cross it seemed, so he took the pressure off. Carlos (Diaz-Salcedo) and Illal (Osmanu) were a wall and so comfortable on the ball. (Ryan) Sirk came on and did a great job for us. Collin (Mocyunas) was superb and didn't get beat once. Joao Pedro (Souza) was a real handful for them to deal with on the flank. Max (Schneider) was a beast today. Jonas (Westmeyer) and Vitor (Dias) did a great job in the midfield for us. Jamil (Roberts) and Milo (Yosef) were threatening all day long. Vini Fernandes was like Pedro, such a joy today. He (Fernandes) was unplayable with his skill and energy."

"We should definitely be seeded now, so we will look forward to another home match on Sunday. Let's see if we can break that home match attendance record for the second time this season! Go Herd!"

2019 Conference USA Champions

The match started right from the first whistle as a tough, physical battle between the top two seeds in the C-USA Tournament on a cold and very windy day. Charlotte dominated possession through the first 45 minutes and outshot Marshall 7-3 and 5-2 on goal. Redshirt senior keeper Paulo Pita recorded the save on all five shots to help keep the match scoreless. The 49ers thought it had grabbed the first goal in the 16th minute, but the flag came up for an offside call on Charlotte on the near side of the field.

The Herd's two shots on goal in first half came from freshman Joao Souza and sophomore Vitor Dias.

In the second half, Marshall made the adjustment in the attack and put the pressure on the 49ers. As the Herd now played with the wind at its back, the squad outshot Charlotte 7-2 in the half with two on goal. Unfortunately for the Herd, Elliot Panizzo made both saves. Pita who was worked in the first half needed to make just one save in the second frame. Dolabella and junior Jamil Roberts had the two shots on goal for Marshall.

Just like when the two teams met back on Oct. 12, 90 minutes was not enough as the zeros rolled up on the clock and the title match was still scoreless with the Golden Goal in effect. First to score wins.

The first overtime period continued as a physical battle. Marshall managed the only shot during the 10-minute extra frame as red-shirt freshman Milo Yosef was wide. Again, 100 minutes was not enough time to decide the Championship match, and so it moved to double-overtime.

Marshall now playing with the wind in its face, much like the first half, kept up the strong play and the pressure on Charlotte. After a foul and a yellow card against Marshall, Pita jumped out to stop any further effort on the free kick and immediately got the ball headed downfield. Roberts tapped the ball to Yosef who battle toward the end line and the ball deflected off a 49er defender to grant the Herd a corner kick.

Senior Jonas Westmeyer, who has taken nearly 80 corner kicks in his two-year Marshall career, sent the shot from the far corner to the near side of the goal. Dolabella leaped and sent the header low, which bounced off Panizzo's gloves and into the net. The celebration for the Herd ensued.

The NCAA Selection Show will be streamed live on the NCAA website on Monday, Nov. 18 at 1 p.m. The top 16 teams receive a first round bye and host a second round match. The first round is scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 21. The second round is set for Sunday, Nov. 24.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The journey for the Marshall men's soccer program has been one to savor. The next destination is sweet.

A rowdy record crowd of 2,126 rocked the aluminum bleachers at Hoops Family Field and witnessed history on a cool and windy Sunday afternoon.

In the first postseason meeting between the Mountain State's only Division I men's soccer programs – and in front of an ESPN audience – Marshall defeated visiting West Virginia, 2-1, to advance to the Sweet 16 in the Thundering Herd's first NCAA Tournament appearance.

"I feel like everyone was waiting for this game," Marshall senior goalkeeper Paulo Pita said. "The whole state."

The participants delivered on the biggest possible stage, and the end result is the latest on a lengthy list of accomplishments for the Herd men's soccer program this season. Marshall, which finished the season ranked No. 11 and is seeded the same in this 48-team event, has set a school record for wins (16), captured the regular season and postseason Conference USA championships, reached its highest national ranking in the program's existence, earned its first berth into the NCAA field, and then hosted – and beat – the Mountaineers in Huntington.

The college soccer world has been put on notice: Marshall has arrived.

"When I came to Marshall ... I made it clear that I was going to transfer to a top Division I soccer program because I wanted to make the next level," Pita said. "When I committed to Marshall a lot of people were like, why are you going to Marshall? Now, the answer is here: because this is a top Division I soccer program."

Marshall (16-2-3) struck first on a goal by junior Jamil Roberts, who took a ball from sophomore Collin Mocyunas and knocked it past the keeper from the left side to break the scoreless tie 9:37 into the match.

West Virginia, the Mid-American Conference tournament champions, found the equalizer 38:32 into the first half when Logan Lucas beat Pita on a header. That left little time before intermission for the Herd to find another goal.

Marshall's answer came with under three minutes left of the half when senior Jonas Westmeyer sent in a cross and freshman Milo Yosef headed the ball into the goal to give the Herd a 2-1 lead.

"To be fair, I think the ball would have went in without me," said Yosef, who was the C-USA Offensive MVP and Freshman of the Year. "Got a deflection of my hair and it went in."

The teams played to a scoreless second half, but Marshall dominated possession. The Herd out-shot the Mountaineers 11-8, and Marshall led in corner kicks, 11-4.

2019 NCAA Tournament - Second Round versus West Virginia

Marshall is one of the final 16 teams in the race to win the national championship. Last season, Maryland – also an 11 seed – captured the title. The Herd is hoping to reproduce that same magic, and the next stop will be the winner of Boston College and sixth-seeded Washington. Those teams meet Sunday night. In the next two rounds, the highest remaining seed will host, so Marshall could have additional games at Hoops Family Field before the College Cup – the men’s soccer version of the Final Four – in Cary, North Carolina.

On Sunday afternoon, however, the Marshall coaching staff could take a few minutes to cherish a win against West Virginia. This matchup was the first meeting between the schools in 15 years.

“You’ve seen the atmosphere; it’s really nice to have that rivalry just for the sake of soccer,” said Petsa Ivanovic, an assistant for Marshall head coach Chris Grassie. “You see the joy it brings to the people and how it unites the community. Chris and I have talked about it ... we’re really making a lot of people happy and we’re really happy ourselves. From that side it’s really nice. We wish we could play them every year. I think it would be really nice. I think it would create a really nice atmosphere and push soccer and development in this state into the foreground.”

SEATTLE – The 11th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team's 2019 season came to an end Sunday night, 4-1, in the third round of the NCAA Tournament at No. 6 Washington.

The Thundering Herd ends the year with a 16-3-3 record. The Huskies improve to 17-3 and move on to play at the 3rd-ranked Georgetown Hoyas in the Quarterfinals.

Marshall was outshot 23-6 in the match and 13-2 on goal. The Huskies scored first in the eighth minute. Junior Jamil Roberts stepped up for a penalty kick in the 24th minute and converted for the equalizer against one of the best keepers in the country in Sam Fowler, who is second in the NCAA in goals against average entering the match. For Roberts, it was his eighth goal of the season, a career-high and second on the team.

Washington scored the go-ahead goal in the 43rd minute. Marshall trailed 2-1 at the halftime break. The Huskies scored two more times in the second frame.

Redshirt senior keeper Paulo Pita was busy during the match recording a season-high nine saves.

The Herd had a record-breaking season. The 16 wins bested the old mark of 14 set by the 2000 Marshall squad that also won the Mid-American Conference Regular Season title. The three losses are also a program record for the fewest in a season set by the 2000 team and tied in 2010 and 2012.

Marshall moved into the NCAA/United Soccer Coaches Poll back on Oct. 15, with a ranking of 21st. It was the first time the Herd was ranked since Oct. 1, 2001. Marshall also stayed in the Top 25 for the rest of the season and peaked with the No. 11 spot leading into the NCAA Tournament. The Herd saw its attendance steadily rise throughout the season, culminating in record-breaking crowds for Marshall's final two home matches.

The Herd won the Conference USA Regular Season Championship after being picked to finish fourth in the preseason coaches' poll. Marshall finished off the double-championship feat after defeating the Charlotte 49ers with a Golden Goal by junior Pedro Dolabella in double overtime. The Herd was most likely looking at least an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament, but the C-USA Cup win guaranteed Marshall its first ever trip into the NCAA postseason.

During a packed NCAA Selection Show watch party, Marshall learned that it had earned a first round bye and would be hosting a second round match. In front of a record crowd of 2,126, the Herd defeated the West Virginia Mountaineers, 2-1. Marshall's first NCAA Tournament match, and its first NCAA Tournament win.

Redshirt freshman Milo Yosef had a banner season with 12 goals.

2019 NCAA Tournament - Third Round at No. 6 Washington

Yosef became the first Herd player to score double-digit goals in a season since Tom Jackson in 2011, and scored the most by a Herd player since Hall of Famer Byron Carmichael put up 15 goals in his senior season of 2002. Yosef led Conference USA in six offensive categories and was named Offensive MVP and Freshman of the Year.

Head coach Chris Grassie in just his third season at the helm has led Marshall on a steady climb. With eight wins in each of his first two seasons – as well as advancing to the semi-finals in the C-USA Tournament both years – Grassie doubled his win total and was named Coach of the Year.

The 2019 senior class of Paulo Pita, Illal Osmanu, Carlos Diaz-Salcedo, Jonas Westmeyer and Bryce Notardonato were all major pieces to the Herd's success. Pita played every minute in goal this season and recorded eight shutouts, the second-most in a season in team history, and was named the C-USA Co-Golden Glove Award winner. Osmanu was named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week back-to-back weeks in October and was also honored as an all-conference First Team member. Diaz-Salcedo, the only player still on the team from the pre-Grassie days, was named the C-USA Tournament Defensive MVP and garnered All-Academic team honors. Westmeyer was second on the team in assists with nine, including the helpers on four game-winners. Notardonato was the back-up keeper who provided immense help and work to his teammates in practice.

Roberts with his 10 assists, tied the program record for most in a season and led Conference USA. The junior was also among the leaders in the country in assists as he entered the match at Washington tied for fifth in the NCAA.

Marshall was 12th in the country in scoring offense this season with 2.19 goals per game and tied for fifth, with third-ranked Georgetown, in total goals with 46 coming into today's action.

The future looks very bright for the Marshall men's soccer team, building off its best season in program history.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – Behind second-half goals from senior midfielder Pedro Dolabella and junior defender Jan-Erik Leinhos and a shutout from junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmler, the No. 9 Marshall University men's soccer team (9-2-2, 6-0-1 C-USA) defeated the No. 12 Charlotte 49ers (6-3-1, 6-1-0 C-USA) 2-0 on Sunday capturing the 2020 Conference USA Men's Regular Season Championship on Senior Day. The Herd earned a bid into the 2020 NCAA Division I Men's Soccer Tournament with the victory.

Semmler recorded his seventh shutout of the season, earning the 2020 Conference USA Golden Glove Award for most shutouts in the conference.

"We thought we had opportunities all day and all season," Marshall head coach Chris Grassie said after the win. "They were bringing the game to us, which I appreciate. They were trying to press us high. They left some gaps. We were able to stretch them in the second half and it opened all sorts of gaps from there."

Prior to the contest, MU honored Kyle Winquist and Jamil Roberts as part of the Senior Day ceremony.

Just over three minutes into the game, senior forward Jamil Roberts had an opportunity down the left wing, but he pushed the shot just right of the goal.

Sophomore midfielder Joao Souza had the lone shot on goal in the first half, but it was saved in the 42nd minute.

Charlotte nearly put the first goal in the net when an Alex Willis attempt hit the crossbar in the 62nd minute.

A little over two minutes later, the 49ers were called for a handball in the box and the Herd was awarded a penalty kick. Leinhos stepped up to the spot and hit the back of the net for his fourth goal of the season. The defender is 3-for-3 on penalty kicks this season, 5-for-5 in his career.

Then in the 69th minute, sophomore forward Milo Yosef left a ball for Dolabella, who struck it from outside the box, then had his shot go off the bottom of the crossbar and just cross the line to put MU up 2-0.

It was Dolabella's first goal of the season with his last coming on Nov. 17, 2019, in the 2019 C-USA Championship Game in a 1-0, two-overtime win over Charlotte.

Semmler then made three of his four saves in the second half in quick succession in the 79th, 82nd and 83rd minutes to preserve the victory for the Herd.

WILSON, N.C. – The 10th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team earned a 2-1, overtime victory against the 23rd-ranked Fordham Rams in the second round of the NCAA Tournament on Sunday. Redshirt sophomore Milo Yosef scored both goals for the Herd including the golden goal in the 97th minute.

The Thundering Herd improves to 10-2-2 and moves on the third round to face the No. 1 seed Clemson Tigers (14-3-2). That match is scheduled for Thursday, May 6. The season comes to an end for Fordham as the Rams suffered its first loss of the season finishing 7-1-2.

“It was tough,” Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. “The pitch was very sticky. You could see the ball moving a little slower and so we had to slow things down a little bit. (Fordham) played very well (head coach) Carlo (Acquista) had them very well organized. In the second half we had a lot more opportunities to play and get in and we were trying to break them down, but they did a really good job and made it tough for us.

“Credit to the guys, they kept battling. And Milo Yosef finally hitting his stride. We had been talking about it that he was looking good, getting into the box. We just need to get him into the box and he is going to score goals.”

Marshall advances to the third round with a 2-1 win for the second-straight season. The Herd beat WVU 2-1 in the second round in 2019. Yosef scored the game-winner in that match as well in the 42nd minute.

The first half was a defensive battle as both teams had five shots, the Herd had two shots on goal and the Rams had one on target. The first shot on goal was the first goal of the match from Yosef. The Aachen, Germany native received a pass from junior Vitor Dias on the near side and fired in a shot passed Josh Levine, the Rams keeper in the 25th minute. It was Yosef's first goal since scoring twice against WVU Tech on Feb. 21. Yosef did not net two assists over the final three matches of the regular season with one on the game-winner against Florida Atlantic and again on the second goal against Charlotte for the Conference USA Championship.

The Rams hit the equalizer in the 43rd minute as Max Rogers scored his second goal of the season. Marshall did not sit back and wait for halftime as the Herd fired off four shots over the next 90 seconds including one on goal from Dias that was stopped by Levine. The teams went in at the half tied at 1-1.

In the second half, Marshall outshot Fordham 8-3, with 3-1 on goal, yet the defenses continued to make the plays on both side. The Herd had a couple of shot attempts blocked by the Rams' defense. Junior Vinicius Fernandes had the first shot on goal of the second half in the 80th minute, then almost three minutes later Yosef had another chance on goal, both were saved by Levine.

Junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmler made an incredible diving save toward the near post in the 88th minute to help save the game for the Herd. Semmler was completely stretched out, got his fingers on the ball to deflect it off the post and away from the net. Dias had one more shot on goal with one minute left and Levine made the save.

The teams were still tied at 1-1 after 90 minutes and headed to overtime.

In the extra period, Marshall again outshot Fordham 3-1. Senior Pedro Dolabella had a chance in the 92nd minute that was saved by Levine. Finally, in the 97th minute, freshman Gabriel Alves in the midfield found senior Jamil Roberts on the left side. Roberts took the pass and fired a low cross into the box that found Yosef for a quick touch passed the keeper and into the net for the golden goal and the celebration ensued. For Yosef, it was his second of the match, fourth of the year and 16th of his career. It was also the fifth time that Yosef has scored twice in a single match in his Marshall career. Roberts netted his team-leading fifth assist of the season and the 20th of his career.

Marshall then got together to watch No. 1 Clemson play American University, waiting to find out its opponent for Thursday. Clemson trailed 1-0 until hitting the equalizer in the 52nd minute, and then the game-winner in the 62nd minute for the 2-1 victory.

“Obviously Clemson is a top team and the number one seed for a reason,” coach Grassie said. “We feel confident playing against anybody. We want to take this program to national prominence, want to win a national championship and you have to beat the best teams. We are excited about the opportunity to do that. It is going to be a fantastic football matchup and hopefully today was good prep for us to say ‘hey wake up this is the tournament, time to go.’”

The match will be played at WakeMed Field in Cary, N.C.

Head Coach Chris Grassie

CARY, N.C. – The 10th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team pulled off the upset of No. 1 Clemson Tigers in the third round of the NCAA Tournament on Thursday. The game ended tied at 1-1 after two overtimes and then the Herd earned the victory 7-6 on penalty kicks. Junior Vitor Dias hit the winner after junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmlé made a great save to create the chance.

The Thundering Herd moves on to the Elite 8 where it will face the defending National Champions, No. 8 Georgetown Hoyas. The match is set for Monday at 1 p.m., from WakeMed Field #2. This is the first time in program history that Marshall will play in the Elite 8. Marshall and Georgetown have met just once before, back in 2007, a 1-0 Hoyas win.

"It was a bit of a whirlwind there at the end with the penalties," Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "I felt like we should have won it beforehand. I thought the guys battled hard and played really well. It was two good teams with the momentum going back-and-forth, but I thought we had some fantastic chances to win.

"Pretty happy with the performance. Oliver Semmlé is the best goalkeeper in the country, hands down. He struggled a little bit in the beginning, but not a problem because he is still brave enough to step up and continue playing. The whole team kept their composure. Just proud, very proud.

"Our goal is not to beat the number one team, it is to be the number one team. This is over and done, put it behind us and moving on to the next one. Georgetown in the Elite 8."

Marshall has played extra soccer in both of its NCAA Tournament matches so far, taking down Fordham in the 97th minute in the second round, and now all the way to penalty kicks. The last time the Herd was in a PK shootout at the end of a match was Nov. 11, 2015 in the first round of the Conference USA Tournament. Marshall was tied 1-1 after 110 minutes against No. 24 Charlotte and then defeated the 49ers, 5-4 in the shootout.

Both teams took some time at the beginning of the first half to feel things out and find a rhythm. The first shot of the match came in the ninth minute from senior Pedro Dolabella. A foul against Clemson in the 15th minute gave the Herd an opportunity for a free kick. Sophomore Max Schneider blasted it from about 30 yards out that curled into the upper left corner of the net for the first goal of the match. It was Schneider's second goal of the season and fourth of his career.

The teams continued a physical battle as four total yellow cards were handed out in the first half, two to each team. Clemson hit the equalizer in the 32nd minute after the ball ricocheted a couple times inside the 6-yard box after a corner kick. Callum Johnson finally tapped it in low on the far side. The Herd had a couple of opportunities late in the half, but could not convert. The match was tied at 1-1 at the half.

The squads came out running in the second half as neither team looked to just sit back and defend. Clemson had five shots in the second half to Marshall's four. However, none of the Tigers' shots were on goal. Senior Jamil Roberts had one shot on goal in the period that was stopped by George Marks, Clemson's keeper. After a total of 17 fouls were called in the first half, 16 more were called in the second. In the latter part of the frame, both teams were beginning to slow down and dealing with cramps in the heat, however the players kept fighting through.

Each team had two shots in the first overtime with Clemson firing one on goal with six minutes remaining, but Semmler was there to make an incredible diving stop. In the second overtime, Marshall had three shot attempts all coming from redshirt sophomore Milo Yosef. Yosef created some great opportunities for himself but just could not connect for the golden goal.

Marshall's defense stood tall against Clemson's attack especially off corner kicks as the Tigers had 14 to the Herd's one. Clemson had five corner kicks in the second half, one in the first overtime and two in the second overtime period yet Marshall's defense cleared away each one. Both teams had 12 total shots, with Clemson getting three on goal and Marshall had two.

The physical battle included 38 total penalties, 22 for Clemson and 16 for Marshall, as well as eight yellow cards with five for the Herd and three for the Tigers. And then the match moved on to penalty kicks.

"We have probably taken 20 to 30 penalty kicks each over the last few weeks in training leading up to this tournament," coach Grassie said discussing his lineup for the shootout. "We have been charting everything and we looked at our best ten who were the most consistent, and then we asked the guys who were on that list, 'do you want to take one, and who wants to kick when.'"

"We trained. Nothing was left to chance. That was our best group and they were confident. They had done it so many times in training, and obviously it's a little different in the Sweet 16, but they did it."

In the shootout, Clemson converted on its first three attempts. For Marshall, junior Jan-Erik Leinhos missed on the first shot, but then the Herd never missed another one. Schneider and junior Nathan Dossantos both hit their shots to keep the Herd in the match. Semmler made the stop on Mohammed Seye, the fourth attempt by the Tigers, and then junior Vinicius Fernandes converted to tie it up at 3-3.

The teams continued to trade shots as Clemson made its next three. Roberts, sophomore Joao Souza and redshirt sophomore Ryan Sirk all converted and the shootout was tied at 6-6. Quinn McNeill of Clemson fired a low shot to the right side that was stopped by Semmler and opened the door for Marshall. Dias, who earlier in the week was named a MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist, fired a laser with his left foot to the far side to beat the keeper and push the Herd to the next round.

CARY, N.C. – The journey of the 10th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team continues as the Herd defeated the defending national champions, No. 8 Georgetown Hoyas, 1-0 on Monday at WakeMed Field. The Thundering Herd advances to the Final Four at the College Cup for the first time in program history.

The Thundering Herd waits to find out who its next opponent will be in either No. 5 seed Wake Forest or North Carolina. The match will be played on Friday, May 14, at Sahlen's Stadium at WakeMed Soccer Park in Cary, N.C., and will be broadcast on ESPNU.

Marshall improves to 11-2-3 while the season comes to an end for the Hoyas at 10-2-2.

"That was a completely different game than Clemson," Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "I think we struggled with the first 20 minutes just trying to get our legs back from the previous games. But once we got into it and we sorted some things out tactically, I thought we were terrific. I thought that it was only ever going to be us that were going to win it.

"We were smart in how we put numbers forward when we did put them forward and the goal was terrifically well done from one side of the pitch to the other and back across. I was thrilled.

"And then toward the end, I knew they were going to throw crazy numbers forward and they are all skillful. It was a bit of a slog for the last eight or nine minutes there, but I thought the lads did really well."

Marshall has had quite a trip through its second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. The Herd began with a 2-1 overtime victory over No. 23 Fordham in the second round. Next, Marshall played all 110 minutes and then finally took down No. 1 Clemson, 7-6, in penalty kicks to advance to the Elite 8 for the first time. And now, the Herd has defeated the 2019 National Champions to move on to the Final Four.

"This is the no asterisk, national championship game for us," coach Grassie said. "We played the number one, we played last year's champion and then UNC and Wake are two storied programs, whoever wins that one. But there are all great teams left. For us it is just another day. We will prepare the same way we did. We will get back together, regroup, also take a moment to recharge emotionally because these matches take a lot out of you emotionally as well as physically. So we will take a couple days to relax and get back to it."

Herd junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmlie and the defense delivered its ninth shutout of the year. The program single season record is 10 set in 2012. Semmlie tallied two saves including one with 45 seconds left on the clock.

"I looked up at the clock and it was 10 minutes to go, and then 20 minutes later I looked up and it was eight minutes to go," Semmlie said when asked about the end of the match. "It felt like it was so long, but I think we did a good job to rub them out so I think it was a deserved win.

“Our goal is to win a national championship so it is not a surprise for us. We want to go far, and I think we already went far. But, we are not done yet and we want to go and win the title.”

The first half saw the teams working to get into a rhythm, and the Hoyas took the first four shots of the match through the first 23 minutes. However, none were on goal for Georgetown. The Herd’s first shot came in the 30th minute off a free kick from Schneider. The kick from just over 30 yards away sailed toward the top of the goal, but Giannis Nikopolidis was there to knock it away. Senior Jamil Roberts had a chance in the 36th minute that was also saved. The teams went in at the half scoreless.

In the second half, the Hoyas had the first chance with a shot in the 49th minute that Semmle swallowed up for his first save of the day. Finally, in the 70th minute, junior Vitor Dias showed off his skillful moves working his way around the defense to the far side of the goal. Dias then delivered a cross to Roberts on the near side for the easy tap in, giving Marshall the 1-0 lead.

“You may have noticed that Vitor (Dias) is pretty skillful,” coach Grassie said talking about the Herd’s goal. “He has a way where he shows the defender the ball a little bit, then he drops his shoulder and it looks like he is running really slowly but the defender can’t keep up with him. He went across, had some nice little movement in there, he is a special dribbler. And then he flicked it on and Jamil (Roberts) was there to tap it in. We love tap ins.”

It was Roberts’ third goal of the season and 17th of his career. Dias tallied his fifth assist to tie Roberts for the team lead.

Georgetown then went on the attack and used many substitutions over the final 20 minutes. However, the Herd’s defense was excellent, holding the Hoyas to just one shot attempt coming in the final minute that was again gathered up by Semmle. Georgetown gave one last effort to move the ball back to the attacking third when senior Pedro Dolabella intercepted the attempt and launched a high kick deep downfield as the clock expired.

CARY, N.C. – The NCAA Tournament journey of the 10th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team rolls on to the National Championship of the College Cup for the first time in program history, as the Herd defeated No. 16 North Carolina 1-0 on Friday. Senior Jamil Roberts scored the game-winner in the 60th minute.

The Herd will face the 3rd-ranked Indiana Hoosiers, Monday night at 8 p.m. The game will be broadcast on ESPN2.

Marshall improves to 12-2-3 for the year and becomes the first member team in Conference USA history to play for a men's National Championship. Charlotte was the National Championship runner-up to North Carolina in 2011, but the 49ers were members of the Atlantic-10 at the time.

The Thundering Herd is also just the fourth unseeded team since the 16-team seed era (2003-present) to make the final. Marshall is ranked No. 10, however only eight teams were seeded this season with the reduced field due to the pandemic.

"It was a great performance," Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. "I thought we possessed the ball very well. We could have had a little bit more penetration, but I thought they defended really well. They seemed to have that extra bit of energy, UNC did, being in the Final Four before. (UNC) had a lot of sort-of half-chances around the box, but we knew that we would break them entirely at one point because they had been running, and running and running. And it happened once with Jamil (Roberts) getting in with the shot, but there were three or four more occasions where we were a pass away from having a clear shot at the goal.

"We still have a couple of levels to go which is great to see, something to work on over the next couple of days before the final. Which is the scary thing about this team, I don't think we have played our best football yet. So hopefully we are saving it for the big occasion."

Marshall was outshot 11-1 in the contest, but the Herd made the one count. Five of the Tar Heel's shots were on goal and junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmlé was there every time to make the save as the five stops were a season-high. Semmlé recorded four saves in the first half as North Carolina had been applying a fair amount of pressure when it got the chance.

"I think we struggled a little bit in the buildup in the first half," Semmlé said. "They got some chances from our mistakes. At halftime we talked about it and we fixed it. We knew that they were going to press high, with two strikers. We were aware of it so it was no surprise for us. I think in the second half we handled the pressure better.

"We trust each other, so there is no reason to panic. We know how good we are and how good everyone else on the team is. So if I pass the ball to anyone, I know that they won't lose the ball. It is all about trusting your teammates and that is why we are confident and we don't hesitate under pressure."

Semmler made one last save in the first half in the 42nd minute as the teams went in at the break scoreless.

In the second half, Marshall still maintained possession much of the time in attempting to keep the ball away from UNC and trying to find that break-away chance. Finally, in the 60th minute, redshirt sophomore Milo Yosef had the ball on the far side just entering the 18-yard box. Yosef made a pass to his left that junior Vitor Dias made one quick touch to keep it away from a defender, and then the ball found Roberts charging in from the left. Roberts kept the ball low and sent it right between the legs of the keeper for the goal.

“Going to be honest I needed the flick (from Vitor Dias),” Roberts said about the goal. “Milo (Yosef) drove down the right-hand side and he looked up and he saw me. I think it was just a miscued pass, but Vitor has been doing it all season with a bit of magic in the box. He flicks it around the corner to me and it was up to me finish it and happily I did.”

“We have started to get into a groove since midway through the season. We’ve got the best defense in the country, the best goalkeeper in the country, and that is why we never panic in those late game situations.”

Roberts scored his second goal of the NCAA postseason, as he also hit the game-winner in the second half against Georgetown. It was his fourth of the season and 18th of his career putting him into a three-way tie for sixth all-time at Marshall. The goal gave Roberts a career total of 56 points, moving him ahead of Ryan LaPointe (1989-93) into sixth place all-time in team history. Roberts also sits in second place all-time with 20 assists.

Yosef and Dias received the double assist. Dias now leads the team in helpers with six, just passing Roberts. Yosef notched his fourth assist of the year.

North Carolina attempted to turn up the pressure over the final 30 minutes. However, Marshall’s defense was up to the task. UNC fired off five shots in a 15-minute span that either missed wide, hit the crossbar, or were deflected by Herd defenders. Semmler only needed to make one save in the second half coming in the 81st minute, that was also the final shot of the game for the Tar Heels. Semmler recorded his 10th clean sheet of the season to set a Marshall single-season program record. He surpassed Daniel Withrow (2009-12) who had 9.5 in 2012.

The Herd did not need to wait long to find out its opponent for the championship match. No. 3 Indiana defeated No.2 Pittsburgh 1-0 as Herbert Endeley scored the game-winner in the 79th minute.

Coach Grassie remains confident and unwavering about his team.

“It will probably be the same themes of what we talked about all along,” coach Grassie said when asked about what he will talk to the team about on Monday night. “We talk about being brave on the ball. We talk about being together as a team and the brotherhood and the family atmosphere that we’ve got. And then talked about working really hard and then not panicking and playing our game.”

“We don’t have to play the best game of our lives to win the National Championship. We just have to play well.”

CARY, N.C. – It was a magical night at WakeMed Soccer Park as the 10th-ranked Marshall men's soccer team etched its name into the NCAA College Cup history books on Monday, defeating the 3rd-ranked Indiana Hoosiers for the National Championship. Senior Jamil Roberts hit his third game-winner of the NCAA Tournament scoring the golden goal in the 98th minute.

The Thundering Herd caps its historical season with a record of 13-2-3. Marshall rolled through some stiff competition on its way to winning its first ever National Championship. The Herd began with a 2-1, overtime victory against No. 23 Fordham in the second round as redshirt sophomore Milo Yosef scored both goals.

Then Marshall took down the No. 1 seed Clemson Tigers, advancing 7-6 in the penalty kick shootout. The Herd advanced to the Elite 8 where it defeated the defending National Champions No. 8 Georgetown as Roberts scored his first game-winner of the post-season in the 70th minute off a pass from junior Vitor Dias. Marshall moved on to the College Cup and the Final Four for the first time in team history, and the Herd kept rolling on with a 1-0 win over No. 16 North Carolina as Roberts again scored the game-winner in the 60th minute, with another assist from Dias.

In four short seasons, head coach Chris Grassie took a Marshall program that missed the 2016 Conference USA Tournament to a National Champion.

"Immensely, immensely proud to be a part of this team," coach Grassie said. "We all really kind of came together this season and we just got better and better and better. We had some bumps in the road. There are definitely a couple of teams tonight that will be happy they beat a national champion. But, we continued to learn from each lesson and each set back.

"It was the way it felt. It just felt amazing to be around this group. Everyone felt dialed in. Just couldn't get enough of hanging out, enough of watching scouts and film and working with the guys. It was just one of those things where everyone was feeding off it more and more. And just being able to hang out socially for these last couple weeks has been fantastic.

"Big congratulations to Indiana. I thought they played really well. They caused us problems on the counterattack especially in the first half. We had to deal with that, but then we just kept doing our thing, playing our style, keeping the ball, knocking it around. We got more and more chances and it just felt like there was only going to be one to win it. Glad to get (the winner) when we did. When it went in, it just felt surreal."

The delayed start time did not affect Marshall, as earlier on the pitch No. 11 Santa Clara defeated No. 1 seed Florida State in a penalty kick shootout to capture the women's National Title. It was Santa Clara's second National Championship in program history and its first since 2001. Kickoff was set back from 8 p.m. to 9:15 p.m., however the Herd came out firing from the first whistle.

Marshall maintained possession for the majority of the first half and outshot Indiana 8-6. The Herd notched four shots on goal that were all stopped by the Hoosiers' keeper Roman Celentano. Indiana had a few chances that were near misses, with two hitting off the post and a wide-open header off a corner kick that went wide left.

Yosef had the first shot on goal in the 18th minute as he fired one from about 20 yards out. Junior Vinicius Fernandes had a great chance in the 23rd minute that Celentano just knocked away, diving low to the near side. Dias squared up a shot from about 19 yards out in the 25th minute, catching it off a deflection from a corner kick that was nearly cleared out. Dias had a second shot on goal in the 37th minute.

The teams went in at the half all knotted up at 0-0.

The Herd continued to push the ball in the second half, after withstanding a quick rush from Indiana. Marshall was called for a foul in the 49th minute just outside of the 18-yard box to give the Hoosiers a free kick from 19 yards away. Off the set piece, Indiana fired in a low shot that was stopped by junior goalkeeper Oliver Semmler and an attempt at a rebound shot was called off due to an offside call against the Hoosiers.

Dias had his third shot on goal saved in the 56th minute as he tried to beat the keeper low to the far corner; however, Celentano was able to get his gloves on the shot. In the 65th minute, Fernandes sent in a high shot that almost slipped through Celentano's hands, but Indiana's keeper was able to grab the loose ball.

The two teams that were tied for the lead in the NCAA with 10 shutouts each, kept it scoreless after 90 minutes as the Herd and the Hoosiers headed to overtime.

Indiana put on the pressure at the beginning of the first overtime period. The Herd defense stood tall and despite the fact that the Hoosiers had the ball near the box, Marshall did not allow a shot. Finally, the Herd had a breakaway chance.

Yosef dribbled from the near side to the midfield and centered a pass to Dias at the top of the box. Dias attempted one shot that was blocked by an Indiana defender, but then Dias grabbed the quick rebound to take another shot from about 10 yards out. Celentano made the stop, but the ball was loose on the far side. Roberts knocked in the final touch with his left foot after a slight deflection off the post, and before Celentano made a last diving attempt.

"Déjà vu," Roberts said when asked about the goal. "Vitor in the box does something that no other player of the pitch can do. The keeper makes a decent save and I'm there to tap it in. Luckily I'm in the right place at the right time. That's what we train and I make that run 20 or 30 times in the game but it only takes that one time for the ball to drop. And as coach always says, we love tap ins.

"It was the best way to finish this incredible season."

The celebration ensued as Roberts and his teammates went sliding into the far corner and were very shortly joined by many of the fans in attendance. Roberts was named the College Cup's Offensive Most Outstanding Player.

"Generating that crowd and having them be such a big part of this has just given us that extra boost, that extra energy," coach Grassie said when asked about the Herd faithful fans in attendance. "This was amazing tonight. I think we would have bought every ticket. If we had twice as many tickets, we would have bought every ticket.

"They were out there tailgating and cheering us on. The pressure got bigger for us but the support was twice as big as the pressure. They really made it possible for us. And what an environment they created for our guys to play soccer in. Absolutely hats off to them. I love every one of them. I think I got a backbreaking hug from at least fifty-percent of them today. But just immensely proud to be a part of this group."

The Herd outshot Indiana 17-8, and 8-1 on goal. Roberts scored his fifth goal of the season and 19th of his career. He caps off his outstanding time with the Green & White second all-time in career assists (20), sixth in career goals and sixth in career points (58).

Semmler increased his program single-season record with his 11th shutout of the season, which also leads the NCAA. The junior goalkeeper also established new Herd and Conference USA records for the lowest goals against average with a 0.38. He bested the old Marshall mark of 0.52 set by Daniel Winthrow in 2012 and the league record of 0.49 set by Kentucky's Enrique Facusse in 2018.

Dias finished the year as Marshall's leader in goals (6), assists (7) and points (19).

Marshall became the first Conference USA member team to win a National Championship. Several schools have won national titles in many sports while members of other conferences. The Herd won two football Division I-AA titles in 1992 and 1996. The Marshall men's basketball team won an NAIB National Tournament in 1947 and the women's basketball team won five MAIAW tournaments in the 1970s.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The Marshall men's soccer team fell in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to the Providence Friars, 2-1, in double overtime on Sunday at Hoops Family Field. The loss brings the 2021 season to a close.

The Thundering Herd, who were ranked No. 4 in the final regular season United Soccer Coaches/NCAA poll and the No. 14 seed in the tournament, end the year with an 11-4-3 record. The Friars, who are unseeded but ranked No. 18 in the poll, improve to 12-4-4. Providence's season will continue in the third round at No. 3 seed Georgetown on Sunday, Nov. 28.

“Providence started launching it long and throwing a lot of numbers forward and we weren't able to get enough pressure higher up the field to stop their deliveries,” Herd head coach Chris Grassie said. “On the second goal, we had a couple of needless giveaways. We shouldn't have given the ball away those times, but then they were able to go wide and cross it in. We got beat on a giveaway and we got beat not pressing high enough to block shots.

“Credit to Providence. They continued to fight and were willing to throw numbers forward and we weren't making them pay for that on the back end of it.”

Providence outshot the Herd 10-8 overall, however both teams had four shots on goal.

In the first half, when the weather was still nice before the rain came, Marshall had four total shots with one on goal and Providence had two shots with one on goal. Redshirt junior Milo Yosef came out on the charge with a shot in the first minute that was stopped by Lukas Burns, the Friars' keeper. Junior Alex Adjetey had the next two attempts that missed the mark in the 11th and 12th minutes.

The first shot from Providence was in the 17th minute that missed wide right. In the 18th minute, senior goalkeeper Oliver Semmler made his first save of the match to keep it scoreless. Yosef fired the last shot of the half in the 42nd minute that missed high.

The teams went in at the half scoreless. And just as soon as the players walked into the locker rooms for the break, the rain began to fall and got harder and steadier throughout the remainder of the match.

The Herd started the second half with a couple of chances from freshman Mohammed Seidu off a corner and then graduate student Pedro Dolabella just moments later around the 50th minute that were both stopped by Burns.

Finally, in the 56th minute Yosef dribbled down passed a couple of defenders on the far side of the 18-yard box. He then sent a low cross that Adjetey tapped in for the score to give Marshall a 1-0 lead. Adjetey scored his second goal of the season and Yosef tallied his eighth assist of the year, tying him with senior Vinicius Fernandes for the team lead.

In the 63rd minute, Semmler made a diving save to keep the advantage in favor of the Herd. However, the Friars kept on pushing and applying more pressure. Providence broke through in the 85th minute with a goal by Miguel Candela. The match was tied and neither team was able to produce another shot over the final moments of regulation. With the rain continuing to pour down on Hoops Family Field, the match went to overtime.

2021 NCAA Tournament - Second Round vs. No. 18 Providence

There was only one shot in the first overtime as both teams kept trying to feel their way around to find that hole to break through. Providence had a shot blocked by senior Nathan Dossantos in the 94th minute. The match remained deadlocked at 1-1 after 100 minutes of action.

Three minutes and seven seconds into the second overtime (104th minute), Davis Smith headed in a pass from Brendan McSorley that found the back of the net for the game-winner.

The senior class for the Herd in 2021 did not have the season end the way that they were looking for in attempting to defend the National Championship. However, it is a group of players that has completely changed the landscape for the Marshall men's soccer program moving forward. They leave Huntington with two Conference USA Championships to go along with the 2020 College Cup Title. They have moved the Herd into the top of the rankings and received numerous accolades and national attention.

"I told the seniors that I loved them, that I was proud of them," coach Grassie said. "Told them it sucks. We're all upset. But in the days to come we will just talk about the good times and the memories. They have raised the bar so high. Together, we have been able to take this program to unprecedented heights and they have been such a huge part of that. And we have done that all together."

"When they don't come back the place isn't going to be the same. But they have raised the standards and the expectation for the next generation. And they have also made it easier for the next Marshall soccer player to come on and get recognized nationally and move on to have a pro career."

"I love those guys. I'm proud of them."
