Winning Streak: 11 - 3rd-longest in MUSB History

Marshall continues to roll in the month of March. After three more wins at home, the Herd has increased its win streak to 11, the third-longest in team history. The MUSB record winning streak belongs to the 2017 squad that won 17 in a row. The C-USA Championship winning team in 2013 owns the second-longest streak at 14 games.

Autumn Owen Keeps Getting on Base

Sophomore Autumn Owen is hitting her stride. Before this season began, the transfer from Gardner-Webb had not played in a meaningful game since March 11, 2020. The Runnin' Bulldogs were off to a great year, including a 17-game win streak, when the remainder of the season was canceled due to the COVID pandemic. Owen then missed the entire 2021 season from injury.

Now 21 games into the 2022 season, Owen is looking like her old self. She rolled through the Thundering Herd March Madness batting .875 (7-of-8) and reached base safely 10-of-11 plate appearances. She is on a 6-game hitting streak and has produced two or more hits in 4-straight games, tied for the fourth-longest streak in team history.

Armani Brown Gets it Rolling

Armani Brown had another struggling at the plate going 0-for-14 to start the year. Against Maryland Eastern Shore, Brown took another chance at the plate and went 2-for-2 with a walk, stolen base and scored a run. She kept it rolling in her next game against Fairfield going 3-for-3 and setting a career-high with three RBI. She did not reach against Norfolk State (0-for-1) but did record a sacrifice bunt. In the finale against Fairfield, Brown tallied another hit with a perfectly placed bunt and outran the defense for a single. Brown later scored and had a walk in the game. After her 0-for-14 start, Brown went 6-of-9 (.667) at the plate over a four-game stretch.

Nester Named C-USA Pitcher of the Week, Again

Sydney Nester had another strong weekend in the circle for Marshall during the Thundering Herd March Madness. She began the tournament with a one-hit shutout over Fairfield in six innings, 8-0. Nester walked just one batter and struck out six while receiving great defensive play. She came on in relief to start the sixth inning in the nightcap against Norfolk State. Nester struck out three of the six batters she faced, allowed one hit, and induced a grounder that resulted in a 5-4-3 double play to end the game and preserve the win. Nester earned the save, her second of the year.

Nester kept on rolling in the weekend finale, facing Fairfield again. She rebounded from a rough start, allowing four runs through the first three innings, to completely shut down the Stags. Nester struck out the last seven batters she faced and finished the game with a season-high 15, which also tied her career-high set back in 2019 against the College of Charleston (in nine innings) while pitching for North Carolina State. Nester's 15 Ks was the most by a Herd pitcher since Jordan Dixon put up 15 in a win over Northern Kentucky in 2015. It is also tied for the third-most by a Marshall pitcher in a single game.

Racing Each Other to Chase Down History

Fifth-year senior Aly Harrell and senior Mya Stevenson continue to battle their way up the Marshall career home run charts. Stevenson currently leads the friendly battle with 45, while Harrell is right behind with 43. Stevenson is second and Harrell is third. Since 2021, the two players have kept trading spots on who is the Herd's active leader. Harrell and Stevenson entered the 2022 season tied at 40. Harrell took the lead first with No. 41 in the opener against Saint Joseph's. Stevenson later tied Harrell in the same game, and then took the lead the next day against Villanova. However, both players are still chasing down the Herd's all-time leader in four-time All-American, and Marshall Athletics Hall of Famer, Rachel Folden (2005-08) who finished with 58.

Marshall's All-Time Home Run Leaders

1. Rachel Folden - 58 (225 games 2005-08, avg. 1 HR/3.88 games)
2. Mya Stevenson - 45 (140 games 2019-Pres., avg. 1 HR/3.11 games)
3. Aly Harrell - 43 (188 games 2018-Pres., avg. 1 HR/4.37 games)

Nester No-Hits Mastodons

Sydney Nester was dominant once again to start Marshall off on the right foot during its home-opener against Purdue Fort Wayne on March 3. Nester pitched all five innings of the Herd's 11-0 win with 11 strikeouts and did not allow a hit. It was her first no-hitter in a Marshall uniform and the second of her collegiate career, first since 2019 against College of Charleston while with NC State. The Mastodons did get three runners on in the third off a dropped strike three, one Herd error and a walk. Nester proceeded to strike out the next batter to end the inning and keep the shutout, as well as the no-hitter, going. She retired the next six batters over the last two innings, with four by strikeout.

Offense Sets Hits in an Inning Record

Marshall has been having some explosive innings lately, and the first inning against Purdue Fort Wayne in the home-opener was no exception. The Herd bats set a team record with 10 hits in the first as 14 batters came to the plate, resulting in nine runs. The Mastodons threw a total of 54 pitches.

The 10 hits bested the old record of nine from the 6th inning against Western Michigan, all the way back on May 12, 2005, in the Mid-American Conference Tournament. Marshall won that crazy game 13-12. In the 2022 home-opener, the Herd smashed three home runs to drive in seven of the runs, had two doubles and five singles.

Lauren Love opened the inning with a walk and was followed by singles from Aly Harrell (1) and Saige Pye (2). The hit from Pye scored Love for the first run. Two batters later, Rielly Lucas (3) hit a double to left that scored by Harrell and Pye. Next, Katie Adams (4) hit a 2-run homer to right that gave the Herd a 5-0 lead. Two batters later and with two outs, Camryn Michallas (5) kept it going with a single, followed by another base hit from Alex Coleman (6). Love (7) stepped back up to the plate and hit a 3-run homer to right-center. Marshall now led 8-0. Harrell (8) came through with her second hit of the inning with a double and Pye (9) belted a two-run shot to left. The home run was the final run of the inning, however the record-breaking 10th hit came next from Mya Stevenson with a single up the middle.

Nester Sets Herd Record - Fastest to 100 Strikeouts

Sydney Nester is proving to be a wonderful addition to the Herd by dominating in the circle. Through her incredible start, the redshirt junior set a team record as the fastest pitcher in Marshall softball history to reach 100 strikeouts. Nester completed the feat in her 12th outing and 58 innings pitched for the season. Her 100th strikeout came in the sixth inning against Maryland Eastern Shore on March 4. It was her eight of the game. She finished with nine.

The old record was 63 innings by Jordan Dixon in 2015. Dixon accomplished the feat on Feb. 21 against Auburn. It was her 12th outing of the year as well and number 100 came on the very first batter in the first inning.

Herd Tosses Four-Straight Shutouts

Marshall's pitchers and defense was clicking on all cylinders during the Thundering Herd Round Robin, March 3-5. The Herd tallied four-straight shutouts and allowed just one run through five games. The four-straight blankings is the most since four-straight toward the end of the 2019 season, May 4-9. It is also tied for the second-longest streak in team history. Back in 2001, Marshall had five-straight shutouts, April 22-28. The Herd blanked Akron in a doubleheader, then Liberty in another doubleheader and the first of a three-game series with Buffalo.

Shutout #1 - vs. Purdue Fort Wayne - Sydney Nester threw a no-hitter and struck out 11

Shutout #2 - vs. Purdue Fort Wayne - Cailey Joyce pitched all 5

innings, allowed 3 hits, no walks and struck out 7

Shutout #3 - vs. Maryland Eastern Shore - Sydney Nester pitched all 7

innings, allowed 3 hits, no walks and struck out 9

Shutout #4 - vs. Winthrop - Sydney Nester pitched all 7 innings, allowed two hits, 1 walk and struck out 11

The Herd was close to a fifth-straight shutout in the final game against Maryland Eastern Shore. Cailey Joyce had another great game throwing all 5 innings, allowed five hits, no walks and struck out six. However, the Hawks scored one run in the top of the fifth. Marshall won 14-1 and outscored its opponents 43-1 in the tournament.

Marshall Offense Has Another Big First Inning

Three times this season, Marshall has gone off for at least nine runs in the first inning. The first was versus Howard at the Camel Stampede on Feb. 25. Marshall went through 14 batters, tallied eight hits and scored nine runs. The second was against Purdue Fort Wayne on March 3. The Herd went through 14 batters again, set a team record with 10 hits and scored nine runs. The third came two days later on March 5 versus Maryland Eastern Shore. Marshall saw 14 batters come to the plate again, had nine hits and scored nine runs. The third time was highlighted by a bases-clearing triple from sophomore Kay Kenney. The right-hander was sent in to pinch hit for Alex Coleman with the bases loaded and ripped a shot down the left field line. The ball curved into the corner and ricocheted off the fence and back into fair territory. Bub Feringa, Rielly Lucas and Autumn Owen all crossed the plate as Kenney recorded her first career triple.

Nester Dominates Camel Stampede, Named C-USA Pitcher of the Week Second Time

Sydney Nester has been on a tear to begin her career at Marshall. At the Camel Stampede Nester tossed 29 more strikeouts in 16 innings through three appearances. She started against Kent State on Friday and finished with 12 strikeouts, allowed two hits, one run and took the loss as the Herd fell 1-0. Nester came in against Howard on Saturday in the sixth inning, got Marshall out of a jam and finished with four more strikeouts in two innings, out of six batters faced. In the final game of the weekend against the home team, Campbell, Nester blew down the Camels with 13 strikeouts tying her season-high. The win was her fifth of the year and her fifth game with 10 or more strikeouts. Nester had four games of 10+ Ks in three years at NC State.

Marshall Offense Explodes Versus Howard

In the Herd's first game against Howard at the Camel Stampede, Marshall rebounded from a 1-0 loss to Kent State by scoring 15 runs off 14 hits in a 15-2 win over the Bison. The 15 runs tied for the fourth-most in a game in team history. Of the 14 hits, none left the park and there were just three doubles.

The Herd scored 10 runs in the first inning off eight hits with 14 batters coming to the plate. It was the third time since 2000 that Marshall scored double-digit runs in an inning and the first since putting up 11 in the first inning on March 6, 2010, versus Delaware at Dot Hicks Field. Marshall's eight hits are tied for the second-most in an inning since 2000, and the most since tallying eight in the fifth inning on May 2, 2018, at Louisville.

Pye Goes Deep Twice on Saturday at Camel Stampede

Fifth-year senior Saige Pye helped the Herd slug its way to two more wins on the final day of the Camel Stampede. Pye belted a towering shot in the top of the seventh against Howard that felt as if it was in the air for an eternity, before finally falling beyond the wall in left. The three-run shot gave the Herd a 7-2 lead on the way to a 9-2 victory.

Against Campbell, Pye launched another homer that cleared the wall a lot faster for a two-run bomb in the fifth. Marshall was leading the home team 3-2 before the blast and went on to win 6-3. Pye has now hit 19 home runs in her collegiate career with 18 coming in a Marshall uniform. Her first collegiate homer came in 2018 against Pitt as a freshman at Georgia Tech.

Love Has a Day at the Plate

On Friday against Howard at the Camel Stampede, freshman Lauren Love finished the day 4-for-4 at the plate with three runs and three RBI. In the 10-run first inning, Love had two hits and scored twice as well. She was one of three players to reach base twice in the inning with Mya Stevenson and Katie Adams the others. Love continued in the third inning with a leadoff single to center and then scored on a double from Stevenson. Love's final at bat came in the fourth and this time she ripped a double to right-center that scored Alex Coleman for the Herd's 15th run of the game.

Lauren Love is the first Marshall freshman to have four hits in a game since Mya Stevenson hit for the cycle at Charlotte on March 16, 2019, and the ninth to achieve the mark since 2000.

Welcome to NCAA Softball Bub Feringa

Freshman Bub Feringa had made two appearances in the circle before getting her first shot at the plate with an at bat. Feringa starred both as a pitcher and a hitter at Cactus High School in Glendale, Arizona. Her first plate appearance came with a pinch hit in the top of the seventh against Coastal Carolina.

With a 1-1 count, Feringa belted a two-run home run out to right-center, two runs that proved to be the difference after the Chanticleers put together a furious comeback in the bottom of the seventh. Feringa joined exclusive company in Marshall softball history, becoming just the fifth player since 2000 to begin a career with a home run in their very first plate appearance, and the first since 2016.

Kenney Takes Advantage

Sophomore Kay Kay Kenney entered the Herd's Saturday game against South Carolina off the bench to fill in for an injury after Madison Whitaker went down. Lauren Love was in left field and moved to the infield, and Kenney took left. With her first at bat against the Gamecocks in the third, and two outs, Kenney sent a screamer over the fence in center for a 3-run home run. It was the second homer of her young career. She finished the game with two hits and a hit-by-pitch. Kenney started the nightcap against Coastal Carolina and had an RBI double and scored a run. Against Fordham, the Highland Village, Texas, native reached on a walk and scored as well.

Adams Ends Slump with a BANG

Fifth-year senior Katie Adams was experiencing an early season slump through the Battle at the Beach (Feb. 18-20), going 0-for-12 through the first four games. She only reached base with a hit-by-pitch in the second game against Coastal Carolina and later scored a run. Several times through the first four games, Adams made solid contact but unfortunately for her, the ball went straight to a defender who made the play. Finally, in the last game of the weekend against Fordham, Adams came to the plate in the third with the bases loaded. On an 0-2 count, Adams cranked a shot to right-center for a grand slam. It was the first grand slam of the season for Marshall and the first of Adams' career. Marshall went on to win 8-0.

Nester Dominates Buzz Classic, Named C-USA Pitcher of the Week

Redshirt junior, and transfer from North Carolina State, Sydney Nester announced her arrival to the Herd like a buzzsaw going through the opposing batters at the Buzz Classic, Feb. 11-12. Nester finished the weekend 3-0 with 25 strikeouts and did not allow a run across 14 innings. She gave up just six hits, one walk, one hit batter and an opponent batting average of .125.

Nester started off with 13 strikeouts in six innings against Saint Joseph's, just two away from her career-high. She earned her first Herd win with the complete-game, 8-0 shutout. Nester kept it going with 11 more strikeouts on Saturday with another shutout against Villanova. She retired the final eight batters of the game as the Herd won 8-0 in five innings. Finally, Nester pitched the final three innings of Marshall's comeback win over Saint Joseph's Saturday night. She struck out one more batter and allowed only two baserunners.

Nester became the Herd's first pitcher to throw double-digit strikeouts in a game since Jordan Dixon fanned 10 on April 21, 2017, at Virginia Tech. Nester became the first Marshall pitcher to win her first three outings of the season since Dixon accomplished the feat in 2015. The right-hander also became the first Herd pitcher since 2000 (single game records are incomplete prior to 2000) to open a season with back-to-back double-digit strikeout performances. Dixon was the last to tally 10 or more Ks in back-to-back games, sitting down 10 versus Hampton and then 10 more against Towson in a doubleheader at the Tar Heel Classic on Feb. 25, 2017.

Herd Ties MU Single Game HR Record...Again

Marshall opened 2022 with five home runs against Saint Joseph's, an all-time best in a season-opener, and tied the program record for a single game. It was the fifth time in team history that the mark has been reached, and the fourth time under Head Coach Megan Smith Lyon. Katie Adams got it started with a solo shot in the second to left-center. Aly Harrell belted a solo homer in the fourth to almost the same spot as Adams. Madison Whitaker opened a high-scoring inning for MU in the fifth with a two-run, laser line drive over the wall in center. Saige Pye smashed the fourth homer of the game with a 3-run blast, also in the fifth, off the foul pole in left. Mya Stevenson hit a solo shot to right to tie the record and end the game, 8-0, in the sixth.

Love Comes Up Clutch

Marshall freshman Lauren Love came through in two big moments for the Herd during the Buzz Classic. In her first collegiate plate appearance, Love came in to pinch hit in the top of the fifth inning with a runner at second, two outs, and Marshall facing the mercy rule trailing Villanova 8-0. If the Herd wanted a chance to move the game on to try and comeback, it needed at least one run. Love stepped to the plate facing preseason All-American Paige Rauch and battled with the fifth-year senior for a 10-pitch at bat. On the 10th pitch, Love delivered a base hit into centerfield that scored fellow freshman Brooklyn Ulrich from second. Unfortunately, the Herd allowed the Wildcats to score one more run in the bottom of the fifth to end the game, 9-1.

Love was not done with her clutch hits. Against Saint Joseph's on Saturday night, Love came to the plate in the top of the sixth with classmate Alex Coleman at second, two away, and the Herd trailing 4-3. Love took the first pitch of the at bat over the fence in right for her first career home run. The 2-run shot gave Marshall the lead, 5-4, as the Herd went on to win 6-4.

Marshall at Georgia Tech Sunday Contest Canceled

Marshall softball's team bus was involved in an accident following the Thundering Herd's 6-4 win over Saint Joseph's, Saturday night (Feb. 12) at the Buzz Classic in Atlanta.

Two individuals from the travel party were treated for minor, non-life threatening injuries and released from a local hospital Sunday morning following the accident.

Out of an abundance of caution, Marshall and Georgia Tech have made the decision to cancel today's scheduled 1 p.m. game and the Thundering Herd will return to Huntington later today (Feb. 13).

Season Outlook

Marshall finished the 2021 season with a 20-13 record. Despite also playing two games in the Conference USA Tournament, the Herd played fewer games last season than any other league team due to COVID and scheduling restrictions. UTEP, who did not make the postseason tourney, played the next fewest at 37.

Coming off the 2021 season, Marshall looks to replace departed veterans Blakely Burch, Sierra Huerta, Laney Jones and Megan Stauffer.

However, the Herd returns an experienced, and very dangerous lineup. Back for another round with the Green & White are fifth year seniors Aly Harrell, Katie Adams, Armani Brown, Saige Pye and Madison Whitaker. Followed next by seniors Mya Stevenson, Grace Chelemen and Camryn Michallas. Redshirt junior pitcher Cailey Joyce returns after her first season in Huntington in 2021. Junior pitcher Ashley Blessin and sophomores Kay Kay Kenney and Brianna McCown are back as well. Amaya Lee returns after missing all of 2021 with a shoulder injury.

Newcomers to town are led by two transfers in redshirt junior Sydney Nester and sophomore Autumn Owen. Nester, a right-handed pitcher, starred for North Carolina State for three seasons. Owen, a catcher, comes from Gardner-Webb where she nearly rewrote the record book as a freshman in 2019. Owen missed all of last season with an injury. Both Nester has two years of eligibility remaining and Owen has three years of eligibility left.

The freshman class brings six new faces that possess great talent, add incredible depth, and keep the future looking bright for MUSB. The new class consists of four infielders in Laney and Lauren Love (Matthews, N.C.), Rielly Lucas (Huntington, W.Va.), and Brooklyn Ulrich (Mesa, Ariz.). Alex Coleman (Asheboro, N.C.) is an outfielder and Bub Feringa (Glendale, Ariz.) is a pitcher and a hitter.

HERD NOTES

Laney and Lauren Love add to that rich history. The freshmen from Matthews, N.C., are the seventh set of sisters to suit up for the Herd, and the second set of twins. However, the two do not quite share the same birthday. Laney was born on December 31, 2002. Lauren was born on January 1, 2003. Both are talented infielders who piled up accolades during their respective prep careers at Porter Ridge High School.

Marshall's first set of twins were Amanda and Jessica Williams who played from 2003-06. Both players reside in the Marshall Athletics Hall of Fame.

Harrell, Stevenson and Pye Preseason All-C-USA

Aly Harrell, Saige Pye and Mya Stevenson selected to the Preseason All-Conference USA Team. All three players were selected prior to the 2021 season as well. The Herd was picked to finish fifth overall in the coaches' poll.

Harrell enters her fifth season at Marshall after being granted the additional year with the 2020 COVID season. Harrell led the Herd in 2021 in batting average (.415), hits (39), home runs (10), RBI (29), total bases (77), slugging percentage (.819) and on base percentage (.526). The power hitter with the great eye at the plate, struck out only three times in 94 at bats over 30 games played in 2021. The Gahanna, Ohio, native continued her assault on the Marshall record books as well, ranking in the top 10 all-time in 11 offensive categories and three defensive. Harrell is tops all-time in career on base percentage at .547. She is second in walks (131) to four-time All-American Rachel Folden (2005-08). Harrell was named First Team All-C-USA and First Team All-Mideast Region.

Harrell and Stevenson have been in a friendly battle, rising up the home run charts as both players set their sights on Folden's record of 58. Harrell and Stevenson ended the 2021 season with 40 homers each, good for second all-time. Harrell hit her 40th of her career at Charlotte on May 8, with a two-run blast to right field. Stevenson launched two shots in the Conference USA Tournament to catch back up and tie Harrell once again.

Stevenson was one of just two players to play in all 33 games last season, starting in 32. She struggled early but exploded in conference play. Stevenson ended the season batting .293 with 29 hits, 27 runs scored (led team), eight doubles, eight home runs, 20 RBI and slugged .616. During the 16 league games in 2021, the slugger hit .385 with 20 hits, 13 runs, seven doubles, three homers and slugged .692. Along with being tied for second all-time at Marshall in home runs, Stevenson's name can also be found throughout the record book. The Mesquite, Texas, native enters her fourth season second in slugging percentage (.755). Last year Stevenson became the 13th member of the Marshall 100 RBI Club, with a bomb at Chattanooga and currently as 114 good for 10th. She was named Second Team All-C-USA in 2021.

Pye enters her third season with the Herd and her fifth year of collegiate action, also being granted the extra year after the 2020 COVID season. Pye's bat has been a key factor in Marshall's offense since she transferred to Huntington before the 2020 season from Georgia Tech. Last season, Pye hit .395 with 34 hits, 14 runs, five doubles, six home runs, 23 RBI, slugged .663 and had a .459 on base percentage. The Stockton, California, native also went off in league action beginning with a great series against Florida Atlantic. In the three games played, Pye hit .462 (6-of-13) with nine RBI. She tied the program single-game record with three doubles in game three of the series, and her third double drove in two runs in the bottom of the seventh to tie the game. Harrell won it in the ninth. Pye had a 12-game hitting streak toward the end of the season and reached base safely in the final 18 games. She was named First Team All-C-USA and Third Team All-Mideast Region.

- Cailey Joyce had the start was relieved in the second inning. Bub Feringa came in from left field to pitch and last through the fourth. Feringa ended the fourth with a catch back in the circle that left the bases loaded.
- Brianna McCown saw her first action of the season in the circle after dealing with an injury from the fall semester. McCown came on in relief to start the fifth inning and blew through the Spartan batters. She retired the side in just 9 pitches and tallied her first strikeout of the year on the second batter. McCown earned the win as she was the pitcher of record when Marshall took the lead in the bottom of the fifth.
- Sydney Nester pitched the sixth and seventh innings and struck out three of the six batters faced to earn the save.
- The Herd's defense ended the game with a 5-4-3 double play. With a runner at first, and one out, Madison Whitaker scooped up a grounder at third and threw to Armani Brown at second for one out. Brown then turned to Harrell at first in time to complete the double play.
- MU got within one run in the 3rd inning on a dropped pop fly. The bases were loaded with just one out, Rielly Lucas popped up to second base. Infield fly rule was called by the umpire to retire Lucas, and then the ball was dropped. Autumn Owen quickly sprinted home and touched the plate before the tag.
- MU gained the lead in the fifth. Owen scored from third on a wild pitch to tie the game. Whitaker then scored the go-ahead run on a double from Lauren Love with two outs.
- Aly Harrell was 3-of-4 for her 50th career multi-hit game. She scored 2 runs, her 23rd career multi-run game.
- Autumn Owen was 2-of-3 at the plate and had one walk. She had reached base safely 6-straight times going back to game one vs. Fairfield. She was finally retired in the sixth inning on a ground out that ricocheted off the pitcher's glove directly over to first base.
- Alex Coleman had two hits, her first career multi-hit game.

Sunday vs. Fairfield

- Sydney Nester overcame a rough start, allowing four runs through the first three innings, to shut down Fairfield for her 10th win of the season. Nester struck out the last seven batters she faced and finished the game with a season-high 15, which also tied her career-best.
- Marshall collected 11 hits, its 4th-straight game with double-digit hits, tied for the 3rd-longest streak since 2000. The team record is 6-straight games April 2-9, 2014. Once against Radford (10), 3x at MTSU (12, 15, 10) and 2x at Northern Kentucky (19, 14).
- Autumn Owen reached base safely all 4 times going 3-for-3 with two doubles and one walk. Owen drove in 2 runs and set a career-high with 16 putouts on defense. It was the 4th-straight game of 2 or more hits for Owen, tied for the 4th-longest streak in team history.
- Mya Stevenson was 3-of-4 at the plate and hit her team-leading ninth double of the year. She drove in two runs in the fifth to give the Herd an 8-4 lead.
- Saige Pye was 2-of-3 with a 2-run home run, a double and a walk. Pye set a career-high with 3 runs scored.
- Lauren Love overcame a rough day at the plate to hit a 2-run homer in the fourth inning to tie the game at 4-4. Pye then hit her 2-run homer to give MU the lead. It was the fifth time this season that the Herd at least 2 homers in the same inning.
- Aly Harrell was walked once bringing her career total to 146. She needs just one more to tie Rachel Folden for the most in team history.

Megan
Smith

Head Coach
4th Season
North Carolina '99

Megan Smith Lyon enters her fourth season in 2022 leading the Marshall softball team after being hired as the program's fourth head coach on July 25, 2018. Coach Smith Lyon became the fastest to reach 50 wins in program history, needing just 76 games to get there, as she earned her 50th at Marshall with a dominating 8-0 win in five innings over Rhode Island on Feb. 23, 2020.

Coach Smith Lyon's record at Marshall is 96-47, a .671 winning percentage, and 489-312 overall (16 years).

Despite no postseason awards been given out in 2020 due to the season being canceled, in her tenure Smith Lyon has had eight players named all-conference, nine C-USA player/pitchers of the week and four all-region. Her players have starred in the classroom as well with players named to the C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll 45 times, seven receiving the Academic Medal, and 10 as NFCA Academic All-Americans.

Smith Lyon carried her team through a difficult year in 2021 dealing with restrictions from the COVID-19 pandemic, and still finished with a winning record of 20-13. The Herd still ranked among the nation's best in doubles per game (seventh), home runs per game (12th), slugging percentage (16th), on base percentage (23rd) and scoring (27th).

Marshall was off to a record-breaking start offensively in 2020 before the year came to an abrupt end after 25 games, due to the cancellation of the season from the outbreak of the COVID-19 virus. The Herd was on pace to eclipse records that were set just the season before. As a team Marshall was batting .357, slugging .643, an on base percentage of .440, and was leading the nation in home runs per game with 1.92 (48 total). The team was on pace to hit the century mark in homers by the end of the regular season. The offensive onslaught started from the beginning of the year and picked up pace during the Pirate Classic (Feb. 28-March 1) as Marshall blasted 15 home runs in five games. The Herd tied its single-game record of five home runs twice. The first time came against the Delaware State Hornets (Feb. 28) and then at No. 11 Kentucky (March 11). Marshall was seventh in the nation in scoring with 7.56 runs per game, with the old team record of 5.40 set in 2015. Other per game averages that displayed the Herd's offensive prowess included 9.84 hits (old record 9.28 in 2015), 1.64 doubles (1.40 set in 2008), 6.96 RBI (4.88 set in 2019), 17.72 total bases (12.31 set in 2017), and 3.48 walks per contest (3.44 set in 2019). Marshall had eight wins by the mercy rule, tied for third-most in a season (2006) in team history.

Coach Smith led a big turnaround for the Herd with a 17-win improvement (tied for second-best in program history) at 42-22.

Her first season with the Herd was a record-breaking one along with leading the team to the Conference USA Championship game for the first time since 2014 as the No. 4 seed in the tournament. Following the 3-1 championship game loss to No. 2 seed Louisiana Tech, Marshall received an invite to the National Invitational Softball Championship and played in the Lynchburg, Va., Regional. Again Marshall fought its way into the regional championship game before falling to the host Liberty Flames. The Herd ended the season tying the record for most wins in a season with 42.

Coach Smith won her debut game for the Green and White with a 5-2 victory over UC-Riverside (Feb. 8) in San Diego, Calif. She earned her 400th career coaching victory with a 10-1 win against Presbyterian (Feb. 16). The Herd finished the early part of the season with a 17-6 record before diving into Conference USA action. Marshall was predicted to finish eighth in the preseason coaches' poll but battled through to a 17-7 record with the series win in 7-of-8 conference matchups. The Herd played well at home with a 13-6 record including two walk-off victories at the Dot in conference action against WKU and Louisiana Tech.

During the season, the team as well as individual players were ranked nationally in many statistical categories. By the end of the season Marshall was ranked in the top 100 in home runs (19th), shutouts (tied for 21st), slugging percentage (27th), on base percentage (40th), runs per game (45th), winning percentage (51st) and fielding percentage (97th). Individually Aly Harrell led the country in total walks (68) and combined free passes with 85 (68 walks and 17 hit-by-pitches). Sierra Huerta led the nation in hit-by-pitches with 30 which was also good for 12th most all-time in NCAA history. Freshman Mya Stevenson led all freshman across Division I with 20 homers. Marshall players in total ranked in the top 50 in the country 17 times by the end of the 2019 season.

The 2019 Marshall softball team broke or tied 15 team records and 15 individual records.

Smith, who sported a career record of 393-265 prior to coming to Marshall, led the Jayhawks to six consecutive 30-win seasons and back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 2014 and 2015 during her nine seasons at the helm. The 2015 campaign yielded the first 40-win season for the program in 23 years, the best start in school history for the second time in her tenure (12-0) and seven consecutive weeks in the top 25. Her 2013 team recorded the program's highest winning percentage (.680) in 21 years, broke the Big 12 record for batting average (.345), the highest mark in the NCAA that season. In 2012, Kansas had a 20-game win streak and, the year before, boasted an 11.5 game won-loss record improvement, the 16th-best turnaround in NCAA history. The 26-3 mark to open the 2011 season was also the best start in the program's history.

"I am extremely honored and excited to be a part of the Marshall family," said Smith. "There is such a strong history and tradition of success within the softball program and I am humbled to now be a part of that. I want to thank Mike Hamrick for this incredible opportunity for me and my son Cooper. I am eager to get to know the players and to get started this fall!"

At Kansas, she coached one All-American, one academic All-American, 20 All-Big 12 selections, 20 NFCA (National Fastpitch Coaches Association) All-Region selections, 50 All-Big 12 Academic Team honorees, three Big 12 Scholar Athletes of the Year and three student-athletes taken in the NPF (National Pro Fastpitch) Draft. The program also set single-season fielding percentage (2014, .979-second-highest nationally) and home run records during her time as head coach (60, 2011).

Prior to her time in Lawrence, Smith was an assistant for LSU for three seasons, where she helped the Tigers in winning the 2007 SEC Tournament and the Stanford Regional in the NCAA Tournament en route to 55 wins. LSU finished the regular season ranked third in the ESPN/USA Today poll. The following season, the Tigers picked up 44 wins on their way to a #9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament. During her tenure, she mentored two All-Americans and five NFCA All-South Region honorees.

Smith started the softball program at Western Carolina and posted a 41-20 record in WCU's inaugural season, earning 2006 Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors, while leading the Catamounts to the league's regular season title. That season, five student-athletes garnered first-team all-league acclaim, with another on the second team and two more were tabbed on the NFCA Southeast All-Region second team. She also coached the conference's 2006 Pitcher of the Year and Freshman of the Year. WCU broke the league's single-season home run record (81) that year, part of an explosive offensive season for the program (third in the nation in home runs per game, 14th in slugging percentage, 19th in scoring).

She also had assistant coaching stops at her alma mater North Carolina (2004), where she helped the Tar Heels reach the NCAA Tournament, and at Charlotte in 2003.

Her first head coaching position came at Young Harris College in Georgia, where she put up a 79-41 record over two seasons.

"We are very much looking forward to Megan leading our softball program," said Marshall Director of Athletics Mike Hamrick. "She is a proven winner and has a reputation for helping mold top-quality student-athletes. Our program is eager for her arrival in Huntington."

Smith, who is an NCAA Division I Softball Committee member, graduated from North Carolina in May 1999 with a Bachelor of Arts in Physical Education and Recreation Studies. She received her Master of Science in Human Performance and Sport Studies from Tennessee in August of 2000.

A Walkertown, N.C. native, Smith and the late Paul Buske have one son, Cooper.

Smith and assistant coach Corey Lyon, married on May 22, 2020.

In memory of Emileigh Cooper (three photos to the right), who the Herd Family tragically lost in February of 2016, the Marshall softball team established the Warrior Award in 2017, that will be given out each year to the player that best personifies the qualities that Cooper held as a member of the Herd from 2012 to 2015.

As a senior in 2015, Cooper roared to the forefront as a leader for Marshall, batting .434 and being named second team All-Conference USA. From walk-on to All-Conference performer, Cooper knew how to get her teammates fired up and ready on game day..... (Pause in video for WEARE clip)..... In 2015, players were told to pick one word that held significant meaning to them and Cooper chose "Warrior". Her identity statement for that season was "I am a confident Warrior, I am the fire in C-USA that will always keep burning." On March 13, 2015 at Dot Hicks Field, Cooper came to plate in the 10th inning with Rebecca Myslenski at first, as Marshall was locked against WKU in a scoreless game. Before Emileigh went up to the plate she turned around and looked at teammate Elicia D'Orazio who was due up next and said, "Don't worry about getting ready. I'm going to end this now." Two pitches later she did just that hitting a walk-off home run. A Warrior.

Rebecca Myslenski won the inaugural Warrior Award in 2017 as a member of the MUSB Family who stuck through major injuries, being medically disqualified, and stayed with the team taking on a major role with the staff. Myslenski played sparingly during her freshman and sophomore seasons due to knee injuries. However, when she was in the game she could be relied on to make the tough plays, especially while playing at first base. She had to stop playing after her sophomore year, but instead of leaving the team or Marshall, Myslenski came back as a student assistant and helped the Herd over the next two years in many capacities. She still kept a great attitude despite not being able to play, and did whatever she could to help MUSB.

Madi Marshall won the award in 2018. The senior showed grit and fight while struggling through some health issues to always have a great attitude and could keep the team in great spirits. Madi's electric personality was well in line with Cooper's as Madi was able to learn from Cooper during Madi's freshman year in 2015. She kept a smile on her face even when not in the starting lineup and again would do whatever was needed to help MUSB. Madi played second base, outfield, came in as a pinch runner or a pinch hitter. She hit the only home run of her career as a grand slam against FIU during senior weekend in 2016. Madi also set a team record as a pinch runner, scoring a run in 10-straight contests in 2017.

Hayden Ellis earned the honor in 2019. The senior catcher battled through adversity on and off the field. She stuck with the Herd backing up Taylor McCord at catcher through her first three years. As a senior, Hayden fought her way back from a shoulder injury that took away most of her junior season to have a career year. She set career-highs in every category and even had an explosive weekend against Louisiana Tech at home. During the Saturday doubleheader, as the Herd celebrated its Strikeout Cancer Day, Hayden belted three home runs in the two games with her father in attendance who had going through his cancer battle. The next day, on Emileigh Cooper Day, she was given the Warrior Award on the field before the series finale.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic cutting the season short after just 25 games, no Warrior Award was given in 2020.

Blakely Burch won the award in 2021. The redshirt senior fought back from a serious knee injury that ended her 2020 season early, even before it ended for everyone else. Blakely came to Huntington in the summer of 2017 after spending her freshman season at USC Upstate. Over the next four years, Blakely developed into a leader on and off the field, and came through clutch in many situations. She starred in the 2019 setting the team record for triples in a season with seven. Blakely had two walkoffs in her career with one in 2020 against East Tennessee State, and a 2-run double to defeat Louisiana Tech on, none other than Emileigh Cooper Day. She worked her way back from surgery, while also finishing school, planning a wedding and getting accepted into the nursing program at Jacksonville. Her fire and passion was always present on the field and in the dugout, and will forever have a permanent place in Marshall Softball History.
