HERD NOTES

Beeman leads the Herd with 15 points

Box Score | Coach Kemper Press Conference

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The Marshall women's basketball team rode a hot first quarter to defeat West Virginia Wesleyan, 72-39, at the Cam Henderson Center Tuesday evening. The Herd evens its record at 1-1 on the young season.

Redshirt-freshman guard Terah Harness connected on three shots from beyond the arc as Marshall made eight triples in the opening quarter. The Herd women led the visiting Bobcats, 30-9 after one quarter. Junior transfer Abby Beeman scored seven of her team-high 15 in the opening frame.

The visitors from Buckhannon settled into the game in the second, as Marshall increased their lead by just four in the second, and the two sides played even at 15-15 in the third. Women's basketball head coach Tony Kemper took positives from the team's win, while acknowledging the need to stay locked in for four quarters.

"There's good in there [In the team's win], and I think it's also a group that understands we have a long way to go to hit where we are actually capable of playing," Kemper said. "But you can also see that in terms of talent and depth, it's a pretty good team, so we have to continue to grow, figure out who needs to be out there when we need stops, and where the ball needs to go. It is a team with some depth, and it is good to get off to a good start at home."

Entering the final frame leading 59-34, the Herd kept Wesleyan without a field goal for the final 9:30 of the game. Senior Kia Sivils led the team defensively with six steals while sophomore Ashley Tudor led Marshall with six rebounds.

UP NEXT

Marshall will compete in a three-game, three-day tournament in Savannah, Georgia for the Hostilo Hoops Community Classic. The first game will be Monday, November 21 at 7:00 p.m. against UT Martin at Enmarket Arena.

Marshall Battles, but Falls in Season Opener at Purdue

WEST LAFAYETTE, In. – The Marshall women's basketball team dropped a hard-fought season opener, 73-61, to the Purdue Boilermakers. Junior guard Roshala Scott led all scorers with 20 points.

Marshall took a quarter to gel on the Mackey Arena court Thursday night, trailing 25-11 after one. Five straight points from Scott, and a layup from sophomore forward Samantha LaFon brought the Herd to within four at the break, trailing 37-33. LaFon was one of just three returning players from last season who played in the opener, as red-shirt-junior Mahogany Matthews and senior Kia Sivils also saw action. The rest of the lineup featured newcomers. In total, 10 players joined the Thundering Herd this offseason.

"It's not coach speak to say that we have no experience together at all," Coach Tony Kemper said. "So we didn't start great, but really battled back, had a really good second quarter, had a good third quarter, and I thought our fight was in the right place. I thought our togetherness was in the right place."

Marshall cut the deficit to one in the back-and-forth third quarter on a fastbreak jumper from Scott. Ensuing jumpers from Matthews and junior guard Abby Beeman kept the visitors to within a one-possession game late into the third. The Herd trailed 58-53 entering the final quarter.

ten opponent in the fourth, with another field goal from Matthews, as well as a jumper from sophomore guard Ashley Tudor. A Beeman jumper brought Coach Kemper's side to within three with just under five minutes remaining at 62-59, before Purdue held the Herd to without a field goal over the final 4:59 of the game.

"Give them credit, Coach Gearlds called a timeout with around five minutes to go and they really locked us down from that point forward," Coach Kemper added. "We couldn't get the ball to the spots that we wanted, so we will have to have better defense at the end and get the ball to better spots on the offensive end. But overall, this is something we can build on."

Purdue closed on an 11-3 run to take the season opener for both teams, 73-61.

Marshall women's basketball signs two Rylee Sagester and Alonya Waldon join The Herd

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – Marshall University Women's Basketball head coach Tony Kemper announced a pair of signees as Rylee Sagester and Alonya Waldon are set to join the Thundering Herd.

Rylee Sagester is a 5-7 guard from West Alexandria, Ohio. Through her junior season, she has averaged 17.2 points, 4.3 rebounds and 3.8 assists per game for Tri-Village High School. The lefty combo guard has made 287 threes, for a career three-point mark of 41.5% and was named the Western Ohio Athletic Conference Player of the Year in 2022. She also has been named Ohio Division IV's District 9 Player of the Year, Southwest Co-Player of the Year, and 1st Division All-Ohio. Sagester is 88 makes away from being the all-time three-point record holder in Ohio girls basketball history.

"Rylee has been one of the most consistent scorers and three-point threats in the state of Ohio over the past couple of years," Coach Kemper said. "She brings great work ethic and skill along with a high basketball IQ. We are excited to add her to our basketball family, she can make an immediate impact on our team."

Alonya Waldon is a 5-6 point guard from Melbourne, Florida. Waldon is a 4x District and Regional Champion, and a two-time 4A State Champion with Palm Bay High School. The 5-6 guard averaged 9.0 points per game her junior season, and has scored 823 points from the point guard position. Waldon also averaged 4.0 assists per game, 4.0 steals per game, and 2.0 rebounds per game in 2021-22.

"Alonya is a true point guard with playmaking skills for herself and others," added Coach Kemper. "We love her positive energy and the effort that she exhibits while playing. She will be a good decision maker within our offense and will make others around her better. We can't wait for her to get here."

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The Marshall women’s basketball team rode a hot first quarter to defeat West Virginia Wesleyan, 72-39, at the Cam Henderson Center Tuesday evening. The Herd evens its record at 1-1 on the young season.

Redshirt-freshman guard Terah Harness connected on three shots from beyond the arc as Marshall made eight triples in the opening quarter. The Herd women led the visiting Bobcats, 30-9 after one quarter. Junior transfer Abby Beeman scored seven of her team-high 15 in the opening frame.

The visitors from Buckhannon settled into the game in the second, as Marshall increased their lead by just four in the second, and the two sides played even at 15-15 in the third. Women’s basketball head coach Tony Kemper took positives from the team’s win, while acknowledging the need to stay locked in for four quarters.

“There’s good in there [In the team’s win], and I think it’s also a group that understands we have a long way to go to hit where we are actually capable of playing,” Kemper said. “But you can also see that in terms of talent and depth, it’s a pretty good team, so we have to continue to grow, figure out who needs to be out there when we need stops, and where the ball needs to go. It is a team with some depth, and it is good to get off to a good start at home.”

Entering the final frame leading 59-34, the Herd kept Wesleyan without a field goal for the final 9:30 of the game. Senior Kia Sivils led the team defensively with six steals while sophomore Ashley Tudor led Marshall with six rebounds.

Sophomore Aarionna Redman made her season debut for Marshall, while freshmen Peyton Ilderton and Olivia Ziolkowski made their collegiate debuts Tuesday night. Ilderton scored five points, while Ziolkowski grabbed a rebound in the win.

HEAD COACH TONY KEMPER
 Sixth season • @CoachTonyKemper
 Career Record: 63-77 (Overall)
 0-0 (Sun Belt)

Fort Hays State '01

Tony Kemper enters his sixth season as the head coach of the Marshall women's basketball team after being elevated to the position in March of 2017. Kemper had previously been an assistant coach with the women's program for five seasons before taking over.

For the 2021-22 season, Kemper brought in some great talent from the transfer portal in graduate transfers Aaliyah Dunham and Brianah Ferby who starred for the Herd. Dunham led Conference and ranked 18th in the NCAA in assist-to-turnover ratio at 2.47. Her national ranking was the highest by a Marshall player going back through 2009-10. Dunham also ended the season named to the C-USA All-Academic Team. Ferby provided an offensive spark from the outside and hit many clutch shots. Ferby lit up Florida Atlantic for 15 of her season-high 20 points in the fourth quarter as Marshall came from behind for the road win.

Kemper helped the Thundering Herd navigate the COVID-19-riddled 2020-21 campaign, which yielded second-team All-Conference USA acclaim for Savannah Wheeler and a signature home win over perennial league stalwart Rice in late February.

Kemper led the Herd through a great improvement in his second season. He has brought some added excitement to the program as the attendance average for Marshall rose from 641 in 2016-17 to 1,153 in 2018-19. Kemper's 2019 recruiting class also ranked in the top 60 nationally.

After going 9-20 overall and 3-13 in C-USA in 2017-18, Marshall was predicted to finish 13th in the Conference USA 2018-19 preseason polls. Instead, the Herd rolled out an 8-win improvement overall and 7-wins better in conference play finishing 17-15 and 10-6 in C-USA, securing the No. 6 seed in the tournament. The 10 conference victories were the most C-USA wins for Marshall in program history. Following the conference tournament, the Herd earned a berth in the WBI, just the fourth postseason trip in program history. Marshall won its first round game 67-64 at Davidson before falling in the second round.

Following the 2021-22 season, Kemper increased his overall record to 62-76.

During the 2018-19 season, Marshall was fifth in the conference in points per game (67.3) and led the league in 3-point field goals made per game in conference action (8.9). The Herd also saw an increase in defensive production as Marshall was ranked 13th in C-USA in field goal percentage allowed in 2017-18 but jumped up to fifth in 2018-19. The Herd saw senior Taylor Porter honored twice as a Conference USA Player of the Week including once after breaking the Marshall single-game record draining 10 3-pointers in the senior day win over FIU.

Senior Shayna Gore was named First Team All-Conference USA. Gore was previously honored as Second Team All-Conference USA in 2017-18. The senior guard capped off her prestigious career under the guide of Kemper as just the third player in program history to score over 2,000 points (2,081). Her name can be found all throughout the record book including the program's all-time leader in 3-point field goals made with 303, more than twice the previous record of 146.

The Herd reached some other milestones in 2018-19 including earning a three-overtime victory at home against Louisiana Tech (Jan. 24). It was one of three overtime victories in 2018-19 after going 131 games – second-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time – without even playing an overtime contest. Marshall also earned its first win over Charlotte in the last 10 meetings (Jan. 5) and the team's first ever win over Middle Tennessee (Feb. 16) as Marshall was previously 0-8 against the Blue Raiders.

seven college graduates over the last two years. The team's overall grade point average in 2017-18 was 3.23 and climbed up to 3.28 in 2108-19. His players have been honored 18 times on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better) and 11-time recipients of the C-USA Academic Medal for maintaining a GPA of 3.75 or higher.

During his first five seasons at Marshall as an assistant coach, Kemper has assisted in rebuilding a program that progressively increased its win total over the first four seasons - from 9 to 11 to 17 to 21 wins in the 2015-16 season. That 2015-16 win total was the most for Thundering Herd Women's Basketball in 29 seasons and, for the first time in school history, yielded a first-team All-Conference USA student-athlete for Marshall in Leah Scott.

He helped lead Marshall to two of only three postseason berths in the program's NCAA history, including its first postseason win in 2014-15 (WBI) and WNIT berth in 2015-16.

Kemper has also been heavily involved in the Thundering Herd's recruiting and academic success, helping sign the 34th-ranked class in 2017 and its group in 2015, which came in 52nd.

In the classroom, the program has placed 28 members on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.0 cumulative GPA or better) and three more were given the Commissioner's Academic Medal (3.75).

Kemper came to Marshall from Central Arkansas, where he coached with now-former Marshall head coach Matt Daniel for three seasons. At UCA, Kemper helped the Sugar Bears to their first Division I conference title and three seasons of at least 21 wins. His tutelage of inside players helped gain two Southland Player of the Year honors and a Defensive Player of the Year.

Before joining the women's staff, Kemper served as an assistant coach for the Central Arkansas men's basketball program for four years.

Two professional players emerged from UCA during those seasons -- the leading scorer in Portugal's Proliga pro league in 2011, Nate Bowie, and professional center Durell Nevels.

Prior to UCA, Kemper was an assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College - one of the nation's most successful junior college programs.

At Hutchinson, he oversaw day-to-day operations and directed the Blue Dragons' strength and conditioning efforts while also serving as a mathematics and physical education instructor.

The Logan, Kansas, native also held the head coaching spot at Quivira Heights High School in Bushton in 2003-04, guiding QHHS to a No. 1 seed to the regional tournament.

His coaching career began in 2002-03 as an assistant at Hill City (Kansas) High School. Kemper received a bachelor's degree in finance from Fort Hays State University in 2001 and a BBA in Business Education in 2003. He also earned a master's degree in organizational leadership from Fort Hays in 2008.

Kemper and his wife Sandra, a professor at Marshall in the Communications Disorders Department, live in Huntington with sons Brayden and Landry and daughter Jolie.
