HERD NOTES

Surging Herd Rallies Again to Extend Streak

Win marks longest conference winning streak since 2008-09 season

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – Out of every timeout, the Marshall women's basketball team chants in unison the word, "Together!"

Together, the Herd (14-9, 7-5 Sun Belt Conference) has won five in a row, defeating Georgia State (10-15, 4-8 Sun Belt Conference), 50-45. 1,186 saw Marshall rally from a 16-point second half deficit to win in the team's annual Sweetheart Clinic game.

"We show grit and toughness late in games, that is part of who we are," head coach Tony Kemper said. "It is always good to win, when you are deep in the season, it is not always going to be easy, obviously this one wasn't. But to still find a way to be good when it matters is an important skill that we have."

Junior Abby Beeman scored a team-high 16 points, converting on a pair of free throws which finally got the Herd over the hump with 2:20 remaining in the game. The 45-44 advantage was Marshall's first since the opening minute of the game.

After a GSU free throw tied the game, Beeman's and-one with 21 seconds gave the Herd a lead it would not relinquish.

Marshall outscored the visitors, 19-6 in the final frame, making all 10 of its free throws attempted in the fourth. Redshirt-junior Mahogany Matthews contributed to two of the free throws, while locking down defensively with two blocks, a steal, and a team-best six rebounds.

The Herd rally started with full-court pressure in the third, with Roshala Scott and Sydni Scott forcing a pair of GSU turnovers leading to easier looks inside.

The layups were needed after a stingy Georgia State defense held the Herd to 16 points in the first half, four in the first ten minutes.

With the win, Marshall now holds its longest conference winning streak since the 2008-09 season.

Marshall remains home next week, starting with a home contest against Coastal Carolina. The game Thursday against the Chanticleers will be at a special 11 a.m. tip for Education Day.

Resilient Herd Finds Way To Come From Behind Again

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – For the fourth time this season, the Herd overcame a double-digit deficit for a win.

Marshall (13-9, 6-5 Sun Belt Conference) trailed by as much as 14 early and nine in the second half, before using a 47-point second half to get a 72-64 victory over App State (8-14, 4-7 Sun Belt Conference).

Junior Roshala Scott scored a game-high 22 points - 18 of which came in the second half. Junior Abby Beeman finished with 13 points, nine rebounds, and nine assists. During Marshall's four-game winning streak, she's averaging 13.0 points, 8.3 assists and 6.8 rebounds per game.

"That's a big win! It doesn't matter how you start it. If you finish like that, it feels good," Marshall head coach Tony Kemper said. "Obviously, we have to work on (our start). I don't know why we started so lethargic, but as this team has done, we found a spark and some energy and it got us over the hump."

Beeman's emphatic triple in the fourth quarter capped off an 14-4 run to turn a three-point deficit into a ten-point Marshall lead.

App State had led for 30 minutes of the contest with only one lead change. Once Marshall took the lead, it never changed back.

The Herd rally started with plays on both sides of the court from Mahogany Matthews. The redshirt-junior led the defense with four blocks, while grabbing a team-best three offensive boards.

dribble, I have someone there to clean up the paint," Beeman said. "Mo gets so many blocks every game, so it makes it a little easier on us guards."

Before the Marshall rally, the Mountaineers started quick, scoring 18 of the game's first 22 points. The Herd trailed by nine after one, and by eight at the half, before the second half flurry.

The Herd's eight point win came on a night in which the team celebrated Diversity/Inclusion/Pride Night.

Marshall looks for its fifth win in a row Saturday at 1 p.m. against Georgia State. The contest will be the annual Sweetheart Clinic game, championing girls and women in sports.

Herd guard eclipses 1,000 career points, scores 25 in Marshall's 71-59 win over Arkansas State

JONESBORO, Ark. – Marshall's Roshala Scott made the most out of a trip to her home state of Arkansas on Saturday.

Scott scored 25 points while also notching the 1,000th point of her collegiate career as Marshall's women's basketball team completed a weekend road sweep with a 71-59 win over Arkansas State at First National Bank Arena in Jonesboro, Arkansas.

"I thought today was our most complete performance in a while," Marshall coach Tony Kemper said. "They got us on a couple offensive rebounds and a couple time in transition, but I thought we were pretty solid throughout the day."

With the win, Marshall (12-9, 5-5 Sun Belt Conference) earned its third straight victory while also completing its second road sweep of the league season.

Unlike Thursday's win in which the Herd rallied back from a double-digit deficit, Marshall set the tone offensively from the start with Scott seizing control early.

Scott, a native of Earle, Ark., came into the game needing nine points to hit 1,000 for her career, but wasted no time in getting the mark in front of friends and family in attendance.

The junior guard hit her first five shots from the floor, including a jumper from the foul line with 4:46 left in the first quarter to hit 1,000 for her career.

"I thought Ro was pretty special," Kemper said. "It's neat that she got her 1000th point back home. She had a lot of people here today. We're certainly a different team when we've got her fully locked in and playing well. She wasn't great the other night and we talked a little about bouncing back. Obviously, if she had 25 tonight, that's a pretty good bounce-back."

Scott's jumper came during a 17-5 run in which the Thundering Herd built a 12-point lead in the first quarter.

Marshall led 39-34 at halftime and fended off each rally attempt from the Red Wolves. The key to keeping the Thundering Herd in front was the strong play of Abby Beeman on both ends of the floor.

Beeman nearly had a triple-double, finishing with 14 points, 12 rebounds (matched a career-high) and seven assists while keeping the Marshall offense in a good flow.

"I thought we attacked offensively pretty well and made shots throughout the game," Kemper said. "It was pretty steady and stable."

Marshall kept Arkansas State in check on the glass, staying virtually even in the rebounding battle, which was a big focus coming into the contest.

Defensive success was also attributed to the job done on Arkansas State guard Lauryn Pendleton, who came into the contest averaging 12.3 points. Pendleton finished with two points on 1-of-7 shooting.

Samantha Lafon finished with nine points and seven rebounds – four offensive – for the Herd.

Marshall returns to action at 6 p.m. on Thursday when it starts a four-game homestand against Ap-

Herd Women Rally on the Road to Defeat ULM

: Third victory of the season for Marshall women's basketball when trailing by double digits in the second half

MONROE, La. – The Thundering Herd did it again, rallying from down as much as 13 in the third quarter to win on the road at ULM, 61-59. It was Marshall's third win when trailing by double digits in the second half this season.

Abby Beeman scored a game-high 17 points with eight assists, including the game-winning dish to Mahogany Matthews. Matthews finished with the game-winning score and game-sealing block to win the game for Marshall (11-9, 4-5 SBC).

Freshman Sydni Scott scored a career-high 15 points, making five triples on a night where the Herd struggled to score early.

"It's good to win on nights where it's ugly," Marshall head coach Tony Kemper said. "Emma Merriweather really changed the game, she was tough inside, really changed a lot of our shots and made it hard to go inside. I thought we played with more gusto and swagger in the second half and found a way. Did just enough good things to make it a happy plane ride up to Jonesboro."

Marshall shot just 19 percent in the first half, falling into a 13 point halftime deficit. ULM's (6-14, 2-7 SBC) transfer center had eight of her game-high 15 rebounds in the first half.

The Herd thundered back in the third, outscoring the hosts 24-11 out of the break. Five consecutive points from freshman Meredith Maier followed by a Beeman triple brought MU to within two. A Peyton Ilderton three would give the Herd the lead before the Warhawks tied it heading to the fourth.

ULM reeled off nine in a row to regain a sizable advantage midway through the fourth, before Coach Kemper's comeback artists went to work again. Seven straight points from Sydni Scott brought Marshall to within one.

Trailing by one, a Matthews block, followed by the go-ahead layup by the York, Pennsylvania native, succeeded by another block and sealing free throws gave the Herd the crucial road victory.

The Herd travel to Arkansas State for a road contest against the Red Wolves. Tip is at 3 p.m. ET.

Marshall Women Win Thriller Over SBC Co-Leader Southern Miss

One point victory ends five-game skid for Herd

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The Marshall women's basketball team would not be denied Saturday at the Cam Henderson Center.

Entering the final quarter down five, the Herd thundered out to an 18-4 run to flip the deficit into a nine point lead. Marshall held on for the 53-52 victory thanks to a clutch steal from junior Abby Beeman in the frantic final seconds of the game.

"Everyone around the program knows we've lost a couple in a row," Beeman said. "We were finally close enough in the fourth quarter to where we could finally make a push and get the lead. We weren't going to let that go. Even though we were stagnant there at the end, we found a way and I think everyone is pretty happy about that."

The Herd are now 10-9 overall and 3-5 in conference play.

Southern Miss (13-6, 6-2 Sun Belt) entered Saturday as one of three teams tied for the league's lead at 6-1. The Golden Eagles held a 13-10 advantage after one, and a 28-21 lead at the half. Head coach Tony Kemper liked the defensive prowess the team showed to stay in the game.

"I thought we were really tough against a physical, tough team who is going to get the ball to the spots that they want to get them to," Kemper said.

Marshall outscored USM 11-9 in the third. Leading scorer Roshala Scott tallied five points in the quarter. Roshala has hit double figures in all 19 games the team has played this season.

HERD NOTES

After shooting 33 percent through three quarters, Marshall made its first six field goals in the final frame, including triples from Terah Harness and Meredith Maier. Maier, the freshman forward from Fairmont finished with a career-high 11 points.

The co-leaders trimmed the Herd lead down to two, before Roshala Scott made a contested layup to put Marshall back up four with over a minute to play. Following a USM three, it was Scott's offensive rebound which gave Coach Kemper's side the ball with six seconds remaining.

On the ensuing in-bounds play, Marshall would lose the ball with the Golden Eagles taking possession. USM's Chardai Watkins drove to the paint in the waning seconds before Beeman's heroic steal sealed the victory.

"I have no idea how Abby got that ball, but she did," Kemper added. "Sometimes, it finally breaks and you get a (game-winning) play...We were resilient and found a way. Abby has got really quick hands."

Marshall heads to Louisiana next to face ULM Thursday at 7:30 p.m. ET/6:30 p.m. CT

Troy's Torrid Shooting Downs Herd

Scott's career-high 29 points not enough as Marshall falls by 10

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – The Herd women's basketball team dropped an 87-77 result to Troy Thursday evening at the Cam Henderson Center

The Herd are now 9-9 overall and 2-5 in conference play.

Roshala Scott set a new career-high with 29 points with 10 made field goals. Abby Beeman finished with 19 points and a team-leading five rebounds.

"Defensively, you can't win giving up 87," Marshall women's basketball coach Tony Kemper said. "I think it starts with that. When we were playing well, this was a good defensive team. We weren't that tonight, but once again, they shot the ball very well for any team. They were over 50 percent from 3-point range on quite a few attempts."

The Trojans (11-7, 6-1 SBC) entered the game as the nation's leader in rebounds per game. Early on, Marshall kept the visitors in check on the offensive glass, with Troy obtaining just five in the first half.

Marshall trailed by two after the opening quarter with Scott scoring eight points in the opening frame.

An 8-2 run in the second quarter capped by a Mahogany Matthews layup gave MU a three-point lead midway through the second. Troy would finish the opening half on a 14-7 run to take a 40-37 lead at the half.

Troy controlled the third quarter, out-scoring the Herd, 27-11, to seize control. Rebounding was crucial as the Trojans grabbed 12 boards with five second-chance points to distance themselves from Marshall.

"I thought we started well, but physically, we got pretty muscled in the third quarter," Kemper said. "We have to find a way to adjust to that and find ways to get stops."

Marshall fought through the fourth, out-scoring Troy by nine in the fourth with Beeman scoring 14 of her 19 points in the final period.

Marshall returns to face Southern Miss at 1 p.m. on Saturday from the Cam Henderson Center.

Fourth Quarter Dooms Herd Women Against ODU

Marshall rallies from 12 down, but struggles late in 63-56 loss

NORFOLK, Va. – Marshall's women's basketball team could not overcome a tough fourth quarter in a 63-56 loss to Old Dominion at Chartway Arena in Norfolk, Virginia, on Saturday afternoon.

With the loss, Marshall falls to 9-8 on the season and 2-4 in Sun Belt Conference action.

"ODU doesn't get beat here a lot," Marshall head coach Tony Kemper said. "Seven (points) in the fourth quarter isn't enough. We got bogged down a bit and let them hit a couple of shots."

Abby Beeman led Marshall with 15 points and 10 rebounds while Roshala Scott added 14 in the loss.

Old Dominion (12-7, 4-2 SBC) out-scored Marshall, 16-7, in the fourth quarter to earn the win after the Thundering Herd hit just two of its 11 shots.

Marshall took a 49-47 lead to the final quarter after coming out of the halftime locker room strong – an aspect that Kemper had emphasized recently.

After trailing throughout the first half, Marshall went on a 12-0 run to take a 45-40 lead in the third quarter. Terah Harness scored five consecutive points to end the run – all of which came after offensive rebounds by the Herd.

Marshall trailed by as many as 12 points in the first quarter after the Monarchs scored the first 10 points of the game.

"We didn't start very well and that's something we have to figure out," Kemper said. "We can't continue to dig insurmountable holes."

As the case has been in recent games, though, Marshall found its groove and rallied back with Roshala Scott scoring seven points during a 14-2 run that saw the Thundering Herd tie the game at 17-all on the first possession of the second quarter.

Marshall returns to action at 6 p.m. on Thursday when the team hosts Troy at Cam Henderson Center.

HERD NOTES

Herd Women Fall Short at Coastal Carolina

Large deficit too much to overcome in 65-61 loss to Chanticleers

CONWAY, S.C. – Marshall's women's basketball team saw a massive fourth quarter rally fall short in a 65-61 loss against Coastal Carolina at HTC Center in Conway, South Carolina on Thursday.

Marshall (9-7, 2-3 SBC) out-scored Coastal Carolina, 27-14, in the fourth quarter, but the Chanticleers hit some clutch free throws down the stretch to escape with the win.

"It was not the night we wanted," Marshall head coach Tony Kemper said. "Obviously, we started really slow and that's something we have to figure out. We didn't have a lot of fight in the first half. I was proud that they figured out how to center themselves and they did dig back pretty strong, but that's not good enough. We can't get down like we keep doing."

The Thundering Herd trailed by as many as 23 for the second-straight game, but cut that deficit to four points on a jumper by Abby Beeman with 1:01 remaining.

Beeman led Marshall with 15 points and seven rebounds in the loss for the Herd. Roshala Scott also hit double-figures with 11 points.

Shannah Wright also finished with the top effort of her Marshall career, hitting all four of her field goal attempts while scoring 10 points and adding seven rebounds off the bench.

"She's playing really well and earning more time," Kemper said. "She was a big spark tonight (in the comeback) and she had some really tough baskets in there."

Coastal Carolina (7-9, 2-3 SBC) won the contest despite getting just three bench points in the contest. Aja Blount led the Chanticleers with 18 points while adding nine rebounds.

Marshall returns to action at 4 p.m. on Saturday when the team travels to take on Old Dominion at Chartway Arena in Norfolk, Virginia.

Marshall rallies from 21 down, but Eagles prevail; Redman with career-high 18

Box Score

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – Marshall's women's basketball team scored 30 points in the fourth quarter, including a lengthy run to take a brief lead, but Georgia Southern left Cam Henderson Center with an 83-80 win in an exciting opener to a Saturday doubleheader.

Marshall (9-6, 2-2 SBC) took an 80-79 lead with 52 seconds left in the game after Roshala Scott hit a driving layup in traffic to produce the Herd's first lead of the contest. However, Georgia Southern (11-2, 3-1 SBC) knocked down four free throws following that basket to get out of Huntington with the win.

"There's no moral victories," Marshall head coach Tony Kemper said. "That doesn't work. We've moved this (program) in a fashion that we have to take care of home court."

Scott finished with 24 points in a balanced effort for the Thundering Herd, who trailed by 21 points with 5:43 left before scoring the game's next 22 points to turn the game around.

Scott scored nine of her 24 points during the run and Abby Beeman added seven of her 12 points in the five-minute stretch to fuel the rally. Aarionna Redman and Meredith Maier each added 3-pointers during the run also.

For the second straight game, Redman found her rhythm from the floor to help Marshall get into offensive flow.

Marshall trailed by as many as 23 early in the third quarter when Kemper inserted a new lineup in search of a spark. Redman responded, scoring 11 of her career-high 18 points in the third quarter to right the ship for the Thundering Herd.

"I thought that when I subbed five-in and five-out, the group that came in leveled our effort," Kemper said. "I thought that was important."

Redman's career-high 18 points came on 7 of 10 shooting and led a Marshall bench effort that produced 31 points in the contest.

Despite being out-sized, Marshall also finished with 42 points in the paint – 20 of which came in the fourth-quarter rally.

Marshall returns to action at 6 p.m. on Thursday when the Thundering Herd meets Coastal Carolina in Conway S.C.

Late Marshall Rally Falls Short Against JMU

Herd women return to action Saturday against Georgia Southern at 1 p.m.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – Marshall rallied from a 12-point deficit late, but James Madison held off the Thundering Herd in a 74-67 win on Thursday night in a battle of the Sun Belt's undefeated women's basketball teams at Cam Henderson Center.

Head Coach Tony Kemper's side will look to regroup quickly before facing Georgia Southern at 1 p.m. on Saturday. Kids 12 and under will receive free admission for that game. The first 500 kids ages 12 and under will also receive a free book, courtesy of Dolly Parton's Imagination Library.

"We obviously, I think, could've played better," Coach Kemper said. "We were 24 of 70 and I've really been on them lately about being better when we're out here working on game-speed shots and their process and focus when we are doing that. I think our offense was out of sorts all night."

THE OPPONENT - COASTAL CAROLINA

Scouting the Chanticleers

Marshall and Coastal Carolina alike have found success since the two sides met last month. Coastal is 6-6 in Sun Belt play, winning five of the eight they have played since the Herd visited Conway.

CCU features leading scorer Aja Blount, who averages 16.3 PPG and is an 89.7% FT shooter (1st in the Sun Belt-14th in NCAA). Blount scored a game-high 18 points when the teams met in January.

Following the Chanticleers' 65-61 win over Marshall on Jan. 12, Coach Kemper's side has won five of its last seven.

THE OPPONENT - TEXAS STATE

Scouting the Bobcats

Texas State enters the week at 16-7 and 8-4 in Sun Belt play. The Bobcats are 4-4 in true road games. TSU is led by head coach Zenarae Antione, who has coached the Bobcats for the last 12 seasons.

The veteran Bobcats provide strong defense, allowing just 57.4 points per game.

Graduate student Tianna Eaton is third in the conference in blocks (32) and blocks per game (1.39). Graduate guard Kennedy Taylor is the only player in the Sun Belt that has more assists (140) and assists per game (6.1) than Abby Beeman.

Marshall and Texas State have never met in women's basketball.

HEAD COACH TONY KEMPER

Sixth season • @CoachTonyKemper
Career Record: 76-85 (Overall)
7-5 (Sun Belt)

Fort Hays State '01

Tony Kemper enters his sixth season as the head coach of the Marshall women's basketball team after being elevated to the position in March of 2017. Kemper had previously been an assistant coach with the women's program for five seasons before taking over.

For the 2021-22 season, Kemper brought in some great talent from the transfer portal in graduate transfers Aaliyah Dunham and Brianah Ferby who starred for the Herd. Dunham led Conference and ranked 18th in the NCAA in assist-to-turnover ratio at 2.47. Her national ranking was the highest by a Marshall player going back through 2009-10. Dunham also ended the season named to the C-USA All-Academic Team. Ferby provided an offensive spark from the outside and hit many clutch shots. Ferby lit up Florida Atlantic for 15 of her season-high 20 points in the fourth quarter as Marshall came from behind for the road win.

Kemper helped the Thundering Herd navigate the COVID-19-riddled 2020-21 campaign, which yielded second-team All-Conference USA acclaim for Savannah Wheeler and a signature home win over perennial league stalwart Rice in late February.

Kemper led the Herd through a great improvement in his second season. He has brought some added excitement to the program as the attendance average for Marshall rose from 641 in 2016-17 to 1,153 in 2018-19. Kemper's 2019 recruiting class also ranked in the top 60 nationally.

After going 9-20 overall and 3-13 in C-USA in 2017-18, Marshall was predicted to finish 13th in the Conference USA 2018-19 preseason polls. Instead, the Herd rolled out an 8-win improvement overall and 7-wins better in conference play finishing 17-15 and 10-6 in C-USA, securing the No. 6 seed in the tournament. The 10 conference victories were the most C-USA wins for Marshall in program history. Following the conference tournament, the Herd earned a berth in the WBI, just the fourth postseason trip in program history. Marshall won its first round game 67-64 at Davidson before falling in the second round.

Following the 2021-22 season, Kemper increased his overall record to 62-76.

During the 2018-19 season, Marshall was fifth in the conference in points per game (67.3) and led the league in 3-point field goals made per game in conference action (8.9). The Herd also saw an increase in defensive production as Marshall was ranked 13th in C-USA in field goal percentage allowed in 2017-18 but jumped up to fifth in 2018-19. The Herd saw senior Taylor Porter honored twice as a Conference USA Player of the Week including once after breaking the Marshall single-game record draining 10 3-pointers in the senior day win over FIU.

Senior Shayna Gore was named First Team All-Conference USA. Gore was previously honored as Second Team All-Conference USA in 2017-18. The senior guard capped off her prestigious career under the guide of Kemper as just the third player in program history to score over 2,000 points (2,081). Her name can be found all throughout the record book including the program's all-time leader in 3-point field goals made with 303, more than twice the previous record of 146.

The Herd reached some other milestones in 2018-19 including earning a three-overtime victory at home against Louisiana Tech (Jan. 24). It was one of three overtime victories in 2018-19 after going 131 games – second-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time – without even playing an overtime contest. Marshall also earned its first win over Charlotte in the last 10 meetings (Jan. 5) and the team's first ever win over Middle Tennessee (Feb. 16) as Marshall was previously 0-8 against the Blue Raiders.

seven college graduates over the last two years. The team's overall grade point average in 2017-18 was 3.23 and climbed up to 3.28 in 2108-19. His players have been honored 18 times on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better) and 11-time recipients of the C-USA Academic Medal for maintaining a GPA of 3.75 or higher.

During his first five seasons at Marshall as an assistant coach, Kemper has assisted in rebuilding a program that progressively increased its win total over the first four seasons - from 9 to 11 to 17 to 21 wins in the 2015-16 season. That 2015-16 win total was the most for Thundering Herd Women's Basketball in 29 seasons and, for the first time in school history, yielded a first-team All-Conference USA student-athlete for Marshall in Leah Scott.

He helped lead Marshall to two of only three postseason berths in the program's NCAA history, including its first postseason win in 2014-15 (WBI) and WNIT berth in 2015-16.

Kemper has also been heavily involved in the Thundering Herd's recruiting and academic success, helping sign the 34th-ranked class in 2017 and its group in 2015, which came in 52nd.

In the classroom, the program has placed 28 members on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.0 cumulative GPA or better) and three more were given the Commissioner's Academic Medal (3.75).

Kemper came to Marshall from Central Arkansas, where he coached with now-former Marshall head coach Matt Daniel for three seasons. At UCA, Kemper helped the Sugar Bears to their first Division I conference title and three seasons of at least 21 wins. His tutelage of inside players helped gain two Southland Player of the Year honors and a Defensive Player of the Year.

Before joining the women's staff, Kemper served as an assistant coach for the Central Arkansas men's basketball program for four years.

Two professional players emerged from UCA during those seasons -- the leading scorer in Portugal's Proliga pro league in 2011, Nate Bowie, and professional center Durell Nevels.

Prior to UCA, Kemper was an assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kansas) Community College - one of the nation's most successful junior college programs.

At Hutchinson, he oversaw day-to-day operations and directed the Blue Dragons' strength and conditioning efforts while also serving as a mathematics and physical education instructor.

The Logan, Kansas, native also held the head coaching spot at Quivira Heights High School in Bushton in 2003-04, guiding QHHS to a No. 1 seed to the regional tournament.

His coaching career began in 2002-03 as an assistant at Hill City (Kansas) High School. Kemper received a bachelor's degree in finance from Fort Hays State University in 2001 and a BBA in Business Education in 2003. He also earned a master's degree in organizational leadership from Fort Hays in 2008.

Kemper and his wife Sandra, a professor at Marshall in the Communications Disorders Department, live in Huntington with sons Brayden and Landry and daughter Jolie.
